Two Men's Dorms Approved; Will Provide 228 Units

Approval of a $550,000 loan by the Housing and Home Finance Company to provide two new dormitories for men at Middle Tennessee State College was announced Wednesday by Senators Albert Gore and Herbert Walters and by Congressman Joe Evins.

Dr. Quill E. Cope, president of MTSC stated that the loan would make it possible for the college to provide 228 more bed units for students—bring the total housing accommodations on the campus to slightly more than 1,900. Two women's dormitories are expected to be ready for occupancy with the fall semester opening, September 9.

The new men's dormitories will be located just south of these two new women's dormitories on the east side of the campus in the dormitory complex centering around the Woodmore Dining Hall. Each building will be air conditioned and will be furnished in the most modern dormitory furniture.

The Federal Loan for the construction will be retired by room rentals. John Charles Wheeler of Nashville is the architect. Bids are expected to be let in the late summer with construction to be completed for the Fall semester 1965 opening of the college.

Faculty Members Promoted; Six Full Professors

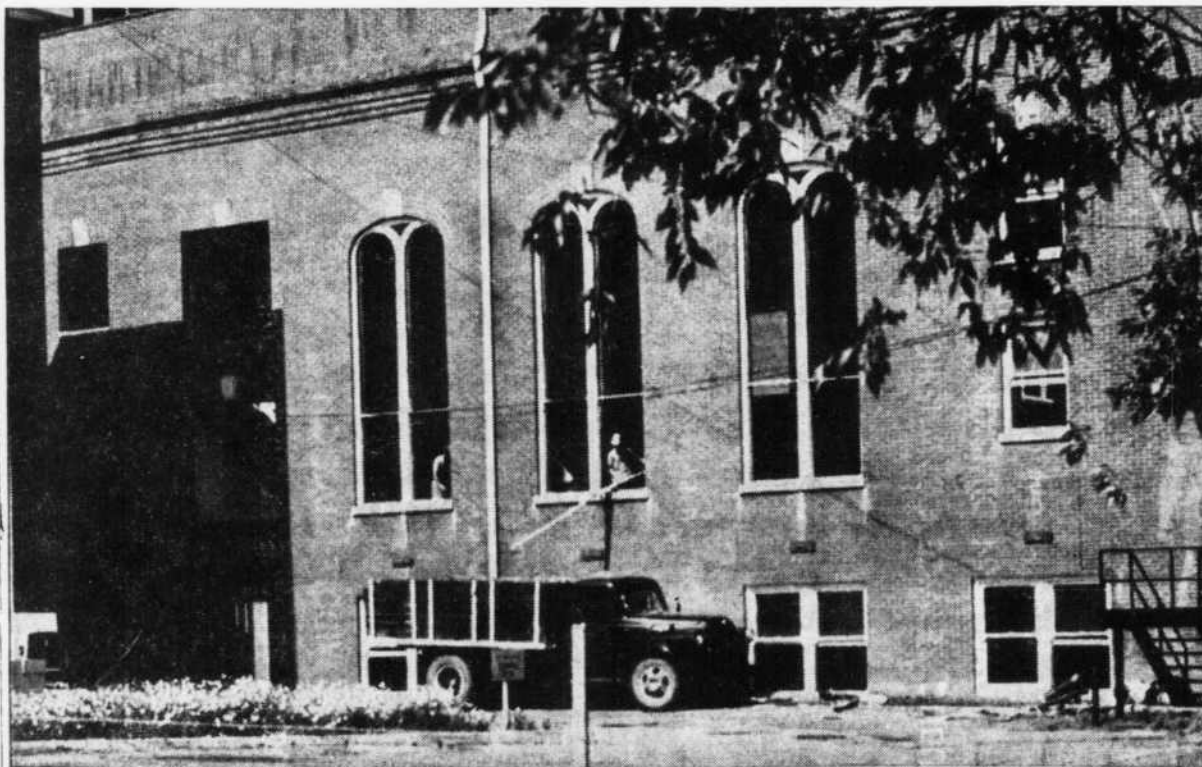

Seventeen of the 209 faculty members at Middle Tennessee State College received promotions effective at the beginning of the fall semester, according to Dr. Quill E. Cope, president of Middle Tennessee State College.

Six of these were promoted from associate to the rank of full professor on the basis of long service, superior work and additional training. They are Dr. Charlotte Allen, social science; Dr. William Beasley, English; Dr. J. L. Fletcher, biology; Dr. Paul Hutcheson, mathematics; Dr. Sam Ingram, education; and Dr. Clay Tucker, director of the school of arts and science.

Advancing from the rank of assistant professor to that of associate professor are Harold Baldwin, industrial arts; James C. Burrow, history; Ronald G. Coleman, English; Mrs. Lucille Estes, home economics; Wade Gilbert, physics; and John Puckett, business.

Four members of the staff completed three years of work on the campus, plus additional training and superior service, progressed from instructor to assistant professor. They are Edmond Cox, Jr., biology; Ralph W. Hyde, English; Joe Nunley, education; and Leon Stanciliff, physical science.

CAMPUS LANDMARK CONVERTED TO CLASS—OFFICE USE

As the new drama building nears completion the old auditorium is being converted into classrooms and offices. The new administration building is now having the brick veneer facing completed. Installation of seats in the enlarged stadium also started this week. Two new dormitories for women will be ready for occupancy when the fall semester opens, September 14. Almost a quarter million dollars is represented in these projects.

Military Science Staff Has Many Reassignments

There will be several changes in cadre at the Middle Tennessee State College Military Science Department, Major James E. Price, Jr., has announced.

Major James E. Price, Jr., has been nominated and accepted for military assistance duty in Ecuador. Major Price ends a four-year tour of duty at MTSC, the last two of which he was Professor of Military Science. He was awarded the master of arts degree in biology in May, 1963.

Major George Regas has already departed for a new assignment in Okinawa. Major Regas was at MTSC for four years and earned the master of arts degree in social science in 1963. Major Regas also received the XII US Army Corps Certificate of Achievement for his performance of duty while stationed at MTSC.

Lt. Col. James Christberg succeeded Major James Price as professor of Military Science 1 July. He comes to MTSC from a second tour of duty in Korea.

Classes Moved As Old Auditorium Conversion Continues Expansion

Classes in education, social science and mathematics have been distributed to the Business, Fine Arts and Theater Building this summer as the walls of the central section of the old Administration Building come tumbling down.

Low bidder for the work on the renovation of the old auditorium and four floor pent house of the administration building at Middle Tennessee State College went to the Commerce Construction Company of Nashville for a base price of $326,000, according to Dr. Quill E. Cope, president of MTSC.

The first phase of the construction, which started June 6, will be the conversion of the pent house into one major lecture room, seating 125 persons on elevated seats around the instructional theatre and several offices. Coinciding with this work will be the construction of a solid wall from the ground floor and enclosure of the old stair wells in fireproof exterior walls. These first two construction projects are to be finished by September 15.

The old auditorium and ground floor area beneath will be converted over a six month period into 13 classrooms, 37 offices, typing rooms, rest rooms, and storage facilities. The major portion of these facilities will be used as an addition to the present Business Building. All of the units will be completely air-conditioned.

The Commerce Construction Company, low bidder on this project, was in charge of the work that converted the old gymnasium into the present Business Building in 1958-59.

Administrative offices have been kept open in the Administration Building, but the front entrance has been closed as new floors have been installed there.

LT. GERALD DAVIDSON DIES IN VIET-NAM

Lt. Gerald W. Davidson, a native of Oak Ridge and an August 1962 graduate at Middle Tennessee State College, was killed in action in Viet-Nam early in June when the helicopter which he was a passenger crashed as a result of enemy activity.

Lt. Davidson becomes the first gold star of the Far East crisis to be added to the MTSC gold star service banner.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hester Davidson of Oak Ridge and was a cadet lieutenant in the ROTC corps here.

Assistant Business Manager J. O. Gist, is an MTSC alumnus. He succeeds T. B. Woodmore. He was previously chief accountant for U. S. Rubber Company plants at Shelbyville and Castoria, N. C.

Dr. Hill, Speaker At Summer Close; 630 Degrees in '64

Dr. Henry Hill, president emeritus of Peabody College, will deliver the commencement address for the August session of the 1964 senior class at Middle Tennessee State College, in traditional exercises on Jones Field at 5 o'clock Friday, August 21. Following the graduation the class members and their families will enjoy the traditional alfresco barbecue supper. John Finney, state board member, editor of the Daily Herald of Columbia, will confer degrees.

This section of the graduating class has 110 tentative candidates for the Bachelor's degree and 71 for the Master of Arts. Thus the 1964 classes become the largest in the history of the college. With the conferring of the August degrees 527 Bachelor and 103 Master's degrees will have been awarded to members of the January, May and August classes.

There are 15 graduate students and four undergraduate students who will receive "academic honors"—indicative of an undergraduate average of 3.5 and a Graduate average of 3.75 in the August class.

Undergraduate academic honors go to Mildred G. DeBois, Nashville; Mrs. Barbara Lee Calvert Dial, Culleoka; Mrs. Elizabeth Smith Love, Chattanooga; and Brenda Pylant, Fayetteville.

Graduate students designated for "Academic Honors" include James B. Akin, Franklin; Charles Worthy Babb, Nashville; Robert Murrell, Blair, Murfreesboro; Jesse L. Brawner, Lascassas; Betty Martella Burchett, Stambough, Ky.; Billie Jean Chrisman, Murfreesboro; Margaret Stephens Crockett, Wartrace; Joyce Compton Farmer, Rockvale; Robert L. Meyer, Traverse City, Michigan; Mildred Patricia Morton Rogers, Murfreesboro; Vincent J. Rogers, Murfreesboro; Vincent J. Rogers, Murfreesboro; Vincent J. Rogers, Murfreesboro.

Summer Term Sets Enrollment Mark; 2,335 Students Here

A total of 2,131 students are registered for the first term of the summer semester at Middle Tennessee State College, according to John Weems, dean of admissions. This number includes 120 registered for the Aviation Workshop, the majority of whom are graduate students and 69 registered for the Science Institute, all of whom are graduate students. An additional 18 persons have registered to audit the Institute.

One hundred and eighty three new students registered for the second term.

This is the largest summer school enrollment of the college since the days of the Normal school back in the early 1920's. This also includes the largest Freshman Class ever to enroll at summer school. There is a total of 348 men and 264 women enrolled in the Freshman Class. Of this number 278 are May graduates from Tennessee high schools. There are 301 students enrolled in the graduate school, virtually all of whom are working toward the Master of Arts degree.

Seventy members of the National Science Foundation Institute at Middle Tennessee State College pause with their instructors as the half-way mark of the summer program is reached. Sixteen of this group are scheduled to complete three summers work and a thesis this summer, requirements for the Master of Arts degree. More than 500 applications were received for the 70 available scholarships, according to Dr. J. Eldred Wiser, director of the Institute (third from left front row). There are 35 Tennesseans in the group. Georgia has seven teachers attending and Kentucky five. Other states which have science or mathematics teachers participating in the program are Alabama, Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Texas and Virginia.

Cadets "Break Camp" At Fort Bragg Following Officer Training Stint

"Home from the boondocks" will be the theme of 26 ROTC cadets as they break camp at Fort Bragg, N. C. Friday of this week and head for home. During the past six weeks the cadets have undergone the rigorous training which is the proving ground for second lieutenants.

Dr. Robert Corlew and Dr. Bealer Smotherman were the official observers from the college administration on behalf of Dr. Quill E. Cope. Both returned from Fort Bragg last week with fine reports on the progress made by the MTSC cadets.

Cadets from MTSC are Edward G. Alexander, Dayton; Samuel T. Baker, Lobelville; Kenny F. Burnett, Chattanooga; James D. Childress, Lawrenceburg; Ronald R. Coleman, Murfreesboro; Ronald W. Cooper, Murfreesboro; James A. Ealy, Murfreesboro; John E. Fuqua, Donelson; John Furgess, Nashville; John E. Helton, Nashville; William G. Hill, Shelbyville; David R. Kinney, Murfreesboro; Frank D. McClanahan, Nashville; Jerry M. Morris, Nashville; Albert C. Ogles, Murfreesboro; Jerry E. Owens, Dora, Ga.; Jack B. Painter, II, Lafayette; Mack R. Rhea, Nashville; William H. Settle, Murfreesboro; John L. Smith, Tullahoma; David B. Terry, Nashville; Wallace F. Thacker, Goodlettsville; Howard I. Thompson, McMinnville; Samuel R. Weatherspoon, Nunnally; James N. Williams, Huntsville, Alabama; Anthony F. Zimmerman, Smyrna.

At summer camp, the cadets get their first taste of Army life. They lived in Army barracks, ate Army chow and placed in various positions where their ability to exercise leadership and command is under the constant scrutiny of the formidable "Tactical Officers and NCO's."

Members of the MTSC military science department instructional staff who will be at the summer camp include Sgt. Don Finley, Master Sgt. Harold Fleming, Capt. Wiley Higgins, Sgt. Lanny Holmes, Sgt. Olin Lewis, Sgt. Robert Luther, Major John McConnaughey, Major Robert Ogg, Capt. Ben Parsely, and Master Sgt. Thomas Simmons.

Five New Members Selected By APO

At the recent banquet of Alpha Psi Omega, an honorary dramatic fraternity, five new members were initiated into the Lambda Gamma Cast of Middle Tennessee State College.

The new members were Martha Campbell, Mrs. Cory Carrilo, Bob Crowder, Linda Gilmore, and Pat Murphy.

The banquet was held at the Omni Hut and the new fall officers were elected. Carleton Sivells from Tullahoma was elected Grand Director.

The other officers elected were Stage Manager, Jan Allred from Nashville, Business Manager, Martha Campbell from Murfreesboro, and Board Member, Don Massey from Whitwell. The fraternity sponsor is Mrs. Dorethe Tucker.

Miss Putman Conducts North Carolina Workshop

Miss Margaret Putman, Head, Home Economics Department was invited a second year as a visiting professor to teach at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, Greensboro, North Carolina. Miss Putman taught from June 22-July 3, 1964, conducting a Home Economics Education Workshop for in-service vocational home economics teachers.

High School Band Members Offer Sunday Concert

One hundred and twenty-five outstanding members selected by the band instructors from twenty-two high schools representing Tennessee, Indiana, Georgia and Alabama are attending the fourteenth annual music camp at Middle Tennessee State College this week. The camp is under the direction of Horace Beasley and Joseph Smith of the MTSC music staff assisted by band directors Bill Hull and Tom Tucker, Columbia, Tenn.; James Williamson, Harriman, Tenn.; Bobby Lee, Pulaski, Tenn.; Joe Van Sickle, Smyrna; and Kenneth Pace, Murfreesboro.

The largest delegations are from Tullahoma, Columbia and Murfreesboro bands. Tullahoma has 37, Columbia has 23 and Murfreesboro has 25 participants.

The annual camp will be concluded with a concert on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Tennessee Room of the Union Building. Guest soloist, Raymond Young, from Mississippi Southern will be featured on the baritone during the program.

Mr. Freeman Again At President's Conference

O. L. Freeman, professor of industrial arts at Middle Tennessee State College since 1934, participated in the President's Conference on "Occupational Safety" for the second time. Mr. Freeman, state representative in industrial education for the past eight years, participated in the 1960 workshop during Eisenhower's administration.

Mr. Freeman was in Washington during the week of June 22. The first workshop session was held in Constitutional Hall on June 23. Mr. Freeman's invitation came from Secretary of Labor, Willard Wirtz.

Miss Cummings, Mr. McGhee Are Married At Portland

Charles R. McGhee and Miss Ann Cummings were married on June 13 in Portland, Tennessee. Mr. McGhee is working as Water-Front Director at Camp Boxwell on Old Hickory Lake this summer. He plans to enter graduate school at Louisiana State University in September to work toward the Ph.D. degree in Biology.

Mr. McGhee, a native of Chattanooga, received both of the B.S. and M.A. degrees from MTSC and has served in the U.S. Air Forces. While a student at MTSC he was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and was a member of the Sigma Club.

More Foreign Students Expected On Campus When Fall Semester Opens

American colleges and universities are the hosts for many international students from the world over. Presently, there are 70,000 or more students on American campuses. It is expected that by 1970 this number will exceed 100,000. This increase will effect our international population in this country; and, Middle Tennessee State College will have its share of these students. This fall there will be more than a score foreign students on the campus.

Middle Tennessee State College is well-equipped in certain fields

Dr. Wiser Listed On NSF Panel

Dr. J. Eldred Wiser, head of the chemistry and physics department at MTSC, will be a panelist for the evaluation of the proposals for the 1965 National Science Foundation Summer Institutes to be held in Washington, D.C. July 23-25.

The evaluations provided by the panel will determine, in large measure, the proposals which will be supported by the NSF next year.

MTSC has had such an Institute, under direction of Dr. Wiser, since 1959. This year there were 70 students selected from more than 500 applicants for the 12 weeks scholarship here.

There are 35 Tennesseans in the Institute. Other states which have science or mathematics teachers participating are Georgia, Kentucky, Alabama, Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Texas and Virginia.

Joe Smith In Demand As Band Camp Aide

Joseph T. Smith, director of marching bands at MTSC, will participate in a series of six summer band camp and music clinics.

The first was in Chicago the week of July 13. Others will be at Pine Mountain Georgia August 17-22; Louisville, Ky., August 29-30; Orangeburg, S.C., September 2-3; Denmark, S.C., September 7-8 and the Cresendo Music Camp at Louisville, Ky., September 11-12.

Mr. Smith will lecture, give marching demonstration techniques, ??? and drum instructions at these several band camps.

Coach Murphy On State Football Clinic Staff; Bid Made To NCAA

Season football tickets for members of the MTSC faculty are now on sale at the athletic office.

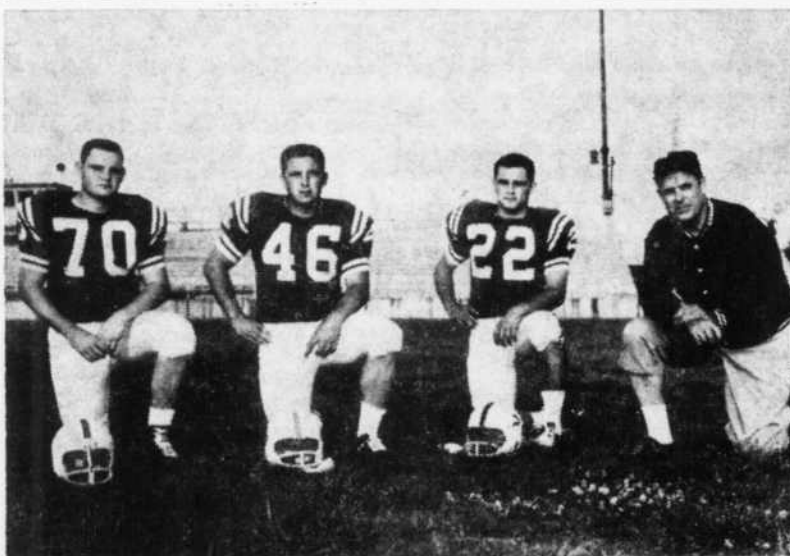

Coach Charles M. Murphy will lecture on "The Sprint Out Pass Series" at the TSSAA coaching clinic at Cookeville July 28-31. The Blue Raider head football coach will be in charge of the 9:05-10:05 session Friday, July 31.

Coaches Joe Black Hayes and Don Lear attended the Ohio Valley Conference "Official Rules Interpretation" meeting at Louisville on July 11.

Sports information director Bob Brooks will attend the workshop of the College Sports Information Directors of America in Chicago August 4-7.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce of Murfreesboro has put in a bid for the Mid-East College Division Football Championship Game to be played in December. The local civic club is competing with Louisville, Ky., Toledo, and Akron, Ohio for the newly sponsored NCAA game.

Jack Haley, one of the Blue Raider golf stars, finished 9th in the NCAA College Division Championship at Springfield, Mo. last month.

Martin Elected; Shipp Praises

Kenneth Shipp, MTSC alumnus now coach of offense for the University of Miami, praised the MTSC coaching staff and the record of his Alma Mater at the Blue Raider Club meeting here this week. Shipp said he was "never ashamed" when his coaching staff was introduced to new players (whether in the professional league in which he had coached or elsewhere) to be designated as one of Coach Charles Murphy's products. Shipp was for one year a member of the MTSC staff following his graduation from college.

Coach Murphy gave a report on the football prospects for the fall, indicating that the Raiders might have some inexperienced material at tackle and end but that the backfield would be in excellent shape.

Coach Bill Stokes said he was well pleased with the way the Raider roundballers were developing. The OVC tournament in December, he said, would provide great impetus for the team. About 250 seats at Louisville will be allocated to MTSC followers.

David W. Martin, local insurance man and former radio broadcaster for MTSC sports over the Raider network, was elected president of the Blue Raider Club. He succeeds John Bragg, Murfreesboro publisher. Other officers elected at the Tuesday night dinner meeting were B. B. Gracy III, vice-president; Monte Hale, secretary and Herman Jones treasurer.

Martin is now associated with the Equitable Life Assurance Company. He is a member of the Rotary Club, the Methodist church and last year was chairman of the Rutherford County UGF. Mr. Gracy is an MTSC alumnus and World War II veteran. Mr. Hale is associated with radio WGNS. Mr. Jones, another great MTSC booster, is in the insurance business and a city councilman.

MTSC Vet's Club Sponsors Hootenany

The MTSC Veterans' Club, in order to raise funds to support their loan scholarship fund that was established last year, are sponsoring a "Hootenany" at Stewarts drive-in restaurant on July 24 from 7:00-10:00 p. m.

The program will be on WGNS from 7:00-8:00 p. m. and the regular program will continue after that time. Some of the talent performing is Ken Lord, Sandy Dodd, Gary Simmons, Perry Potts, Steve Goforth, and others. Proceeds from sales at the Drive-In will go towards the Veteran's Club scholarship fund.

DR. RIEL ATTENDS LAKES DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE

Dr. Fran Riel, head of the department of health, physical education and recreation has returned from a conference of a few selected leaders to study the potential educational use of the "Land Between the Lakes." This area in Stewart county, Lyon and Trigg counties, Kentucky, is to be developed as a part of the Barkley Dam project.

Dr. Riel expressed the belief that the area would prove of great economic value as the long shore line and extensive facilities are developed.

Helen Stevens, assistant professor of home economics at Middle Tennessee State College, was invited to serve as a visiting teacher at the University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri in the session from July 13 to August 13. Her duties will include the teaching of residence courses as a part of the home management area in home economics.

Western, Raiders Will Kick Off OVC Meet

Western Kentucky and Middle Tennessee will launch the 1964 Ohio Valley Conference basketball tournament to be held at Louisville's Convention Center Dec. 21, 22 and 23.

Enthusiasm over resumption of an OVC tournament, after a nine-year lapse, is extremely high according to Art Guepe, OVC commissioner.

WESTERN AND MTSC clash at 1 p. m. on opening day, followed by a game at 3 p. m. between Austin Peay College and Eastern Kentucky, runnerup for the OVC title in the past basketball campaign.

On the opening night program, East Tennessee meets Tennessee Tech at 7 p. m. and Morehead tangles with the 1964 conference champions, Murray, at 9 p. m.

MURRAY WAS seated first for the purpose of pairings, with Eastern second.

The last OVC tournament was held in 1955 and was won by Eastern Kentucky.

Commissioner Guepe feels that the 1964 tourney will create as much good basketball as did the last one, but he said yesterday it is almost too much to expect that as many fine athletes will emerge from this one.

"THREE OF THE players who took part in the last tourney are now coaching in the OVC, and another is a major league pitcher," Guepe said.

OFFICIALS FOR the tournament will include two Nashvillians, John McPherson and David Scobey. The others are Leonard Wirtz, Mt. Healthy, Ohio and George Conley, Ashland, Ky.

Hester Rogers Ray Scholarship For Art Established

The Hester Rogers Ray Memorial Fund in the amount of $5000.00 has been established with the Middle Tennessee State College Loan, Scholarship and Development Foundation. This memorial fund is established for the late Mrs. Hester Rogers Ray by her husband, Mr. D. E. Ray of Jackson, Tennessee, and her brothers, Walter F. Rogers, Jacksonville, Florida; S. G. Rogers, Okemah, Oklahoma, and J. Lee Rogers, Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

The interest of which will be used as an award to a senior art major. The recipient of this award will be an art major who has shown a fine commitment for the teaching of art, a genuine compassion for people, and competence in subject matter areas. Willingness to work hard and demonstrated loyalty to the college and to the Art Department are also factors to be considered.

Mrs. Ray taught art at Middle Tennessee State College for over twenty-five (25) years and made very significant contributions to the development of this department at Middle Tennessee State College.

Geography Tour Europe, Africa, Asia Ends Friday

Dr. Ed Baldwin and his Middle Tennessee State College tour of Europe and the Middle East arrived in New York at 3:35 Friday afternoon. Some of the party are visiting the World's Fair in New York before returning home.

The party visited three continents, touring some of the places in the Holy Land, Egypt and the Mediterranean area off the beaten path of tourists as the group was especially interested in the points of geographical and historical importance.

This is the second overseas tour sponsored by the college under Dr. Baldwin's direction. Previously he has guided tours to Canada, Hawaii, Mexico and both the Southeastern and Western United States.

To date, three new officers have been assigned to the military department and are due to arrive in the summer. Lt. Colonel James Chrietberg, Jr., has been assigned as Professor of Military Science. Lt. Colonel Chrietberg's last assignment was in Korea.

Dr. Cunningham Named Director School Of Business-Industry

Dr. Firman L. Cunningham has been named director of the School of Business and Industry at Middle Tennessee State College, Murfreesboro, Tennessee. The appointment was effective July 1, 1964 according to Dr. Quill E. Cope, president of the college.

Dr. Cunningham received the B.S. degree from MTSC in 1947, the M.S. from the University of Tennessee and the Ph.D. from Vanderbilt University. He was head of the Business Department at Bluefield College, West Virginia before coming to MTSC in 1952 as a member of the economics faculty.

The School of Business and Industry at Middle Tennessee State College was established in June 1964 in an attempt to offer a comprehensive and integrated business program for all students in the fields of business and industry.

As a means of achieving this objective the Department of Economics was transferred from the Department of Social Science to the new School. The present Business Department is to be divided into three new departments. The new department will offer specialized work in Accounting, Business Administration and Management, and Business Education.

The business curriculum will be completely reorganized and a great deal more emphasis will be placed on marketing, management and finance courses. Reorganization should be completed by September 1965, according to Dr. Cunningham.

Dr. Cunningham served as a captain in the United States Army, Infantry, the European theatre in World War II. He received the Purple Heart, the Silver Star, the Bronze Star and a unit citation. He is a major in the United States Army Reserve, teaches an adult Bible class and serves as a deacon in the First Baptist Church of Murfreesboro and is active in civic affairs.

In recent years he has participated in Contemporary Economics seminars at the University of Virginia and has served as a director of the Tennessee Economic Education Council.

Dr. Cunningham is married to the former Lorraine Jones. They have two sons—Wayne and Paul.

The new School of Business and Industry at MTSC will also have departments of Agriculture, Industrial Arts and Military Science coming under the administrative supervision of Dr. Cunningham.

NSF Grants $6,000 For Science Program

The sum of $6000 has been granted to Middle Tennessee State College by the National Science Foundation for support of an "Undergraduate Instructional Scientific Equipment Program."

This grant is under the direction of J. Eldred Wiser, Department of Chemistry, and terminates on June 30, 1966.

The grant is made with the understanding that the Federal funds will be matched from non-Federal sources to the extent of at least fifty per cent of the direct costs of the project.

The money will be used to bolster the equipment in classes of chemical analyses, an area which is becoming increasingly important.

Two social science faculty members have been selected for research trips abroad. They are Professor Tom VanDervort, who will go to Strassbourg to do research on the European Assembly and Hans Mueller, who will spend the fall semester in research on the Common Market.

Curtiss Scott, assistant professor of business law at MTSC, was named as vice-president of the South region, American Business Law Association, at the April meeting in Birmingham, Alabama.

Second Guidance Workshop Will Run July 27-Aug. 14

The second of two workshops for guidance workers will begin Monday to run for three weeks. Members of the state's education, welfare and employment security departments are holding the workshop at MTSC for the purpose of working out a unified approach to the problems of dropouts and the development of technically trained manpower. Twenty nine are attending the workshop which closes Friday.

The workshop will deal with the shift toward job placement that is taking place in traditional vocational education programs and the expansion of technical training that is being made available by the state's growing system of area and regional technical schools and institutes.

MEMBERS OF TENNESSEE AERONAUTICS WORKSHOP FLY

Members of the Tennessee Bureau of Aeronautics Education workshop wait turn for a ride in a Highway Patrol helicopter in front of the Science Building as a climax to five weeks of intensive study and travel. Workshop members, 132 Tennessee teachers, visited Cape Kennedy, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, the Oklahoma Federal Aviation Agency school, Sewart Air Force Base, the Arnold Engineering Development Center and Berry Field during the five week workshop. Advanced workshop members and the staff members spent a weekend on an aerial tour of Tennessee airports. Dr. Bealer Smotherman and Miller Lanier of the MTSC staff headed the staff of what has become known as the "best Aerospace Workshop in the nation".
