Semester Opens Drama Building For Fall Classes

Beginning this semester history, speech, drama, French, Spanish, and German classes will be held in the Dramatic Arts and Foreign Language Building.

The modern air-conditioned classrooms are complemented by twenty-six offices, faculty lounges, speech recording studios, speech therapy equipment, and by next year a language lab featuring 30 individual units.

Also included is a small theater seating 170 which will be used by the drama department as well as any small campus organizations.

The second part of the building is a theater containing a larger stage 40 feet deep, 70 feet wide and 60 feet high. This auditorium has a seating capacity of 700 downstairs and 300 in the balcony. Completion date for the division has been set for the first of May. Dressing rooms, prop rooms, projection booth, stage console, ticket office, lounge, refreshment bars, and public rest rooms, will also facilitate performers and audiences for forthcoming events.

The Sam Melson construction firm of Shelbyville was awarded the contract, which when fully completed will amount to about $841,000, not including equipment.

The building and auditorium is located immediately to the rear of the Fine Arts Building and faces the East drive of the campus quadrangle.

"Lettermen" Appear Tonight At 8 P.M.

The "Lettermen," Tony, Bob, and Jim, appear in gymnasium tonight at 8 p.m.

The Associated Student Body announced a host of big-name entertainment to appear on campus during the 1963-64 school semesters.

Such groups as "The Smothers Brothers", "The Lettermen", "The Andy Goodrich Jazz Orchestra", "Peter, Paul, and Mary", "The Four Saints", and many other will perform in the Gymnasium of MTSC at different dates throughout the year. These concerts are open not only to the students of Middle Tennessee State College, but also to the general public. Tickets to each concert on the campus will be available some two weeks before the event from any Associated Student Body Official at the College, or from many merchants in Murfreesboro.

The first in this series of famous entertainment will be "The Lettermen", world famous Capitol Recording artists, who will appear in Middle Tennessee State College's spacious Gymnasium on September 26 at 8 p.m.

"The Lettermen" are known for such million-selling records as "The Way You Look Tonight", "Come Back Silly Girl", "Smile", "When I Fall in Love", and many others. "The Lettermen" boast one of the freshest, most magnificent vocal blends of any group in the entertainment field, and the sound has brought them huge success.

"The Lettermen" sing folk songs, old songs, new songs, but always in their style. Tony, Bob, and Jim are from California, and they call themselves "The Lettermen" because they all lettered in some sport while in school. They will be at the Music Shop here in Murfreesboro from 3 until 4 p.m. September 26th to sign autographs and promote their latest album.

Five Hootenanny Stars Will Climax October 5 Whing Ding

MTSC students can look forward to a full weekend of entertainment on October 4 and 5 when the Associated Student Body presents the second featured big name entertainment show for 1963.

Scheduled to follow the excitement of the big MTSC—discoveries to emerge from the current upsurge in the popularity of folk music; Bessie Griffin and the Gospel Pearls who are specialists in the most contemporary of Afro-American musical forms and who are accompanied by the infectiously swinging, two-fisted piano of Charles Barnett with extra rhythmic impetus added by a drummer; and the show will be climaxed by the presentation of the MODERN FOLK QUARTET, a new, fresh-sounding group who specialize in taking large bites of mid-Twentieth Century musical know-how to bring the whole folk-works approach up to date.

Beginning at 8:00 p.m., TRAVELING HOOTENANNY will star Louis Gottlieb, comic spokesman for THE LIMELITERS, a true veteran performer; LYNN GOLD, one of the more impressive young Western Kentucky football game on Saturday afternoon, the TRAVELING HOOTENANNY will feature five big acts, all of which have appeared on ABC-TV's Hootenanny Show within the past few months.

Tickets will go on sale in the ASB office of the Student Union Building on Monday. Tickets will sell for $1.50 until noon on Thursday. At that time the price goes up to $2.00 and tickets at the door on Saturday evening will cost $2.50. A large group of folk-music fans are expected to attend from Western Kentucky, and your Associated Student Body urges you to buy your tickets early so you won't be left out.

Annuals Reserved In Room A201

It has been announced by Janice Alsop, business manager of the Midlander, that any student attending only the first semester of school who wants a Midlander may reserve one by paying $2.00 at room 201 in the Administration Building. These annuals will be mailed at the end of the school 1963-64 year. Any other extra year books may be reserved by paying $5.00. All extra year-books must be reserved.

Many New Secretaries Join Campus Staff

The changes in the secretarial personnel have been announced, co-incidentally with the plans for a special seminar for the secretaries at the college. Dr. Quill Cope, in announcing the study session for the college secretaries said that he felt it was important that the secretaries realize that the first image of the college in the mind of the visitor or one calling by telephone was often created by the attitude and response of the secretary.

Oct. 4-5 Schedule For Educational Teacher's Meeting

For the twentieth year Middle Tennessee State College will offer the school teachers of the Mid-State area an opportunity to participate in an educational conference designed to improve the instructional service of the area, October 4-5. More than 2,200 persons attended the two day conference in 1962 according to Roy Simpson, chairman of the educational conference committee of the college.

Programs, which are being mailed to school leaders this week, list seven nationally known educators as special speakers and an increased number of college and area educators on the program. Dr. Robert M. Bjork, professor of economics at Peabody College; Dr. Lucile Lindberg, professor of elementary education at Queens College, University of New York; Dr. Joe H. Parks, head of the department of history, University of Georgia; Dr. S. P. McCutchen, chairman social studies department, University of New York; Dr. George S. Parthemos, head of the department of political science, University of Georgia; Dr. Edward T. Baldwin, professor of geography, MTSC and Dr. Mary Tom Berry, assistant professor of elementary education, MTSC, are listed for the major addresses before the three divisions of teachers attending the conference.

The conference theme this year is "Education for Political and Citizenship Responsibility" and will involve education for service in the family, church and world affairs, according to Dr. Simpson. The role of the teacher in developing student economic and social responsibility will be important phases of the discussion.

Teachers of grades one, two and three will meet at the MTSC campus school. Those in grades four, five and six assemble at the college Union Building. The junior and senior high school teachers convene in the health and physical education building.

MTSC Expands To Meet Rising Student Enrollment

More than 4,000 students registered this fall as the college administration continues to expand facilities and personnel to accommodate the ever increasing numbers seeking admission.

The federal government has just approved a $400,000 loan to the college to aid in the construction of two new dormitories, each will provide space for 112 women students. The remaining funds for this construction, about $300,000, was approved by the General Assembly in 1963. These buildings will be constructed east of Baird's Lane on the opposite side of the campus from the present women's housing units. Both buildings will be completely air conditioned and mark the first construction in a new housing area that will eventually contain family housing units.

The last of the member of the Oscar R. Clouse family has registered for college this semester. Dr. Quill Cope extends his congratulations to the youngest member of the family, Martha Jane, as her father looks over her schedule cards. Meantime, Mrs. Della LeFevre Clouse adjusts the cap and gown that Joyce Ann wore for the August 23rd commencement at MTSC. Sue Clouse a summer school student is at the right. Other members of the Clouse family in addition to the father who have received degrees from MTSC are Wilma Dean Clouse Bush, Charles Clouse and James Clouse. Another son, Johnny Clouse, did three years of pre-engineering study before transferring to University of Tennessee.

August Graduation Acme Of Summer School Session

By Lita Russell

Some 140 men and women were graduated August 23, 1963, on Jones Field. Sharing the activities that same day were a number of candidates receiving their Master of arts Degree. These people and others like them are America's future.

Tennessee towns volunteered their services, red carpet and all, for the members of the Advanced Aerospace Workshop from here. The failure to recognize the importance of small city artistrips was the thought stressed throughout the jaunt.

The summer months brought about not only the changing season but also the name of a Home Economics member. Miss Mary Carr Haynie became Mrs. Austin Dean Parker.

Dr. C. Edwin Howard is to be congratulated, as well as the cast, for the fine production of "Pygmalion" presented in late August of this year.

"This is the only generation where the knowledge and skills of the father are not appropriate for the son." This startling remark was made by J. Howard Warf, Tennessee Commissioner of Education, in a speech before a group of Aerospace workers this summer.

Hot wind and dry air might be two ways of expressing what ROTC cadets felt during their experiences at Fort Benning, Georgia. There were some 1,900 cadets from 35 colleges and universities attending the summer exercises.

A special attraction was added this year for the members of the geography department who toured Europe. While on their visit to England they saw Queen Elizabeth; a sight some Englishmen have yet in store.

Recognition of two graduates goes to Miss Lillie Brown Tipps, recently chose "Woman of Achievement" by the Tennessee Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, and Mr. James Kemp, Chosen Biologist of the year. MTSC speaks well of itself through people such as these.

A. W. Thanks Students

I could not adequately express my deep gratitude to the many students who have co-operated with the ASB during the past two weeks to make the opening of the MTSC school year an unparalleled success. Comments from students and faculty have proved that your efforts were not noticed by me alone. I think that this letter, received by the ASB, expresses my sentiments and those of the many students to whom the ASB officials and class and club presidents gave assistance:

Dear Mr. Powell,

I would like to express my appreciation for the assistance given us by members of the Student Body on Sunday afternoon as we brought our daughter to enter MTSC. It is such a confusing experience for parents and students alike, and, so, it was more than a pleasant surprise to be unloaded and into the dorm in less than ten minutes.

We also were very proud of the article appearing in the Sunday Nashville Tennessean, and wish that a magazine such as Life would pick up the article. Please convey our deep appreciation to the young people who helped us.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Harry B. Wooten

Another letter, very similar in content, closed with this statement:

"What we saw of MTSC students during the time our son was getting registered and into the dormitory convinced us that we could have chosen no finer place than MTSC. We're proud that he will be a part of such an outstanding college. Please express our thanks to the wonderful people in your student government."

Sincerely,
Mrs. James R. Reed

After such letters, what else there for me to say, except that all of you did a wonderful job!

President,

College Expenditures Total $3,700,000 Annually

Faculty, students and non-professional employees at the college spent at least $3,700,000 in Murfreesboro and Rutherford county annually.

This figure is based on conservative estimates made by Dr. Homer Pittard and members of the college annual staff after a survey sampling of expenditures. These expenditures cover a wide range of investment from real estate to rest home services. Apparently every segment of the local economy benefits directly from these expenditures and much of that spent is money produced in other sections of the State and nation.

The annual expenditures by the college for instructional and sustaining personnel is $1,604,000. From campus surveys of faculty and other employees it is indicated that at least 75% of this sum is spent locally.

Purchase of college supplies and services in the community and the per capita expenditure by the student body (which this year will exceed 4,000) brings in another half million, exclusive of room rents and downtown food services.

Scores of campus activities bring thousands of people to Murfreesboro each year. Parent visitations, athletic contests, tournaments, educational conferences and workshops, agricultural demonstrations, band choral camps and competitions, art exhibits science fairs, forensic contests, dramatic presentations and the State Fire School, Girls' State and other meetings bring additional money spending visitors to Murfreesboro.

The construction program at the college which is being completed this fall and which will be under way before Christmas of 1963 will amount to $3,200,000 and will employ a large number of workmen, many of whom are local residents.

Nashville, Tenn. Praises ASB

MTSC was given the lead position in the Nashville Tennessean Sunday editorial section with an article entitled "Middle Tennessee State College accents the Positive" written by Jimmy Carnahan, staff correspondent.

The article was complimentary of the positive attitude expressed by thirty-one Middle Tennessee State College campus leaders in a preschool encampment at Camp Hy-Lake, September 8-10.

The philosophy of the article was expressed in the statement "Middle Tennessee State College students spent three days of soul searching for Ways to develop Leadership from campus experience that would benefit them as adult citizens." The article is illustrated by pictures of Dr. Quill E. Cope addressing the group, that of A. W. Powell, ASB president, and Mickey O'Brien, president of the Track and Sabre club. "Concerning the purpose of the camp and the objectives which the student leadership hopes to obtain this year" were from Mr. Powell, Mr. O'Brien, Mike Rothmann, Steve Bebb, Sally Smith, Phillip Slabarn, and Dr. William Beasley.

Dr. Bill Beasley characterized the encampment has an "advance and not a retreat." One of the concrete accomplishments of the meeting was plans for the function of the new Honor Council at Middle Tennessee State College and a concentrated student approach to the "moral weakness that makes a student cheat on exams."

Senior, Dianne Dorris, Plans To Uphold Organization Standards

Intelligence, bauty, and talent are coordinated in the introductions of Dianne Dorris, a senior business education major.

President of both Tau Omicron, the women's honorary society, and Pi Omega Pi, business honorary Fraternity, are the current offices held by this Greenbrier co-ed.

DIANNE

As president of Pi Omega Pi, her main objective is to continue the Carolyn Divkdon Scholarship fund. This fund pays all fees for an outstanding freshman majoring in business.

To uphold the high standards of scholarship and character represented by the members of both organizations is the primary goal Dianne has set for this school year.

Dianne attended the Associated Student Body retreat held at Camp Hi Lake. Her comments on the sessions were extremely favorable. "As a result of the comments and directed discussion groups, I feel better qualified as a leader because I understand the actual functions of the ASB. Planning activities for the societies with which I am associated will be simplified because I became better acquainted with school policies. Presidential responsibilities should be easier to cope with due to my increased knowledge."

"Most people think of the ASB as a body of interested students incorporated to work for the benefit of all students."

Playing the piano and organ are outstanding talents possessed by this versital senior.

Dianne has taken advantage of the social and scholastic opportunities offered at MTSC which will enable her to face the future with confidence.

ID Cards, Necessity For Football Admission

Students must have an ID card to be admitted to all home football games. Members of the ASB Supreme Court will be checking ID cards at the gate and any student who does not have an identification card will have to purchase a ticket.

MONEY WILL NOT BE REFUNDED ON TICKETS PURCHASED BY STUDENTS WITHOUT ID CARDS. If, for some reason, the Office of the Dean of Students, has not been able to issue a student an ID card, he should get a written statement to this effect from the Dean of Students, otherwise, he will be required to purchase a ticket also.

Student Teaching Plans Dr. Beaty Announces

Dr. Edgar Beaty, director of student teaching for secondary schools, has announced that 98 persons will be doing a teaching internship during the fall semester. Some 30 Middle Tennessee schools have students from the Murfreesboro College working under the supervision of experienced teachers.

Orientation for the group was held Wednesday of last week with Bill May, principal of Shelbyville Central high school, Mrs. Jane Breast, Shelbyville, and Mrs. Iva Mae Alexander, Bell Buckle, as visiting speakers.

Program Expanded For Night, Sat. Sessions

The college will have a much more elaborate evening and Saturday class program this year as the education director at Sewart Air Force Base has asked for the inclusion of French, German, Spanish, political science, economics and an expanded mathematics and science offerings to accommodate airmen and officers who wish to complete work on college degrees. It is now possible for a student to earn a college degree at MTSC by attending evening and Saturday classes only.

Ramblin' With The Raiders

by Larry Black

The Blue Raider players and fans will get their first look at U.T.M.B. here Saturday 28. Coach Carroll's Vols will invade Jones Field with a fairly young team. They lost their entire starting backfield, key ends, and tackles. Perhaps their biggest loss though was All-VSAC'er Vernon Prather, veteran passinc ace. This slot will be filled by senior Bill Watson. Watson is a fine passer, top-notch punter, and a keen field general.

The Vol defense seems to have shaped up fairly well though as they defeated Arkansas State _____.

Since this is the first meeting of the two teams, let's take a closer look at our opponents. U.T.M.B. is located, of course, at Martin, Tennessee. The campus contains 75 acres of wooded land. At the present the campus is rapidly growing with three new buildings being completed this year and a new stadium started this year. U.T.M.B. has existed as a four year institute since 1951. In those 12 years they have compiled an over-all 48-44 record in football.

This is the first football game at home against a new opponent, so let's show our visitors some real school spirit.

Intramural sports will be getting under way before too long. Why not check and see when your favorite sport is scheduled and plan to participate.

Short Shots

"Tip your hat to Head"—During this last summer our own campus got its own National Champion. The first champ was Gary Head. Gary won the NATIONAL title with an under par 278, 3 strokes ahead of Larry Fryer of Hardin-Simmons. Gary will graduate this coming January with a degree in social science.

DOUBLE VISION—The Blue Raiders have a set of twins from Sevierville, Tennessee back with us this year. Larry and Gary Whaley. Whaley is a 5'11", 170 lb. Senior and Larry is a 5'10", 170 lb. Junior. Both are fine players and great guys. Larry was honorable mention All-OVC in 60 and 61. He sat out the 62 season because of a knee operation.

Get ready to "hoop" it up—Basketball is just two months away. Coach Bill Stokes' Blue Raiders will have a tough 21 game schedule. New opponents will be Transylvania and Georgia Southern. The season opens at home against Transy on December 2.

DOUBLE TALK—There are two Bobby Langfords at football practice these days. One is Bobby Langford, 6'4", 255 pound tackle and the other is Bobby Langford, football manager.

MIGHTY MURPHY—A fact that might go unnoticed is the amazing won-lost record of the Blue Raiders under Coach "Bubber" Murphy. Since Coach Murphy took over the reins from Coach E. W. Midgett in 1947 the Raiders have established a very good 115-43-7 record. Certainly a great credit to a great coach.

'Buck' Bouldin Named Head Tennis Coach

President Quill E. Cope announced today that Granville S. R. "Buck" Bouldin will join the MTSC coaching staff as head tennis coach this year.

Bouldin, a partner in the Ridley-Bouldin Law Firm here, is well known in tennis circles throughout this area. He has been city champion of Murfreesboro five times, winner of the Murray, Ky. open tourney, and this summer was runner-up in the Paducah, Ky. open tournament.

His tennis experience began at Washington & Lee University where he was a member of the varsity tennis squad for three years. He captained the 1950 W&L team, and was coach for his alma mater during the 1951 season leading them to their first winning season in several years. For his efforts, the Washington & Lee athletic board voted him a "Major" letter, although tennis was listed as a minor sport.

Coach Bouldin, a native of Murfreesboro who was raised in Muskogee, Oklahoma, was Muskogee junior champion in 1946. He returned to Muskogee in 1949 to win the Men's championship title.

Bouldin served in the U.S. Marine Corps as a captain, and played on the Camp Pendleton tennis team for one season. He returned to Murfreesboro in 1953 to set up his law practice.

The new Blue Raider net coach has participated in many tournaments over the past ten years. He is currently the fifth ranked Men's Singles player by the Nashville Tennis Association. He and his wife (Martha) won the Mixed Doubles title in the Shelby Open in 1962, and were runners-up in the mixed doubles Nashville Municipal open this year.

He holds the B.S. and L.L.B. degrees from Washington & Lee, and the Master of Arts degree in education from Middle Tennessee State College. He was a part time history instructor at MTSC from 1958-60. Mr. Bouldin's new coaching duties will be a similar part-time post.

Illinois Cager Signs Basketball Grant-in-Aid

Coach Bil Stokes has signed another outstanding basketball prospect to a grant-in-aid.

Barry Jackson, a 6-6, 205 lb. center-forward from Belleville, Illinois is the latest cager to join the Blue Raider camp. He will transfer to MTSC from Washington (St. Louis) University where he played on the freshman team last year.

During his high school play with Belleville Township, Jackson was co-captain, All-conference, All-District, honorable mention All-state, and special mention All-Southern Illinois.

'Big Blue' Picked To Win OVC Championship

MTSC has again been made the target for Ohio Valley Conference football foes. The Blue Raiders of Coach Charles "Bubber" Murphy were listed in STREET AND SMITH'S FOOTBALL YEARBOOK as the choice for the 1963 football title.

The article reads, "The Blue Raiders of coach Charles (Bubber) Murphy haven't finished lower than second in eight years, and chances are the string will be extended.

Thirty of 36 lettermen are back, including Little All-American end candidate George Dykes, a two-time All-O.V.C. choice who has been hounded by knee troubles, and sophomore quarterback Teddy Morris, a first-year sensation who led the league in passing percentage (.573, off 47 hits in 82 flips, for 726 yards). Also back is team's leading ground gainer, junior full-back David Petty, who rolled up 400 yards in 92 carries.

Speed boy Larry Whaley, a two-year starter who missed last season with a knee operation, showed old form in the spring."

The predictions for the Ohio Valley Conference for 1963 were listed:

1. Middle Tennessee
2. East Tennessee
3. Western Kentucky
4. Morehead
5. Eastern Kentucky
6. Tennessee Tech
7. Murray State
8. Austin Peay

THE DEAN YOU SAVE MAY BE YOUR OWN

Colleges are complicated and bewildering places, filled with complicated and bewildering people. Today let us examine one of the most complicated and bewildering—yet fetching and lovable—of all campus figures. I refer, of course, to the dean of students.

Policeman and confessor, shepherd and seer, warden and oracle, proconsul and pal—the dean of students is all of these. How, then, can we understand him? Well sir, perhaps the best way is to take an average day in the life of an average dean. Here, for example, is what happened last Thursday to Dean Killjoy N. Dampier of the Duluth College of Belles Lettres and Pennmican.

At 6 a.m. he woke, dressed, lit a Marlboro, and went up on the roof of his house to remove the statue of the Founder which had been placed there during the night by high-spirited undergraduates.

Dean, Policeman, Confessor, Shepherd, Seer...etc.

At 7 a.m. he lit a Marlboro and walked briskly to the campus. (The Dean had not been driving his car since it had been placed on the roof of the girls dormitory by high-spirited undergraduates.)

At 7:45 a.m. he arrived on campus, lit a Marlboro and climbed the bell tower to remove his secretary who had been placed there during the night by high-spirited undergraduates.

At 8 a.m. he reached his office, lit a Marlboro, and met with E. Pluribus Ewbank, editor of the student newspaper. Young Ewbank had been writing a series of editorials urging the United States to annex Canada. When the editorials had evoked no response, he had taken matters into his own hands. Accompanied by his society editor and two proofreaders, he had gone over the border and conquered Manitoba. With great patience and several Marlboro Cigarettes, the Dean persuaded young Ewbank to give Manitoba back. Young Ewbank, however, insisted on keeping Winnipeg.

At 9 a.m. the Dean lit a Marlboro and met with Robert Penn Sigafos, president of the local Sigma Chi chapter, who came to report that the Deke house had been put on top of the Sigma Chi house during the night by high-spirited undergraduates.

At 10 a.m. the Dean lit a Marlboro and went to umpire an intramural softball game on the roof of the law school where the campus baseball diamond had been placed during the night by high-spirited undergraduates.

At 12 noon the Dean had a luncheon meeting with the prexy, the bursar, and the registrar, at the bottom of the campus swimming pool where the faculty dining room had been placed during the night by high-spirited undergraduates. Marlboros were passed after luncheon, but not lighted, owing to dampness.

At 2 p.m., back in his office, the Dean lit a Marlboro and received the Canadian Minister of War who said unless young Ewbank gave back Winnipeg, the Canadian army would march against the U.S. immediately. Young Ewbank was summoned and agreed to give back Winnipeg if he could have Moose Jaw. The Canadian Minister of War at first refused, but finally consented after young Ewbank placed him on the roof of the metallurgy building.

At 3 p.m. the Dean lit a Marlboro and met with a delegation from the student council who came to present him with a set of matched luggage in honor of his fifty years' service as dean of students. The Dean promptly packed the luggage with all his clothing and fled to Utica, New York, where he is now in the aluminum siding game.

Presidents Attend ABS Retreat

More than fifty club and class presidents and five Freshman observers attended the first Associated Student Body Pre-School Leadership Retreat at Camp Hy-Lake on September 8, 9, and 10.

Invitations were extended to all presidents of our campus organizations to participate in this planning session for the coming school year. In addition to the student leaders, Dean Hampton, Mr. Keathley, Dr. William Beasley, Dr. C. Edwin Howard, Mrs. Anne Faris, Mr. Jimmy Cranford, Mr. Ramon DeShazo, Mr. Lane Boutwell, and President Quill Cope attended the retreat as consultants for the student leaders.

The theme of the Retreat was A-S-B: A—lways S—ee B—eyond the Beginning. President Cope opened the Retreat by giving an address which stated his hopes for the Retreat and for the attainments of student government throughout the coming year.

A conference to determine the responsibilities and characteristics of a leader opened the group discussions aspect of the retreat. Student panelists determined that a leader should always be conscious of the will of the group which he led, but they also agreed that there were instances in which a leader had a higher responsibility which demanded that he use his own convictions to make decisions which he believed to be for the good of the group even though they might not conform completely to group will. Student leaders also concurred that even while a leader attempted to follow the wishes of the majority, he also had a responsibility to protect the rights of the minority.

From this analysis of leader-

"Raider's Choice," Ribbon Winner

H. Marshall Dozier

MTSC is now the proud owner of a ribbon winner walking horse colt. The colt's name is "Raider's Choice". His sire is "Max Choice" and his dam is "Lady Red Head".

The boys living on the Agricultural Department Farm, along with Dr. Alexander are to be handed a hardy congratulations for their fine work with the little colt. Bill DuVall alone is more responsible than anyone else. He trained the colt and August 16th, showed him at the V.F.W. Colt Show in Cornersville. There he won second place in the "Best Walking Horse Colt" event. Bill and the colt went to the colt show at the DeKalb County Fair. He took another second place in the "Weanling Horse Colt" class and later in the evening he won "Reserve Championship".

Dr. Alexander, Pee Wee Brittan, Jim Forbes, and I followed Bill and the colt to the show August 16th, but somehow we got there ahead of them. At any rate, by the time everyone got there, got organized and ready to show, we were all fairly nervous. I think that was justified since it was the first show for the colt, for M.T.S.C., and everyone in the group as well. We were all so green, we didn't know what was coming off. As Pee Wee so aptly put it, "Didn't none of us know what we were doing, but together we figured the dern thing out."

The College's Walking Horse Program received quite a bit of publicity and it is my opinion that this program as well as the group trying to organize a Rodeo Club will be a couple of the more active groups on campus this year. come.

ship, the group proceeded to discuss problems of a more specific nature. They analyzed the campus judicial system and recommended a reorganization of the structure, particularly of the men's dormitory council. A group conference on the student government constitution brought many suggestions, the most important one being a recommendation to raise the cumulative point average required to hold the presidency of an organization from 2.0 to 2.3.

In an attempt to solve some of the more pressing problems on our campus, the students investigated the questions of how to improve campus communications, how to improve student-faculty relationships, how to make student government more effective and how to better use the Inter-President's Council. In a special Sunday evening session, President Cope, Dean Hampton, Dean Keathley and Mr. Cranford formed a special panel to answer any questions that the student leaders wished to pose.

The most outstanding problems which were brought up were the lack of sufficient counselling in regard to curriculum and scheduling, lack of understanding and communication between faculty and students as a whole, and problems arising for upperclassmen in regard to the scheduling of some required classes.

Dr. William Beasley summarized the feelings of the majority of those who attended the retreat when he said: "The ASB Retreat, although I think it should more rightly be called the ASB Advance, was more than a success. Students and faculty members found common goals for which to strive and I believe that if the awareness and community of Hy-Lake can be transmitted to our student body at large that we can achieve a spirit of advance and co-operation on our campus that will not be excelled anywhere." Dr. Beasley termed the ASB Retreat "the beginning that we may see beyond."

The final tribute to the significance of this effort was made by the Nashville Tennessean who wrote a featured article comparing the students at the Leadership Retreat with the fifty students who had defied the US government to visit and praise Castro's Communist Cuba.

Glass Named Top Cadet At ROTC Summer Camp

Cadet Frank Glass of Kissimmee, Florida, a member of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at MTSC recently completed six weeks of training at the ROTC Summer Camp, Fort Benning, Georgia. Approximately 1800 cadets from colleges and universities throughout the southeastern United States participated in the camp.

Cadet Glass excelled in all activities and earned the much-coveted designation of Distinguished Military Student. To achieve this honor, a cadet must stand among the upper one-third of all cadets competing. If a cadet maintains this high level of achievement, not only in ROTC, but all campus activities, he may be designated as a Distinguished Military Graduate and be offered a Regular Army Commission upon graduation from college.
