Football player killed in knifing

By JEREMY ROLFS
News Editor

David Lora, a 19-year-old MTSU student, died early Friday morning after being knifed outside Jim's Timesaver Gulf station on Memorial Boulevard, police said.

Lora was leaving a party at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity house on Memorial Boulevard when he stopped at the station, Murfreesboro Police Lieutenant ant Mosby said. A white male, who observers said appeared to be intoxicated, entered into a verbal argument with Lora concerning his girlfriend.

After an exchange of words, the male went to his truck, removed a 4-inch knife, then returned and stabbed Lora once in the heart. The male then left the scene of the crime in his truck, Mosby said. Lora died minutes later, as friends tried to revive him.

"We received the call at about 1 a.m., and arrived at the scene at 1:06 a.m." Mosby said. Approximately six officers in three cars responded to the call. "At 1:30 a.m. officers stopped a truck around Northfield Boulevard heading west on east Clark fitting witnesses' descriptions of the assailants' truck. The arresting officers found a 4-inch boot knife in the truck. He had been drinking," Mosby said, adding that no test of intoxication had been administered.

Douglas Wade Sims was arrested and charged with second degree murder. He was released on $2,500 bond and has a court date set for April 20 at 9 a.m., police records show.

Mosby stated that there was another male in Sims'

In speech Friday

Exec: Global economy important

By JEREMY ROLFS
News Editor

The importance of a global economy was stressed last Friday in a lecture by Nissan Motor Manufacturing Corporation USA president and chief controlling executive Jerry Benefield.

The lecture was located in the Faculty Senate

Lounge, which is designed to hold 50-75 people. Approximately 200 students, faculty, administration, and local residents squeezed in to hear Benefield speak, with many standing or sitting on the floor.

Benefield began by announcing Nissan's plan to expand its Smyrna plant and hire an additional 200 employees, bringing the total to 5,000 Tennessee residents employed by the corporation.

"The expansion will cost $490 million, bringing Nissan's total investment in Smyrna to $1.2 billion," the CEO said. "But is this really good for the community? Good for the USA?" he asked.

"The move towards a global economy is a trend that cannot be reversed," Benefield stated. "Nothing can be accomplished by building blocks in the path of progress. We should be tearing them down instead."

The speaker continued by discussing the formation of his operation. He noted that while, in the past, Japanese companies had Japanese management teams to run American factories, Nissan had chosen to hire Americans to run American factories.

"It's just good business," Benefield said.

The CEO then discussed some of the major differences between Nissan's Japanese and American operations.

"In the Japanese facilities, all employees are forced to wear their uniforms every day," the speaker explained. "We didn't think that would work well over here. We gave all our workers uniforms, but left it up to them when to wear them. At any given time, about 80 percent of the workers are

All the members of Sidelines offer our condolences to David Lora's family, fraternity brothers, friends and anyone else who will miss him.

We would like David to be remembered by the words of those who care about their students, and those who knew him best. (Editors' note: It was impossible to contact all of David's friends, and we are sorry they could not all have been reached.)

Patrick Welch, fraternity brother.

"I went through initiation with him. We had some real good times together. I regret that I didn't get to know him better. I lost a chance to get to know a great guy. Fraternity brothers are like family. I feel like a member of my own family has died."

Kip Carter, fraternity brother.

"I met David last semester, and all the members of the fraternity really grew together, especially in the last three or four months. He was one of my better friends. David would always go out of his way to speak to you. People liked him, they just took to him real well. He was like family. We lost a very dear and special brother who we loved dearly. To be honest, I'm really at a loss for words."

Domestic Geoffrey plays at benefit which raises $1,300 for handicapped

By JEREMY ROLFS
News Editor

$1300 was raised for Handicapped Student Services by Domestic Geoffrey, a local band, and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, at an SAE house party last Friday night.

"We felt there was a real need here on campus," Scott Hogue, the band's lead singer, said. "It was time to put some money back into the system and get something done."

"We wanted to help out," Kent Cranford, an SAE upper council member, said. "We were a little surprised we were able to bring in that amount," he said, referring to the $1300 raised between the cover charge and a donations jar. "We appreciated everybody's support."

The LBM band also played at the event, and Ryder Truck Rentals contributed a van for the evening.

"We're good friends with Domestic Geoffrey, and we heard about the event through the grapevine," Colin Whinnery, a member of the LBM Band, said. "We enjoyed doing the benefit, especially since it was for a good cause."

Domestic Geoffrey and the SAEs decided to donate the money directly to handicapped services, instead of simply offering it to general charities.

"This way we have more of an idea where the money's going," Hogue said, noting that a specific cause helps people to get involved. "We were very happy to see so many handicapped students at the party," the singer added.

Handicapped Services has not yet determined how they will spend the donation, but director John Harris said they were considering investing in additional DECKTALK speaking computer equipment, which would assist visually impaired students.

"We are very pleased," Harris said. "The band deserves a lot of credit for attracting all those people, and the SAEs as well, for providing them with the location. The money they raised will go a long way in our offices."

"We'd like to thank the members of Domestic Geoffrey for all their time and hard work," Kevin Kimbro, SAE president, said.

"We'd like to thank the SAEs for providing a venue," Hogue said.

Both the band and the fraternity hope to do more charity work in the future.

"We hope this can be an annual event," Hogue said.

Cable 33 to launch new show: Entertainment, Etc.

By WENDY GRIFFIN
Lifestyles Editor

MTSU's cable television station, Channel 33, will begin airing a new program Wednesday entitled Entertainment, Etc.

The first show will feature a commentary from Tracey Moore, a video project, and a program called Nightstalker. "The show is going over well. Students are getting a lot of experience by working with the program. At first it took three hours to tape a 30-minute segment, but they are just beginning to learn," Ron Whisenant, operations manager, said. He also said that new people will run the show every week to allow students to learn how to work with TV production.

Entertainment, Etc. features Murfreesboro news but focuses more on MTSU news. The program is taped every Monday at 6:30 and airs Wednesday at 5:45, 7:45, and 11:45.

Anyone interested in working with the new program should contact Chip Faye, executive producer of the show, at 898-2218 or come by Studio A of the Learning Resource Center.

Residence Hall Week activities scheduled

KERRY CASE
Staff Writer

University Housing is sponsoring "The Spirit of MTSU — Catch It," a residence hall week starting today that will include games and activities at various sites around campus.

Events will include the following competitions: banner, tug-of-war, lip sync, wheelbarrow race, three-legged race, water balloon toss, obstacle course, male and female impersonation, and a scavenger hunt.

"We strongly encourage residents to participate or to just come out and watch the fun," Sylvia R. Perry, residence hall programmer, said.

Points will be awarded to each hall for participation as well as placing in an event. These points are added to existing totals to determine the best male and female residence halls and most improved halls of this school year.

A dance will be held after the the male and female impersonation competition in the High Rise West lobby.

MTSU student journalist to receive three awards

By D. BRIAN CONLEY
Editor

An MTSU student will be honored by the Society of Professional Journalists during a regional convention in May for his writing in the campus and local media.

Tony Stinnett, a 21-year-old radio/TV major, won a first place in Spot News Reporting, a second place in Investigative Writing and a third place for Sports Writing.

Stinnett was Sidelines editor during the spring of

Tony Stinnett

1987 and is currently working as a full-time reporter for the Daily News Journal.

"I think this shows exactly how good the MTSU School of Mass Communications has become," Stinnett said. "This shows the capabilities of the students, faculty and administration of the school."

Stinnett's first place award came for an article which appeared in Sidelines dealing with the firing of Scott Woodburn as executive director of the Blue Raider Athletic Association.

The first place article will go on to compete in a national contest with the other 12 SPJ regions.

Benefield also pointed out some spending differences between American Nissan factory workers and their Japanese counterparts.

"The Japanese don't spend their bonuses, they put them into savings," Benefield commented. "Americans save about two percent of [America's] GNP [Gross National Product] while the Japanese save 16.7 percent of theirs."

"By the time the first car hits the market, we will have spent $90 million on its development and research," the speaker said, adding that this car may someday be built to Japanese specifications and shipped back to Japan.

"The importation and exportation of products, the global economy, can only improve America's economy," the speaker said, stressing that communication was the most important aspect of global trade. "We'll send more than 300 employees to Japan in one year."

'If anybody needs anything, give me a call, day or night. I don't know anyone who didn't like him. I loved him like a brother.' James "Boots" Donnelly, football coach.

"Anytime you lose someone you become that close to, regardless of whether it's a football player or a friend, it takes a while to get over the shock, anger and devastation. You wonder why something like this had to happen, and that makes you bitter. The harsh reality of it all is that we have to work through this. We'll never get over the shock, but we have to pick up the pieces. One of the big questions in this country is why we spend thousands and thousands of taxpayers' dollars, and a great deal of time, outlawing bingo penny ante things, and a guy can murder someone and walk away from jail for $250. He, the murderer, was given $2,500 bond, and only had to post 10 percent. I think we have a severe case of misplaced priorities in this country. He was a very outgoing and energetic person. He was very eager to achieve things he wanted. He was an over-achiever and a very hard worker. He knew he was no different from the other young players. He knew he had to work hard in the weight room and acclimate himself to college football and life. He had been with the team since fall, and certainly showed that he was willing to work a great deal for his future. He was very determined to persevere."

NASA report shouldn't hinder shuttle launches

Officials with NASA released a report over the weekend which said a shuttle disaster, similar to the one in 1986 which destroyed the Challenger and killed all seven astronauts aboard, is all but inevitable.

This report said that such explosions should be expected in one in 78 shuttle flights.

Risk is something which all astronauts should expect when they climb into a machine designed to hurtle human beings into space. The forces inside a rocket are hard to imagine. With thrust measured in the millions of foot pounds, and the incredible pressures involved in the processes, explosions are bound to occur.

When such explosions do occur, everyone is naturally saddened. The loss of the lives of such brave people can not be taken lightly.

However, the astronauts know there is a chance they may die every time mission control says "We have lift-off." This risk is something these people know about and have to deal with.

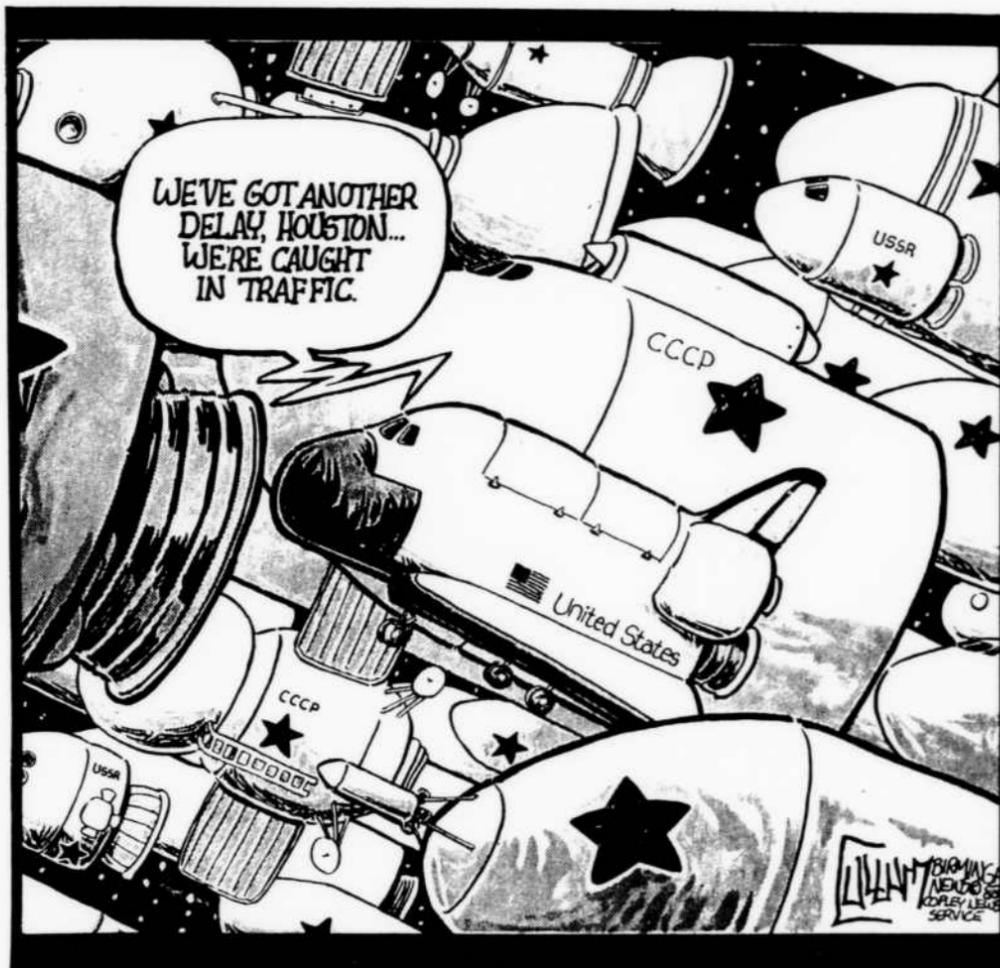

When NASA begins to build the space station in the near future, many shuttle flights will be needed to assemble the project in space. More than 100 flights have been scheduled into the 1990s to assemble this 508-foot platform for scientific research.

If NASA predictions come true, there will be two more disasters — maybe even three as NASA estimates run from one in 168, to one in 36, with one in 78 being the most probable.

As a nation, we must come to expect these disasters and deal with them when they occur. WE MUST NOT ALLOW THEM TO GROUND OUR SPACE EFFORTS.

If we expect our space program to continue to dominate that of the Soviets — and many say the United States has already fallen behind — disasters must be investigated in a quick, but thorough, fashion. However, two or three year delays are an overreaction. Trying to make the shuttle a vehicle which will never have an accident is an impossible mission.

Astronauts probably have the same attitude which many airplane test pilots have — if we die, mourn, but don't let it destroy what we have died for.

Carnations for David

Student and friend says farewell

By PATRICK WELCH
Special to Sidelines

David Lora, a 19-year-old freshman football player and Tau Kappa Epsilon member at MTSU, was killed early Friday morning at the Gulf station on the corner of Memorial Boulevard and Tennessee Avenue.

From what I have heard from my fraternity brothers, two local townspeople, commonly known as "rednecks," started to harrass David's date while he was paying for the gas. David returned and confronted the two men, and in the scuffle that followed, David Lora was fatally stabbed in the heart.

Tab McNabb, a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Kip Carter, a Tau Kappa Epsilon member, tried unsuccessfully to revive the fallen Teke. The two suspects in the murder were apprehended within 30 minutes.

The Grill in the Keathley University Center was a little quieter on Friday than usual. A more subdued mood prevailed. A lot of the other fraternity and sorority members' faces exhibited the same sadness as my own. I would like to thank all of the Greeks and other students for the kind gestures and words of comfort during this trying ordeal. It's amazing how the Greek community comes together during tragic times.

But even more amazing is the fact that it takes a tragedy of this magnitude to achieve unity in the Greek system. During bad times, we tend to go out of our way to set differences aside, to comfort one another.

Look at the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, for example. There are many erful organizations on campus and accomplish much, or we can remain scattered about and accomplish little or nothing.

But David Lora's death also suggests that we, as college students, address our relationship with the Murfreesboro environment. Although most of us live here for only part of the year, we all consider Murfreesboro home. Are we alienated from the town? Are we resentful for choosing this place to continue our educations? Did the man who different countries with different cultures, yet they have banded together to form one of the strongest alliances in the Western World. Of course there are conflicts from time to time, but they are only of a temporary nature. What if all the countries of NATO dissolved the agreement to help each other? Worldwide chaos would probably result.

I believe the same principle applies to the Greek system. United, we can become one of the most pow-killed David Lora want to possibly teach him a lesson which he could not learn in the classroom? Perhaps. But he most likely was just demonstrations the dissonance which is present between the people of Murfreesboro and the students of MTSU.

It still just doesn't seem possible that David Lora escaped Miami, with one of the highest murder rates in the country, only to be killed in a down home town where murders are few and far between.

Retraction

In the April 6 issue of Sidelines, a column ran which alleged the members of the band At the Dumpster were racists. The author of this column based this allegation on a poster the band used to promote a recent concert which had racially derogatory remarks and symbols used by the Nazis during World War II. The band asserts that the use of these terms and symbols is satire, and they, in no way, promote, condone or practice racism. Sidelines regrets any inconvenience this misunderstanding may have caused.

Letters to the Editor

At the Dumpster is not racist

Open letter to the editor of Sidelines.

Last Thursday Sidelines printed an article that removed any journalistic integrity it might have accumulated. In an article entitled "Skinheads in Murf-town not a problem yet," Brice Minnigh wrote several blatant falsehoods concerning the band At the Dumpster.

The first of these I would like to address is the statement that At the Dumpster is a "classic example of insecure, country boy 'wanna be' skinheads." Since I bear no malice toward anyone of a different race than I, have worn my hair over my ears since the time I was 12 and have never formally met Mr. Minnigh, it is difficult for me to understand why he made these accusations. Another quote included in the article was "These guys have racial overtones in all their music (when they play)." I am sure the writer has not purchased one of our tapes and I have never seen him at one of our shows. At the Dumpster songs contain nearly as much racial overtone as a John Lennon album; which is to say the least, none.

My "customary teasing of 'art fags' and 'wimpy cure fans' (most likely because they are jealous of real artists)" is a further point I must speak on. Assertions such as these are directed at friends who regularly attend our shows and who criticize me for liking polka music. I would not expect the writer to know these things but this is not the first time the "Frontside Grind" column contained opinion not based on fact and I doubt it will be the last. At the Dumpster makes quite a bit of money from T-shirt and cassette sales plus what we receive for playing all over the South so I do consider myself a "real artist."

Mr. Minnigh also suggested we spend half our show "making fun of minorities." This is preposterous. The only minorities I do not care for are telephone solicitors, long-winded professors and from this point forward, Sidelines editors. To continue, I have never made any type of jest concerning Mr. Smiley and defy anyone to prove otherwise. The author of this piece of fiction also contends I cannot read. I would be willing to bet all six of my B.B. King records that my GPA exceeds his by a healthy margin.

The venue at which At the Dumpster performs when we are in Murfreesboro is owned by two friends of mine named Joy and John Obi. This is meaningless except for the fact that they are natives of Nigeria. I feel compelled to ask: "Would a band composed of neo-Nazi 'wanna be' skinheads work for a foreigner who is also a member of the strongest minority in the United States?" I would guess the answer is no. At the Dumpster, on the other hand, has worked there many times and continues to do so.

Normally I would laugh at Mr. Minnigh (I hesitate to use that title as it is usually reserved for those for whom one has respect) and his comments, but among the small number of people who still read Sidelines there are those who have not seen or heard At the Dumpster and might believe the rubbish he wrote. The repercussions of this event are extremely far reaching. I have already had to clear my name with professors and relatives and my parents have been questioned by their friends and co-workers. It occurs to me that any editor who is not the recipient of a lobotomy would want to validate the facts of allegations as serious as the ones leveled at At the Dumpster. Brian Conley did not, and the members of the band are now paying a dear price for his irresponsibility. One must realize that no matter how many people read an editorial there will always be a larger number that will remember At the Dumpster as "that Nazi band" and its members as ignorant racists. This is shameful. I recommend that anyone who read Mr. Minnigh's version of journalism come to Jabb's on April 21 and see for themselves what At the Dumpster is like.

MTSU 1989 Fall Semester Courses

This week is your opportunity to get advice and help with your schedule for the summer sessions and the fall semester.

The Summer Class Schedule which includes Session I (Intercession) and all summer sessions can be picked up on the first floor of the Cope Administration Building. Below are the courses to be offered in the fall listed by departments within the five undergraduate schools. Probably you know the courses you need, and if you don't, your advisor will help you figure that out. You can get your advisor's signature approving the courses and work out the days and times later. Remember, trial schedules are NOT in the schedule book, but your advisor will have one for you. Save yourself some time, effort, and frustration!

MTSU: Do you know what time it is?

Ken L. Davis The New Jack Speaks

Shock! Yo, my fellow colleagues-in-arms, I am the new style of this paper. You could say I am the alter ego ("New Jack" for my posse in the north) of the Sidelines writing staff. 'Nuf said!

On the serious tip, I've been on this illustrious campus for two years, and I can't help but notice the stupidity and ignorance in some attitudes of the officials as well as the students on campus. Therefore, to combat some of these attitudes, I've chosen to list some of these "out of touch" groups or individuals.

Administration: Where are the Computers? Go into the Computer Lab and what do you see? Outdated mainframe computers made in '73! Here in 1989 — the age of the computer prowess with such names as IBM, Apple, Compaq, Franklin and concepts such as hypercard, desktop publishing, and MIDI Interfacing — we, my fellow MTSU comrades, are working on no-name screens that dates back to "The Flintstones."

Granted, if 1989 were the beginning of this computer age, then MTSU would be well ahead of a majority of universities — public and private. However, boys and girls, this isn't the case! We are at the bottom of this computer heap! This may not affect too many majors here at MTSU, but I'd say this fact could hurt a substantial number of others.

Case-in-point: Imagine yourself as an MTSU accounting, business, or science graduate competing this? He has four years of programming experience in BASIC, two years of COBOL, and another year of working with LOTUS!" STRIKE TWO!

The CEO really likes you so he decides to call you in for a second interview, but he really wants to know about your computer knowledge. Interview is

She has recently approved of the purchase of updated computers for instructors in the School of Business.

Those who abuse and/or ridicule Hip-Hop Music:

Yes, down with those who blast my beloved Hip-Hop; that means you guys who cruise The Loop for an ego boost! I mean — nothing burns me up more than to hear Eazy E, the gangster of Hip-Hop, being grossly distorted by some #@%* with a Wal-Mart stereo system as I sit in my principles of marketing class.

Equally disturbing are those who find it fun to cast their judgements and opinions about Hip-Hop — such as certain professors in the School of Mass Communications. I can't even begin to count how many times I've heard someone talk negatively on the subject of "Rap Music."

Well, if you'd take the time to listen to the lyrics of Hip-Hop, maybe you would think differently. But as they say, "You can't teach an old dog new tricks!"

Well, there's my view! If you like it, then maybe I'll send you a copy of my autographed James Brown Biography. If you don't like my view, then that's your prerogative! If anyone has any legitimate beef, I'd love to hear it.

Remember — FREE JAMES BROWN! Peace!

We... are working on no-name screens that date back to the Flintstones with another college graduate, from another college of equal caliber, for one position in a prestigious corporation. Everything looks good for you; the firm's CEO is gazing excitedly down your impressive resume — name, education, references, experience.

EXPERIENCE! "This well-rounded, MTSU graduate has limited computer experience!" STRIKE ONE!

As the CEO looks down your adversary's resume, he sees the same impressive credentials except, "What's going smoothly until the CEO says, "I see you have a little computer experience, explain your experience." Oh, oh — this big knot comes in your throat, stomping out what's left of your feeble voice. However, you do manage to squeal out, "I had a year of experience programming on my school's mainframe computers for my EDP class." STRIKE THREE — YOU'RE OUT!

Think about it, people! With all due respect, I must commend MTSU's School of Business dean.

Mike Shannon performs "The End, The Beginning of Life: The Prison Experiences of Dietrich Bonhoeffer" — a one-act play set in the year 1944 in the Tegel Military Prison in Berlin. The play was performed at the Wesley Foundation Friday night. The play depicts Bonhoeffer's imprisonment for participation in the unsuccessful attempt to assassinate Adolf Hitler. It is based on Bonhoeffer's poetry, letters and personal memoirs.

Shannon has taken one of the more complex characters in Christian history and given him a distinct, clear, and stirring voice.

'It's Rainin' Men' in Mister MTSU contest tomorrow

By WENDY GRIFFIN
Lifestyles Editor

"It's Rainin' Men" is the title of this year's Mr. MTSU pageant which will be held April 11 in the Murphy Center at 8 p.m.

Sponsored by Chi Omega sorority, the proceeds of the 20th annual pageant will benefit a charity which has yet to be announced. Deadlines for the pageant were finalized April 5.

The contestants and their sponsors are as follows: Sean Brasili, Pi Kappa Alpha little sisters; Rand Vogelfanger, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Jim Candella, Delta Zeta; Heath Kane, Beta Theta Pi; Arthur Escueta, Alpha Delta Pi sweethearts; Robert Knight, Kappa Alpha pledges; Jim Gannaway, Kappa Delta's; Bran-

Blind Farmers kick off MusicFest Wed.

By KELLI L. DAVISON
Special to Sidelines

Wednesday's continuation of the Association of Recording Management Students' Musicfest at City Limits proved to be the night for the Blind Farmers.

Tabloid Press, a quartet that blends British Pop with American Funk, kicked off the night of music. This band's fun and energetic stage presence enticed the patrons from their seats onto the dance floor.

Following Tabloid Press was Cruel Blue with their unique style of power pop.

The highlight of the evening was the Blind Farmers. When asked to describe their music, bass player Nasty calls it

"Whompably." He also says, "We don't play country music, we're country people playing music."

The hard rock band VOC was the last scheduled band for the evening.

Also competing for trophies are Sigma Phi Epsilon, Friends; Beta Theta Pi, The Wizard of Oz; and Sigma Alpha Epsilon with a theme from A Broadway Musical.

In the nonjudged class, Delta Omicron and Phi Mu Alpha perform A Patriotic Salute.

"I am very enthusiastic about the number of groups participating in All-Sing this year. We have spent a lot of time the last few months organizing and scheduling this event and we are eager to see what results our efforts will bear," said the All-Sing director and president of Tau Omicron, Evelyn Dougherty.

Nashville's WKDF disc jockey, Shannon, will emcee the event.

The expected attendance is 1500 students, faculty and parents. The event will cost $3.

Multi-sport weekend for MTSU, MSU

Head of the squad ...

MTSU's tennis team captain Chris King works on his forehand return of the Murphy Center courts recently. King and his teammates were downed by OVC-rival Murray State 6-3 in Murfreesboro Sunday. King won his singles match, however, beating Murray's Thomas Hult, 7-5, 6-3.

Owens blast powers Raider to twinbill split with Racers

By KEN SALTER

MTSU's Blue Raiders used a five-run seventh inning in the second game to erase a three-run deficit and gain a split in a doubleheader with Murray State 7-5 Sunday.

In the first game, Murray State pitcher Rick Grogan pitched a three-hit shutout as the Racers won 3-0.

The split leaves the Raiders with a 13-12-1 record overall and 5-3 in the Ohio Valley Conference.

"It was a big split," Coach

Steve Peterson said. "It would have been very difficult for us to win the conference if we would have gotten swept."

Jay Owens was the hero of game two as he hit a three-run home run with two outs to cap the five-run seventh inning rally.

The rally started with one out when pinch-hitter Corey Watkins drew a walk from MSU hurler Kirk Ruetter. After back-to-back singles by Darryl Steakley and Phillip Edwards loaded the bases, Gerald Young singled home Steakley.

Jeff Shelton drove in Edwards with a sacrifice fly for the second run to set up Owens' homer.

"It was a big rally," Peterson said. "Corey Watkins got the walk. Then Steakley got a hit, and we got rolling."

MTSU tied the game at two in the sixth, but Murray rallied for three runs to chase Raiders starter Scott Morgan.

Blue Raider pitcher Rob Angell got the win in relief

Racer netters down Raiders, take possession of OVC lead

MTSU's tennis team lost their bid for sole possession of first place in the Ohio Valley Conference Sunday afternoon as they were downed by the Murray State Racers 6-3 in Murfreesboro.

The two teams were tied at three following the singles matches, however, the Racers blew the Raiders away, 3-0, in doubles action.

"We felt pretty good after the singles matches," MTSU head coach Dale Short said. "We were tied at three. It all came down to the doubles, and they just outplayed and outclassed us."

Short's team was hampered by health problems going into the doubles matches, however, as Mike Iffert sprained knee in warm-ups, and Jeff Raper played in spite of the fact that he was suffering from the flu.

"We were probably suffering physically in the doubles," Short said. "Mike hurt his knee, and Jeff had had a 101 degree fever during the week, but I'm not sure what it was while he was playing."

Short added that although the team would have probably benefited if he had substituted for the two, he admired his players courageous performance.

"It was probably poor judgement on my part, and my players part, to go ahead and play," he said. "But they were willing to play, and they gave it a shot."

"I would rather have those type of players than guys who don't want to play

Senior first baseman George Zimmerman and the MTSU baseball squad were in Murray this weekend for a three-game series with the Racers. Saturday's contest was postponed due to rain, and the two teams split a doubleheader Sunday.

Orioles play Viola to tune of 8-1 victory

From The Associated Press

Orioles 8
Twins 1

MINNEAPOLIS

Frank Viola lost his second straight start, allowing a three-run homer to Randy Milligan and a two-run homer to Cal Ripken Sunday as the Baltimore Orioles beat the Minnesota Twins 8-1.

Viola, last year's American League Cy Young Award winner, earlier this week rejected a three-year, $7.9 million contract extension, asking for $8.1 million and threatening to become a free agent after the season. He was greeted warmly when introduced before the game but was booed after allowing the home runs.

Viola allowed five hits, struck out seven and walked one in six innings. He lost to the Yankees on opening day and is 0-2 in the Metrodome, where he was 14-2 last season.

Jeff Ballard pitched a year-hitter for Baltimore in his first appearance of the season, striking out one and walking none. Bob Melvin had three of the Orioles' 12 hits.

Red Sox 8

Royals 6

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Ellis Burks tripled in three runs in a six-run seventh inning to lead Boston past the Royals 8-6 for their first victory of the season after four straight losses.

John Dopson, 1-0, got the victory with 5 $\frac{2}{3}$ innings of relief, as Boston avoided an 0-5 start that would have been its worst since 1966.

Reliever Jeff Montgomery, 2-1, took the loss as Kansas City had its four-game winning streak snapped.

With Kansas City leading

5-2, Nick Esasky doubled to open the seventh and Boston loaded the bases one out later on a walk to Rick Cerone and a single by Wade Boggs, chasing starter Charlie Leibrandt.

Rangers 3

Blue Jays ... 2

ARLINGTON, Texas — Reuben Sierra hit a two-run homer off Tom Henke with one out in the ninth inning Sunday, giving the Texas Rangers a 3-2 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays.

Kenny Rogers, 1-0, pitched one inning of one-hit relief in his second major-league appearance.

Brewers

Tigers

DETROIT — The game between the Milwaukee Brewers and Detroit Tigers was postponed Sunday because of cold weather.

Athletics 4

White Sox ... 2

OAKLAND, Ca. — Dave Stewart struck out nine and increased his April record to 8-0, leading the Oakland Athletics past the Chicago White Sox 4-2 Sunday.

Stewart, 2-0, allowed eight hits, struck out nine and walked one. He has won his last three starts against the White Sox, allowing two earned runs in 28 innings.

Angels 13

Mariners ... 5

ANAHEIM, Ca. — Tony Armas and Dante Bichette each hit two-run homers in the first inning Sunday and the California Angels went on to rout the Seattle Mariners 13-5.

The 13 runs exceeded the Angels' run production of 12 in their first five games this season. On Saturday night, the Angels lost 7-0 to Mark Langston and the Mariners.

Indians 4

Yankees 3

NEW YORK — Tom Candiotti allowed four hits in seven innings and Pete O'Brien hit his first homer of the season as the Cleveland Indians defeated the New York Yankees 4-3 Sunday to complete a three-game sweep.

For the Indians, it was their first three-game sweep over New York at Yankee Stadium since May 1966. The Yankees have now lost five straight after beating Minnesota on opening day and have scored a total of only 13 runs in their first six games this season.

Candiotti, 1-0, struck out four and walked two to win his eighth straight decision.

Giants slam Reds, gain first place tie

Giants 9

Reds 1

CINCINNATI — Matt Williams hit a grand slam for his first hit of the season as San Francisco downed Cincinnati 9-1.

Mets 2

Expos ... 1

MONTREAL — Kevin Elster doubled home the tie-breaking run in the ninth-inning to lead the Mets past the Expos 2-1.

Cubs 8

Pirates .. 3

CHICAGO — Rick Sutcliffe pitched a seven-hitter and struck out 11 Sunday, leading the Chicago Cubs past the Pittsburgh Pirates 8-3 in frozen Wrigley Field for a sweep of the three-game series.

Dodgers 4

Braves 2

ATLANTA — Pinch-hitter Mickey Hatcher and Willie Randolph each hit a sacrifice fly in the 12th inning Sunday to give the Los Angeles Dodgers a 4-2 victory over the Atlanta

Cards 15

Phillies 3

PHILADELPHIA — Pedro Guerrero and Jose Oquendo drove in four runs each to lead a 19-hit attack Sunday as the St. Louis Cardinals scored their most runs in two years and beat the Philadelphia Phillies 15-3.

Padres 5

Astros 4

HOUSTON — Tony Gwynn drove in two runs, including the game-winner, and Jack Clark added a two-run homer as San Diego rallied to beat Houston 5-4 Sunday in a game which featured a triple play by the Padres.
