Reflections on Initiation

There are many things which we associate with starting to college, and certainly initiation is one of them. For many it is much more than just being made a victim of whatever the upper classmen can conceive. It is the beginning of a new way of life. For the first time the student is away from the in-fluence of home. Gone are the high school days and the guiding hands of parents. Even the memory of these is jolted rudely out of the student during his first week away at school.

Initiation is over now, but not entirely forgotten, nor is it likely to be. For the majority of MTSC freshmen and upper classmen it was carried on in a good-natured way that left no unpleasant taste in the mouth afterwards, but in a few cases the spirit of hazing was completely destroyed by methods which reminded us of something which we might have read about four or five years ago. Indeed it would seem that they were motivated by the same attitude that nsible for some of the disgraces committed during the war

But in a way it was a liberal education in personality for anyone that found time to witness the actions of the upper classmen as they performed these traditional rites. Stop now and recall how your associates or even you yourself reacted to the opportunity to domineer these new students. Remember this if

IT TOOK A MEMORY TO GREET THESE NEW ARRIVALS WITH THE SAME TREATMENT WHICH YOU RECEIVED, BUT IT TOOK A MAN TO TREAT THEM THE WAY THAT YOU WOULD LIKED TO HAVE BEEN TREATED. Let us hope that the sophomore class of next year keeps this in mind.

RUTLEDGE ROUND-UP

Is it heaven? It must be. Anyway, it is out of this world. When the dormitory doors opened for the fall quarter an angel entered and skipped down the hall. Yes, Pat Anglea, our little personality plus. Better watch her, boys-she has star dust in her eyes.

Flash-Ora Mae Burroughs and Delta Ford, both former students of MTSC, will be wed shortly. A romance which began right here on the campus. Although the courtship began right around Christmas the ring wasn't placed on Ora's finger until July 30th. Wedding plans will be announced soon.

We hear it said that Jean Mason our favorite cheerleader, has fallen out of love and is back in circula-

Judy Hargrove, cute as ever, is still answering all those phone calls. Another engaged lassie is Della Mae Jakes. Della Mae, a senior, is engaged to Charles Hunt, a former student of the college. The exact date of the engagement was August 4th, and wedding bells will ring in the early spring. It is rumored that it won't be long before the third floor girls will be having some more of those hip-hiphooray parties. Everybody invited.

These cute freshmen girls are getting quite a rush. Have you met that energetic frosh cheerleader, Pat Jernigan? What do you think of sweet Gwen Redford? I'd say fine Mighty fine.

Another popular freshman is Carolyn Reese who hails from Columbia. Carolyn has been elected majorette of the pep band. Both she and her cute roommate, Clara Jones, have been selected as majorettes for the college band.

That's all the news for now but in closing I'd like to tell you my recipe for "Rutledge Round-Up.":

- 4 C. Campus clatter 2 T. engagements 1 C. latest events
- 14 t. dormitory gossip
- 2 eyes of stardust 124 cute girls.

All is not bitter at the most radical school in America, however, for once a student there, you can never forget your jaunts to the beach in mid-winter, or the football and polo games held in the Orange Bowl, or dancing in an open-air student club suspended over an artificial lake.

In all justice, we must not overlook the fact that the University of Miami is a mere 24 years old, and in due time it will progress and improve. However, for the college student who wishes to be an individual with a name, and not one of many with a Greek letter, MTSC holds the "winning hand" over the University
