VOICE OF MTSC, THE COLLEGE OF INDIVIDUAL OPPORTUNITY

Vol. 34 — No. 1

Middle Tennessee State College, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Wednesday, September 28, 1960

McMinnville. These students were selected from a group of 29 girls and two boys who competed for the positions. Immediately following their selection, the group voted for Captain, and Betty Caudill was elected to serve her second year as head of the squad.

Policies of Bookstore Outlined By Dr. Cope

The policies of the MTSC bookstore have been outlined recently in an announcement released by Dr. Quill E. Cope, president of the college.

The bookstore, under the management of Charles Phillips, will have as its principal objective service, and not philanthropy. Commercial profit, however, shall not be its objective.

It is recognized, nevertheless, that profits may accrue, Dr. Cope stated.

The purpose of the bookstore is to make available to the student body, college personnel and departments, the required books, school supplies, documents, used books, and other assorted merchandise that characterize good college bookstores.

It will not seek the patronage of the general public, nor will it refuse such patronage.

The prices of the bookstore will not be in competition with commercial enterprises that offer equal merchandise, nor will they be higher than those required by good business practices.

The bookstore is college-owned and will be managed as such. It will have the power to approve all purchases, recruitment and dismissal of personnel, and meeting its operation expense such as rent, salaries, light, water, telephone, etc.

The college also outlined new policies concerning used textbooks. They will buy current used textbooks in good condition at 50 percent off the list price and sell them at 75 per cent of the list price. For example, a new book that costs the student $5.00, the college will buy it "second hand" for $2.50.

The college bookstore stands ready to buy all obsolete and dropped titles at current prices. These prices are in most cases much lower than normal value of the books, however.

Students Instruct Home Economics

First four vocational home economics student teachers from Middle Tennessee State College are Sarah Horton, McMinnville, Carolyn Mullins, Shelbyville, Sylvia Williams, Murfreesboro and Mary Wallen, Springfield. The four young ladies, all seniors, will spend the next two months on the job in high schools at Manchester and Lynchburg. These are schools designated as "home economics education centers" by Miss Mabel Yates, state supervisor of home economics education.

Miss Horton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bacle N. Horton, is a member of the MTSC Buchanan Players. Miss Mullins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie B. Mullins. She is a member of the MTSC chorus.

Both will work under direction of Miss Elizabeth Johnston, Coffee County high school, on an all-day teaching assignment until November 11. They are staying in the home of Mrs. Basil B. McMahan in Manchester. Joe Frank Patch, MTSC alumnus is principal of the Coffee county school.

Miss Williams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams and is editor of the MTSC MIDLANDER for 1961. Miss Wallen's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Brown Wallen. She is president of the Kappa Omicron Phi, home economics national fraternity.

Miss Williams and Miss Wallen are staying in the home of Mrs. Mary Babon.

Harrell Made Booster Head

By Brenda Talley

This fall the cheerleaders at MTSC are sponsoring a new organization—the Boosters. The club's purpose is to back the cheerleaders as they cheer the Raiders on to victory.

School spirit and fifty cents are the only qualifications necessary for membership. All Boosters receive a membership card enabling them to sit in a special section at all athletic functions.

The officers are president, Charles Harrell; vice-president, Betty Caudill; secretary, Pat Beasley; treasurer, Bill Terry, and sergeant-at-arms, Billy Sam Bennett.

Cheerleaders Chosen; Caudill Is Captain

By Sandra Barrett, News Editor

Cheerleaders re-elected this year on September 21 to yell for the Blue Raiders are Betty Caudill and Betty Willard, seniors; Linda Sue Reeves, junior, and Pat Beasley, sophomore.

Freshmen newcomers chosen to the squad included Margie Patterson, Pat Cooper, Sue Blankenship, and Bill Brown. Bill is the first boy to represent the squad since 1956.

STUDENT TEACHERS NOTE!

All student teachers for 1960-61 will be expected to hold membership in SNEA.

The dues are $2 and may be paid in the education department office.

The membership drive will remain open until the first part of October. W. B. Bowdoin.

Speech Arts Club Sets First Meeting

The first meeting of the Speech Arts Society will be Tuesday, September 27, at 10:50 a.m. in room 20 of the "old" Music Building.

All former members and any one else interested in becoming a member is invited to be present.

The group is active in intercollegiate debating and in various forms of individual speaking. Participation in various tournaments throughout the South are planned for this year.

In November the debaters will travel to Western Kentucky State College. In January the plans are to attend the tournament at Agnes Scott College near Atlanta, Georgia; and in early March the group will attend the Magnolia Tournament in Columbus, Mississippi.

One of the highlights of the '60-'61 season will be the trip to the National Pi Kappa Delta Tournament at Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, Oklahoma, in late March.

Along with the debating and speaking experience members of the society get, there's a lot of excitement and fun on the trips. Students who would like to learn more of this activity should feel free to come Tuesday, September 27, to the first meeting.

Betty Caudill, a pre-law major and senior from Nashville, was chosen captain of the squad for the second year. This will be the fourth year for Betty as a Raider cheerleader.

Jones Field was the scene of the competition, with faculty members and student representatives appearing as judges. A grand total of 29 girls and two boys were present for try-outs.

Faculty judges were Fred Rubens, art department; Lane Boutwell, speech department, and Joan Gordan, physical education department. Student judges included Stan Rogers, ASB president; Johnny Bently, senior class president; Ernest Bugg, junior class president, and Billy Escue, sophomore class president. Mrs. Alma Bass is sponsor of the cheerleading squad.

All contestants gave two cheers and were judged individually on ability, enthusiasm, voice command, neatness and appearance. Several spectators were on hand for the judging and will also be present to support the cheerleaders at football and basketball games and other sports events.

From Chattanooga comes Betty Willard, a senior and a third year "cheerer" for MTSC.

A junior English major from Murfreesboro is Linda Reeves, who is in her second year as a Raider cheerleader.

Gayle Beasley, a home economics major from Oak Ridge, is the sophomore member of the squad.

One of the four new faces on the squad this year is that of Margie Patterson from Nashville, a graduate of Central High.

While a student there, Margie was a cheerleader for 3 years and participated in numerous activities. She is Methodist, and her favorite sports are dancing and water skiing.

EDITORIALS --- In Sympathy—

Deepest sympathy is extended to the families of Gene Douglas Cunningham, Dr. C. C. Sims and Miss Carolyn Dixon, all of whom were associated with Middle Tennessee State College.

Mr. Cunningham, a native of Fayetteville who would have been a senior this year, drowned while water skiing in the Tennessee river this summer. Witnesses said the rope fastened to his ski belt apparently broke.

Dr. Sims, head of social studies at MTSC for more than thirty years, died in Rutherford Hospital. During his tenure at MTSC, which extended from 1922 until his retirement in 1957, Dr. Sims contributed much to the welfare of the college, the community, and the state. Sims Hall is named for him.

Miss Dixon, who had been employed as a college secretary here since her graduation several years back, died at Vanderbilt Hospital. While a student, she was president of Tau Omicron honor society for girls and was elected to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

Also especially missed on campus this year is Dr. H. C. Brearley, member of the social science faculty, who died unexpectedly of a heart attack during final examinations last spring. Dr. Brearley was nationally recognized as a teacher, lecturer and author.

A Midfall's Night Quiet —

Dramatis Personae

Scene

Sally Senior
Fanny Freshman
MTSC Cheerleaders (seven)
MTSC Fans (many)
Austin Peay fans (few)

Jones Field, September 17, 1960.

(Enter Sally, Fanny, Cheerleaders, Fans)

Sally. The air bites shrewdly; it is a nipping and eager air we have for this game.

Fanny. Fortune, good night, smile once more; turn thy wheels for the Raiders.

(All sit.)

Sally. The field lights are on—blessed candles of the night.

Fanny. Hark! The kick-off!

(Fanny leaps to feet; no one else stirs.)

Fanny. Spirits are not finely touched—hark, I stand alone for the kick-off!

Sally. We would, and we would not. Not that we love the Raiders less, but that we love to sit more.

MTSC Cheerleaders (seven). Who's right?

Fanny (alone). RAIDERS!

MTSC Fans (many). (Silence.)

Fanny. To cheer or not to cheer, that is the question. Whether 'tis nobler of the school spirit to endure the silence and stares of unenthused spectators, or by taking up silence against a sea of tranquility, end school spirit.

Sally. Methought I heard a voice cry, "Cheer no more."

Fanny. 'Tis so quiet I wonder when the ushers will pass the collection plates.

Austin Peay Fans (few and across field). YEA! RAH!

MTSC Fans (many and near). (Silence.)

MTSC Cheerleaders (seven). Go, Raiders!

Fanny. Raider fans, Raider fans, wherefore art thou?

MTSC Fans (many). (Silence.)

Fanny. Fair is foul and foul is fair—the game is good but no spirit's there.

Sally. Methinks the lady doth protest too much.

Fanny (to team). Raiders thou art, and winners, and shall be what thou are promised (OVC champions)—yet do I fear the poorness of our spirit shall hinder thy catching the nearest plane to the bowl game.

Sally. Hark! 'Tis done. When shall we two meet again?

Fanny. When the hurlyburly's done, when the Booster Club has won—may that be ere the set of the sun!

(Exeunt all, silently.)

It Happened On Campus

By Kenneth Love

Welcome to the 51st year of Middle Tennessee State College! It will take students almost a week to learn the names of other students just on the same floor of the residence hall they are in. Just a reminder to keep up the school spirit.

And speaking of school spirit, what better way to support the Blue Raiders than to join the Booster Club on Campus. It's the newest organization in the form of a pep club to support all athletics. You may sit in a special section at all ballgames if you are a member—and the cost is just 50¢.

Cheerleaders were chosen Tuesday for the coming year. Support the pep rallies and cheerleaders to help the football team have another great season.

It was announced last week that over 1/3 of the student pictures for the annual were completed. Last year, due to the printer, the annual was not a complete success. Lots of luck to the staff this year.

After the new wings of Monohan are opened, the college will have a total of 1136 students living in the 9 dormitories on campus.

Total enrollment for the campus will be over 2600 after the Saturday students finish enrolling.

The new driveway is open to traffic but no student parking will be allowed on the driveway, it was announced.

Deepest sympathy to Billy Sam Bennett of Manchester in the loss of his father recently. Billy was elected on the membership committee in the Booster Club for this year. He will not be here this semester.

Lyon Lines

Domestic Lyons Brighten Up Dorm

By Sylvia Qualls

Several residents of Lyon have done a very good job in the decoration of their rooms. Ellen Elias has her single fixed up beautifully. Sue Pogue and Barbara Elmore have also done a nice job. However, one of the nicest decoration jobs we have seen so far was done by Launa Long and Polly Chambers. Curtains, rugs and bedspreads all match. Green plants are in the windows and pictures are on the walls. Several stuffed animals enhance the beds. Congratulations, girls!

After much scurrying about to get rooms in order, several girls from Lyon attended the combination talent and fashion show. Most of us found it extremely entertaining as well as informative. It removed most of the doubt in the minds of transfers as well as freshmen about what to wear where and reviewed some of the talent about campus to us.

Around seven o'clock Lyon was a madhouse as everyone was trying to get in the showers, borrow an evening bag, and put on make-up in preparation for the President's Reception. Eight o'clock found most of us decked out in our frills, only to stand in line for several hours to meet the faculty.

Lyon was practically deserted Friday night, as most of us Lyonsians were attending the game and dance. Everyone seemed to be having barrels of fun at both events.

Much to the chagrin of most freshman girls, the parade was postponed. This seems only to prolong the agony of the beanies, onion necklaces, and inside-out bremudas. I suppose we will have to meet our fates later in the year. Cheer up girls, everybody is a freshman at one time.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR --- From The ASB Officers—

To the Student Body:

As this new year begins, we would like to take the opportunity to welcome you to the campus of Middle Tennessee State College. It is good to see all the old students back, and it is with a great deal of pleasure that we welcome the freshmen and the new students to our campus.

May your college days mean much to you. We urge you to take advantage of the many wonderful opportunities before you, because college life is what you make it. Always keep your primary purpose of coming to college in mind so that you may obtain your ultimate goal. Take part in our wide range of campus activities and become a vital part of our campus. A combination such as this makes for us a well-rounded education.

We especially urge you to take part in your ASB. This organization is set up to partially fulfill our needs as students and to give us valuable experience in self-government. We hope that you will take advantage of every opportunity to work with your student government and to strengthen it in every respect.

We will try at all times to keep you informed; and at any time we can be of service to you, please do not fail to call upon us. We welcome your ideas, suggestions or criticism. After all, the ASB is all of us.

Expert Defines Marriage— Read On, Young Lovers!

By Betty Meadows

Marriage is a ceremony in which rings are put on the finger of the lady and through the nose of the gentleman. It is a woman's hair net tangled in a man's spectacles on top of the bedroom dresser. Marriage is an institution which unites two people together. Marriage is an institution. Marriage is love; love is blind; therefore, marriage is an institution for the blind.

There's one advantage in being married—a man can't make a fool of himself without knowing it.

A husband is depended upon by his wife, such as the time the newlyweds were honeymooning in Florida. As they walked along, he looked out toward the sea and cried, "Roll on, thou deep and dark blue ocean, roll." His bride gazed at the breakers for a moment and then said, "Oh, Herman, you wonderful man—it's doing it!"

Marriage resembles a pair of shears, so joined that they cannot be separated, often moving in opposite directions, yet always punishing anyone who comes between them.

A girl no longer marries a man for better or worse. She marries him for more or less.

Is not marriage an open question? From the beginning of the world, such as are in the institution wish to get out, and such as are out wish to get in.

Marriage begins with a prince kissing an angel. It ends with a baldheaded man looking across the table at a fat woman. To disbelieve in marriage is easy; to love a married woman is easy; but to betray a comrad, to be disloyal to a host, to break the covenant of bread and salt is impossible.

There are two objects in marriage, love and money. If you marry for love, you will have some very happy days and many uneasy ones; if for money, you have no happy days and probably no uneasy ones.

And now I would like to distinguish the difference in a man's appearance before and after marriage.

Before: He walked, a spring in his step, a happy smile on his lips. He walked gaily, his hands on a little lavender note which read: "Dearest, yes, I love you and will marry you."

After: He walked, his shoulders stooped, his mouth drooped. Glumly he walked, his hands on a little brown note which read: "1 lb. of potatoes, 3 dozen eggs, 1/2 lb. bacon—slice it thin."

Tax Is Half Gas Cost—

Direct taxes on gasoline now equal nearly one-half the cost of the fuel itself, according to American Petroleum Institute figures.

Gas taxes rose 51 per cent during the '50s to an all-state average of 10.2 cents a gallon at the close of 1959. The average retail cost of a gallon of gas at the end of last year was 21.18 cents—plus tax.

Unique Class Of Freshmen Enjoy Lines

By Pat Beasley
Feature Editor

"What do I do now, Coach?"

This is a typical question asked by the people of MTSC known as freshmen. And a unique class of freshmen it is—numbering more than any other freshmen class to register in the history of Middle Tennessee State College.

To help answer some of these questions the first week was a committee of upperclassmen representing the Associated Student Body. This committee worked in close harmony with the freshmen to help them in any way which was possible.

To begin their first "l-o-n-g" and confusing week at MTSC, the freshmen arose bright and early Monday morning only to stand in line for having pictures taken. I wonder if those beanies will show up on any I. D. cards this year? And what a line it was; one girl was overheard to say, "If I faint it's a cinch I won't fall because the people are packed so tight."

The first freshmen assembly was scheduled at 2:00 p.m. Monday, at which time an explanation of the week's work and activities was given. Tuesday was set aside for testing and another assembly for the purpose of going through registration procedures.

Then another line was formed Wednesday morning for all those freshmen who had not pre-registered. Finally, the real fun began on Friday morning when they met their very first college classes from 8:00 to 10:00; these being followed by an all-college assembly.

Portraying the brighter side of the week were the activities engaged in at night. These gala affairs were such things as an all-student movie, a freshmen mixer, and a style and talent show. Vesper Services were held on Wednesday night, the President's Reception and dance on Thursday night, and then on Friday night an all-student party.

The climax of evening activities was the opening game between MTSC and Austin Peay, which we won!

Although this was a hectic and probably even disheartening week for some, I think it was an excellent orientation to many more weeks of wonderful and happy experiences.

Robert Pettus Hay Wins Mathematics Scholarship

Winner of the Charles F. Lewis mathematics scholarship at MTSC for the past year was Robert Pettus Hay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hay of Rockvale.

Hay had an over-all average of 3.88 for the year and made straight A's for the spring semester.

The award is made annually to the MTSC freshman major in mathematics who maintains the best scholastic average. The donor is Charles F. Lewis, MTSC alumnus, who is now a member of the faculty at North Carolina State College, Raleigh.

MTSC Trips Governors 6-0 In Strong Last-Half Rally

Middle Tennessee State tripped the Austin Peay Governors 6-0 by virtue of a strong last half rally sparked by a single, fourth quarter sustained drive of 63 yards, climaxed by sophomore Danny Neal's 18 yard scamper in the seasons opening football game September 17th.

The winning tally was set up when Billy Joe Evans pounced on a loose ball on the Raider 37 to end an Austin Peay threat. It took the Raiders 10 tries to make the distance, Neal collecting 30 of the necessary yards.

Austin Peay displayed a brilliant defensive game, recovering two MTSC fumbles and intercepting three passes. Center Joe Cincotta and end Bobby Baumgartner were constant thorns for the Raiders while Cobb Parker, Ron McKinney and Ronnie Dollar mounted the major A-P offensive threat. They rolled for three consecutive first downs before Neal's fumble recovery stopped a drive that could have netted the Governor's a victory.

For MTSC it was Joe Windham and George Noe with six tackles each who led the defense. Jim Nabors was top ground gainer as the Raider's netted 237 yards on a grinding ground game. He was responsible for 62 yards. Danny Neal had the highest average with 43 yards in six carries. Hilary Carr also got 43 yards on 11 tries.

The game was an expensive one for the Raiders with Dean Fisher and Butch Williams at end taken from the field with leg injuries and Hilary Carr starting halfback sidelines with knee trouble. Danny Neal and others are also limping from the bruising battle.

Statistically the game was all MTSC. The Raiders gained 16 first downs to 7, collected a total of 250 yards net to 115 and kicked twice for a 39 yard average while holding Austin Peay to a 25.8 average, although one kick went 49 yards to lie dead on the one foot line. The defensive kicking average was aided by a blocked kick.

This week the Blue was in Jacksonville, Alabama, to engage the team that gave MTSC an early season scare in 1959. Leading 20-7 at halftime, the Gamecocks were defeated by Ralph Adams' third consecutive extra point last year. The Raiders stopped at Fort. McClellan Friday night and worked out on that field. On October 1, the Raiders play an afternoon game at Western Kentucky and return here October 7, for a game with Eastern Kentucky.

Football Injuries Mount; Jacksonville Romps 19-0

By Lee Sadler

"With our physical condition like it is and our boys playing the type of ball they played Saturday we can't beat another team on our schedule," MTSC Coach Bubber Murphy commented concerning that 19 to 0 loss at Jacksonville.

However, expressing confidence in his squad, Murphy clarified the statement somewhat by saying "I believe our captains Joe Windham and Nicky Lynch will pull the boys together and things will improve."

"We've got some good boys on this team and I'm sure they will play better ball."

Murphy sent the Raiders through the usual Monday drills looking forward to a tough game this Saturday afternoon against Western Kentucky at Bowling Green.

One of the main trouble spots is tackle, where regular Wayne Winters went out in the first quarter against Jacksonville "for at least three weeks," as Coach Murphy explained.

The coaches have a pair of freshmen tackles in mind, Bill White of Cleveland and Jack Armstrong of Sevierville. Both are big boys in the 200 pound plus classification, but as freshmen go, need experience.

Another Sevierville freshman, Gary Whaley, will be looked to for relief at end where Dean Fisher is lost for the season; and Nicky Lynch and Butch Williams are both injured.

Fisher, a senior, is gone for good. The Sparta flankman, who was expected to figure highly in the success of the 1960 Raiders underwent an operation Monday which means the end of his football career.

Left are ends Frank Halliburton, Nashville, and Bobby Gann, Lebanon, both with limited experience, and the more experienced Jerry Stapleton of Oak Ridge.

With Lynch still injured, the end starters against Western most likely will be Williams and Stapleton.

Center and guard are still in good condition, and backfield has its problems. Starters Hilary Carr and Jim Nabors at the halves are in good shape, but reserves Danny Neal and Charlie Rice are both injured.

To add strength here Murphy will move up Phil Grammer of Nashville and Jimmy Williams of Jackson. Both are sophomores with no experience at all.

Jerry Pearson of Springfield is in top shape at quarterback, but Terry Bailey is still having his physical troubles with a knee and a sore shoulder.

Larry Puryear is at about half speed at fullback and Gene Watson, the sophomore, is injured. In case Puryear doesn't get better, Murphy may call on the almost non-experienced David Petty and Mack Ragland

OVC Ranks Raiders Third For Offense Against Peay

By Ralph Englert

Middle Tennessee State College's always impregnable interior line is continuing to live up to such notoriety, yielding only 115 total yards in its season opener with Austin Peay to lead all conference rivals after one week of play.

In the offensive department, the Blue Raiders rank third on the basis of 239 yards rushing and 11 yards gained through the air for a total of 250 total offense yards, which is rather strange when it is known that only six points came from such an effort.

Halfback Jim Nabors from Nashville Litton High School ranks high on the list for the individual rushing average and also for the individual total offense record. His eight carries for 62 yards and a 7.8 avg. places him fifth among the OVC leaders in that category, and the total 62 yards is good enough to place him sixth in the total offense department.

Reserve halfback, Danny Neal, from Nashville Hillsboro High, came off the bench long enough to establish himself a consistent running threat, picking up 43 yards in six carries for a fine 7.2 average. Scoring the Raiders' lone touchdown against the Gobs, he also tied with 12 others for the scoring lead.

Following is the top ten players in rushing average and total offense, along with team offense and defense statistics:

INDIVIDUAL RUSHING LEADERS (based on average)

	Carries	Yds.	Avg.
1. Joe Cartwright, HB, Murray	3	32	10.7

Raiders Face Tough Schedule

The Blue Raiders of Middle Tennessee State face one of the toughest schedules in recent years. Due to the loss of five ace halfbacks, the No. 1 unit quarterback, fullback, and several linemen, the Raiders are fielding an inexperienced team against apparently tough competition.

Jacksonville State will prove to be a little tougher than Austin Peay, who wasn't a pushover to with which to open. The Alabamans received a 35-0 shellacking by Chattanooga, whom the Raiders meet October 14.

Tennessee Tech seems to be everyone's choice for the Ohio Valley Conference championship. The Golden Eagles got their season well under way with a 21-7 victory over tough Louisville.

Eastern Kentucky and Murray, everybody's "patsy" last season, opened with sound victories and should prove to be tough competition for other OVC teams. Western Kentucky, Morehead, Florence State and East Tennessee round out the Raiders' foes, and all will field promising teams.

The Raider eleven has its work cut out, but with each game and added experience can't be counted out for a share of the OVC crown.

Back to the Good Ole Grind

Well, it's back to the familiar "home-away-from-home" for those who like to call it that. Back to the books, back to the friends, back to the pleasant hubbub of college life, MTCS style. But most of all, it's back to football again.

The scene has changed. The winding "avenue" that encircles the heart of the campus is a pleasing discovery for those who went home last spring thinking it would tear up the whole beauty of the place. Notice the new scoreboard gracing good ole Jones Field? It's a welcome addition for the many spectators, and a tribute to the fattening of the school's pocketbook via last season's Tangerine Bowl win.

Never before, we understand, has there been such a traffic of scholars on the scene. Ever-increasing in enrollment, year after year, has pushed the attendance over the 2,600 mark for this autumn.

Owing to this, mass population has created never-ending lines in the cafeteria come mealtime. However, it seems, most of the athletes have this situation well in hand. If a "friend" isn't to be seen somewhere near the front of the line, then a hardly-ever-used-before entrance comes in mighty handy for them, which recalls to mind the story of the rather boisterous letterman who upon finding a similar long line approached a frail looking character and demanded:

"What are you doing up here in front of me? Out of the way, kid, I'm an athlete!"

"Glad to meet you," was the response, "I'm a student."

Says Who?

On the basis of the opening game performance, this could become a rather trying year for the men in blue. Even though the caliber of play was somewhat along the line of what was expected by Coach "Bubber" Murphy, he warns that improvement is a must to win in the rugged Ohio Valley Conference.

Maybe it is finally becoming a reality, in the full sense of the word, that you just can't scarcely expect to lose 14 men by graduation and not expect a drop in team performance.

Clearly, the offense is the unit that is suffering the most. Costly mistakes in the middle of lengthy drives prevented, perhaps, a couple of Raider touchdowns. It had already been feared that lack of game experience would hamper the output of some of the backs, and this feeling was clearly evident at times.

However, all is not dark. Murphy, and others, were well pleased, and surprised, at the aggressiveness of the interior line. As the progresses, this factor could well develop into the forte of the squad.

Maybe with such tremendous accolade for the defense, there should be an election ever so often somewhat similar to the one held by the Notre Dame coaching staff in the days of the "Four Horsemen". Seems that these "Horsemen" thought they were the ones to rate the headlines and gain all the publicity because of their exploits for the Fighting Irish, so when the coaches thought things were going a little too far they would call for a poll to be taken in the dressing room.

"In your own personal opinion," they would ask each member of the squad, "which is more valuable to the team, the 'Four Horsemen' or the 'Seven Mules'?"

And always, the line would win, seven votes to four.

Headaches Included

It's just too bad that Willie Faulk, Baxter Robinson, and Tommy Bates, the hard working trio of the locker room, don't possess any Doctor's degrees from some school of medicine. With such an epidemic of injuries hereabouts, Coach Murphy is to be seen going around the practice area picking up loose rocks, twigs, and other materials that may cause still another catastrophe to occur.

Going at the present rate, the medical supplies bill for the entire year could reach unbelievable proportions, including aspirin tablets for the coaching staff.

This and That

—Jerry Pearson, qb, Charlie Rice, hb, and Danny Neal, hb, all members of the second unit have drawn a word of praise from Murphy for their first game showings.

Jodie Ellis, '54 Graduate, Takes Climb In Coaching

The Davidson county school board has named Jodie Ellis head coach at Donelson high school.

Ellis, on the Don coaching staff for the past three years, replaces Joe Davis. Davis resigned to accept a coaching job at Delray Beach, Florida.

The promotion was the second of the summer for the former Central athlete who played football at Tennessee and Wofford before his graduation at Middle Tennessee State in 1954.

He earlier has been moved up to the head basketball coaching job at Donelson, replacing Buford Jewell, who went to Bellevue as principal.

The Don assistant's role, which includes coaching basketball, will be filled by G. E. McCormick. The ex-Litton and Middle Tennessee State star also served on the Don staff last year.

"I'm happy to get the job," Ellis said. "I've coached most of the boys since they were freshmen and I'm looking forward to this season."

Ellis, who may change the Dons' offense to single-wing, expressed regret at Davis' departure. "Joe has been a real friend to me and I sincerely hate to see him leave," he said.

Ellis is a relative newcomer to the county system but is extremely popular in Donelson. He has been backfield coach for the past two years and last winter piloted the junior high boys basketball team to the county championship.

"Jodie is a fine young coach and we're glad to have him," Jimmie Edwards, Donelson principal said yesterday. "He has been very successful in our junior high program and with the varsity baseball team and we know he'll do a good job as head coach."

ville, Memphis State, and Abilene Christian, but it will be 1962 before such changes can be made.

—Going into this season, Coach Murphy's overall record here is a brilliant Won-97, Lost-30, and Tied-7.

Raider Roundup

By Ray Bailey
Sports Editor

Sophs Shine In Victory—

The brightest picture in the 6-0 victory over Art Van Tone's Austin Peay Governors was the sparkling play of halfbacks Danny Neal and Charlie Rice. Neal ran 18 yards for the lone touchdown, while Rice ran well on several occasions and almost scored in the waning seconds of the ball game.

Diminutive Jerry Pearson proved to be the best field general, after replacing the injured Terry Bailey, moving the Raiders down the field for their only score, but appeared weak on defense. Two-year letterman Larry Puryear also turned in a fine offensive game at fullback.

Defensively, Captain Joe Windham, Julian King, George Noe, and Billy Joe Evans were standouts. Evans recovered a fumble on the Raider 37 yard line that started the fourth quarter touchdown drive.

Several members of the Tangerine Bowl champs returning for another season did not seem to play the caliber of ball they are capable of playing. Perhaps after the tough Austin Peay encounter the tangerine taste will leave and they will toughen to meet the challenge of following opponents.

Injuries Hit Hard—

First game injuries have hit the Raiders very hard. End Dean Fisher, alternate captain Nicky Lynch, Bill Settle and Butch Williams all have leg injuries. Tackle Clarence Law and backs Larry Puryear, Terry Bailey, Charlie Rice, Carey Thompson and Danny Neal are also on the ailing list.

Jerry Stapleton and Bobby Gann will carry the brunt of the end attack with Pearson and Gene Watson filling in in the backfield.

Here and There—

—The Raiders outgained Austin Peay 250 to 115 yards and had 16 first downs to 7 for the Governors.

—The Raiders defeated the Governors for the 13th time in 15 meetings. The '54 and '55 teams battled to 7-7 and 14-14 ties respectively.

—The sparkling game turned in by Governor Captain Bobby Bumgartner cannot be overlooked. He was outstanding on both offense and defense.

—Stellar tailback Jimbo Pearson of Springfield joined brother Jerry and the Raiders after a try at Mississippi State.

—Ray (Ghost) Purvis, ace halfback of the '60 Tangerine Bowl Champs, is assisting the coaching staff. He replaces Marvin (Buck) Rolman, who resigned to accept a coaching job in Huntsville, Alabama.

—Bobby Tillman, ex-MTSC athlete, had an excellent year for the Minneapolis Millers of the American Association and will undoubtedly be with the Boston Red Sox next year.

1960 Grad Accepts Mount Juliet Post As Head Coach

John Lee Woodall, former Lebanon high school football star, has been named head football coach at Mount Juliet high school, succeeding N. C. Hibbett.

Woodall attended Cumberland University, and graduated from Middle Tennessee State College this year.

Looking over Mount Juliet's prospects, Coach Woodall said "One encouraging note is that our schedule includes schools which are comparable to us in size."

Miss Haynie Takes Tour, Enjoys Europe Six Weeks

By Norma Edwards

Miss Mary Carr Haynie of MTSC's home economics department left for a six-weeks tour of Europe July 25.

The tour started with a voyage across the Atlantic on the Queen Elizabeth. The crossing took about four and a half days.

When asked about the styles in France, first stop on the tour, Miss Haynie said the dresses were being worn very short this year.

After a four-day stay in Paris, she moved on to Brussels, Holland, Austria, Switzerland and Italy.

The last stop on the tour was London, where Miss Haynie boarded the Queen Mary for her return voyage. Commenting on her trip, Miss Haynie said "I had a marvelous time. Yes, it was just wonderful!"

"Into each life some rain must fall—usually on weekends."

Dr. Wiser's Son Double Promoted

Eldred (Buddy) Wiser, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Wiser, has been chosen by Western Kentucky State College at Bowling Green to enter college directly from the eleventh grade.

Eldred is one of six boys so selected to skip the senior year of high school. The other five are from Kentucky.

At the end of this school year, the boys will automatically receive high school diplomas and will also receive credit for freshman college work.

Buddy has participated in National Science Foundation Institutes for the past two summers at the University of Tennessee and at Western Kentucky state college.

This past year, with a project on "Silicic Acid Gels," he placed first in the Middle Tennessee Science Fair held at Vanderbilt University and then placed second in the National - International Science Fair at Indianapolis. He also won last spring a trophy in plane geometry in a state-wide mathematics contest.

At Central High School he has been particularly active in the Quill Club and the Key Club. He is a member of the National Honor Society.

Simmons Represents Murfreesboro Beauty, Two Others Named

By Sue Lane

A pretty blue-eyed Middle Tennessee State College senior won the right to represent Murfreesboro in the Miss Tennessee beauty pageant at Jackson this summer.

Barbara Simmons, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Simmons of 805 Bradford Ave., Nashville, outshined 11 other contestants here and was crowned "Miss Murfreesboro, 1960."

Barbara, an honor student at the college and a member of the Sacred Harp Singers of Nashville, sang an aria from Samson and Delilah, opera by Saint-Salens, as her talent presentation.

Betty Williard, 19, of Chattanooga, a junior here, was the first runner-up. Edwina Coker, 18, MTSC sophomore from Columbia, was second alternate.

Barbara Faye Burton, 19, of Millington, and Nancy Whitworth, 19, of Murfreesboro, both college students, were also finalists. The contest was sponsored by the Murfreesboro Jaycees.

Linda Marable Enters Dairy Princess Contest

By Sue Lane

The first contestant to enter the Dairy Princess contest here was Linda Marable of Eagleville, according to Ben Hall McFarlin, publicity chairman.

Linda was sponsored by the Eagleville Home Demonstration club.

Seventeen New Members Join 1960-61 Faculty

By Nadine King

Variety and experience in training characterize the 19 new faculty members added to the 1960 staff. At least three additional part time instructors will be added to care for the overload in math, social studies and science.

For the first time, an Arabic nation is being represented.

Dr. Fuad Baali, from Bagdad, Iraq, is a graduate of the University of Bagdad with the B. A. Degree, the University of Kansas with the M. A. degree, and Louisiana State University with the Ph. D. degree. He previously taught high school in Iraq and served as a research specialist in Southern Louisiana.

Rr. Baali is of the Moslem faith and is a member of the Alpha Kappa Delta national sociology honor society.

Miss Mary Tom Berry, a native of Water Valley, Mississippi was graduated from Blue Mountain College with the B. A. degree and Mississippi Southern with the M.A. She has completed the residence requirements for the Ph. D. degree at the University of Alabama and is now working on her dissertation.

She has taught at Jones Junior College, Livingston State College, and was on a graduate assistantship and taught in the campus school at the University of Alabama. She and her mother, Mrs. P. L. Berry, Sr., make their home at the Glenna Courts apartments.

Miss Berry is a member of Kappa Delta Pi, the NEA, and other professional associations.

A graduate of MTSC with the B.S. degree, Bob Brooks is in charge of sports publicity and sports publications and will supervise the operation of the college concessions and act as assistant business manager of athletics.

Mr. Brooks is president of the Murfreesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce, past secretary of the Blue Raider Club, member of the American Legion and Basketball Writers Association of America.

While at MTSC he was sports editor of the 'Sidelines' and 'Midlander,' held office in the Veteran's Club and the Young Democrats Club, played in the band and was a member of the Future Teachers of America and Pi Omega Pi, national honor society for business majors.

Miss Joan Gordan, a native of Nashville, graduated from George Peabody College with the B.S. and M.A. degrees.

She attended Cohn High School, where she was active in athletics and student activities.

Miss Gordan holds a position in the health and physical education department previously held by Mrs. Ethel P. Lycan.

Earl Hinton and Edson Perry join the music department staff. Mr. Hinton, from Clarksville, graduated from George Peabody College with the B. Mus. and M. Mus. degrees.

He was choir director for seven years at the Waverly Place Methodist Church in Nashville and a participant in the Nashville Symphony. He holds membership in Phi Mu Alpha, national music fraternity, and Kappa Phi Kappa, professional education fraternity.

He is married to the former Nora Gardner Smith of Columbia. They have two children, Kim Gardner and Keith Edgar.

Perry, a native of New London, Connecticut, graduated from Stetson University with the B. Mus. degree and from Louisiana State University with the M. Mus. degree.

He is a member of the Mississippi Music Educators Association, Phi Mu Alpha, Sinfonia, honorary music fraternity, and American String Teachers Association of which he is state president.

Mr. Perry is also a member of the Mississippi State Textbook Commission and is on the planning board of the Southern Music Educators Conference.

He is married to the former Freeda Elaine Waggoner.

Dr. Ernest Hooper is a native of Murfreesboro, having graduated from MTSC with the B.S. degree. He received the M.A. and Ph. D. degrees from the University of North Carolina. He formerly served as Dean at Yankton College in South Dakota.

Dr. Hooper is the son of Mrs. Ed. Hooper, who lives in Murfreesboro at 524 Greeland.

Mrs. Hooper is the former Grier McQuistor. The couple has two children, James and Mary.

Robert P. Ross, a native of Berlin, New Hampshire, graduated from Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri, with the B.A. and M.A. degrees. Mr. Ross is an instructor in social science.

He is a member of the Omicron Delta Gamma, American Economics Association, and American Statistical Association.

He married the former Emma Danielson and they have one daughter, Betsy Ann.

Lewis Rosenthal, a member of the science department, is from Schenectady, New York. He graduated from Colgate University with the B.A. degree and received the M.A. degree from Auburn. He is a candidate for the Ph. D. at Louisiana State University.

Mr. Rosenthal is a member of the S-C MLA.

William E. Wilson is from Water Valley, Kentucky. He graduated from Murray State College with the A.B. and M.A. degrees and has done graduate work at the University of Mississippi.

Mr. Wilson is a member of the Phi Delta Kappa, NEA, AASA, Kappa Delta Pi, Alpha Psi Omega, National Council of Teachers of English, Speech Association of America, American Educational Theatre Association.

Dr. Harold Spraker, a native of Cedar Bluff, Virginia, graduated from Roanoke College in Salem, Virginia with the B.S. degree. He received his M. Ed. and D. of Ed. degrees.

He is a member of the Phi Delta Kappa, Kappa Delta Pi, National Mathematics, and Mathematics Association of America.

The Sprakers have one child, John Stephen.

Dr. Paul Hutcheson, a member of the math department, graduated from David Lipscomb College with the B.A. degree, received his M.A. degree from Peabody and his Ph. D. from the University of Florida.

He is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Scholastic Society.

Mrs. Hutcheson is the former Nancy Dennison. They have three children, Stephen Paul, Elizabeth Ann, and Laura Sue.

Dr. Warmbrod, a member of the science department, received his

Four on Faculty Awarded Degrees During Vacation

Three members of the Middle Tennessee State College faculty were awarded the doctorate degree this summer. They are Charles Morris Brandon, John Lawler and H. Clay Tucker.

Miss Buleah Davis received the Specialist in Education degree at Peabody College. Kenimer H. Morgan, who has been a member of the MTSC faculty but did not return this year, also received the Ph.D. from Peabody.

Art Represented

Mr. Brandon is in the art de-

B.S. degree at MTSC. He received his M.A. degree and is doing graduate work at Peabody.

Two assistant professors of military science and tactics, Captain Wallace Stanley Tyson, and Captain James E. Price, Jr., have been assigned to the ROTC department.

Captain Price served in World War II in the U.S. Navy and upon graduation from the University of Kentucky received a regular commission in the U. S. Army.

Captain Tyson is a graduate of the University of Tennessee with a B.S. degree in animal husbandry. He is a native of Nashville.

Teacher Appears On Color Telecast

Middle Tennessee State College received nation-wide publicity in the color telecast originating in the Woman's Building at the State Fair Thursday.

Fred J. Rubens of the department of art education was interviewed by narrator Jud Collins on "The Noon Show." Mr. Rubens answered questions about where he is teaching and the Tennessee Art League, of which he is a member.

For the fourth year Mr. Rubens was featured at the Italian Street Fair last Saturday doing pastel portraits. Mr. Rubens gives his services to help raise money for the Nashville Symphony. Saturday he did nine portraits.

William D. Brinton, Junior, Works Both Sides of U. S.

William D. Brinton, Jr., Nashville, is one Middle Tennessee State College junior who worked both sides of the United States before returning to classes this fall.

Brinton, who lives at 1105 Division street while in Murfreesboro, worked at the United Nations from June 12 to July 30 under sponsorship of the I.O.O.F. Lodge and September 18-19 he was at Long Beach, California, where he reported to the Sovereign Grand Lodge Independent Order of Odd Fellows on his work as director of the United Nations Pilgrimage by 16-18 year-old youth during the past summer.

High school juniors and seniors are selected on the basis of oratorical contests, essays and examinations by local lodges over the United States and sent in groups to New York for a week of study of the United Nations. The program was under direction of Conrad Hanson with Briton as his assistant. During one period this summer, Brinton took charge of the program, meeting a West group pilgrimage in Canada and bringing them on into New York for the week of study.

Four years ago Brinton was a winner of one of the contests in Tennessee and his father has occupied numerous stations in the Tennessee Grand Lodge of I.O.O.F. Brinton is an officer in Tennessee lodge number one, in Nashville.

Manley Visits Paris, Tells Of Experiences

By Betty Smith

Marcia Manley, junior at Middle Tennessee State College, left Thursday, June 16, from Wilmington, Delaware, by Capital Airways Super Constellation DC6D on her way to Paris, France.

This trip and summer visit as an exchange student was sponsored by the Murfreesboro Kiwanis Club and MTSC Circle K Club.

Marcia had an orientation period of two days at the University of Louisville prior to leaving for France.

Marcia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Manley, Bell Buckle, was chosen from several girls and boys who applied and had interviews with a selection board under the Summer Work Program.

While Marcia was in Paris, Pat Fromagoet and his wife, Regine, lived and worked in Murfreesboro, and have asked for a six month lengthening of his visa.

"The dormitories were quite different from ours," Marcia said. "They had 1:30 permission every night and if they got in after that they rang the doorbell, paid the night watchman twenty cents and walked in. Boys and girls lived in the same dormitories along with the married students, similar to a hotel."

There were thirty-six students in the group and their working period was for six weeks. "Actually, I worked for only 15 days, which left me free to travel for a month as well as weekends," Marcia commented very happily.

"We were able to visit thirteen countries during our visit. Travel was very inexpensive and punctual and girls are quite safe to travel alone."

Clothes and food were quite different. Girls wore their skirts no longer than the middle of their knees, sometimes shorter. "I wouldn't mind wearing them like that myself if I had legs like theirs," Marcia said shyly.

They start wearing heels when they are twelve years of age and wear them all the time. Hair styles are very extreme, usually swept four or five inches high. The food was cooked rare unless you practically threatened the management. Cokes cost twice as much as wine, and they had to beg for water.

Marcia visited Belgium, Holland, England, Scotland, Ireland, Switzerland, Germany, Italy, Turkey and Greece. "The trip from Italy to Turkey on a Turkish liner was quite an experience. We went tourist class and without food. Fortunately, our porter furnished us with food every meal. It took us five days and after visiting a Turkish family for three days, we returned to France on the same ship," she commented very enthusiastically.

Marcia's Turkish sister was married shortly before her arrival there. Elcin and Ilhan were married in a religious (Moslem) ceremony three months after the civil ceremony. Four months after this they had a wedding reception. They had never been together without chaperone before the reception.

"I discovered how much our school system falls down in languages, too. It was not uncommon at all to meet someone who could speak four or five languages fluently," Marcia said disparagingly.

"The whole summer seems like a dream now. It was a wonderful experience and I will forever be indebted to the Kiwanis Club and Circle K Club for making it possible. I am thoroughly convinced of one thing now -- I live in the best country in the whole wide world, and the nicest people anywhere are right here in Murfreesboro."
