Midlander Contest In Offing; Girls To Vie For Honor

The annual Midlander Ball will be held on November twenty-second from eight to twelve o'clock p.m. in the Tennessee Room. Music will be furnished by Kelly Graves and his combo.

The prelude to this event is the exciting election of "Miss Midlander" and her court. Each class is to select four girls to participate in the contest. November fourteenth has been set as the day to judge the sixteen beauties vying for the title. The contest will be held during the intermission of the talent show to be sponsored by the Veterans' Club. The judges will select five finalists, one of whom will be crowned "Miss Midlander", and the other four who will be named as her attendants. The queen and her court will be presented during intermission of the Midlander Ball.

Tickets for the dance will sell for $1.50 per couple, and no stags will be allowed. Sale of the tickets will start about November the eleventh, and they may be bought from any member of the Midlander staff. Linda Williamson, business manager of the Midlander, will be in charge of ticket sales, and Le Eleanor Smith, associate editor of the Midlander, will be in charge of the beauty contest.

Gardner and Croft Double Cast In "Dial M For Murder"

Charlotte Gardner and Sara Jane Croft have been double cast in the lead of the Buchanan Players fall production, to be held on November 20-21. It will be the gripping, suspenseful drama by Frederick Knott, "Dial M for Murder." Mrs. Gardner will play the lead on the first night of the play, with Miss Croft in that role on the following night.

Mrs. Gardner has been active in the Buchanan Players for some time. In their spring production, she played the lead in "Night Must Fall."

Miss Croft is a transfer from Belmont where she played in "Macbeth."

In the lead male role, Garie Taylor will play the part of Tony Wendice. Supporting players will be: Lesgate; Frank Gardner as Inspector Hubbard, and Ray Sanders as Williams.

The play will be under the direction of Mrs. Clay Tucker, who came to MTSC this year from Columbia. She was drama coach at Columbia High School and both acted in and directed plays at the Aonde Theater. Last year, she was state director of the National Thespian Society. She is an MTSC alumni with a notable dramatic background.

MTSC Bursar Authors Magazine Article

T. B. Woodmore, MTSC bursar, is the author of "Professors or Brick, Which?" appearing in the September issue of "College and University Business" magazine.

In his article, Woodmore discusses the needs of colleges today. He writes that improved salaries for teachers now employed, additional well trained faculty members at adequate salary and additional physical facilities in that order are the most pressing needs to meet the indicated increase in enrollment of colleges and universities.

Woodmore attended the University of the South and Peabody College. He was named business manager of the college in 1929 after having served as county superintendent of Trousdale county.

Cadet Lt. Col. George W. Mills Heads Regiment

Members of the Middle Tennessee State College Reserve Officers Training Corps Cadet Regimental Staff, as recently announced by Major Q. L. McNary, are Carlton A. Galbreath, Regimental Executive Officer; Harrel D. Ward, Regimental S1; Raymond C. Norvell, Regimental S2; Weldon Adams, Regimental S3; John G. Wood, Jr., Assistant Regimental S3; James E. Gibson, Regimental S4; George W. Mills, Regimental Commander.

Honor Society To Initiate New Members

The Tau Omicron Society of Middle Tennessee State College was founded in 1930 for the purpose of honoring junior and senior girls who excel in scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Since its initial meeting, the motto has been, "Strive to build rather than destroy—to help rather than hinder."

Three meetings are held each quarter, and new members are pledged at the first of the quarters. The girls being honored this quarter are: Jean Adamson and Joyce Adamson from Watertown, Judy Holt from Pulaski, Becky Davis from Murfreesboro, Ann Porterfield from Augusta, Georgia, Janet Lewis from Chattanooga, Mary Jo Collier from Nashville, and Betty Jane Osteen from Chapel Hill.

On October nineteenth, the president, Joan Startup, met with the new members and outlined the plans for the year. Included in these plans was the initiation banquet on October twenty-ninth.

Other officers include Mary Ann Holly, vice-president; Joanne Wright, secretary; Betty McClain, treasurer; and Elizabeth Schardt and Buleah Davis, sponsors. Members are: Eddy Jo Reid, Jane Panter, Louise Herd, Mary Jane Hargrove, Isabelle Scales, Patsy Causer, Mary Lynn Wilkes, and Mary Lou Guari.

Aquatic Club Members Selected For This Year

Tryouts for memberships in the Aquatic Club were held this month, and members of this year's group are: Ed Barlow, Annette Walker, Ann Satcher, Bob Hallum, Judy Patterson, Don Stuart, Birdie Ann Donnell, Mary Frances Wright, Pat Patterson, Jackie Krutzinger, Lawrence Robbins, Jack Fransland, Sammy Griner, Nancy Hauchin, Mary Jo Collier, and Madge Smith.

The following were to have tried out October 15: Betty Richards, Adelia Denton, Daryl Miller, Diane South, Mary Kaye Johnson and Holland Bratton.

Annette Walker is president of the organization. Ed Barlow is vice-president, Ann Satcher Porterfield, secretary, and Judy Patterson, treasurer. Publicity chairmen are Birdie Ann Donnell and Don Stuart. Mrs. Betty Littlefield is sponsor.

Tryouts are held at the beginning of the year to determine membership. The club meets at 7:00 at the pool every Wednesday night. It also presents the annual water show in the spring.

TALENT SHOW

The Vet Club is sponsoring a talent show this quarter. They would like to have people who have talent to contact Clyde "Bit" Brown, or Earle "Smoky" Burch; leave a note in Box 726 or 866.

SYLVIA WILLIAMS

Local 4-H Girl Wins State Title

Sylvia Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams of Murfreesboro, Tennessee, won the State 4-H club dress title at Chattanooga last weekend.

A black velvet party dress created by Miss Williams took top honors in the dress review.

The 18-year-old Middle Tennessee State College freshman will receive an all expense-paid trip to the National 4-H club Congress in Chicago in November. She is the first state winner from Rutherford County in the dress review contest, and the second local 4-H'er to win a trip to the National Congress in over five years.

Miss Williams is a graduate of Central High School, Murfreesboro, Tennessee, where she was active in 4-H and Future Homemakers club work. She was editor of the Central annual her senior year.

Youngs Become Proud Parents

Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Young announce the birth of a baby boy, Jack Diamond Young, who was born October 15 at 6:00 P.M. and weighed 6 pounds, 4½ ounces at birth.

Mr. Young is a member of the agriculture department faculty.

Favorable Reports Shown For 'Master Plan'

Q. M. Smith, president of Middle Tennessee State College, reported on the progress of the "master plan" for a seven million dollar expansion program for the college at the faculty meeting last week.

Smith told the faculty that the State Board of Education was favorably impressed with the "master plan" for the 12 year expansion of the campus facilities, but assured them that there would be no great hurry or extravagance in the program.

"We do not expect this to be done this week, or next, or perhaps even much of it during this administration. We want to build only that which is necessary to constitute good, comfortable places of work, with equipment to do the job. Study your needs in the view of those needs, not for the purpose of designing a dream house," he said, in seeking faculty co-operation in planning the new building program.

The college chapter of the Tennessee Education Association named delegates to the Tennessee Legislative Assembly at the faculty meeting. Delegates to the January meeting in Nashville are Roy Simpson, Dr. Bealer Smotherman, Mrs. Neil Wright, Elaine Parchment, Eddie Voorhies, Miss Catherine Clark and Dr. Howard Kirksey.

James Writes On Youth Delinquency

"Juvenile Delinquency" is the title of an article appearing in the October issue of the Tennessee Teacher by Clayton L. James, professor of sociology at Middle Tennessee State College.

In the article Mr. James points out that if the present trend is not reversed an estimated 750,000 boys and girls will pass through the juvenile courts in 1960.

Mr. James explores the success—or lack of it in reform and prevention—and concludes that "seem to have established the fact that no other agency than the public school, provided the staff is professionally trained and interested in dealing with children, can carry so

Total Enrollment Now Triple That 12 Years Ago; Reaches 2249

Middle Tennessee State College has almost as many members in the 1958 senior class as were in the entire student body at the close of World War II. At that time, a projected enrollment of 2,000 was made for 1960.

This year, the enrollment reached 2249, as of October 7, according to N. C. Beasley, dean of admissions. Last year, the college enrolled 2,076 for the fall quarter.

The senior class has 493 members registered while the freshman class is another record breaker with 712 members. There are 555 sophomores and 369 juniors. Graduate students number 116.

Men outnumber women in full time students, but women outnumber men 301 to 122 as part time students.

Comparable figures for the past two years reflect the college growth. In the fall quarter of 1955 there were 1932 students, 1956 there were 2076 and this year 2245. The number in the freshman class in 1955 was 590, there were 636 in 1956 and 712 in 1957. The ratio of men to women continues to increase although 96 more women registered this year than last.

In 1955 there were 1194 men, 738 women; in 1956 there were 1347 men, 729 women. This year there are 1419 men and 826 women.

Letter To The Editor

NOTICE

This letter is addressed to all students of Middle Tennessee State College who feel that School Spirit is someone else's job, or to those suitcase kids, who for some unknown reason, have failed to grow up enough to adapt to college life.

On Friday morning, October 11, classes were dismissed, through the efforts of a small group of school spirited students, for the purpose of a pep rally and send off for the Number One Small College Football Team in the country. The efforts of this group were wasted, to say the least.

Half of the students seemed to have the impression that classes were let out early so they could head for the dorms or the coffee shop, because they felt they were above the low group of people who wanted a pep rally.

As for those courageous ones who favored us with their presence at the rally, they were misinformed; it was not a side show for them to stand around and watch, or see if anyone else was yelling. The purpose of the rally was to give the team a rousing send off; the result to the coaching staff, the players and the school.

On Saturday night in Richmond, Kentucky, a small group of 23 MTSC students made more noise and created more spirit than at any home game, as the Raiders romped over the Easterners 35-14. Are the students of this school going to let 23 people represent the 2,200 students of our school.

You probably noticed the publicity Tenn. Tech received with their special train to Memphis. We couldn't even get enough students to charter a 39 passenger bus. Nice going, students, another feather in TPI's hat. Their football team lost 40-7, our team won 35-14, yet they have more school spirit than we. Why?

More season tickets were sold this year than ever before which means the town is behind the team. It's not even their school; it's ours, so if they can support the raiders, why can't we?

For those students who must work on game nights, or have some other legitimate reason we hold no contempt, but for those (the majority) who are just too childish to stay away from home for one weekend, or to go see the old high school play—then we ask: Are you going to let Tenn. Tech. and other schools with inferior teams outdo the No. One Football Team in the land. It's not too late to start now, let's all pitch in and support the Raiders!

Life Can Be Beautiful

JANET LEWIS

This campus is SUCH a fascinating place! There's always something to do. Why, the other day as I was rushing to the music building for a jam session (we always have afternoon tea at 4:00 p.m.), I spied Bill Vaden and Lyle Hunter grading the girls. As each unsuspecting female passed by their shaded bench, the boys would record their individual scores. Points were awarded on the basis of personality (acknowledging presence of judges), dress, and posture. The self-appointed judges would then compare notes. Girls, I hate to admit this, but when I peeked at the gradebooks, I saw only one A.

That Fun Night we have is really funny. You should see all the different types of dancers. One pair that definitely has talent is Barbara Hall and Buford Eaststep. I didn't know a person could move that fast with a shotgun after him!

Classes make interesting bouts too. Were you present at 10:00 a.m. in evaluation and guidance for Womack and Socrates versus Carl Searcy and George Washington?

Did everybody go to the freshman parade? I believe every one went in the same car that I did. It was a black convertible with Andy Young driving, nine girls and two housemothers riding, and "Off and On Branham" diving from the fender to steal candy from the unsuspecting kiddies.

There was a strange sight outside Lyon Hall last Saturday morning, if anyone had been awake at 5:30 a.m. to see it. Joan Nelson stood in the dawning light for half an hour, waiting for the taxicab that didn't come. Somebody's alarm clock refused to ring. (Is MY face red?)

Late last Saturday night, I sneaked into the kitchen at Monohan and found Helen Massey still slaving over her cookies. I say "still," because she started making the crumbly things early that morning. She had to bake ten dozen, seven at a time, on a pie pan.

See, isn't life interesting? P.S. What a math professor wants to know: "What is the largest number in the world?" For a clue, see the Fairview Florist advertisement.

Samuel R. Freeman, retired assistant superintendent of a Birmingham steel mill, died at his home recently. He is a brother of O. L. Freeman, professor of industrial arts at Middle Tennessee State College.

MARY ANN HOLLY

By Mary Frances Wright

A very popular co-ed on our campus, whom I'm sure needs no introduction, is Mary Ann Holly, a graduate of Dupont High School, in Old Hickory, Tennessee.

Looking back through her high school days, one can easily see why Mary Ann's popularity would continue throughout her college years. While in high school she was a member of Future Teachers of America, Future Business Leaders of America, Alpha Iota Kappa Sorority, band, annual staff and newspaper staff. Mary Ann also won many high school honors, such as being elected treasurer of her junior and senior classes, chosen queen of junior and senior prom, recipient of DAR medal, and graduating third in her class scholastically.

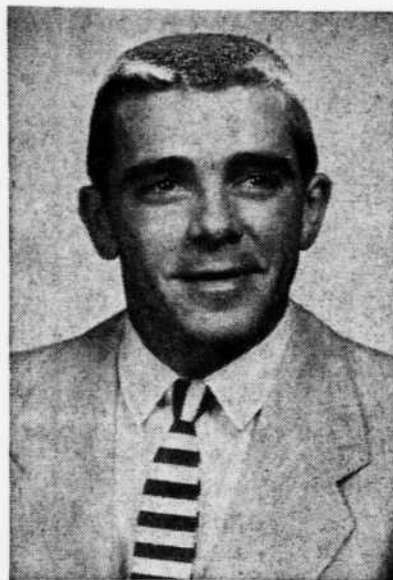

In the fall of 1954, Mary Ann entered MTSC, where she is now a senior, majoring in English. After graduation she plans to teach.

Mary Ann is a member of various clubs here at MTSC. Some of these include Social Science Club, Student N.E.A., and Church of Christ Group. She has also received many honors such as being elected president of Kappa Delta Pi, vice president of Tau Omicron, congress member for two years, vice-president of senior class, copy editor for the Midlander, a candidate for "Miss Midlander", candidate for Homecoming queen, and senior attendant to Homecoming queen.

Her hobbies include fishing, reading, and collecting records and stuffed animals. Her favorite foods are chilli, spaghetti and pizza pie.

When asked what qualities she admires most in people, Mary Ann's reply was that she appreciates people who are considerate, tactful, sincere and honest. And, gentlemen, this next part is dedicated to you. Mary Ann's prospective husband must be mannerly, ambitious, a good Christian, thoughtful, neat in appearance, and possess a good sense of humor. Do you qualify?

Presenting The Senior Leader, Clyde Brown

CLYDE BROWN

This begins series of articles which is designed to acquaint you with the class presidents of your school.

The president of the senior class is a well-known figure on the MTSC campus.

Clyde Richard Brown, better known as "Bit", hails from Cleveland, Tennessee.

Clyde is twenty-four years old and a veteran, who served years in the U. S. Army with the engineers of the Fifth Army. His major is sociology, with minors in economics and education.

In addition to president of the senior class, Clyde is active in the Social Science Club, Veterans Club, Student NEA, and Baptist Student Union. He also works part-time in the Guidance and Testing Division of the psychology department at MTSC. Upon graduation, Clyde plans to accept a position with the Veterans Administration in the division of social work.

Record Auction To Spark Fun Night

MTSC record fans will be interested to learn that the Tuesday evening Fun Night, October 28, will be the scene of an ASB record auction. In order to secure additional money for new records, the ASB Congress will auction off the old Fun Night records to the highest bidder. If you have an old favorite you enjoy hearing, come and join the party. You can take it home with you, if you can outshout the guy next to you.

Another item of interest on the evening's agenda is the Suggestion Box, which will be placed outside the door of the Tennessee Room. If you have a favorite record you'd like secured for Fun Night purposes, cast your ballot, and the ASB may buy it. Records will be chosen on the basis of student popularity.

If this auction is a success, it may become an annual event; so bring your money, and come prepared for an evening of entertaining combat.

The Spyglass

Lying Lyons

By Dottie McQuiddy and Dorcas Gunter

Wednesday night a housemeeting was held in the dorm to elect officers for the year. The first officer elected was president Bonnie Hudgens. Bonnie then presided over the remainder of the meeting.

Other officers elected were: vice president, Nancy Johnson; secretary, Tayve Pack; treasurer, Margaret Cantrell; song leader, Hazel Matthews; pianist, Sandra Holder. Lyon Hall is certainly proud of their new officers. With their guidance, this year promises to be a successful one.

Lyon Hall would like to express its appreciation to its three hostesses, Janet Lewis, Joyce Russell, and Rebecca Swafford. These three girls have won the respect and admiration of every freshman girl in Lyon by their friendliness and their willingness to help at all times.

Club Comments

BOB GREESON

At last we bring you the column we promised you in the first edition of our paper. The following information comes to us through the response of outstanding club members who are interested in their clubs and in their promotion on this campus. Many thanks to those people for responding to our request for information. We hope that in our future editions we shall be able to bring you a continued and interesting report on the activities of our clubs. This will depend upon the cooperation and response of the officials of each club.

BEAUX ARTS CLUB

The Beaux Arts Club is an organization for art minors and for students who are interested in the promotion of better art on the campus.

The club was organized last year and sponsored by Mr. Rubens and Mr. LeDoux. Officers are as follows: Fred Greer, president; Bobby Hollingsworth, vice-president; Deanna Cantrell, secretary; and Wanda Davenport, treasurer.

Meetings are held on the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 6:00 p.m. in Room 128 of the Administration building. Notices will be posted as a reminder to you on the day of meeting. This is one of the newer clubs on the campus and offers the students an opportunity to gain a better understanding of the various phases of art through cultural associations. Such associations provide our students with the ability to discuss and acquaint themselves with contemporary and historical aspects of our culture on a level above the average layman.

The club will sponsor art exhibits, speakers, and interesting films during the year. You are urged to attend these important meetings. Sponsors and members extend a

Monohan Moans

By Katherine Goodman

Monohan Hall was buzzing with excitement as usual. Homecoming was great! Most of the girls stayed up for the game and the dance.

Monohan was the center of royalty as Queen Betty and three of her attendants were seen all weekend floating down the halls on Cloud Number Nine.

Monohan was filled with alumni. Seen roaming the halls were Jane Leech Mary Cook, and Sue Richardson Bass, just to mention a few. Guests for the weekend were Martha Moorehead, Hazel Passions, Marjorie Grayson, Peggy Towery, Ann Eaden, Judy Oakley, Barbara Harrington, and Carmine Alexander.

Girls, don't be alarmed when you see a handsome, dashing, young man lurking the halls of first floor. Bobby is Mrs. Sullivan's grandson—age three.

Judy Patterson, Nancy King, and Nancy Shumate had loads of fun this weekend at the home of Barbara Rogers. These girls have a little scheme of going to one of the girls' houses for a gala time.

The atmosphere of the dorm is now bubbling since the Fayetteville Flash is back in cahoots with the Mount Pleasant Fullback.

It's to be a December wedding for Becky Wilson and Bill Couch. The vows will be said in Mississippi, home state of the bride-to-be. Becky is a graduate of Bruce High School, Bruce, Mississippi, and Baptist Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in Memphis. She is presently employed at the VA hospital in Murfreesboro. Bill graduated from Murfreesboro Central High School and is a freshman at MTSC.

Major I. L. McNary, professor of Military Science and Tactics, has announced the list of promotions of non-commissioned officers for the college regiment. Several town students were included. Cadets promoted to rank of Master Sergeant are Ben Parsley and Billy Cox. Those promoted to Sergeant First Class are William Hayes and Jimmy Markum.

"Juvenile Delinquency" is the title of an article appearing in the October issue of the "Tennessee Teacher." It was written by Dean Clayton James, professor of sociology here at MTSC. In the article Dean James emphasizes the importance of church, home, and school in the prevention of juvenile delinquency. He pointed out that if the present trend is not reversed, an estimated 750,000 boys and girls will pass through the juvenile courts in 1960.

Army Sergeant Talmadge B. Gilley, Jr. of Murfreesboro participated in ceremonies honoring Britain's Queen Elizabeth II, when she arrived in Washington, D. C., on October 17, on a visit of state. Gilley is a member of the Third Infantry which serves as the President's honor guard and is the Army's ceremonial detachment. He is a 1956 grad of MTSC.

Kenneth Shipp, native of Murfreesboro and former football great at MTSC, has accepted an assistant coaching position at Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas. Coach Shipp played halfback and defensive end for the Raiders and then returned a few years later to his alma mater to take over the duties of freshman coach and chief scout.

Another MTSC grad is also in Texas. Charles Williamson is now attending flight school at San Marcos, Texas.

Mary Anne Shearin and Banny Matthews were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hamilton of Atlanta, Georgia. The Georgia Tech-Auburn football game and after-game parties at the Sigma Nu house were highlights of the trip for the two MTSC juniors.

Rolman Rocks 90; Hall Hammers 73; G. Football Leads E. Grabs; Rizer Rises; Raiders Ramble Intramural Boom By Chattanooga 20-6 for Season's 6th

Middle Tennessee State College scored in each of the three first quarters to defeat the University of Chattanooga 20-6 before 7,000 fans in Murfreesboro Saturday night.

Captain Buck Rolman ran the opening kickoff back 90 yards in the first quarter. Two minutes before the end of the second quarter Roy Hall broke loose on a counter play behind Jerry Hurst's key block for 73 yards. In the third quarter Bob Hallum passed 30 yards to G. E. McCormack for the third score. Roy Hall converted on two tries from placement. Joe Abercrombie scored the Moccasins touchdown on fourth down from the one after John Green had passed 36 yards to Bill Butler with four minutes to go in the game. Tillman's 28 yard touchdown pass to G. E. McCormack for a fourth Raider score with two minutes left to play was nullified by a holding penalty.

Morehead State will be the Raider opponent Saturday night at Morehead, Kentucky as the Raiders try to make it six in a row. Morehead held TPI to a one touchdown margin earlier this year and will give the Raiders a tough time at home.

The Raiders will be on the road at Austin Peay November 2 and Murray, Kentucky November 9 before returning home for two final home games against ETSC and TPI.

The expected passing duel between Green and Hallum resulted in Chattanooga throwing 28 times for 13 completions and 104 yards. The Mocs picked up 100 yards rushing. The Raiders completed three of ten tosses for 54 yards and ground out 186 yards on the ground. Chattanooga was ahead in first downs 13 to 6. Hallum and Tillman outkicked Voris Williams and Green with an MTSC average of 41.4 to Chattanooga's 35.4.

Lester Rizer, Bill Hall, Harold Greer, Ralph Massey and Don Franklin played brilliantly for the Raiders in the forward wall. Ray Purvis stood off an early fourth quarter touchdown threat with a goal line pass interception. Chattanooga's Bill Lewis and Jim Tucker's defensive play was outstanding.

Co-eds May Earn $200 Monthly While Training For Army Med Work

Lieutenant Betty A. Estrada, procurement officer for the Army Specialist Medical Corps from Third Army, will be on the MTSC campus November 21 to speak to girls in majoring health, art, and home economics work.

The program permits girls now in college to earn from $206.40 to $211.60 monthly while in the junior and senior year of college as "E-1" or "E-2" program. At the conclusion of this period, they will be commissioned as second lieutenants and will serve from 24 to 36 months as an officer in one of the programs for which their training has qualified them.

Students who have completed the sophomore or junior year are eligible for the program, if, between the ages of 18 and 30, an unmarried female citizen of the United States of high personal and scholastic qualifications, and able to pass the physical examination.

Touch football, swimming, badminton, and the upcoming archery and cross country events highlight the intramural sports scene at MTSC.

The big headliner in these happenings is touch football, which has already passed the half way mark in its fall schedule. Rain and wind-swept skies were on hand for the scheduled October 7 openers. Originally the Red vs. Black contest was to serve as the official opener, and the Blue vs. White battle would follow, but bad weather caused the cancellation of these along with the October 17 games. These contests will be played on a later date.

The Green Club of the American League seems to have the jump on some of the other outfits. They have racked up a two win, one loss record, before the other squads could get their wheels rolling. Other winners were the Orange and White crew. To date, only four contests have been played. Orange has victories over the Yellow six, 21-13. Green squeezed out an 8-6 thriller from Brown. The White ball club edged out a breather over Yellow, 18-15. A sharp looking Green outfit romped to their second win 21-6 over Red.

The standings have Green on top in the American circuit with a two win, no loss record. Then comes (Continued on Page 8)

ROY CRABTREE

ARE WE THAT GOOD?

Could the Raiders hold their own with Georgia, Alabama, Maryland? Could they beat Wyoming or Nebraska? Lynn Waldorf, for 32 years one of America's outstanding football coaches, stated on his recent visit to the MTSC campus that the Raiders were better than many of the "major college" teams of a few years ago.

Are they better than some of them today?

Apparently Dr. E. E. Litkenhous, the Vanderbilt engineer-football expert who makes national ratings each week for the newspapers, gave the Raiders a 74.5 rating as compared with Vanderbilt 75.6, Wake Forest 72.6; Wyoming 71.4; Kansas State 68.9; Maryland 74.8; Nebraska 63.1; Penn State 77.9; Georgia 76.2; Citadel 66.7; Columbia 46.2; Cornell 60.2; Dartmouth 68.7; Florida State 69.2; Holy Cross 73.4; Alabama 71.1. Out of the 130 schools rated, Dr. Litkenhous placed 65 below the Raiders.

ARE NATIONAL RATING SOUND

No national rating system is to be taken too seriously. Yet the sports writers and the boys that lay the bets pay good money for them.

How do our neighbors rate on the Litkenhous slide rule?

Memphis State would give us a whale of a game at 71.3. On current play TPI is rated at 46; East Tennessee at 48.7; Murray 54; Chattanooga 62.9 and Austin Peay at 43. The University of Tennessee is 94.7, Georgia Tech 99, Auburn 101, Oklahoma 112.5.

Three years ago who would have dared say that Ray Duffy's pride in the Fighting Irish at Notre Dame would make them only a 13 point pick over the Blue Raiders.

Oh! Yes! Suppose we were playing Vanderbilt this week as planned, before they asked to be relieved of the contract to meet an SEC fee. Dr. Lit thinks the Commodores would beat us by 1.3 points—which would be some football score!

OLYMPIC SPIRIT?

(ACP) — Worried over the "true spirit of the Olympics" is the CAMPUS NEWS at East Los Angeles Junior College, California.

"It seems the American sports writer is placing the people a misconceived idea of the true spirit of the Olympics. . . . Indeed we should be proud to claim athletes like Rev. Bob Richards, Greg Bell, etc. But why are the writers comparing America's triumphs to Russia's defeats."

"Surely this is not America's way of proving her superiority to the Soviet Union."

Club Scores Five In 35-14 EKS Win

Middle Tennessee State's Rambling Raiders forged into the Ohio Valley Conference lead by defeating Eastern Kentucky 35-14 in Richmond Kentucky October 12.

The MTSC team stormed to five first half touchdowns and settled down to let the second and third teams battle it out on even terms for the last half.

For the records, touchdowns were scored by Bob Hallum on a one yard plunge, by Buck Rolman on a 67 yard run, by Ray Bell on a 20 yard pass from Hallum, by a 45 yard run by Gene Windham after a lateral pass from Bucky Pitts and on a two yard plunge by Ray Purvis. Roy Hall kicked three placekicks, Roy Hall two.

East Kentucky dominated the statistical figures, largely due to the second half hammering against the Raider reserves that saw Roy Hartman and John Sebest crash for four and two yard touchdowns respectively in the last quarter after sustained Eastern drives in the air and on the ground. Eastern had 14 first downs to the Raiders eight; 176 rushing yards to Raiders 174 and 147 yards passing to the Raiders 43. The difference came in that the Raiders hit when it counted.

Active Orchestra Plans Busy Year

The Middle Tennessee State College Orchestra presents its first concert on November 17 in the college auditorium. The program which features an out-of-town soloist is to be published at a later date. It has been announced that the music will cover the seventeenth through the twentieth centuries.

The types of music are to include one of the earliest classical symphonies of its form, a selection from both the Baroque and Romantic era, some folk music, and a selection from an American musical show.

The orchestra, one of the three major music organizations on the campus, is giving two formal programs and two assembly programs this year. The director feels that the addition of three new stringed instruments will add to the effectiveness of the group.

The orchestra is made up of very enthusiastic students and a number of the town's people. It has been called a community orchestra in function, but not in name. The officers for this year are as follows: president, Jimmy Vaughn; vice-president, Patsy Caneer; secretary-treasurer, George Bachaman; librarian, Richard Hunter; reporter, Gayle Seay; accompanist, John McDonald.

The group is under the direction of Mrs. Rubye Taylor Sanders and the conduction of Mr. Kenneth L. Pace. Mr. Pace says, "This orchestra is the largest and the best sounding we have ever experienced this early in the year."

Enthusiastic Students Parade In Ovation

A large number of students, who attended the UC-MTSC football game, Saturday, October 19, met at the gymnasium for a pre-game parade to downtown Murfreesboro.

A long line of gaily-decorated cars streamed down the main street, while their passengers shouted enthusiastic cheers. This demonstration was to prove to the MTSC football team that their fans were backing them.

Church of Christ Group Plans Active Program

One of the more active church organizations on the Middle Tennessee State College campus this year is the Church of Christ group of which Walter Kenneth Hayes, Murfreesboro is president. Other officers are Bobby Eugene Stinson, Nashville, president, and Joanne Wright, Old Hickory, secretary and treasurer.

The group opened the fall quarter with a three day encampment at Montgomery Bell Park September 20-22. Dr. Douglas Shields, Dr. Exum Watts and Dr. Norman Parks from the MTSC faculty were speakers there, along with Dr. Jennings Davis, James Kinney, and Bob Morris of David-Lipscomb College and the Nashville churches. The North Boulevard church across the street from the campus here aided in the arrangements with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Belcher of that congregation being in charge of the food services.

On October 9, the North Boulevard church entertained with a picnic for students of the college. About one hundred student attended.

Six members of the faculty have joined to conduct a Bible class meeting college academic standards at MTSC. The class meets on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at four o'clock. Dr. Douglas Shields, Dr. Wymer Wiser, Dr. Harris Dark, Dr. Norman Parks, Dr. Exum Watts and Gene Sloan are teachers of this class, which is attended by about thirty members on a non-credit basis.

The group continues the Wednesday night meetings, first started in 1950. Mary Lynn Wilkes is editor of the group bulletin named the "Campus Christian". Other members of the bulletin committee are Mary Ann Holly, secretary, Mary Ann Orren, typist and reproductionist, Doris Wells, Cecile Mayberry and Larry Scott.

Music and Toy Trains Make Varied Curriculum

The Neil Wright (music department head) home is a quiet, lovely place until you haplessly wander into the basement. Suddenly you are met with a shrill whistle. Yes, it could be Mr. Wright; but I'm sorry, afraid not—this time.

As usual, this all started with Sonny's Christmas train about six years ago. At first, it was erected on plywood, so it could be slipped under his bed. Then it was put in the basement on tables.

Since then, it has been completely rebuilt two times. Now the "pike" occupies a space 30 feet long by 12 feet wide, is built on grid and flat tables, and the trackage is on four levels in some spots.

In its present stage of development, all the trackwork is completed. The mountains and most of the scenery (except for trees and shrubs) are finished.

There are about 300 feet of track and about 3,000 feet of copper wire underneath the scenery. (It all looks like a pinball machine.) There are fifteen switches and many remote controls. All the spurs and sidings are equipped with remote control couplers.

Three trains may be run at once under independent control. In full use it requires two men to operate. One man can operate most of the layout by two control panels. The layout has many bridges ranging from wooden trestles to box girders and even one suspension.

At present there are four locomotives on the "pike"—two steamers and two diesels. There are eleven freight cars, three old passenger cars, and four modern streamliners. (Anyone wanting to contribute old Lionel freight cars to the cause will be welcomed.)

The biggest job now is the building of various factories, stations, houses, etc.

(Some will be named after famous people—one example will be the Keathley "Belt" factory—most will be industries directly served by the Triple N Lines.)

TAU OMICRON SOCIETY

Tau Omicron is an honor society for women. Meetings are called by the president, and attendance is by invitation.

The first meeting of the year was held October 8, at 5:15 p.m. in the SUB. A delightful supper was enjoyed by the following members: Misses Joan Startup, president, Mary Ann Holly, vice-president, Joanne Wright, secretary; Betty McClain, treasurer; Elizabeth Schardt, sponsor; Buleah Davis, sponsor; Eddy Jo Reid, Jane Panter, Louise Herd, Mary Jane Hargrove, Isabelle Scales, Patsy Causer, Mary Lynn Wilkes, and Mary Lou Guari.

After the meal was served, a short business meeting was held, and the election of new members was conducted. The initiation of new members will held October 29, at 6:30 p.m. Place of meeting will be announced. The meetings are held once a month.

PI OMEGA PI, GAMMA CHI CHAPTER

Membership in this organization is based upon scholastic average, and membership is by invitation. Officers are as follows: president, Bobby Taylor; William Greene, vice-president; Mary Lynn Wilkes, secretary; Willard Mills, treasurer; Carol Hanes, reporter-historian. The sponsor is Mrs. Gerald Parchment. Meetings are held the first Thursday of each month at 10:45 in room A213. The calendar of events includes speakers for monthly meetings. A list of officers is not available to this column. On October 31, the club is sponsoring a "Farmer's Frolic". Everyone plan now to attend.

NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

This was formerly known as FTA. All those planning to enter the teaching profession will find this one of the most rewarding memberships on their extra-curriculum programs. Meetings are held on the first and third Thursdays of every month. The officers are: Mary Lou Givan, president; Mildred Dorris, vice-president; Mary Jane Hargrove, secretary; Joanne Wright, treasurer; Imogene Spear, scrapbook chairman; Alton Smith, parliamentarian; Carolyn Gonce, historian and publicity chairman.

At the last meeting, plans were made to sell cokes at the Educational Conference, and an opportunity was given for new members to join. New members can join at the first of every quarter.

MRS. IVAN BROWN

Mrs. Ivan Brown of Murfreesboro, has been named as an assistant librarian. She received her B.A. degree from Randolph Macon Women's College and her B.S. from Peabody College in library science. She is no stranger on the MTSC campus, since she has been associated with the Regional Library program here.

She has held membership in the Tennessee Library Association, Southeastern Library Association and the American Library Association.

Mrs. Brown was the former Miss Lady Houston. She is a member of the First Methodist Church.

University, the University of Vermont and Harvard University.

Miss Gray studied overseas in 1948, taking a course called "the Marshall Plan in Action" under the sponsorship of the University of Vermont. In the summer of 1952 she accompanied a small study group to various European countries, conducted by the Association for Academic Travel Abroad.

She is a member of the Baptist Church.

Miss Gray comes to MTSC from Athens College in Alabama.

MISS LILLIAN GRAY

EDWIN S. VOORHIES

Among the familiar faces returning to MTSC this year is that of Professor Edwin S. Voorhies. Mr. Voorhies spent several years here as supervisor of maintenance and construction, while serving as a member of the industrial arts faculty.

This fall Mr. Voorhies joins the MTSC teaching staff as professor in the industrial arts department. Mr. Voorhies has been associated with the Redstone Arsenal at Huntsville, Alabama.

He is a graduate of Georgia Tech, receiving his B.S. degree there and his M.A. degree from Middle Tennessee State College. He has also served as vice-chairman of the

He sets up a 13 point program that the schools might better serve unadjusted youth. At the same time he insists that the home should "look into its regulatory activities that children will feel love and security. The church, too, he adds should stand with the school and the home as a bulwark in reducing juvenile delinquency."

COED IN AFROT

(ACP) — Montana State College coed Elvira Fisher has been interested in flying since she was a high school junior. And when she enrolled at the Bozeman college "there was nothing in the catalog that said girls couldn't join," so she became the first coed to enroll in ROTC in the school's history.

No one has stopped her yet, though she does do clerical work as a substitute for drill.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers in the Nashville district. Mr. Voorhies was in the Army, serving duty in Africa, Italy, and Corsica.

The Voorhies have two children, and they make their home on the college farm, while awaiting construction of their new home.

Dorm Councils Discipline Rule Violators

The Women's and Men's Dormitory Councils have the authority to discipline minor violators of the dormitory rules. Each Monday at 5:30 p.m., the councils meet to decide on violations that occurred during the previous week. If any offender thinks the decision reached on his case is unfair, he may appeal to the Supreme Court. Each council is made up of two seniors, two juniors, two sophomores, and one freshman.

The members of the Women's Dormitory Council for this year are Joanne Wright and Mary Frances Wright, seniors; Mary Jo Collier and Janet Lewis, juniors; Judy Patterson and Barbara Rogers, sophomores; and Joan Webb, freshman. The officers of the council are: president, Joanne Wright, a social science major from Old Hickory; vice-president, Mary Jo Collier, an elementary education major from Nashville; secretary, Mary Frances Wright, an elementary education major from Nashville.

Members of the newly-elected Men's Dormitory Council are Eddie Agee and Charles Hall, seniors; Jimmy Greenway and Ernie Ryman, juniors; Bucky Pitts and Bobby Tilman, sophomores. The freshman council members and officers of the Men's Dormitory Council will be announced at a later date.

BURNS PHILLIPS

Burns P. Phillips, Jr., has joined the MTSC faculty as an instructor in the mathematics department. Before coming to MTSC he was principal of the Central High School in Murfreesboro. Mr. Phillips received his B.S. degree from MTSC and his M.A. degree from Peabody College where he is now working on his Ph.D. degree.

He served with the U. S. Marine Corps and spent some time in the South Pacific.

Mr. Phillips is a member of the TEA NEA, MTEA and Phi Kappa Delta.

He is married to the former Faye Kent. They have two children, Candice, 10, and Burns P. Phillips III 8. They are members of the First Methodist Church, where Mr. Phillips serves as a member of the official board.

MISS LILLIAN GRAY

Miss Lillian L. Gray has been added to the MTSC faculty as an instructor in economics. Miss Gray received her B.S. degree from Grove City College, Grove City, Pa., and her M.A. degree from the University of Pittsburgh. She has attended summer sessions at the University of Chicago, the American

First GRE Date Is Scheduled For November 16

The Graduate Record Examinations, required of applicants for admission to a number of graduate schools, will be administered at examination centers throughout the country four times in the coming year, Educational Testing Service has announced.

This fall candidates may take the GRE on Saturday, November 16. In 1958, the dates are January 18, April 26, and July 12. ETS advises each applicant to require of the graduate school of his choice which of the examinations he should take and on which dates. Applicants for graduate school fellowships should ordinarily take the designated examinations in the fall administration.

A Bulletin of Information, (in which an application is inserted) provides details of registration and administration as well as sample questions, and may be obtained from college advisers or directly from Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey, or P. O. Box 27896, Los Angeles 27, California. A completed application must reach the ETS office at least fifteen days before the date of the administration for which the candidate is applying.

Dr. Corlew To Speak On Racial Problem

Dr. Robert Corlew, assistant professor of social science at Middle Tennessee State College, will be one of the featured speakers in a symposium at the Southern Historical Society annual meeting in Houston, Texas, November 7-9.

Dr. Corlew will speak on the subject of the Negro as a factor in Southern politics, with emphasis on Tennessee. Later, he will be a member of a panel to discuss the over-all problem of the Negro-white relations. Others who will appear on this panel come from the University of Oklahoma, Georgia Tech and Mary Baldwin College.

VETS CLUB

This is one of the foremost clubs on the campus. Membership is made up of students who have served in the Armed Forces. The club meets every Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. in the Yellow Room on the third floor of the SUB. All vets are urged to attend. Plenty of hot coffee and fellowship are enjoyed by those attending. The club provides an opportunity for the Vets to talk shop, trade text books, and get answers to questions concerning 'Bill'. (NOTICE: Secretary hand in list of officers.)

Black, Brown, and Red in that order. Orange and White are tied for the lead in the National loop with identical one win, one loss records. Blue takes third, and the twice defeated Yellow squad falls into the cellar.

These games take place behind the east stands of Jones Field. Only six men from one team are allowed to be on the field at one time. All male students may participate in these contests. See the captain of one of these clubs, or contact Glenn Shirley, director of these events. A list of the freshmen and the team for which they play will be posted soon.

Team captains are: Brown-Ed Price, Red-Doc Tant, Green-Bob Reed and Bobby Locke, Yellow-Jim Greenway and Bob Hallum, White-Ernie Ryman, Orange-Jimmy Davis.

At the conclusion of the fall touch football season, a single elimination tournament will be held. The date will be announced later.

In other sports, the only swimming meet of the year took place on October 1, with badminton on October 14-15. The other big events haven't taken place yet.

The spotlight will be on archery, October 28, and cross country, November 6. There will be only one contest of each held, and we want to make them sparkling ones. The cross country race is the running of a mile and one quarter. There will be various awards and medals presented in both these events.
