Antique Safe in Bursar's Office Looks Like Washing Machine But It Hasn't Been Cleaned Out Yet

by LUCY TUCKER All of you girls that have been jealous of the girls in Mr. Woodmore's outer office, because they appear to have a Bendix washing machine to rinse out a blouse or so when they have two or three minutes of time on their hands, are jealous without just cause.

It is a very old safe and was originally sold by a slick salesman, Mr. Ben Williams of Nashville, to a bank in Woodbury.

Pattern For The Future

The United States has been at peace for five years now. Just five short years and we again are faced with the prospect of war.

The question is "Are we in a fixed pattern?" Or for that matter, "Is the whole world following a plotted course?"

Just what has brought all of this about? Perhaps the average Russian regards American as just as much the aggressor as we do the Soviet Union.

And what is the role of the Average Citizen? Do we sit back calmly and plan for a future which may never come?

We believe in America and the American way of life. We know that it's the best in the world today, but is five, ten or even twenty years of peace worth the lives that it is costing us in our present pattern of world affairs?

Another member of MTSC chosen to be listed among the ranks of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" is Myrta V. Tennyson.

Myrta was born in Lewisburg and attended Marshall County High School. While there she was an outstanding member of the Economic Club, reigning respectively as its secretary and president.

MTSC claimed Myrta in 1946 and will give her up to her destined future in June of this year. She will leave here with a major in social science and education and a minor in English.

Our lass has been an active student here at "the finest," for in 1948 she held the position of secretary of the FTA; this year she is president of the Student Christian Union; she is a member of the Beta Club and is a past member of the Saundarian Society.

The petite black-haired lady has a liking for all sports, but allows swimming to lead the list. Designing clothes is another of Myrta's favorite pastimes, although farm life beats all the rest.

Teaching is Myrta's chosen profession and she has already had some experience. In 1949 she taught in Verona Elementary School. Her students made up the third, fourth and fifth grades and were taught all subjects by the CO-ED of this edition.

Our ED of the week is none other than the man at the receiving end of the practical joke of the year, Ernest Pellegrin, alias "Curly."

The story goes that Ernie was required to have his hair set in order to portray the part of Robert in the recent play, and so off to the "beauty salon." Instead of setting his hair the beautician(?) donated a cold wave. . . Don't worry, Ernie, it rather becomes you.

Back to business—Ernie was born in Richmond, Virginia and attended elementary school in his home town, Plainfield, New Jersey.

While at CHMA, "Pell" was given the honor of being the first Senior class president from North of the Mason-Dixon line in over a decade.

Ernie is a sophomore here at "the finest" and is already displaying an ardent interest in dramatics. He is a member of the Buchanan Dramatic Club and has appeared in three productions.

President Smith Gets Invitation To UN Meet

Q. M. Smith, president of Middle Tennessee State College has been invited to attend the third United Nations Institute, sponsored by New York University, the United Nations and the UN Educational, Scientific and Cultural organization at Lake Success, New York.

The institute will be held February 23 and 24. Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, chairman of the UN Trusteeship Council, Benjamin Cohen, assistant secretary-general of the UN and Sir Rasmaa-gani Mudaliar, representative from India to the Social Economic Council, will be the principal speaker at the Institute.

Some three hundred American educators have been invited to participate in the Institute.

Elementary School Principals Elect Irvin H. Thomas

On Saturday, January 28, elementary principals of sixteen counties met on the MTSC campus, and organized the Murfreesboro District of the Middle Tennessee Elementary Principals Association.

The Association will meet periodically throughout the year to discuss problems that are common to all elementary schools. In preparation for the Southeastern Conference of Elementary School Principals meeting which will be in Nashville April 20-22, the local group will hold a meeting here at MTSC on Saturday, February 25.

The following teachers were elected to the Executive Committee: Jerry Farley, Williamson County; Lacy Gibbs, Lawrence County; Frank Schubert, Lincoln County; Joe Ingram, Grundy County; and Joe F. Wilkes, MTSC.

TOWN TALK

Bud Miller and June Carter are certainly permanent fixtures around here since they weathered their recent difficulties.

Must be serious between Bobby McKnight and Faye Jenkins. He takes her to church every Sunday now.

Noticed Kenneth Shipp is still taking Hawking 401. What's the matter, Shipp, can't you pass that course???

Seen everywhere is that Boreome Foursome. Eleanor McKnight and Epps Mathews, Sue Stubblefield and Carl Ferrell.

Wonder if Hubert McCullough will ever find himself a girl?

Monte "The Great Lover" Kennedy seems to have deserted the South for the North in the form of Jean Pellegrin.

After playing "off again-on again," Jim Bell and Janie Nelson finally got back together. Only trouble is now Jim has gone to Florida.

Well, Gilbert Shearon finally started dating the dormitory girls and now he just can't decide which he likes best.

After a year in Alaska, Rabbit Floyd just went crazy when he saw all the women out here. He dates a new one every night.

Well, that's all we know. These town people are a close mouth bunch. If you know any news, drop by and give us an ear full.

Lanier, Holden Win Canasta Tournament

Both Lanier and Jack Holden, pasty students of MTSC and residents of Murfreesboro, won the three-day canasta tournament which was held in Murfreesboro and concluded February 11.

Runners-up were J. H. Edelman and Knox Pitts of Shelbyville, Tennessee.

The winners were presented antique soup aprons. Consolation prizes were two canasta sets.

The tournament was sponsored by the women's auxiliary of Rutherford hospital for the benefit of the hospital's expansion program.

Club Organized Here on Campus

Students here at the college have organized a Canterbury club under the sponsorship of the St. Paul Episcopal Church. These students meet each Sunday evening at five o'clock. They prepare their own supper and have three hours of fun and recreation.

Officers of the club are: Fred Rogers, president; Dick Duncan, vice-president; Claire Tolly, secretary and Sue Lyon, treasurer.

The Canterbury club is not composed of Episcopal students but is open to anyone. The club will sponsor a square dance February 21, in the rectory of the church. The dance will be free and everyone is invited.

If you are interested in attending any of these meetings the girls will be furnished transportation by Claire Tolly and the boys will contact George Wilkinson.

Gilbert O. Aaron is living in Cumberland County. He is principal of the local school.

MEET MTSC MASTERS

Following the trend of the last edition, the Master's column would not be complete without a member of the English Department faculty.

Miss Calcott was born in Norfolk, Virginia, and received her first degree, the B.S., from the State Teachers College, Farmville, Virginia, in 1924.

While a college student, Miss Calcott was associated with many different clubs and organizations and held outstanding work in the literary field.

DR. EMILY CALCOTT now centered around her new home on Airport Avenue here in Murfreesboro. She spends most of her excess energy and ambition working on the garden and doing various other phases of work connected with settling a new home.

Our deep thanks to Miss Emily Calcott for her splendid teaching and for choosing MTSC as her "home." May you remain here for many years to come.

Our male Master of the week is another member of the social science department, Mr. Robert Corlew.

Mr. Corlew was born in Dixon County and attended Charlotte High School there. In 1941, he ventured to Austin Peay and remained there for two years. He then attended Washington University for a year and once again came back to Austin Peay to receive his B.S. degree in 1945.

Along with the NEA and the TEA, Mr. Corlew is a member of the Southern Historical Society, and the Tennessee Historical Society. He is now working on a county history and in June the Tennessee History Orderly, written by Mr. Corlew, will be published.

RAIDERS TO FACE COMMODORE GRIDDERS NEXT FALL

ALONG THE SIDELINES

By JIM LEE

SIDELINE SIDELIGHTS

The stage was set for the slaughter . . . The little polytechnicians had come to State to see their flying Eagles outclass the league leading Blue Raiders . . . The cheerleaders were all decked out in their cutest white sweaters and skirts and orange T's . . . The OVC underpups had gained a win over Marshall to the surprise of all . . . All was well except for one thing, Charlie Greer wore his red sock and red tie and when playing time the boys and girls from the Poly school were ready to leave, orange T's and all. Some of them went back to their school and some who lost face were found in the river the next morning . . . WHY? The eagles lost, they had their little tail feathers plucked . . . Ain't it a shame!

ONCE OVER LIGHTLY

Coach Brown is the man who went out and played golf the day before the Marshall game which TPI won . . . Wonder if he went "Snipe Hunting" the day before he brought his Little OVC team down to play the Raiders, or maybe he has just taken up Canasta as a pastime and couldn't get his heart into the game worrying about those red threes . . . One TPI student, Paul Crick, stated that the Eagles were going to do the Raiders what Murray did, he didn't say when, it is possible that he meant in about 1933 . . . Orchids to Harry Gupton, Fuzzy Harming and Homer Belles who are among the top ten high scorers of the VSAC . . . and to Maxie Runion who made the shot that tied the game in the last seconds of play against TPI . . . met Billy H. Gilley at the game last week, wish I could have seen him after the game to help him with some excuses or maybe he doesn't need any help, he should be a pro at it now, they play SEC teams you know . . . Orchids to the members of the Buchanan Drama club who made "The Silver Cord" possible . . .

IDES OF MARCH

Here it is almost March . . . The Canasta Tournaments are in full swing . . . Baseball, Tennis, Track and Archery (if any arrows are left) are going to take their place in the life of the happy MTSC students . . . Love will probably blossom on the campus and all will be bearable if the people can stand their roommates and the faculty . . . We will have a new swimming pool to play in and a new gym with bowling alleys, all of these little things add to any college curriculum . . . Jhon L. will probably put the miners back to work when it gets too warm to use the coal, but all of this is life . . . Trying . . . Sickening . . . Intolerable . . . but mighty hard to beat . . .

BIRTHDAYS

A couple of nice fellows had birthdays this month . . . Both of these men have done some pretty nice things for some of us, and we are sure that all of you appreciate it . . . we are sure that all of you join with us in saying Happy Birthdays George and Abe! . . . Be seen ya and remember waiting till you get to be 80 to start reading the Bible is just like crammin' for finals . . .

Ping Pong

The girls ping pong tourney has been completed with Flavil Ragan, a member of the Science team, emerging as the winner. Twenty-two girls, composed of representative from each club, participated in the tourney.

In the semi-finals, Miss Ragan edged out a 21-18 win over Lib Aaron as Millie Jo Gray defeated Josephine Mansfield 21-17. In the final match was Ragan vs. Gray. Ragan was victorious once more as she down Gray 21-14 to win the championship crown and the right to the title of MTSC's "Miss Ping Pong Queen" of 1950.

Morehead And APSC On 50 Roster

Middle Tennessee State College will enter competition with SEC teams next fall when the Raiders meet the Vanderbilt Commodores in the Vandy stadium on September 23. The MTSC athletic committee approved Coach Charles Murphy's request for the game last Friday noon.

The Vanderbilt game may become an annual affair. Members of the Raider squad were almost unanimous in approving the game.

The game is now set for September 23, which conflicts with the Millington Naval Base game. The local athletic heads are seeking to have the Millington game moved back to September 16 or up to November 18. It is rumored that LaMarr College in Beaumont, Texas has offered to fill the November 18 date with a game that will take the Raiders 900 miles to the Gulf Coast for an inter-sectional contest.

Two other significant changes have been made in the Raider schedule. Maryville, which asked to be relieved of further games with the Raiders, will be replaced by Austin Peay, a strong and natural rival for the Raiders. Morehead College of Kentucky (which last year beat Murray 21-0) will replace Arkansas State College.

The schedule next year will be the most ambitious a State team has attempted. There are no "breathers" on the schedule and at least four teams on the schedule will rate superior to the Raiders in newspaper ratings in spite of the fact that the 1949 MTSC team was undefeated.

The schedule for 1950 at present reads:

- September 16, Millington Navy (here)
- September 23 Vanderbilt (here)
- September 29, Milligan College, (here)
- October 7, Union University (here)
- October 14, Austin Peay (here)
- October 21, Morehead (here)
- October 28, ETSC (here)
- November 4, Florence, Ala. (here)
- November 11, Murray State, (here)
- November 18, Open
- November 30, Tennessee Tech (here)

MAXIE RUNION SHOOTS AGAINST EAGLES

Big Maxie Runion, Raider guard, shoots for two against the Eagles of TPI. Captain Fuzzy Harming (No. 20) is the other Raider shown in the picture. The Raiders emerged the victor 54-53.

Greermen Down OVC Team To Close Out Home Stand

Demonstrating the most spirited offense of the current season MTSC scored in the first two seconds and the last three seconds to nip Tennessee Tech in the last home basketball game of the season last Tuesday night.

Behind Cook, Carden and Smith the Eagles came back to whittle down the Blue's lead until, with seven minutes left to play Downing went into the basket for a two pointer and was fouled as he shot. His free throw put Tech ahead 44-43. Ballew scored from the 17 foot line and the Raiders took the one point advantage. Carden scored for Tech and Harming tied it with a charity foul at 46 all. Smith missed a foul and Cook was injured when he tripped over Maxie Runion. The foul was missed by Tech and Ballew seized the rebound and was away for a field shot. Smith missed another foul and then Belles fouled Downing who flipped the toss. Carden whittled the Raider lead to 49-47 and then Maxie Runion stole the ball as Langley attempted to dribble around him and was away all the way down court for the goal that gave the Raiders a 51-47 lead with two minutes to go.

Downing came right back with a long one from the corner followed by a foul on Smith that gave him two shots, both of which he converted. With the score tied at 51-51 and Tech in possession of the ball out-of-bounds Griffin was free for what looked like the winning goal with only 50 seconds to play. Homer Belles missed the only foul shot he failed to convert all evening with 34 seconds left to play and threw the ball away on the toss in. However Harming was fouled in the mad scramble for it and converted his shot with 14 seconds left to play. A long pass out over the man-to-man defense of Tech was grabbed by Runion who came charging down court.

left. Pivoting free from his guard Maxie set for a split second and then pushed a deep one hand shot that froze 1800 fans until it broke the mesh at the bottom of the net.

The difference in the two teams appears on the foul chart. The Raiders were "hot" from the foul line for the first time this season, registering 16 out of 23. Belles sunk eight of these in a row. Tech was able to garner but 9 out of 16 donation efforts.

MTSC (54) TPI (53)
Harming (12) Carden (6)
Gupton (9) Griffin (11)
Belles (12) Smith (3)
Ballew (10) Cook (16)
Cone (1) Langley (2)
Subs: MTSC—Runion (10) TPI Johnson (10), Downing (14).

Twelve Lettermen Pace Stickmen

Twelve lettermen will form the skeleton around which Coach Durward Stowe will build the 1950 Blue Raider baseball team. red Grider and Douglas Cone were elected captains of the team at the end of last season to lead the team this year.

James Ballard, James Charlton, and Jack Sullivan will be the lettermen returning to the mound and will be aided by Jimmie Awalt, Thomas Lewter, and Bob Veach. The loss suffered by the graduation of Fred "Pretty Good" Gebhardt and Howard Busby, two left-handers, will partly be compensated by the new men out for pitcher.

Behind the plate will be Fred

Major Bill Reynolds Oregon '40 Pilot-Professor, U.S. Air Force!

Bill was an all-round athlete. He chose football as his favorite sport, made the varsity teams at Pomona Junior College and also at the University of Oregon.

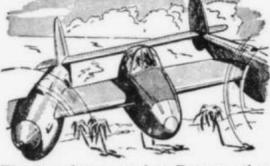

A Theta Chi, Bill enjoyed campus social life. Found that it eased the pressure of rugged athletics and his heavy study schedule in Personnel Management.

Upon graduation, Bill chose a future in the Air Force. He "flew" his first Link trainer as an Aviation Cadet in 1940. By March, 1941, he had won his pilot wings.

The 1st Observation Squadron, Fort Riley, Kansas was Lieutenant Reynolds' first assignment. While there he met the future Mrs. Reynolds. They married a year later and now have two fine sons.

The Squadron moved to Panama, then to the Pacific. Bill advanced from pilot to operations officer to squadron commander. He came home a Major and qualified for a Regular Commission.

Recently commended for peacetime work—organizing and improving instruction techniques—Major Reynolds, a "Pilot-Professor", looks forward to a long and gainful career in the U. S. Air Force.

"Both faculty members and students are consulted in the early planning stages of each building and the majority of their suggestions have been incorporated in each building."

Mr. Smith prefaced his discussion with the statement that all college plants centered around three major features, (1) instruction, offices, classrooms, shops, libraries and laboratories; (2) recreation, and (3) domiciliary, including the cafeteria and student centers.

FIVE PLANNING ESSENTIALS

He pointed out that in school plant planning there were five essentials, classrooms, dormitories, gymnasium, library and heating plant. MTSC has all of these essentials already well developed—so future building plans will simply mean developing these into more adequate, convenient and beautiful areas.

Mr. Smith prefaced his address with a discussion of the background of modern educational institution buildings. The earlier universities were centered around a cathedral which developed the quadrangle plan. In America many of the earlier normal schools and smaller colleges were built as self-contained units, all essentials being located under one roof, he said.

illness, but she was advised by her doctors not to come back. When it was definitely known that she would not return, Mr. Edward Tarpley took over the directorship of the club. He was sponsor for the years after which Charles Lawrence became sponsor and held that position until the coming of Lane Boutwell in 1948.

Miss Buchanan recalled several of the plays which were produced while she was sponsor. Among others, "Lady Windemere's Fan," "Milestone," "Green Stockings," "The Importance of Being Earnest," and "Journeys End" stand out in Miss Buchanan's memory as being the most successful. It was after the production of "Green Stockings" that Miss Buchanan was presented with the wrist watch.

Miss Buchanan said that "Journey's End" was the most effective play produced while she was here. Two of the men who played leading roles in this play are well-known to MTSC students: Ed Bell, local author and writer for the Nashville Tennessean; and Albert Gore, Representative from Tennessee.

Miss Buchanan has always been deeply interested in the work of the Drama club, although ill-health has prevented her from participating in any of its activities for a good many years. She is well known to many Dramatic club members, for she has given several of them private lessons. Miss Buchanan feels quite proud, and justly so, of the advances the club has made from plays by literary societies to the full-fledged amateur group it is today.
