Four Saints To Be Here Tomorrow Night

Hampton Comments On Dorm Council

Members of the Women's Dormitory Council were elected recently by members of each class.

The council consists of seven members. The purpose of the organization is to consider and deal with matters of minor violations of dormitory rules. Dean Martha Hampton calls attention to an article in the Constitution of the council which will probably be of interest to all girls; "All minor violations may be appealed to the Supreme Court, but granting of a hearing will be determined by the Supreme Court." Dean Hampton also reports that the Council will meet once a week on a day and at a time to be decided at a later date.

Members of the sophomore class living in a dormitory met following the class meeting and elected Joanna Key and Nancy Hammer to represent them on the council. Elner Hamner and Hanna Romans were elected to represent the Junior class before the Spring semester ended in May. Carolyn Hale and Mary Helen McDaris were elected to represent the senior girls at this same time. One freshman girl will be elected after Homecoming.

A car wash will be held in the rear of the City Hall of Murfreesboro this Saturday sponsored by the Hobgood school Boy Scout troop 364 according to Don Gates, MTSC senior, scoutmaster. Charge for the wash will be $1.00.

Meet the Four Saints—Jerry DuChene, tenor from North Dakota, Bob Erickson, tenor and "Lou Costello" of the group, Doug Evans, bass from Seattle, and John Howell, originator of the group who does all the writing and arranging.

The Four Saints, a quartet group who has had ten years of entertainment experience of harmonizing with 26 different musical instruments and splashing bits of comical antics in between, will appear here tomorrow night in the college gymnasium at 8:00 p.m.

This is the first group of nationally known entertainment to come this year and is sponsored by the Association Student Body. Tickets for the event went on sale last week, and they can still be purchased today and tomorrow in the lobby of the Administration building. Before the performance tickets will cost $1.50 each, and $2.00 will be charged at the door for those who did not buy a ticket in advance.

Starting as a barbershop quartet ten years ago, they were known as the "Kord Kings". After they went to work for Uncle Sam, they became known as the Four Saints. During their stay in the military, they were assigned as a special group of the United States Air Force Band.

The Four Saints is a fairly new group who are said by many to be on their way to the top. Their performances in many of the clubs across the United States have been so successful every newspaper in each particular city where they have performed has given them the utmost praise.

The ASB has encouraged each student to give his support to the ticket drive, and the success of this affair will determine whether there will be more in the future according to Bob Turman, ASB president.

Melson Company Gets Language Building

Contract for building the new Language and Speech Building at Middle Tennessee State College was let on Thursday to the Sam Melson Construction Company of Shelbyville for $492,890 plus the architects fee. Bids ranged up to $547,000.

The new building will relieve overcrowding in the Murfree Building, where some foreign language classes have been held and also in the Mathematics Building where speech classes are now being conducted.

ASB Congressmen Elected During Class Meetings

Class meetings were held last week to re-organize the classes and to elect ASB congressmen.

Freshmen were given the rules of class elections and homecoming float committees were appointed.

Sarah Edwards of Cottontown was elected as vice-president of the sophomore class due to the withdrawal of the vice-president from MTSC. Congress members were Russel Ayers from Springfield, Jeanne Massey from Lebanon, and Larry Rushing from Gallatin.

Those elected to fulfill positions in ASB congress from the junior class are Russel Bean, Chattanooga; Dennie Welsh, Fayetteville; Carl McMahan, Old Hickory; and Brenda Malloy, McMinnville.

Representing the senior class are members of ASB congress are Jean Fahlin from Murfreesboro, Jean Bonney from Nashville, Eddie Holloway from Columbia; and Bob Kerr from Chapel Hill.

Seven MTSC Cheerleaders Selected From Thirty-Five

Cheerleaders were elected for 1962-1963 on September 26 out of approximately thirty-five girls who tried out on the football field in front of students and judges.

The judges consisted of both students and faculty members. Seven regulars and one alternate were selected. Freshmen and senior classes are each represented with three members on the squad while the sophomore and junior classes have only one representative each.

Senior Gail Beasley from Oak Ridge, Captain of the Cheerleading squad, has been cheerleader for the past three years. She is a Physical Education major and a member of the P.E. Club and the Booster Club. In 1960 Gail was chosen "Miss Murfreesboro Greater Value Days" and was Junior-Senior Prom Attendant last year.

The co-captain this year is Joyce Sherrill, a senior. This is her second year as cheerleader. She has held honors of being "Best-Dressed MTSC Co-ed," "Miss Murfreesboro Greater Value Days," and she was elected Vice-President of the ASB for this year. A Business Education Major, Joyce hails from Nashville.

Cheering for her first year is Faye Bloodworth, a Senior from Nashville. Faye, a Physical Education Major, is President of the P.E. Club and a member of the Aquatic Club.

This is the second year on the squad for Nancy Dever, a Junior from Joelton, Tenn. Nancy cheered four years in high school at Joelton. She is a Business Education Major and a member of the Booster Club.

The only sophomore on the squad is Sandra Wynne from Nashville. Sandra is an Elementary Education Major with English as her minor. She was chosen "Miss Murfreesboro" for 1962 and is a member of the Sidelines staff and the Booster Club. This is her first year as a cheerleader.

Gayle Marks is a freshman from Lebanon, Tenn. In high school Gayle was a cheerleader for five years. She is majoring in Art.

Freshman Terry Jackson comes from Clarksville. She attended West High School in Nashville where she was a cheerleader her senior year. Terry is majoring in Elementary Education.

The alternate this year is Pat Kyle from Nashville. She was a cheerleader and majorette her senior year at Central High School. Pat is a freshman majoring in Elementary Education.

Go, Raiders, Go

Seven girls and one alternate have been selected to serve as cheerleaders this year. Sandra Wynne, a sophomore from Isaac Litton in Nashville, Terry Jackson, a freshman from Clarksville, Joyce Sherrill, a senior from Nashville, Nancy Dever, a senior from Joelton High, Fay Bloodworth, a senior from Antioch High in Nashville, Pat Kyle, alternate, Gayle Marks, freshman from Lebanon, and Gail Beasley, Captain of the group from Oak Ridge.

Living In Today's World Theme of Conference

Roy Simpson, chairman of the Educational Conference held annually at Middle Tennessee State college, announced that the theme for the October 5 and 6 conference was: "Living In Today's World." Six consultants for the conference were: Dr. Walter A. Anderson, Dean, School of Education, New York University; Dr. Hugh H. Clegg, Assistant to the Chancellor of Development, University of Mississippi; Dr. Alberta Letitia Lowe, Professor of Education, University of Tennessee; Dr. Esther J. Swenson, Professor of Elementary Education, University of Alabama; Dr. Francis J. Riel, Professor of Physical Education, MTSC; Dr. Harold S. Spraker, Assistant Professor of Mathematics, MTSC.

The conference will be held as usual in three major areas of study. Primary grade teachers will meet in the Campus School building; grades four, five and six meet in the College Union and junior and senior high school meet in the Health and Physical Education Building.

The programs will employ a large number of area teachers to aid in symposiums that will be conducted in language arts, social studies, arithmetic and music.

The Presidents Of The United States

Thirty-one of our 34 Presidents were born in small towns or villages . . . No President was an only child; most came from large families . . . James Buchanan was the first bachelor elected President, and the only one to remain unmarried . . . John Tyler, 10th President, was married twice and had 15 children . . .

Seventeen Receive Grants and Loans

Seventeen students have already received grants or loans from the Middle Tennessee State College Loan, Scholarship and Development Foundation although no formal announcement of its operation since the charter authorization in January 1962 has been made. Dean N. C. Beasley, in announcing the first services of the Foundation has also released the names of officers and trustees who will administer the funds.

Advance gifts to the Foundation have passed the $20,000 mark and the Foundation is now in position to begin active solicitation of gifts, according to Dr. Beasley.

Officers of the Foundation are Dr. Quill E. Cope, president; Whitney Steagall, vice-president and N. C. Beasley, secretary and treasurer. Other elected members of the executive committee are Homer Pittard, Elbert Fox, Clayton James, Edward Jennings, Bob Turman and Miss Joyce Sherrill. Members from the alumni association, in addition, to Elbert Fox, the president, are Lytle Landers, Bedford county; Lynn Banks, Davidson county; Smith Howard, Giles county; Miss Elizabeth Davis, Hamilton county; Wallace Robertson, Huntsville, Ala.; Miles McMillan, Wilson county.

The appointed members of the executive committee are Dr. Carl Adams, Murfreesboro; John Bragg, Murfreesboro; John Dixon, Murfreesboro; J. Pope Dyer, Chattanooga; Buford Ellington, Nashville; Sam Laseter, Murfreesboro; J. E. Malone, Murfreesboro; Al Mifflin, Murfreesboro; Joe Neethland, Murfreesboro; Mrs. George Sloan, Columbia; Ewin Templeton, Fayetteville; Randy Woods, Los Angeles, California and Cromer Smotherman, Lawrenceburg.

"All Mine"

Judy Lewis, smiling with her Miss Wilson County Trophy, was sent around to newspapers across the United States. Some of the newspapers this picture appeared in are the San Diego Times, Atlanta Journal, Denver Post, Miami News, Houston Post and many others.

Freshman Judy Lewis Wins "Miss Congeniality" Title

By Ernestine Harris

An enthusiastic MTSC freshman is Judy Lewis, "Miss Congeniality", the title given her at the 1962 Miss Tennessee Pageant in Jackson.

Judy graduated from Lebanon High School where she illustrated brains as well as beauty by her membership in the Beta Club, Most Beautiful Girl and Jr.-Sr. Prom Queen were additional honors she received.

Writing has been one of her main interests. This is illustrated by the fact that she has won top honors in county, district, and state poetry contests.

This Lebanon beauty is noted for her vivacious personality. Judy has an art for obtaining and maintaining friends. Her genuinely warm smile has lighted the eyes and hearts of all who know her.

Smiling photograph of Judy hugging her Miss Wilson County Trophy appeared in newspapers such as Baton Rouge Advocate, Indianapolis News, Montgomery Advertiser, San Diego Times, Atlanta Journal, Denver Post, Miami News, and Houston Post.

Reading has occupied much of her spare time this summer. Judy feels there is much to be gained from the minds of others.

Judy enjoys training her French Poodle, Bo. She considers this as both job and hobby.

"If I could choose one thing in the world, I would choose friends because they are so important to your whole life," replied Judy upon being questioned on this subject.

Beauty of MTSC campus and friendliness of its students were deciding factors in Judy's choice of schools. Her brother Jimmy, a MTSC junior, encouraged her choice.

Judy has decided upon either French or English as her major at MTSC. She enjoys languages and if the opportunity arises, would like to become an interpreter.

The thing that Judy found to be most impressive at the Miss Tennessee Pageant was that the contestants had little jealousy or envy among themselves. Judy enjoyed seeing a group of girls work together maintaining a pleasant attitude.

Judy stated the following as her opinion of Margaret Petty, Miss Tennessee, "Margaret really deserved this honor as she is a well-rounded person. The judges appeared to be looking for an all-American girl, and I believe they truly found her in Margaret."

Posed as Annie Oakley, Judy sang "I Can't Say No" for her talent review at Jackson.

Judy concluded her Jackson whirl by being chosen by the other contestants as "Miss Congeniality." She received a $200 scholarship as well as the knowledge that she had gained the friendship of others.

Bigger Attends Agronomy Meet

Dr. T. C. Bigger, head of the Department of Agriculture at Middle Tennessee State College attended the 54th annual meeting of the American Society of Agronomy held at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, August 20-23. The Society is composed of Scientists of the 51 states interested in Soil Science, Crop Science, and Agronomic Education.

Dr. Bigger will participate in a panel program Tuesday morning, August 21, when the needs and employment of Agronomy graduates by Government and Industry will be presented.

Many Students From Far Places

By Joan Bates

Out of state students seem to add the finishing touches to the wonderful student body at MTSC.

To the Tennesseans, the reason why these students choose our campus always remains a mystery. Nancy Quintard, freshman from Los Angeles, California first went to Pepperdine College there but switched to us. Nancy says she has never seen snow falling or changing seasons and she has a friend, Shirlee Stafford, freshman beauty last year, to keep her company. "I would probably throw a typical fit if I ever saw snow," she said.

Being out in the film capitol of the world, Nancy was asked if she has seen any movie stars and she has! Ricky Nelson's shoe has never been the same since Nancy stepped on it at a prom. Her friend Shirlee did even better because she got to talk to President Kennedy while posing as a news reporter.

Bonnie Ford from Florida has relatives in Tennessee and feels right at home on Tennessee soil. One girl from Anchorage, Alaska is about as far away from home as possible and still be from the United States. She loves it here and said that MTSC has a good report from Alaska.

Along with our out-of-state students come from Iran, Korea, tion of foreign students. The students come from Iran, Korea and Japan, and England.

Who Can We Blame?

All through his college experience, the American student is constantly deluged from all sides to mature and to learn to accept responsibility. So we all plod through four years learning to accept responsibility, and suddenly one day we all wake up to watch an American public official face responsibility.

Today in the state of Mississippi two are dead, several are injured and scores have been arrested. And all this has come to pass because one man—Governor Ross Barnett has utterly and completely failed to face responsibility. When he was sworn in as governor, Ross Barnett took an oath to "uphold the Constitution of the United States" as well as to protect the welfare of the people of Mississippi. When the time came to do justice to his word of honor, he chose instead to risk bloodshed to aid his political career. Ross Barnett is not a stupid man. He saw Orval Faubus make himself unbeatable in Arkansas by the same kind of stand.

There seems to be some who think that Ross Barnett has gone too far. In his bumbling efforts to secure his political future, he has disgraced himself, a great state, and a great university.

There will be others who foolishly place themselves above the Law of the Land. And then we must ask ourselves, "Who is at fault?" Is there really anyone we can blame but ourselves—the American electorate?

The problem belongs to us. A century ago our ancestors fought a great war. It ended then. But there are Barnetts and Walkers who are still fighting the war they lost a hundred years ago. The irony of it all is that we really won. The battle in Mississippi was so useless.

If we in these crucial times fail to see and meet our responsibilities then we may expect only one result—the complete loss of freedom and democracy. And then who can we blame?

Talented Four Saints Appear Here Tomorrow

The first of international big time entertainment is scheduled to appear on campus tomorrow night. The Four Saints, a bright looking, bright sounding quartet, who have amazed many with their tremendous versatility and talent, will appear in a gala affair sponsored by the Associated Student Body. Selling The Four Saints has been the work of the ASB for the last few weeks, but the work is not finished yet. It will not be finished or successfully completed until every possible ticket is sold.

Much of what happens in the future concerning the billing of more nationally recognized entertainment on this campus depends upon the selling of tickets to this event. If this is a success, there will be more according to the president of the ASB, Bob Turman. Bob stated, "The Four Saints show has to be supported by every student on the MTSC campus. The possibility of future shows depends on the outcome of this program. If we break even on this venture, there will definitely be two more shows next Spring. But we have to break even first!!! We realize that The Four Saints haven't reached "big-name" status yet, but they will. Big-name or not, it is the kind of entertainment you have been asking for. Believe me, you'll get your money's worth. Come on out and show your school spirit by supporting the ASB. Come see The Four Saints show."

Money is the factor in how much of this type of the best of entertainment we can secure. Money is secured by the support of the students and the number who turn out to enjoy a group who have been praised as "Positively great!"

Variety is the thing The Four Saints have above everything else. With ten years of experience and the ability to play 26 different musical instruments, this vocal group of four fun-loving fellows have continued to amaze audiences with their clowning antics and their wide range of talent.

If we do not do a good job of supporting this first group, there is little hope in the future of having high style entertainment we can be proud of. If the students of this school will buy these tickets and support this thing tomorrow night, a much better slate of student entertainment will come to this school.

As stated in The Journal of Dayton, Ohio, "Hop a bus, train, or plane—even hitchhike if necessary; we feel everyone should see and enjoy the wonderfully talented Four Saints."

Vets Club Active on Campus

Are you a veteran with 6 months active service? If so, your MTSC Vets Club needs you. Why?

The club is active and needs your support. For the third consecutive year, the Veterans Administration presented the Vets Club with an award for meritorious service to the local VA Hospital. The club participates in the Hospital's weekly recreation program by assisting staff personnel.

This year, the club sponsored an information booth the first week of school to assist during registration. It is hoped that the freshmen and new students found this service beneficial.

As an annual project, the club replenishes the Vets Club Glasses Fund maintained by Dean Keathley. It is the purpose of this fund to provide assistance to students who need glasses but cannot afford them.

It is the desire of the veterans to coordinate with other clubs on the campus and complete the Raider Room Project during this year.

The club sponsors the annual Talent Show during November, and also participates in the Homecoming activities, Stunt Night, and many other events.

When does the Club find time to plan these many activities—at their weekly meeting, of course. Those interested should come to Dining Room B, Student Union Building, on Tuesdays at 11:00 a.m. for coffee break and planning of the activities. You will be more than welcome!

One Man's Opinion

By Kenneth Lord

This is an article printed in the Citizen News of Hollywood, Calif. I believe that it may perhaps reduce some doubt as to what is a Conservative and what is a Liberal. I quote:

"Actually the conservative is the real liberal and not the pseudo one so much in the news and so popular today. All he insists on is that we live by our Constitution and our Bill of Rights. He doesn't want anything else."

"He doesn't want to be saddled with the responsibility of other people and he is willing to be taxed on a pay-as-you-go basis, but objects to saddling his children and grandchildren with huge debts in the name of social advances or taking care of everyone from the 'womb to the tomb'. He is willing to pay his way but expects everyone to do likewise. He is willing to help the down and out, but doesn't want to help someone who is able to help himself."

"He is interested in a strong America and not billions for Yugoslavia."

"He believes in a sound dollar, a balanced budget, and as little government interference with private enterprise consistent with common sense."

"His only crime is that he is old-fashioned, and believes the standards which made America the greatest power in the world and the mecca for all down-trodden peoples everywhere are good enough for him, his children and theirs." End quote.

Never has a country so powerful and so strong with such a tremendous reputation for a square deal and its stand on democracy slipped in such a short time. We must finally face the fact that what is considered liberal today is not liberalism but some insidious kind of mental attitude which through some media has been instilled in us. It is the kind of attitude which has let us give up Cuba and welch on our allies, let the wall be built up around Berlin, has given Communist Russia Laos, N. Korea, China, Poland, Hungary, Lithuania with only so much token resistance. It is this attitude my friends which will make the Communist boast come true. Our grandchildren will live under Communism.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"LET'S GO SOMEPLACE WHERE WE CAN STUDY—"

"THIS IS MORE LIKE IT!"

ASB Gives Government, Entertainment To Students

What is the A.S.B.? Why is it here? What are its functions, or what does the A.S.B. stand for?

There are many people on this campus, not all freshmen, who do not know the answers to these questions. To begin with, A.S.B. stands for the Associated Student Body. It is an association divided into three branches, Executive, Judicial, and Legislative, which govern the students of this institution.

Not only does the Associated Student Body govern the student, but it is the link between himself and the administration.

If the student has a complaint to make about the administration, then he may register his complaint at the A.S.B. office; and they will talk to some member of the administration.

The A.S.B. is governed by the administration, and its sponsors are Deans Hampton and Keathley.

Fun Night and many other social events are sponsored by the A.S.B. Not only are many of these money making projects, but they are only a few of the numerous events sponsored on campus by this group. The money that is made by this association is used to promote more activities for the student. Among these projects are the sale of calendars, which would not be available to the student if the A.S.B. had not had them printed, and the sale of campus packs. Campus packs are a box of "goodies" which were made available to the boys last year at the small price of 25c. They have hopes of also making these available to the girls this year. These will be purchased as soon as possible.

available soon and should be purchased as soon as possible.

All students of MTSC both resident and day, are members of this association. The officers are elected in the spring and serve for a period of one year. Last spring our A.S.B. became a member of the Southern University Student Government Association. The A.S.B. is an integral part of MTSC. This office is here to serve you! Take advantage of it!

MTSC Fashion Shots

by Ernestine Harris

Chilly autumn air hints to the fashion-minded student that it is time to perk up her wardrobe with the latest in campus wear.

"Be careful in selecting your new fall fashions and try to distinguish between fashions and fads," stated Marilyn Marshael when discussing this subject.

Marilyn and Sandra Wynne are fashionable MTSC co-eds who have been selected as members of The French Shoppe's college board. The following paragraphs will include the types of fashions Sandra and Marilyn believe will be popular among MTSC students.

The pleated and the straight skirt have remained popular this year and have added herringbone tweed to their list of fabrics. Gored and flared skirts have come into view along with the wrap-around skirt held in place with a huge safety pin.

Joining the traditional ranks of the fur-blend and ski sweaters are the printed sweater and the shetland sweater. Bulky knit sweaters with the front zipper are being worn considerably in this climate.

The wool jumper has made an early appearance on campus due to the recent cool weather. Coulottes made of wool will make their appearance soon at campus sports events.

Suede is being worn this year in coats, dresses, suits, skirts, and slacks. Bags, shoes, and hats of this material are also being shown.

The ever-popular "tennie pump" has returned for campus and sportswear. Wool, camel's hair and corduroy are the winter materials for these shoes. The snipped-toe shoe is being shown for casual and formal wear.

Contrasting leather is being used in shoes and bags. Velveteens, leather, and fur are popular materials in hats. The pillbox and the jockey hat are vogue this year.

Fur trimmed coats for casual and dress-up wear are popular this year. Mink is being used on cashmere and the poplin coat is being shown with either a black fox or a racoon collar.

Belts have become very popular as accessories. Chain belts in both gold and silver are being worn with casual attire. Rope belts and straw stretch-belts are being seen on campus as well as the traditional leather belt.

A single strand of opera length pearls top even the dressiest outfit. Gold jewelry and scarab settings in pine and bracelets are being worn more this year than in the past.

An ensemble should not have the matching look but should consist of carefully put together non-matching accessories.

—Ernestine Harris

My God shall supply every need of yours. —(Phil. 4:19)

Don't we all need a feeling of greater confidence? As we open our minds to the mind of God and let His creative ideas flow through us, we gain new understanding—and our confidence in ourselves as an expression of God increases.

Entertainment On Campus

By Carol Luna

Boys don't let lack of money hinder you from taking out that cute girl that sits beside you in English class.

There are many places on this campus which provide places of free entertainment for students.

Football games, plays, and concerts are excellent places to take a date which are free. If it's a week-night you can always have a date to study. The library is open and there are rooms available for students to go and talk.

The recreation room in the Student Union Building provides ping-pong and pool tables. The rec room is open to both girls and boys and is under the supervision of Mrs. Jackson.

Another place which provides students with a place to go is the centers provided by the local church groups. The Methodist and Baptist groups both have centers which are open to the students. These houses provide a place for students to go for recreation and study. They are both located on North Tennessee Blvd.

For the outdoor student there are many opportunities for dates. You can always play a game of tennis, go swimming in the pool, attend track-meets, basketball and baseball games. If you're especially hardy you might try a walk around the campus.

As a last resort you can always go to the lobbies of the various girls' dorms. Television, cards, conversation, and good looking girls are all found in the lobbies.

Looking forward to seeing everybody at the "FOUR SAINTS" show, October 11. This is a group with a characteristic and unique act with ten years of experience.

The group started as a barber-shop quartet known as the "Kord Kings". They became known as the Four Saints when Uncle Sam became their agent assisting them as a special group to the United States Air Force Band in Washington, D. C.

The originator of the group, John Howell, plays a total of sixteen instruments and does all the writing and arranging, both the instrumentals and vocals for the group.

These tickets may be purchased from any member of the A.S.B. or at the A.S.B. office. The week before the show they may be purchased on the main floor of the Administration Building. These tickets are now $1.50 and the evening of the show they will be $2.00.

This is the first attempt of the A.S.B. to bring big name entertainers of this type to our campus. Famous groups as the "Kingston Trio" or the "Brothers Four" may be seen on this campus in the spring depending upon the number of students attending this event.

American Folk Trio Will Perform Oct. 25

One of America's outstanding groups of folk singers, the American Folk Trio, will perform in MTSC Auditorium on Thursday, October 25th at 9:25 a.m.

Composed of three talented young singers, Dave Sear, Sonja Savig and Lee Kahn, they create tremendous enthusiasm and high acclaim whether they are performing in concert, on television or in nightclubs.

The trio of young Americans first met as individual performers at the Yale University Folk Festival two years ago. As a group they have achieved fame from coast to coast.

Dave Sear has been heard on Television, in concerts and at festivals throughout the United States and Canada. His recordings have been made by six record companies. His technique on the five string banjo provides the trio with a background.

Sonja Savig is a folksinger with a warm lovely voice who has been heard in concerts, on television, in summer theaters, and on the Broadway stage. She plays the eight-stringed Norwegian folk instrument, the "Langeleik".

Lee Kahn, the classical guitarist with the trio, spends six hours each year teaching and directing the Guitar Center in Greenwich Village in New York City. He is also a popular performer in supper clubs.

Music critics hail their light-hearted presentations of some of the finest arrangements of the classic folk music of all time. Their repertoire includes a broad sweep of new songs, a varied array of both American and European compositions.

Orchestra Seeks New Players

The MTSC College-Community orchestra is seeking players for this academic year according to the announcement of Michael D. Gattozzi, director.

The orchestra presents four public programs each year for the benefit of students and music lovers of the Mid-State area. Mr. Gattozzi stated that he is in especial need of string players, violins, cello and bass, French horns, oboe, and bassoons.

The orchestra rehearsals each Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 3:30 until 5 p.m. in the Fine Arts Building on the campus of MTSC. Special rehearsals are being planned for Sunday to meet the needs of those who cannot attend the regular rehearsals.

Those who find it difficult to attend a regular rehearsal schedule will be welcome to play with the orchestra.

The college will provide a limited number of instruments for those who do not have private instruments.

The main purpose of the college-community orchestra, according to Mr. Gattozzi is to provide an enjoyable musical experience for the participants and public with out necessarily establishing to high professional standards.

Mr. Gattozzi may be contacted at the Fine Arts Building at Middle Tennessee State College.

Art Club Met Monday, October 1

By Jean Massey

First meeting of the Art Club was held Monday, October 1, to discuss the orientation of possible prospects for membership in the club.

The standards of the Art Club are based on scholastic ability as well as interest in art. All those who desire to join are urged to attend the meetings.

The club under the leadership of Charles Massey, president, Gary Sage, vice-president and Janie McWhiter, secretary, plans to continue to promote art throughout the campus and Murfreesboro.

The group works in various ways as far as art is concerned for school functions such as decorations for the ROTC BALL.

"It is our idea as an Art Club, through concentrated effort on the part of members, that we increase interest and understanding of art within the art student as well as the people with which we associate," stated Charles Massey. "This is no easy or spectacular task; it is as endless as man's thoughts."

The Club has long range plans of having an Art Festival here. There will be exhibits in the SUB and various other places on campus and off campus.

Each year two or three individual shows are held in the Fine Arts building to honor deserving art students.

An art trip was made last spring to Chicago. This gave students the opportunity to see actual paintings, good architecture, and to have some fun. This spring the group hopes to visit New York.

"Life With Father" Drama Club Play

By Suzanne Lee

Drama Club announced its fall production, "Life With Father," is to be held November 7 and 8.

Eighty-two people signed up to become members of the club at the last meeting. New members are still being accepted. Individuals interested in any phase of drama are invited to attend the meeting each Tuesday night at 6:30 in the auditorium of the Administration Building.

The Drama Club presented a farce called, "The Great Western Melodrama" for its first program. Anne Petty directed this one act play. Filbert, the hero was played by Ruth Bigger, and Daisy, the heroine, was played by Gail Clark. Bill Hunter undertook the part of Mortimer McSkew, and George Freeman acted as his wife, Abigail. Two-gun Percy, the villain, was played by Jeannie Stone, and Oswald Slugfest was played by James Hobby.

Following the program refreshments were served by Linda Brannum, Social Chairman of the club.

Nashville Plans Ice Show, "Music Man" Attracts Many

The 1963 version of Holiday on Ice which had its world premiere in Knoxville, August 22-28, will be the first attraction at Nashville's new Municipal Auditorium.

The show in Nashville will play from October 16 through the 21st. All seats are reserved and prices range from $2.00 through $3.50. The night shows start at eight except for Saturday evening when the show begins at nine.

Since 1945 when Holiday on Ice was organized, the show has been consistently more spectacular every year.

The color, precision, and showmanship associated with the circus Zeigfield Follies are put on ice for added thrills. The result is a real holiday for everybody. You all come.

BOOK REVIEW

by Carol Luna

To Kill A Mockingbird is one of the most popular best sellers of the year.

This may be due to the author's handling of the racial problem in a small southern town. The characters are very realistic and refreshing. Perhaps the best trait of this book is that readers are reminded of persons of a town they have known when they read this book.

The setting is in a small Southern town in Alabama. Atticus Finch is a lawyer in Maycomb, who has two children Scout and Jem. The book shows the children as they grow up and how the changes in Maycomb affect the children. The incident that rocks the town is a young girl's accusation of criminal assault by a Negro.

I personally enjoyed the book mainly because Miss Lee chose a controversial subject and handled it in an original and memorable way.

Attention movie goers — The Famed Broadway play, "The Music Man" is a current attraction at the Tennessee Theater in Nashville.

Taking place in the early twentieth century, this musical maintains a simplicity common to that era of American history. The plot revolves around the people in a small Iowa town.

Shirley Jones, Robert Preston, and Buddy Hackett play the lead roles in the musical which allows the viewers imagination to play a part in the production.

A man trying to sell a band to the people of River City, Iowa, turned the town into an entirely different social situation. How the changes took place and the effect on the people capture the audience's interest.

Featured musical numbers are "Seventy-Six Trombones" and "There Were Bells."

Community Concerts Membership Campaign Now Underway

Murfreesboro Community Concerts Association is now conducting its membership campaign until October 1 this fall.

Internationally known superior quality artists will furnish the programs.

The Spanish ballet troupe of 14 dancers and musical instruments will open the concert season on November 7 in the Middle Tennessee State College Auditorium—this group of dancers is named Ximenez-Vargas for the two leading solo dancers.

Tuscon Boys' Choir

On February 23 the famous Tuscon, Arizona, boys choir will give a concert of folk music in western costume in the college auditorium. On March 7, in the high school auditorium, the best of all known duo-pianists, Gold and Fizdale, will give their concert. An additional concert will be scheduled in April, probably a baritone singer.

The new organization of the Murfreesboro Community Concert Association, was formed this summer with a board of directors composed of local townspeople. Walt Cartier, of State Farm Insurance Company, is chairman of the membership campaign. Acting as division chairman are Joe Van Sickle, owner of the Music Shop; Jack Houston, realtor; Irene Morton, piano teacher; Miss Lockie Smith, of the Woman's Club; Mrs. Fred Wiles, Stewart Air Force Base and Dr. John Lawler, of MTSC.

During the campaign townspeople in surrounding towns will be given an opportunity to obtain memberships for the season. Absolutely no single admissions for any concert will be offered. Admission to all concerts is by season ticket only. Due to limited space in local auditoriums, no out of town concert members (of other associations) will be admitted on their memberships in other associations.

Blue Raiders Turn "Blue"

Many fans are curious as to why the Blue Raiders are the "BLUE" Raiders this season. That is, why the Middle Tennessee State football squad has suddenly taken to blue jerseys for both of their home games.

This is not a common sight to see Coach Charles "Bubber" Murphy's squad on Jones Field in blue. In the past, the Raiders have always worn white unless a visiting team had a uniform similar that would cause confusion. The NCAA requires that opposing teams wear jerseys of contrasting colors.

There seems to be more than one answer to the sudden change of procedure by the coaching staff:

For the first time, there are more blue uniforms than white. This gives more boys a chance to dress for the home games.

The host team always has the option of the uniform they want to wear. Although it is almost standard procedure for home teams to wear white, and the visitors to be in dark dress, the visiting team must make any changes required when they are notified in advance.

Coach Bubber Murphy says that he may go with the blue uniform for the entire season if the other teams have no objection.

It is a well known story around this area about one school that set fire to their white uniforms after a loss, and have worn their dark colors since that day.

Coach Murphy insists that no such superstition is involved here, but it is also apparent that the Blue Raiders won all five of their road games last season wearing the blue attire. And, this season, the "Big Blue" won their first and second games by scores of 28-0 and 7-0 over Austin Peay and Morehead, respectively.

Anyway, it looks as if the Raiders are the Blue Raiders this season.

Kentuckians Upset MTSC

Eastern Kentucky pulled a mild upset in an Ohio Valley Conference football game here last night by blasting previously-unbeaten Middle Tennessee State, 28 to 8.

The Blue Raiders hadn't allowed a foe to cross their goal line going into the game, but this ended with 8:45 left in the first quarter. Jimmy Chittum, a hard running halfback, got loose on a 27-yard touchdown jaunt and Tom Stapleton booted the first of four extra points.

The scoring drive ate up 61 yards in three booming plays. Immediately preceding Chittum's run, quarterback Larry Marmie passed 39 yards to Ed Spenik.

Marmie, a transfer from Ohio State, was starting his first game for Eastern and played a tremendous game, passing for 196 yards.

Eastern's second touchdown came after the Raiders' Bob Kerr had punted to the Maroon 10. On the third play from scrimmage, Chittum was off again, this time 85 yards to paydirt.

MTSC's touchdown was set up when Eastern fumbled a Kerr punt on its own 36 and George Dykes recovered. MTSC drove the remaining distance in eight plays with quarterback Louis Alford taking it across from the one. David Petty ran for two extra points.

Eastern's next TD came on a

64-yard march in 11 plays, 30 of the yards being eaten up on penalties.

The last marker came on a 54-yard drive in four plays. The big gainer was a 45-yard pass from Marmie to Spenik.

Chittum emerged as Eastern's top rusher with 126 yards in six carries. Petty had 35 in 10 tries for the Raiders.

Ramblin' With The Raiders

by Steve Bebb

Did you ever hear the story of the elections that the incomparable Knute Rockne used to hold in the day of the Four Horsemen? It seems that sometimes the "Horsemen" thought that they were the ones who should get the bulk of the publicity because of their exploits for the Fighting Irish. When the coaches thought things were going a little too far they would call for a poll to be taken in the dressing room.

"In your own personal opinion," Rockne would ask each member of the squad, "which is more valuable to the team, the Four Horsemen or the Seven Mules?"

And for some unexplainable reason, the linemen would win, seven to four.

It can well be said that the present Raider team strikes a happy medium. The defensive line has been a stingy lot this season, not allowing a single score, and surrendering an average of only 128.3 yards each contest. On offense the Blue linemen are much improved over a year ago and regularly open gaping holes in the opposing lines. At this writing there have been many standout performers among the linemen.

Typing at Random

Bob Kerr, who has been idled by an injury, moved into the lead in the latest report on OVC punters. Bob has booted for a 37.5 yard per kick average.

Recently overheard: "Pope punts, the linebacker moves in a couple of steps and signals for a fair catch." Jack could have answered (or maybe he did), "Well, they didn't get a runback, did they?"

Someone please warn the freshmen — Ed "Fig" Newton will be visiting on campus the 19th of October. If anyone hears a bloodcurdling scream during that weekend, don't panic—it's probably Fig.

Congratulations are in order for Roger Hedrick and his recent bride, the former Mary Lou Hull of Oak Ridge.

I guess Jerry Allen is a natural athlete—at least I heard he was a natural born end. Someone said that when Jerry was born his Dad looked at him, then remarked to Mrs. Allen, "This is the end!!"

And this is!!

Murfreesboro Renamed Murphy's Borough

Webster's dictionary describes borough as "A fortified place or town." And, if Middle Tennessee State's Blue Raiders continue to play the defensive football that has been displayed in their first three games, the jesting from a Blue Raider fan that Murfreesboro be renamed "Murphy's borough" might have some meaning.

In this case, it concerns Charles "Bubber" Murphy, Middle Tennessee State's head football coach. His Blue Raiders have shut out their first three opponents, Austin Peay, Morehead State, and Western Kentucky by scores of 28-0, 7-0, and 17-0, respectively.

Winning football is far from something new to Bubber Murphy. He is in his 18th year at the helm of Blue Raider football and has never had a losing season.

Murphy is one of a handful of college coaches holding membership in "the Sports Trail Century Club." The elite membership is restricted to coaches who have one hundred or more victories. Murphy's record of 112-39-7 at MTSC speaks for itself.

The Irishman was an outstanding four-sports athlete for Middle Tennessee during his playing years (1934-38). He was captain of the 1937-38 basketball team, leading the Raiders in scoring for one season, and second in scoring his final year.

Murphy still holds the third spot among the All-Time leading scorers for MTSC in football. During the 1935 season, the halfback "sophomore sensation," who played high school ball at Nashville Central, tallied 69 points in leading the Raiders to a perfect 8-0-0 season.

After graduation from College, Murphy was head coach at Goodlettsville and a professional baseball player with Jersey City. During World War II, he served in the U.S. Navy as a lieutenant.

As coach of the Blue Raiders, Murphy has had three undefeated seasons, and his teams have made three appearances in post season bowl games.

So, if you hear anyone talking about the town the Blue Raiders are from, the pronunciation will be the same—either way it is spelled.

Jim Harvey (22) sophomore halfback from Lenoir City sets sail on a 94-yard punt return as the Raiders romped to a 17-0 victory over Western Kentucky.

Desire Boost Harvey To Starting Eleven

If there is any question that desire and attitude are the cardinal assets between a football player and a "good" football player, ask one of the Middle Tennessee State coaches.

Chances are they would mention sophomore Jim Harvey, the number one left halfback on the 1962 Blue Raider squad. The 5'9½", 170 lb. scatback fought his way off of the freshman and "meat" squad last season to a permanent berth on the varsity. He was the only freshman to win a letter on the 1961 Tangerine Bowl team.

Although he saw only limited offensive service last season (3 attempts for 13 yards), the Lenoir City "hardnose" let it be known in the Spring game that he was going to be a top contender for a starting position on the 1962 team.

In the Spring game, Harvey was the leading ground gainer with 85 yards, and completed two of two pass attempts, both for touchdowns.

Coach Charles "Bubber" Murphy said of Harvey, "You know, he came here on his own without a scholarship last year. The coach at Tennessee Military Institute called (Line Coach) Joe Black Hayes and told him that he felt Harvey was a good college prospect. Hayes told him to have Harvey come on down."

At Lenoir City he was captain and "Outstanding Player" his senior year, and had one season of prep ball at TMI. Harvey relayed, "The first time I ran the ball at TMI, I had two ribs cracked and had to sit out until the fifth game. I played mostly on defense and punt returns after that."

Harvey remarked, "I am sure glad I came to Middle Tennessee State. I love it here." And the feeling is mutual for his teammates and coaches. He is very popular with the MTSC mates.

Through three games, Harvey is leading the Raiders in points scored (18), rushing, and punt returns. Rushing, the scatback has 140 yards in 20 attempts for a healthy 7.0 yards per carry average. His greatest game was against Western Kentucky last Saturday when he returned a Hilltopper punt for 94 yards for the first Raider score, then tallied the other touchdown in the last quarter on a three yard plunge.

The Blue Raiders have shutout Austin Peay (28-0), Morehead State (7-0), and Western Kentucky (17-0) in their first three contests.

Raiders Score Third OVC Win

Middle Tennessee State College gained its third straight OVC victory winning over Western Kentucky, 17-0 at Bowling Green.

Early in the second quarter, the Hilltoppers were forced to punt. Jim Harvey sophomore halfback gathered in a booming spiral on his own 10. Harvey waited beautifully for his blocking to form, then headed for the sidelines and raced all the way for the score. There were several crisp blocks thrown by other Raiders, and Harvey outmaneuvered a couple of Hilltoppers on his scoring jaunt.

Before halftime the Raiders started to move again after receiving a punt on its own 35. Momentarily stalled Louie Alford completed a 28 yard toss to George Dykes and followed moments later with a 13 yarder to Harvey. The drive carried to the two before being stalled by a 15 yard penalty. Stalled again the Raiders called on Tony Matusek who responded with a 33 yard field goal.

Let by Charley Rice, the game's top ground gainer, MTSC covered 64 yards in 15 plays for the final tally. Harvey registered his second score of the night with a three yard burst over left tackle. This last quarter score boosted Harvey to second among OVC scorers with 18 points.

Triton Tryouts Tell Talent

By Sandy Irwin

New lifeblood was added to the MTSC Triton (aquatic) Club Wednesday, October 3, when seventeen persons were accepted for membership.

The new members are: Don Bridges, David Bloodworth, Nancy Barnes, Caroline Hopkins, Patty Darnell, Mary Jo Thompson, Bobby Houk, John Getsi, Harry Williamson, Helen Chandler, Judy Stegall, Margaret Trimm, Gayle Marks, Billy Sewell, Milke Hanifan, Tibby Riel, Jay Marie Fogg.

Contrary to popular belief the Triton club is not a racing team, but a club devoted solely to Aquatic Art. Later in the school year these skills are combined to present a water pageant (swimming and drama) for the enjoyment of the student body.

The Tritons are one of the most active clubs on campus, again being under the able leadership of Miss JoAnn Gordon. Officers are Frank Roleff, president; Jim Forbes, vice-president; Betty DeWitt, secretary; Faye Bloodworth, treasurer, and Sandy Irwin, reporter.

Middle Tennessee Misses Write About Dorm Life

College and dorm life seem to go together as the freshmen girls begin the first weeks of school.

The dorm walls seem to be roaring with laughter as the girls meet new friends and begin new activities.

The first real week began with a dorm meeting in which Dean Hampton presided. At this meeting the girls tried to remember every question and remark they had about the little booklet called The Middle Tennessee State College Miss.

The following day the girls remarked about a small but impressive piece of paper on the bulletin board in the lobby. It contained rules on room inspection. That evening there were so many mops and brooms lined up by the doors a person could hardly walk down the hall. Everyone must have shaken every dust mop and rug they owned, for the halls were literally one big blur. As the girls left for classes the following day, they carefully inspected every inch of the room for even one speck of dust. When they returned nearly everyone discovered a piece of small, white paper with a short but important phrase "the room is in excellent condition."

As more room inspection days arrive there will likely be fewer excellents, but the first one is definitely framed and kept in a safe place for future reference.

Dorm life may be hectic at times and studying may seem impossible with all the noise, but it is a life that no girl here would change. Each day we encounter new experiences which will live in our hearts forever.

—"Perky" Gregory

SOUTH LYON

The Sandras from South Lyon say Hi!

Well, a new school year is here and everyone is back in the swing of things (neglecting studies, keeping late hours, and disobeying rules). It didn't seem to take the Freshmen long to master the trials and tribulations of college life.

All the girls are thrilled to be living in a beautiful new dorm like South Lyon, although it has its minor annoyances like getting locked out of your room every two or three days and being greeted by gorgeous billows of black smoke from the incinerator every other morning.

South's basement floor has been blessed with school spirit, since two members of the Blue Raider's Cheering Squad live (or shall we say jump) there. Sandra Wynne, a Sophomore, and Gail Marks, a Freshman, really keep the girls on their toes.

Although it's a little early in the season, Lynn Anderson has received a beautiful diamond ring and the traditional visit to the shower. Well, I guess we might as well declare it open season, girls, start hunting.

There are several female football players on the third floor of South. It seems that Karen Thompson, Joyce Ogles, and Barbara Osborne are sleeping in their boyfriend's football jerseys. Now, what are the boys playing football in? Also, it has been reported that Joan Hancock has been seen in the halls sporting a red MTSC nightshirt. What say, we make it a fad, South Lyonier's?

At this time we would like to advise Gail Gizzard to stop putting her room key in the fuse box; it could prove dangerous. It seems that Gayle Tincer and several other girls have bruised knees from crawling on the floor. Unfortunately, Gayle can't seem to keep up with her contacts.

We are going to have to give our dorm mother demerits if she starts staying out too late. Carolyn Gilly seems to have locked Mrs. Phifer out of the dorm a few nights ago.

FOR BOYS ONLY!! If you have been calling South Lyon and the receiver has been hung up on you, try again. It seems that one of our hostesses has a chronic disease of hanging up the phone before calling the girl. Also, if you are wondering how to get to the Lobby of South Lyon, worry no more!! There is only one entrance for boys and that is in the back of the college or across from Tennessee Boulevard. After you find the door, don't stop there, come in, climb three flights of stairs, and call for someone.

Well, we must sign off for this issue, with a thanks to Margaret Anthony for the use of her typewriter. If it hadn't been for her, there wouldn't have been a column this week.

See you next issue!!

RUTLEDGE THROUGH THE KEY HOLE

By Julia Crowell

Rutledge Hall began the year in a traditional manner with routine house meetings and girls attending "classes."

First of all, I would like to introduce myself. All the girls in Rutledge call me "Gray Coat," the mouse. I find out many interesting things by living here and it should be fun releasing my many tales.

I've practically gotten run over by all the girls ribbing through the halls at 6 o'clock each morning. This early hour must be observed due to the fact that each girl desires breakfast before her 8 o'clock class.

For a mouse, I observe a tremendous amount of things. The hostesses, monitors, and Mrs. Bass, the housemother, have made all the freshman feel welcome.

I am privileged to the scamper around in a dormitory where celebrities such as Patricia Kyle and Lucia Jergan live. Patricia was selected as alternate cheerleader for the Blue Raiders. Lucia demonstrated her talents by being chosen as a winner in the blue ribbon group for her wool dress entry in the 4-H division at the State Fair. Both of these girls are from Nashville.

The girls make me very proud to say that I live in Rutledge Hall. Devotionals are held each night at 9:30. This shows that the girls in this dorm have beauty that is more than just skin deep.

Wish me luck on trap dodging!!

NORTH LYON

By Brenda Grubbs

You might think that the first two weeks of college life would shake all the nervous energy out of our girls, but this is not correct.

At least it hasn't affected our girls from Cleveland, Tennessee. Mrs. Bowden still spends half her nights on third floor trying to negotiate peace!

Meanwhile, down on first floor, we're having a riot in the laundry room. The eighty girls who reside in North Lyon have access to one ironing board. This caused a great deal of frustration the evening of the President's reception. Remember?

Echoing down the hall of third floor last Thursday night were the excited whispers of several Oak Ridge girls. "Hey! Here she comes!" As Sandy King entered her room, the lights flashed on; and her eardrums popped as the girls shouted "Surprise!" and began their own original arrangement of "Happy Birthday." Among the luxurious gifts that Sandy received were a luxurious carton of Soaky, a gift certificate for a grand total of one one-hundredth of a dollar, and a mouth-watering box of cracker-jacks!

So you can see why several lights are dimly burning at 2 a.m. in North Lyon. We have to study sometime—don't we?

MTSC's 'Band Of Blue' Corps

Carolyn Ball, left, a senior from Chattanooga, has been selected head majorette for the 'Band of Blue' Corps at Middle Tennessee State College Murfreesboro. Others are Patricia Ann Harris, Nancy Moore, Ann Sanders, Suzanne Patty and Carolyn Hale. Miss Sanders, a graduate of Shelbyville Central high school where she was head majorette, and Miss Harris, a former majorette at Glenciff high school in Nashville, are the only new members of the group. Miss Ball is a graduate and former head majorette at Chattanooga Central; Miss Moore, former head majorette at Isaac Litton High School, Nashville; Miss Patty, Murfreesboro; and Miss Hale, a Chattanooga Central graduate. Featured twirlers for the musical organization are Carolyn Callis, a senior from Nashville, and Tommy McClanahan, a sophomore from Murfreesboro. Both were feature twirlers last year.

MONOHAN

By Jane Gillem

Everyone seems to be getting into the swing of things and finding several changes around Monohan Hall.

Central Monohan has been divided into two sections—one under Mrs. Smith and the other under Miss Elmore. All the girls welcome our new Dorm-Mother, Miss Elmore, and hope she enjoys being with us.

There appears to be a new fad used in the interior decoration of the rooms. Fishnets are seen hanging on the walls and lying on the beds. Maybe they could be used to catch males instead of fish!

Screams of excitement filled the air as three girls were traditionally drenched in the showers when they received their "sparklers." Congratulations to Jean Wooten, Mary Spears, and Melba Jean Peters!!

SOUTH MONOHAN HALL

The girls from the deep South, that is, we who live in MTSC's southernmost building, have begun to settle down to the normal irregularities of college life.

Among this group of Southern Belles live two very brave, and proud Yankees—Susan Brown and Martha Blake. As if accent weren't enough evidence of their locale, a map of New York graces their door.

NOTICE: to all boys seeking the South Monohan lobby, the lobby entrance is at the west end of the building. Reports are that some confused boys have been found hopelessly wandering through the ground floor rooms in search of the lobby. At least they said they were confused — they may be smarter than we think they are.

NOTICE: to all girls, be careful what you wear to the laundry room. You never can tell when those candy men may come, and you might not be able to hide behind a sheet next time, Kathy!

Last week Ronnie Lavin and Mary Neil Hitchcock mourned the passing of another year with plenty of birthday cake. Mary Spears and Jean Wooten did some celebrating too, but they were politely persuaded to celebrate their engagements under the driving force of a shower. For the information of freshmen, it is a tradition that a "shower" be given for all girls who become engaged.

We all admit that the weather has been cool lately, but don't you think it is going a little too far to take a shower with your socks on, Kay Morello?

A stranger wandering along our halls might well mistake them for some Floridian beach, they have become so cluttered with umbrellas. The problem has become so bad that some girls have resorted to hanging their umbrellas from the ceiling to dry!

One last note — I hear that "Ooop" on the freshman football team has captured the heart of a certain La Fayette, Georgia, lass.

Until next time, that's all the news from the deep South.

98 Students Plan Practice Teaching

Dr. Edgar Beaty, director of student teaching for secondary schools at Middle Tennessee State College has announced that 98 persons will be doing a teaching internship during the fall semester. Some 30 Middle Tennessee schools have students from the Murfreesboro College working under the supervision of experienced teachers.

Orientation for the group was held Wednesday of this week with Bill May, principal of Shelbyville Central high school, Mrs. Jane Breast, Shelbyville, and Mrs. Iva Mae Alexander, Bell Buckle, as visiting speakers.

Participating schools include Bedford County Central, Bell Buckle, Shelbyville City, Woodburg, Manchester, Lebanon Junior and Senior high, Forrest high, Columbia Central, Whithorne Junior, MTSC campus school, Lynchburg, Murfreesboro City, Rutherford County Central, Kittrell, Lascassas, Smyrna, and from Davidson County, Antioch, Donelson, Dupont, Glenciff, Goodlettsville, Hillwood, Overton, and Two Rivers.

Dr. Beaty stated that the program this year will include the experience of living in and working with community groups in the Maury City schools. This effort, Dr. Beaty said, may establish a pattern for future student teaching programs.
