

1911

1961

Fifty Golden Years

The SIDELINES

VOICE OF MTSC, THE COLLEGE OF INDIVIDUAL OPPORTUNITY

Vol. 35—No. 9

Middle Tennessee State College, Murfreesboro, Tennessee

Wednesday, Feb. 7, 1962

(Photo by Dr. Bealer Smotherman)

Taking a breather from their work at the dress rehearsal of "Cavalleria Rusticana" are, left to right, Norma Shelton, Nolan Barham, Brenda Sowell, Jerry Dooley, and Julia Hollis. The opera was presented last week by the music and drama departments.

'Cavalleria Rusticana' Presented On Campus

The college auditorium on Thursday and Friday, Feb. 1-2, was the scene of the grand opera "Cavalleria Rusticana" presented by the Varsity Choir under the musical direction of Mr. Neil Wright and stage direction of Mrs. Dorothe Tucker.

Principles in the cast, coached by Mrs. Margaret Wright, were: Jerry Dooley, tenor from Columbia, at Turido; Julia Hollis, soprano from Lawrenceburg as Santuzza; Nolan Barham of Lewisburg, baritone cast as Alfio; Norma Shelton, Shelbyville contraalto as Lucia; and Brenda Sowell, soprano from Fayetteville, as Lola.

The chorus of villagers included: Sopranos: Patricia Porterfield, Nashville; Anne Turner, Lebanon; Susan Follett, Chattanooga; Betty King Hughey, Smyrna; Fran Cason, Madison; Elizabeth Merritt, Smyrna; Tenors: Lynn McGill, Buckhead, Georgia; James Stone, Woodbury; Guy Bates, Joelton; Contraltos: Johanna Kemper, Springfield; Eleanor Bolton, Nashville; Linda Brannum, Chattanooga; Jo Nell McCollum, Loudon; Ann Alford, Lawrenceburg; Basses: David Gammons, Watertown; Robert Baker, Millington; Ben McClure, Madison, Ga.; Richard McDonald, LaFayette; Charles Holden, Georgetown; and David Benzenhafer, Harriman.

In the orchestra were: Violin: Michael Gattozzi, Rubye Taylor Sanders, Ruth Ann Ford, Mrs. H. T. Tipps; Viola: Jane Pyle; Cello: Philip Howard; Bass: Kenneth Pace; Clarinet: Roderick Byrne and James Hobby; Flute: Sarah Jones; Oboe: Marie Eubanks; Trumpet: Linda Davis and Robert Dotson; Trombone: Jack Raines; Horns: Charlotte Dill and Lila Holly; Percussion: Matt Ward; Organ: Mary Scott; Piano: Margaret Wright.

The Student Director of the opera was Dolly Hood and the Student Technical Director was Bob Conwell. Other crew chiefs were: Properties: Robert Baker; Set Design: David Gammons; Set Construction: David Benzenhafer; Lighting: George Freeman, Tag McMillen; (Continued On Page 4)

Marterie Band Slated For ROTC Ball

The Ralph Marterie orchestra has been selected to play for the twelfth annual Military Ball, according to officials of the Track and Sabre club, sponsors of the affair.

April 6 is the date set for the ball, which has come to be one of the biggest social functions of the year at MTSC. This year's theme has been selected to coincide with the 50th anniversary of the college, and is tentatively titled the "Golden Anniversary Ball." The dance will be held in the Alumni gymnasium, which will be appropriately decorated with large numerals representing the fifty years along either side of the gym.

Highlighting the ball will be the crowning of the ROTC Queen, who will be chosen by members of the Track and Sabre club from the seven sponsors of the Cadet corps. Members of the club will be admitted free. Track and Sabre club members are now being solicited among Cadet Corps personnel, it was announced.

The SIDELINES has been asked to announce that applications for student teaching for the Fall and Spring semesters of the 1962-63 school year are due in the student teaching office, Room 117 in the Ad building by mid-semester Friday, March 16. Application forms may be secured from the student teaching office and from the Department of Education, Room A 118.

SPRING PRACTICE SET

If weather permits, Coach "Bubber" Murphy will open Spring football practice on Feb. 12. Many new faces are expected to be among the prospective players.

MTSC Hosts To Speech Tourny Tomorrow

Some 150 to 200 students from junior and senior colleges all over Tennessee will throng the MTSC campus tomorrow through Saturday, Feb. 8-10, as the college plays host to the annual Tennessee Intercollegiate Forensic Association tournament.

Ann Ellington Will Be In Cherry Blossom Fete

Ann Ellington, junior art major will be the Tennessee Princess at the National Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D. C. from April 1-7. Miss Ellington, the daughter of Governor and Mrs. Buford Ellington, was chosen to represent the state by the Congressmen from Tennessee.

Members of the United States Naval Academy are assigned to the young ladies as official escorts for the weeks festivities.

Miss Ellington was first runner-up for the Miss Wool of America contest held at Raleigh, N. C. in December. The striking blonde beauty has been the recipient of many honors during her freshman and sophomore years at Middle Tennessee.

Events scheduled for the meet, according to Clifton Trimble, tournament director, include: debate, junior and varsity; extempore; on an international affairs topic; impromptu; original oratory; peace oratory; and after-dinner speaking. The proposition for debate is "Resolved: That labor organizations should be under the jurisdiction of anti-trust legislation."

A trophy will be presented to the winning varsity debate team in each division, and medals will be given winners in each special events division, Mr. Trimble said. The main floor of the Student Union Building will serve as tournament headquarters.

Registration will begin at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow and will be followed by a general assembly at 7:45. The first round of debating will be held from 8 to 9 p.m. The meet concludes at 11 a.m. Saturday, with the announcement of awards. A complete schedule of events may be found at the tournament headquarters.

Schools expected to participate in the tournament include: Belmont, Carson-Newman, David Lipscomb, (Continued On Page 6)

(Photo by Dr. Bealer Smotherman)

Larry Williams exhibits the $1800 bull added recently to the college herd. Shown with him are Dr. Robert Alexander, assistant professor of agriculture; Jim Forbes, Murfreesboro; Bill Owensby, Dayton; Dr. J. W. Young, assistant professor of agriculture; Paul Cantrell, Smithville; Edwin Farnsworth, Dayton; and Larry McCool and Frank Roleff, Nashville.

Aggies Get New Bull, Sell Two

By Dorothy Harrison

"Shooting the bull" has taken on a new connotation among the students and staff of the MTSC department of agriculture. When they speak of "shooting the bull" they now usually mean photographically speaking, for the school's prize herd of Angus cattle has come in for an unusual share of publicity recently.

An $1800 bull was purchased at the Black Magic show and sale conducted two weeks ago at the Tennessee State Fair Grounds in Nashville, at which two yearling bulls born and raised on the college farm were exhibited and sold. The bulls, MTSC Marshall and MTSC Marshall II brought "prices well in keeping with the prevailing market at the show," Dr. Robert Alexander, assistant professor, reported.

Both the bulls sold were sired by Kermac Marshall, a three-year-old bull purchased in 1959 from the Senator Robert Kerr ranch in Oklahoma.

Upon recommendation of Dr. Paul Kneese, manager of the Kermac Angus ranch, W. H. Doremus, chairman of the board of the Southern Railway, delivered 30 shares of common stock of the Kansas City Southern Railway company to the ranch to be credited to the MTSC Account for the purpose of purchasing bulls. The stock was recently sold for $83.25 a share, giving the college a credit with the ranch of $2,472.06. Dr. Alexander visited the ranch and selected a bull which was also exhibited and sold at the Black Magic sale. The purchase of the new bull left MTSC a credit of $672.06 with the Kermac Ranch.

The bulls are cared for by Larry Williams, junior pre-veterinary major from Chattanooga; Frank Roleff, Nashville; and Jim Forbes of Murfreesboro, under the supervision of Dr. Alexander. Williams is president of the Block and Bridle club.

Thanks, Mothers!

Chivalry—you know—that beloved and creaking old mid-century practice of courtesy—is not dead. Show me a man on this campus, be he doctor, lawyer, or student thief, who is not chivalrous.

Observe them, coeds. Do they not open doors (and who's to deny that the Ad Building doors are from monstersville), and do they not pick up fallen books, fallen pencils . . . even fallen women if they are called upon to do so?

Do they not supply cigarettes, matches, coke money, mad money . . . and sometimes a sympathetic shoulder to cry on?

For creating such thoughtful fellow collegians, we thank you Oh Mothers of Southern Men (And a Few From Other Regions)!

Are You Satisfied?

It has been scarcely more than a year since the personable young Senator from Massachusetts stepped up to a lectern in Washington, placed his hand on a family Bible, and swore to uphold the Constitution of the United States of America in the highest office in the land.

It has been scarcely more than a year since the new President of the United States admonished every citizen—every man, woman, and child; every college student and professor—to "ask not what your country can do for you. Ask what you can do for your country."

Perhaps now, the beginning of a new semester, and the almost-beginning of a new year, is an appropriate time for each of us to take a second look at ourselves. Are we, individually and collectively, at this critical moment in the life of our country, and indeed in our own lives, doing the best job we can either for our country or for ourselves? Many of us are not.

This nation has been built and maintained by men and women who have been satisfied not with second-best ideas, second-best performances, but with the best each person had to offer. Are you satisfied with your performance?

Letter to the Editor:

An Institution Dies At MTSC

Not only did many students who did not meet the academic requirements set up by the school take leave of us at the end of this past semester, but also a long established custom: that of studying in the classrooms of the administration building during the night.

No doubt this privilege was somewhat abused. The question is whether closing the doors will produce the desired effects and whether these ends really justify the means used to attain them.

If one has not attempted to concentrate to the tune (?) of Elvis or to the yells of a winner in a hot poker game then one has never experienced the ultimate in frustration.

The Ad building has proven a haven to those of us who cannot readily close out the distractions of dorm or roominghouse living.

I do not wish to join our dear departed academic failures at the end of this semester. I am, however, afraid that the date of the first permanent settlement in this country is not, "Blue Suede Shoes," nor is the sum of a right triangle a "full house, aces over."

Virgil Davis

OBSERVATION

*I have observed love; with incautious eyes
Reading the passion ripples on blank faces,
Clutches, evasions, pale connubial lies—
The wealth of ugliness, the dearth of graces:
The vows, believed or not, that flood away
To victory for the amorous infidel:
The boundless, restless, and depressing play
Everywhere—in myself, chiefest of all.
And so I have grown cynical—Do you wonder?
As cynical . . . as subsiding snow,
Or rain pelting blackly after thunder,
Or the bright hours of spring, waking with low
Glad cries, as of a lover with his love,
Finding the world too dear, too glad, too brave!*

—A. W. Powell

THE SIDELINES

Published semi-monthly by the students of Middle Tennessee State College, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Entered as second class mail matter at the Post Office at Murfreesboro, Tennessee, under Act of March 3, 1897. Represented for national advertising by the National Advertising Service, Inc.

Editor Betty Knight
 Managing Editor Dorothy Harrison
 Feature Editor Marguerite Batey
 Reporters Vickie McComb, Steve Lawrence, Joyce Sherrill, June Vickery, Carole Sanford, Carolyn Tilford, Sandra Barrett, Johnny Stoddard, Ernestine Harris, Carolyn Smith, Jean Massey, "Boo" Lynch, Suzanne Lee, Sally Smith, Dennis Parks.
 Business Manager Anne Turner
 Advisor Gene Sloan

'A World Of Words'

To The Editor:

"The world belongs to the man of action, for actions speak louder than words." . . . How often have we heard this expression? Perhaps its time that we as a nation and as individuals stopped to apply this truth in our lives.

All the words in the world can't outweigh the force of affirmative action. We can't talk away the Berlin wall, the Russian sputnik, Cuban communism, or Indian Goa. Although the value of international debate and discussion cannot be denied, neither can the fact that only definite action will produce change.

We learned this once in 1939, and we were forced to exert much action to undo the effects of soft words.

Certainly if international differences are to be solved and if the United Nations is to continue as an influential world organization, this must be learned again.

But perhaps closer to our own lives, we as students must realize, the value of definite actions toward visible goals. Let's not let the chatter of daily life drown our lives. Certainly we must take positive steps here and now toward our chosen professions. These steps should not be influenced by the changing ideas of our daily talk, they should be more stable than our world of words.

Daily our classes provide ample opportunity for positive actions and stepping stones toward the future. Let's not let the world be too much with us.

Jerry C. Pate

Dorm Data

LYON HALL

Congratulations! With the beginning of a new semester, Lyon Hall welcomes the arrival of the following new members: Sue Upchurch, Leona Grove, Sunny Stalker, freshmen, Donna Roberts, a sophomore, and Bobbie Allen, a junior.

Congratulations are also in order for those freshmen who ended the semester with outstanding averages. Lyon is especially proud of her president, Betty Sands, who managed to pull a 3.6 average. The girls seem to be satisfied with such an intelligent leader, and so does Tommy Horne.

Sympathy is extended for those girls who did not return to Lyon after the first semester. Margo Pollecheck's gain of an engagement ring was Lyon's loss of a vice-president. Also Sharon Smith, Sharon Berry, Beverly Carney, Jeanne Johnson, and Hester Smith will not occupy the dorm this term.

Lyon expresses sympathy for Ann Rose Burnett, who has a few broken bones to mend. Members of the dorm sincerely hope that Ann will be back with us soon.

—Jean Massey

RUTLEDGE HALL

Flu has been no stranger to Rutledge Hall. Many of the girls have come down with it, but fortunately none of the cases seem serious. Most of the sufferers are on the road to recovery.

When the semesters changed, Rutledge lost several girls and acquired two new residents, Norma Farris and Nancy Aycock.

Among the girls who left our dorm were Kay Morehead and Jeanie Quinn, both of whom happily traded dormitory life for married life. Congratulations, brides!

—Suzanne Lee

SOUTH MONOHAN HALL

The welcome mat is out for all the new students and dorm residents at MTSC. We especially wish to welcome all the new girls here in South Monohan. They include Judy Bell, Jo Leta McDowell, Carol Padgett, Betty Foster, Pat O'Donnell, June Goodman, and the twins Karen and Louise Monefeldt.

The mid-winter formal means happy memories for Linda Mash-

Notes From Neighbors

By Joyce Sherrill

The guys and gals on our campus might be interested in these delightful descriptions of College Joes and Janes "borrowed" from other newspapers across the country.

From the University of Oklahoma DAILY comes a list of "a few of the major traumas in the life of today's college girl."

1. She has "nothing" to wear. 2. Long-distance-lover hasn't written for five days. 3. Her "care package" from home, including the dress for Friday night's party, doesn't come until Saturday.

4. Her date is shorter than she. 5. She gets a run in her stocking.

6. The love-of-her-life asks her to study with him, and she finds that he REALLY wants to study. 7. She breaks a fingernail.

8. Her dyed-to-match shoes don't match. 9. She's campused the night of the big party. 10. She realizes that she has accepted two dates for the same night. 11. Her date can't twist.

12. She walks all the way downstairs for a coke and finds the machine empty. 13. Her last class on Friday is at 4 o'clock. 14. She has 253 more pages to read, and her test is in an hour. 15. Someone breaks her Johnny Mathis record.

16. She leaves her party favor at the party. 17. She drops her green beans in her lap at the date-guest meal. 18. Her secret love calls her "good buddy."

With tongue in cheek, Philadelphia college girls have set out to describe the college male. Here are the results:

He is a strange wold (flower) and cherub; beatnik and stockbroker. (The proportions vary widely in the individual.) He frequents mixers, but rarely dances. He eats (when the food is free) as if he has just returned from a 40-day fast in the desert.

Generosity flows from his soul. Quite willingly will he teach you all he knows about politics, cars, sports, love and women. He expects to be chased and admired, but scorns girls who flirt.

If he's handsome, he's conceited. If he's smart, he's too smart. And if he's sweet, thoughtful, and witty, he's engaged.

He's a combination Troy Donahue and Gardner McKay, and he's a charter member of the Mickey Mouse Club. He's the despair of the older generation and the hope of America's future. He's what born, Jody Murray, Kris Straley, Jane Dillard, Barbara Chapman, Carolyn Smith, and Ginger Peek.

Birthday greeting go to Mary Elizabeth Heller and Pat Richmond, two more girls who have finally reached the ripe old age of nineteen.

Another important event in which many of our girls participated was the opera, "Cavalleria Rusticana." Faithful "practicers" were Betty King Hughey, Elizabeth Merritt, and Fran Cason.

—Carolyn Smith

every philosophy professor dreads and what every college girl dreams of.

Along more serious lines, Wade Hampton High School in Greenville, S. C., has completed a master plan for the evacuation of their school in case of emergency. The practice evacuation is to be repeated in the case of a country-wide practice alert.

Oak Ridge Nuclear Studies Institute provides courses for students at the University of Chattanooga. The unit was established to provide radioisotope training. This study will give students an opportunity to prepare for the atomic age.

Superlatives were recently chosen at Austin Peay State College for 1961-62. In addition to the usual titles they also elect a "Governor" and "First Lady." Also at Austin Peay, the students are presenting the production of "Dracula" — stimulating undertaking, don't you think?

A journalism group has been officially installed at Murray State. Eleven students were named charter members of Alpha Phi Gamma, a national honorary journalism fraternity.

A note about an alumnus of MTSC—Mrs. Helen Worthington, who is acting as sponsor of the Hampton HERALD was editor of the Sidelines in 1954. It's good to know that our alumni put their extracurricular experience to good use.

If you Eds and Coeds have any particular college that you would like to read about in the exchange column, speak up.

Veterans Plan Activity Room

The Veterans' club has been authorized by Dr. Quill Cope, MTSC president, to adapt and furnish Room 303, Student Union building, for use by various student activity groups.

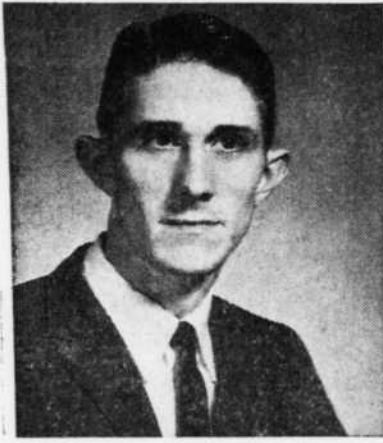

Principal uses of the room will include: ASB congress meetings, supreme court hearings, dormitory council meetings, inter-group presidents' meetings, and committee meetings.

The room will be known as the "Raider Room," and the chief focal point will be a large likeness of the "Raider" on one wall. The Veterans plan to display prominently the national, state, and school flags, and plaques around the walls will list each group or club on the campus, with space available for notices and messages. Student activities will have priority over all other functions, a spokesman for the Veterans' club said.

The club's activities during the last semester included entering floats in the Homecoming and Veteran's Day parades; making weekly trips to the VA hospital for the purpose of aiding the recreation therapy director; sponsoring a talent show and presenting the "Casuals" in a musical program.

"We do have them narrower if you'd like your shirt buttons showing on either side of the tie"

ALVIN EDWIN WOODS

WILLIAM VAUGHT

JOHN B. O'HARA

FRIEDA S. STUTE

JOHN E. WEEMS

THOMAS MITCHELL

Acquaintance Corner Faculty Members Presented

By Vickie McComb

Alvin Edwin Woods, from Murfreesboro, is assistant professor of chemistry. He received the B.S. degree from MTSC, the M.S. degree from North Carolina State College, and the major requirements for the Ph. D. were completed while he was at North Carolina State College.

He is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi, National Honor Society, Sigma Xi, and the Church of Christ.

He is married to the former Sandra Amerson.

William Vaught, assistant professor of business, is from Terre Haute, Ind. He received the B.S. and the M.S. degrees from Indiana State College. He also completed course work on education at the University of Tennessee.

Mr. Vaught is a member of the NBTA, SBEA, UBEA, Delta Pi Epsilon, Pi Omega Pi, Phi Delta Kappa, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia societies, the Masonic Lodge, and the Baptist Church.

John B. O'Hara, from Chase, Kan., is an instructor in speech. He received the B.A. degree from Oklahoma Baptist University, the M.A. degree from the University of Oklahoma, and he did graduate study at the University of Oklahoma.

He is a member of the Speech Association of America, and the Oklahoma Speech Association.

Mr. O'Hara married the former Doris Kuykendall, and they have one daughter, Anne, one year old.

Dr. Frieda M. Stute, assistant professor of sociology, is from Verna, Ill. She received her R.N. at St. John's School of Nursing Education, Springfield, Ill., The A.B. degree from DePaul University, Chicago, the M.A. degree from the University of Chicago, and the Ph. D. degree from the University of Illinois.

Dr. Stute is a member of the American Sociological Association, American Nurses Association, and the Bahai' World Faith.

John E. Weems, from Nashville, is registrar at MTSC. He received the B.S. and M.A. degrees from Peabody College.

Mr. Weems has two sons, ages 2 and 6. He came to MTSC from Kentucky Wesleyan College, Owensboro, where he was director of admissions and records.

Thomas Mitchell, from Louisville, Ky., is assistant professor of English. He attended the University of Paris, France, the University of Florence, Italy, the University of Grenoble, France. He received the A.B. degree from the University of Louisville, and the M.A. degree from Peabody College.

Mr. Mitchell is a member of the Kappa Delta Pi fraternity. He and his wife have one son, Robin, age 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell returned from Korea last year where they had been employed by Peabody College in its program of teachers training in Korean Normal Schools and Teacher's college.

Joe E. Nunley, instructor of education, is from McMinnville. He received the B.S. degree from MTSC, the M.A. degree from Peabody College, and the M.Ed. from the University of Florida.

Mr. Nunley is a member of the NEA and TEA associations, American Legion organization, Rotary Club, and the Presbyterian Church.

He is married to the former Jessie De Priest, and they have four children, Joe, 16; Nancy, 10; Jeana, 7; and Mary Ann, 3.

In the Jan. 17 issue of the SIDELINES, the pictures of Mrs. Elizabeth Peeler and Miss Peggy Orr appeared in reverse order. We apologize for the error and extend our appreciation to both for their good sportmanship.

Texas Coeds Sell Campus

(ACP)—The campus of Texas Wesleyan College is for sale—at $1 per square inch.

Members of the girls' social clubs are competing to see which group can sell the most deeds to students. Purpose of the project is to raise $600 toward a new science building.

The deeds, of course, do not carry any real title rights. Students hope to encourage gifts from businessmen and other donors by indicating their own interest in erecting a new building.

Teachers To Be Tested Saturday

Middle Tennessee State College has been designated as a testing center for the 1962 nationwide administration of the National Teacher Examinations February 10. Dr. James Martin, director of guidance announced today.

College seniors preparing to teach and teachers applying for positions in school systems which encourage or require applicants to submit their scores on the National Teacher Examinations along with their other credentials are eligible to take the tests. The examinations are prepared and administered annually by Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey.

The designation of Middle Tennessee State as testing center for these examinations will give prospective teachers in this area an opportunity to compare their performance on the examinations with candidates throughout the country who take the tests in the nationwide administrations, Dr. Martin said.

At the one-day testing session a candidate may take the common examinations, which include tests in professional information, general culture, English expression, and nonverbal reasoning. In addition, each candidate may take one or two of the thirteen optional examinations which are designed to demonstrate mastery of subject matter in the fields in which he may be assigned to teach.

while attending summer school at MTSC in a post Master of Arts study last summer. She is a teacher at the Du Pont elementary school in Chattanooga.

In the booklet she suggests the use of the newspaper as a teaching aid in arithmetic, art, citizenship, civics, geography, history, language, music, sports reading, health, science, spelling and writing. One of the more valuable parts of her work is the evaluative conclusions that aid teachers in utilization of the newspaper. The booklet contains an excellent bibliography and a list of audio-visual aids available to the teacher.

Miss Hale concludes with a discussion of uses for old newspapers in the school from use as blotter for spilled liquids to the basic material for paper mache, unusual effects in collages, and paper mosaics in arts.

JOE E. NUNLEY

Former Student Authors School Service Booklet

Lucy Hale, former editor of the Middle Tennessee State College SIDELINES, is the author of "Teaching with the Newspaper in the Classroom," a 32 page booklet prepared in co-operation with the Chattanooga Times as a part of the Times school service program. Miss Hale wrote the booklet

'Spelunkers' Need New Members

If space travel doesn't appeal to you as an extra-curricular activity—there's always room in the other direction. Try spelunking.

Campus cave-lovers are invited to join the local speological group which is under the leadership of Dr. Lionel H. Prescott of the biology department. Meetings are held the first Monday night in every month at the Prescott home; next meeting date will be Feb. 5. Explorations are generally planned on Saturdays, and the group has a number of interesting expeditions on the agenda.

Spelunkers should wear old clothes, sneakers, and have at least three sources of light.

Dr. Prescott, originally from Signal Mountain, is well qualified as an expedition leader. He is a member of the National Speological Society and has many years of "caving" experience. He confesses to having a healthy respect for the unknown underground—and anyone will agree that respect is definitely "healthy" in any dangerous occupation. Dr. Prescott admits that spelunking can be dangerous, but then so is crossing the street. He assures us that with the proper equipment and adequate precautions, it is a safe and sane pastime—loaded with adventure.

CITY CAFE

Good Southern Foods
107 E. Main Street
Phone 893-1303

Commerce Union Bank

"A Good Bank For Everybody"

SIC FLICS

"Another Chesterfield? But I just gave you one last week!"

21 GREAT TOBACCOS MAKE 20 WONDERFUL SMOKES!
AGED MILD, BLENDED MILD - NOT FILTERED MILD - THEY SATISFY

CALL SHACKLETT'S

Burgers, Shakes & Bar-B-Que
Deliveries—5:30 and 9:00 P.M.

893-2701

205 N.W. Broad St.

1962 Raider Opponents Named

Coach Charles "Bubber" Murphy announces that Middle Tennessee State will meet the same ten football opponents in 1962 as were encountered last season.

The Raiders posted a 7-3 mark during the 1961 campaign, and won a trip to the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Florida.

MTSC will open the season of September 15 as host to Austin Peay State. Other home contests will be with Morehead State, Eastern Kentucky, Florence State, and Murray State.

Homecoming has been set for November 3rd against Ohio Valley Conference rival Murray State.

1962 Middle Tennessee State Football Schedule

Austin Peay State	Murfreesboro	September	15
Morehead State	Murfreesboro	September	22
Western Ky. State	Bowling Green, Ky.	September	29
Eastern Ky. State	Murfreesboro	October	6
Pensacola Navy	Pensacola, Fla.	October	13
Chattanooga	Chattanooga, Tenn.	October	20
Florence State	Murfreesboro	October	27
Murray State	Murfreesboro	HC November	3
E. Tennessee State	Johnson City, Tenn.	November	10
Tennessee Tech	Cookeville, Tenn.	November	22

* Ohio Valley Conference Game
HC Homecoming

Three Home Games Set For Freshman Cagers

Coach Bill Stokes' freshman basketball squad will make three home appearances as they bring their 1961-62 basketball season to a close. The yearlings host the freshman teams of Murray State (Feb. 7), Western Kentucky (Feb. 13), and Tennessee Tech (Feb. 19), as preliminary games to the varsity clashes with these OVC rivals.

Dan Midgett is leading the freshman team with a 15.7 average, but has appeared in only six of their 14 games. The former All-state guard from Murfreesboro has been slowed with a knee injury throughout the season.

In points scored, 6'4" Lamar Holland has paced the squad. Through 13 contests, Holland has 151 points for an average of 11.6 per game.

Middle Tennessee State's freshmen have spread the scoring throughout the campaign. High point men for individual games has been like this:

Opponent	Leading Scorer	Points
Balls Drive-In	James Graves	14
Vanderbilt Freshmen	Norman Sain	11
Buchanan	Bob Reneau	26
Vanderbilt Freshmen	Lamar Holland	12
Murray State Frosh	Dan Midgett	23
Balls Drive-In	John Fuqua	16
Redstone	Dan Midgett	17
Austin Peay Junior Varsity	Lamar Holland & Dan Midgett	12
Austin Peay Junior Varsity	James Graves	19
Western Kentucky Frosh	Norman Sain	15
Tennessee Tech Frosh	Dan Midgett	15
Sewart Air Force Base	Robert Venanzio	19
Lebanon Indep.	Bob Reneau	21

AAA Team Tops League

By Henry Adler

As the league swings back into action following a two week period of rest and recuperation and possibly exams, we find the AAA's maintaining a two game lead by winning three points from the Bowl Weevils—shooting a 619-1654 set which was high for this week. The Sports held on to second place by winning 3 games from Tenn-I-See as Jim Schenk blasted the pins for a 219, 203-554 set. The Tikis gained one game on the leaders by winning 4 games as Fred Sutterlin shot a 215-563 series. Three teams are tied for the cellar as Tenn-I-See, which has maintained a monopoly on that position has finally moved into a three-way tie for eighth place.

Fred Sutterlin continues to lead the loop, averaging a respectable 180, and Veda McClendon leads the girls in that department. The highlight of this week's bowling is the 201 game rolled by Vivian Millsap. This is the first 200 game shot by a girl this season.

Standings, Jan. 29

	W	L
1. AAA	29	11
2. Sports	27	13
3. Tikis	27	13
4. Stars	24	16
5. Geezenstocks	20	20
6. Alley "Oops"	19	21
7. Ten Pins	18	22
8. Struckouts	12	18
9. Bowl Weevils	12	18
10. Tenn-I-See	12	18

'Cavalleria' - - -

(Continued From Page 1)

Box Office: Suzanne Lee, Sharon Lee; House Manager: Bill Russell, Make-up: Sandra Millsaps, Patty Andrews; Wardrobe: Barbara Scott, Lynn McGill; Ushers: June Vickery, Sue Alexander, Kris Strahley, Ayne Cantrell, Madeleine Davis, Virginia Miller, Sylvia Bankert, Ruth Bigger.

This opera, written by Pietro Mascagni, was the ninth annual joint production of the music, drama, and art departments of MTSC. The public presentation of the program, always a sell-out, was limited to Thursday and Friday night. High school students in the Middle Tennessee state area were invited to a preview dress rehearsal Wednesday night, Jan. 31.

Date Set For Swim Meet

Thursday, Feb. 8, has been set for the date of the Triton Club swim meet. The meet, which will begin at 7 p.m., is open to all individuals and clubs.

Trophys for individual boy and girl swimmers along with team trophies will be presented. Ribbons for first and second place runner-up will also be given.

A fee of $25 will be charged per entrant and an admission of $25 will be charged for spectators at the door.

Events will include Freestyle, Backstroke, and Breaststroke. This applies to both boy and girl entries. Team relays will include the Meddley and Freestyle.

To enter, contact Miss Gordan, Room 106 in the basement of the P. E. building.

Raiders Post Win Over High-Ranking Centenary

Middle Tennessee State College led Centenary of Shreveport, La., for 15 seconds Monday night. That one quarter minute was enough to post a 64-63 victory over the team ranked 24 in the nation among major colleges. It was the Raiders fifth win against six defeats this year.

The Raiders fought an uphill battle all the way, falling behind 6-0 before Ed Newton scratched the first Blue score. Peek managed a three point combination to tie the count after five minutes of play but Upshaw's three consecutive baskets pulled the Gents away to a lead that was sustained at 34-29 at halftime.

Twice in the second canto the Blue was within a point of tying but with six minutes to go Centenary had piled up a commanding lead of 59-50. Fans began to move towards the exits when Jent and Nickell hit quick baskets Centenary began to tire from torrid pace and made a series of three costly floor mistakes as pressure mounted.

Jent pulled the Raiders to within three points when he cashed a foul following a successful field basket drive. Then Paul Daily drew a one-and-one and made good on both. With 42 seconds to go Centenary moved cautiously but Jack McCauley stole the ball in mid-court. The Raiders called time for one set play and a pass under to the driving Holland, who hemmed in by two men, hit a fall away shot with only 16 seconds left.

Centenary called for time and the Gents moved rapidly down court for McAfoos attempt from the field, his desperation shot was wide and Newton covered the ball as the game ended.

The Raiders hit 39.1 per cent of their field shots but were miserable on the foul line in the first half, missing five of eight. However they hit seven of eight in the last period. Gathering in 50 rebounds to 39 for the Gents proved the Raider salvation as the Maroons hit for 42 per cent on field play and made 15 of 20 foul efforts.

Ed Newton and Paul Holland each scored 16 points on identical seven field and two foul goals. Ken Peek was third high with 12. Nickell scored seven, Jent five, Joe Baker four, McCauley two and Dailey two.

Stan McAfoos of Centenary, who hit eight straight foul shots, led the scoring for the night with 19 points. Dale Van Bibber was second with 16.

College Will Host Physical Fitness Meet

Six persons from each of 27 school systems in the Mid-State area will meet at Middle Tennessee State College from 2 until 4:30 February 13 for a Physical Fitness clinic in keeping with the recommendations of President Kennedy's Council on Youth Fitness. The meeting has been arranged by Charlie Kerr, supervisor of health and physical education for the State Department of Education. The clinic will be held in the health and recreational building. Dr. Francis Riel, head of the health, physical education and recreation department at Middle Tennessee State College, Jere Farley of the State Department, Bob Burkett of the Murfreesboro City Schools, Baxter Hobgood, city superintendent and M. B. Brandon, county superintendent are co-operating in planning the program.

Ideas, techniques, methods and suggestions will be stressed concerning health appraisal of children, physical fitness tests, posture defects, emphasis on physical fitness activities and measuring and recording test results.

Children of various grade levels in the Murfreesboro and Rutherford County School systems will conduct the clinic.

The participating school systems are Bedford county, Shelbyville, Cannon county, Coffee county, Davidson county, Manchester city, Nashville city, Tullahoma city, Giles county, Franklin county, Lincoln county, Fayetteville city, Marshall county, Macon county, Moore county, Rutherford county, Murfreesboro city, Robertson county, Sumner county, Trousdale county, Van Buren county, Warren county, McMinnville city, Williamson county, Franklin, Wilson, county, Lebanon city and Watertown city.

Huddleston Heads Quarterback Club

Henry Huddleston, well known local businessman, has been elected president of the Blue Raider Quarterback Club for the coming year. The election was held at the Stones River Country Club on January 15.

Huddleston, a Yale graduate, takes over the Middle Tennessee State booster club from outgoing president Dick Palmer.

Other officers elected for the coming year are Ray Hughes, vice-president; Norris Lovvorn, secretary; and Herman Jones, treasurer.

Paul Hooper was appointed as program chairman for 1962-63, and has already begun to present some fine programs for the year.

The new officers took immediate action to outline a new constitution for the "Booster Club", and a committee will work on the by-laws for a permanent organization.

At the meeting, Coach Charles "Bubber" Murphy showed the members the film of the Tangerine Bowl Game between the Blue Raiders and Lamar Tech.

Speech Team Ties For 2nd In Meet

Middle Tennessee State Speech team enjoyed the best success of the season in the West Georgia College Speech tournament held at Carrolton, Ga., the past weekend. The team tied with Howard College of Birmingham for second place in the sweepstakes, which was won by Emory University. Thirteen Southern colleges and universities participated in the tournament.

Richard Schoonman, New London, Conn. won first in impromptu speaking with Gordon DeFries of Chattanooga second to top the MTSC team. A. W. Powell of McMinnville and DeFries teamed up to win second honors in affirmative debate. The MTSC team won five of ten rounds of debate in the varsity division and six of ten rounds in the novice class.

Schoonman ranked fifth and Wallace Maples, tenth among the 56 participating in the novice contest. Molly Lynch placed in the final round of poetry interpretation but was eliminated when she contracted severe laryngitis Saturday.

The MTSC varsity team was composed of Dell Hunt, Nashville; Gordon DeFries, Chattanooga; Martha Lynch, Watertown, A. W. Powell, McMinnville and Carole Sanford, Lebanon. Those representing the college in the novice division were John Bradford, Jerry Foster, Wallace Maples and Richard Schoonman. John O'Hara and Lane Boutwell of the speech department accompanied the team to Georgia.

4 Men

Evenings and Saturdays
Full Time Summer Work

Car Necessary

Call: CHapel 2-0688

Nashville, Tennessee

"Henderson, remember how at Chicago Bill Alexander told us that we've got to lick this pilferage problem"

Eastern Tops Raiders, 64-56

Eastern Kentucky held on to fourth place in the OVC by defeating the Raiders 64-56 Saturday night in what was perhaps the poorest exhibition by both teams of the season.

MTSC hit for only 17 of 67 field attempts, missing 12 shots in a row at one stage. They were equally inept at the foul line, missing 14 of 36, with Nickell missing seven. Eastern rimmed 22 of 61 field shots and 22 of 28 foul tries.

The Raiders gained a lead after 10:26 in the first half, relinquished it and tied again on Newton's two fouls at 7:04. Holland's field goal with 13:31 left in the last half tied the count at 37-37. The turning point came with 6:59 to go when Peek missed a double foul, Holland a lay-up and Nickell three fouls in a row while the Raiders were trailing 40-39.

Holland was top point man with 19 with Jent, McCauley eight, Ewton seven, McCauley six, Jones, four, Dailey two and Baker one. Parks with 15 and Pickett with 13 led the Maroons.

'Tritons' Schedule Swim Competition

The "Tritons," previously known as the Aquatic Club, have announced plans for the coming season. They are scheduled to participate in a competitive swimming meet which will be held Thursday, Feb. 8 at 7 p.m., and they have entries in the International Symposium of Aquatic Art, Southeastern, in Knoxville. The Symposium is set for Feb. 16-18.

At Knoxville, the twenty members of the club will present three numbers: the "Mermaids," Water Sprites, and the "Finale." Other clubs with entries are TPI, Peabody, Memphis State, Austin Peay, and ETSC.

Mrs. Buleah Gundling, World Champion of Aquatic Stunt Arts and aa member of the American Olympic Team, will be the main judge of the competition. The numbers chosen by Mrs. Gundling will be presented for the public on Feb. 17 at the University Natatorium.

Football Wrap-Up

MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE COLLEGE
1961 - Football
GAMES

MTSC		Opp.
40	Austin Peay State	7
19	Morehead State	14
14	Western Kentucky State	6
22	Eastern Kentucky State	15
7	Pensacola Navy	12
12	Chattanooga	25
13	Florence State	3
27	Murray State	18
27	East Tennessee State	0
6	Tennessee Tech	7
14	Lamar Tech	21
<table border="0"> <tr> <td>Won</td> <td>Lost</td> <td>Tied</td> </tr> <tr> <td>7</td> <td>4</td> <td>0</td> </tr> </table>		Won	Lost	Tied	7	4	0
Won	Lost	Tied
7	4	0

Alumnus Will Participate In Army Games

Army First Lt. Horace G. Taylor, a 1960 graduate of MTSC, is scheduled to participate with other personnel assigned to duty at the 64th Field Hospital in Exercise Great Bear, a joint U. S.-Canadian winter maneuver in Alaska. The exercises will take place Feb. 12-21, and will test cold weather military doctrine and the ability of the two allied armies to work together as a fighting team.

Lieutenant Taylor, a medical platoon leader at the hospital at Fort Richardson, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Taylor of Auburntown.

Second Lt. Joe W. Dickens recently was assigned to the 121st Signal Battalion at Fort Riley, Kan. A platoon leader in the battalion's Company B, Lieutenant Dickens is a 1961 graduate of MTSC. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Dickens, 508 Clark Blvd., Murfreesboro.

PFC James P. Young Jr., a member of the class of 1959, has been named Soldier of the Month for Headquarters Company of the U. S. Army, Ryukyu Islands on Okinawa. Private Young was selected for his soldierly appearance, knowledge and performance of duties, and military courtesy, according to an army press release.

A native of Murfreesboro, Private Young's wife and his parents still reside here.

Army 2d Lt. Joe K. Hallum, whose wife, Betty lives at 209 Willwood ave., Lebanon, recently completed the four-week airborne course at The Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga.

Lieutenant Hallum received his paratrooper wings after completing intensive ground and aerial training including five parachute jumps. He entered the Army in 1956.

The 27-year-old officer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hallum, 225 W. Adams St., is a 1952 graduate of Lebanon High School and a 1956 graduate of MTSC.

Army 2d Lt. John R. Anderson III, whose wife, Barbara, lives on Route 1, Nolensville, recently participated in Exercise Brandy Wine, a field training exercise involving some 26,000 troops in Germany.

The exercise was conducted to train small unit leaders and test the combat readiness of participating units. Lieutenant Anderson and other members of his unit maneuvered against an "Aggressor" force. They were supported in the exercise by atomic-capable and conventional artillery and other combat and logistical support elements of V Corps.

Lieutenant Anderson, a platoon commander in the 37th Engineer Group's 299th Battalion which is regularly stationed in Hochst, entered the Army last July and arrived overseas last October.

The 24-year-old officer, whose parents live on Route 2, Murfreesboro, is a 1955 graduate of Smyrna High School and a 1961 graduate of MTSC. He was employed by Foster & Creighton Co., Nashville, before entering the Army.

Miss Putman Attends Meeting

Miss Margaret Putman, head of the Middle Tennessee State College home economics department, recently attended the State supervisors and teacher trainer's conference at Paris Landing State park.

Miss Putman presided at the Tuesday afternoon session. The topic for discussion was, "Where Do We Go From Here in Vocational Home Economics in Tennessee." Seven supervisors and teacher trainees participated on this program.

The home economics department at MTSC was approved to certify graduates for vocational home economics teaching in 1959. MTSC graduates have many advantages as a result of this approval. To date 35 MTSC graduates have been certified to teach vocational home economics. In 1962 approximately 15 graduates will receive the vocational home economics certificate.

The overall purpose of the conference, according to Miss Putman, was to give a better understanding of the division and services of the total program of public education in Tennessee, and, secondly, to strengthen and improve vocational education.

H. C. Colvett, State coordinator, vocational education, State Department of Education, was the conference director. About fifty state department members, teacher trainees from the three vocational teacher training institutions in the State, University of Tennessee, Tennessee Tech and MTSC, participated in the conference. The vocational services include home economics, practical nursing, technical training, distributive education, agriculture education, and trade and industrial education.

SPORT SHORTS

The coaching staff is busy visiting schools in this area, not only to talk to coaches about football prospects, but making the usual banquet circuit. Coach Murphy is always one of the top choices of area high schools for banquet addresses.

George Dykes and Larry Whaley, members of the 1961 Tangerine Bowl football team, are making a steady improvement from their knee operations. Dykes expects to participate in Spring drills, but Whaley will wait until September to give his knee a test.

THE MANY LOVES OF THORWALD DOCKSTADER

When Thorwald Dockstader—sophomore, epicure, and sportsman—first took up smoking, he did not simply choose the first brand of cigarettes that came to hand. He did what any sportsman would do: he sampled several brands until he found the very best—a mild, rich, flavorful smoke—an endless source of comfort and satisfaction—a smoke that never palled, never failed to please—a smoke that age could not wither nor custom stale—a filter cigarette with an unfiltered taste—Marlboro, of course!

Similarly, when Thorwald took up girls, he did not simply select the first one who came along. He sampled. First he dated an English literature major named Elizabeth Barrett Schwartz, a wisp of a girl with large, luminous eyes and a soul that shimmered with a pale, unearthly beauty. Trippingly, trippingly, she walked with Thorwald upon the beach and sat with him behind a windward dune and listened to a conch shell and sighed sweetly and took out a little gold pencil and a little morocco notebook and wrote a little poem:

*I will lie upon the shore,
I will be a dreamer,
I will feel the sea once more,
Pounding on my femur.*

Thorwald's second date was with a physical education major

He did not simply select the first one who came along...

named Peaches Glendower, a broth of a girl with a ready smile and a size 18 neck. She took Thorwald down to the cinder track where they did 100 laps to open the pores. Then they played four games of squash, six sets of tennis, 36 holes of golf, nine innings of one o'cat, six chukkers of lacrosse, and a mile and a quarter of leapfrog. Then they went ten rounds with eight ounce gloves and had heaping bowls of whey and exchanged a firm handshake and went home to their respective whirlpool baths.

Thorwald's final date was with a golden-haired, creamy-browed, green-eyed, red-lipped, full-calved girl named Totsi Sigafos. Totsi was not majoring in anything. As she often said, "Gee whillikers, what's college for anyhow—to fill your head full of icky old facts, or to discover the shining essence that is YOU?"

Totsi started the evening with Thorwald at a luxurious restaurant where she consumed her own weight in Cornish rock hen. From there they went to a deluxe movie palace where Totsi had popcorn with butter. Then she had a bag of chocolate covered raisins—also with butter. Then they went to a costly ballroom and did the Twist till dawn, tipping the band every eight bars. Then they went to a Chinese restaurant where Totsi, unable to translate the menu, solved her problem by ordering one of everything. Then Thorwald took her to the women's dorm, boosted her in the window, and went downtown to wait for the employment office to open.

While waiting, Thorwald thought over all of his girls and came to a sensible decision. "I think," he said to himself, "that I will stick with Marlboros. I am not rich enough for girls."

© 1962 Max Shulman

Marlboro, however, is rich enough for anybody. It takes mighty good makin's to give you unfiltered taste in a filter cigarette. That's the flavor you get in the famous Marlboro recipe from Richmond, Virginia. You get a lot to like.

DELBRIDGE STUDIOS

Portraits of Distinction

North Spring

Murfreesboro, Tennessee

893-8922

TYPEWRITER RENTALS

by Week or Month

New & Used Typewriters For Sale Repair Service

BATEY'S

Church at Vine St. TW 3-8552 Murfreesboro, Tennessee

Alpha Psi Omega Holds Initiation

Five new members were initiated into Alpha Psi Omega at a recent banquet. The initiates are Carolyn King, a senior from Fayetteville; Bob Turman, a sophomore from Savannah; Vickie Wise, a sophomore from Lewisburg; Tom Mason from Lebanon and Lynn Greer, a transfer from Martin College. Lynn was a member of Delta Psi Omega at Martin.

Membership in APO is based on meritorious participation in college dramatics.

Mrs. Dorothe Tucker, the fraternity sponsor, was presented with a pair of gold leather gloves by the president, Betsy Sims. Scot Ward read a poem written for the occasion by A. W. Powell.

Members present at the banquet were Dick Barnes, treasurer; Janice Wynne, stage manager; Betsy Sims, president; Carolyn Boatright, Kent Brisby, David Gammons, James Gentry, Lynn Greer, Bill Hunter, Tag McMillen, Anne Petty, June Vickery, Mrs. Tucker, Dr. Clay Tucker and Mr. Bill Wilson.

RECORD RACK Campbell's Store For Homes

115 South Church Street

Welcome To MURFREESBORO BANK & TRUST CO.

MEMBER OF F.D.I.C.

"YOUR FRIENDLY HOME-OWNED BANK"

ON N. SQUARE

893-3562

(Photo by Gene Tuck)
Presenting Monte Callaway and Bill Hosse, MTSC's Ed and Coed of the Week.

Ed-Co-ed of Week Versatile Students Aably Combine College, Families

By Marguerite Batey

Rarely does one find beauty, talent, brains and wit combined in one neat package—but such is the case with Monte Callaway, who has a vivid personality to boot.

Monte is originally from Dallas, Tex.; hence, she is oftentimes greeted, "Hi ya, Tex!" But she has not let the vast boundaries of that state tie her down to the range, for Monte has travelled through Mexico, the Bahamas, and Canada. Yet, she still says, "Love that big D!" and will ever stay loyal to Dallas.

This gal can really go on the water, and is quite an expert water skier. "But you should see my daughter Jeanne! She is truly Cypress Garden material!" she exclaims enthusiastically.

Monte's husband is an ex-Baylor University football player, and his great love for sports brings the Callaways into contact with prominent baseball players of the American League, particularly members of the Boston Red Sox.

A safe bet would be that this is the only co-ed at MTSC who commutes (from her home in Murfreesboro) to school in a Thunderbird that once had dead lizards in it. "The lizards are long gone, but the scent lives on!" That is why an exquisite blue satin sachet ball which stays doused with perfume dangles from the emergency brake.

Monte is a business education major at MTSC and plans to graduate in August and then begin work on her M.A. She is a member of Tau Omicron, Kappa Delta Pi, and is vice-president of Pi Omega Pi business fraternity; and no wonder—she has never had anything lower than a 3.50 average! Must be nice!

Anybody have a printing problem? Well, Bill Hosse works as a hand compositor at Baird-Ward Printing company in Nashville, and he just might be your boy.

But you'd better hurry, for Bill won't be there much longer, for he is quitting this long-time job soon to devote his time to finishing school and managing the fleet-footed Raider track team this spring.

Bill Hosse (pronounced HAAS-se) is a veteran of the Navy. His tour of duty with Uncle Sam took him to such places as Hawaii, the Philippines, Panama, Puerto Rico, and pre-Castro Cuba.

Physical education is Bill's major at MTSC, and he has minors in English and secondary education. Upon graduation in May, he plans to enter graduate school here. He was named to of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, is president of the Physical Education club, Veterans' club and Student National Education association.

Being an avid sportsman with a particular interest in big game hunting, Bill has a collection of guns that any hunter would envy. He hopes to combine his two interests (hunting and teaching) by obtaining a job in the West upon completion of school.

A familiar sight every afternoon at football practice is the Hosse tribe consisting of Bill's four sons. But let's not leave out Mrs. Hosse, for she, too, is an avid sports enthusiast and an excellent swimmer.

If anyone has any banana pudding or chocolate pie around, better hide it if Hosse is in the vicinity, for it won't be there long if he ever gets a whiff of it. He loves that stuff!

Speech Tourney - - -

(Continued From Page 1)

comb, East Tennessee State, Freed-Hardeman, Maryville, Tennessee Tech, the University of the South, the University of Tennessee, Vanderbilt, Tennessee Wesleyan, and Memphis State.

A. W. Powell, junior English major from McMinnville, and Gordon DeFriese, junior pre-law major from Chattanooga, will represent MTSC in senior men's debate. Representatives in women's debate will be Martha Lynch, senior elementary education major from Wattertown, and Carole Sanford, sophomore English major from Lebanon. Three teams will represent

Final Posts Assigned To ROTC Seniors

The ROTC department has announced permanent leadership assignments for seniors in the ROTC program.

The new permanent assignments became effective the first drill of the Spring semester yesterday. All seniors undergo two previous trial positions, and the third and final position is based on previous job merits. The leadership positions assigned for February will be permanent for the remainder of the semester.

The Cadet Corps will be commanded by Charles E. Crowe, of Chattanooga. A Distinguished Military Student, Cadet Crowe was chosen as "outstanding cadet" of both his freshman and sophomore classes. He was the commander of the Sam Davis Rifles in his sophomore year and was chosen as the top cadet in his company at ROTC camp in Ft. Benning, Ga.

Executive officer is Charles G. Tucker of Shelbyville. Cadet Tucker was platoon sergeant of the Sam Davis Rifles and is also a Distinguished Military Student. He is president of the Track and Sabre club.

Cadets Crowe and Tucker have been assigned a four-man staff to aid them in administrative duties. The cadet staff officers are: Jim Sivells, Tullahoma; Roger Wilkerson, Nashville; Robert Rose, Decatur, and Robert Sturdivant, Nashville. Cadets Sivells, Wilkerson, and Rose are Distinguished Military Students, and Sivells and Wilkerson are vice-president and secretary, respectively, of the Track and Sabre club.

MTSC in junior debate (persons not having a full year of college debating to their credit). They include: Richard Schoonman and John Bradford; Jerry Foster and Wallace Maples; and Ed Myers and Jay Strawn.

Miss Lynch and Miss Sanford, Powell, DeFriese, Schoonman, Bradford, Myers and Strawn, returned here Saturday from the West Georgia Invitational Tournament, held at the West Georgia College in Carrollton. They were accompanied on the trip by Lane Boutwell, associate professor of speech; and John O'Hara, assistant director of forensics.

In the annual Novice Debates and Judging Tournament held here recently, a local team, Wallace Maples, Lenoir City, and Jerry Foster, Shelbyville, was adjudged runner-up best debate team. Miss Lynch was named runner-up judge. Others representing MTSC in the competition were: Schoonman; Bradford; Strawn; Myers; Miss Sanford; Bill Hunt, Nashville; Dick Barnes, Murfreesboro; Bob Turman, Savannah; James McMillian, Nashville; and Wanda Chitwood, Red Boiling Springs. Judges were, in addition to Miss Lynch, Powell and DeFriese.

Debate teams from David Lipscomb, Belmont, Tennessee Tech, Freed-Hardeman, and MTSC competed.

Buchanan Players Select Dramas For Presentation

A number of productions have been scheduled for presentation by the Buchanan Players this semester.

The melodrama "Winsome Winnie," presented in January, starred Carole Lou Perry, Don Massey, Dick Barnes, Tag McMillen, Bob Turman, Betty Duggan, Emily Gilmore and Bernard Smith.

The "Macbeth" touring group is now in rehearsal with new members Vickie Wise as Lady Macbeth, June Vickery as first witch and Dick Barnes as the narrator. Original members are A. W. Powell as Macbeth; Janice Wynne and Betsy Sims, as two of the three witches; Kent Brisby as Banquo; Scot Ward as the drunken porter and Tag McMillen as King Duncan.

Also in production are cuttings from Moss Hart's and George Kaufman's "You Can't Take It With You." Aubrey Parker will portray Grandpa Vanderhof; Anne Petty, Penny; Sue Alexander, Reba; Janice Sandlin, Essie; Ray Weather- spoon, Donald; Bill Russell, Ed; Ronnie Dooley, Paul Sycamore; Bob Conwell, the federal agent; Lynn Greer, Mr. DePinna and Vivian Roberts as Alice. Betsy Sims will direct the cutting and Janice Wynne will be in charge of make-up.

"Teahouse of the August Moon" will be given as a cutting in February.

Midlander Staff Will Organize

Organization of a staff for the 1962 - 63 MIDLANDER will begin on March 1, according to Dr. Homer Pittard, advisor for the publication.

Students interested, with or without prior experience, should secure applications from Room 201 as soon as possible.

Considerable planning for next year's yearbook will be done before the end of the Spring semester.

Home Economics Club Slates Jewelry Sale

The Home Economics club has placed on sale to members club jewelry, according to Paula Moore, club treasurer.

This is the second money-making project undertaken recently, another being the sale of butternut candy. At the club meeting held Tuesday, a program was presented entitled "Valentine Sweets."

Goldstein's

Where Quality Speaks for Itself

Fisher's

STORE FOR MEN AND BOYS

Newest In Sports Wear

West Side of Square

893-3343

COPYRIGHT © 1961, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY. COCA-COLA AND COKE ARE REGISTERED TRADEMARKS

BETWEEN CLASSES... get that refreshing new feeling with Coke!

Bottled under authority of
The Coca-Cola Company by

Welcome Students

To

National Bank of Murfreesboro

East Main Street, Murfreesboro

893-7210

A. L. Smith &
COMPANY

DRUGGISTS

STATIONERY — MAGAZINES

and HOLLINGSWORTH

UNUSUAL CANDIES

Graphic Arts Students Are Do-it-yourselfers

There is an old adage that once printer's ink gets under your nails, you will keep it there.

Such seems to be true with MTSC students who have enrolled in the school's graphic arts course.

Harold Baldwin, as assistant professor, finds that his students consider printing one of the most interesting parts of his graphic arts course. He said, "We have had printing as a part of this course for only two semesters, but the student response has been most gratifying."

Mr. Baldwin, who received his training at Colorado State College, said, "We have been somewhat limited in our equipment, and have taught printing only as a part of the course. I would like to see us have a complete course in printing." He pointed out that his students have a great feeling of accomplishment when their finished product rolls off the printing press. He remarked, "We let them do such things as personalize stationery. During Christmas students made their own Christmas cards."

The main problem has been finding used equipment to get the course going, according to Baldwin. "The South is certainly modernized in the printing business, and it is very difficult to find any used equipment down here," he explained.

When the study program for printing was first set up about a year ago, President Quill E. Cope appropriated $1,500 for Mr. Baldwin to obtain used equipment to get the ball rolling. Some 52 letters were sent out in search for equipment and finally some used cases, type, a stitcher and other necessary equipment was located in Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania. Mr. Baldwin commented that they were lucky enough to locate a 12x8 platen press in Atlanta, and got a $7,000 cutter from the state surplus for a very low price.

MTSC students are doing all of their own engraving for the printing. They use linoleum blocks for their cuts, and cut out their own designs for printing. Many of the students have found the work interesting enough to return to the classroom on weekends to make different designs for printing Christmas cards and other work.

At the present time, the printing is confined to "letterpress" by direct contact of the cuts and type to the paper. There are plans for a new press to add to the equipment for "offset" work. This is a process of printing from a flat surface, with the impression first received by a rubber-faced cylinder, and transferred to the paper.

"We will be able to do most any kind of routine printing with the new offset press. We already have a room available for use as a darkroom. In this process, we photograph the work to be printed and can use any designs on the paper we want. The negative is then "burned" into a metal sheet and the sheet is put on the press." Mr. Baldwin said.

It appears that printing is going to be a popular course for future MTSC students.

Black and Miller Die, On MTSC Janitor Staff

Two members of the janitorial staff at MTSC died during the past week.

Robert Black, for five years at the Campus School, succumbed Monday to pneumonia resulting from an attack of influenza.

Johnie Miller, who worked in the mathematics and mechanical drawing building died from a heart attack earlier in the week.

Cope Talks To College Presidents

Dr. Quill Cope, MTSC president, last Tuesday urged educators from Tennessee to follow the recommendations of the Southern Regional Education Board to implement the goals of higher education in the state. He was chairman of a panel of business and professional leaders at a two-day meeting of Tennessee college presidents called by Governor Buford Ellington.

He stated that the state enrollment in colleges had increased from 35,000 students nine years ago to 64,000 now, adding that by 1964 the full impact of Tennessee's industrial expansion and the population explosion would "begin to hit the colleges."

In discussing the crisis facing the colleges and universities of the state, Dr. Cope cited the disparity between the number of instructors and assistant professors currently teaching in Tennessee and those of full professorial rank. He indicated that the state colleges and universities were acting as training grounds for many teachers who moved into more lucrative areas as soon as they attained rank experience.

As a partial solution for the

Ford Company Enlarges Recruiting Program

Ford Motor Company plans to hire nearly 30 percent more college graduate trainees in 1962 than in 1961, Kenneth D. Cassidy, vice-president - industrial relations, announced recently.

A team of interviewers coordinated by James M. Osborne, manager of college recruiting, will visit colleges and universities from coast to coast in search of 807 candidates for a two-year training program with Ford. In 1961, the company hired 625 such college graduates.

"In the coming months, we will be seeking graduates of all academic backgrounds — liberal arts, business, engineering and science," Mr. Cassidy said. "We want candidates offering solid scholastic records, management potential, and willingness to work hard."

problem of rapid growth, he suggested the greater utilization of school plants and an increase in evening and summer school programs.

Classes Study Cost Control

Members of the class in accounting systems at Middle Tennessee State College have expressed appreciation to the firms in Murfreesboro that have contributed to the class objectives of the study of principles underlying cost accounting and cost control.

Walter Chatman, assistant professor of business education at the college, stated that it is possible to only cover theory of many phases of this work in the classroom. As many local businesses convert to machine accounting his classes find field work and instruction most profitable. This year the class has had the cooperation of the Veteran's Administration in the study of Governmental Accounting; general electric in manufacturing accounting and State Farm Insurance Company in non-manufacturing accounting.

Members of the class are: Joe Halton, Charles Reese, David Bryan, Marcus Dotson, Freddie Lynn, Gene McCall, Bill Davis, Steve Heins, Burford Hudgins, Val Gene Smith, D. C. Davis, and Gale Luna.

THE FABRIC CENTER
109 S. Church On Public Square
The Girl Who Sews Wears Better Clothes

RION FLOWER SHOP
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
107 West College St.
Phone 893-7134

Jimmy Carnahan
photographer
Portraits — Frames
Kodak Finishing
117 East Main Street
Phone 893-3832

'Teacher Of Year' Nominees Include MTSC Graduates

Two Middle Tennessee College graduates are among the nine Tennessee teachers who have been nominated for the honor, "Tennessee Teacher of the Year." They are Mr. M. D. Cherry, English teacher at Celina high school, and Mrs. Jewell Spencer, first grade teacher at the Lynchburg elementary school. A third, Miss Sadie Mai McMahan, Manchester, graduated from Tennessee College for Women.

The selection of a teacher to represent Tennessee's approximately 30,000 public school teachers is a project sponsored by the U. S. Office of Education, the Council of Chief State School Officers and Look Magazine.

Nine Tennesseans were nominated by local school systems after Commissioner Joe Morgan notified superintendents that Tennessee

(Continued on page 8)

The
MEN'S SHOP
Quality Clothes For Men
119 North Maple Street

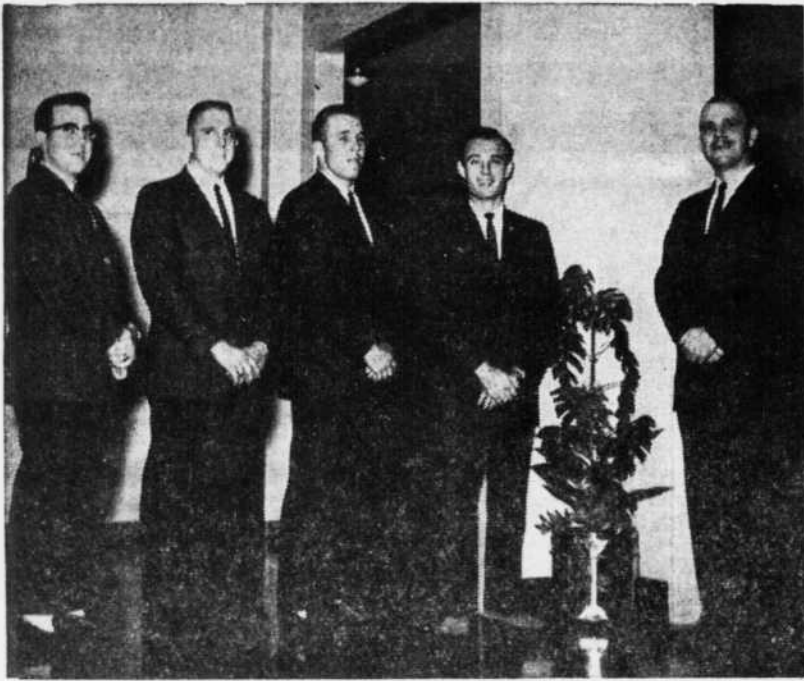

"Tareyton's Dual Filter in duas partes divisa est!" says Virgilius (Vinegar Virgil) Cassius, noble Praetorian guardsman, as he prepares for another glorious parade. "Don't run around in Circus looking for a good smoke," says Vinegar Virgil. "Tareyton's one filter cigarette that really delivers de gustibus. Be one of the cohorts and carpe diem with Tareyton."

DUAL FILTER
Tareyton

Product of The American Tobacco Company — "Tobacco is our middle name" © A. T. Co.

(Photo by Kenneth Love)
The ASB supreme court judges violations and infractions of rules by students. Members of the supreme court are, left to right, Bob Turman, Taylor Harrison, Don Faulk, Norman Martin, and Bill J. Davis, chief justice.

Supreme Court Delivers Judgments; Verdict Is Yours—To Live With

By Johnny Stoddard

The supreme court at Middle Tennessee State College is the final judicial body of the Associated Student Body. It has the power to judge various violations or infractions of rules broken on campus by the students, they try the students, and hand down the verdict. This verdict is then presented to the Dean of Students and the President of the college. Upon approval of these two persons, the accused must then follow the verdict of the court.

Members of this year's supreme court are Bill J. Davis, chief justice; Taylor Harrison, Don Faulk, Bob Turman, and Norman Martin.

Bill Davis is a senior, majoring in accounting and minoring in economics, from Liberty. He is the commander of the Veterans' club, a member of Pi Omega Pi, the Sigma club, and the Circle K, club. Davis is married to the former Joyce Mulliway of Liberty.

A senior industrial arts major and education minor from Manchester, Taylor Harrison is a member of the Industrial Arts club, the Booster club, the Veterans' club where he has served as Sgt.-at-arms and vice-commander, the Baptist Student Group, and a 32nd degree Mason and Eastern Star. He is married to the former Thelma Jo Gartrell who is currently the school nurse.

Don Faulk, also a senior, is majoring in business administration and minoring in economics. From Shelbyville, he has played football for the last four years and captained the 1961 team. He was voted 111 OVC second team center in 1961 and is the treasurer of the "T" club. He is married to the former Joan Cook.

Bob Turman, the junior representative, is an English major and speech and secondary minor from Savannah. He is a member of the MTSC debate team, Pi Kappa Delta, Track and Sabre club, Nathan Bedford Forrest club, Booster club, Buchanan Players, and the Church of Christ group.

Norman Martin, from Columbia, the sophomore representative, is a member of the Veterans club, the Circle K club, and has served as parade marshal for the homecoming parade.

Other Papers Comment On Spelling, Twist

(ACP)—Poor spelling is a "problem that plagues a large percentage of the student body," says an editorial in the Connecticut Daily Campus. "The whole problem can be summed up in one sentence: Words are an inexhaustible supply of knowledge, but the average student of today seems to be too exhausted to bother with them."

(ACP)—A "new national trend" draws this comment from the Gustavian Weekly, Gustavus Adolphus College: "The popularity of the twist may be representative of the fact that picture of confusion and stable mobility are so typical of our time. Round and round and up and down we go . . . again."

Keep a perpetual grocery list, adding each item as the supply gets low. Then when your husband announces he's going to town, the list is up-to-date.

"Teacher of Year" - - -

(Continued from Page 7)
would have a representative in the national contest. The State nominee will be selected from these nine by a committee appointed by Commissioner Morgan. In addition to Mrs. Cherry and Mrs. Spencer the Tennessee nominees are Mrs. James S. Hopper, Etowah; William Robert Lassiter, Smithville, Miss Sadi Mai McMahan, Manchester; Carroll Wayne Ogle, Sevierville; Mrs. Alfred Overholser, Lewisburg; Mrs. Maxine Harris Thompson, Knoxville and Herman Woody, Meigs county.

The outstanding teacher selected to represent Tennessee will be one who not only knows his subject field and how to teach it, but he will also be a dedicated teacher and good citizen with active participation in community affairs. The sponsoring agencies also suggest that the nominees be those who, "command the respect and admiration of students, parents and co-workers and have the ability to lead and inspire others."

Coaches Don Lear and Joe Black are getting many requests to officiate wrestling matches throughout this area. Both have much experience on the mats.

POP Sets Annual Banquet

Pi Omega Pi, honorary business fraternity, met last week to formulate plans for its annual initiation banquet to be held Feb. 24. Also in the planning stage is the annual typewriting contest for high school students, under the direction of Mr. William Green. Mr. William Vaught is sponsor of the group, and Bob Sturdivant is president.

Freshman basketball Dan Midgett's knee trouble has been a bad break for the former All-state performer. Coach Diddle plans to send him to a specialist to correct the injury.

Adult education will continue as long as kids have homework.—News, Jackson, Miss.

KNIGHT'S CLOTHING STORE

LEVI SPIKES

9 PUBLIC SQUARE

Murfreesboro Federal

SAVINGS & LOAN ASSOCIATION

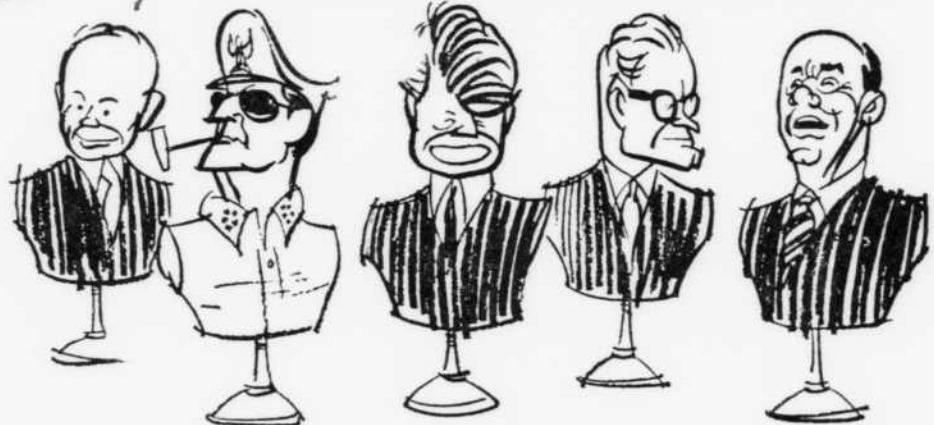

MEMBER FSLIC

West College
Murfreesboro, Tennessee

893-2174

Check your opinions against L&M's Campus Opinion Poll #17

1 Who is the greatest living American?

2 What's your favorite kind of date?

3 MEN: do you smoke an occasional pipe as well as cigarettes?

- dance
- houseparty
- walk & talk
- a few brews with friends
- Yes
- No

Expect more, get more, from L&M

THE CENTER FOR ALL DRUG NEEDS

is at

STICKNEY & GRIFFIS DRUG STORE

ALSO

Russell Stover Candies

PHONE 893-4682

It's the rich-flavor leaf among L&M's choice tobaccos that gives you MORE BODY in the blend, MORE FLAVOR in the smoke, MORE TASTE through the filter. So get Lots More from filter smoking with L&M.

HERE'S HOW 1029 STUDENTS AT 100 COLLEGES VOTED!

1 Kennedy	21%
2 Eisenhower	12%
3 Stevenson	7%
4 Goldwater	6%
5 MacArthur	5%
6 Other	49%
7 dance	32%
8 walk & talk	28%
9 houseparty	20%
10 a few brews with friends	20%
11 Yes	46%
12 No	54%

L&M's the filter cigarette for people who really like to smoke