Lyon Stunt Takes First, Ag Club Places Second

By Pam Hasty

Betty Willard, a junior at MTSC, was elected Miss Midlander at the annual Biology Club stunt night. Betty was selected over eight other contestants in the beauty contest sponsored by the annual staff. Selected as the Miss Midlander court were Faye Burton and Margaret Cantrell.

Individual clubs on the MTSC campus sponsored the girls in the contest. Betty was sponsored by the ROTC Track and Sabre Club, Faye by the Home Economics Club, and Margaret by the Buchanan Players. Other contestants were Marie Frances, sponsored by the SNEA, Amelia Hinds, sponsored by the P. E. Club, Bonnie Slatton, sponsored by the Circle K Club, Mary Ellen Lewter, and Mary Boyde, sponsored by the Veterans Club.

Masters of Ceremonies for the evening was Roger Landers, a member of the Biology Club. Stunts were presented by many of the school organizations. Winning stunts were presented by Lyon Hall, first place; Agriculture Club, second place, and Monohan Hall, third place.

Harp Singers Tour Schools In State, Plan Trip To D.C.

By Sarah Jones

The eleven members of MTSC's Sacred Harp Chorus have just completed a spring tour. On Monday, April 18, they appeared at Manchester and Smyrna high schools, Tuesday at Isaac Litton high school and the Nashville Civitan Club, and Wednesday at McMinnville Central and Jasper high schools. The group performed at Tyner in Chattanooga and Dalton high school, Dalton, Georgia, on Thursday. On Friday they sang at Red

Pre-Registration Plan Will Eliminate Chaos

Congestion of registration days will be virtually eliminated if students will pre-register for the summer and for the fall semester at days designated during April and May, Dean N. C. Beasley announced this week.

The special committee of the faculty, appointed to study means for eliminating all the woes incident to the spring semester registration, has provided for summer semester pre-registration from April 18 to April 30. Dates for the fall semester registration will be announced later—but will be during the month of May.

Payment of fees for the summer registration will be on May 2 or between the dates May 23 and May 28. Persons who do not complete registration by payment of summer fees by May 28 will have to return June 6 and go through the entire registration procedure.

Persons completing the registration procedures who do not decide to attend summer school may secure a refund of fees by executing a withdrawal form by June 4. The summer semester registration procedure as announced by Dean Beasley is given below.

1. The student arranges trial schedule with the advisor.
  2. The advisor gives to the student a packet containing schedule cards (3), address card, and automobile registration card.
  3. The student
    - a) fills out properly schedule cards and a trial schedule form for self.
    - b) clears with Dean of Students automobile registration and picture.
    - c) returns to advisor.
  4. Advisor
    - a) checks cards
    - b) approves schedule cards
    - c) gives to student signed one copy of trial sched.

Ellington Speaks As New Buildings Are Dedicated

By Kenneth Love

At the dedication of four buildings on the MTSC campus, two outstanding educators were honored, as two new dormitories were named in their honor.

Nathaniel Craig Beasley and Carl C. Sims are the men for whom Sims and Beasley Halls, men's dormitories, were named.

The men's dormitories each have a 104-bed capacity and were built at a total cost of $315,450. These dormitories were completed in late spring of 1959. John Charles Wheeler was the architect and the James A. Baker Company of Nashville was the general contractor.

Making the dedication of the dormitories were Edward Jennings of Liberty, a member of the State Board of Education, and J. H. Warf of Hohenwald, also a member of the board. Jennings presented Beasley Hall and Warf dedicated Sims Hall. Dr. Quill E. Cope, president of the college, accepted the dedications.

Governor Buford Ellington was the principle speaker at the ceremonies. He called attention to the fact that the four buildings cost over $1,000,000. The Governor went on to say, "With the continued help of the legislation and the Board of Education, we must expand our facilities that our children may meet the challenge of the world today." He stressed the four forms of security schools can afford children. They were physical, financial, political and spiritual. He added, "... that with this opportunity goes responsibility. We look to them now to face this responsibility."

Commissioner of Education Joe Morgan presented the new business and fine arts building to Dr. Cope. In the fine arts building are housed

The Library Staff has arranged for the library to be opened on an experimental basis for longer hours during the month of May. The library will be open each of the four Sundays in May (May 1, 8, 15, 22) from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. and will remain open until 10:00 p.m. the weeks of May 16-20 and May 23-26. These hours are in addition to the present schedule of hours which is: 7:45 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 7:45 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Friday, and 7:45 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Saturday.

Spring Semester Recital Presented By Young Artists

By Louise Sullivan

The music department of MTSC presented its first spring semester Young Artist Recital Tuesday evening, April 5, at eight o'clock in the Fine Arts Building Choral Hall.

The program consisted of Second Concerto for Tuba with Marvin Burton with the tuba and Mary Scott as accompanist; Prelude and Fugue in C Major, Wyona Jones, organist; and Sleep Song and Song of the Open, Joe Bass tenor, with Mary Scott as accompanist.

Other pieces were Chorale for Suite Gothic, Jean Blair, organist; Si Mes Vers Avient Des Ailes and Willie Is My Darlin',—Ann Wied-

'Light Up The Sky' Concerns Varied Theatrical Characters

By Nancy Johnson

Light Up The Sky, a hilarious comedy in three acts by Moss Hart, will be presented by the Buchanan Players May 4 and 5. The director, Mrs. Dorethe Tucker, was encouraged to do a Hart play by the enthusiasm with which his book, Act 1, was received by the reading public in recent months; it was at the top of the best seller list for several weeks.

The play concerns an unusual assortment of theatrical producers and cast members. Portraying these unusual characters will be Bruce Hancock, Carolyn Duck, Bonnie Hudgens, Sara Croft, Burt Barrett, Joyce Edens, Dickie Barnes, David Gammons, Roger Wilderson, Tommy Mason, Larry Robinson, Joe Bartha, Roy Landrum and James Gentry.

Agnes Carlson is the assistant director, and the MTSC art department is in charge of posters and set design.

CAROLYN DUKE and Sara Croft take time out during rehearsal of the spring production of the Drama Club, which will be given May 4 and 5.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR--- A Word About Teachers --

To the Editor:

The most vital asset of any college is its faculty. A college may be very small in size, but if it has a sincere and dedicated faculty it will maintain a large and respected place, not only in the hearts of its students but also in the community.

I feel that our colleges, and not simply this college, are in dire need of more qualified professors.

The life of a teacher is not a bed of roses, and before one decides to enter the teaching profession he should be very sure that hard work, long days and short pay is exactly what he wants from life.

A teacher must have many qualities which an ordinary layman, in most cases, will not have. He must be very kind, patient and understanding. He must have a strong sense of responsibility, a sense of humor and a sincere desire to serve humanity.

A good teacher must be able to handle many awkward situations and he must be constantly aware of the needs of his students. He must be trustworthy, respectful and tactful.

Many people have entered the teaching profession with no real aim, and the ability and psychological status of their students has been the proof of the very distasteful pudding.

A teacher must be very dedicated, for his only reward is found in the success of his students. A good teacher is a rare gift and he is the backbone of democracy. A sincere teacher is often able to make a good student, but a poor teacher will inevitably ruin many promising students. A teacher who is able to present his subject in such a way as to hold the interest of his students is very gifted, for the mind of a student is like a television set, and when he becomes bored he simply changes the channel.

Our classrooms are over-crowded so give us room, teachers. Leave domestic and personal problems at home. A teacher who loses self-control loses his student as well as his effect as a teacher. This type person is an insult and a hindrance to the many good teachers on our faculty.

A wise and intelligent person recently stated that he did not mind being associated with a small college as long as he was not among small men and women. Let us be small only in size, not in mind and morals. Let us seek true wisdom and understanding through Christ, the greatest of all teachers, and like Christ let us seek to aid humanity, not to conquer it.

Anna Elizabeth Abel

To The Editor:

Here are a few facts that should interest every college graduate. As a matter of fact, it should not only interest them... it should compel them to see their Navy Recruiter.

Fact number one—as a college graduate you are eligible for the Navy's great Officer Candidate School, OCS.

Fact number two — you're eligible regardless of your marital status.

Fact number three—after only 16 weeks of intensive training at OCS, you become a part of a great national heritage and serve your country with pride in a position that is famel.

This is a mere suggestion of all the facts, but one final one must be stated: it's a fact that OCS offers unparalleled opportunity to the college graduate who can qualify. See your Navy Recruiter and prove for yourself that the Navy means opportunity to you.

Southern Glossary Put In Congressional Record

With a soft southern accent filling the Senate chamber these days Senator Barry M. Goldwater (R-Arizona) today put into the Congressional Record what he called a word list to help other senators understand what the southerners are saying:

Here is a part of Goldwater's tongue-in-cheek glossary of Southern talk:

Abode—Wooden plank
A boot—Approximately
Ain't—Sister of one of your parents
Beckon—Meat from a pig, often eaten with the aigs for break-fuss.
Bone—Blessed event, i.e., "I was bone a Southerner." (A very blessed event in the minds of all southerners.)

Braid—What you make toe-est from along with beckon and aigs for breakfast.

Caller—Part of a shirt that goes around the neck.

Coarse—Certainly

Harmony—Cooked grits.

Hominy—What number?

Lucid—Leggo it.

Minuet—You and I have dined.

Pastor—Field where cows graze.

Poet—To transfer a liquid, i.e., "Poet from the pitcher to the glass."

Rah chair—Where you are at.

Sane—Speaking, i.e., "I can hardly hair what he's sane."

Tarred—Weary

Wretched—The long name for my brother "Dick".

Yawl—Mode of address used by N'Yawkers when visiting in the South.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Thanks go to former MTSC student Carole Tyler,

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God.—(1 John 3:1)

Each of us came into this world filled with the love, the good, of our Heavenly Father. We depart from them through our own wilfulness, selfishness. But even then God continues to love us as His children, ever ready through our prayers, to forgive an help us.

Rutledge Ramblings

Old Spring Fever Even Hits Doors

By Holland Bratton

As spring comes, everything and everyone feels like just quitting. It seems a bad case of spring fever hit the doors coming into the lobby. They refused to be locked. The hostess, Mrs. Bass, a policeman and the night watchman tried to coax the doors into cooperating, but nothing worked. Fortunately, only a few people knew of the trouble, and they were consoled by the fact that the night watchman watched the dorm for the complete night. Just goes to show you never know what won't work! next.

The Rutledge Hall Theatre had a very busy night on the 4th. Every seat in the lobby was occupied as girls flocked to see the presentation of the Academy Awards. The whole lobby entrance was filled, and everybody abandoned books! Popcorn and cokes were circulating like crazy. Some of the kiddies on the front row even brought their pillows and sat on the floor. Everyone seemed to enjoy an evening's entertainment together.

A. J., Rosa Ponders Exhibit Paintings

Paintings and drawings by Alfred J. and Rosa Lea Pounders were recently on view in the MTSC art gallery. The exhibit, which coincided with the opening of the Fine Arts Building April 6, drew favorable comment from many visitors.

Alfred Pounders, instructor of art at Peabody College, is a graduate of the Allbright School of Fine Arts in Buffalo and Cornell University. Mrs. Pounders teaches private art classes in Nashville.

Although well within the confines of temporary art, the work of these two Nashville artists is essentially figurative. The subject matter of the oil paintings is still-life, figure and landscape. The water colors are mostly landscapes.

A one-man exhibit of the work of Howard Hull, senior art student at Middle Tennessee State, from May 1 to 10 and the annual student Art Exhibition, May 17-30, will complete the current series of the college exhibition program.

who is now secretary to Congressman McDowell of Delaware, for passing along the above contribution.

Jones Jive

Another Male Moves Into Jones

By Kay Parker

Bobby Parks is going to have a little competition since the girls at Jones are going to have another man in the dorm. The college is honoring us with a portrait of the first president of MTSC, President Jones. We are very proud to be in the dorm which is named for the first president of this college.

Several of the Jones girls were participants in Stunt Night. From the Home Economics Club were Elizabeth Huff, Linda Wopdall and Helen Davidson. We discovered that we had some real cowgirls living in Jones.

On the night of the Academy Awards, there was not so much studying going on. A good deal of the girls were in the lobby sitting close to the television. There were several sighs as movie stars came on the scene, and several ayes and nays as the awards were given out.

Spring fever is really here now. The girls were all glad to go home for that spring vacation.

Last, but definitely not least, we were all looking anxiously for the Easter Bunny. No matter when it comes, after Easter, everyone is sure that spring is truly here to stay.

the music and art departments, under the direction of Mr. Neil Wright and Dr. Clarence Greever. Sam Nelson Construction Company of Shelbyville was the contractor for this building. The building features an art gallery on the third floor and two one-story wings for band and choral rehearsal work.

The business building, under the direction of Mr. E. W. Midgett, is the home of all business majors. It contains nine classrooms, ten offices, and secretarial soundproof transcription booths. Commerce Construction Company of Nashville was the general contractor.

Dr. Cope thanked the Ellington administration for its first $1,000, 000 budget and for the continuing interest of the administration in the college and its expansion program. Ellington's son, John Earl, is a graduate of the college and his daughter, Ann, is a freshman here this year.

Lane Boutwell presided and Doctors Belt Keathley and oward Kirsley gave the invocation and benediction. The college concert band and the Sacred Harp Singers provided music during the ceremony.

Harry Lee Neal, described as a country boy from a Tennessee mountain family, and Allison Nelson, a musical prodigy from Australia, met as fellow students of piano at Philadelphia's Curtis Institute of Music.

On New Year's day 1949 they were married, and since that time have traveled more than 400,000 miles. The interim has also produced three little Neals—Murray, age five, Mary Catherine, age three, and Alison Elise born December 5, 1957.

NELSON & NEAL

This remarkable family will appear at MTSC on Thursday, April 21, at 10:50 in another of the spring semester lyeuem numbers.

The Nelson and Neal story has been told by the Ladies Home Journal, on the Ralph's Edward's "This Is Your Life" show and in the best seller story of their experiences, Wave As You Pass, the legend painted on the back of their trailer, which has been seen by millions in every section of the United States.

Harp Singers - -

Band and Chattanooga City high schools. This is the twelfth annual tour of the Harp Singers.

On Tuesday evening, April 19, the group performed at the Civil War Banquet here in Murfreesboro. For this occasion they wore costumes and sang songs appropriate to the Civil War period.

This spring the group will travel to Washington, D.C. There, on June 3, in the Carter Barron Amphitheatre, they will sing at both the afternoon and evening performances of the twenty-fourth annual National Folk Festival.

MTSC's Sacred Harp Singers were organized in 1947. Under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Wright of the music department faculty, they sing a capella while sitting around a table in sixteenth century madrigal style. The music they perform consists of early English and Italian madrigals, sacred harp hymns and white spirituals, southern folk songs and ballads. Widely known for their many public appearances, the group has been presented at both state and mid-state Education Association Conventions. They have twice been presented on programs of the Sacred Harp Association in Georgia. In the spring of 1958 the group performed three times at the National Folk Festival, and in September of 1959 they appeared several times at the Tennessee State Fair.

Members of the Sacred Harp Singers this year are Patti Andrews, Barbara Simmons and Ann Weidrich, sopranos; Linda Johnson and Mrs. Wright, contraltos; Walter Anderson and Jerry Dooley, tenors; Glenn Arnold and John McDonald, baritones, and Nolan Barham and Bob Hollingsworth, basses.

ROTC Ball Theme Is "Evening In Paris," Anne Ellington Crowned As Queen

"An Evening in Paris" was the theme of the Middle Tennessee State College Track and Sabre Club military ball Thursday evening in the Alumni Memorial gymnasium. There, Anne Ellington, MTSC freshman, was crowned by her father, Governor Buford Ellington, as Queen of the 1960 military ball. Wearing white and attended by her court of co-sponsors of the brigade who were attired in pastel gowns, Anna passed under a 20-foot replica of the Arc de Triumph, escorted by Cadet Colonel Horace G. Taylor, brigade commanders from Auburn-town.

The attendants and escorts were Janice Miller and Cadet Lt. Col. Charles R. Lowe, Nancy Whitworth and Cadet Major Charles E. Cobb, Amelia Hinds and Cadet Major Jerry W. Cavender, Mary Lewter and Cadet Major Willie D. Arnold, Sara Jane Croft and Cadet Major Horace McKenzie, and Betty Willard and Cadet Captain Alex M. Holder.

Sidewalk Theme

This tenth annual military ball at MTSC was the most elaborate of the many outstanding social successes of past years. More than 550 members of the Cadet Battle Group and their ladies participated, moving about the elaborately decorated gymnasium in which the mock up of the Arc of Triumph and the Eiffel Tower towered to a ceiling covered with midnight blue paper.

Sidewalk cafe scenes were replicas of some of the famous fronts along Parisian streets. The Tommy Dorsey Band, which appeared here five years ago, returned this year under direction of Warren Covington.

Captain Robert E. Nelson, assistant PMS&T, was narrator for the grand march and the presentation of the Queen.

Officers Reception

Preceding the ball and the crowning of the queen, the Cadet Commander and staff were hosts at a reception in the Tennessee room of the Union Building. In the receiving line were Cadet Major Charles E. Cobb, Chattanooga, Battle Group adjutant, Dr. and Mrs. Quill E. Cope, Governor and Mrs. Buford Ellington, Major General and Mrs. Frank S. Bowers, Judge and Mrs. Granville Ridley, Colonel and Mrs. Jack Roach, Major and Mrs. Quentin L. McNary, Cadet Colonel Horace Taylor, battle group commander, and Miss Bonnie Slaton, vice-president of the MTSC Associated Student Body.

General Bowers is the commanding General of the XII Corps, Judge Ridley is Civilian Advisor to the Secretary of Defense from Tennessee, Colonel Roach is deputy commander for operation of the 899th Air Division at Sewart Air Force Base and Major McNary is the PMS & T at MTSC.

The line of march for the presentation of cadet officers and their dates started with the cadet lieutenants and included Cadet Lieutenant and Mrs. Donald G. Porter, Covington L. Saunders and Ann Pearson, James L. Russell and Bonnie Wells, Billy G. Philpot and Bonnie Clark, Cadet Lieutenant and Mrs. Ronald G. Newman, Frank W. Larde and Betty Pemberton, James D. Johnson and Nancy Shoemate, Cadet Lieutenant and Mrs. James R. Holder, John T. Davis and Carolyn Allen, Cadet Lieutenant and Mrs. Eddie W. Davis, Jack E. Daniel and Miss Adelia Johnson, Charles M. Cook Jr., and Carolyn Norman, Cadet Lieutenant and Mrs. James L. Caldwell, William C. Boyers and Barbara Malone, Cadet Lieutenant and Mrs. Merriel T. Berry, Cadet Lieutenant and Mrs. Harold M. Batsel, Cadet Lieutenant and Mrs. Donald G. Adams.

Cadet Captain and Mrs. Ray M. Purvis, Roy H. Lynch and Ann Johnson, Cadet Captain and Mrs. James M. Lynch, Cadet Captain and Mrs. Lebron D. Griffith, and members of the Cadet Commanders staff, escorting the queen and her attendants.

This airplane is actually a flying classroom. The course taught in it is Air Navigation, under real conditions. The students are young men who have been selected as possible future leaders of the Aerospace Team. Graduation after 32 weeks of training will win each of the students the honored silver wings of an Air Force Navigator and an Officer's Commission.

For certain young men, this training can open the way to a bright career of executive potential. Right now the Air Force is scoring impressive technological advances in the fields of navigation, guidance and tracking, electronics and radar. And here is where its highly trained and experienced Navigators will be expected to take over command positions of increasing responsibility.

To qualify for Navigator training as an Aviation Cadet, you must be between 19 and 26½—single, healthy and intelligent. And you must want to build an exciting, interesting career in the Aerospace Age. If you think you measure up, we'd like to talk to you at the nearest Air Force Recruiting Office. ## Tracksters Break Records, Stomp ETSC By 93½ to 37½

Two school records were broken and a freshman cinder star uncovered in a rain-swept track meet last Saturday in which Middle Tennessee State College defeated East Tennessee State 93½ to 37½.

Two school records were set when Don Willingham went 12 inches in the pole vault to break the old record established by Manson amen of 11 feet, 6 inches, against Austin Peay in 1956. Porter Maxwell turned a 4:38 mile to break Bob Reed's record established in 1958 of 4:41, established against Western.

Frank Halliburton, the freshman flash, was high point man with 13.4 points. He won the 440 yard dash, ran second in the 880, tied for the high jump at 5 feet and 10 inches, and was anchor man on the winning relay team.

Maxwell came within five seconds of breaking the OVC two-mile record established by Milner Carden in 1956 at 10:23.

East Tennessee won only two events. Bill Roberts, the Buccaneer weight man, took the shot put and a second place in the discus throw, for 8 points and his team's best individual performance. Bob Mason led the field in the half-mile run.

Double winners for MTSC Saturday were Dick Swain, Ray Purvis (who hadn't had a single practice, and Maxwell, who ran a good two-mile.

100-yard dash—Purvis (M), Herring (F), Barrett (M). Time :10.3.

220-yard dash—Herring (M), Bright (E), Barrett (M). Time :22.5.

440-yard dash—Halliburton (M), Hedge (M), Bright (E). Time :52.8.

880-yard run—Mason (E), Halliburton (M), Jentow (M). Time 10:28.

1 mile run—Maxwell (M), Dillow (E), Casey (M). Time 4:38.

Two-mile run—Maxwell (M), Casey (M), Dillow (E). Time 10:28.

120-yard high hurdles—Swain (M), Rogers (E), Kessling (E). Time :15.5.

220-yard low hurdles—Swain (M), Kessling (E), Dubois (M).

P.E. Association Honors Miss Davis

Miss Buleah Davis, a member of the MTSC health and physical education department staff, was honored Friday afternoon at George Peabody College with recognition "for distinguished service" to the profession of health, physical education and recreation.

P. V. Overall presented the award on behalf of the Executive Committee of the Tennessee Association of Health, Physical and Recreation.

Miss Davis, a native of Cornersville, is an alumnus of MTSC and received the M.A. degree from Peabody, where she is continuing her graduate work.

She is a member of the American Association of University Women, secretary of the MTSC chapter of the American Association of University Professors, and holds membership in the state and national education and health, physical education and recreation associations.

Time :26.2. High Jump—Hayden (M) and Halliburton (M), tie for first: Bayes (E) and Dubois (M), tie for third. Height 5 feet 10 inches.

Pole vault—Willingham (M), Quillen (E), Swain (M). Height — 12 feet.

Broad jump—Purvis (M), Snyder (E), Batsel (M). Distance—21 feet 5 3/4 inches.

Shot put—Roberts (E), Watson (M), Mitchell (M), and Shutters (M). Tie for third. Distance—41 feet 10 inches.

Discus—Mitchell (M), Roberts (E), Bailey (M). Distance—137 feet 10 inches.

Mile relay—MTSC (Hedge, Haley, Escue, Halliburton). Time 3:42.

Raiders, Racers Meet In Thriller, Last Event Decides

Middle Tennessee lost it in the final event 69 1/3 to 61 2/3, but the Blue Raiders and Murray's Racers put on what was probably the most exciting track and field meet since the sport was revived here five years ago.

Ray (The Ghost) Purvis, Middle Tennessee's most outstanding athlete, Frank Halliburton, a freshman most likely to inherit Purvis' "most valuable" title, and Porter Maxwell, a long-winded distance man, were the main figures in the Raiders' fine showing against the defending OVC champions.

Purvis won three events including the 100 and 220 yard dashes, plus the broad jump.

Porter Maxwell was almost unopposed in the 2-mile event and also won the mile run in a school record time of 4:57. Buddy DuBois was a real surprise in the javelin throw winning the event with a school record toss of 151 feet, seven inches.

Halliburton, who was the star of the victory over East Tennessee, won the high jump with a 6 ft. 2 3/4 inch leap, placed second in the 880-yard run and was anchor man in a brilliant, but losing cause in the mile relay.

Observers speculated Halliburton was probably tired from participating in so many events, else he would have won the mile relay. The former Father Bob D. Ryan athlete finished about two feet behind the Murray man in an meet deciding event.

The meet drew a fine crowd of spectators despite an occasional April shower and rather uncomfortable cool weather. The enthusiasm for each event was high and was climaxed with the mile relay that sent Murray home with a victory.

The summary: 100-yard dash — Purvis (MT), Herring (MT), McCool (MS). Time—10.02.

220-yard dash—Purvis (MT), Hollowell (MS), McCool (MS). Time —22.9.

Along The Sidelines

By Ralph Englert

Enthusiasm + Variety = ???

In full bloom now, very much like the array of scented dogwood blossoms and buttercups spread about the campus, MTSC's spring sports activity is bubbling with high enthusiasm, enthusiasm very much like the euphonious note of robin red-breast.

Among the many sure signs of the seasonal change is the annual appearance of several members of the "HLC" (Hairy-Legs Club). Led by early-birds Porter Maxwell, Jack Corban, Clarence Law, Jim Hart, Danny Hill and many more of the Bermuda shorts clan, these boys seem to be getting the jump on other sun-tan seekers.

Spring Has Sprung!

And what, you may ask, is so unusual about that? Nothing much, except that the Blue Raiders may well be on the way to their best-ever showing, sportwise, for all-around spring-time splendor.

Speaking of enthusiasm, it has been argued by a well known newspaper man that is the very sign of loveliness. The adage, "Variety is the spice of life," is a misnomer to him. "Enthusiasm is," so he says, and to verify himself he recites Emerson's famous lines: "Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

Anyway, he never said what the aspect would show should there be a combination of them both. Naturally, spirit has nearly always been a sort of trademark with MTSC, and most any other school for that matter. But variety is something else. So well proportioned does each sport for the Raiders seem to be this spring, that it is quite evident they cannot be counted out entirely for any of the respective championships, be it either in the Tennessee Intercollegiate (TIAC) or Ohio Valley (OVC) conferences.

To what degree will this overall ability serve MTSC? The answer will be official come May 20-21, which are the dates of the season-ending OVC track, golf, and tennis meets, and baseball will already have its champion crowned. Incidentally, for those who are uninformed, MTSC will play host to both the OVC track and tennis meets. An added incentive to the Raiders' cause. The golf match will be held in Johnson City, scene of East Tennessee State College.

April 12, A Red Letter Date—

Amid the early season delights and expectancies, comes the unprecedented (as far as we know) feat by the Blue Raiders' big, happy sports family of conquering arch-rival Tennessee Tech in THREE separate sports within the time of a single afternoon!

Upon concluding the evening's mammoth schedule of events, all here in Murfreesboro, the scoreboard looked something like this:

MTSC—5	TPI—4 (Baseball)
MTSC—15	TPI—3 (Golf)
MTSC—5	TPI—2 (Tennis)

What about track? Patience please. The Raiders only had to wait 4 short days before they added the fourth phase to their "grand-slam," this time at Cookeville.

History In The Making—

Bonnie Hudgins is a happy girl these days. Permitted to play with MTSC's varsity tennis team, she is the first female in the history of the OVC to be allowed to do so. In the squad's initial match with TPI, she defeated her opponent convincingly, and served notice that her appearance on the team is no fluke.

Named the entire state's no. 2 amateur female player last year while playing in several area tournaments, Bonnie describes her eligibility all in one word. "Wonderful," she exclaimed, when asked about it, and she also had a few words to say about the whole team.

Although the team was beaten badly by Western Kentucky last week, she thinks they will improve steadily as the matches come and go. "Western is probably the best team we will face all year," she said, "and they will likely be the team to beat for the OVC." Western was the OVC champions a year ago, and they are supposed to be the so-called "terror" of the league again this time around.

By the way, Hudgins was not supposed to be the only female candidate for the team this spring. Another Bonnie, Bonnie Slatton, from Chattanooga, was to be the other "first" for MTSC. However, she became unavailable when it was revealed that she would have to work during the season.

This and That—

—Frank Halliburton, the bright, new freshman sensation from Nashville Ryan, is gaining more and more recognition for his track prowess. He is now being compared to ex-Raider all-around cinderman, Marvin Jinnette, who performed only a couple of seasons ago.

—David Dixon, the golf squad's no. 1 man, seems to waste little time in making up for earlier mistakes in recent matches. Playing rather poorly (for him) in the first rounds of the season's first two matches, he promptly recovered and played even par the last half at Florence, Alabama, (the only man able to do so), and against TPI he was 1-down to highly heralded John Ferguson at the turn, but only birdied the first four holes of the second nine to go ahead to stay and win by a slim margin.

—Buddy Dubois' record shattering toss in the javelin during a recent track meet serves as a fine example of the improvement in the field events division for MTSC (a considerable weak spot on the squad a year ago). The general feeling here is that several more records will be broken both for the school and the OVC before the season's end.

Three Victories Chalked In Tennis, Golf, Baseball

Middle Tennessee State won a triple-header victory over Tennessee Tech, produced a GIRL as the number two member of the tennis team, had three golfers fire below par scores in a golf match last Tuesday in the most successful single day of the spring sports season.

The baseball team won a 5-4 Frank Merriwell-type victory over the Eagles by virtue of Bill Settle's single after two were out in the ninth. Bonnie Hudgens led the Raider net team to a 5-2 victory. Miss Hudgens beat Harry Wilkerson in straight sets 6-0, 6-1. Joel Vinson fired ten below-par 62 to lead the MTSC golfers to a season's opening victory. David Dickson shot a 69, Douglas Hall a 71 and Farrell Walters an even par in the 15-3 golfing win.

The baseball game was one of the best played in recent years. John Stanford of the Raiders and Don Gerin of the Eagles engaged in a beautiful pitched game, marked by scintillating play afield.

Ed Seigfried had the honor of scoring the winning run, but he figured large in the offensive entertainment, hitting three singles, scoring twice and being put on base with the tie breaking tally by being hit by a pitched ball.

Ray Purvis had a home run in the sixth with Hill aboard to put MTSC ahead. Purvis had a home later.

Two were out in the ninth and the count went to 2-2 on Ed Seigfried, MTSC shortstop when he was hit by a pitched ball. Don Tassey hit a cripple pitch for an infield single. Mori Hill walked, loading the bases. On two previous occasions Bill Settle, Raider freshman first sacker, had been robbed of hits on well placed blows, by Tech rightfielder Ed Smith. This time Settle slashed a vicious line single between first and second and the game was the Raiders, 5-4.

Ed Clymore, Carrol Wright and Don Gorin got two hits each off the scattered nine blows John Stanford gave up. Jerry Flatt, Ed Smith and Gorin hit three base blows for the Eagles but only figured in the scoring.

Not only did Bonnie make a brilliant debut as a varsity tennis player (she is the second woman player on the MTSC varsity tennis team), but she was supported by excellent court play by Worthy Babb, Andre Duhaime and Hester Gibbs, who also won sigles matches.

The results:
Worthy Babb (MT) beat Jack Campbell 6-2, 5-7, 6-3; Andre Duhaime (MT) beat Jimmy Buford 6-0, 6-0; Hester Gibbs (MT) beat Bob Langston 6-2, 6-4; Dink Adams (TT) beat Fred Bonney 8-6, 3-6, 3-6, 6-3; Bonnie Hudgens (MT) beat Harry Wilkerson 6-0, 6-1.

Doubles

Campbell-Buford (TT) beat Babb-Leon Pruitt 4-6, 6-2, 6-3; Dunhalme-Gibbs (MT) beat Lancaster-Wilkerson 7-5, 4-6, 6-3.

The 15-3 golf victory over Tech resulted from the following play:

Joel (Baby Doll) Vinson fired a 62 over the par 72 layout, while David Dickson had a 69. Doug Hall and Farrell Walters shot 71 and 72 respectively.

Jack Merrill and Don Ferguson each shot two under 70s for the Golden Eagles.

The results:

David Dickson (MT) beat Don Ferguson 2-1, Doug Hall (MT) beat Jack Monroe 2-1, Dickson-Hall won foursome 3-0.

Joel Vinton (MT) beat Robert Odum 3-0, Vinson-Walters (MT) won foursome 2-1.

Fourth Victory Over Tech Comes As Tracksters Romp

Cookeville — Middle Tennessee State defeated Tennessee Tech's track team 80 to 51 Saturday as four Blue Raiders scored 10 points apiece.

Gene Watson won the shot put and the discus, while Porter Maxwell copped the mile and two mile. DuBois won the javelin, tied for the high jump, and placed third in the broad jump. Dick Swain took first in the 120-yard high hurdles, was second in the 220-yard low hurdles, and tied for second in the pole vault.

Ray Whited was the meet's top individual, getting 12 1/4 points for Tennessee Tech. He won the 220 and the 440, placed third in the high jump, and ran on the winning mile relay team. Winsted Russell scored 11 point for Tech, with first places in the 220-yard low hurdles and broad jump, plus a third in the high hurdles.

Raiders Fall To Vanderbilt By 12-6 Score As Mori Hill Stars In Baseball Opener

Sophomore Joel Porter, working seven innings in relief, pitched their first baseball victory of the spring here, defeating MTSC by 12-6.

Porter, a 6-1, 175-pound right-hander from Collierville, Tenn., gave the Raiders three hits and one earned run in his seven innings. He relieved Starter Wesley Elrod who was tagged for five hits and four runs in the first two innings.

It was Moore's line drive to center in the eighth which scored Mickey Kantor and Samuals to break a 6-6 tie and put the Commodores on top to stay.

Middle Tennessee State, opening its season, had Mori Hill as its top hitter. Hill, with a double and single in five trips to the plate, drove in two of the Raider runs.

"It was a much improved performance over our games at Florida," Vandy's Coach Harley Boss said. "We still made a lot of mistakes, but the men are giving full effort and that's what counts. I was really proud of Porter. He is a tough guy out there and did a fine job."

Vandy loaded the bases with one out in the first inning but failed to score. The Commodores failed to score. The Commodores put together three hits and took advantage of a pair of Raider errors in the second to go on top 2-0.

Jack Reavis' triple to right was the big lick for MTSC in the second when the Raiders scored four times. They came back to go ahead, 5-2 in the third when Bill Settle came home on an error at second after leading off the inning with a walk.

The Commodores drew within one run, 4-5, with a pair in the second. After the Raiders went ahead, 6-4, on a bouble by Hill, Vandy pushed across two runs in both the seventh and eighth innings.

A pair of hits, coupled with two errors and two walks netted Vandy four runs in the ninth to close the scoring.

Raider Roundup

By Paul Perry
Sports Editor

What's Wrong With The Raider Baseball Club?

A mystery to many followers of the warm and cold Raider baseball outfit is why the group hasn't produced so far as expected. For a flag sharer last season, and with the same group of boys back from that identical squad, this years show-ups look so far to be just an excuse for what the Raider fans were anticipating.

Just what is the trouble? Is it the lack of work? Havn't the Raiders got the material to produce a real OVC competer? Has the coaching staff failed in grooming thhe lads into their top playing form? Is it because the club has only one sound hurler, John Stanford? Could it be rumored player-coach conflicts? Or is there some other reason why the ball club lost to Austin Peay 15-14 and fell behind weak Belmont in late innings and lost? We think we have the answer, but we wouldn't lay any real gold on it.

We really think the problem confronting the club in the early stages of the campaign is the lack of work on both the pitching and run producing corners. Our strong belief is that after edging by Tennessee Poly in a close one a week ago, this Rolman-bossed club could give these other OVC boys plenty of hard moments, but the general feeling is that they won't unless a few miracles happen.

Also on the subject, much criticism has been thrown at the Raider instructing staff for the slow start these youngsters are off to. There could be some truth to the criticism because of the youthfulness of the headman Buck Rolman and his lack of experience with the fundamentals of the great past-time. That is mainly because of the kid mentor's age, game-wise, and therefore naturally some second guessers doubt his ability to run the ball club.

And again something that could have a bearing on this factor is the rumor of not-so-friendly attitudes between certain players and the club's field boss. If and when such circumstances do exist among a ball outfit, it most likely causes the John becomes ineffective when overworked.

Bengl John Can't Do it All

It seems that when lean slow-walking John Stanford strolls toward the mound to do the throwing for the Raiders, it gives confidence to the rest of the squad, because they know when this curve balling righthander has a normal day on the hill somebody on the opposing side is in for a rough time.

Most of the time this kid from Louisiana has sparkling control and changes his pitches up so that the hitters are so confused they don't know what theh Raider dealer will serve up next.

By being the league's ace hurler last campaign, the likeable crew-cut established an 8-1 record in leading the local unit to its status and a tie for first place. At present Stanford has a 2-3 mark. "At present" means when this info was penciled, but is expected to shhow improvement with work and time.

The dangerous and sad thing about the mound staff of the Raiders is that they have to use Stanford too much, and lanky department if he ever comes around. Stapleton was exceptional Southpaw Jerry Stapleton is expected to help the throwing department if he ever comes around. Stape was exceptional at times last season but has yet to work himself into effective form this campaign. Blue Raider catcher Ed Woodruff speaks of the fireballer as having the arm and potentiality of becoming a highly sought prospect. The rumor flows that the East Tennessean isn't willing to work the required time to develop his potential as a hurler.

Windup Blues

Apparently pigskin Coach Murphys tackle problems are solved with the recent rumor that 130 pound "Skinny" Martin will don a Raider uniform next fall.

McMinnville City High School's athletic department added ex-Raider footballer Ralph Adams to their staff as an assistant coach and teacher. The 29-year old kicking expert will report to his new duties next fall.

Another rumor and what a rumor, but there may be some real truth in it) has Tennessee Tech proposing the construction of a 40,000 seat football stadium in Cookeville in the near future. This info was dished by the TPI student newspaper recently. Also included will be a new field house with accommodations for some 15 to 20 thousand fans, wrote Tech editor Jim Kennedy.

Ohio Valley Conference basketball ace for the past two seasons, Jimmy Hagan of Tennessee Tech, was picked up by the Minneapolis Lakers of the National Basketball Association in their annual drafts one week ago.

Ray Purvis, Raider, versatile all-round athlete for the past two years, is doing double-up duties on both the baseball and track squads. Considered to be among the fastest steppers in the loop or area, young Purvis is a standout on both groups.

Blue Raider baseball team's romp over Antioch High School of Nashville, 16-5, caused things to look up for the clubs personnel and other associates.

What ever happened to the Raider swimming team?

Middle Tennessee's snow bound track squad made their 1960 debut and Gene Watson, fourth in the shot.

Maxwell's time in the mile was 4:39, which is far below the long-strider's capability, but it still broke the school record by two seconds.

Northeast Louisiana, a real powerhouse in track and field, finished far out in front with 40 points, while the Raiders edged Murray State for the runner-up spot, 18 to 17.

Frank Halliburton, Nashville Ryan alumnus and decathlon star, took the high jump for MTSC's only first. He leaped 6 feet 1-7/8 inches to nose out teammate Troy Haydon. Halliburton's jump set a new meet record.

Other point winners for the Raiders included Porter Maxwell, who ran second in the mile; Dick Swain, second in the high hurdles and fourth in the lows; Ralph Barrett, fourth in the 60 yard dash,

New cigarette paper "air-softens" every puff!
Now even the paper adds to
Salem's springtime freshness!

An important break-through in Salem's research laboratories brings you this special new HIGH POROSITY paper which breathes new freshness into the flavor.

Each puff on a Salem draws just enough fresh air in through the paper to make the smoke taste even softer, fresher, more flavorful. If you've enjoyed Salem's springtime freshness before, you'll be even more pleased now. Smoke refreshed, smoke Salem!

• menthol fresh • rich tobacco taste • modern filter, too

Salem refreshes your taste
