College Honor System Discussed By TO

On November 11, at the home of Miss Elizabeth Schardt, the Tau Omicron society held its quarterly program meeting. Those present were Betty Hale, Betty Jane Harrison, Miss Virginia Wilkinson, Shirley Keyes, Jean Wilkinson, Miss Schardt, Dot Dickey, Marguerite Sherrill, and Peggy Marlin Welch.

The subject on the agenda for discussion was the much wondered-about honor system. Included in the panel were the questions of whether this college needs an honor system, and whether the students and faculty would be willing to abide by the rules of such a system. Several viewpoints were expressed by the participants—some of which were very worth of consideration.

MTSC Requests $346,000 More For 1955-57

Money Would Be Used For Operation, To Ask $1,500,000 For Building

A request for $346,000 additional for Middle Tennessee State college for the 1955-57 biennium has been made.

This is part of a $6,129,000 boost for the state's colleges which was made for the two year period.

During the present two-year period, MTSC received $517,000 annually for operations, or a total of $1,034,000 for the two year period. The college is requesting $1,380,000 for the 1955-57 two year operation.

This is only for operations and not construction, President Q. M. Smith said yesterday. It is expected that an additional $1,500,000 will be requested for construction during 1955-57.

The $1,500,000, if granted, would be used to construct a new library, a new fine arts building and an additional dormitory.

At the present time plans are being made to construct an ROTC building at a cost of $125,000 on the east section of the campus near the former hangar and to build a $30,000 maintenance building for the carpentry, paint shop and other building departments to be connected with the college garage.

Construction on both buildings is expected to be started shortly. Funds have already been provided for these structures.

The increase of $346,000 in operating costs for the two year period is due to the increased enrollment, enlarged services and improvements to present services the increased staff, President Smith announced.

Increases requested for other colleges for the 1955-57 period is headed by the University of Tennessee which is asking $3,818,000, more than for the past two years.

Estimated increases for the other schools are: A&I State University, $500,000; Austin Peay State College, $305,500; Tennessee Polytechnic Institute $404,000; East Tennessee State College, $418,000, and Memphis State College, $430,000.

BSU Plans Holiday Breakfast, Supper

The Baptist Students Union is making plans for a Thanksgiving Service and breakfast on the campus on November 25 at 6:00 a.m. Dr. Warren Jones, Jr. of Nashville will be the speaker.

On the following day, November 26, there will be an informal supper for alumni and TPI BSU's.

Clubs To Sponsor Candidates For Cotton Contest

The Home Economics Club will sponsor a MAID OF COTTON contest on our campus on Tuesday, November 24 at 4:00 p.m. A candidate or candidates sponsored by the clubs on the campus are to be entered in this contest.

The winner of the local contest will be sent to Memphis some time in early January to enter the competition for the selection of the girl who will be King Cotton's Good Will Ambassador on a tour throughout the United States, Europe and Canada. She will receive an all-cotton wardrobe designed especially for her and will reign over the cotton carnival to be held in Memphis in the spring.

She will spend a month in New York, will visit such places as Hollywood, Washington, D.C., where she will be a guest of honor at a Congressional Reception, Paris, France, where she will visit the salons of such designers as Pierre Balmain, Schiaparelli, Hubert de Givenchy, and others.

Climaxing her travels will be visits to Toronto, Montreal, and other cities in Canada. Upon her return to Memphis the Maid of Cotton will be presented a 1954 Ford convertible in addition to the above gifts.

In order to be eligible to enter the contest, a girl must be between the ages of 19 and 25 inclusive, must never have been married, must be at least 5 feet, five inches tall, and must have been born in a cotton producing state.

Names of entrants must be turned in by Friday, November 20.

Dr. Kirksey reports that the Education Department is beginning some new workshops. Teaching workshops are: Dr. Belt Keathley, Waynesboro; Dr. Bealer Smotherman, Woodbury; Dr. W. D. Bowdoin, Lynchburg and Mr. J. Hubert Swann, Lewisburg.

Cheerleaders Follow Team To Last Game of Season

The cheerleaders for the 1953 football season will appear at the last game of the year on "Homecoming." These eight girls and one boy who have followed their team to a majority of the grid contests and provided student pep and enthusiasm throughout the quarter include:

Billie Swafford is a vivacious sophomore from Winchester and graduate of Franklin County High. While there she was a DAR representative, the salutatorian of her graduating class, president of the FHA, an attendant to the football queen, a member of the student council and a Bet club member.

Since entering MTSC, Billie belongs to the Recreation Club, the Rifle Team and the BSU. She has been a cheerleader for two years.

Katherine Duncan, a junior, hails from Hartselle. She was active in dramatics and was a member of the basketball squad in high school. After graduation she entered the UT Junior College at Martin.

While there Katherine belonged to the WAA, the Tennis club, FTA, the Physical Education club, the BSU and the Science club.

She transferred to MTSC last year and was elected a cheerleader this fall. She is accompanying her home economic major as a member of the home ec. club, and is minor-ing in phys. educ. and biology.

Elizabeth Hay, or Liz, entered MTSC in the fall of '51 as a pre-med. student. She had graduated from Eagleville high school where she had been a member of the basketball squad for the past four years. In high school she was president of her senior class, editor-in-chief of the annual, and FHA president.

On campus Liz has been active as the secretary of the chemistry and science clubs, treasurer of the WAA, society editor of the Sidelines, a member of the Midlander staff, an MSM and SCU member, and a member of the dormitory council for the past two years. After graduation she will enter the UT Medical School in Memphis.

Joyce McMillan, a senior from Nashville, graduated from Nashville Central in 1950. She was a member of the Glee Club and the Y-Teens.

"They Cheer For Victory"

"It Will Look Like This"

Dot Jones and Anita Cook, seniors and Mrs. Patterson, new house mother, are seen above getting a sneak preview of Monohan Hall before it is opened to alumni inspection. They hope to get into the building by the first of the year. Mrs. Sullivan will move with the junior and senior girls, while Mrs. Patterson remains in Lyon with the sophomore girls. The entire area in the picture is built-in storage space which is lacking in the other dorms.

"The Royal Attendants"

Sharing the homecoming limelight with Queen Nueva Sharp and the football, band sponsors will be, from left to right, Peggy Ambrester and Joyce McMillan, senior cheer leaders who are to be attendants to the football sponsor; Lenora Barber and Barbara Ketchersid who will be maids of honor and the queen's senior attendants; Ernestine Miles, the queen's junior attendant; Peggy Rose, the attendant from the sophomore class; and Coleen Rives, freshman attendant to the homecoming queen.

IF YOU CAN'T BE A GOOD SPORT, COURTEOUS, POLITE --- BE QUIET

Before the annual Thanksgiving game with TPI you'll hear speeches on doing your part on floats and decorations to make this Homecoming successful. And then you'll hear pep talks on cheering more at this game than at all the others combined. To these suggestions we'd like to add one more—if you can't be a good sport—be quiet.

A football game should be played on the field—that's what it's there for, and not in the stands. Cheering for your own team is a sign of enthusiasm, but razzing the other team, particularly individual players is a sign of—well, lack of education and consideration.

A football game should end with the final gun and conduct on the dance floor or elsewhere should not be copied from conduct on the field.

There's always the old excuse "the other fellow started it", but the other fellow can't start anything if no one listens and no one reacts. And maybe the other fellow didn't start it anyway.

They say courtesy is contagious—why don't you adopt a scientific attitude and try the experiment—just for a change.

"We Welcome You Alumni! Please Enjoy Your Day"

The students of MTSC wish to welcome the alumni back to the campus. They hope the alumni will be proud of the progressive measures that have been made on the campus. A list of some of these would include the new buildings; increase in enrollment and number of teachers; a more active student government; the new sidewalks; increased sports activities, such as, intramurals and swimming; better student-faculty relationship; departmental improvements such as the new music department, the arena theater, ROTC expansion; and more school spirit.

It is hoped that the alumni will find time to visit and observe these improvements and enjoy the day as much as the students and faculty have enjoyed preparing for it.

A PLEA TO THE FACULTY

Homecoming activities offer enough variety for the interest of every student on the campus. In order to make this the best homecoming we've ever had the students must work. Work on floats means money in some club's treasury and also lots of fun and excitement, provided outside studies and tests don't bear down too hard. This is an extra long quarter and there should be enough time to have special assignments done before or after homecoming week. Last year about one-third of the teachers gave tests during coming week and many of them were delayed mid-terms. This is the last homecoming that most of the seniors and some under classmen will have a chance to participate in, so why not let them enjoy it?

Thermostatic Head Installed

By W. C. Hastings, Heating Engineer

In the very near future all of our large buildings will be thermostatically controlled. At that time it is believed much will be gained toward securing comfort and economy; especially if the cooperation of all the faculty and student body can be obtained. Please do not attempt to adjust equipment, but contact the Heating Plant or call maintenance office at 2208-W to report any irregularities or obtain any desired information about any particular heating problem.

Heating engineers have decided that 70 degrees of heat for classrooms is good. Opening windows should never be resorted to for several reasons.

Bookkeeper Needed - - -

Mr. Herbert Young of Murfreesboro Pure Milk Company needs someone who has had considerable bookkeeping to use in his plant. If you are interested come by and see me or check with him.

Sincerely yours,
Robert Abernathy
Director of Field Services

"THE PEN IS MIGHTIER"

by Charles Abel

"They change their climate, not their dispositions; Who run beyond the seas." —Horace

There are few authors who can turn out fiction as consistently as James Hilton. In his latest work, Time and Time Again, which was on the best seller list during September, he tells the story of Charles Anderson, a minor British diplomat, whose story is told in counterpoint to that of his 17-year-old son.

For the adventure lover, there is Monsarrat's new book, The Story of Ester Costello. The author of The Cruel Sea, writes of a monstrous fraud which bilks the gullible in England and the U. S. and involves a deaf, dumb and blind girl.

For the escape reader, Robert Nathan's latest book, The Train in the Meadow, is tops; here is Robert Nathan at his very best, turning his smooth-flowing style and his unique mixture of fantasy and reality, of satire and sentiment, towards some of the universal problems of present-day living, he has written a remarkable and on several levels enjoyable book.

Bretton's Modern Science Fiction Stories gives top stories of startling inventions . . . of visitors from outer space . . . adventure in dimension—220 thrill-packed pages.

I hope you will comment about the books I have reviewed for you. If you have any comments or suggestions, they are welcome. Also, if you find a need for a particular type of book, I will get it for you. Write Box 90.

Governor Invited FORMER FACULTY MEMBERS To Share Honors WRITE M T S C FRIENDS with Queen Neuva

Governor Clement has received a personal invitation from President Q. M. Smith to be present at the MTSC homecoming for the purpose of crowning the homecoming queen. If the governor accepts the invitation, it will be his first visit here. It is expected that he will share honors with the queen during the half-time ceremonies. He will be presented with her and sit with her in the reviewing stand with her attendants to watch the great game between the Raiders and Eagles.

At the present time the plans call for the crowning of the queen at her homecoming dance, but the governor's schedule may alter that. It is hoped that he can be present throughout the whole celebration. He will be entertained at dinner in the college cafeteria by President Q. M. Smith.

The guest band from TPI will be presented during half-time along with the MTSC band which has some turkey-day tricks up its sleeve. Miss Joan Jernigan, MTSC band sponsor, will receive recognition during the band's half-time ceremony.

The winning floats and car will be shown during the mid-game intermission.

WE DID IT AGAIN

By BARBARA WITIAM

Due to the lack of support of the Film Forum there will not be a continuation of this program. Sounds pretty bad, doesn't it? Before the films were shown this quarter, many students were very concerned about them. What happened to that interest?

Well, there isn't any sense in crying over spilled milk. We showed the group that we were not interested in it by our non-support.

By the way, doesn't this come under school spirit?

Mr. Joseph J. O'Shea, who was speech teacher here last year, is now teaching speech at North Dakota Agricultural College. In addition to his teaching he has a fifteen minute television program each week and handles the publicity and promotion of the Artist Series. He is directing the fall play, "Mr. Roberts."

O'Shea's little pekinese, the former Pywacket, is not with her master but is staying with his parents in Wisconsin.

Mr. Robert Adkins is now teaching psychology at Western Maryland State College in Westminster, Maryland. He spent the summer working on his thesis at Columbia University. Mr. Adkins is a native of Maryland and in spite of the housing shortage, they seem to be making themselves at home.

In letters to friends here the Adkins report that they are living in G. I. barracks for the present.

New Side-walks To Replace Paths Of Campus Shortcuts

Recently completed as the first part of a new sidewalk network on campus is the 890 foot stretch from the Student Union building to the new men's dormitory. The sidewalks are being laid by a local contractor, J. J. Liberty, and will be financed through the college's $300,000 state appropriation for school improvement and expansion. The east wing of the project has a concrete lay of 18 by 32 feet and a four inch depth. It's width will accommodate two persons abreast.

Another shorter walk has been laid alongside the south end of the Science building. It's width is four feet. A future walk will be laid leading from the boulevard to the Training School.

The location of these walks has been determined by the several "beaten" paths made by crossing students. The project should eventually do away with this inconvenience.

EDS AND CO-EDS

Lois Stedman

Spreading joy and goodwill wherever she goes is our cheerful girl-of-the-week, Carolyn DePriest of Nashville.

Graduated from Isaac Litton high school in 1952, Carolyn was active in many of the school organizations. She was a member of the G. A. L. club for good sportsmanship, the Hillbilly club, the Old Maids club, and she was president of the Social Psychology club and the Sportsmanship Association of Davidson county. For two years she was a cheerleader and served as captain during her senior year.

Carolyn was secretary of her sophomore and junior classes and of the Student Council her final year. In addition to winning the D. A. R. medal, she was elected as Best All Around and Most Popular girl.

Outside of her school activities, Carolyn was representative to Hands-Across-the-Sea sponsored by Youth Incorporated and was runner-up in the Miss Nashville high school beauty contest.

Entering MTSC in the fall of '52, our attractive girl-of-the-week continued her interest in campus work. She is a member of the Aquatic club, FTA, and holds the offices of secretary of the Physical Education club, secretary of the sophomore class, and worship chairman of MSM and SCU. Recently she was chosen as sponsor of the C battalion of the ROTC.

Carolyn is majoring in education and minoring in social science and English. Her future plans include a certain young man, Buddy Lehnung of Nashville; so don't get your hopes up boys. It won't do you any good! At her home church, she has been World Friendship chairman and president of the MYF.

This popular and industrious young lady has an interesting hobby, that of collecting Bibles. Her special interests include playing the piano, swimming and popular, classical and semi-classical music.

From Old Hickory comes our out-standing boy-of-the-week, Charlie Hodges.

During his four years at Du Pont high school, Charlie was president of his freshmen, sophomore and junior classes and of the Student Body his senior year. He also played football for three years, and served on the annual staff. He was representative to the Nashville Inter-High Student Council for four years, delegate to the Southeastern Conference of Student Councils for two years; and was voted Best All Around Sophomore. Rounding out his high school career, Charlie was awarded the American Legion medal and the Elk's club scholarship.

Upon entering MTSC in the fall of '52 as a freshman, Charlie participated in the Drama club, Beta club and ROTC. This year he is serving as vice-president of the Sophomore class, president of the MSM, and a member of the Supreme Court and the Track and Sabre club.

Outside activities have not kept Charlie from any religious work. He is an active member of the Methodist church. He has served as publicity chairman of the MYF and is president of the college Sunday School class at the present time.

With a major in mathematics, Charlie has minors in education, biology and English. He plans to make a career of teaching in secondary education.

Charlie's special interest is people in general. It is our popular boy-of-the-week's opinion that MTSC is the best school in the country and that the Raiders have a "whale of a football team."

We surely are glad to have Shirley Keyes back with us after her short illness. Hope you are feeling much better, Shirley.

You know, now that cold weather is getting here, several girls seem to think it is fashionable to wear a chunk of ice on the third finger of the left hand. Three young ladies newly sporting this quaint fashion are Virginia Smith, Sarah VanCey, and Mary Lib Drewry. Best wishes to "you all" from "we all", honor of the happy day.

Reports are that Betty Hale is happy once more. She has a new bed, so she no longer has to sleep on the floor.

Norma Harter must really know a lot of people with whom to correspond. At least she is seen writing a letter every night.

Best wishes are in order for Alene Hughes who received a beautiful diamond from Sammy Lewis.

Francis Ezell and Bill Smith reported a good time at the Murray game.

We're glad to see Mrs. Sullivan out again. The flu bug must have bitten her.

Joyce Payne, have you changed your major? We're been seeing you around the music building a lot lately, haven't we?

Lyon's homecoming committee is composed of Joyce McMillan, chairman, Hazel Ferrel, Joyce Baxter and Mary Lib Drewry.

Who is this handsome UT man? The band has been working on the routine for the TPI game. We hear they will be shooting for eagles.

The Raiders have a good chance to beat Vandy. Let's all be there to cheer them on to victory. After all, we boast a 5-2 schedule while Vandy has won only one game. Good luck, boys.

The hot dog stand's business on the second floor isn't doing too well. Let's help them out and buy a hot dog. (I don't guess you know I got a free hot dog for each advertisement.)

Coach Greer is still trying to figure out who has been shooting the firecrackers every night and not getting caught. Delayed fuses enable them to get in their rooms before the firecrackers go off.

CAMPUS
ROUND-UP

Liz Hay

It's almost here—yes, another homecoming overflowing with anticipation, tussle; joy and happiness is rapidly approaching—the floats are being built, the dorms are being decorated, all preparations are already in the swing. Appears that many cute floats are going to spring up—many cute girls have already sprung, as they commence to prepare for their reign over the events of the great day.

Congratulations to Neuva Sharp who was recently elected Homecoming queen. Also, heaps of orchids to Barbara Ketchersid and Lenora Barbara who were elected senior class attendants, to Ernestine Miles, junior attendant; to Peggy Rose, sophomore attendant. My, won't the queen and her court look lovely as they participate in the activities which spotlight those girls of the day.

Looks as if the spotlight turns spot—agree girls?? Seems that again, only this time to place four other girls in its beam—Carolyn Hoover, who is the football sponsor, Peggy Ambrester and Joyce McMillan, the elected attendants; and Joan Jernigan, who was chosen as band sponsor will certainly receive much attention come Thanksgiving day. Congrats girls, looks as if the football team's and band's choice represents "the bestest".

Flash! new committee just organized—Authorities on approval of caves and cave life seem to be very successful. Valuable information has been gained concerning the whereabouts of cave life plus such minor things as briars, mud, wet feet and sneezes. For latest information, see Marty McCullough, Billy Porterfield and Ross Spielman.

Hurry, hurry, hurry, here they come—why, it's none other than MTSC's very own—the ROTC boys marching to that left, right cadence as they add their colorful part to the Armistice Day parade. Say, those ROTC Sponsors looked cute, didn't they?

The Amazon Party really "hit the spot"—agree girls?? Seems that everyone enjoyed the gals taking over for a few hours!

See you at Vandy—Let's show em' we have a school that's got plenty of pep and team support.

Happy Homecoming, everyone!!!

PLAYERS PRESENT ARENA CHRISTMAS PRESENT

On The Run Show Will Accompany Initial Opening Of Arena Theater

"It's Been Hillarious—Come Join The Fun"

By BARBARA WITIAM

Above Mr. Lane Boutwell, dramatic director is giving character directions to the cast for "See How They Run" which will open the new arena theater. The masks are gold, hung on forest green walls. Left to right, (first row) Eupile Gilbert, G. P. West and Duncan Everett. Second row: George Pidcock, Sara Dean and Bill Cain. Third row: Sammie Lewis, Sue Durham and Dick Dillard. Open house will be held each night of the play which will run through the first week of December.

ALONG THE SIDELINES

Johnny DuVal

If there ever was to be a game on Jones Field in Murfreesboro, there'll be one there Thanksgiving Day. It would be impossible for any other conference in the country, besides the Ohio Valley, to go through a season and build up as much importance on one game as the 1953 OVC has.

The season is over for the other clubs, and that Turkey Day tilt will decide who will be the conference champ, or champs, as the case may be. And if there's not a capacity crowd on hand to see that contest, don't ask me why.

Of course everyone knows the tilt brings together arch-rivals Tennessee Tech, whose Golden Eagles have lost three contests, and the local Blue Raiders, up to this time loser to only two opponents.

Tech dropped their first encounter to powerful Memphis State, which, the following week, came to Murfreesboro, only to go home a 26-20 loser. Of course the Raiders dropped their first to conference foe Eastern Kentucky. The Maroons then journeyed to Cookeville to help the Eagles celebrate homecoming by getting whipped, 7-0.

The big surprise came when TPI went to Johnson City to take on East Tennessee State. They were jolted 21-13 and now had two setbacks, taking the third on the chin a week later from powerful Miami of Ohio, 44-6.

Middle Tennessee had its surprise, too, in Florence, Alabama. A couple of scoring opportunities fell by the wayside in the Raiders 14-0 loss to the Lions.

It was really useless, however, to even spend the time in looking over the past records, since they don't mean a thing when the two clubs tangle.

A win for the Golden Eagles would give them another title and knock Middle Tennessee into third place behind Eastern Kentucky. Naturally Eastern will be sitting back on their heels waiting for the outcome that will bring them a second place berth, or a triple tie for the crown. Such would be the case if the Raiders come through.

But don't let the records fool you into thinking Tech is not as powerful as ever. Besides their three setbacks, they have victories over the league's toughest: Eastern Kentucky, Western Kentucky (34-21), Murray State (9-0), and Morehead (27-0), besides a win over the Raiders' victor, Florence State (14-7).

"THRILL CONTESTS"—A RAIDER SPECIALTY

The current Middle Tennessee team has provided about the best games, from the "thrilling" standpoint, that any team could hope for.

It was evident in the Western opener that Middle Tennessee was outplayed offensively, and had to rely on a top-notch defense (a recovered fumble and blocked kick) to provide the 13-0 win. On different occasions Western threatened, getting to the one, the eight, the three, and the eight.

Then again against Eastern in Richmond, they kept the game going strong until a safety in the fading minutes of the game added a clincher, and threw water on what little fire was left under the Raider outfit.

The Troy State win (6-0) was one of those back-and-forth things that keep you on edge. An early touchdown netted the win, but once again the defense was called on to halt the Red Wave.

Of course the best yet came here against Memphis State in one of the best comebacks anyone could want to see. A beautiful pass from Bobby Young to George Haley was THE play that led to a 26-20 win. The Tigers had just beat Tennessee Tech, too.

And again on November 7 the Raiders spoiled Murray's homecoming by roaring back from a two touchdown deficit to win 28-25.

So it is evident that no better football could be played than is being played by the Big Blue. And it may not be over yet.

With the coming of the Vanderbilt game this weekend comes one of those unpredictable affairs.

Those who say Vandy has no team are a little mistaken. With a new coach and a sophomore backfield, no team could hope to beat teams like Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Alabama, Baylor, and any others in that calibre who are rated the tops in the nation.

But then on the other hand, these same people would still be mistaken if they thought the Commodores would have a field day against a team that can, and will, show the spirit that it takes to come with a few timely touchdowns. And I do believe that only a few, and very few, touchdowns will give somebody a victory in Saturday's game. It could be Vanderbilt's often-times porous defense and Middle Tennessee's up-to-now topnotch defense will spell the difference. We'll know soon.

New Officers Elected For Agriculture Club

The Agriculture club of Middle Tennessee State College met Monday night in the Agriculture building on the college farm to elect officers for the coming year.

Named to head the club were: Tom Hill, president; Paul Heiss, vice president; Elam Carlton, secretary-treasurer; Jimmie Sullivan, reporter; Thad Perry, sergeant-at-arms; and Clak Gannon, parliamentarian.

One of the main functions of the Agriculture club will be to provide a better social life for students majoring in this field, or any one interested in any way in Agriculture. Those interested in the club are invited to attend the next meeting, Tuesday night, October 20 at 8:15 p.m.

The club is under the sponsorship of the staff members of the MTSC Agriculture Department.

Offense Plays Take ETSC

Middle Tennessee State Blue Raiders found their offense in top shape here Saturday night as they outscored East Tennessee State 34-28.

However, the game set Raider coaches to worrying about defense and what would happen when the Raiders play Vanderbilt in Nashville Saturday. Only on a few plays, did the Raider defense hold the East Staters for "no gain." However, some of these came on crucial plays.

But, in general, coaches and fans alike were forecasting a bad day with the Commodores unless the Raiders can build better "defences" before Saturday.

MTSC rolled up 22 first downs in an offensive battle that saw them swap touchdowns quarter by quarter with East Tennessee State College before they finally eked out another thrilling victory.

Bobby Young came back to star in the roaring offense that marked a direct switch from the passing game employed to beat Murray to a well executed ground game behind Ken Duke and Francis Reynolds general-ship. Young scored two touchdowns on runs 10 and 16 yards, broke clear for 30 yards on another occasion to match Ewell's run that set up what was ultimately the game winning score. He gained a total of 190 yards in 26 carries, kicked twice for a 44.5 average, threw a 26 yard pass to Garner Ewell for the first Raider score and kicked four extra points.

Both Ewell and Rather proved constant ground threats with Rather getting 86 yards on 15 tries and scoring one touchdown. Ewell moved the ball for 59 yards on eight tries. In the line it was Howard Alsop, John Hayes and Billy Rogers that were credited with a majority of the tackles. Alsop probably played his best defensive game of the year as he was all over the field attempting to stop the potent Buccaneer running game that netted the visitors 19 first downs and four touchdowns.

The Raiders struck first in the dim-glow battle by Young's pass to Ewell in the first two minutes of play. ETSC came right back with Pete Wilson climaxing a ground

Tickets for the homecoming game, MTSC vs. TPI, are available at the bookstore.

Students may obtain "wife or date" tickets from the bookstore prior to Thursday for $1.00. Adult tickets to the student section will cost the usual $2.00 if the adult is accompanied by a student. "Wife-date" tickets will be sold only on presentation of the student activity card. Children's tickets are 60 cents and are not reserved.

Tickets for the Vanderbilt-Raider game will be available at the bookstore.

Organized buying homecoming supplies for floats, etc., at the bookstore will receive the customary discount. All merchandise not damaged may be returned for credit. Extra effort has been made by the bookstore management to make the necessary supplies available for the homecoming festivities.

ALUMNI RECEPTION TO PRECEDE DANCE

Immediately following the homecoming game a special reception for returning students will be held in the Union building. It will provide a chance for old friends to meet and chat. The new 21 inch screen Admiral television set bought by the ASB will be in the lobby in time for the reception.

The reception will last until time for the dance at 9:00 p.m. All alumni are asked to please register. The ASB will provide a special alumni guide which will include a schedule of the entire day's activities.

Senior Raiders Of The Week

By JOYCE COOPER and FRANCES CARTER

This week's honorees for RAIDERS OF THE WEEK are the fifteen senior Raiders who are playing their last game of the season on homecoming. They "have fought a good fight" for MTSC and deserve the highest praise and appreciation. To you senior Raiders, we say thank you in behalf of the students of MTSC.

Bill Etter

Bill Etter plays tackle on the Raider squad. He was alternate captain of the DuPont high school team in Old Hickory where he earned four football letters.

At MTSC Bill is a member of the "T" club, the aviation club, and physical education club.

This Raider lists as one of his greatest football thrills the last game with Vanderbilt when the Raider squad scored against them.

Bill describes the Blue Raider team as "one of the hardest hitting teams we have had in the last four years and I believe we can defeat TPI."

Garnett Rather

Co-captain Garnett Rather will be one of the most missed players on the gridiron next season. He has played half-back for the Raiders for the last four years. He is from Nashville where he played football and basketball for two years for East Nashville high school.

On entering MTSC, Garnett was elected vice president of his freshman class. For the past three years he has played on the college tennis team. He belongs to the "T" club and physical education club. Those who are around at the right time may find that Garnett is a talented piano player.

In 1952, Garnett made All-OVC and may be in line for it again this year.

This half-back began his college football career with a touch-down in the first game of the season. Since then he has been responsible for many more, scoring most of them after long runs. He only weighs 160 pounds and is five feet, eleven inches tall but in many games he has drug through piles of tacklers, still on his feet to make those first downs. "You can't get Rather down," yell the fans.

Rather's most outstanding game this season was against Memphis State.

Garnett attributes his football efficiency to his early retiring hour. George Stotser confirms the fact that Garnett is in bed by 10:00 each night.

When asked if he thought the team could beat Vandy, he simply replies, "Sure."

Dan Thweatt

Dan Thweatt, Raider center, wears jersey 65. This five-foot, eleven inch Raider enrolled at the University of Wyoming after graduating from Litton high school in Nashville. After completing his freshman year he transferred to MTSC.

At MTSC Dan is a member of the "T" club and Church of Christ group. He and his wife live on the campus.

Tommy Patton

Senior Tommy Patton stands 5'3" tall and weighs 175 pounds. Tommy's jersey number is 49. He was graduated from Litton high school in Nashville where he lettered for three years in football.

Tommy is a Cadet Lieutenant Colonel in the MTSC ROTC.

This player is married and lives on the college campus.

Dick Hawk

Dick Hawk started on the Raider team in his freshman year. He played on the South Pittsburg high school team for four years before coming to MTSC. Dick took a leave of absence from the team until this season when he resumed his position as guard.

Jim Lincoln

One of bigger boys on the Raider squad is tackle Jim Lincoln who stands six feet four and weighs 225. A native of Tullahoma, he is a graduate of the high school there, where he lettered three years in football. After graduation, Jim attended the University of Georgia and transferred to MTSC as a junior.

A physical education major, he is minoring in biology and education. Jim is an active member of the Phys. Educ. club and was president last year. He is now president of the T Club and is a former member of the Supreme Court. Also, he is to be listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

After his army "career" he plans to become a coach.

"Big Jim" expressed the opinion of the entire team when asked about the coming Vandy and TPI games: "We're going to win those games and really play hard." When questioned about this year's team he replied, "With a little luck we could have been an undefeated team."

Ellis Hamlet

Ellis H. Hamlet, better known as "Ham," hails from Thomaston, Georgia. He received his secondary education at Robert E. Lee Institute where he lettered four years in football and two years in track. This six foot one 225 pound tackle includes reading and good music on his list of hobbies.

A senior, he plans to make the army his future career—if he decides against teaching. "Ham" is majoring in physical education with minors in history, biology and edu-

When asked about the football team this year, he said, "Best team we've had in the four years I've been here. The boys have worked hard and have worked together."

The best game he could remember was last year's victory over TPI.

Bobby Osteen

The pass which Bobby Osteen intercepted in the Western game and the difficult tackles he made started him off with a "bang" on the Raider's list of valuable players.

Bobby plays guard on the Raider team. He is also captain of the baseball team and senior heavyweight wrestler. He is a member of the physical education, industrial arts and aviation clubs.

At Forrest high school, Osteen was captain of his football team. He also made all-conference. He comes from a family of baseball players, has lived on a farm all his life and was awarded the State Farmer's degree.

Bobby ranked second in the Southeastern wrestling conference last year. Next summer he plans to do aerial crop dusting because he has gotten his pilot's license while at MTSC.

Bobby Young

By Bill Tullos

of the Nashville Banner

26 Young, FB.

That's the way he is listed on the program. It doesn't tell too much. Just that his number is 20, his last name is Young and that he plays fullback.

But to followers of Middle Tennessee State College he is Bobby Young, "Mr. Football, MTSC," and just about the best darn fullback ever to pull on the Blue and White of the Raiders.

Although playing for a small col-

INTRAMURAL OUTLOOK

By JAMES BAGWELL

With touch football rapidly coming to a close and the badminton series well on its way, the Intramural program for this quarter is off to a good start. The remaining contest, when you read this, will be wrestling. This Intramural will take place the week of November 30 through December 4. That's less than two weeks off, and if you are planning on taking part in it, start your training as soon as possible. Coach Joe Black Haye has often expressed the point that the main trouble he has with the wrestling Intramural is that many boys are out of shape and it is hard on them. So if you are planning on entering, get into shape before your match and it will be most beneficial to you.

Something new has been added to the Intramural program this year and they are the class managers. In the past, the captain of each team has had the job of getting his men to take part in the Intramural contests. This year, however, four men have been added to help the captain see that the members of his team know of the contest and to arouse interest in it. These helpers, or rather class managers, will be responsible for bringing to the attention of the team members the time, place, and opponent in their next Intramural contest.

The following are listed in order below as follows:
Team, Captain, Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior
Yellow—Don Jackson, John Thrower, Don Clark, Donald Justice, Frank Giles
Blue—Quentin Lane, Harry Brunson, Bobby Derryberry, Charles Pigg, Glenn Carson
Brown—Johnny DuVal, Al Phillips, Johnny DuVal, J. C. Duncan, No Senior
Green—George Stotser, Norman Derryberry, George Scott, Roscoe Spielman, Bobby Osteen
Orange—Ben Hurt, No Freshman, Sid Corbin, W. C. Johnson, George Haley
Red—George Brown, James McBride, Jim Windsor, David Singer, Sidney McGrew
White—Jack Benz, No Freshman, Raymond Hunter, Vernon Dews, Howard Alsop
Black—Tommy Lambert, Dick Bratten, Bernard Street, Johnny Gamble, James White

There they are, the men who will probably be asking you to come with them and help your Intramural team win, so by all means, don't be a bad sport and say you won't, if it is at all possible go with them, I think you will probably enjoy it and get some good exercise while you are at it.

"DEAR STUDENTS"

There is fun for all in the intramural program at MTSC. This means that everybody on the campus is invited to participate whenever possible or to come and cheer their friends to victory. Right now the teams are playing for the crown in both touch football and badminton. It's fun to win; just ask Pete Haynes who scored the only touchdown in a tight game between the Green and the Blue. Check with Bernard Street and Carl Cooper and see if they didn't enjoy rolling over the Whites in a 24 to 7 victory last week. Ben Hurt is proud of his Orange being on top of the ladder but he is being followed closely by Tommy Lambert's Blacks and Don Jackson's Yellow.

Badminton is in the spotlight with the finals for both the singles and the doubles being played on Wednesday night, November 18. The competition has already gotten quite keen, and it is sure to be a battle to the finish on the birdie courts for the championship that night.

Another activity this fall will be the annual cross country run starting on Wednesday afternoon the 18th of November. This run begins at 3:30 on the track around the football field, circles the rear of the college farm along the Halls Hill pike, beside the Tennessee Blvd., and winds up back on the track in front of the stands. Come over and see this event from the football stadium.

The intramural program is interested in introducing new activities throughout the year. Coach Hayes, the director of the program, welcomes any suggestions that will improve the program so that more students may participate in the large selection of activities.

lege in a small town, Murfreesboro-ans will argue you down that Bobby is the roughest, toughest, most hard-to-stop plunger around. And they aver that Vanderbilt will know it when the Raiders invade Dudley Field Saturday to do battle with the Commodores.

And they have a good argument. The 180-pound senior pile-driver currently ranks 10th in the nation in rushing offense—and he's played against some of the stiffest small college competition. In nine games Young has rushed for 959 yards in 153 carries for a neat 6.3 yard average.

His performance Saturday night at Murfreesboro was, in a word, "magnificent."

Young has scored nine touchdowns and kicked 14 extra points thus far this season to lead the Seated in car, left to right, are Joyce Garner, Betty Jo Hyde, and Peggy McQuiddy. Standing are Betsy Speer, Jean Gregory, Margaret Coleman and Carolyn DePriest. The theme of the float was the tomb of the Unknown soldier.

The ROTC will present their sponsors, drill team and band during the homecoming celebrations.

Blue Raider Supporters Number 368 As Largest Membership Back Athletics

Much of the success of the Raider team this year is due to memberships in the 1953 Blue Raider Club which reached a total of 368, including 44 local firms. This is the largest membership in the history of the club which supports the athletic program of MTSC. Members of the club are listed below.

Burnett, Hix, Cain Receive National Guard Commission

By TED MORGAN

Hello, what's this? To be sure, three MTSC students received direct commissions as second lieutenants with the 168th Military Police Battalion, a national guard unit in Nashville. The commissions were awarded them prior to their departure for summer training by the Adjutant-General at the Memorial Hotel in Nashville, July 21, of this year.

Commissioned were William B. Cain, Billy Hix, and Jack A. Burnett to the officer grade of second lieutenant, U. S. Army. Following their commissions they assumed company administrative responsibilities while with the 168th M.P. battalion in its annual summer training at Fort McClellan, Alabama.

While taking over the duties of company commander of the unit during its two week training period at McClellan, Bill Cain got his first taste of command responsibilities. He is to take full authority at the post of company commander the first of November.

Filling in at the capacity of Executive Officer with his organization, Jack A. Burnett leaves behind him his past duty of platoon sergeant. He will share with the other officers the training of the enlisted men over whom they now command.

A member of the 168th M.P. Battalion when the Korean war broke out in 1951, Burnett was sent to that theater of operations and remained there for ten months in Taejon as an M.P. Jack, who makes his home in Gallatin, is a third quarter sophomore majoring in physical education and aspires to coach scholastic or collegiate sports after graduation.

The Korean crisis likewise sent Billy Hix to a Korean theater of operations. He guarded prisoners of war at a P.O.W. compound on notorious Koje Island. Shortly following his release from active duty, he attained connections with the 168th, and on hearing of its reorganization, rejoined his old outfit. As an officer, Hix will be in charge of the motor-pool and supply functions of the organization. Billy, a third quarter sophomore majoring in pre-law with education as a minor, is on the football team here at MTSC. His home is in Gallatin.

During the Korean conflict, Bill Cain remained at Fort Meade, Maryland as an M.P. for 21 months. Contact with the re-organized guard unit following his separation from active duty promptly gave him command of a platoon which he kept until the date of his commission to second lieutenant. Coming from Harriman, Tennessee, Cain is in his second year at MTSC as a third quarter sophomore, pre-law student. He is also very active as a cabinet representative in the Veterans' Organization here on the campus.

Commenting on how it feels to hold a commission with the National Guard, Cain had this to say to any interested parties, "A man can get a better deal out of the National Guard than any other reserve component."

Mrs. Moffitt Discusses Winter Floral Bouquets With Home Ec Girls

The Home Economics Club held its regular meeting Monday, November 9, at 5:45 p.m., with approximately fifty-six members present. After a short business meeting, a very interesting and enlightening program was presented by Mrs. Moffitt of Ryons Florist.

Mrs. Moffitt discussed various ways of making dried arrangements and the proper containers for these arrangements. She said many materials were available for these kinds of bouquets, and may be treated in various ways, such as painted, or dyed any color that fits with the color scheme of the room or affair at which the arrangement is to be used.

After this Mr. Bundy made our picture for the MIDLANDER.

We'll be in the stands to see you, Bill, and the Raider lineup, "ring" the Eagles for us.

LATEST COLLEGE SURVEY SHOWS LUCKIES LEAD AGAIN

Last year a survey of leading colleges throughout the country showed that smokers in those colleges preferred Luckies to any other cigarette.

This year another nation-wide survey — based on thousands of actual student interviews, and representative of all students in regular colleges — shows that Luckies lead again over all brands, regular or king size...and by a wide margin! The No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better.

Smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste, and the fact of the matter is Luckies taste better — for 2 reasons. L.S./M.F.T. — Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. And Luckies are made better to taste better. So, Be Happy — Go Lucky!

Howard prepped at Central high school, Murfreesboro. He immediately fell into the starter rank on the MTSC team. Aisup is practically immovable on defense and switches to offense without any let up.

"Big Soup," as some of his friends call him, weighs two hundred and thirty pounds and stands six feet four inches tall. Howard never moved ahead again when Youngseems to get excited and always plays a clean game. He rated VSAC tackle his freshman year and repeated again the next year. When MTSC switched to the OVC coaches, players and followers like his brand of play so well that he was placed at their right tackle spot, also he was named as their '52 honorary Captain. Following this the Raiders elected him their captain.

drive with a 25 yard scoring pass to Hal Morrison. The Raiders broke the deadlock again before the first eight minutes of the first quarter was over with Garnett Rather scoring from the eight. ETSC stormed back and before the second quarter was very old Jerry Ford went across from the six and Morrison converted. With five minutes to spare in the half Young went over from 16 yards out and converted to give the Raiders a 21-14 halftime lead.

The Bucs dominated play in the third quarter, the Raiders getting the ball for only four plays, including a kick and a kick-off return. The Bucs knotted the tally when Ford scored from the two after Young had fumbled in midfield and two lightning passes to Morrison from Wilson had set up a score.

In the fourth period The Raiders
