MTSU Greek History Traced

The fraternity system at MTSU began in the fall of 1961 when Phi Epsilon was formed as an off-campus fraternity.

Phi Epsilon was the only social fraternity until the spring of 1966 when Sigma Tau Omega was established.

As a result of a study by a faculty-administration-student committee, social fraternities were recognized as campus organizations in the fall of 1966.

Three new fraternities were formed in the fall of 1966. These were Sigma Delta Zeta, Lambda Psi, and Chi Alpha Pi.

The five fraternities along with the five sororities make up the MTSU Greek system.

The Inter-Fraternity Council was created because of the need for a coordination and governing body for the fraternities. The IFC consists of the president and a representative from each fraternity. The IFC has its own officers who can not vote and serve only the functions of administrators of the body. The president may vote in case of a tie.

The IFC is responsible for all fraternity action. When necessary, the IFC can punish a fraternity by fine or by probation.

Another job of the IFC is that of coordinating rush.

The IFC sponsors a rush orientation program. At this program the fraternity system is discussed as it exists both on this campus and as a whole. Each fraternity has a representative speak at rush orientation.

It is the responsibility of the IFC to see that all rushees qualify for rush, according to the requirements set up by the administration.

The requirements for rush are that all freshmen rushees must have a 2.3 quality point ratio and at least 15 hours, not including summer school. Anyone who has 30 or more semester hours and has a quality point ratio of 2.0 is eligible for rush.

This year's Fraternity Rush

Orientation will be on Thursday, Feb. 22, at 7 p.m. in the Tennessee Room of the SUB.

Superlatives To Be Chosen February 21

The eight senior superlatives will be chosen in an all campus election on Wednesday, February 21, from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the new post office.

Each candidate is allowed just one poster and there will not be any publications by candidates allowed.

The candidates are: Miss MTSU, Sharon Duggan and Judy Wilson; Bachelor of Ugliness, Larry Barker, Bill Landers, Bobby Langford, John Lowe, and Bud Morris; Most Popular Male, Terry Bird, Lane Garner, and Stan Hardison; for Most Popular Female Judy Bawcum is the only nominee.

Nominated for Most Versatile Female was Martha Jewell, Barbara Orr, and Linda White; Most Versatile Male, Mel Black, Charlie Formosa, and Rodney Hayes; Most Outstanding Female, Patricia Duncan, Kittie Myatt, and Jensi Peck; Most Outstanding Male, Ken Blankenship, Robert Crosslin, and Paul Womack.

Patrick O'Neal, chairman of the election committee, said, "Since this will be the first election under supervision of the new election commission, it will serve as a pattern for other school elections to follow."

Members of the House of Representatives and the Senate will serve as poll workers.

Rush Orientation Held; Fraternities Described

Jim Free, president of the MTSU Interfraternity Council, announces a rush orientation program to be held in the Tennessee Room on Thursday, Feb. 22 at 7 p.m.

At this time each fraternity will present various characteristics of fraternity life in general as well as the individual traits of MTSU's Greek system.

Each of the five fraternity presidents will be given the opportunity to present persuasive talks encouraging membership in their respective organizations.

Free continues to state that this is the formal opening of rush week for the fraternity. Following this meeting of introduction, the five social organizations will give several parties to further introduce all interested people to the system.

All rushees must meet certain requirements set up by the administration which include a 2.3 cumulative average for 15 hours and a 2.0 average for 30 or more semester hours.

Doug Bennett, executive secretary of the IFC, said, "The IFC is eager to help all persons interested in going through rush. You are cordially invited to attend the Fraternity Rush Orientation."

AAUP Statement's Article Proven To Be Incorrect

By David Mathis

The Feb. 15 edition of the SIDELINES carried a news story concerning a news story about the so-called "Bill of Rights." This "bill," actually a statement from the American Association of University Professors (AAUP), was discussed at the all campus assembly last week and will be voted upon in a student referendum Feb. 21 in the post office area of the University Center.

The information given a SIDELINES reporter by a representative from the ASB, was incorrect. The article quoted President Cope as saying that the statement would pass if the majority of 200 students voted for its acceptance. The vote taken is only a student referendum with the attempt to arouse support for the AAUP Statement.

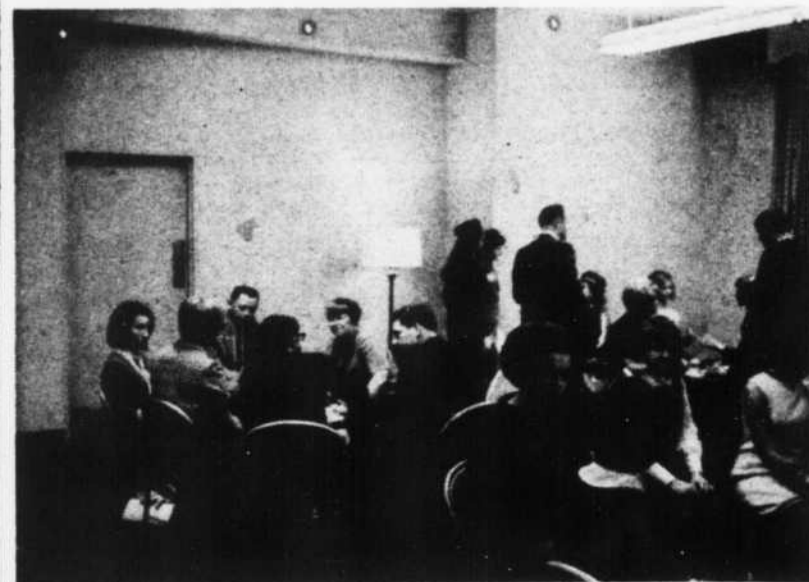

Cope did state in a recent interview that students are welcome to express their opinion through this vote, but that this would not necessarily determine the approval of the statement since administrative policy is the issue under discussion. He continued to state that all school policy is under discussion. He continued to state that all school policy is under the direction of the State Board of Education.

The incorrect information further prompted out staff to state that the faculty had approved the statement with a three-to-one vote. It was not the faculty or faculty senate that voted, but instead a small portion of the faculty members that belong to the AAUP.

The statement will be discussed further at another campus assembly 4:30 Tuesday, Feb. 20 in the Tennessee Room according to Paul Womack, ASB President.

'Sidelines' Tea

PICTURED are some of the people present at the SIDELINES tea held Sunday afternoon in Dining Room B. Approximately 100 were present including representatives from the administration, faculty, and student club presidents.

Sigma Tau Omega Holds Open House

Sigma Tau Omega was organized Jan. 13, 1966, chartered by the state April 16, 1966, and accepted by the university November 1966.

Terry Bird, senior from Murfreesboro, is the president. The vice-president is Jeff Hermsdorfer, junior from Lawrenceburg.

Other major officers include Tommy Miller, secretary, sophomore from Nashville; Monty Halcomb, treasurer, senior from Tullahoma; David Pigma, pledge master, junior from Nashville; and Mike Law, ASB representative, junior from Nashville.

Five of the 13 charter members are still at MTSU. In addition to Bird, these are Jim Free, Columbia; Hal Hounichan, Nashville; Bill Trimble, Nashville; and Phil Davidson, Nashville.

The Sigma Tau Omega house will be open Tuesday, Feb. 20, and Wednesday, Feb. 21. There will be a party Friday, Feb. 23 for the pledges.

STO won the Block and Bridle Club's "Little International." At Christmas, STO members collected "Toys for Tots," sponsored an orphan from the Good Shepherd Children's Home, and helped the County Welfare Office.

Last spring STO had the second highest grade average of the fraternities.

Through the year STO participates in many activities from intermurals to group singing to service projects.

STO is also noted by its membership. Its members participate in wide variety of activities from Circle K to Buchanan Players. The vice-president of the ASB and many ASB Senators are members of STO.

STO's house was the childhood home of Jean Faircloth MacArthur, wife of General Douglas MacArthur.

This is the STO fraternity house, which was officially opened November 14, 1967.

Paper Reviews Names

The Faculty-Student Committee on Publications is considering a request for permission to change the name of the University newspaper, THE SIDELINES. There is interest in incorporating the identity of the University in the title. Several names have been suggested: MID-STATE STUDENT PRESS, MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE QUEST, and TENNESSEE STUDENT.

Before the Committee makes a recommendation to President Cope, it would like to have expressions of opinion from students, alumni, and faculty. If you are interested enough to write a note or complete the form below, the Publications Committee will be grateful.

Phi Epsilon Was First MTSU Chartered Frat

Phi Epsilon was organized on Nov. 11, 1961. Granted a state charter Sept. 28, 1963, they were recognized as the first social fraternity on the MTSU campus in the fall of 1966.

President of the organization is David Kious with Stan Hardison serving as vice president.

During their six-year existence, Phi Ep has worked closely with the ASB and the Administration in conducting campus clean-ups, selling tickets for ASB activities, and supporting all athletic activities.

In the past year, members have been ushers at the ASB Big Name Entertainment Shows and have sponsored a child from the Good Shepherd's Children Home. They have also participated in many varied civic and charity projects in Rutherford County.

Over the past years Phi Epsilon has supported the Baptist Orphanage in Franklin County, won the Civitan Club candy sale for the past three years, donated more money to the Cerebral Palsy Drive in 1966 than any other Rutherford County organization, worked for the Heart Fund Roadblock from 1961-1966, given baskets for the needy to the Rutherford County Welfare Department, and worked at the Good Shepherd's Children Home on occasions.

Recently Phi Epsilon was presented a trophy at the National Jaycee Convention for selling the most tickets for the Grantland Rice Bowl. Phi Epsilon placed third in the 1967 Homecoming Parade. They were the only fraternity to place in this competition.

David Kious
Phi Epsilon President

This is the Phi Epsilon house on East Main Street.

Chi Alpha Pi Plans Dance

Chi Alpha Pi was chartered Jan. 3, 1966 and organized June 16 of the same year.

CAP plans for Rush Week include "Smokers" at the fraternity house Feb. 27 and 28. There will be a Rush Dance March 1.

Chi Alpha Pi won the intramural fraternity football championship last year and beat the Tenn. Tech champs Thanksgiving Day.

Chi Alpha Pi members have been involved in several activities in connection with both the university and the community. They had the largest percentage donation for the on-campus blood drive, helped Rutherford County receive blanket coverage from blood, did repair work at the Good Shepherd Childrens Home, held an Easter egg hunt for the children of the faculty and administration, and sponsored a child from the Good Shepherd Home at the ASB Christmas Party.

This organization was the first fraternity to be given provisional recognition by the school, the first to have their own house, and the first to have an approved house mother.

Requirements for membership are: 1) each person with 30 or more hours must maintain a 2.0 over-all; 2) each person must be a student in good standing with the faculty and the university; and 3) any person with less than 30 hours, but more than 15, must have a 2.3 average.

Charter members still at MTSU are Bill Landers, Larry Gregory, Jerry Hawk, Dan Spencer, Bill Gannon and Ronald Bancroft.

Suzette Lee, Chi Alpha Pi Sweetheart.

Reflections Of Greek Life

The college fraternity encourages two seemingly conflicting ideals: brotherhood and individuality. On one hand a man is asked to become one of the brothers and make his every act tempered with consideration for his fellows; on the other hand he is urged to be an individual, to contribute his own unique part to the good of the whole fraternity. That the fraternity successfully balances these two themes is perhaps the most important reason for its increasing success and influence at MTSU.

Probably the most important aspect of Greek life is the personal bond between fraternity members. Brotherhood in a social fraternity goes much deeper than surface friendliness, because each member has the same impressive initiation and each knows that he is the choice of the chapter.

Fraternity membership means responsibility and cooperation as much as anything else. This responsibility changes and grows as the pledge becomes an initiate. During pledgship, the prospective member learns about the University, about his fraternity, and about his obligation to both. He learns about the importance of cooperation with his pledge brothers to achieve common goals.

Experience with the real-life difficulties of pledge class self-government helps each pledge to become a better active and a better member of the campus community. The newly-initiated member soon learns that the responsibility is just beginning.

It is difficult to describe the significance which the close friendships formed within the walls of a fraternity house can attain. Brotherhood is an intangible, but most meaningful lesson for life. The fraternity, with its common goals and close association in all aspects of college life, is uniquely suited to foster meaningful brotherhood.

Your decision to go through rush is of course your own. May I encourage you to participate in rush if for no other reason than to gain a more knowledgeable concept of fraternity life. While going through rush remember most importantly that you must be yourself and of equal importance is to keep an open mind toward all five of the fraternities that compose our excellent fraternity system.

Jim Free
IFC President

As I See It

Our Greeks Need Student Support

By David Mathis, Editor-in-Chief

Middle Tennessee State has five sororities and five fraternities. This is really no news flash, but just a fact that needs to be pointed out to many students.

The sororities had a rush orientation. The fraternities will soon be involved in their orientation programs. If the male response is not better than that given the sorority program, MTSU's fraternity system could well look for extinction within the next few years.

Whatever the sororities' problem was, it would be difficult to ascertain. But nevertheless, there was a definite problem. Only about 80 girls attended the formal rush orientation programs and only 50 of this number are now pledges.

It seems to me that since EACH of the five sororities is allowed up to 60 pledges, then they might possibly have a problem in meeting their maximum quota with only 50 pledges for ALL the sororities.

One of the principle purposes of any organization should be to train others to take over the roles of leadership when the present generation of students leaves this institution. Without new people with new and creative ideas, any organization will gradually become stagnant and eventually nonexistent.

The Greek system is a relatively recent program at MTSU. It is attempting to become organized and can do only with cooperation of faculty, administration, and students. The faculty and administration have, after considerable debates and discussions, shown interest in the promotion of the Greeks. Now the only remaining factor, (left undisturbed and uninterested), is the student body for whom the system was established in the first place.

Even if a student is not interested in joining a fraternity or sorority, he or she should attend one of the orientation programs in order to consider himself informed on this major aspect of our university. It is only through these programs and the open rush parties following that one can truly evaluate the Greek system in relation to his personal opinions and modes of behavior.

Next Thursday is an important day for our fraternities. They await this day with questioning anticipation, for the future of these social organizations rests within the hands of the student body.

The Mightiest Nation On Earth

Herewith is another unwritten chapter in that standard unpublished reference work, "A History of the World, 1950 to 1999." The title of this unwritten chapter is, "The Mightiest Nation on Earth."

* * *

It was in January of 1968 that the first portent of the cataclysmic change occurred: the tiny country of North Korea stole an American spy ship.

"We are the mightiest nation on earth!" said the President of the United States proudly. "We'll show them a thing or three."

So he called up Pyongyang and spoke to the Minister of Tow-Aways, Mr. Nho Park King. (cq) "That's our ship," said the President confidently, "so you give it back."

"Go soak your head," said Mr. King blandly. "If you don't," said the President sternly, "we'll... we'll..."

"You'll what?" said Mr. King and hung up. The President angrily called in his advisers. "We're the mightiest nation on earth," he said, "and no two-bit backwater country is going to push us around. Now, what'll we do?"

"Let's send a mighty armada into their port to free our vessel," said a patriotic Congressman, "and those Commie rats will..."

"...sink our ship and shoot our crew," said the President glumly.

"There is no recourse, sir, but to declare hostilities," said a General hopefully. "And don't worry about getting bogged down in a land war in Asia because..."

"Another one?" said the President gloomily. "I don't like the bog we're in already."

"A few hydrogen bombs strategically placed," said a mad scientist who was mad because he

Arthur Hoppe

"...turn the whole world against us," said the President testily. "Come now, gentlemen, surely you can think of something."

But every time they thought of something — like armadas or war or bombs — it wouldn't do. For the very mention of such possibilities appalled the rest of the world. "Why don't you pick on someone your own size," said the rest of the world, "you big bully, you."

American frustration mounted and mounted. But worse was to come. Peru swiped an American crab boat. Lower Volta copped a C.J.A. canoe on the upper Zambezi. And Fidel Castro kidnaped Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, who had water skied too far out from shore.

In each case, the President sent a stern diplomatic note. In each case, he received an undiplomatic one in return saying, "Yanh, yan, go climb a sapling."

The end came when the Ambassador from Phynkia stole a Presidential ash tray at a White House reception and coolly demanded to know what the President was going to do about it.

The President did the only possible thing. He called a convention of the States; the Articles of Confederation were repealed; and America became 50 sovereign nations — each small enough so that no one dared push it around.

And everybody lived happily ever after.

* * *

In his retirement in the Republic of Texas, the President was visited in his declining years by a young historian who said: "There's just one thing I don't understand, sir. How could this have happened to America? It was the mightiest nation on earth."

"Yep," agreed the President sadly. "Our other problems we could've licked."

Burns Urges Attendance

Open letter to faculty and students: Fraternity rush will start with a rush orientation program, February 22 at 6:30 p.m. in the Tennessee Room in the Student Union Building. I would like to urge the faculty and male students to attend this meeting to learn more about the fraternities at Middle Tennessee State University.

The reason I would urge the faculty to attend is to acquaint them with the purpose of our five local fraternities. Each of our five fraternities has been given mature guidance from members of our teaching faculty. The guidance provided to our fraternities by the professors has tended to minimize the errors commonly attributed to fraternity operations elsewhere. We continue to solicit support from the faculty for the fraternity system so that we can increase the educational value of fraternities on our campus.

I would suggest that male members of the student body who have an interest in fraternities attend the orientation program to learn as much as possible about our fraternities. By knowing as much as possible about fraternities you will put yourself in a position to make an educated choice concerning your desire to join or not to join one of the groups.

A. Chester Burns
Dean of Men

Free Extends Gratitude

To the Editor:

Young men beginning their college careers find that they must make several important but difficult decisions.

Many new students consider the possibility of fraternity affiliation as part of their college education. However, few men have the opportunity to evaluate fraternity life as a base of their associations during college and for the years after graduation prior to their arrival on campus.

The Interfraternity Council wishes to thank the SIDELINES for this wonderful opportunity.

Draft Facts Released

The Committee for Informed Young Americans released the following points because to their belief that there are "A lot of facts that are not generally known outside the Selective Service Headquarters."

1. MANY persons are NOT EVEN REQUIRED TO REGISTER for the draft.

2. If you are not required to register and volunteer, you will be registered WITHOUT BEING TOLD YOU DO NOT HAVE TO REGISTER.

3. Few persons have seen the draft law.

4. The government does not give out copies of the law to the public.

5. A "GLASSBLOWER" is a "critical occupation" subject to deferment, there are dozens of other "critical occupations."

6. There are two "services" which FULFILL you military obligation besides the Army, Navy, Coast Guard, Marines and the Air Force.

7. If you are scheduled for induction there are many postponements available.

8. It is possible to appeal classifications to the President.

9. There are 22 other classifications available besides "IA".

10. The American Council On Education says: "Enrollment in the first two years of graduate and professional schools next fall will be limited to women, veterans, men physically disqualified and those over the age of 25."

11. Beginning in July, 1968, almost 75 per cent of all men inducted by Selective Service will be college graduates.

The Committee offers a free service for students sending them a brief resume of facts pertinent to their classification with this clipping from the SIDELINES, and self-addressed, stamped envelope to FRIENDSHIP STATION, Box 5568, Washington D.C., 20007.

The editorial opinions reflect the editorial policy of the Sidelines as determined by the members of the editorial board. Editorial views do not necessarily reflect the official opinion or position of Middle Tennessee State University or of its students.

Lambda Psi Emphasizes Frat System

Lambda Psi was officially recognized by MTSU on Jan. 20, 1967, and received their state charter on March 1, 1967 with 26 charter members.

Isbell, junior from Winchester.

During the past year they won the Heart Fund Drive, won the blood drive, and finished first in fraternities in the Spring, 1967, intramurals track meet.

Lambda Psi also made a relay run to Nashville and appeared on the WSM Telethon for the Cerebral Palsy Marathon.

Members of Lambda Psi have painted the home-side bleachers at Jones Field, sold tickets for the

During Rush Week, Lambda Psi plans to put emphasis on orientation of the fraternity system as a whole and Lambda Psi in particular.

INTERVIEWS for:

Sales and Sales Management Training Program

This Program is designed to develop young men for careers in life insurance sales and sales management. It provides an initial training period of 3 months (including 2 weeks at a Home Office School) before the men move into full sales work.

Those trainees who are interested in and who are found qualified for management responsibility are assured of ample opportunity to move on to such work in either our field offices or in the Home Office after an initial period in sales.

The Connecticut Mutual is a 119-year-old company with 580,000 policyholder-members and over six billion dollars of life insurance in force. Aggressive expansion plans provide unusual opportunities for the men accepted.

Arrange with the placement office for an interview with:

Community Concert Tickets Available

Student Community Concert tickets for the three final Community Concert programs are now available in the MTSU Bookstore, according to Lane Boutwell publicity chairman for the programs.

A ticket for the concerts will allow the student to attend all three of the programs, scheduled for Feb. 25, April 5, and May 11.

On Feb. 25, the popular Norman Luboff Choir will appear in the Dramatic Arts Auditorium at 3:30 p.m. April 5 will bring the Beau Arts Trio to the MTSU campus. Composed of Menahem Pressler, piano; Daniel Gilbert, violin; and Bernard Greenhouse, cello, the trio is best known as a winner of the coveted "Grand Prix du Disque" in Paris 1964. The program starts at 8 p.m.

Werner Rose, former MTSU professor and noted pianist will appear in concert on May 11 at 8 p.m. for the final program in the series.

Boutwell stated that those students interested in purchasing a ticket should hurry, as there are less than 200 tickets left.

Tau Sigma Hears Rev. Malone Speak On 'Alcoholism'

"Alcoholism" was the topic of guest speaker Rev. J. L. Malone for a meeting of Tau Sigma society Jan. 16.

Associated with the Veterans Administration hospital for 22 years, Rev. Malone cited the means by which alcoholics may be rehabilitated. "Through such organizations as the Alcoholics Anonymous, the alcoholic may return to a normal life," stated Malone.

Rev. Malone also spoke of the temptation of drinking and advised the individual to "get information on both sides of the question and decide for himself."

Also, plans were made for Tau Sigma's membership drive, Feb. 6-12. Meetings will be held in OM 452 at 7 p.m. The organization is presently the largest on campus with a membership of 150.

Anyone interested in joining this organization may do so by attending one of the first meetings. The membership fee is $1.00 and dues are 50 cents per month.
