Smith, Woodmore Seek Loan For Dorm Addition

Two members of the Middle Tennessee State College administrative staff, President Q. M. Smith, and T. B. Woodmore, brused, were in Atlanta, Georgia, April 20 to meet with representatives of the Federal Housing and Home Financing Agency in the first steps toward work on the new $500,000 addition to Smith Hall.

The MTSC representatives hope to arrange a $250,000 loan. The loan would match State funds allocated by the State Board of Education from the last General Assembly appropriation for State college building construction. The loan would be retired with income from room rentals.

The additions to the present residence hall would provide accommodation for 200 additional men students, one of the persistent bottle necks in the college's ability to meeting the housing demands from the area.

Tennessee Band and Orchestra Festival To Be Held At MTSC

On Thursday and Friday, April 25 and 26, the Mid-State Band and Orchestra Festival will be held at MTSC. The Middle Tennessee Band and Orchestra Association has asked the MTSC Symphonic Band to perform for this festival on Thursday. Featured in this concert will be Miss Shirley Vick, playing the trumpet solo "La Mandolinata," accompanied by the band. Other numbers will be "Toccata in D Minor" by Bach, "The Fairest of the Fair" by Sousa, and a novelty—description number, "The Teenagers First Driving Lesson." This concert will begin at 7:00 p.m. in the college auditorium, and the public and all students are invited to attend. At 8:00 p.m. the Midlanders Dance Band will play for a "get acquainted" dance for the visiting Middle Tennessee high school students.

The Chicago Symphony Brass Ensemble will give a program in the MTSC auditorium on Friday, May 3, at 8:00 p.m.

On Thursday, May 9, at 10:30 a.m. the MTSC Symphonic Band will present an assembly program for the student body.

The Symphonic Band will present the annual Spring Formal Concert in the college auditorium on Sunday, May 12, at 3:30 p.m. Featured in this concert will be four senior instrumental conducting students, Miss Catherine Ray, Miss Mary Heflin, Miss Jessica Nolen, and Mr. Basil Rigney. The public is invited to attend. Of great interest is the Starlight Concert given by the Symphonic Band at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, May 22.

The Varsity Choir will present the oratoria "Dona Nobis Pacem," by Vaughn Williams, on Sunday, May 19, at 4:00 p.m., in the college auditorium.

On Friday, May 24, at 9:00 a.m. there will be an Orchestra Concert in the auditorium.

Of special interest to all graduating seniors is the Baccalaureate Service which will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Sunday, May 26. Margaret Wright will be the organist. At 4:00 p.m. on Sunday afternoon will be the Spring Chorus Concert.

Ending the spring quarter activities for the music department will be the Graduation Exercises at 5:00 p.m. Friday, May 31. The MTSC Orchestra will have the program.

Dr. Belt S. Keathley was in Detroit, Michigan last week attending the national convention of the American College Personnel Association.

John Knies, sophomore from Old Hickory, is doing a nice job as sports columnist for the DuPont news newspaper.

Rayburn and Hood Recovering From Hurts

James Hood and William W. Rayburn, two spring quarter transfer students from the University of Tennessee, were injured in an April 9 accident at the intersection of North Tennessee Boulevard and Lytle Street.

The accident occurred when Rayburn's car went out of control and struck a tree just across the street from Monohan Hall. Hood, whose home is in Knoxville, sustained a scalp wound and went for aid. While he was gone Rayburn, who apparently had "blackout," left the scene of the accident and was not located for about 18 hours.

The mystery of his disappearance was solved when he "came to himself" in Crossville and telephoned relatives in Columbia. He will be hospitalized for about ten days. It is believed that he sustained head and chest injuries in the accident and had apparently walked some distance en route to Crossville as his feet and legs were swollen.

Lt. Don Jackson Goes To Paratrooper School

Lt. Don Jackson, editor of the 1956 MIDLANDER, was a visitor on the campus Friday. He has recently finished BIO school and on April 22 will enter four weeks of intensive training in the Basic Airborne School after which he will be sent to the Ranger Officers' Training School.

Following a month's leave in August, Jackson will report to Oakland, California for assignment to overseas duty in Korea.

Dames Club Name Leader, See Dancers

Riel Named Chairman At Asheville Meeting

Dr. Fran Riel, head of the department of health and physical education at Middle Tennessee State College, was named chairman of the college men's division of the Southern District of the American Association of Health, Physical Education Recreation, at the association convention in Asheville, N. C. April 4-6. Dr. Riel is at present serving as president of the Health and Physical Education Division of the Tennessee Education Association and has also been elected secretary of the Camping Section of the Southern District HPER Association.

Attending the Asheville meeting with Dr. Riel were Dr. Elbert Patty and Miss Buleah Davis of the MTSC health and physical education department staff. Bob Burkett of Murfreesboro Central High School and five MTSC student delegates also attended the meeting. Students from MTSC attending the convention were Glenn Shirley, Ray Hughes, Paula Baisch, Betty James, and Jean Paschall.

More than 1,000 attended the three day meeting from the 13 states that comprise the Southern District. The convention will meet in Louisville, Kentucky, in 1958.

"The program at Asheville was excellent," Dr. Riel stated. "We had some exceptionally outstanding leaders and authors in the field in attendance. Delegates from Tennessee numbered 102, second only to North Carolina, which has 190. This attendance seems to reflect the progressive interest Tennessee schools and towns are taking in health and recreation," he added.

Tennessee Boy Scout leaders recently paid tribute to the work of Dr. Riel when Al Furline, district scout executive from Lebanon, presented Dr. Riel with a bronze award in the form of a perpetual calendar, inscribed with the Boy Scout seal. The citation was for "outstanding service to the Boy Scouts of the Middle Tennessee District." Dr. Riel is in charge of leadership training for scout and cub scout leader.

TAKE TIME TO HURRY

Janet Lewis

What's the big rush? Hurry, hurry, hurry! We hurry to get to breakfast before the cafeteria closes; we hurry to our morning classes, and then we sleep through the first two. We bolt our lunches and are late for our one o'clock classes. We leave book reports until the night before they're due and cram for history tests at the last minute.

Let's stop and think a minute. Just what good is all this running about doing? If we eat too fast, we ruin our digestive systems. If we're late for classes, we ruin our teachers' digestive systems. When we complete an assignment at the last minute, we cannot really learn the subject matter.

Let's take time to think. Slow down and live.

MONOHAN MOANS

Nancy Houchin

Congratulations to Jo Anne Wright and Mary Frances Wright on their recent elections as senior council members.

Don't be alarmed if you see girls carrying buckets of sand and bottles of salt water. That's just to make Monohan Beach more realistic. The moans and groans you hear coming from Monohan are merely the gripings of the girls that are carrying around a petition to get an elevator installed. It seems that the climb to the sundeck is pretty wicked exercise, especially when the girls are loaded down the sun-tan oil, towels, sunglasses, comic books, cards, candy, sandwiches, cokes, pillows, nose and eye shades, blankets, binoculars, radios and phonographs, alarm clocks (time to broil the other side) and least but not last—BIKINIS.

We're a little late, but better late than never, so... congratulations to Mary Jane Morgan who was married in February and to our more recent bride, Betty Windrow.

A birthday party was given Wednesday night for Betty Sue Bettes by Jo Russell, Peggy Orr, Ann Tittsworth, and others.

Recently seen in Gatlinburg were Sara Jane McClaran, Anita Grayson, Mary Lynn Wilks, Carolyn Gonce, Jane Panter, and Mary Ann Holly. They had a wonderful weekend.

Also visiting, but to Kentucky Lake instead of Gatlinburg, were Nancy Turner, Mary Alice Cunningham, Ima Franklin, Joan Henshaw, and Lillian McCord.

Well, that's about all the news for this time, so I'll sign off. See you next issue.

Joe Evans Named On Martin College Staff

Joe L. Evans, former MTSC baseball player and 1955 graduate has been added to the faculty of Martin College at Pulaski, according to the announcement of Dr. J. Fort Fowler, president. He will teach in the science department.

Evans is the son of Judge and Mrs. Turner E. Evans of Lebanon. After receiving his B.S. degree at MTSC, he completed the work for the Master of Science degree at Vanderbilt University.

Mrs. Evelyn Turney and Mrs. Carolyn Holloway from Dean N. C. Beasley's office, attended the Tennessee Association of Collegiate Registrar's and Admissions officers in Nashville last week.

ROVING REPORTER

Frances McBroom

For a number of years there has been much discussion about lowering the voting age to eighteen. We thought that you would like to know what some of the students think about it.

Erna Freudenberg—I think that the voting age should be lowered to eighteen. If the boys are old enough to be drafted, they're old enough to vote.

Glendel Bryson—By the time a person reaches the age of eighteen, he begins to mature, and he thinks of going to college and into the service. If eighteen is the age for these things, I think it is time to vote.

Bruce McDonald—I think that eighteen is a good age to vote, because at this age people will begin thinking about voting, and they will know just as much about voting as a person of twenty-one.

Carmine Alexander—I don't think that the age of eighteen is a good age for a Republican, but it is time for the Democrat to cast his vote. At the age of twenty-one, one is usually more mature; therefore, this is a good age to vote.

Rosalyn Ward—A majority of the people at the age of twenty-one are more capable of voting than at eighteen. People have more interest in politics at twenty-one than at eighteen.

Don Brandon—I feel that a person of eighteen should be allowed to vote. If they're old enough to drive and have a drivers' license, they're old enough to vote. A person of eighteen probably knows as much about politics as a person of twenty-one.

Physical Fitness Meet Held On MTSC Campus

Third and fifth grade students from the Training School demonstrated some of the latest techniques for the health and physical education instructors from over the area meeting for in-service training clinic last Tuesday.

Dr. Francis Riel, head of the MTSC health and physical education department, Charles E. Kerr, MTSC alumnus who heads the State Department work in this field; Mrs. Ethel Trice, MTSC; Ben Plotnicki, of the University of Tennessee; Mrs. Burns Phillips, Training School health and physical education director; Dr. Elbert Patty, MTSC and Miss Buleah Davis, MTSC, were in charge of the clinic.

Party Line . . .

Holiday Spent In Gay Style By Eds, Coeds

One of the best parties we've been in the past few weeks was the cast and crew party given by Mr. and Mrs. Biffie Moore for the cast and crew of "Night Must Fall." Some of the folks we saw there were: Bob Smiddy... Dev Treanor... Wanda Tempenny... Joe Clayton... Granville Ridley... Ann Shofner... Dot Young... Shirley Minter... De Arnold Barnett... Madge Smith... Bruce Hancock... Bob Greeson... Marshall McKissick... Charlotte and George Gardner... and Dr. Robert Martin. We've heard that the group had oodles of fun playing Charades.

One of the most popular homes in town is that of Sandra and Donald Duckworth. Seems like some of the crowd is dropping in for coffee nearly all the time. Familiar faces around their living room are those of Ed Baldwin... Bill Rayburn... Jack Smith... Tommy Patton.

Jean Rick recently entertained about a dozen friends at her home with a buffet supper outdoors. Saw George and Charlotte Gardner cooking the steaks over a charcoal grill... watched Bob Greeson supervising the before dinner entertainment. Among other faces spied there were those of DeArnold Barnett... Marshall McKissick... San and Don Duckworth... Don Duckworth entertained the group afterwards with a dissertation on some of the characters from Athens.

Another party we heard about recently happened after a study party at the home of the MTSC intelligentia. Decorations for the evening were several picturesque arrangements of beautiful spring tulips.

Madge Smith organized a wonderful party recently just on the spur of the moment. Madge was her usual gay, wonderful self and kept the group laughing all evening. Understand she and Bobby Sherril had quite a discussion about tourists attractions in Germany.

Bruce Hancock returned from Montgomery, Alabama, last week with stories of several wonderful parties over the week end, topped off with a gay fishing party before his return to our campus.

Some of the MTSC students invaded Nashville over the long week-end for a series of parties. Billy Frank Murphy and Sherrie Chumbly were judged the best dancers on the floor. We've heard that this party was one of the best of the year. Billy Frank and Sherrie both have been dance teachers, so no wonder they took the spotlight.

Since this quarter is the end of the school year, it calls for celebrations, and the students here aren't letting us down. The AND club is having a Weiner roast soon... and most of the campus clubs are planning banquets... plus all the private parties being planned. Understand a great party is being planned to take place at Center Hill soon. Will let you know more party news next issue. Till then, "Here's To you!"

Miss Windrow, Mr. Dye Were Married April 9

Miss Betty Windrow, secretary of Dean Howard Kirksey, and Julian Dye, a junior at TPI, were married April 9 at the Glendale Baptist church in Nashville with Dr. Douglas Johnston officiating. The only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. John Odum of Nashville.

Mrs. Dye is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Windrow of Eagleville. Mr. Dye is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dye of College Grove.

Mrs. Dye received her B. S. degree from MTSC in June 1956, and Mr. Dye is scheduled to graduate next year with a degree in agronomy.

Mrs. Dye will continue as Dean Kirksey's secretary through the summer.

ZUT

Alton Ellis

Well fervent, faithful readers, today's Local Guide for the NKVD has been sent to the presses via Carrier Pigeon. You see, I have been threatened with dire warnings of ill will, due to the late "IC" awards.

The other day as I attempted to interview Jack Fearo at the Musack Building, I heard a sound from over my shoulder and turned to see Cathy Hooray brandishing a double-barreled baritone with which she apparently intended to ring me. Leaping into a nearby room via a flimsy, cheap plaster, partitioning wall, I made good my escape.

I did see Jack later. As you know, Jack Fearo tools a pearl-plated, sweet-sounding saxophone and is a composure of assorted sorts. His latest hit is a rather patriotic rock and roll entitled "A Blue Spurt Coat, and Red and White Consternation."

The life of a columnist is a hard one, and is a part of every day's diet. Just the other day, as I was running about the Coffee Shop trying to collect wits, ten guys bulled their way in and said they were the rest of the football team that Tillman Harris had sent over to pay a social call. They looked like a social call-paying football team—their uniforms were similar. These guys were wearing inverted pockpie hats, diplomatic raincoats, and the usual pants, socks, and shoes. Each had a snub-nosed 38 in the left hand, stiletto between the teeth, and brass knucks on the right hand. Fortunately, a fuse blew and the lights went out. I did too, through the window, and hid in a drain pipe until Harris's boys decided to call it a day.

Before these ten busting boys blew in, I had been having a lively discussion with Johnny Minnow, the fishy president of the A.S.B. (Amalgamated Shiftless Bookies). He has been the recipient of some very interesting science-fiction letters from a source in the Carolinas known as the cultured Psychology group. If you see him looking quickly around or suddenly climbing a nearby rose bush, you can be sure he has overheard the conversation of some "spoon-men."

Just the other evening as I was trying to get a story lead at the Monohan Mansion I felt something whiz by my head and heard it slam into the wall, hilt deep. Taking cover behind the reception desk, I peered around a drawer and saw MTSC's Muscular Girl readying a sub-machine gun. I made use of another window and again got away. (They never seem to have doors where I can use them!)

I naturally did not get to see the object of my Monohan visit, Barbara Featherston. This devastating blonde bomb shell is well-known for having turned many a steel-hearted man into nothing more than a nibbling idiot. According to reports from her Fan Club at Myth Hall, upon entering a Froxen Food Locker in Nashville she completely defrosted the entire unit! I hope to get a story from her later on.

Next issue: Startling Revelation of Crime and Corruption in High Places, and a Report on the Local Gestapo.

LYING LYONS

Frances Smith

Congratulations to Mary Jo Collier and Janet Lewis who were recently elected to serve on the Women's Dormitory Council for next year.

Best wishes to Betty Johnson who has found her lucky man. Congratulations to Willie!

Halelujah! Freshman and sophomore girls now have eight-thirty, off-campus permission instead of the old eight o'clock.

We are glad to have Shirley Minter back in the dorm.

Best wishes to the former June Beal, who is now married.

Joan Ferguson spent a few days with her sister, Myra. Cynthia Johnson was an overnight guest of Mary Jo Collier and Nancy Willis. Lucy Wood visited Jo Anne Russ and Frances Smith.

Let's not let spring fever get the best of us. Keep attending classes.

Town Topics . . .

Weddings, Parties Busy Local Society

Another day; another elopement! This time it was Martha Deter, a sophomore at Central High School, and Larry Smotherman, a freshman here at MTSC. Martha, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Francis H. Deter, and Larry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lillard Smotherman, were married in Georgia on April 9.

Quietly and impressively solemnized at the First Methodist Church on April 12 was the marriage of Libby Leuthold and Gilbert Shearron. Mr. Shearron is an alumnus of MTSC and is currently principal of Mitchell-Neilson Elementary School here in Murfreesboro.

That lucky gal! Judy Adam is continually being honored at showers, parties, and luncheon. She was in the party spotlight on April 13 at a luncheon given by Betty Hilliburton and Mrs. Howard Bell. At Sullivan's Restaurant.

Another "Murfreesboro-town" has a new sparkler. Carol Oliver and Billy Heath, also of Murfreesboro, recently became engaged. Carol and Billy plan to be married when Carol finishes school. Billy is presently employed at a Murfreesboro business.

Joe Nicholson, a former MTSC student, is now studying industrial arts at Southwestern Louisiana Institute. He enrolled there last fall and is making an excellent record for himself. Joe was home from school during the Easter holidays.

We'd like to welcome a new student to MTSC this quarter. Wayne Mosley, a Murfreesboro veteran, has been making friends fast around the campus. Everyone is certainly happy to see such a friendly fellow here at school.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Cheney of Alexandria, Virginia, are now proud parents of a baby daughter. The baby, born on April 12 weighed 7 pounds and 11 ounces, and has been named Sara Allen. The parents both received degrees from MTSC.

Several "local yokels" took advantage of our recent holiday. Mary Anne Shearin was a weekend house guest of Susanne Sanders of Atlanta, Georgia. Mary Anne also enjoyed parties at the Sigma Nu fraternity house on Georgia Tech campus. Patricia Parker journeyed to Knoxville for the holiday. She was weekend guest of Mrs. J. F. Robbins, Sr. You can almost hear the faint toll of wedding bells when a fellow takes his "steady" home to meet "Mama". Right, Findley?

Sarah Follis enjoyed a visit at the home of Peggy Towery in Greenbrier, Tennessee.

All in all, it proved to be an exceedingly enjoyable week-end for many of the Murfreesboro students.

Craddock Club Views Dramatists

Craddock Study club members meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed Morris, heard a group of Middle Tennessee State college drama students in excerpts from a recent play, under the direction of Biffie Moore.

Program subject for the meeting was "Revival of the Round"—the round being a type of theatrical production copied from the Greeks and Romans in which the audience in seated around the players.

Mr. Moore explained that there is less expense involved in this type of production since props and make-up are not necessary. It also requires more strength of character from the players, he said. Mr. Moore spoke of the work of Glenn Hughes of the University of Washington, Seattle, and Margo Jones, University of Texas, in this field.

Four scenes pointing-up Mr. Moore's remark's were played by Charlotte Akers Gardner, Shirley Minter, Joe Clayton, Ann Shofner, Dot Young and DeArnold Barnett.

Raiders Remain Unbeaten On Cinders, Topple TPI

Trackmen Lower Local Records In VSAC Competition

Loosing what Johnny Havlicek, Nashville TENNESSEAN sports writer, called "Middle Tennessee State enviable depth of its track team" the Raiders established themselves as a definite threat for the VSAC championship as they downed two conference foes here Thursday afternoon in a triangle meet. It was their third victory of the season against no defeats.

The scoring was MTSC 95, Union 51, and David Lipscomb 17. Raider runners pulled down three school marks and tied another in the triumph. Ed Carson broke his own school records in the hurdles and James Frost did likewise in the 440 and 880.

The Raiders, running without their sprint ace, Marvin Jinnette, who was ill, won 10 of 15 first places, with Ed Carson breaking his own school records in both hurdles and James Frost doing likewise in the 440 and 880 events.

Eddie Truett, Union's one-man track team, was the meet's top scorer, with two first places, three seconds, and a third, for 21 points. His field event sidekick, Bill Murphy, scored 13 points with two firsts and a second. Between them, with 15 points, was Carson who added the broad jump title to his hurdling achievements.

For good measure, MTSC produced its athletic wonder, Jerry Hurst, who decided about noontime to enter his first meet for the Raiders. He won the javelin throw and the high jump. Milner Carden captured his automatic victory in the two-mile run, equaling his Ohio Valley conference record of 10:23.

Carson pulled the Raider 220 low hurdles mark down from 25.5 to 25.2 and the 120 high hurdle record from 16.1 to 15.5. Frost lowered his 440 mark to 51.5 and 52.3, and his half-mile mark from 2:05 to 2:03.9.

Miss Murfreesboro Contest Underway; Miss Hicks Enters

First MTSC co-ed to get into the annual "Miss Murfreesboro" contest sponsored by the Jaycees is Dorothy Hicks, MTSC sophomore from Smyrna.

Active in music and dramatics at MTSC Miss Hicks, an oval-faced brunette beauty with wistful smile, is a native of Dearborn, Michigan.

Bob Reed paces the field in the mile run. Razo and Gibbs are other MTSC runners shown pressing TPI's Palmer as they finish the first lap of the mile run.

Ed Carson, who was top point man in the victory over TPI is shown stretching past the 21 foot mark in his second place broad jump effort. He won the 220 low hurdles and the 120 high hurdles for the men in blue.

Popularity of track at Middle Tennessee State College this year is vividly demonstrated in this shot of the nearly packed west stands on the stadium in the meet with TPI Tuesday. Charming co-eds in bright spring dresses and the scores of Bermuda shorts appearing on the manly (?) pedal extremities of the vain males proved spring was really here.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hicks. While a student at Smyrna high school she won a 4-H public speaking contest and an essay contest sponsored by the Veteran's of Foreign Wars auxiliary. She has also won several talent contests. Other MTSC coeds are expected to enter the contest to be held at Central high school May 17. The winner of the Miss Murfreesboro contest will be awarded a $100 scholarship and a $100 wardrobe by local merchants.

Relay Team Provides Victory Margin Against Murray State

Middle Tennessee State College's track team staged a dramatic finish here Tuesday to edge Murray State's thinclads, 61 1/2-59 1/2, in a dual meet between two Ohio Valley Conference schools.

The Raiders' mile relay team of Larry Askins, Herman Ryman, Marvin Jinnette and James Frost played the heroes role, collectively.

The quartet sped the distance in 3:36 when the victory was a must. It was the last event on the program and a win would decide the meet winner. The Raider foursome met the challenge.

Jinnette was the individual high point man in the meet, totaling 16 1/4 markers with firsts in the 100 and 200-yard dashes, high jump and a leg on the mile relay team.

Raider Netmen Enmesh Belmont

The Raiders' tennis team captured four out of six matches in their recent encounter with Belmont College.

Joe Buchanan and Bobby Sranford, number one and two men on E. O. Hawkins' tennis team, won their matches quite easily. Buchanan had trouble in his first set and lost it 6-8 but came back strong to take the match by beating Draper 10-8, 6-2 in the last two sets.

Cranford didn't waste any time in polishing off his opponent as he took two fast sets 6-1 and 6-3.

Anderson and Brown were the other two MTSC winners by winning easily from their opponents 6-4, 8-6 respectively.

Bob Hallum and Max Horton of MTSC fought diligently before bowing to Carmen and Stooke of Belmont.

The doubles were omitted because of playing conditions.

Eddie Thomason of the department of agriculture was the April 13 judge of dairy cattle for competition among the Future Farmers students from 41 counties. This is the second years the MTSC specialist has been invited to work the Spring Hill dairy cattle show for FFA teams.

Middle Tennessee will host Western Kentucky today in a baseball game at the college diamond. Starting time is 3 p.m.

Dickie Baugh (0-0) is slated to hurl for the Raiders who have a 2-3 record for the year. It is a Ohio Valley conference game.

Florence State will be on the new diamond Thursday. On Friday a dual track meet with Western Kentucky starts at 2 o'clock.

Raider Tennis Team Loses 6-1 To TPI

Tennessee Tech's tennis team kept its record clear of defeat last Friday with a 6 to 1 decision over Middle Tennessee State's Blue Raiders.

MTSC picked up its single point when Charles Anderson beat Ted Fore, 6-4, 6-4.

The results:

Singles

Earl Dewditt (T) beat Joe Buchanan 6-0, 6-3; Crutchfield Brooks (T) beat Max Horton 6-1, 6-3; Charles Anderson (MTSC) beat Ted Fore 6-4, 6-4; Tommy Hall (T) beat Bobby Cranford 6-2, 6-3; Ronnie Chancey (T) beat Bob Brown 6-2, 6-1.

Doubles

Eagles Edge Golf Team By One Point

Sparked by Bill Brauch's 75, the Tennessee Tech gold team stroked its way to a 9 1/2 to 8 1/2 victory over Middle Tennessee State Friday.

Brauch's 75 was good enough to spill David (Doc) Tant in the No. 1 match, 2 to 1.

Bill Brauch (T) beat Doc Tant, 2-1; Jack Monroe (T) and Jimmy Rager (MTSC) tied 1 1/2-1 1/2. Tennessee Tech won foursome, 2 1/2 to 1 1/2.

Ronald Hickman (T) and Richardson Smith (MTSC) tied 1 1/2-1 1/2; Marty Graham (MTSC) beat Bill Waller 2 1/2-1 1/2. Foursome tied 1 1/2-1 1/2.

Raiders Clip Eagles 10-6

Middle Tennessee State's baseball team, hitting behind its giant pitcher, Jerry Hurst, whacked out a 10 to 6 victory over Tennessee Tech last week in Cookeville.

Hurst pitched five innings and did not give up a hit, while his mates exploded for six runs in the third inning at the expense of Pitcher Red Gaylor.

Tech picked up two runs in the sixth off Bill Kemp, and four more in the eighth, but MTSC locked it up with three runs in the top of the ninth.

The Raiders didn't hit hard, but seven Tech errors paved the way for most of their runs. Gaylor was succeeded on the Tech mound by Bobby Elkins, who pitched creditable ball for four and one-third innings, fanning four and allowing only one hit. Hurst struck out five in his collegiate baseball debut.

RAIDERS VIEW COMMODORE VICTORY WITH GLOOM

Bob Reasons, Vic Francescan, and Roy Crabtree, MTSC sports statiscian, (third from left), Glenn Shirley vie in gloomy looks as the Vanderbilt Commodores pounded out 22 hits in its 19-4 victory over MTSC in the first home game of the season. Plagued by errors, indifferent pitching and costly errors the Raiders were off to a wobbly baseball start, but have rallied in the past few games to show great potential.

Commodores by the score of 19 to 4.

Vanderbilt made hay while the sun was shining as they banged out 22 hits off three Raider pitchers. This was their best performance of the season, and it was our misfortune that we played them on this particular day. Normally a team taking batting practice during a regular work out wouldn't connect for 22 hits as solidly as the Commodores did.

The Raiders didn't come to life until the seventh inning. My this time it was too late, but four solid hits produced 3 of our 4 runs. We picked up another run in the bottom of the ninth on a triple from Eddie Agee and Bill Reneger's timely single over the short stop's head.

Murray Crimps OVC Division Crown Outlook

Murray (Ky.) State college handed Middle Tennessee State its third loss of the year Friday 14 to 4, behind the pitching of Tommy Wells.

Wells limited Middle Tennessee to eight hits, while the Thorobreds slammed out 12 off the combination of starter and loser Jerry Hurst, Dirk Arnold and Bill Kemp.

Lou Shipp, a second baseman, got three hits in five at bat to lead the visitors. One of his hits was a triple. Rightfielder Eddie Agee had two hits for the Raiders to lead their attack.

Purvis Big Gun As Blue Raiders Clip Govs, 13-9

Shortstop Ray Purvis, not the slightest bit ball-shy after suffering a multiple face fracture when hit by a baseball a month ago, led Middle Tennessee State to a 13 to 9 victory over Austine Peay here Saturday.

Purvis had a perfect day at bat with three singles and a triple, scored twice, batted in two runs, and stole a base, as the Raiders got off to a flying start and led 5-0 after two innings.

Dickie Baugh held Austin Peay in check for five innings, but blew up in the sixth, when the Govs scored five times and went ahead, 9-7. They couldn't hold the lead, however, for Pitcher Phil Brown, who was having a difficult time although he went all the way.

MTSC scored four runs in the seventh to snatch the lead back, and Charlie Care, who replaced

Bison Netmen Rout Raiders, Win Nine

David Lipscomb's Bisons swept to a 9 to 0 victory over Middle Tennessee State college last week at Lipscomb in a Volunteer State Athletic conference tennis match.

All of the Lipscomb netters scored straight set victories except Joe Fitch who was forced to go three sets before downing the Raiders' Bob Cranford 6-8, 6-1, 6-2, in the No. 2 singles match.

Singles

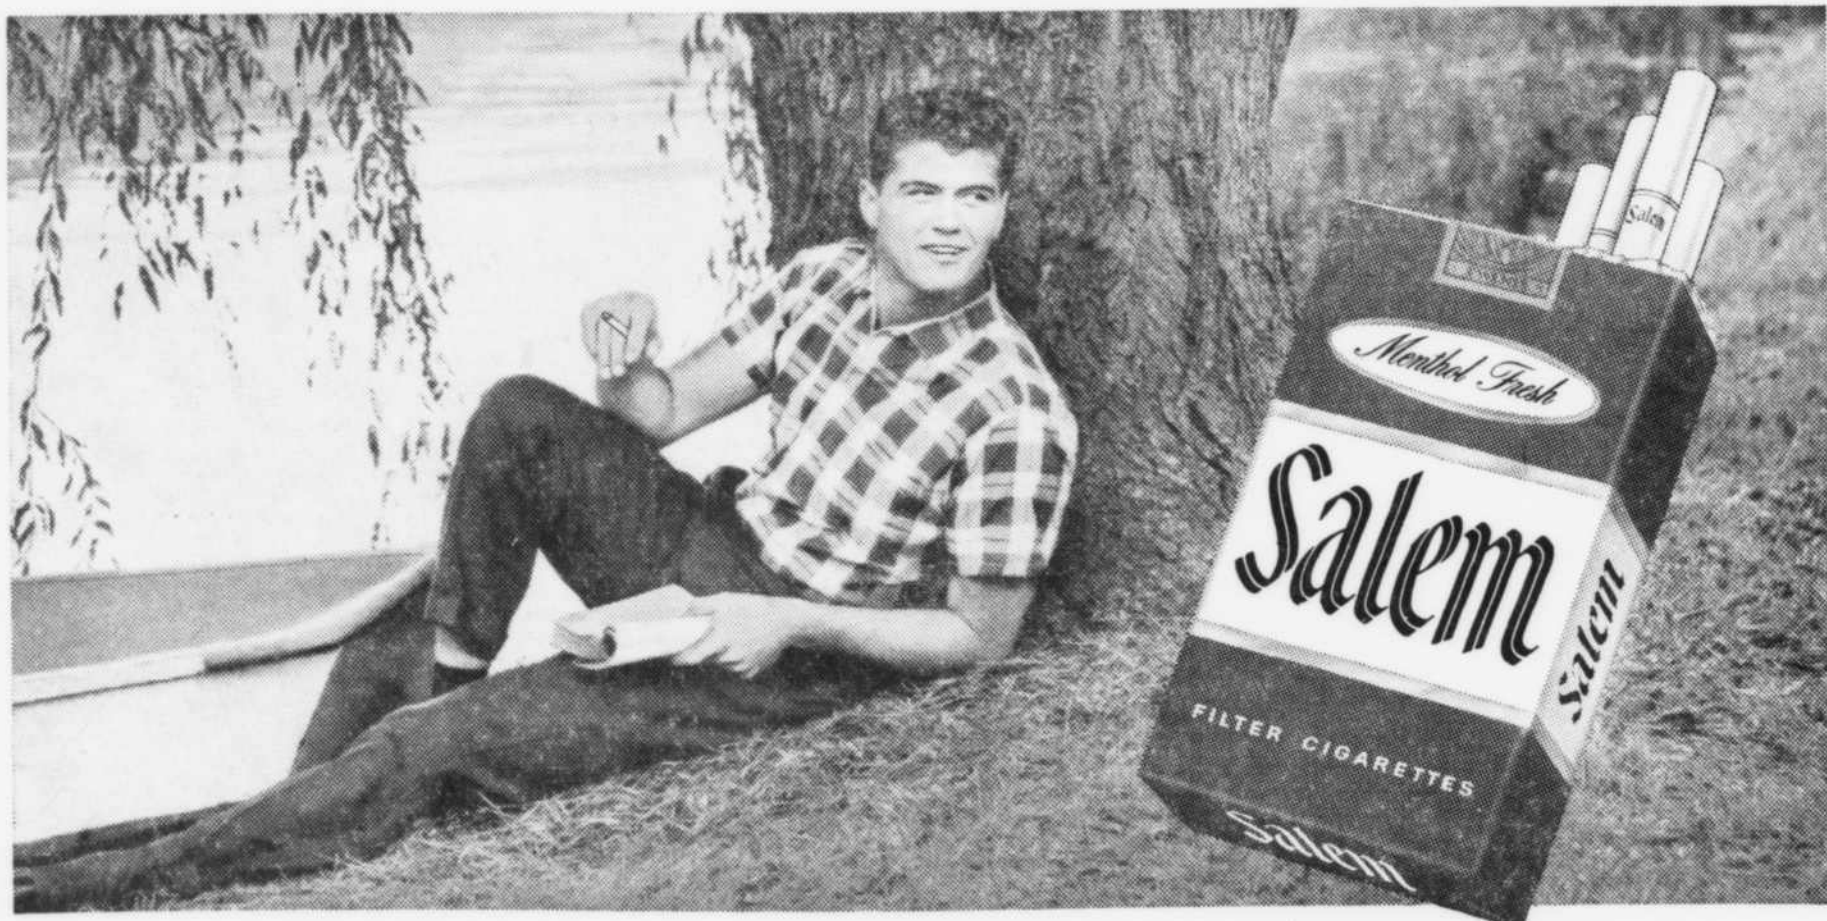

Bill Ruhl beat Joe Buchanan 6-2, 6-1; Joe Fitch beat Bob Cranford 6-8, 6-1, 6-2; Jerry Choate beat Charles Anderson 6-4, 7-5; Jim Oliver beat Max Horton 6-1, 6-2; Bob Gleaves beat George Brown 6-1, 6-2; Lonnie Stanford beat Bob Hallam 6-0, 7-5.

Doubles

Ruhl and Fitch beat Buchanan and Anderson 6-2, 6-1; Choate and Oliver beat Horton and Hallam 6-3, 6-0; Gleaves and Eddie Gleaves beat Cranford and Brown 6-2, 6-2.

SOFTBALLERS ADD TO SQUAD THAT WON 29 GAMES IN 1956

Team Adds Jones & Diddle

By Ralph Englert

Along about this time last year, a small group of vigorous lads from MTSC got together with high hopes of forming a softball team in order to compete in the Murfreesboro City Softball League. A sponsor was needed. Canvassing the town for some support to their plan, this determined little band of athletes which was made up mostly of ex-servicemen and MTSC students who lived in the Federal Housing Project on Franklin Road, sold their idea to the Broad and Main Shell Service Station.

After Broad and Main furnished enough equipment and uniforms for 15 players, the newly formed team began its incredible climb to an amazing season. The team consisted of: Harold "Red" Hensley, Carl Holder, Vic Francescan, Glen Shirley, Sammy Sawyer, Roy Eates, Howard Davis, James McKee, Gordon Talbert, and Roy Crabtree plus six more who joined the team shortly before the season began. These six new members were: Render Carden, Milner Carden, Bobby Reasons, Bob Polston, Jimmy Ellis, and Fleetwood Collins.

Broad and Main was high in praise of their new squad. This team had an overall season record of 29-1 and among these victories was a 1-0 win over Sewart Air Force Base, who was the world Air Force Champions. Render Carden pitched a two hitter against this team, and had a seasonal pitching record of 26 wins against only 1 defeat. The other three wins were posted by Gordon Talbert. Their only defeat of the year was at the hands of Flat Creek a small town six miles southeast of Shelbyville. Despite a fine pitching display by Carden who threw a 1-hitter, Broad and Main suffered their only loss 6-1.

They won the city softball championship and also took top honors in the mid-state tournament which was held at Flat Creek. They beat Fayetteville in the championship game by a 6-2 score. Among other accomplishments by this team was an unbelievable record of 5 no-hitters posted by Carden.

Despite their fine showings during the regular season, they were not represented in their district, therefore, they were not able to play in the state meet.

Again this year, Broad and Main, which is under the direction of Fisher Morton, will take to the field for another season. This year the team will have two newcomers to the squad in Coach Ed Diddle and Coach Billy Mac Jones. This year's opening is scheduled to begin around the second week in May.

President Smith Is Active Man

Q. M. Smith, president of Middle Tennessee State College, Murfreesboro, B. Woodmore, brusar, were in boro, addressed ten men and women who had not been together since graduation from Bradley County high school in May 1917, in Cleveland, Tennessee, Friday night at a dinner. This fortieth reunion was arranged by Clarence Richmond, a member of the class who won the distinguished Service Cross as an American doughboy a few short months after his graduation.

The reunion is unusual in many respects, the happiest note, perhaps, being that there have been no deaths among the members of this first Bradley High graduating class.

Mr. Smith was the first principal of the Bradley county high school.

President Q. M. Smith of Middle Tennessee State College will spend April 23-26 in Louisville, Kentucky attending the southern Regional White House Conference on higher education. Mr. Smith served as a representative from Tennessee on the overall White House Conference called by President Eisenhower in Washington in 1956.

Judge Link, First M.A., Student, Banqueted By Stewart Friends

Two hundred Stewart county associates and friends of Judge Newell A. Link honored him at a dinner recently at Paris Landing Inn. The occasion marks his 65th birthday.

Judge Link was the first student to register for the M.A. degree at Middle Tennessee State College in 1951 and was a member of the first graduating class. He also holds degrees from Austin Peay and Cumberland University.

He has served as county judge, county superintendent of education and state senator. His life is a modern Horatio Alger story of achievement over great difficulties. "Judge" as he was familiarly called while a student here, had little formal education before he was 17 years of age. At that time he started walking four miles from his farm home daily to Glendale Academy and later boarded at the school, cutting wood and grooming horses for his board.

Miss Mary Florence Betts of the MTSC staff attended the banquet.

Annual Spring Quarter Campout Plans Completed

by Albert Bennett

Approximately 57 students and several faculty members will stage a camping trip May 3-5 on the headwaters of Cenetr Hill Lake.

This camping trip is an outing that is held each fall, spring and summer quarter as a part of a camping course offered by the health and physical education department. Everyone will live in pup tents and do his or her cooking pioneer style.

During the trip the students will have a chance to apply the skills they have attained throughout the quarter. This will range from rope tying to cooking on hobo stoves. The main purpose of the campout is to acquaint students with the out-of-doors.

Fishing and nature study will be two important highlights of the trip as far as activities are concerned. Fishing will be carried on from every angle. Fly fishermen, bait casters, and even the cane pole angler will be there. They will try to catch enough fish to furnish a fish fry with enough for everyone.

The last big feature of the trip will be a large campfire Saturday night with each person responsible for a part in the program. Dr. Fran Riel "ghost fire" to set off the camp fire is always a feature of this program.

People attending the trip will be: Jerry Hurst, Bobby Locke, John Stewart, Yonn Horner, Bruce McDonald, Sammy Littleton, Mary Jane Joyner, Bobby Sells, Joan Henshaw, Ben Hurt, Samuel Moore, Ima Franklin, John Englehart, George Duncan, Mary Cunningham, Douglas Midley, Richard Medcalf, Charles Milsaps, Ivan Spann, Lillian McCord, Don Horsley, Charles Hall, Roy Hall, Jim Davis, Mallie Aldred, Harold Greer, Don Franklin, Gordon Tolbert, William Hall, William Randolph, Herman Bayless, James Green, Hermin Carden, Glen Carson, Dot Hicks, J. Mr. Hansford Busy As Music Consultant

On Thursday, April 18, Charles Hansford, music consultant, Middle Tennessee State College, will conduct a one day in-service training program for teachers of the Maury County public schools in Columbia, Tenn. This is one of a series of workshops and in-service training days being conducted in the counties of Middle Tennessee with special emphasis on music.

Mr. Charles Hansford, music consultant, department of music, Middle Tennessee State College, is directing the preparation of music for the Lincoln County Festival, which will be held in Fayetteville on Saturday, April 27. Approximately 1,000 children from 24 schools are expected to participate in this festival.

On Friday, March 22, Mr. Charles Hansford, music consultant of Middle Tennessee State College, conducted an in-service training program of music for the teachers of Williamson County at the high school in Franklin.

CAMPING CLASS PREPARES FOR WEEKEND OF FUN AND FISHING

Bonnie Slatton and Roy Stewart demonstrate the techniques of handling campers sharp edged tools for members of the Coach Fran Riel (far right) class. The class goes on a weekend camping trip early in May. Bonnie is handling a machete (good co-ed camper defensive weapon she claims) for the clearing of undergrowth for a camp site. Stewart shows that a pocket knife makes a good camp tool too. Other class members are shown holding other utensils to be used on the three day camp-out.

Along The Sidelines

Roy Crabtree

Spring sports, at Middle Tennessee State College, are off to a good start.

For instance, Coach Joe Black Hayes' track and field team is doing things beyond expectations this year. As most of you know, track is quite new at Middle Tennessee, and in the past two years the Raiders have only won one contest; but this year's team is undefeated in its first two meets.

Several athletes are making this year's team a success. Marvin Jinnette, ex-Cumberland High star, is captain of this year's squad. Marvin has captured from three to four events in each meet this season for a grand total of 32½ points. James Frost, from Franklin, Tennessee, is in second place in total points scored with 20½ points. Frost has posted wins in the 440 dash and in the half mile run. Bob Reed, a transfer from the University of Florida, holds down number three position with a total of 14 points. Bob runs in one and two mile races.

Coach Charlie Greer's baseball team has established a record of one win and two defeats in their first three encounters this spring. This is not bad considering the foes which they have tackled. When you tangle with a club like Vanderbilt, you're playing a team whose calibre of play is equal to that of "class B" ball in the professional ranks.

Marty Graham, a member of Coach Patty's golf team, is to be congratulated on his recent hole-in-one. Although Marty's third hole, 120 yard drive, was spectacular, he lost his match to Crawford Flowers of Sewanee, who toured the course in a blistering 71. The Raiders were successful in capturing the victory 13 to 5, as Ragar, Tant, and Smith won their matches. This gives them a record of one win and one defeat, because they lost their opened to Western Kentucky Hill-toppers 12 to 6.

This year's tennis team is coached by E. O. Hawkins, a member of the English department here at MTSC. Mr. Hawkins is doing this in his spare time and should be commended for his efforts.

Although the tennis team has only won one match this season, they have been hampered by the lack of personnel.

Only One Thing Is Lacking!

Middle Tennessee State College is standing, or perhaps we should say moving across the threshold of one of its greatest eras under the able leadership of President Q. M. Smith. But there is one thing lacking on our campus—Spirit.

Needless to say, this progress, this leadership, in fact virtually everything we are now experiencing for the greater good of the college and its future as an educational institution is dampened by this lack of spirit.

Unfortunately, spirit is something you cannot legislate, or regiment; it is something that must be generated by the students on the campus.

It can be aided, of course, by our student leaders; it can be fostered by the students themselves, but if we sit idly by and do nothing to bolster it, we will have lost a golden opportunity to make Middle Tennessee State College one of the top institutions in this state.

Let's take action to improve the spirit of our college.

It can be accomplished quite simply if we all try, for spirit is an intangible that beats within the heart of each of us.

It comes alive with our interest, our pride in our efforts for the good of the school.

Money will build the school, the faculty will increase its prestige, but only we, the students, can enrich its traditions. Isn't it worth the effort?

Nine Dormitory Girls Act As 'Guardian Angels'

By Linda Welch

A boy calls to tell his girl that he will be over to the dorm at 6:30. His girl has gone to town with some girl friends but left a message that she will be back at seven. The boy then leaves a message that he will be over at 7:15. Who relays the messages?

The phone rings at six o'clock in the morning at Rutledge Hill. Who answers it? Someone is not sure whether she can sign out for orchestra, lunch and chorus all at once? Who gives this life and death information?

A freshman boy makes his first call to the girl's dormitory. He's never been in a place like it before. Who smiles at him and makes him feel at ease while his date is called?

The answer to these questions is the hostesses of the girl's dormitories. These girls spend a great part of their time meeting and greeting people. This, they say, is the greatest advantage to the job of hostess. They know everybody they see and everything that is going on. Being a hostess, they say, does not interfere with studying. They also get a liberal education hearing the school gossip while on the job.

Being a hostess is not altogether an easy job though. This work requires quite a bit of vigor from the time the doors are unlocked at 6:30 in the morning until they are locked at night. Most of the hostesses are also active on the campus and their activities require quite a bit of time. One hostess is vice-president of the ASB. Hostess life is not the "life of Riley." The hostess works 10 to 15 hours each week and is paid less for her amount of service than anybody else on the campus.

The duties of the hostess are to unlock and lock doors, to turn on and off the hall, lobby and porch lights, to answer phone calls, to call people down to see their visitors, to check the signout sheet, and to be a message receiver and a bureau of information.

Our hostesses are: Mary Ruth Osborne, Alta Dudley, and Joyce Watson of Rutledge Hall; Mary Jo Collier, Deanne Rhodes, and Mary Lou Couch of Lyon Hall; Martha Duels, Earline Woodall and Roberta Mark of Monahan Hall.

We owe our hostesses who guard our dormitory life a tribute. Let's give our guardian angels a halo.

PKD Delegates Attend Speech Convention In South Dakota

Sisters Jean and Joyce Adamson of Watertown continued to talk Middle Tennessee State College into the national forensic picture at Brookings, South Dakota last week.

They spoke at the five day Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary forensic meeting, April 15-19.

Jean competed against 76 representatives from 30 states in extemporaneous speaking and came up as one of the 15 per cent who rated "Excellent." Later in the week she scored another "Excellent" rating in women's oratory, competing against 60 of the nation's best women speakers.

Joyce and Jean made up Middle Tennessee State's "two-woman" debate team at the national tournament, winning five of eight encounters and completing the week with a "Good" rating.

Bill Sugg, the only masculine competitor that Coach Lane Boutwell took with him to the national contest, competed against 110 men in extemporaneous speech. He also participated in four rounds of discussion, twice placing among the best.

Capping the climax, the two MTSC girls won the women's sweepstakes rating of "Excellent" for overall work by a "two-woman" squad.

Pi Kappa Delta is an honorary forensic fraternity. The convention brings together the top speakers and debaters from over the nation for a week of forensic activity. The South Dakota State College at Brookings is host for the convention this year.

Speakers for the convention general sessions were Senator Mundt of South Dakota and President Robert T. Oliver of Pennsylvania State College. Musical programs, dances and a stunt night were provided to relieve the tension of stiff competition among the nation's top orators.

College Leaders Hold Education Meet Discussions

Students enjoyed a holiday while faculty members engaged in a series of Thursday and Friday meetings for the eighty-ninth Tennessee Education Association meeting April 11-12.

"Existing Facilities of State Supported Colleges in Tennessee" by President Q. M. Smith was one of four addresses delivered Thursday morning at the College Association meeting. President Smith reviewed the need for additional and adequate facilities. Dr. K. L. Knickerbocker, Ormond Corry and Dr. David Lockmiller were other speakers at this meeting. Dr. Lockmiller made a suggestion that overcrowded State Colleges might gain some relief by having the State aid the 27 private colleges and universities in Tennessee which have some 6,000 vacancies.

Another Thursday meeting that involved MTSC personnel was a panel discussion, "Relationships in Supervision" held at two o'clock under direction of Dr. Clarence Greener. Mrs. Andrena Briney of the Training School faculty appeared on the panel, which was also to have included Baxter Hobgood, a former faculty member. Mr. Hobgood was unable to attend.

Dr. Francis Riel had one of the best attended meetings of the Health, Physical Education and Recreation section in its history. Blanton Collier, head coach of the University of Kentucky was the principal speaker. After the roundtable discussion led by Dr. Riel, the group had a "buzz and bull" session that lasted for an hour.

Hilary Parker, principal of the MTSC Training School, presided at the Association for Student Teaching dinner Friday evening.

Among the MTSC alumni appearing on the program were Ira Daniel, Rutherford county superintendent of education at the Administrative section; Rex Turman, principal Savannah high school at the second general session, and Mary Hill in the department of classroom teachers.

Former German Citizens Are MTSC Students

By Paul Delk

From Berlin, Germany, to MTSC in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, is a long trip, but for Frank and George Lahde, Freshman and Sophomore respectively, it was probably harder than it would be for the rest of us.

Frank and George were 11 and 12 years of age when they left Germany. They were youngsters at the time Hitler was taking over the country and, too young to be enlisted in Hitler's Youth Group which required for all boys until they were old enough to become soldiers. Their older brother, Peter, who is an MTSC alumnus, had to be a member of the YOUTH GROUP.

The Lahde family lived in Berlin until the time Berlin was being bombed by the Allied Forces, at which time the boys were evacuated to schools in Eastern Prussia and Sudetenland. They saw some of the early bomb attacks but not the later ones. The apartment in which they had once lived in Berlin was bombed out.

At the end of the war the Lahde family was reunited in Berlin, and in the early part of 1948 their father, Dr. Herman Lahde, who is a research engineer, took a job with Aladdin Industries in the U. S. Frank and George along with their mother later joined Dr. Lahde in Chicago. In 1949 the family moved to Nashville where they have lived since.

Vandy B. D. Degree Awarded John R. Parks

John Robert Parks of Spring Hill, a former graduate of Middle Tennessee State College has been awarded a Bachelor of Divinity degree by Vanderbilt University, Nashville.

John graduated from MTSC in August 1953 with a major in social studies and minors in Business Administration and education.

He is the son of Mr. Terry Parks of Spring Hill.

Both Frank and George are pre-engineering students here, and plan to enter U. T. after two years at MTSC.

Their father and oldest brother, Peter, an MTSC alumnus, have already received their American citizenship. George and Frank will be eligible for citizenship in November. They are really looking forward to becoming American citizens.

Yes, George and Frank have traveled far but we're glad their destiny included MTSC. Good luck to them in their American way of life.

Baugh, was tapped for only one hit in the three and a third innings he worked, foiling any further Austin Peay hopes.

Bill Heineman, the Gobs, catcher, was the only visitor to get more than one hit. He slashed a double off Baugh and another off Care, but neither batted in any runs. G. E. McCormack, the Raider catcher, delivered a home run.

Middle Tennessee now has a 2-3 record for the season.

rors. Except for Agee's pair of blows and doubles by McCormack and Purvis there was no potency in MTSC bats. In the field seven miscues, four by Purvis, hurt the Raider cause in early innings while Hurst was still bearing down and the home club had a chance.

All the Raiders runs came in the third innings except Agee's score off McCormack's blast in the eighth. In the last of the fourth Agee singled, Carden moved him down with a Texas league single over short. Greenway moved Agee on a fielder's choice and McCormack singled. Purvis blasted a vicious liner for one run and Buck Rolman counted for the other on a single.

Coach Charles Greer used Pitts, Coombs, Agee, Carden, Greenway, McCormack, Brown, Rolman, Purvis, Francescan, Galbreath, Hurst, Renegar, Arnold, Kemp and Reasons in a vain attempt to salvage an OVC win.

Hurst was touched for seven hits in six innings for seven runs. Arnold gave up three hits and four runs in two and Kemp was hit twice in one inning for three runs.

Art Department Exhibits 'Houses'

Houses, U.S.A., a photographic exhibition tracing the development of American Residential Building from the Colonial period to the present, will be on view beginning April 18, 1957 at the Art Gallery on the Middle Tennessee State College campus.

Beginning with the various sources of early American residential architecture, it shows how these were adapted by the outstanding architects of that time to local situations, and then proceeds to show how these styles were incorporated into more indigenous styles in the middle years.

In the modern period the work and the influence of the two great contemporary architects, Frank Lloyd Wright and LeCorbusier are amply illustrated. Other well known present day architects represented by examples of their work are Marcel Breur, Walter Gropius and Mies Van De Rohe.

This exhibition is made available through the American Federation of Arts N. Y., N. Y., and is sponsored by the Art Division and the Beaux Arts Club of Middle Tennessee State College. It will remain on view until May 15. Gallery hours are from 8-4 daily through the week and 7-9 Monday evening.

G. I. Fink, MTSC senior from Nashville, got his picture in the Nashville Tennessean last week as the harbinger of spring. He and his associate officer, B. R. Jones, of the Davidson county highway patrol, killed the first snake of the season in Nashville. G. I.'s prowess is display on the bulletin board near the bursar's office in the Administration building.

Jim Lane Selected For McMinnville Coach

Dr. C. M. Clark, chairman of the city board of education at McMinnville, announced Friday that Jim Lane, a native of Murfreesboro, has been signed as the new head coach and athletic director at McMinnville City.

Lane has been at Smithville high school the past four years as basketball and football coach and his Tigers have been in the State basketball tournament the last two years. He graduated from MTSC in 1949 after playing outstanding ball for the Raiders.
