

Dean Beasley Correct Quote Concerning B Certification

B Average In Education Required For Masters' States N. C. Beasley

Dean N. C. Beasley, who was quoted in a feature story appearing recently in The Nashville Tennessean, as stating that education majors at MTSC had to maintain a "B" average in their education courses has stated that there was a misunderstanding by the reporter in the interview. The story was quoted in the April 23 SIDELINES and provoked a storm of inquiries directed to the SIDELINES office.

Dean Beasley was attending the National Association of Admission Officers and College Registrars in Cincinnati at the time the story was published.

It is true that graduate students working towards a Master's degree in education must maintain the B average. Requirements for undergraduate certification have not been changed.

Dean Beasley has called attention to a recent television program in which Dr. James B. Conant, ex-president of Harvard and now director of the study of problems facing the schools of America today, was interviewed by Ed Murrow on the "Person to Person Program".

"Dr. Conant pointed out the two major problems facing high schools today in an effort to maintain the American ideal of giving every one all the education he can take and at the same time 'stiffening' the curriculum to produce highly trained graduates", Mr. Beasley stated. "The first of these is that the average high school is unable to offer sufficient variety of courses that will meet all the needs of the most able students", he said. "A second major problem is getting these able students to take the more difficult programs that would require a minimum of 15 hours home work each week".

Smith Hall Work Started

Construction of two new wings for Smith Hall, men's dormitory at Middle Tennessee State College, began Tuesday morning, April 30, with the man for whom the residence hall is named observing the proceedings.

There was no fanfare as the city light and water department started work on the footings for the new buildings. Shown in the picture reading the blue prints are, from the left, President Q. M. Smith, R. B. McGee, in charge of electrical construction, G. B. McCutchan, in charge of plumbing work, J. F. Anderson, as assistant of McGee, and Ridley B. Roberts, superintendent for the James A. Baker Company of Nashville.

The Baker Company has the contract for the two buildings, which will cost $408,600 and will house 208 men when completed.

The parking area immediately behind the present Smith Hall will be closed and as soon as the ground hardens from current rains a new parking area will be constructed.

Track Is On The Upgrade Under Coaching Of Hayes

By Ralph Englert

Joe Black Hayes is in his ninth year as a member of the Middle Tennessee State College faculty. His metier is that of coach of the Raider track team. He has held this position since the sport began in 1954, and has been mainly responsible for its incessant rise to prominence.

This staid follower of sports in general, and track in particular, is confident that this popular sport is here to stay. "As more high schools in middle Tennessee develop track teams," stresses Coach Hayes, "our program will improve." This statement is abetted by the fact that more schools throughout the state are establishing track squads, and some high school records are almost equal to the Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic Conference's best marks.

"This sport is furthermore a good conditioner to increase the speed and endurance of the football and basketball players," says Coach Hayes, "and it also gives the fellow not big enough to participate in the above sports a chance to make a letter."

Since the beginning of track here, the Raiders have risen from a rather dormant state to erect themselves as one of the outstanding squads in the Ohio Valley Conference as well as the TIAC. The teams records down through the years is as follows:

YEAR	WON	LOST	TIED
1956	1	6	1
1958 (to date)	5	1	0

MTSC has produced quite a few individual performers to date such as Milner Carden, Terry Sweeney, Junior Haley, Bill Dotson, Ray Purvis, Marvin Jinnette, Bob Reed, James Frost, and Ed Carson. But according to Coach Hayes, Jinnette is—the best all-around trackster the school has displayed. Marvin is a most versatile athlete competing in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, the broad jump, high jump, and sometimes the relays.

During his connection with the track team, Coach Hayes has had more than a handful of thrills, but one memorable event stands out in his mind. During the OVC track meet at Bowling Green, Kentucky, two years ago, Milner Carden defeated Morehead's outstanding distance men to win the two-mile in 10:23 and set the MTSC school record at that time. This was the Raiders' first place win in a OVC meet.

Anent the present status of track here at Murfreesboro, it looks as if it is here not only to enhance the salubriousness healthful nature of the boys that take part in the different events, but it paves the way to a bigger and better athletic program.

TIAA Track Meet To Be Here May 9

Coach Joe Black Hayes will send his track team, which has lost but one meet this year (that to Murray by three points), against representatives from 12 Tennessee colleges in the annual Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic Association track and field meet on Jones Field Saturday.

Preliminary events will begin at ten o'clock Saturday morning when qualifying heats for six final events will be run in the dashes and middle distance runs and in the jumps and hurdles. The finals Saturday night begin at seven o'clock.

Hope for a better than creditable showing by the Raider track stars will rest on Ray Purvis and Marvin Jinnette in the dashes, Ed Carson in the hurdles, Jinnette in the broad and high jump, Bob Reed in the mile and two mile with a fine supporting cast of men who can be depended on to pick up some places among the five finishers in each event who will rate points.

Dyer Awarded First Job Under UT Plan

Daniel F. Dyer of Eagleville is the first MTSC freshman pre-engineering student to be awarded a job under the co-operative plan now in operation between the college and the University of Tennessee. The announcement was made by Wiley Thomas, director of the by Wiley Thomas a letter to John S. Wade, director of the pre-engineering program at MTSC.

Mr. Dyer will work for ARO Incorporated at the AEDC in Tullahoma this summer. He has a 3.63 average in his mechanical engineering program.

Three other MTSC freshmen have been recommended for summer jobs under the program but have not yet worked out details incident to employment.

Spring Intramural Sports Roundup

by Paul Perry

On the intramural sports scene at MTSC, the roses are blooming the reddest around the single elimination golf tournament, with tennis, badminton, and swimming falling in as runnersup.

Golf Reaches New Peak; 1940 Saw Sport Start

Since Elwin Midgett, now professor of business administration here, sneaked out some golf clubs and balls in the spring 1940 and started what is known as golf at MTSC, a slight change has occurred over that 18 year span.

Midgett, who was the first golf coach at the Raider institution, started the team because of his love for the game. The greenways are greener and the courses are smoother now than they were that year.

That first outfit consisted of Albert Patty, present day Raider golf coach (Haron Jackson, present professional at the famed Chattanooga Country Club, Jimmy Jackson, another of MTSC's employees, and John Bragg.

The grand sport of golf has emerged from a mere four club swingers in 1940 to about 300 students who are participating in the game in various ways now.

That 40 outfit had probably the best club of any that the Raiders have produced outside this present '58 crew. This year's golfers have compiled five straight wins and probably hold a slight edge over the first golf team that MTSC sported.

Raider Linksmen Rip Lipscomb, 13-5

The Middle Tennessee State golf team trounced David Lipscomb 13 to 5 on the Stones river course.

The Raiders won three of the four individual matches. Leroy Oakley was the only Lipscomb winner, beating Doug Hall 3 up.

The top medal scores for the par 72 course were recorded by Marty Graham (70), James Pryon (71), Doc Tant (72), and Richard Smith (72).

Marty Graham (M) 70 beat James Pryon (L) 71, 2½-½; Leroy Oakley (L) 74 beat Doug Hall (M) 78, 3-0; Low ball tied ½-½.

Doc Tant (M) 72 beat Jack Amos (L), 78, 3-0; Richard Smith (M) 72 beat Alan Adler (L) 84, 3-0; MTSC won low ball 3-0.

NOT WITH A BANG

Along The Sidelines

Roy V. Crabtree

With spring sports at its half-way mark, the Blue Raiders have shown their strength and stamina by holding their own against common foes.

Golf and track teams show the brightest accomplishments since each team has only lost once. Coach Elbert Patty's golf team holds a record of eight and one, which the Blue and White Thinlies have posted a four and one record.

Blue Raider golfers, at the present time, are in Athens, Georgia, to participate in the Southern Intercollegiate Tournament which is composed of all major colleges and university in this part of the country.

Coach Joe Black Hayes' trackers kicked up their heels in a recent meet with Western Kentucky as several school and OVC records were smashed. Ray Purvis lowered the time in the 220 yard dash by chalking-off an amazing 22.3 to set a new school record. Marvin Jinnette has been acting like a Sputnik in the past two meets by leaping through space to establish new records for the school and in the OVC. Marvin jumped 22' 8" against Western to break the existing OVC broad jump mark by 4½ inches. He has also tied the high jump record of 6'3".

Captain Ed Carson showed his stuff as he broke his own high and low hurdles records by running like "wildfire". He clipped five seconds from his present low hurdle mark with a 24.5 and posted a good time in the highs with a performance of 15.2.

Bob Reed showed his stamina against Austin Peay State College this past week by setting a new record in the two-mile run, as he bettered his old mark by ten seconds, with a 10:31.1.

The baseball team is having bad luck this season and are 0-5 at the present time, but should catch fire one of these days and win their first game of the season. The main reason for such a bad showing is the lack of pitching. They seem to hit the ball well enough to win, but maybe their hits just don't come at the right time.

The tennis team finally broke the ice again, as Glenn Shirley and Bob Hallum prevented the Big Blue from being shut out by Glenn's winning in the single against Lipscomb and teaming with Hallum to take one doubles match.

Coach Ed Diddle, Jr., has departed from places unknown in hopes of finding a big junior college basketball player for next year. Will he succeed? Let's cross our fingers and hope he will.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN A BANK OFFICIAL IS DEPRIVED OF HIS LUCKIES?

(SEE PARAGRAPH AT RIGHT)

BANK ROBBERS often try to get rich through no vault of their own. So often, in fact, that bank officials rarely get rattled by ordinary hold-ups. But sometimes the gangsters go too far. Sometimes (Curses!) they lift the officials' Luckies! That dastardly act is bound to cause real Banker Rancor! Why? Simple. Every Lucky (You can bank on this!) tastes like a million bucks. Every Lucky is made of fine tobacco . . . naturally light, good-tasting tobacco, toasted to taste even better. But don't accept our account—check it yourself. Get Luckies right now!

Morgan Paces Governors, 6-1

Big Tom Morgan pitched and batted Austin Peay to its third win of the season as the unbeaten Governors rapped Middle Tennessee 6 to 1.

Morgan spun a neat two-hitter at the winless Blue Raiders who were dropping their fourth game of the current campaign. In addition, the big right hander fanned eight and the Raiders' lone run in the fifth inning was unearned.

Morgan, who drove in three runs with a brace of doubles, had offensive help from outfielders, Bob Monnet and got the Gobs an early lead in the first inning with a two-run homer.

In addition, he has a firm background in engineering, electronics, astro-navigation and allied fields. Then, too, he must show outstanding qualities of initiative, leadership and self-reliance. He is, in short, a man eminently prepared for an important career in the new Age of Space. As a college graduate, you will be given priority consideration for the Air Force Aviation Cadet Program. While openings are limited, you will be tested and advised immediately of qualification status. Find out if you measure up. Paste the attached coupon on a post card and mail it now.

Authority Speaks On Teen Fiction At Librarian Meet

Five hundred and sixty two boys and girls representing 61 high schools in the Mid-State area assembled at Middle Tennessee State College Thursday for the annual meeting of the Middle Tennessee Association of Student Library Assistants.

Mrs. Charles Forgy, librarian at Winchester; Mrs. Annie Laurie Wiley, Madison High School; Miss Mary Blair Fielder, Hohenwald; Miss Cecil Elliott, Du Pont High School and Mrs. Maud Lewis Blair, Rockvale, were in charge of discussion groups covering a variety of topics related to the work of the school library.

Principal speaker for the occasion was Mrs. Rosamond duJardin, noted Chicago author of leading teenage fiction. Mrs. duJardin reviewed her experience as a writer, repeating the familiar formula that a successful writer learns to write by writing.

General Electric, which maintains a branch plant in Murfreesboro, will present an interesting program at 7 o'clock, May 21, in the Administration Building auditorium at MTSC.

Bob Abernathy, who has arranged the program with Bob Roose, community relations supervisor at GE, has announced that there will be no admission charge to this show, "House of Magic".

Raiders Lose Third Game To Murray

The MTSC baseball team was defeated for their third straight loss of the season.

Their first loss was from the hands of Vanderbilt University and the second was from Belmont. The latest, which was yesterday afternoon, came from the hands of Murray State College.

The final score of the game ended with Murray State out in front by 8 runs, 13 to 5.

This game was the first OVC contest for the Raiders and also for the Murray team.

Charlie Care started the game for the Raiders but had to be relieved

Second Lt. Robert M. Crigger, 33, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edd M. Crigger, Route 1, Lewisburg, Tenn., recently was graduated from the 42-week basic surface-to-air guided missile course at the Army Air Defense School, Fort Bliss, Tex.

Crigger is a 1953 graduate of Marshall County High School and a 1957 graduate of Middle Tennessee State College, Murfreesboro.

in the fifth inning by Irvin Tussey. Before Care retired from the game he gave up 8 hits and 9 runs. Tussey came in and gave up 5 hits and 4 runs.

Coleman and Birdwell were the two Murray pitchers. Coleman started the game and was relieved in the seventh inning by Birdwell who shut the door on the Raiders.

Carlton Galbreath, Jim Caldwell and Bucky Pitts were the big guns at the plate for the Raiders with 2 hits in 4 appearances.
