Blue Raiders Open Season With Jacksonville Friday Night

Six Hundred And Fifty Students Are Expected To Register For Fall Term

Twenty-Seventh Term of STC Gets Underway Today

Frosh Register Today, Upperclassmen Thursday

The 27th term of the State Teachers College, Murfreesboro, begins today. N. C. Beasley, dean of the institution, stated Monday that he expected between six and seven hundred students to enroll for the fall term.

The student body last year for the fall term hovered around the six hundred mark. The fall of 1936 the number went to 625. As Marie Engles, secretary to the dean, reckon, "Last year was an 'off' year so there should be a large group for classes this year."

Dorms Sold Out

Close to five hundred students are expected in today and tomorrow. Then, with those reports nglate, through next week, the total will increase. Even now the dormitories are like the cry of the old time medicine man, "Sold Out, Doc". There is a waiting list for each of the halls.

Freshmen Today

All freshmen are requested to register today if possible. First year students will be taken in two groups. The morning group will assemble at ten o'clock and the afternoon group at two. This mass registration will be used for the first time at STC this year. On past registration days the students have worked individually. It is thought by those in charge that by taking the students in a group much confusion and loss of time can be avoided.

Upperclassmen

Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors are expected to get their schedule made out on Thursday. They will follow the usual procedure of filling out their cards. Classes will begin Friday.

Miss Mary Currier Replaces Miss Frank In Home Ec. Dept.

One new face will be seen among the college faculty this school term as Miss Mary Currier assumes her duties as head of the Home Economics department. Miss Currier will replace Miss May C. Frank who is now at Pomona College in Claremount, California.

Miss Currier comes to Murfreesboro with several years experience as a college teacher. She was at the State Teachers College at Nebraska for seven years and also taught at Mississippi State College, Columbus, Mississippi.

She received her B.S. degree at the University of Tennessee and M.A. at the University at Chicago. STC and Murfreesboro welcomes her!

Proud, We Reckon

At the recent coaching school held at Vanderbilt University there were 52 coaches enrolled. There were many from out of the state, but of the total there were fourteen who attended STC in their training days. That is just about a third of the enrollment.

President Starts First Year At S.T.C.

Q. M. SMITH

Q. M. Smith begins his first term as president of STC today. When questioned by reporters on Sept. 1, the day he took office, President Smith stated,

"I shall never forget the first time I came into this building 27 years ago. Dr. R. L. Jones was president of STC then and I had a class under Dr. Lyon. Horace Jones was on the faculty then, too."

"State Teachers College has meant a great deal to me and so in coming here as president I feel a sense of duty."

Pres. Smith To Greet Freshmen In Chapel Today

Will Be Introduced By President Emeritus P. A. Lyon

This morning (Wednesday) P. A. Lyon, President Emeritus will introduce his successor and the institution's new president, Q. M. Smith, to the freshmen. President Smith is scheduled to make a short address to the first year students. Then Dean N. C. Beasley will introduce the faculty to the group.

Thursday morning at ten, all upperclassmen will gather in the auditorium for the purpose of meeting Pres. Smith.

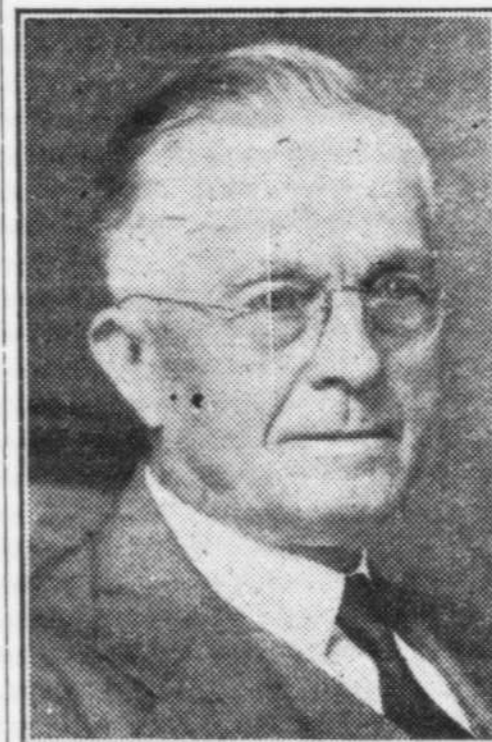

Friday morning, the school will be honored with the presence of the ministers of the various churches in Murfreesboro. It is an annual affair to have these gentlemen out to extend an invitation to the students to attend the church of their choice. Following the chapel period the student body will divide up into demonstrations where they will be met by a minister of their church.

Monday's chapel is also of the annual variety. The business men of Murfreesboro will be on hand to extend their welcome.

It is urgent that every one attend these programs.

Misses Margaret and Nancy Wy-song have returned to STC after a six weeks' visit to Atlanta, Ga., and a short visit to New York.

President Emeritus Has Been At S.T.C. 27 Yrs.

P. A. LYON

President Emeritus P. A. Lyon began his term under that title Sept.

1. However, with the opening of school today he is beginning his twenty-seventh year at STC.

Coming to the institution in 1911, the year the Teachers Colleges of Tennessee were organized, he assumed the post of Professor of Mathematics. His teaching experience before 1911 was: President Auburn Seminary, 1892-97; Supt. City schools in Shelbyville, 1897-1900; Principal Howard School, 1900-05; Supt. City Schools of Murfreesboro, 1905-11.

In 1921, Dr. Lyon became the sec-

Floydmen Enter Fray With No Hint Of Outcome

Rebuilt Team Sees Three Positions With "New Faces"

The Blue Raiders will kick off the lid to their 1938 grid season Friday night with the Jacksonville, Alabama, Teachers as their opponents. The game is scheduled to start at eight o'clock on Jones field.

For the first time since the season of 1935, fans will crowd to the stadium without a smattering of what to expect from the Raiders. For the past two years with the same men returning to the same positions, the strength of the team as well as the outcome has been fairly settled before each game.

In the line, the positions of center, and right guard are untried. And unless Wasson gets his knee in shape by the game the left tackle will come from the sophomore or reserve rank.

Though Coach Floyd has kept his opening line-up silent the probabilities for the night are:

LE—Hoffman
LT—Wasson or Sarver
LG—Thompson
C—Rutherford
RG—Threlkeld or Fry
RE—Robinson or Patty
Q—Hasty
H—Campbell
H—Smith
F—McCroy

This line-up is just as one observer sees the light. There are and will probably be plenty of changes in it. Wasson and Threlkeld have been on the ailing list and the men listed by their names in the above ditty are holding the first relief jobs for those positions.

As to the end posts, Alt. Capt. Hoffman will care for his part "very well, thank you" as shown by his play the latter part of last season. On the opposition side of the line, Brownie Robinson and Elbert Patty seem to hold the advantage. The only trouble is that they seem to hold no advantage over each other.

Mac Rutherford will open his first varsity game at the center post. In the backfield, there are many men to chose from. The ones listed—

Know Your Alma Mater

The State Teachers College at Murfreesboro was created by the General Education Law of 1909. The institution started new. Unlike many normal schools, it had no institutional ancestor, no campus already developed to move into.

This law vested in the State Board of Education the duty of locating the newly created institution. It is believed that an unusually fortunate selection was made. Murfreesboro is approximately the geographic center of the State. It is easily accessible to all of its territory and offers unusual opportunities in helpful and wholesome living.

Murfreesboro

Murfreesboro is a town of 8,000 inhabitants. It is located near the center of Tennessee's far-famed blue grass area. Its streets are broad, well paved, and bordered by imposing trees. Its homes are modern and artistic. In point of church affiliation Murfreesboro leads the cities of its rank in the State. Murfreesboro is well situated in point of accessibility. It is thirty miles from Nashville, one hundred and twenty miles from Chattanooga, two hundred miles from Great Smokies National Park. It is directly connected by superb highways with all of Tennessee's major cities.

Literary Center

One of the notable battles of the Civil War was fought at Murfreesboro, and much that is reminiscent of the struggle is still preserved. Murfreesboro was the home of Charles Egbert Craddock (Mary Noailles Murfree). It is generally recognized as one of the literary centers of the State.

Murfreesboro has always played the part of hospitable host to the institutions located within its gates.

Rutherford County and Murfreesboro donated $180,000 with which to provide the initial equipment for the school. The bill which provided for the institution stipulated that the appropriation for the first two years might be used for buildings and grounds. This added $57,000 to the original $180,000.

Opened Sept. 1911

The normal school opened September 11, 1911, with a faculty of 15 and enrollment of 125. Before a year was completed this enrollment had increased to 347.

The purpose of the school was declared in conventional terms to be "for the education and professional training of teachers for the public schools of the State." The law further provided that the institution should have connected with it one or more practice schools in which should be taught all the subjects prescribed for the public schools of the state.

First President

R. L. Jones was elected first president. In September, 1919, President Jones resigned to accept the city superintendency of Chattanooga. P. A. Lyon was named as acting president. In September, 1921, President Jones returned to Murfreesboro as president of the institution. The following year he resigned to accept the superintendency of Memphis, at which time P. A. Lyon, dean and professor of Mathematics, was elected president, which position he held till September of this year when Q. M. Smith received the appointment as president. Dr. Lyon remains as President Emeritus.

In 1925 the general assembly authorized the maintenance of a state teachers college at Murfreesboro, Tennessee. In accordance with this authorization, the Middle Tennessee State Normal School became the Middle Tennessee State Teachers College. In 1930 this name was changed to the State Teachers College, Murfreesboro. The college grants the degree of bachelor of science to those who have finished the prescribed courses.

Enrollment

The enrollment of the college is about 600 for the fall and winter quarters. In the spring and summer attendance is approximately doubled. Most of the public schools of Middle Tennessee start in July and August and run for a term of eight months. This has given occasion for organizing a fifth quarter which runs concurrently with the second half of the spring quarter and the first half of the summer quarter.

The State Teachers College at Murfreesboro hold membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the American Association of Teachers Colleges, the Tennessee College Association, and the Southern Inter-scholastic Association.

It has provided more than thirteen hundred graduates for service in the public schools of Tennessee, and has assumed material influence in all of the State's major activities.

Three Items

There are three items listed in this department's "Things That Should Be Done" file. Two of these would make fine projects for some wide-awake school club while the third is a job for the administration.

One of these three should be done before the game Friday night. That is to clip the hedge at the corner of Main Street and the Boulevard. A patron of the school or a citizen of Murfreesboro leaves the game and comes to a stop at the mentioned corner. Not being able to see, the driver pulls out and right into the path of an oncoming automobile. That is the way accidents happen. A stitch in time saves nine.

The projects under the "needed" column are: first—erect a sign on Main Street telling tourists and passers-by that this is the State Teachers College, second — The name of the institution should be set up in an arch over the main entrance to the grounds. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

See That You Do

The State Teachers College of Murfreesboro begins its twenty-seventh term today. It is materially speaking, composed of massive structures bedded on a carpet of blue grass and situated in the very heart of Tennessee. And on your first glimpse of the institution that is the impression you get.

However, on the second look these pillars of stone, vine bearded dormitories and white lanes of concrete will whisper with the wind the stories of your heritage as a student here, of the prestige that has been set up and what you are expected to do here.

Since that opening day twenty-seven years ago when there were only 125 students and 15 members of the faculty till today with 650 students and almost sixty members of the faculty, 1350 graduates have gone into the world to seek their fortunes and spread the name and their love of STC.

With each graduate there is a continuous story which has been silently written on tablets of memory over this campus. Some stories were of deeds of valor, of boys who answered the call of Uncle Sam in 1917, left their beloved Alma Mater never to return. Some stories led to themes of success, of lads and lassies who have climbed high in their respective circles. But some stories are of the beginning of things "not so good."

There is something that will get next to your skin before time writes "finis" to your schooling here. It is an unexplainable attraction. Whatever it may be, you will thrill at the singing of the inspiring "Hail STC All Hail," college Alma Mater.

Just how much the singing of the Alma Mater effects you will be an indication of how good a student you are. No chain is stronger than proverbial link and no country is stronger than its resources. The same goes here. The present student body has inherited a good name from those who have gone before. They expect that name to be held high in honor, spirit and scholarship. . . . See that you do.

Groggy Grid Gossip . . . . Unknown Writer Gives Lowdown On Blue Raiders

Editors Note:—

The following article was sent to the Side-Lines, postmarked Nashville. There was no signature and the copy was type-written. The editors would like to know who wrote it, too.

The bells are ringing! There is a rush in the hall! There is a poor, green freshman in the wrong classroom. These are a few of the familiar instances which tell us that school has at last started.

The heroes of the hour are naturally those big he-men whose most important object in life is to pounce upon a poor innocent pigskin—in short the football squad. For three months in the year these men are definitely in the limelight.

Their outstanding plays (if any), their likes, their dislikes all go together to make "campus chatter". The most important phenomena in their lives is their heart throbs—yes, my fair damsels, these boys all have hearts. Would you ever guess it by looking at them?

If youse co-eds will all settle back for a second, I'll give you a little of the low down which has been told to me.

We wonder if Captain "Jabbo" Thompson will be seen around with Mary Lou or if he will be taking trips to Nashville to see his "one and only". Oh, Jabbo, give the local gals a try anyway.

We don't even wonder about Alternate Captain, Hoffman— We all know that his spare time will be spent in Watertown—Tough luck, girls.

We would like to know whom Wason will pick out this year. He has a mighty powerful line to you'd better watch your step. It really does listen mighty good—I know.

The girls are still waiting for Charlie Miller to be bitten by the proverbial love-bug. He is really one more swell person, and what I like most about him is his likeness to Frank Dowling — of course he out favors him.

The days of miracles never cease! When I heard that Shorty and Betty had ceased to have anything in common, I was really shocked. It seems that Betty isn't wasting a whole lot of time getting back in circulation as she has been seen on several occasions with "Squat," Hasty— Oh, well, we're betting that when school gets back in full swing Betty and Shorty will start all over again—So much fun to make up.

Brownie Robinson really did take the entire school by surprise when he ups and gets married. He, Froggy, and Bob Warden strictly belong to the "Hands-off" group as they have already picked their better-halves". So cast your eyes elsewhere, gals!

Meachum and Rutherford and Sarver just can't be bothered with the weaker sex, but I still think they can be booked—so don't get disappointed, just always get your man

Sam Smith has a million girls all around, but Corky seems to be the type who can take on and handle a million more.

Carl Yates was pretty thoroughly booked last year by Ann Shapard, but Ann is now in nurse's training in Nashville— What's the saying about out of sight?

I just wonder if the frosh this year will cause us many heart beats as they did last year? You know we had some "rats" last year that would have made Cassanova himself look like a piker.

Charlie Greer, for example, wasted no time in picking himself a regular girl last year. She won't be back this year so there leaves one good opening.

Presley is one of those strong, silent men who seem to be causing Mary Lou no little trouble. By the way he also is a good football player.

Elbert Patty lost his heart last year, and at present it is still possessed by a Lawrencebury Miss—nice going, Elaine!

We hear that Sarvis and Juanita are still going strong—Even after three months separation—new record for both of them.

"Mackie" the mustang" really is a great lover at heart, so we hear, but he just can't find his type.

"Polly" Frye has a girl back home, we hear. Also he is another one of those boys who don't have a lot to say. Now here's a good chance for some of you girls who talk a lot. Your problem is to make Polly listen to you.

Tommy Hudson's main interest in life is "Doe" Goodman, and she is really capable of holding her man. So that's that!

John Deal has, I think, the looks of the football squad, and I imagine that he will cause no little worry among the girls. Make your bow, Stony.

Baker is the craziest boy that's been up here in somtime. He comes under no special type. I can't figure him out or make any speed either—So one of you girls try! I think his only love is Bobo, who I might add is really going to be missed up here this year.

Oh, I almost forgot to say "No trespassing" as far as "Ug" McCrary is concerned. First, because he also is permanently booked and second because he has the mange. That is from the looks of his hair.

"Dome" Blair is another one of those great lovers. He really has a nice line of conversation, but I hear that conversation isn't his specialty.

Bill Patterson's main object in life isn't girls—it's his stomach. Any way I think he's still in love with his high school sweetheart. Am I right, Bill?

I don't know about the Raider backfield, but I believe their "line" will do all right.

Now girls, I've given you all the dope I know so line up against the wall and pick out your man—

Every girl for herself! Here we come, boys, ready or not—ed above have put in their appearance many times in scrimmage and seem to hold the spotlight at the present. Hasty and Campbell hail from the variety of "smaller" football players who deal in speed and elusiveness. Smith and McCrory are the men to do the blocking and line busting. McCrory came to STC in 1935, played on the championship team of '36 and is back after a lay-off of a year.

A second backfield with a good chance to start is: quarter—Hudson, halves—Warden and Meachum, full—Baskin.

Varsity Has Something to Crow About

Raiders Will Seek 22nd Win In Game Friday

Have Won 21, Lost 2 And Tied One Since 1935

Have Scored 382 Points To 130 For Their Opponents

When the Blue Raiders take the field Friday night against Jacksonville Teachers they will be trying for their twenty-second victory out of the last twenty-five games. They have lost only two games in three years and tied one.

During the season of 1935 the Blue Raiders marched to the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship via virtue of an undefeated season. Then after playing the part of a breather to Vanderbilt to the tune of 45-0 in the 1936 opener, they marched through the rest of the games undefeated to their second S.I.A.A. championship.

One defeat in the 1937 season cost the Floydmen the crown. That was to the strong Murray, Kentucky, group. That loss was the only conference defeat in three years. Leaving out the Vanderbilt tussel, the Raiders began the 1935 season with a new coach and some mighty fine gridsters to win eighteen straight games.

They have scored 382 points to their opponents 130.

The season of '35 was not the first year that STC had a football team. Not by a long shot. The present coach, Johnnie "Red" Floyd was given his nickname while playing on the football team of the Middle Tennessee Normal. But it was in that year that STC built a team that was feared by the foe. So much was that fear, that Coach Floyd had a hard time filling the 1937 schedule because coaches knew that Murphy, Troop, Smitherman, Hambrick and others were still on the varsity. The record that has been made by the Raiders during the past three seasons is not to be determined in points and victories, but we print them below for your information.

ond president of the institution, succeeding Dr. R. L. Jones. He held the position til September 1 of this year when he became President Emeritus.

"Jaybird" Hamblen, class of 1938, was a visitor to the campus on Saturday of last week.

Miss Lorene Neece, dietician Raider manager Boots Little and a group of gridsters were in Nashville over the week-end.

A number of varsity and frosh watched the Murfreesboro-Shelbyville game in Shelbyville Friday night.

Two Teachers Added At Training School

Miss Bernice Dillworth and Emma Lou Cox have been added to the faculty of the STC Training School. Miss Dillworth will teach the fourth grade while Miss Cox will be in the home ec department.

Miss Dillworth received the B. A. degree from the Alabama Womans College and the M. A. degree from Peabody. Miss Cox is a former student of STC. She received the B.S. degree here and has taught at Bell Buckle, Tennessee, and in the city schools of Florence, Ala.

joy and pride, yet I am humble before this great opportunity.

"When I came here in September, 1914, a poor, country boy, I never suspected that someday I would become president."

For the past eighteen years, Smith has been president of TPI at Cookeville. He was elected president of STC this spring to succeed retiring president P. A. Lyon.

It takes good things to make a good product. That's why we use the best ingredients a cigarette can have—mild ripe tobaccos and pure cigarette paper—to make Chesterfield the cigarette that smokers say is milder and better-tasting.
