

ARENA PLAY SCORES HIT

Pioneering in the South the Buchanan Players of Middle Tennessee State College last week presented a one-act play in the new Arena Theater which has been constructed at the college under direction of Joseph O'Shea, director of dramatic production in the speech arts department.

A bit of the action presented on the stage, entirely surrounded by the audience much as boxing or wrestling audience views a match, is shown above. Sara Connelley of Lewisburg, Doug Williams of Nashville, Sue Durham of Lafayette and Bob Springer of Lawrenceburg are the characters shown in a scene from "The Browning Version."

Members of the invitation audience who saw the first two productions believe that the Arena Theater is likely to become more popular than the proscenium. The American Arena is a post-war effort to take the theater back to the Greek and early Shakespearean type of presentation.

"A Phoenix Too Frequent" To Follow As Next Arena Play By Buchanan Players

So successful was the production of "A Browning Version", the first Arena Theater production in the Murfreesboro area, the Buchanan Players of Middle Tennessee State College are already at work on a second production.

January 26, 27 and 28 have been set as try-out dates for the Christopher Fry's, "A Phoenix Too Frequent". The all-student production will be directed by Martha Ruth Ricks, 3215 Averil Ave., Nashville.

Last week the initial presentation of the MTSC Arena Theater played before an invitation audience of about 150 people on Thursday and Friday night.

The play, under direction of Eleanor Sheid of Tullahoma and George Pidoock of Nashville, marked an innovation into theatrical training that Joseph O'Shea, assistant professor of speech and drama at the college, believes it will prove very popular in the South.

The MTSC Arena Theater is set up in the old band practice room in the basement of the administration building. The emphasis is on acting and those who witnessed the performances last week are enthusiastic about the possibilities this new medium. Presented with a minimum of properties and no drops, under subdued lights the play is presented virtually in the laps of the audience. This "ringside" seating gives the audience a sense of participation and as expressed by one "bridges the gap" so apparent in the proscenium theater.

Medical Schools Advise May Admission Tests

Candidates for admission to medical school in the fall of 1954 are advised to take the Medical College Admission Test in May.

May 9, 1953, or on November 2, 1953, at administrations to be held at more than 300 local centers in all parts of the country. The Association of American Medical Colleges recommends that candidates for admission to classes starting in the fall of 1954 take the May test.

Application forms and a Bulletin of Information are available from pre-medical advisers or directly from Educational Testing Service, Box 592, Princeton, N. J. Completed applications must reach the ETS office by April 25 and October 19, respectively, for the May 9 and November 2 administrations.

WANT WANT ADS?

Beginning with the winter quarter, the SIDE-LINES will incorporate into its advertising space a section for classified ads. This will include lost and found ads, help wanted ads, ads desiring work, used books, or anything one may want to advertise.

The rate for this type of advertisement will be $0.5 per word, per issue. There will be a 10% discount if a student advertises more than 100 words during a quarter.

The deadline for an ad in the SIDE-LINES will be a week before the paper is due to come out.

The merchants in Murfreesboro who advertise in the SIDE-LINES are sent a copy of the paper every issue. In this way the merchants will find what jobs or items the students might want; and then as this column will also be open to the merchants, the students will see what jobs are available.

If you want to buy something or want to sell something come by the Publications Office and place an ad in the classified ads.

Fire Strike Moffitt Anex, Four Students Suffer Personal Losses

Fire, which apparently originated from a defective refrigerator motor, virtually destroyed the Moffitt House annex last week. The one-story brick apartment at the rear of the Moffitt House on Tennessee Boulevard was occupied by Bobby Derryberry, Ed Daugherty, Jimmy Lee and Lee Clark.

All of the linen, clothing and books of the boys were destroyed in the fire, which was discovered by Mrs. Ambrose Easterly. A "money shower" collection was made by the cheer leaders at the basketball game Monday night and several donations of clothing and bed linen have been received. The cash collections from the game and among the classes is approximately $100 Dean James stated. Dean James is still accepting donations. There is a par on his desk for student contributions.

The boys have found new quarters with Mrs. James Green and Mrs. John Shacklett.

Juke Box Provides New Entertainment

The juke box which was in the Tennessee Room for a short time was enjoyed by everyone. It was moved, however; because keeping the ballroom floor clean presented a difficulty.

The juke box is now on the third floor in the recreation room which will probably be just as enjoyable to everyone. The room now consists of a variety of entertainment, including the juke box, ping pong and pool tables. Mrs. Felder informs us that the recreation room will be opened every afternoon at three o'clock. In addition to the new juke box, new tips have been put on the cue sticks. These sticks may be rented by the hour.

Let us all take advantage of the recreation room by enjoying the entertainment which it offers. Never let it be said that there is nothing to do around MTSC.

Nation's 'Top' Band Here February 19 For Military Ball

Ray Anthony and his orchestra, characterized as "the number one band of the nation", will be featured at the Military Ball February 19 in the Student Union Building.

Currently on tour of the leading colleges and universities of the country, Anthony will play his engagement here on the night after he plays for Georgia Tech in Atlanta.

The band will have 17 pieces and five vocalists. It is expected to draw more than the 762 persons who attended the first ROTC ball with Jimmy Dorsey in 1951.

Due to space limitations only 425 tickets (for couples only) will be sold. Loxie Dowd, president of the Track and Sabre Club, reports that 200 of these have already been reserved.

The Track and Sabre Club, following the Associated Student Body lead, has voted to ban flowers for the dance. Any girl wearing flowers will be expected to check them with her coat in the check room.

RAY ANTHONY A committee of cadets is now making a selection of girls on the campus whom they will nominate for queen. The entire cadet corps will vote on the nominees—the winner being crowned during the ball, succeeding Claudette Reed, the 1952 "Military Queen".

Anyone desiring tickets may contact Lieut. C. A. Rigler or any member of the ROTC.

Buchanan Players Name Cast for Winter Play, "The Infernal Machine"

Tryouts for Cocteau's "The Infernal Machine", winter production of the Buchanan Players, were held January 19, in the club's rehearsal hall. The play, a Freudian translation of Sophocles' "Oedipus Rex", has been cast with the following: David Drew, the Voice; Joe Smith, the Young Soldier; Bill Ford, the Old Soldier; Bob Springer, the Chief; Duncan Everett, Anubis; Marvin May, Oedipus; Jim Parrish, Creon; James Halle, the Messenger; Ross Spielman, the Shepherd; Robert Springer, the Drunk; Doug Williams, Tiresias; Price Snell, the Phantom; Sara Connelly, Jocasta; Eleanor Sheid, the Sphinx; Carolyn Ledford, the Matron; Sue Durham, Antigone; and Jim Rogers, the Little Boy.

By means of an expanded plot, Cocteau has humanized the intensive roles of ambition and destiny in today's society. A contemporary set will be substituted for the original Greek staging.

"The Infernal Machine" is scheduled to open February 25 at 8:00 p.m. for the first of four presentations.

Miss Harding Introduces Players to Dulcimer

Have you ever heard a dulcimer? Probably not! Nor had the Buchanan Players until a most interesting club program was presented by Miss Carol Harding, MTSC art instructor, January 20.

Miss Harding introduced the three-stringed instrument of English origin as an ideal folk accompaniment. Hand-made by a student of Berea, its parts were of walnut, white pine, and cherry.

The program was made informal, as were the firsides "songs" of the instrument's locale. Familiar tunes which were sung and played included: "Black is the Color", "Lord Randall", "The Cuckoo", "Gentle Fair Jenny", "The Lonely Dove", "Sweet Betsy from Pike", "Aunt Sal's Song", "The Garden Hymn", "Blest Be the Morn", and "The Curtains of Night."

"TV BRINGS INAUGURATION"

These candid pictures taken during the progress of the inauguration of President Dwight D. Eisenhower demonstrate better than words can tell the intenseness with which hundreds of MTSC students viewed the proceedings, due to the foresight of an education class and the co-operation of the administration and Murfreesboro merchants.

Chapel Speaker Sets Scene For TV Inauguration Viewers

"A democracy should go slowly in exchanging the toga of a soldier to the toga of a statesman." These were the words of Dr. Frederick Taylor Wilson in his address, "Our Military Presidents," to the students of MTSC last Tuesday.

The native Tennessean went on to state, "Our new president enjoys a distinct political kinship with the first president of the United States." His talk also included many facts of interest concerning the past presidents of this country; especially the five professional military men, who served before Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The major portion of Wilson's speech included facts about the presidential campaigns of the five men, Zachary Taylor, Andrew Jackson, U. S. Grant, George Washington and William Henry Harrison. But he said, "It doesn't mean that just because you're a military hero,

Liquid Air Demonstration Shows Audience What 312 Below Zero Can Do

Mr. Elliott James brought his liquid air demonstrations to MTSC January 27, to show the students in assembly what could be done with frozen articles.

Mr. James created a temperature of 312 degrees below zero, Fahrenheit. Then he proceeded to show the audience how a frozen mercury hammer would break hard objects. A stick of frozen kerosene was lighted and burned like a candle. There were other such features as the ladle and the liquid airplane.

This weeks entertainer seemed to have a fascinated audience similar to the one who witnessed his demonstration at MTSC several years ago. Miss Claire Williams, noted violinist, will be on the assembly program, February third.

you'll get a nomination." Dr. Wilson was reared in Smith County and attended Vanderbilt University. He has made a lifelong study of our presidents and is the author of the well-known book, "Pen Pictures of our Presidents."

Assembly was held one hour earlier Tuesday in order that the students might be allowed to view the historic inauguration of President Eisenhower. Contacts were made with a number of local business firms, who sell television sets with requests for installation of arts in the main buildings on the campus.

The sets lent to the college were: the two Spartan sets in the Administration building, Home Furniture company; Emerson set in the Student Union building, Craddock Home Supply company; Firestone set in Jones Hall, Firestone Tire company; Admiral set in Rutledge Hall, Knight and Shipp; and RCA Victor set in Lyon Hall, Murray and Jenkins.

This project was initiated by the class in "Teaching the Social Studies" (Education 223) which is under the direction of Miss Mary Hall. A committee headed by Betty Guernonquez, assisted by Craig Fox and Hoyte Cook made arrangements, with Dean Beasley to have Dr. Wilson's address moved up and contact made with the dealers for the sets.

Miss Hall described the effort as being "an excellent example of how young teachers can utilize community resources and develop cooperation with business men in developing units of study."

Oak Ridge Offers Fellowships For Graduate Training

Basic stipends for fellows is $1600 per year, with an allowance of $350 if married and $350 for each dependent child. University tuition and required fees will be paid by the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies.

Additional information on the program may be obtained from Information Department, Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

Flu Bug Strikes Again

The flu bug seems to have struck again on the MTSC campus. A mild form of influenza, known as the "Two Day Flu" is raging among the students. It is not as serious as the flu students had during the epidemic last year.

Although only a few persons have been hospitalized, many others have received treatment and others have gone home. This epidemic seems to be prevalent among the boys—maybe this just goes to show that they are the weaker sex after all!

EXTRA!!! Curriculum Change

Dean Beasley Announces New Provisions Effecting Mainly Students of '53

Dean N. C. Beasley has summarized the implications of the probable curriculum changes as it will effect the average student at MTSC.

Taking the questions most frequently asked by students, Dean Beasley has made succinct statements that will be of general interest to all students.

In brief there is nothing in the new provisions that should affect students now on the campus. There will be nothing to lengthen the usual time required for a degree and for those not desiring to teach there is but one change. That is in Science. "Instead of one year (12 hours) in science being required it will now be necessary to have 18 hours, one year in biological science and one in physical science."

The complete resume of the curriculum problem which has been under study here for the past year is published below.

What is the background? Chapter 58, Public Acts of 1951, gave to the Tennessee State Board of Education jurisdiction over the issuance of teachers' certificates. It directed the State Board of Education to set up rules and regulations governing the issuance of these certificates.

The Act stated that no certificate in force at that time could be affected.

The Act directed that the State Board of Education appoint an Advisory Council on Teacher Education and Certification to assist in determining the rules and regulations. This Council, composed of elementary teachers, high school teachers, principals, supervisors, superintendents, parents, school board members, and college representatives was appointed. In June 1952 a conference of some 200 people was called together to determine the first draft of these rules and regulations.

What are the new regulations? A number of copies of the regulations affect persons in college now?

a. Persons working toward elementary certificate. Persons beginning college work prior to January 1, 1951 and complete two-year program before September 1, 1953, may receive permanent elementary certificate.

Persons beginning college course after January 1, 1951 and before September 1, 1953, and complete present two-year program before September 1, 1955, may receive elementary certificate valid for five years.

b. Persons working toward high school certificate. All persons graduating before September 1, 1953 may secure the permanent professional high school certificate under old rules and regulations.

All persons entering college before September 1, 1953 may secure a five year certificate under old rules and regulations provided they graduate before September 1, 1958. What is the new program? The program is based upon the belief that each teacher should have "competencies" that represent the actual "practices" and "way of doing things" which school workers exhibit in their day to day relationships with children, other teachers and school patrons, and that these competencies are, in part, the result of the individual's training and experience.

Furthermore, it is assumed that all school persons, elementary or high school teachers, have much in common. These common elements are designated as General Education and Professional Education Core.

A. General Education The general education requirements are defined as "that portion of the total program designed to foster the development of those competencies basic to all life's responsibilities."

"SIDE-LINES SALUTES ALUMNUS"

A former MTSC faculty member, Miss Christine Vaughan, is now president of the Tennessee Education Association.

The SIDELINES proudly salutes one who has been frequently identified with the faculty at MTSC on her election as president of the Tennessee Education Association.

Miss Vaughan, a grade teacher in the Manchester City Schools, proudly boasts that she is in her thirty second year of teaching, 26 of which have been in her native Manchester.

Always active in teacher organization Miss Vaughan has frequently attended national meetings of various organizations related to education.

She is a member of Phi Kappa Phi (University of Tennessee chapter); Pi Gamma Mu (Peabody Chapter) and Kappa Delta Pi (Peabody chapter).

Miss Vaughan, among her other obligations, has found time to actively identify herself with the work of the Church of Christ in Manchester.

With equal pride the SIDELINES anticipates the elevation of an alumna to this post next year.

"BOOKS ON PARADE" Lucy Hale

What happens to the plain folks who don't make the pages of history? Bell Irvin Wiley has chosen the Civil War as the setting for his study of the common man.

Lloyd Morris has written Not So Long Ago, a book in which he deals with the delightful aspects of early radio, automobile and movies.

A three volume set of The Great Books, A Christian Appraisal edited by Harold C. Gardiner for the Great Books foundation is among the most effective new additions to the library.

TODAY'S COLLEGE YOUTH; SHADES OF 20's

The future has always been man's salvation. If the past is dreary and the present is dark, he can always turn an eye toward the things-to-be and plan—or dream—of better days ahead.

The college student who works and struggles to give himself an education has always solved his troubles with thoughts of the future, thoughts that foretell a job, marriage, a home and a reasonable measure of security.

But what is the future of today's student as he fights to keep his head above the college whirlpool? Can he plan for better days? Can he carefully map his future, with security as a focal point?

The answer is simple. Today's youth is not even given the chance to plan.

Youth faces uncertain terms of military service, the hell of war—and always death lies just around the corner . . . Despair lies always in the background.

Youth refuses to admit defeat. The situation is summed up by a letter from a former college student now in service:

"Convinced that frustration characterizes today's youth. I have seen it in myself, my friends and, now especially in the service youth.

If only they can find the right bar, meet the right girl, laugh enough, drink enough, smoke enough . . . But they must hurry. They must hurry, for the bars are closing, the ships are sailing and youth itself is running out.

The answer to that question is uncertain. But whether they find it depends on the caliber of today's youth.

Youth has always been accused of being the unstable portion of society. The present uncertain state of affairs is forcing age upon us faster than the usual job of time.

We're walking right into it. It will soon, too soon, be our problem. Can we face up to it?

Leap Year Now Revived To Benefit MTSC Girls

Could it be possible that the physical education club has a mistaken idea that leap year is not yet over, or have they decided to start a new style on the campus?

The committee planning the party consisted of Jane Jennings, chairman, Pat Lanius, Pat Trigg, and Louie Davidson.

It was the girls' night, so they were required to pay admission, which consisted of a penny for every inch of the girl's and her date's waist line.

Entertainment consisted of dancing during which the girls and only girls were allowed to break.

The high light of the evening was the presentation of prizes for the best corsages made. The first prize went to Charlotte Williams, who presented George Frost with a beautiful french bouquet with roses of radishes.

The amazon party was so successful that a similar idea has been incorporated for fun nite. For thirty minutes each night, girls will be allowed to break and, also, to ask boys for dances.

Donald commutes from Nashville, working part time in his father's grocery store.

It was heard from a well know source that he has an interest in Alice Smith also of Nashville.

Extra Curricular Activities: Ohio State University students will earn about 3,000,000 this school year to help pay for their education.

"Why, yes, young man." The lady paused long enough to back her car neatly into place, then added politely, "But I haven't time just now to give you a lesson."

Well, that about rounds it up for now. Write Box 36, see you next time Bye

LYON LINES

Lyon Hall Girls have been in a sweep of excitement for the beginning of a new quarter.

The first event that seemed to really go over with a bang was the Amazon Party.

FROSH FACTS

By LIB-JOYCE

Hello everyone! We Jones Hall freshmen are back at good old MTSC with all the bang and enthusiasm possible.

That old saying that New Year resolutions are made to be broken appears to be quite true in the case of Toole Tittle.

Jones Hall is proudly sporting four new feminine faces. We must be just lucky to get such a delight and a double dose.

A new exclusive club has found its way into the stately portals of Jones Hall. The "Light and Bright Girls Club" consists of Marjorie Huges, Sue Durham, Joan Patch, Jane Gilliland and Dot Arnold.

Much hustling and busting has been going on since the announcement of Jones Hall Open House on February 10.

Smoe people have all the luck and Joyce Payne and Betty Cronnie seem to have more than their share.

Rumors are going around that Charlotte Williams is going into the Floral business.

That all for now but we'll be back at this same time next time. Bye now.

CAMPUS CAPERS

By PEGGY AMBRESTER

Last Tuesday, thanks to Miss Mary Hall and her social studies class, th teachers who let us out of class, and the stores in town who furnished the television sets, the majority of the students on the campus were able to see our thirty-fourth President, Dwight D. Eisenhower, come into office.

Not only on Saturday night, but every night of the week, you'll hear the new Juke-Bob in the recreation room of the Student Union Building going full force.

Speaking of the Drama Club, it's rumored that we have three girls who received roles in the play for this quarter, "The Infernal Machine." They are: Martha Sue Williams, Carolyn Ledford, and Sara Connelly.

RUTLEDGE ROUNDUP

By LIZ HAY

Greetings, guess everyone is feeling fine and dandy after getting into the swing of things in the atmosphere of 1953.

Spied Mary Neil Collier, Ruth Beatty, Jane Templeton, Nancy Summers, Anna Belle Grove, Mary Sue Paul, Fannie Wheeler, Lucy Hale, Margaret Tucker, and many others gathered in the lobby of Rutledge Hall with eyes fastened on the television set so graciously loaned us by Mr. Shipp of Murfreesboro.

Sure glad to have Martha Sorrell and Norma Littleton back with us after their brief but confining illnesses.

Not only on Saturday night, but every night of the week, you'll hear the new Juke-Bob in the recreation room of the Student Union Building going full force.

Speaking of the Drama Club, it's rumored that we have three girls who received roles in the play for this quarter, "The Infernal Machine." They are: Martha Sue Williams, Carolyn Ledford, and Sara Connelly.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: February 12? It's not Washington's birthday nor Valentine's Day.

Around Murfreesboro

The happenings around Murfreesboro are beginning to be few and far between, so if anyone knows of anything that has happened, this column needs it.

Martha Singleton Williams only stayed away from school a few weeks until she decided to return. Glad to have you back Martha.

Barry Smotherman can't find time for any college girls now days. Seems his time is occupied by a certain girl who is still in high school. Must say, though, that she is a mighty cute girl.

Beverly Bills seems to be giving all the girls a rush, at least we are always seeing him with a car full of girls. It could be that Billy Pate is part of the big attraction.

It seems Wanda Cook is giving her boy friend a hard time, but he sure did have a black eye last week.

Dan Holden seems to be hitchhiking lately. I wonder if it could be because of a wreck that demolished his car.

Congratulations to Betty Graham Holmes who was recently initiated into the T. O. Club.

Until next time? ? ? ?

Echo of: Lenora Barber, telephone: Shirley Turner's tap dancing Joyce Cooper's day dreaming Ann Ledford's jolliness and laughter Dimple Moncrief's sweetness Mary Will Cox's kindness Ann Lamb's desire to play bridge.

GIRL OF THE WEEK: Billie Dean Reed who possesses friendliness, kindness, determination, and the ability to succeed, and who is found indeed charming to her many friends and associates.

Well, folks, must sign off. See you next issue.

For some time now, in fact all the janitors have been doing an excellent job keeping the Ad Building in a respectful condition.

Yesterday a slight accident took place at this particular location which brought the hazardous condition to my mind in a sudden but rather painful manner.

The next person who hits the same spot may not be so young and the bones may be brittle—but thanks for the infirmity.

Miss Mary Hall Speaks at Recent Meeting of AAUW

"Looking Ahead With Tennessee's schools," was the subject of Miss Mary Hall's address at a recent meeting of the American Association of University Women.

Those acting as hostesses were Miss Buleah Davis, Mrs. F. D. Shields, Miss Rebecca Clark, Miss Margaret Perry and Miss Ann Ashley.

Miss Hall discussed radio and television in the school as important factors in education.

ALONG THE SIDELINES

By BOB HETTISH

The newspapers have been full of comments on the NCAA's rule change in regards to football. This rule isn't new but a return to the type of football that was played before World War II.

Some observers believe that the free substitution rule will come back next year but the future will have to settle this issue.

From the players stand point it will mean a lot of hard work getting in the best physical condition possible.

I believe it will make football once more a game and not a big business.

One draw-back will be limiting the number of fellows from playing football who acted in a specialists capacity, such as the extra point.

Billy Hicks has been a great asset to Coach Hayes's wrestling team. Hicks in three matches has pinned all of his opponents and he has been against some of the best in intercollegiate circles.

The Raider "hoopsters" lost another close one, again in overtime to the Morehead Eagles 83-88. These close ones are hard ones to lose. The team improves with each game, and one of these evenings they will find themselves and start along the victory trail.

In intramural basketball is no going full swing and each afternoon and evening you can get your chance to play or attend as a spectator. Come one come all and join in your intramural teams efforts to win.

Student Leaders Swimming Are New in Intramurals

With almost everyone back in the swing of school again, we are faced with an array of new activities, such as eight o'clock classes, studying into the wee hours of the morning, fun night and the resuming of the intramural program.

The head of the intramurals, Coach Joe Black Hayes, has announced that the intramurals will be run a little different this quarter. This quarter, each division of the intramural program, will be run by different student sport managers.

MTSC Masters
By MARTHA RICKS

Our first master for this week is Master Sgt. Nathan B. Taylor who hails from Knoxville, Tennessee. After graduating from Knoxville High School Sergeant Taylor enlisted in the United States Army and received his basic training at Fort Riley in the Armored Cavalry Division. After 14 months in the USA he was sent to England with the 3rd Division. He took part in the Normandy Invasion and as well as seeing much action in other parts of France, Luxembourg, Holland and Germany. Among the medals he won are The Silver Star, the Bronze Star and Purple Heart.

M. Sgt. Taylor returned to the good old USA and was assigned to Military Intelligence at Fort Holli-bird, Maryland, Headquarters of the 3rd Army. He then went to the Ship Security Division of the New Orleans Port of Embarkation. On this assignment he rode the army transport, USAT William H. Thomas to Panama, Puerto Rico, Cuba and finally to New York several months, he departed on July 27, 1950 for the unknown shores of Korea. There he was with the Military Intelligence, his duties being to interrogate prisoners of war with the aid of an interpreter. He again returned to the United States and was sent to Murfreesboro as a staff member of the ROTC here at MTSC.

M. Sgt. Taylor is married to the former Eleanor M. Major, who is also from Knoxville. The Taylors live on Jones Boulevard with their two children, Sandra, aged 6 and Dale, who is 5 years old. M. Sgt. Taylor's favorite pastime is tinkering with radios and automobiles.

"Murfreesboro is a wonderful town," says Sergeant Taylor, "If I had enough time in the army I'd probably settle down here." He likes teaching very much and feels that it is necessary to have some practical experience in order to tell the young men in classes just what is expected of them.

Our second master of the week is Sgt. Adolf Carl Westerling, of Norwalk, Connecticut. Despite his travels, Sergeant Westerling still retains a healthy Northern accent. After graduating from Norwalk High he entered the army in 1941 and was sent overseas to Africa. He saw action in the African Campaign, in 1942 and also the Sicilian Campaign in 1943. With the Second Armored Division. He landed in France June 6, 1944 and was with the first combat troops to occupy Berlin in the summer of 1945. In November of 1945 he returned to the United States. Among Sergeant Westerling's medals are 7 Battle Stars and the European Ribbon, the Arrowhead for Invasion, Unit citation and others. He earned the purple Heart in Vore, France.

After receiving his honorable discharge, he went to flying school at the Aero Corporation of Bridgeport Connecticut where he received his commercial pilot's license. In 1947 he re-enlisted in the army and was sent to Camp Hood, Texas with the Second Armored Division. He served as a member of the Instruction Team at West Point. Also he re-activated the 44th Tank Battalion, a part of the 82nd Airborne division at Fort Bragg. During the summer months, he gave instruction on a

Both our boy and girl of the week have made themselves very outstanding on the college campus because of their wonderful ability in the field of music.

Douglas Williams, a junior music major, was born in Nashville and graduated from Isaac Litton high school in 1950. While in school there, he was a member of the band and chorus and was president of the band for two years. He also appeared in several of the Dramatic club plays and won many honors in state and regional festivals.

Upon entering MTSC, Doug fell smoothly into the swing of campus life and rapidly became very popular with his classmates. He has become a member of the Pi Mu Sigma, an honorary music fraternity; the Sacred Harp Singers, Varsity Choir, band, orchestra, chorus, Buchanan Dramatic club, the Saundorian Society and is currently playing in the initial circle theater party to be given soon at MTSC, "The Browning Version."

Doug enjoys dancing, swimming, riding in his new car which he got for Christmas and standing on his head in the lobby of the music building. He hopes someday to be able to stand on his hands and play the marimba with his feet. Some act!

Last year because of his great talent in playing the marimba, Doug won a trophy at the Egyptian Music Camp in Du Quoin, Illinois, as a result of a first place tie for national honors in a marimba contest held there. A pupil of Margaret Johnson Wright here at the college, Doug studied with Clair Omar Musser of Northwestern University while at the music camp. The judges comments included high praise on Doug's technique and musicianship, and he was chosen Concert master in the marimba orchestra of twenty-five, which was featured in the final camp concert performance.

Doug's minors are English and foreign languages. He is a member of the Lutheran church. In the near future he plans to go to the West Coast for further study on the marimba with Mr. Musser, the world's greatest marimba authority. Mr. Musser has big plans in store for Doug and hopes to prepare him for the concert stage.

Besides winning national fame with his musical ability, Doug also National Guard Team at Fort Bragg. Sergeant Westerling applied for civilian component duty and was sent to West and North High Schools in Nashville. When the ROTC departments of these schools were discontinued, he was sent to Murfreesboro as a staff member of the ROTC here at MTSC.

Sergeant Westerling and his wife, Dora, live on the campus in the Trailer Apartments. They have one son, Roger who is six years old. We are certainly fortunate in having two such capable men in our fine ROTC Department.

Raiders Wrestlers Lose; Nickens Pins Beater Knox YMCA Opponent

The Knoxville YMCA handed the MTSC wrestlers their second defeat of the season by a 25 to 15 victory in Knoxville, October 16.

John Nickens, 177 pounder, handed Neal Finger of the YMCA his first defeat in four years of competition by pinning him in 7 minutes and 20 seconds.

The only other MTSC wins came by pins from Billy Porterfield, 123 pounds, and Billy Hix, heavyweight. The YMCA team won decisions over David Leverette, 130; Douglas McDonald, 161. They pinned Glenn Carson, 137; Lem Vaughn, 141; and John Fine, 167.

Our popular and extremely talented girl of the week is Murfreesboro's own Gloria Gattis. Graduated from Central High school in 1949, she was a member of the National Honor Society, Quill Club, Dramatic club and was a representative to Girls' State and president of the band.

This red-haired miss is very active in numerous college organizations. She was secretary and treasurer of the Physical Education club, co-business manager of the Mid-lander staff, treasurer of the organ guild, president of the Pi Mu Sigma and was elected as Most Versatile Girl, and one of the American Student College Leaders, all in the year of 1952, as well as being elected to Who's Who.

This year she is class editor of the Midlander, a member of the Harp Singers, MTSC Women's Trio, WAA, band, orchestra, and chorus.
