WINNERS OF THE MTSC Talent Show held Thursday night are Jana White of Murfreesboro, first; the trio of Ken Stephens, St. Petersburg, Fla., Key Dillard of Lafayette, and Ken Jones of Lebanon, second; and Bobbie Ann Broadhurst of Nashville, third. Miss White won the contest in 1958 and 1959 also. This year she sang the two numbers, "You'll Never Walk Alone," and "Danny Boy."

Dr. Bucher Is Speaker At Fiftieth Convocation

More than three thousand attended the formal convocation exercises at Middle Tennessee State College Tuesday, November 14 at 10:15 a.m.

The event recognizes the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the college center around the theme of a salute to the past and a prelude to the future.

CHS Vocalist Wins Contest

By Kenneth Love

For the third time a Central High School girl has stolen the applause at the annual MTSC Veterans Talent Show.

Jana White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. White of 611 Woodmont Drive in Murfreesboro, sang the two hit songs "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "Danny Boy" to take first place and a check for $30 last Thursday night. At the age of 16, Jana is a junior at Central and has been singing since the age of 12. She won the Talent Show in 1958 and 1959 also.

Middle Tennessee State College students Ken Stephens of St. Petersburg, Florida, Key Dillard of Lafayette, and Ken Jones of Lebanon called themselves "The Roomies Three" to take second place and a door prize of $25.

Third place went to Miss Bobbie Ann Broadhurst of Nashville who sang her song ending with a yodel. Her yodeling voice sent her home with third prize of $15.

The contest this year had a wide (Continued on Page 8)

Dr. Charles A. Bucher, professor of education at New York University delivered the principal address on the subject, "Education and Our National Purpose." Dr. Bucher is one of the outstanding personages on the American lecture platform today.

In his address Tuesday said that the final answer to the achievement of our national purposes depends upon knowledge, ideas, truth, understanding, wisdom and logic as the common possession of each person.

He attacked apparent purposes of education today which seem to center around materialism and a status symbol indicated that the real purposes of education should be a better understanding of the American cultural heritage, a burning curiosity and a sincere desire to find truth.

"The future of America," Dr. Bucher said, does not rest on the number who receive college degrees, but upon those who read, hear and see very critically."

The program Tuesday morning opened with a procession of faculty members in full academic regalia. The college band was seated in the rear of the auditorium in the Memorial Health and Education Building gave the processional and at appropriate times the old Alma Mater and the new college Hymn. The college chorus was in the rear balcony and sang these two hymns.

Lane Boutwell, chairman of the Fiftieth anniversary committee presided. Dr. Quill E. Cope gave the address of welcome. Some 50 platform guests attended as honorees for the occasion. These included representatives from the Federal

Pre-Registration Begins Monday, Stops December 6

"Your call number determines the class in which you are enrolled. Make sure it is correct," is the advice of Dean John Weems as plans for the spring semester pre-registration were announced today.

Pre-registration begins Monday following the Thanksgiving holidays and continues until Wednesday, December 6. Fees need not be paid until after the Christmas holidays, although they will be accepted after December 13, 1961. Last date on which pre-registration fees may be paid is January 13, 1962.

Undergraduate students will secure registration packets from their advisors. When schedule cards have been completed and approved, they will be left with the advisors. The student will retain approved trial schedule, which must be completed before December 6.

In case of closed sections or error detected, the name of the student involved will be posted on the official bulletin boards adjacent to the office of the Dean of Admissions. The student will bring his trial schedule to the Dean of Admissions for adjustment.

If fees are not paid before January 14, 1962, the cards will be returned to the card banks and students attending the Spring semester 1962 must register on the appointed day, January 22.

Bell Chosen State Newmanite Head

By John L. Batey, Jr.

Leonidas "Joe" Bell, a junior at Middle Tennessee State College, was elected the State Chairman of the Newman Club at the annual State Newman Club convention which was held November 4 and 5 at Memphis State University. Pattie Kelleher, a sophomore here, was appointed as secretary.

MTSC's Newman Club sent a total of fifteen delegates to the convention which was the largest group attending from any other campus in the State.

Frosh Class Picks Mason

By Ernestine Harris

The freshman class has chosen its officers for 1961-62 college year. They are Houston Mason, president from Gallatin, Tennessee; Jane Gilem, secretary from Goodlettsville; Carolyn Perry, treasurer from Nashville; and Jim Hampton, sergeant-at-arms from Gallatin.

The previously elected vice president, Buddy Baker, has resigned his position, and a new vice president will be elected at the next freshman class meeting.

Houston Mason graduated from Gallatin High School, and he is studying pre-dental medicine. Jane (Continued on Page 8)

Dr. Ed Baldwin has asked the SIDELINES to help publicize the fact that admission to "The Taming of the Shrew" scheduled for next Wednesday night (November 29) in the MTSC gymnasium will be open to the general public as well as the student body without charge.

No tickets for admission are needed to witness this superb production of the Dublin Theater group.

Who Helped Tech?

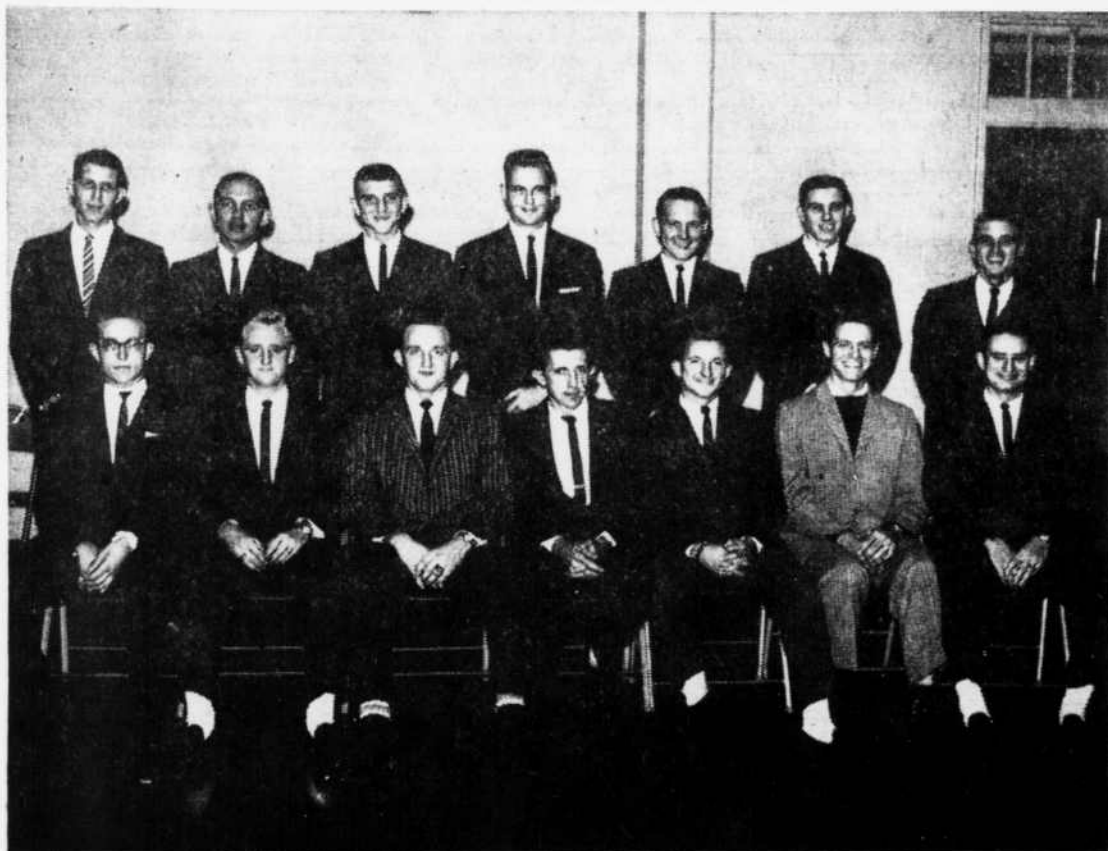

Tech's best friends are those who allegedly took the "Totem Pole" from the TPI trophy room. IF, MTSC students were the ones who removed the symbol it marks an all time low in moronic adolescent action.

Student leaders have advised that if the whereabouts of this victory symbol is known by any MTSC student, the ultimate in aid to victory would be a notice to local authorities of its location.

Who has Harvey? As the phrase goes: Harvey's has it; but no longer. Instead, somebody has Harvey! Even though he does not wear a jersey, he may be scoring two or three TD's for TPI.

Why? This is merely due to the fact that he is missing from Tech, and those Eagles are hot under the collar about the whole situation, and that means that our sister institution is out for blood.

C'est la vie

The Sigma Club of MTSC initiated sixteen new members into the men's honorary fraternity. Those receiving the honors were: Gary Meislohn, Billy Skinner, Bobby Pitts, Paul Blair, Bob Bachus, Terrell Dilley, Gordon DeFries. Second Row: Teddy Smartt, Patrick Gillen, Bob Wrenn, Jim Dearing, Ewing Taylor, Thomas Oliphant, and Jerry Dooley. Crowe and Tucker were absent.

Fiftieth Convocation Salutes Past and Present

The invocation delivered at the Fiftieth Convocation by Dean N. C. Beasley is as follows.

We thank thee, O God, for thy blessings
For all thy blessings in creation,
For the beauty of earth and sea and sky,
For thy manifold works and the wisdom with which thou has made them all.
We thank thee O God,
For the happiness of our earthly life
For peaceful homes and healthful days,
For our powers of mind and body,

For faithful friends,
For the joy of loving and being loved.
Almighty God,
make us aware, in our communion with Thee,
of our fellowship with faithful and devout souls,
some of names we remember, many of names not remembered at the moment who served thee in the yesterdays, through service to this college.
Grant to us the privilege to serve Thee through this college in unbroken fellowship of service with those of the yesterdays.

Following the invocation at the November 14 Convocation Lane Boutwell introduced the honor guests with the following tribute of their peculiar and outstanding services to Middle Tennessee State College.

"I consider it an honor to have been asked to introduce our honored guests at this convocation commemorating fifty golden years of history. In paying tribute to the past, we have invited to the platform those people who have made a contribution to this college. In expressing our appreciation to them, we also offer our thanks to those of the past who have held the same office or served in the same capacity," Mr. Boutwell said.

The Honorable William Baird. As Lieutenant Governor of Tennessee and Speaker of the Senate, you represent those lawmakers of the past who actually brought into existence this institution of higher learning. Please accept our sincere appreciation for finding and making means whereby adequate appropriations through the years have made possible the continued existence of Middle Tennessee State College.

The Honorable George F. McCanless and Mrs. McCanless, as Attorney General of the State of Tennessee, you serve as the legal advisor of this college as it carries on the complex program of educating the youth of Tennessee. We offer our sincere thanks for your guidance and the advice of those who have gone before you.

The Honorable W. R. Snodgrass. The office of Comptroller of the State of Tennessee, which you hold, has served this college well in providing expert council in the matter of keeping accurate records of business part of education. We pay tribute to you and your office for the contribution you have made to Middle Tennessee State College.

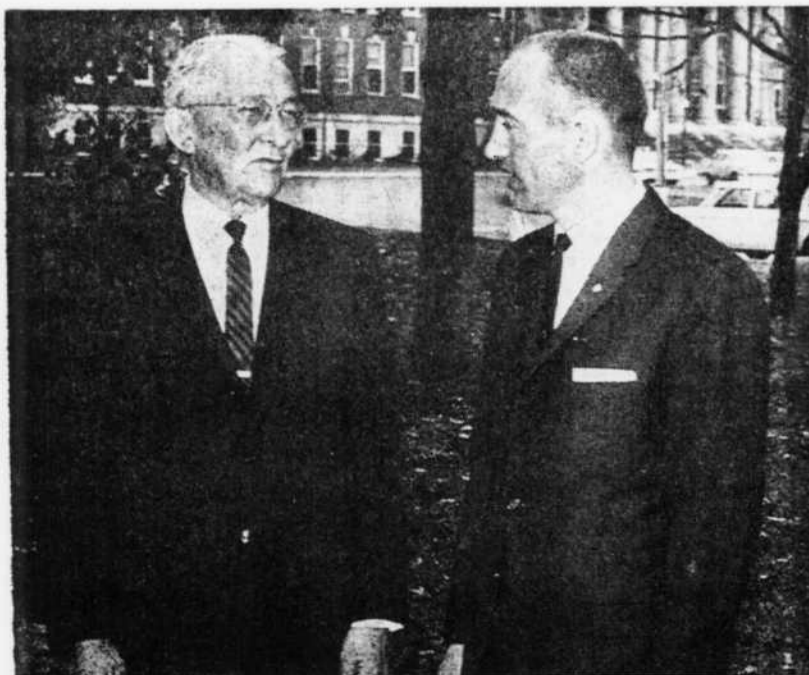

The Honorable W. H. Westbrooks and Mrs. Westbrooks. As the representative from Rutherford County in the House of Representatives of the 82nd General Assembly, you have joined Mr. Dement in representing Middle Tennessee State College and speaking in our behalf in matters that concern us. We are grateful to you and past representatives for your support.

The Honorable Edward L. Jennings and Mrs. Jennings. Mr. Jennings was a member of the Middle Tennessee State Teacher's College Class of 1938, and is a member of the Tennessee State Board of Education. This board is the governing board to which the president of this college is responsible. Mr. Jennings, we pay tribute to you and the state board for that administration which has guided this institution to the status which it now enjoys.

Mr. Horace Jones. Your father, Mr. R. L. Jones, became the first president of the Normal. He received his education at Onward Seminary, Burgett College, and the University of Chicago, and at the age of 44 he resigned as state superintendent of instruction to come to Murfreesboro. Following his skillful planning and attention to many details, the Normal received its first students in 1911. We are indebted to him for his guidance during the formative years of 1911-1922.

Mrs. Russell Shedden and Mr. Shedden. Mrs. Shedden, we wish to pay tribute to your father, Mr. Pritchett Alfred Lyon, who served from 1922-1938 at the second president of this institution. He received his education at the Winchester Normal and Vanderbilt University. His belief in the importance of teacher education and his skill as an administrator brought funds, expansion, and transition from a Normal to Middle Tennessee State Teacher's College... a 4-year college. We are grateful for his long years of dedicated service.

Lyon Lines

Lyon Has Name Change

By Dottie Sanders

Name changes were in order Oct. 19, when Lyon hostess, the former Betty Nixon, became Mrs. Donald Vickers. Prior to this happy event, the girls were hostesses of several showers given to Betty. Even though a couple of them were of a rather moist nature, Betty immersed wet, yet smiling. Congratulations, Mrs. Vickers!!

Elaine Bass and Mary Kidd seem to have a knack for big business. They displayed their amazing talent by converting Room 100 into a "House of Horrors." Their patrons left shuddering but rather thankful that they were still able to leave. From the profits they reaped, the Bass and Kidd Amusement Company was able to finance the following morning's meal!

Sara Edwards entertained Anne Tucker from Sewanee, Tennessee, the weekend at the MTSC-ETSC football game. Also Mary Smith was visited by Fay Ray Caroland, from Austin Peay State College, the Sunday of the same weekend.

Much in demand is the artistic ability of hostess Judy Malone. Persons seeking to have their favorite black and white photographs oil-tinted with professional skill... see Judy. It's a job well done.

WHO'S WHOSE: going steady now are Vivian Roberts and Houston Mason; Pat Simmons and Garrett Asher; Betty McCoy and David Weber; and Anne Pickard and Ralph Nipp.

E. W. Midgett, head of the MTSC Business Department, attended the Southern regional meeting of the deans of business schools and colleges in Memphis last week.

Surprise Parties Reign In Monohan

By Carolyn Smith

More surprise birthday celebrations headed the list of South Monohan activities this week.

Sue Chapman was honored with a party given by Judy Duckett. They presented her with a beautiful cake and loads of presents.

The other birthday girl was Brenda Bigger. Her surprise party was arranged by Polly Smith and Brenda Jones.

It seems Shirley Bass has found a new way to celebrate her recent engagement, taking a cold shower while still dressed. Of course, she had a little help from about twenty of her dorm friends!

Now that mid-terms are over, South Monohan has resumed their regular Wednesday night dorm meetings. Foremost on the agenda for this week was discussion of the plans for the Christmas party.

Following the business meeting, Fran Cason gave a narrative story.

Rutledge Ramblings

President Key To Rule In Rutledge

By Suzanne Lee

After a week of campaigning, the officers for Rutledge Hall were elected. The President and Vice-President respectively are JoAnna Key and Mary Beth Hughes. Martha Myers is our Secretary, and Ernestine Harris is our Treasurer. We have two song leaders—Anne Boring and Eleanor Bolton.

JoAnna, who comes to us from Ooltewah, Tennessee, is on the Midlander Staff here. In high school she was a majorette, and she also played on the basketball and volleyball teams.

Mary Beth is from Nashville. She was Secretary of the Student Body and a cheerleader at Antioch High School.

Martha, who is a music major is a member of the band and the chorus. She comes from Harriman, Tennessee.

Ernestine went to Lebanon High School. At MTSC she is on the Midlander newspaper staff and a member of the Home Economics Club.

Fall Play Is Huge Success

Kiss and Tell, the Buchan Players' fall presentation, was well received by three separate audiences who witnessed the light farce at its MTSC presentation.

Carolyn Boatwright did a creditable job as the precious opportunist who tried to reconcile the love affair of brother Lenny (Don Massey) and Mildred Pringle (June Vickery) and their respective feuding families played by Vickie Wise and Bob Turman as the Archers; Betty Duggin and Dickie Barnes as the Puggin parents.

Good, sound comedy was portrayed by Scottie Ward as Dexter Franklin (Holy Cow) and Bill Hunter ("I think it is so dumb" Raymond Pringle). Well cast in various supporting roles were Carlton Sivells, Anne Petty, Jerry Dooley, Virginia Miller, and Tag McMillen.

Bows were deserved by those associated with the production staff, led by Mrs. Dorethe Tucker, director and Miss Carol King, student assistant director. The house manager was Bob Baker with Dolly Hood as head usher.

Set decoration were under direction of Linda Witherspoon with Brenda Molly being in charge of the box office. Ruth Bigger was wardrobe mistress and George Freeman handled the sound effects. Tag McMillen was back with the clever lighting and Janice Wynne with the makeup crew. Jean Bonney prepared the program material with Betsy Sims handling publicity.

Kent Brisby was in charge of set production with David Gammons, Wanda Chitwood, Bill Buchanan, Pat Davis, Martha Kay Rosslin, Tommy Mason, Anna Primm, Nancy McNeil, A. W. Powell and Linda Branum assisting.

Other members of the club who contributed to the production included Sharon Lee, Suzanne Lee, Chris Strahley, Sandra Millsaps, Margo Pollock, Madeline Davis, Ayne Cantrell, Pat Murphy, Myra Mosley, Martha Foreit, David Benzenhafer, Barbara Scott, Betty Batts, Rose Ann Conner, Margert Ann Hendrix.

A exhibit of paintings and drawings by David LeDoux of the MTSC art department was on display in the lobby. Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Windham, Joe Orze, Miss Minnie Gay Knox, Dalton Stroop, Haynes Hardware and the ROTC department were helpful in contributing set materials and uniforms used in the production.

Four Wesleyans Attend Tri-Conference Meeting

Four students of MTSC's Wesley Foundation attended a tri-conference Methodist Student Movement meeting at Scarrit College in Nashville November 10-11.

James Gentry, president of the MTSC Wesley Foundation; Maryedith Martin, vice-president and program chairman; Judy Rice, worship chairman; and Larry McFarlin, evangelism chairman were the delegates to the assembly.

Colleges from the Holston Conference, the Memphis Conference, and the Tennessee Conference were represented at this meeting.

Freudian View Of Football Has Marching Virgins

How would football have looked to the late Dr. Sigmund Freud? What the father of psychoanalysis might have said is presented in "Freud, Football and the Marching Virgins," a November Reader's Digest article by Thomas Hornsby Ferril, Denver poet-editor-publisher.

"Obviously," he writes, "football is a syndrome of religious rites symbolizing the struggle to preserve the egg of life through the rigors of impending winter. The rites begin at the autumnal equinox and culminate on the first day of the New Year with great festivals identified with bowls of plenty; the festivals are associated with flowers such as roses, fruits such as oranges, farm crops such as cotton, and even sun worship and appeasement of great reptiles such as alligators."

"The egg of life is symbolized by what is called 'the oval,' an inflated bladder. The convention is repeated in the architectural oval-shaped design of the vast outdoor churches in which the services are held . . . Literally millions attend . . . in anticipation of violent masochism and sadism about to be enacted by a highly trained priesthood of young men . . ."

"The ceremony begins with colorful processions of musicians and semi-nude virgins who move in and out of ritualized patterns. This excites the worshipers to rise from their seats, shout frenzied poetry in unison and chant ecstatic athems." Dr. Freud's only visit to the United States was to lecture at Clark University, Worcester, Mass., as part of the school's 20th anniversary celebration in September of 1909. He also visited New Haven, Boston, and Niagara Falls and saw New York's Chinatown, Central Park and Metropolitan Museum, but nobody took him to a football game. Mr. Ferril played sandlot football as a boy in Denver and observed it at Colorado College.

He first wrote his satire for the 101-year-old Rocky Mountain Herald, a weekly of 2000 circulation which he and his wife publish. It (Continued on Page 7) of 47 Mr. Smith resigned the presidency of Tennessee Polytechnic Institute to become the third president of State Teachers College. He received his education at Middle Tennessee State Normal and Peabody College. President Jones guided the school through its formative stages. President Lyon saw that it survived the depression years, and President Smith, assuming office in 1938, guided the emergence of the institution as a state college. Mr. Smith, your presidency from 1938 to 1958 covered the broad expansion period. We are grateful to you for your foresight, your master plan for expansion, and your administrative skills during a 20-year period.

President Quill E. Cope and Mrs. Cope. In 1958 President Cope resigned as Tennessee Commissioner of Education to become the 4th president of Middle Tennessee State College. His education was received at Tennessee Polytechnic Institute, Peabody College, and New York University. He has met the challenge of mushrooming enrollments, curricula changes, continuous building programs, faculty expansion, and streamlining the entire college program. President Cope, this college has come of age. It must innovate, expand, and experiment to meet the rapidly changing times. With your five images before you, and being equipped with fine administrative skills, we know that Middle Tennessee State College is in competent hands as we build a dynamic program for the future.

Tennessee Polytechnic Institute President, Dr. Everett Derryberry and Mrs. Derryberry. You represent our sister institution who joins Middle Tennessee State College in providing a common program of tax supported education for the youth of Tennessee. The history of your institution parallels the history of this college and as we pay tribute to our past we pay tribute to the educational contributions your institute made to other areas of Tennessee.

The Mayor of Murfreesboro, Mr. A. L. Todd, Jr. In 1910 Murfreesboro joined Rutherford County in making a strong bid to have the state normal located in this city and for fifty years Murfreesboro has fulfilled its promised support. We thank you for the many sons and daughters of Murfreesboro who have attended this college and for half a century of cooperation.

Mr. Jack McFarland. As publisher of the DAILY NEWS JOURNAL of Rutherford County and Murfreesboro, you have furnished the medium through which this college speaks to the residents of this area. Since 1911 our activities, plans, programs, and service to the area have been made known to the public. Without your services, Middle Tennessee State College would be severely handicapped in making known its total programs. We offer our sincere thanks.

Mr. Baxter Hobgood, Superintendent of Murfreesboro City Schools. For many years students from the schools of this city and county have outnumbered the students from other Tennessee cities and counties. Without a sound educational foundation at the elementary and secondary levels, the programs of higher education are hampered. To you and other superintendents of this state we are grateful for your dedicated work in constantly improving school systems throughout Tennessee.

Miss E. Mae Saunders and her guest, Miss Earlene Jennings. When the doors of the Normal first opened in 1911, you were a member of that first faculty. It was you who organized the first chorus, the first glee club and the first orchestra. Your name is dear to all who have known you through a 50-year period. First, we pay tribute to you for your years of wonderful service, and secondly, with you as their representative, we salute the 485 teachers who have served on the faculty of this college from 1911 to 1961.

Dr. Robert Morris Paty and guest Mrs. Leon Paty Mann. In 1912 the Normal school had its first graduating class. You were one of the 7 graduates. The A. B. degree was received from the University of Tennessee followed by 2 years of teaching at Webb School. You served with the United States Navy in 1917, then received your medical degree from Emory Medical School in 1925 and became a medical missionary in China. Later you became the Associate Dean of the medical school at Emory University and now you are in private practice in Covington, Georgia. Middle Tennessee State College is proud to have you as an alumnus and we are honored by your presence at this 50th Anniversary Convocation.

Mr. Charles Harrell and Mrs. Harrell. Mr. Harrell is president of the Associated Student Body and is a member of the 1961-62 senior class. Dr. Paty, as a member of the first graduating class, and you, Charles Harrell, of the class of 1961-62, represent the 7776 graduates of this institution. In honoring you, Dr. Paty, and you, Mr. Harrell, we pay tribute to all graduates during the past 50 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Miles of Murfreesboro. Having carefully studied our records, we feel that you are the most representative of all those parents who have sent sons and daughters to this college. The name Miles is found throughout the 50-year history. Mr. Miles, your brother, Alf, was the first coach at this institution. Then you attended along with your brothers, Hoard, Cass, Andrew, and Kenneth. Mr. and Mrs. Miles, your three daughters, Lida, Ernestine, Sara White, and Nena Lou are graduates and at present your son, Kenneth Neil, is a sophomore. To you and all the parents of the past whom you represent, we offer our thanks for your belief in higher education and we appreciate the sacrifices all have made in sending sons and daughters to Middle Tennessee State College.

We bring to a close our tribute to the past. Perhaps the one single thing that is symbolic of the passing years is the Alma Mater which has been sung by every graduating senior from 1912 to 1961. Therefore, it is appropriate that we listen to the Middle Tennessee State College chorus sing the old Alma Mater for the last time.

This 50th Anniversary Convocation not only commemorates a passing era, but it also serves as a prelude to the future. As we move into the future may we find a common bond in the new Alma Mater. Let us listen as the chorus sings it.

THE CHANGE

Be it remembered that on November 14, 1961 we met in this convocation to pay tribute to the past and to be challenged by Dr. Bucher in this prelude to the future.

If this college has brought a fuller life to those in the past, if it is a force in your life today, if it is to have an impact on our national life tomorrow, then I charge you to resolve now to be a loyal supporter of Middle Tennessee State College. Think on these things as we hear the closing prayer and as we watch the recession.

THE BENEDICTION

The closing prayer at the November 14 convocation, delivered by Dr. S. Belt Keathley, dean of students, was follows:

Heavenly father: Give us the wisdom to recognize a milestone as something to be left behind and not a foundation upon which one resides. Give us the strength and ability to move forward from this day towards whatever goals are reasonable and just . . . towards whatever future may challenge our powers on mental generation and useful action.

It is good and pleasant to review the past . . . but may we do so only to find strength with which to build, to find service which can delineate future action.

Almighty God, we pray for thy guidance as we launch into the years ahead . . . We earnestly seek thy Son's attitude of service . . . we sincerely pray that this college may be used as an instrument of thy peace, as true guide to youth, as a trainer of dedicated men and women.

—Amen.

State, county and municipal governments, representatives of the families of former college administrators, educational leaders from the State, alumni, student and "family" representatives.

A luncheon for the honor guests followed the program. Honor guards and escorts were provided by the ROTC brigade.

Dr. Bucher, the principal speaker, is a veteran of service in the United States Army Air Force in World War II. In 1960 he received the School Bell Award, given annually to some educator for "distinguished interpretation of education." Dr. Bucher's award came for his series of articles appearing in Woman's Day. He is co-author of the best seller among educational books, College Ahead!

Dr. Bucher, author of five books on health and physical education is co-ordinator for that department at New York University.

Dr. Cope in his "Tribute to the Past" reviewed the history of Middle Tennessee State paying tribute to the work of presidents R. L. Jones, P. A. Lyon and Q. M. Smith. He listed others who had a part in making the college the institution of today.

Opening his address by declaring that "Tennessee is an unusual state," Dr. Cope said that it was a state that is neither liberal nor conservative, located as the gateway to the South and West it had followed the admonition to, "Be not the first by whom the new is tried nor the last to lay the old aside."

"The first fifty years of MTSC is written in the hearts of more than 7,000 graduates, not in buildings, dollars and material accomplishments but in the terms of those great characters who have lived and worked here—men and women like R. L. Jones, P. A. Lyon, Q. M. Smith, E. Mae Saunders, Horace Jones, N. C. Beasley, C. C. Sims, Neil Frazier, and Katherine Monohan—yes, people like Bonnie McHenry, John Sherwood Holmes,

Raider Roundup

By Ray Bailey

EAGLE MEAT ON THANKSGIVING?

Middle Tennessee's high-flying Raiders have hopes of shaking a Thanksgiving Day football jinx and obtaining a feast on "Eagle Meat" instead of the traditional turkey tomorrow as the Golden Eagles of Tennessee Tech invade Jones field.

The Raiders, according to all sources available, will be decided favorites, but in this grudge game no one considers the odds. The Blue will sport a 7-3 overall record and 5-0 in the OVC while Tech carries a 6-3 overall record and identical 5-0 in the conference. Thus just more than the traditional battle and the "totem pole," which Tech now proudly has, is at stake. The OVC crown will either be won, lost or a co-championship will be declared.

The Raiders sport a top offensive threat and are especially rated for their passing attack—having gained 1368 yards through the air, about double that of any other OVC team. The Raiders also have a terrified defensive forward wall forcing opposing teams to either pass or depend on an end-sweep attack.

Terry Bailey to George Dykes aerial combination will again be counted on for another sparkling performance, as well as the running of halfbacks Jimbo Pearson, Jim Nabors, Larry Whaley, and Charlie Rice and full backs Phil Grammer and Bill Hobbs.

Tech will retaliate with conference top ground attack led by full back Ken Fults who has amassed 611 yards in 128 carries. Halfbacks Jim Schaeffer, Jackie Corbin and Joe Mac Jacques give added backfield strength. Versatile quarterback Jim Ragland is always a "triple threat" with his passing, running and puntings.

A game-determining factor, which is not apparent at first glance is the punting situation. The Raiders' Frank Halliburton has kept opponents in their own territory much of the time by sporting a 37.8 yards per punt, but the Eagles have the two top punt returnees in the loop in Corbin and Schaeffer.

By late Thursday afternoon the final score will loom on the scoreboard . . . will the Eagles still dominate the Blue or will the totem pole and another OVC championship return to Middle Tennessee?

BOWL BOUND BLUE

The Blue Raiders have definitely accepted the Tangerine Bowl bid offered them to play in Orlando, Florida, December 29.

Loyal Raider fans do not deny the right for the Raiders to attend the bowl, but the question in many minds was why were they invited so early?

For the past three years an unwritten contract has prevailed between the OVC and the Tangerine Bowl officials. Since Tennessee Tech is on a year's probation and could not appear in a bowl, the Raiders were then the number one choice because they could do no worse than second place or a possible tie for the crown.

Another factor is the good crowds that the OVC teams carry to the bowl . . . thus the Raiders will journey to Orlando for the second time in three years.

In comparing the 1961 squad with that of '59, the '61 squad does not seem as strong a ball club because of lack of depth in several positions, but they do have a more varied offensive attack.

Again looking at '59—remember what happened on Thanksgiving Day when the Raiders carrying a 9-0 record and having a bowl bid were very timely tied by the eagles . . . let's hope it doesn't happen again.

Blue Score In All Four To Topple ETSC 27-0

MTSC played its best ball game of the season, with the possible exception of the Pensacola 12-7 loss, to defeat ETSC 27-0. For the first time this year the Blue was able to score in the opening quarter (Terry Bailey 37 yards to George Dykes, PAT by Tony Matussek). The Raiders moved on to score in each of the remaining quarters while ETSC was never closer to the MTSC goal than the 24 yard line.

The Raiders were still troubled with fumbling and they lost the service of Jim Nabors early in the game with a pulled tendon and that of Jimbo Pearson with a sprain. Never-the-less it was the best night of the season for the ground game with Charlie Rice carrying five times for 88 yards, Phil Grammer eight times for 72 yards and Terry Bailey four times for 54 yards. Over-all the Raiders made 393 net yards rushing and 78 passing for 471.

Terry Bailey now ranks as the greatest passer in MTSC history. is two touchdown completions Saturday night of 28 and 37 yards sur-

Mountain Gal, Farm Boy Become First Co-Ed, Ed

By Betty Knight

A pretty blond mountain gal qualifies as THE SIDELINES' first "Coed of the Week." Our "Daisy Mae" is Peggy Aylor Partin, a senior from Monteagle. Peggy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Aylor, added Partin to her name in August of last year when she married Richard Partin, who is in the dairy business up on the mountain.

Peggy graduated from Grundy County High School in 1958 where she was voted best all-around student. She held membership on the Student Council.

At MTSC, Peggy is majoring in Business and minoring in Education and has just completed practice teaching at Central High School in Murfreesboro. She is a member of Pi Omega Pi, the Student Social Committee, and the Student National Education Association.

This Monteagle lass plans to teach after graduation. Her hobbies are dancing, sewing, and cooking (in that order), but she says her very favorite extra-curricular activity is driving home to Monteagle on week-ends.

She works at the college bookstore, so go by and say Hi to Peggy!

Part-time tobacco farmer Billy Wayne Dorris is "Ed of the Week." Billy grew up in Greenbrier, Tenn. and is married to the former Linda Parker, who is keeping house for her student husband at 115 North Highland.

Billy had a busy four years at Greenbrier High School where he was president of his class every year, an achievement which must be "catching" because he is President of the Senior Class at MTSC. His other high school activities included membership in the Beta Club and being President of the Spanish Club and the Chorus. He was also a Representative to Boys' State and a member of the football team.

In addition to heading the seniors, President Dorris has been a member of the Associated Student Body Congress and is active in the Booster Club and the Wesley Foundation. He is majoring in Social Science and plans to teach after graduation.

Billy likes all sports, is interested in politics, likes to sing and play the harmonica, and enjoys reading and playing cards. All you bridge players needing a fourth needn't be shy about calling on Billy! His serious "hobby" is raising tobacco, and during the planting season in Robertson County, he can always be found hip deep in an acre or two of Burley.

Ray Charles Is At MSC

By Joyce Sherrill

WELCOME, READERS, to this new column. Here's hoping you will be real interested in the happenings on other college campuses.

"Homecoming" is still big news around our neighboring colleges. MTSC's Homecoming was one of the best! Several of our neighbors present their football royalty in evening wear at half-time. Eastern Kentucky and East Tennessee State College are two of the colleges that present royalty in this fashion.

Murray State College has an excellent line up of entertainment for their students. Just recently the Brothers Four visited their campus for a very successful concert. November 16 was a red letter day on their calendar because Ray Charles and his Troupe was there for a performance. The Raelets, vocalist group, were also featured in the Ray Charles show.

Dr. Eric Rust, Religious Emphasis Week speaker of last year on our campus, was the key-note speaker at Murray for their REW last week.

Enrollment around the campuses seem to be quite an interesting figure. Peabody College is growing this year with an increased enrollment of 1,740. East Tennessee State College has an outstanding enrollment of 5,012 in its 50th year. Murray State College predicts an enrollment of 5,000-6,000 in 1965. A neighboring college, Austin-Peay, totals 1,979 students for this semester's enrollment.

Eastern Kentucky, in their 55th year, reports that their enrollment is sky-rocketing above 4,000. Belmont College, nearby denominational school, shows an enrollment of 535 students at the completion of fall registration which is the largest enrollment in the 10-year life of the college.

Here is something for our students to think about—

Psychologists say that checking your mail several times a day is a sign of neurosis. One coed, when informed of the fact and when reminded by a friend that she had checked her mail only half an hour earlier, had a ready report: "Oh," she said, "the other time I was just dusting out my mailbox."

Although the column for this issue has been short and sweet—be looking for it again in your next issue of the SIDELINES with more notes from our neighbors.

MTSC Co-Ed Gets Wool Beauty Title

By Anne Cantrell

Approximately one month ago Miss Ann Ellington was named Miss Tennessee Wool 1961 by the Tennessee Purebred Sheep Growers.

Miss Ellington, daughter of Governor and Mrs. Buford Ellington, will represent Tennessee in the semi-final contest. The semi-final contest will be held in Raleigh, North Carolina, on December 7-8. Miss Ellington will be in competition with contestants from nine other wool-growing states.

The winner of the semi-final contest will compete for the national title at Saint Angelo, Texas, in the spring. The national queen will receive a complete wool wardrobe and tour the United States.

In the semi-final contest Miss Ellington will appear in three all wool costumes. She will model a street length dress, bathing suit, and formal. One general requirement for all contestants is that they wear a perfect size ten.

Miss Ellington, a junior at Middle Tennessee State College, has received various other beauty honors. In 1960 she was chosen Miss ROTC and was a member of Miss Midlander's Court in 1961.

Industrial Artists Reading For Tech

By Lewis Mooror, Jr.

President Don Lynch of the Industrial Arts Club introduced the club's officers at a recent meeting of the club.

The officers are: vice-president, Billy Smith of Lawrenceburg; secretary, Donnell Patton of Watertown; treasurer, Billy Blair of Woodbury; corresponding secretary, Larry Timmins of Cranford, New Jersey; publicity chairman, Lewis Mooror, Jr., of Murfreesboro; and sergeant at arms, Carl Etter of Murfreesboro.

The new members who received their membership cards were: Ronald Baucom, Billy Dial, Donald Dial, Carl Brown, Ray Gibson, Claude Hyder, Charles Glover, Thomas Grace, Joseph Garrett, Berney Hobbs, James Logan, Lewis Mooror, George Moulder, Frank Noreom, Larry Timmins and one associate member Claude Hopkins.

Business discussed was a fund raising campaign. It was decided to appoint a committee to form a list of possible methods of raising money. The next business that came before the club was a project for the group. The project is to be useful to the college in some way. Another committee was appointed to select a project and report on it at the next meeting.

The final business on the agenda was a discussion on field trips. The club decided its first field trip should be a visit to local industries.

Three of the distinguished visitors at the Fiftieth Convocation program last week, met in Dr. Quill Cope's office, preliminary to a tour of the campus. At the left of Dr. Cope is Dr. Charles Bucher, New York University health and physical education coordinator, who delivered the principal address. Right of President Cope is Dr. Ed Boling, vice-president of the University of Tennessee, who was the official representative of that institution, and W. R. Enodgrass, State Comptroller.

T. B. Turnmore, W. C. Hastings, Ed Turner and Floyd Travis—MTSC has had its share of great and good men during its first fifty years," Dr. Cope stated.

"The spirit that characterizes Middle Tennessee State College was prophetically expressed by a graduate of the class of 1941 in a poem he composed on a battlefield of the South Pacific. Captain Roger Smith's poem appeared in the SIDELINES September 28, 1953, ten months before he died leading a Marine assault on the Island of Guam. The concluding lines read, "All that I have left is memories of those days,

When we had fun in so many different ways; I only hope that others at some future date

May enjoy themselves at Middle Tennessee State."

The invocation was by Dean N. C. Beasley, the closing prayer by Dean Belt Keathley. Dr. Howard Kirksey, Dean of the faculty introduced Dr. Bucher.

The fiftieth anniversary committee responsible for all the commemorative programs this year is composed of Lane Boutwell, chairman; N. C. Beasley, Annie Ruth Farris, Clarence E. Greever, S. Belt Keathley, Homer Pittard, Francis J. Riel, Eugene H. Sloan, Joseph Smith, Margaret Wright and Neil H. Wright. Assisting for the convocation was a sub-committee of Mrs. Evelyn Felder, Charles Edwin Howard, John A. Patten and Harold Stephens Sparker.

The Navy is now accepting applications from qualified college students for its Reserve Officer Candidate Program. The program is open to freshmen, sophomores, and juniors, except those who are pre-theological, pre-medical, pre-dental, and pre-pharmacy students.

Successful applicants are enlisted in the Navy and meet weekly with an organized reserve unit while pursuing their college studies. MTSC Co-Ed May Be College Queen

One of our students, here on this campus, could be the next National College Queen.

The annual search is on to select and to honor "the nation's most outstanding college girl." She will be intelligent, attractive, and will typify collegiate women throughout America. She will receive a trip to Europe as one of her prizes. She will also win an automobile, a diamond ring, and many other awards.

This week marks the start of the 8th Annual National College Queen Contest. All undergraduate girls, from freshmen through and including seniors, are eligible. For seven years, other colleges and universities across the nation have won honors by having their candidates compete. The time has come for one of our students to bring home the top title.

Judging is based on each girl's scholastic accomplishments as well as her appearance. Regional winners will receive a trip to New York City, where the 1962 National College Queen Pageant will be held next June. The entire Pageant will be a highlight of the "New York Is A Summer Festival" celebration, sponsored by the New York Convention and Visitors Bureau.

To enter, just write to: National College Queen Contest Committee, Suite 1606, Paramount Building, 1501 Broadway, New York 36, New York. You will be sent an Official Entry Blank and complete details. Classmates (young men or women) can also nominate a girl as a candidate by writing to the same address. Nominations are often made by fraternities, sororities and campus club groups.

This competition to choose a National College Queen is not just a "beauty contest. Only 50% of the judging is on attractiveness, charm and personality. Equally important will be the student's academic record, her campus activities, her hobbies and community service.

It's easy to enter this contest. Nothing to buy. No slogans to write. The National College Queen Pageant is sponsored by several leading companies, as their annual salute to outstanding college students. They present more than $5,000 in prizes. For example:

The next National College Queen will win a new sports car. She will receive an Austin Healey "Sprite," as a gift from the British Motor Corporation. Another key award is an Artcarved diamond ring, the "Evening Star" design. Or, if the winner prefers, she can choose a diamond pendant valued at $500.

The judges add this final reminder: "The winner will be someone who is active in several areas of campus life. She does not have to be a scholastic genius nor have the beauty of a Hollywood movie star. The next National College Queen will be a typical American college girl—bright, alert and personable."

Circle K Names New Members

By Tommy Oliphant

With previous projects such as sponsoring the Blood Mobile, taking charge of all programs for ball games and planning the orientation programs for new students, the MTSC Circle K has grown to a membership of 50.

The new members chosen for this year are: Jim Barnes, Wayne Bastin, Jimmy Van Blaricum, Jerry Davidson, Wayne Davidson, Bill Davis, Larry Denny, Larry Dibbrell, Kenneth Forte, Willburn Groce, Jim Hamilton, Jimmy Hankins, Joe Haltom, Ronnie Lancaster.

Jerry Lee, Don Lynch, Norman Martin, Charlie Mattox, Jim McHugh, Lewis Moore, Nick Morgan, Tommy Oliphant, Billy Pack, Don Reed, Ronnie Reeder, Tom Reeves, Stewart Schultz, John Smith, Tony Spelta, Johnny Smithson, Larry Woods, Bob Williamson, Tom Woods, Winston Wren, Reid Tatum, Earl Young, Bob Pitts, and Sam Lewis.

Under the leadership of Stanley Hawkins as president, Bill Woods as vice-president, Russell Lynn as secretary and Joe Brandon as treasurer, and under the sponsorship of Dr. Robert Corlew, the club plans for a big year.

As Christmas projects, the members plan to collect food, clothing, and toys for two or three needy families of Murfreesboro. They also plan a tremendous "Toys for Tots" campaign in which toys will be collected and turned over to the Murfreesboro Fire Department for repair and distribution to children.

The Circle K Club is a service organization at the college level sponsored by Kiwanis International. The idea of special service club work with collegemen originated at Pullman, Wash. in 1936. For 10 years the Pullman Kiwanis Club sponsored the local Circle K Fraternity.

The objectives of the Circle K Club of MTSC and the Circle K International are:

- 1) To emphasize the advantages of the American and Canadian way of life.
- 2) To provide an opportunity for leadership training in service.
- 3) To serve on the campus and in the community.
- 4) To cooperate with the administrative officers of the educational institutions of which the clubs are a part.
- 5) To encourage participation in group activities.
- 6) To promote good fellowship and high scholarship.
- 7) To develop aggressive citizenship and the spirit of service for improvement of all human relationships.
- 8) To afford useful training in the social graces and personality development.
- 9) To encourage and promote the ideals of Kiwanis International.

The first Circle K Club was founded in 1947 at Carthage College, Carthage, Ill. and the movement began to spread to other Kiwanis Clubs.

The Murfreesboro Kiwanis Club joined the trend by establishing a Circle K Club at MTSC in 1954 with Hutton S. Brandon of Lewisburg as the first President and Bob Keathley of Murfreesboro as the first Secretary. The club was formally chartered on Oct. 12, 1954 as the ninety first club. This was one year prior to the time it joined Circle K International.

Bell Chosen - - -

State Chairman is the same thing as being President. Bell's responsibilities will be to correspond with all other Newman Clubs in the state and help them solve any problems which might arise. He must visit each club at least once during the year and submit state reports to the Gulf State Province office in Louisiana and to the National Office in Washington. Bell will also lead and conduct the state convention next year at Vanderbilt in Nashville.

Bell serves as president of MTSC's Newman Club, which is the name of the Roman Catholic Church group on campus.

Line Bursting Must Cease

By Johnny Stoddard

Since there has been so much talk about the totem pole recently, the ASB officials thought that the students would like to know how it originated.

A group of students from both schools, Lebanon and TPI met last year in Lebanon to work out a trophy for the annual Thanksgiving Day classic between the two schools. The group wanted to use something with the Thanksgiving taste about it and they came up with the idea of an Indian Totem Pole.

It was learned that Harvey's Department Store in Nashville had such an item. A committee from this group called on Mr. Fred Harvey, Jr. and he agreed to donate the totem pole to the schools. Appropriately, it was called "Harvey."

Right now "Harvey" is missing. He was taken from the TPI campus several weeks ago. We of the ASB have a feeling that he will show up on Turkey Day at Jones Field when the Raiders and Tech will clash for the OVC championship.

There has still been complaints about the line breaking situation occurring during meal time at the college cafeteria. In the last meeting of the ASB Congress, a motion was passed stating that the Congress will put up signs in the Student Union Building calling on students to stop this immature act. You are urged to co-operate in order to prevent any further action by the ASB Congress or the ASB Court.

The policies governing the Student Union Building have been recently revised. Some of the main items in this revised edition of the rules are: There must not be any posters, signs, or other decorative materials attached to the walls or doors, inside or outside the Student Union Building; Bulletin announcements must be uniform in size—8½ x 11 inches;

No groups or individuals shall move any item of furniture from its present location to another place in the student Union Building without the permission of the Hostess of the building; Card playing is permitted only in the rear of the Terrace Room and in the recreation area on the third floor. There will be no card playing between the hours of 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.; Use of the Student Union Building must be scheduled in the President's office.

There are a few rules which must be followed in order to make our student center a more enjoyable place for all people.
