ASB Is Organized As Democracy; Aids Individuals And Student Body

An organization on the campus that every student should be very familiar with is the Associated Student Body. The ASB is an all-student organization in which it is possible to seek and bring to light the needs and desires of the students as individuals, as groups, and as a unified body.

Two other organizations closely associated with the ASB are the Dormitory Councils. These organizations are for the purpose of dealing with students breaking dormitory rules and regulations. Jo Atkins serves as President, Margaret Tucker is Vice-President and Lucy Hale is Secretary of the Girls Dorm Council. Other members include Peggy Marlin, Liz Hay, Emma Jen Swann, and Cornelia Swain.

Glen Wakefield is President of the Boys Dorm Council representing the various classes are: Jim Lofton, Bob Cotter, Howard Alsup, Carmen Gibson, Garner Esel, Eddie Akin, and Thomas Eckl.

This blood was urgently needed at Ruthersford County Hospital. E. D. Helton, John Thomas Maddox, Bill Bunn, Malcolm Rives and Larry Keith Stephens immediately volunteered. After their blood types were taken, it was found that Keith Stephens and Malcolm Rives were the only ones who had the type that was needed.

Evans, Rives Met Representatives to Discuss Convention

Recently two members of Congress of the MTSC, ASB, Bess Evans and Malcolm Rives, met with representatives from Austin Peay and UT at Martin on the Austin Peay campus to make plans for this convention. No definite date was set except that it is to be in May. This group of representatives planned the program for the convention which will highlight an address by Governor Clement.

Norma Littleton, Vice-President of the ASB states the purpose of this convention to be: "for promoting a unified student government organization through which student councils can profit by the mistakes of other councils. It will be a method by which council members will be able to discuss governments and if possible reach a solution to their problems."

Women's Rifle Team In Tourney Practice

Did you ever wonder why girls are seen entering the doors of the ROTC department on Wednesday afternoons at about 3:00? These sharp-eyed young ladies are the members of the MTSC Women's Rifle Team. Lieut. Riles and Sgt. Pinkerton are the instructors whose task it is to teach them the proper ways of handling, cleaning and shooting rifles. They are quite good at it too, as can be seen by the scores that are turned in. At present the members of the team, which includes Jean Morrison, Bennie Heiss, Freida Hess, Jean White, Glynn Holland, Dorothy Jean Thomason, Martha Ricks, Mary Killen, Kathryn Knight, Betty Taylor and De Nelle Agee, are practicing hard in preparation for the rifle matches with other colleges that will be taking place in the near future.

ASB Bill No. 2

To insure each member of the ASB a fair distribution of the funds obtained through the sale of any item, which the ASB requires to be purchased by Freshman or Upper-classmen. By the word "fair" we mean that 50% of the funds be equally divided among the four classes—Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior—and 50% be given to the ASB to use as they see fit for the benefit of the school as a whole. This Bill Provides That: Effective upon the final passage of this bill, no individual club or student will receive the funds from the sale of any item wearing apparel or other type item required by the ASB to be possessed or worn by Freshman or upper classmen.

Saturday Last Chance For Concert Tickets

Six o'clock Saturday, March 14 offers MTSC students the last chance to buy 1953-54 Community Concert Series tickets. This annual concert series offers a type of cultural entertainment usually found only in the great metropolitan centers and brings to the campus some of the world's top entertainers. The student membership is $3 annually, adult memberships are $6.

Alumnus Jennings Receives Commission

Lieutenant Robert E. Jennings whose wife, Jane, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Jennings, live in Woodbury, has been commissioned an Army second lieutenant upon graduation from Officer Candidate School at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Robert is the fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Jennings to serve in the armed forces. He was one of 62 soldiers completing a six-month officer training program Saturday, February 14. Basic military principles were covered by the course.

Lieutenant Jennings graduated from Middle Tennessee State College in December 1951 and entered the Army the following February. He is now stationed at Camp Lee, Virginia.

"Students Inspect Visual Aids"

The many visual aids are giving a close examination by several students: Nancy Hill, Peggy Doris, Quinten Lane instructor, Mr. Smotherman, Lucy Hale, Lenora Barber, and Ester Mae Davis. Several of the onlookers could not be identified.

Smotherman Will Offer Visual Aids Course For Undergraduate Students in September; Department Features New Visual Equipment

The department is trying to build a center of literature on teaching aids for the room, particularly audio visual materials, film rental and purchase catalogues, equipment catalogues and technical literature on operation of various equipment. The audio visual room now has a collection of 30 or more sound films and disc recordings. A number of supplementary references in this area have been requisitioned for the library.

"The Incas" Art Club's Exhibition

The MTSC Art club has arranged to show THE INCAS, a photographic exhibition prepared by the editors of LIFE magazine, beginning on 7 and continuing through 14. This exhibition which has been shown at both the Metropolitan Museum of Art and New York's American Museum of Natural History, is made up of photographs of LIFE's veteran photographer, Frank Scherschel made a six-months tour of Central and South America. He spent many weeks in the high, cold mountains of Peru exploring and photographing traces of the Inca civilization which vanished 400 years ago—a civilization which is still to some extent a mystery because the Incas had no form of writing and did not record dates. Scherschel's striking photographs, in the enlarged dimensions of this exhibition, graphically reveal the greatness of this little-known and mostly unexplored empire of Pre-Columbian America.

The photographs were taken for the most part in the Urubamba Valley, heartland of the Inca empire. They include the massive and mysterious ruins of Fort Saclibambaco, the hillside village of Winay Wayna (explored in 1940), Ollantaytambo and Machu Picchu. A number of the panels are devoted to Machu Picchu, one of the most perfectly preserved of the Inca cities.

Sims, James Attend Education Conference

MTSC faculty members were invited to attend an educational conference March 6 at the University of Tennessee School of Social Work in Nashville. The Murfreesboro faculty members will be joined with educators from nine other universities or colleges to discuss common problems met by faculty members of the School of Social Work and teachers in related fields in undergraduate schools.

MTSC faculty members invited to attend were Dr. C. C. Sims, Professor of Political Science, and Mr. Clayton L. James, Dean of Students and Instructor of Sociology. Other schools represented were the University of Chattanooga, Austin Peay State College, Belmont College, Tennessee Polytechnic Institute, David Lipscomb College, Peabody College, Seaboard College, and Vanderbilt University. A luncheon opened the conference. The afternoon program included a roundtable discussion of the objectives and the curriculum of the School of Social Work, visits to social agencies used for field training for social work students, and informal conferences between the Schools faculty members and the visiting educators. An evening session will close the conference.

File Selective Service Test Application Now

All eligible students who intend to take the Selective Service College Qualification Test in 1953 should file applications at once for the April 23 administration. Selective Service National Headquarters advised today. An application and a bulletin of information may be obtained at any Selective Service local board. Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application immediately and mail it in the special envelope provided. Applications must be postmarked no later than midnight, March 9, 1953. Early filing will be greatly to the student's advantage.

Results will be reported to the student's Selective Service local board of jurisdiction for use in considering his deferment as a student, according to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test

Learn To Repair
The teacher should know how to make minor repairs of this equipment. Quiet frequently a film program is disrupted because of broken film. The students are taught to splice film and a special film splicing device is provided. The service is also available to all members of the faculty.

Unusual Equipment
The Saint Bernard of the visual aids room is the projection cabinet for film strips which was obtained from surplus materials distributed to schools. It was used during the war for bomb spotting purposes. Real photographs were taken prior to and following bombing raids. These pictures were studied through this projector and it was determined how much damage was done and other results of the raid. The main advantage of this type of projector is the daylight screen. Also by the use of mirrors the distance between projector and screen is eliminated. There are several of these in different departments of the school.

To Make Local Aids
The department now owns a press camera and strobe light. Recently a new darkroom has been completely equipped for developing and enlarging pictures. In the future it is anticipated that locally made color slides, copies and enlargements of flat materials and film strips will be made to provide illustrative materials for many of the education classes for making motion pictures. This has been done in connection with the athletic department to study football games.

Mr. Smotherman will be available for consultation for the whole college on services and suggestions in the field of visual aids.

Sigma Club Honor Society
The Sigma Club was founded as a research organization in 1927 by Neal Frazier who was professor of English at Middle Tennessee State College. This Research Club later became what is now known as the Sigma Club. Membership is by invitation from the club and has for its purpose the bringing in of choice young men who expect to graduate from this college and engage in business and professional pursuits when they are graduated. Scholarship, leadership and character are the qualities considered in electing candidates. Sigma takes pride in its 444 members taken in during its twenty-six years of existence on this campus. It lists among its membership some very outstanding, doctors, dentists, lawyers, business men, teachers, and school administrators. One of its members is now serving on the Tennessee State Board of Education. The culminating activity of the club is its annual banquet held each year during the month of May when all old members are invited back to the campus for an exchange of experiences.

RUTLEDGE ROUNDUP

FROSH FACTS

by LIB DREWRY

With the uncovering of March winds and sunny skies, we rapidly see the final minutes of the quarter passing us and to many who are attempting to put forth last minutes efforts, time seems precious indeed. Lillian Swann, was very glad to hear of your father's progress on the road of regaining his health. May he have a very speedy recovery.

Rosie Taylor, we understand why you have been hobbling around a trifle lately. Taking laps around a football field could prove to be very disconcerting when one is not in shape, right Rosie?

Jane Robinson, sure glad to have you back in our midst after a short absence due to the mumps.

It's wonderful to see Sara Ketring and Knox Wright, and Irene Elliott and Spencer Reid once more habitating the lobby.

Mary Neil Collier, heard you were all excited the other night about a certain phone call from Chicago. Has been rumored that Battle's voice sounded out of this world.

Heaps or orchids to Carolyn Ledford and Sara Connelly for their wonderful performance in "The Infernal Machine."

Been hearing music lately. It is only Frances Carter, Martha Sorrell and Shirley Turner strumming on their Ukies and singing merry songs to cheer up all in despair. Keep up the good work, girls.

Say Ruth Youree, who did we spy up to see you last week-end? As "Bob" says, it was none other than Dwight Oogle from Chattanooga.

Frequent sights and sounds occurring within: Joyce Cooper letting it be known her fond attraction from Bethel College.

Nancy Summers and Mary Sue Paul telling their once famous jokes. Kathryn Knight as she heads for the telephone at some of the most preposterous hours.

Ann Wilkinson and Jane Huskins as they sigh "Oh My, this practice teaching."

Girl of the week, Ann Ledford who possesses charm, wit, personality, and friendliness all traits focusing toward the central forces—popularity and ambition.

Deadline past so must sign off. "Beacup" of luck on finals and see you next quarter.

Fds and Co-Eds

By LOIS STEDMAN

Talented and attractive Sarah Connelly of Lewisburg, has become one of the most popular girls on this campus during her several returns since coming here in September of 1948.

She was a member of the Beta club, Music club, Biology club, a member of the school newspaper staff and served as vice-president of the Beta club, treasurer of her Junior class, editor of the school annual and president of the Glee club. Among Sarah's many honors, she was representative of the Junior class to Girls' State, a Junior Rotarian, football queen during her senior year, a member of Who's Who in American High Schools, and she won the activity medal for the best all-round student as well as a prize for having the best short stories and essays in the school paper both her sophomore and junior years.

She is an active member of the Methodist church and in the past she has been president of the MTP at Lewisburg, president of the Sunday School class for several years and editor of the MYP newspaper. Her sweet soprano voice also brought her the honor of being soprano soloist for the church choir in Lewisburg for seven years.

This popular young lady of the week has many hobbies which include dancing and collecting earrings, and her special interests are singing and dramatics.

A music major, Sarah also minors in English and education. If our prophecies for the future are correct, someday we will see our talented miss, singing her way into the hearts of many people during her career in show business.

Our boy of the week is Lem Vaughn, hailing from Ramer, Tennessee. Bunkie, as he is called by all his friends, graduated from Ramer high school in 1949, where he played basketball for four years and was a member of the Agriculture club.

Since coming here to MTSC in the fall of '49, he has been a member of the Industrial Arts club, Sigma club, T club, FTA, and Track and Sabre club. Bunkie's hobbies and special interests include hunting, fishing, sports, swimming and working on old cars.

"Coming Out" of New Book On Library Shelf Is Planned by Faculty, Librarians, Workers

by Lucy Hale

When a book enters into the library society it lives there and dies there, provided it is not kidnapped by some blue beard.

How does it become a member of the organization? A request for membership is submitted by various faculty members who fill out request cards and submit them to the librarian. Miss Virginia Wilkinson, assistant librarian then checks their identification in the Cumulative Book Index and Publisher's Trade List Annual which is the latest census of book population. Here she finds if the book is still living in print or if it is deceased.

She then checks its social standing, the price and the publisher. A search is made through the card catalogue, the society's active membership file, to determine if there is another member by the same name. If this is found to be so, the old member is given the new pledge to assist him if he is out of date or his duties are too heavy to bear alone. Some times they replace the aged who have deceased.

After a careful check is made to see if the book has already been accepted and is in the process of being admitted, Mrs. Jean Anderson makes a requisition for the book. An information card is placed in the "books-on-order" file. The requisition is then sent to the college president for final approval. He sends it to the business office who sends a request to the parent of the book, the publisher, asking permission to receive the book for membership. This book is always in the best physical condition and presents a worthy appearance by wearing covers and inter pages of the best material obtainable.

Soon the new member book arrives. The information card is then placed in the "book received" file. On arrival the new book is presented with an information card and the

COMMUTER'S TATTLE

By ALONZO RANDALLS, JR.

Well, Commuters, another quarter is ending and final exams are here to pester us again with cramming and so forth. This quarter we are only having 3 days for exams. Registration is the 24th. Good luck on your exams!

How many of you commuters came to the Winter Formal? That was quite a dance. We commend the Townmen for such a fine job.

Recently we overheard a professor's conversation, and I'd like to repeat it to you. "A lot of student wish their lessons were History".

If you think that was a stinko, just wait until you hear the next one. We also overheard a Professor of another field remark to a fellow teacher: "I went into a cafe the other day and ordered some soup. When the waitress set the soup in front of me, I noticed a bug floating around in it. Indignant, I asked what it was. Her reply was: "I don't know, sir, I can't tell one insect from another".

There were quite a few commuters at the Harlem Globe Trotters game the other night. Have you ever seen such a game? How about those Ping-Pong champs?

We would like to leave you with this little reminder: In order to be a commuter, you must be: "As strong as Samson; as carefree as Farouk; and as studious as Mr. Peepers!"

Also keep in mind—without your help this article would be impossible, so please send us your news, views, and attitudes. It's your column so let's make it worth while. Write, Box 38. See you next time.

FASHION PARADE

By Mary Will Cox

A new item in Milady's wardrobe for spring is a bright touch of color for that new suit or dress which she will wear in the Easter parade. This dash of color can be achieved through bright scarfs, gloves, flowers, ribbons, and the like.

Dress shoes for spring are the sandal type with the ever popular high heel.

In one newspaper article we saw a new bathing suit for summer "sunning." This suit features long pants, high neck and three-quarter length sleeves. Looks like the "Gay Nineties" are returning, at least in swim suit fashions. Most swim suits, however, are similar in line to those which have been popular over the last several years. One piece suits apparently are most popular.

Short, bolero type sweaters which match the coeds cotton summer dresses are very attractive for the coming season.

Ladies' fashions seem to be "for the birds". Hats have been shown at a fashion show featuring birds on the nest.

Artificial flowers attached to a ribbon to match strapless dresses add an exciting note of color to formals, as well as sun-dresses.

Soft sole, hand sewn leather mocassins are lovely, and comfortable, too for your spring school shoe wardrobe.

Printed crepes featuring geometric designs are tops for spring dresses.

LYON LINES

by FRAN AND JOYCE

Hello gals and guys!! Here we are again with news from the Lionesses, who are now beginning to settle down and burn some mid-night oil in preparation for finals, after a jubilant time at the winter formal.

Those seen dancing to the music of the Townsmen were: Mary Fandrich and Shag McCown, Neuva Sharp and James Bagwell, Joyce McMillan and Howard Ray, Louise Gribble and James Enos, Bess Evans and J. T. Wise, Nancy Hill and Ax Smith, Sara Dean and Mylon Coble, Anita Cook and Ellis Hamlet, Joanne Burnett and Kenneth Smith, Euple Gilbert and James Norman White, Billie Swafford and Ralph Daniels, Camille Burcheson and Dan Justice, June Woodard and Jim Lofton.

When a book is no longer able to be of service and cannot be patched up by Dr. Binyard, they go to book heaven and reap the rewards of their servicable life.

Kathleen Duncan and John T. Hayes, and Geneva Calfee was visiting us again, and of course went to the dance with Ernest Adams.

Some of the new couples seen in the lobby lately are: Barbara Ketchersid and Jim Lincoln, Anita Cook and Ellis Hamlet, Shirley Sanford and Dallas Cook, Marian Nutt and Dan Holden, Mamie Harris and James Gray, Sara Dean and Mylan Goble.

You other boys on campus had better watch out for Sewart has taken over one corner of the lobby. Just ask Ina Bell Evans, Jo Ann Burnett, and Bess Evans. (Although Bess prefers the Navy), and it seems that Dorothy Taylor prefers a boy from TPI.

Maxine Murrill, how many times did you have to unfold to get out of that little Crosley seen coming up the walk at Lyon???

Two of the luckiest girls we know are Eleanor Warmbrod and Billie Swafford who took off to Florida the other week-end. Do you think you can hold those sustans, girls??

Congratulations Nancy Hill, we are very proud that you are Miss MTSC. Alice Ann Bass was very excited Thursday night about William Gooch coming all the way from Pulasaki to see her.

Lois Ann Hardison and Frances Ezell's mother and father visited them Thursday night also.

What kind of birthday party was it that the girls gave you the other night, Nancy Shoffner?

Question of the week: What inspired Mary Jo Dillon to compose Overture to a Motorcycle???

It's the size of the FIGHT in the man!

That's right! In the U. S. Air Force, it's not the size of the man in the fight—it's the size of the FIGHT IN THE MAN! And Aviation Cadets must have plenty of it. For Cadet training is rugged. If you're good enough . . . tough enough . . . smart enough . . . if you can take it while you're learning to dish it out, you can have one of the most fascinating careers in the world. You'll be equipped to fly the latest, hottest planes. You'll be prepared to take your position as an executive, both in military and commercial aviation as well as in industry. And while you're helping yourself you'll be helping your country.

WIN YOUR WINGS! It takes little over a year to win your wings as a Pilot or Aircraft Observer (Navigator, Bombardier, Radar Operator or Aircraft Performance Engineer). But at the end of your training you graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE? To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate. In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks!

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

- 1. Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will give you a physical examination.
3. Next, you take a written and manual aptitude test.
4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet training class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

Western Kentucky Wins OVC TITLE Tricky of Raiders Makes OVC TEAM

February 26, 27, and 28 the fifth annual Ohio Valley Conference tournament was held at the Jefferson County Armory in Louisville, Kentucky.

The schools represented in the OVC are the Morehead Eagles, Murray Thoroughbreds, Eastern Kentucky Maroons, Western Kentucky Hilltoppers, Tennessee Tech Eagles and the Middle Tennessee Blue Raiders.

In 1949, the year of the first OVC tournament, Western Kentucky won by defeating Louisville 74 to 68.

In 1950, Western again won the regular season title with a 8-1 record. Eastern knocked Western out of the tournament championship by downing the Hilltoppers in the finals by a 62 to 50 margin.

The year 1951 found Murray on the regular season OVC throne with a 9-3 record. Murray went on to prove their worth by downing Western 78 to 77 in the semis and Eastern in the finals 92 to 83.

Western came back in '52 to win 11 games out of 12 and go to the tournament as a favorite. Murray pulled the slow-break on the Hilltoppers and just missed gaining the decision—Western 47, Murray 45.

Players who have performed here this year and have made OVC tournament history should be in the knowledge of all.

Garrett Breshear with 65 points in 1951 is one of the top four scorers of the tournament. Prior to 1953 play, Breshear was the all time leading scorer of the OVC with 161 points in 9 games.

The most points scored in a tournament game was 92 by Murray against Eastern in the finals of 1951 game. The fewest team points was 41 scored by Murphy against Eastern in 1949.

The greatest two team total was set by Murray (92), and Eastern (83) with 175 points. The smallest total was made by Western and Murray in 1952 with 92 points.

This year Ken Tricky of the Blue Raiders made the OVC team to be in a glorious circle of guests such as, Tom Marshall of Western, Garrett Breshear of Murray, Flavious Smith of TPI, Gene Rhodes of Western, Paul Hicks of Eastern and Sonny Allen of Morehead.

This year we are a part of this great Conference.

Basketball Season Total & Statistics

Here are some statistics for the past 19 Blue Raider games, digest for further arguments. All the Raiders played good ball.

Eastern, Murray, and Morehead just missed being Raider meat as the Blue boys discovered how hard it is to win in the OVC.

The Raiders have a young team and should really go to work next year.

ALONG THE SIDELINES

By BOB HETTISH

The wrestling team has just completed their best season in the history of this sport here at MTSC posting a record of six wins, three losses, and one tie.

G. P. Long climaxed a good season by being declared SOUTHERN CHAMPION in the 137 pound division at the Southeastern Association tournament in Nashville last week.

The Raider hoopers lost their first round game against Murray in the OVC tournament in Louisville, Ky., by nine points and Western went on to become the OVC champions by defeating Eastern in the finals.

Spring is in the air even though last night the temperature dropped to 27 degrees. And with spring in the air the accompanying sound of ball on bat should be expected.

Howard Haley has been getting into shape for football by taking part in the intramural wrestling. Howard is a Murfreesboro boy and does his grappling in the heavy-weight division.

Gerald Johnson had one of his best seasons on the hardwood this year. He and Ken Trickey led the Raiders in the point making department all season.

OVC Tournament MTSC vs. Murry

Murray State College, led by the old man of the OVC, Breshear, held off Middle Tennessee State 79 to 70 in the opening round of the OVC tournament at Louisville, Kentucky.

Murray led by 11 points early in the second period but were forced to go all out as the Blue Raiders caught on fire and went ahead briefly 30 to 29 and then later boosting their margin to three points.

Garrett Breshear, the 31 year old demon of the racers led the winners with 28 points while Ken Trickey led the losers with 21 points before fouling out with one quarter to go.

AT PITT, NSA ANSWERING CHARGES OF 'RED' ... Student Councilman Joe Shuler, at the University of Pittsburgh, last week accused the National Student Association of being a Communist front group. Spokesmen for NSA promptly denied the charge.

Shuler quoted a recent article in "American Student" magazine which called NSA "leftist" and "anti-fraternity." (See ACP, Jan 5, 1953, p. 5). At a Student Congress meeting to discuss the possibility of Pitt joining NSA, Shuler quizzed NSA representatives:

Shuler: "Did NSA send a representative to the East Berlin Festival?"

NSA spokesman: "No."

Shuler: "May a Communist become an officer of NSA?"

NSA spokesman: "To the same extent as a Communist might become president of (the Pitt) Men's Council."

Shuler charged that NSA has recently accepted a seat on the Academic Freedom committee of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU). He quoted "American Student" as saying that ACLU was a Communist Front organization.

An NSA spokesman retorted that ACLU has recently been praised by the New York Times, the New York Post and 10 United States senators. He said Students for America, the group which publishes "American Student," is at present the only group fighting NSA and that it is "the most ultra-reactionary group I know."

Students for America is made up of former MacArthur for President clubs on about 50 campuses. MacArthur is honorary president of the group.

A CHARMING THEORY, BUT ...
The faculty at Wheaton college, Ill., has turned down a student council proposal which would permit unlimited class cuts. The vote was close.

Supporters of the plan felt unlimited cuts would give students a healthier attitude toward classes; they cited statistics indicating good attendance records at schools having unlimited cuts.

But the opposition declared that all this was "more theoretical than anything else." The plan, according to the dean, will not be discussed again this year.

Hayes Heads Wrestlers; Long is Division Champ

Three important things affecting MTSC occurred at the Southeastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Tournament at Vanderbilt University last week.

Joe Black Hayes was elected president of the Association. MTSC was second in the tournament with G. P. Long winning the championship in the 137 pound division. The local college was selected for the 1954 tournament of the Southeastern Association, provided a conflict with the basketball tournaments does not occur.

The Raider team placed five men in the finals of the tournament, which was eventually won by Auburn with the University of Chattanooga placing third.

In addition to champion Jeep Long the Raiders had Billy Porterfield of Murfreesboro in the 115 pound division, David Leverette in the 130 pound division, John Nickens in the 177 pound division, and Billy Hix, heavyweight, in the finals. George Frost added a point to the Raiders team score of 28 by placing fourth in the meet in the 191 pound division.

Long, in addition to being named champion in his class was the recipient of several votes for the outstanding wrestler of the tournament—an honor that went to Robert David of Alabama Polytechnic.

Officers of the Southeastern Association for 1954 include Hayes as president, Swede Umbach of Auburn, vice-president, and Johnny Miller, Emory, secretary and treasurer.

The rise of Middle Tennessee State College to the top bracket in Southeastern intercollegiate wrestling has been accomplished in three short seasons under the tutelage of Coach Hayes, a Murfreesboro native and former University of Tennessee heavyweight matman and football star.

The sport has grown in popularity locally to the point that crowds now rival the basketball and baseball turnouts when the local team engages an opponent in the home gymnasium.

Hayes will lose only two members of his team—this year won seven, lost three and tied one match in the regular season.

"If a boy is old enough to risk his life for his country," he said, "he should be permitted to vote. It has been my experience that, by and large, the 18-year-old is just as wise as people in other age brackets."
