Prez poor at summit

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan was poorly prepared for the U.S. - Soviet summit meeting in October, and the two-day meeting ended with "an astonishing degree of confusion" about potential nuclear arms control agreements, the White House Armed Services Committee said Sunday.

The report by the Democratic-controlled panel was sharply critical of Reagan and his administration, citing confusion and disputes among U.S. officials about the wide-ranging arms control proposals discussed and almost accepted by Reagan and Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev.

Accident babes retarded

CHICAGO (AP) — Women who were pregnant and lived near the Chernobyl nuclear power plant when it exploded and burned last year are 50 percent more likely than others to give birth to a mentally retarded child, a researcher said Sunday.

Dr. Robert Gale of the University of California in Los Angeles, who has treated victims of the Chernobyl disaster born to mothers who were exposed at short range to Chernobyl's radiation during their pregnancy.

Studies by Gale, Soviet doctors and the U.S. Department of Energy estimate that 39 of the 300 infants will suffer from some form of mental retardation, Gale said. That is 50 percent higher than the 26 cases that would be expected in a population of 300 infants not exposed to radiation during fetal development, Gale said.

The estimate is based in part on studies of survivors of the Hiroshima Association for the Advancement of Science.

Many dropouts smart

CHICAGO (AP) — Many school dropouts, are in the top quarter of their class, and some are less than 14 years old, according to a study of the nation's fourth largest school district.

The failure to recognize the existence of these new dropouts may explain why programs aim at keeping students in school are not working, said Margaret LeCompte, an anthropologist and former school administrator.

Approximately 25 percent of students drop out before completing high school, a percentage that has remained constant since the 1950s despite numerous reforms, LeCompte said Saturday at the annual meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Woman claims AIDS gets raped anyway

ATLANTIC CITY — (AP) A woman claims she was sexually assaulted by a man, even after she told him she was infected with AIDS, police said.

The woman said she was sitting on the steps of a building early Saturday when a man grabbed her, dragged her into an alley and assaulted her, Detective Capt. Benn Polk said.

The 26-year-old woman, whom Polk did not identify, was taken to the Atlantic City Medical Center after reporting the assault.

The Sunday Press of Atlantic City said it learned from sources that the woman has a record of arrests on prostitution charges and carries a medical identification card stating she has AIDS.

Detective Daniel Loen was investigating the case.

Prez candidates outline positions

By BRIAN CONLEY
News Editor

[Editor's note: This is the second of a two part article on the presidential campaign. An article will run Friday detailing the positions of the speaker candidates.

The three candidates for Associated Body president submitted a questionnaire, prepared by Sidelines, to the campus newspaper.

The following is compiled from the questionnaires Sidelines received. The answers are printed verbatim from the responses.

Tony Morreale lists his qualifications as:

"The ASB constitution requires 45 credited hours and a 2.0 grade point average. I feel, that although those are important, my most important qualifications are 1) interest, 2) concern and 3) a willingness to work with all the students for all the students.

Holly Lentz said her qualifications were:

"As a full-time student at MTSU for the past 3 1/2 years, I am uniquely qualified to seek the ASB presidency. I am an active member of the campus community, having served on the University Bi-Racial Committee for two years and as a resident assistant in Cummings Hall for 1 1/2 years of the three years I lived there.

"I have been a member of the Chi Omega Fraternity for women for three years — serving in one elected and five appointed offices during that time. I was a founding member of the blind forum and have read to the blind students for two years.

"I am listed in Who's Who Among American College Students, am on the National Dean's List and I am a member of the Rho Lambda Honor Society.

"I have experienced many of the problems that MTSU students encounter, have a clear understanding of the limitations and shortcomings of the ASB governmental structure and have very definite ideas as to how we may make the ASB more responsive and effective for all MTSU students.

Lastly, Doug Roth lists his qualifications as:

"I presently hold the position of executive vice-president and speaker of the senate. This year, at the Tennessee Intercollegiate State Legislature, I was elected speaker pro-tempe of the senate.

"Last year, I held the position of sophomore senator and was congressional liaison to former ASB President Bobby Hopkin's cabinet. I have also been on the H-Hall council for three years.

ABC's Amerika gets 43 share

By Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP) — The opening episode of the miniseries "Amerika" gave perennially third-place ABC better ratings for the night than the other two networks combined.

In the 13 major cities included in Nielsen overnight ratings, the first two hours in the politically controversial, 14 1/2 - hour miniseries rated a 27.7 and pulled a 43 share on Sunday night.

ABC has consistently been third in the ratings all season. Its average rating for the previous Sunday was 15.6 with a 23 share.

"Amerika" is being broadcast during the February "sweeps" period, one of four month-long periods each year when ratings are taken to determine local stations' advertising rates.

NBC's competing movie, "The Facts of Life Down Under," got a rating of 17.8 and a 27 share. CBS's combination of "Designing Women," "Nothing is Easy" and "Hard Copy" had an average rating of 8.2 and a 12 share.

The rating measures the total number of homes tuned in. Each rating point represents 1 percent of the estimated 87.4 million homes equipped with television. The share is the percentage of the available audience the program drew.

CBS analysts predicted "Amerika" would average a 28 share and NBC said 33. The miniseries is broadcast every night this week except Saturday. It concludes Sunday.

Both NBC and CBS analysts said it is unusual for a miniseries to lose significant numbers of viewers during its run. But they also speculated that viewers might check out "Amerika" because of all the publicity surrounding it, then drift back to the other networks during the week.

Continuing law education site is MTSU

By JEFFREY OSBORNE
Staff Writer

MTSU is expected to be approved as a site for continuing legal education for Tennessee attorneys, Cynthia Drennan, director of continuing education, said.

"We are hoping for approval, but we don't feel there will be any problems," Drennan said.

Last year, the Tennessee Supreme Court adopted rules creating mandatory legal education for the state's attorneys. Already about half the states have mandatory continuing legal education, and it is anticipated that all states will eventually adopt such rules, a pamphlet on file in the Continuing Education Office states.

"We have planned the first seminar for Friday, Aug. 14 and expect 100 to 150 attorneys to attend," Drennan said.

The topic for the seminar will be on the Workmen's Compensation Insurance law in the state, and four speakers will be featured, Drennan said.

Four viewpoints will be presented — one from a lawyer representing the plaintiff, one from the lawyer representing the defendant, a judge and a college law professor, Drennan said.

Parking agreement nets more spaces for MTSU

By KIM HARRIS
Staff Writer

MTSU and St. Mark's United Methodist Church are currently reviewing a five-year renewable lease involving a parking lot for church and student use.

The proposed parking lot will be located behind the church on East Main and adjacent to the MTSU campus. MTSU currently owns the land on which the parking lot will be built.

St. Mark's growing congregation has caused a lack of parking spaces for church members. There is also a shortage of parking spaces for MTSU students on campus.

This prompted the State Board of Regents to draw up a five-year renewable lease that would give MTSU between 30 to 35 spaces for vehicles, Charles Pigg, director of campus planning, said.

Pigg said the Board of Regents has sent a copy of the proposal to the church for review.

"St. Mark's will be responsible for all construction costs," Pigg said. "In return MTSU will be able to use the lot during the week, and St. Mark's members will be able to use it on the weekend."

St. Mark's minister Gerald St. Singer said he was happy with the arrangement.

For $1 a year and $6,000 - $9,000 in construction costs, Noffsinger called it "a small price to pay for space."

History professor pens book on century of Tennessee farms

Dr. Carroll Van West, assistant professor of history at the Center for Historic Preservation, has recently finished work on a 342-page book entitled Tennessee Agriculture: A Century Farms Perspective. The book, which has been published by the Tennessee Department of Agriculture, focuses on 783 farms in Tennessee that have been in operation for over 100 years. The farms are located in 93 of Tennessee's 95 counties.

The task of compiling information on Tennessee's "century" farms is not a new one; the first collection was for the nation's Bicentennial in 1976. The latest collection is said to be one of the best references to date on the history of Tennessee agriculture. Limited copies have been published, and are available at the Center for Historic Preservation at a cost of $24.50 a copy.

Professor receives grant from Faculty Research Committee

Dr. Philp Vander Weg, professor of art, has received a grant of $1,605 from the Faculty Research Committee. The grant is to be used in the completion of a welded steel sculpture project. When completed, the work will be placed in the Sculpture Tour '87, an exhibition to originate at U.T. Knoxville.

Vander Weg exhibited a piece entitled "Double Figure" in the 1985 tour. It is currently on view at Cleveland State Community College.

Vander Weg's new project, which he hopes will be completed by the end of March, will be exhibited with the works of more than 30 artists from around the country.

Small Business Institute names Potts as new consultant

MTSU's Small Business Institute has hired noted Shelbyville businessman J. Ivan Potts to be a full-time outside consultant, helping local businesses with classic small business problems. Potts has extensive experience in the business world. He has successfully organized and operated a wholesale oil distributorship, a farm machinery business and a Ford-Mercury dealership.

Dr. Ron Mosier, director, said the SBI has more than tripled its service to clients in area businesses in three years, having served 30 in the first year of operation and more than 100 last year its third year. "This year," he said, "we expect to meet with almost 200 area business people."

Poll: campus race relations friendly

By Associated Press

NEW YORK — (AP) College students feel relations between races on the nation's campuses are friendly but not close, according to a recent poll.

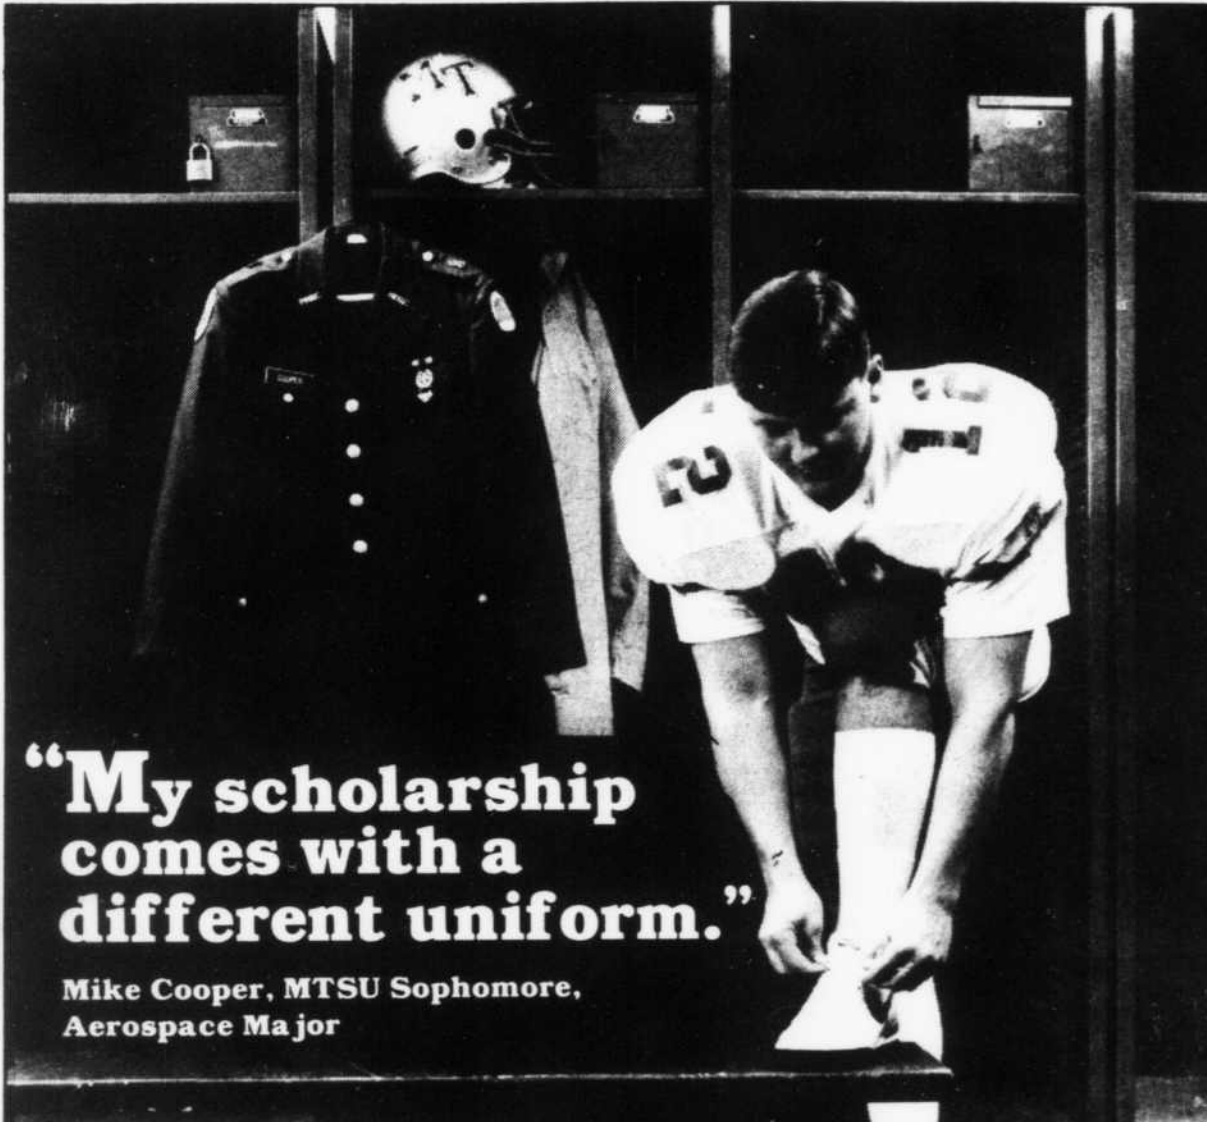

Twenty-seven percent of those interviewed by The Gallup Organization for Newsweek on Campus characterized relations as close and harmonious, compared to 56 percent who said relations were friendly but not close.

Thirteen percent said relations were cooperative but not friendly, and 4 percent said relations were aloof and hostile.

Seventeen percent of the whites polled said their schools need to make a great deal of effort to recruit minority faculty members, while 51 percent of minority students said such efforts should be made.

When polled about the bicameral government vs. unicameral government issue the candidates had decidedly different positions.

Lentz said she is "unequivocally opposed to the abolition of the only direct voice that the average student on this campus has, which is the House of Representatives."

"The House is absolutely necessary if the ASB is to effectively reflect the general attitudes of this university."

Roth said "the unicameral government has its possibilities, but as of right now the bicameral is still into effect and the House should utilize their strength and continue to work to keep the bicameral system."

"If the referendum is placed on the ballot it will be up to the student body to decide."

Morreale basically agreed with Lentz on the issue.

Morreale basically agrees with the position Lentz holds.

He realized that the bicameral system is "inefficient" but it "gives small organizations their only voice in what goes on at MTSU."

Morreale proposes "that the speaker of the House send letters to all student organizations asking them to send in a student's name for representative."

Then, "the House should then have three quick meetings. if a representative of a group misses these meetings the speaker of the House can remove these people from the rolls, establishing quorum at a lower number."

"This would make the House effective for organizations that want representation."

Seventeen percent of the whites polled said their schools need to make a great deal of effort to recruit minority faculty members, while 51 percent of minority students said such efforts should be made.

ABC's Amerika scary as political sci-fi thriller

By DALE DWORAK
Editor-in-Chief

Two days into its seven day run ABC's mini-series Amerika is arguably one of the most depressing shows ever to appear on network television.

It is far more depressing than The Day After.

Amerika has been the target of considerable protest across the nation by groups which have claimed it will fuel anti-Russian feeling in the U.S.. If anything the show makes one wonder about Americans and not Russians. The Americans in the show are listless and without hope; the takeovers, however it happened, has left them a people without purpose, without ideals, and without a future.

Amerika is not propaganda, however, rather it is political science fiction. It is an attempt to answer the what-if question that writers love to ask. In its scenes we are taken to another world, one that hopefully will never exist.

Amerika is flawed though. It as yet does not appear to be headed anywhere in particular. This is the prerogative of the mini-series format which can be used to develop ideas to a depth only previously held by the novel. The characters in Amerika are shallow but, perhaps they will be fleshed out in the next few episodes.

A work of science fiction at a political level — Amerika is scary. It is thought provoking — as it was meant to be.

Violations

To the Editor:

As a full-time, tuition-paying, card-carrying member of the Middle Tennessee State University Student Body, I am OUTRAGED at the manner in which you and the current election commission are handling the responsibility which has been entrusted to you. To date, a number of violations of both the constitution and the electoral act are quite obvious. All of the provisions to which I refer are quite explicit and not subject to your "interpretation".

I have taken the time to compile a listing of the provisions that you have arbitrarily violated in the course of the campaign so far, and am attaching a copy of the list to this communication. Please read it well because you will hear of it again.

The ASB Constitution is an important document...it is the only authority by which the ASB, and consequently YOU are allowed to exist and operate on this campus. Its provisions are explicit, its intent to protect student rights clear, and its authority absolutely unquestionable. The ASB, The Election Commission and yes, even the Election Commissioner are bound by it...which is a mandate from the student body. To date, you have in no way upheld it, but have rather arbitrarily suspended its provisions to suit purposes that I find rather suspect.

Be advised, that should any further arbitrary violation or "mis-interpretation" of ANY provision of the ASB Constitution or Comprehensive Electoral Act of 1983 be committed [where it applies to this election] by either you, the Election Commission or any other ASB entity, that I will take immediate legal action to secure an injunction against the election. I can assure you that I will win any such challenge as your violations are flagrant, and that any defense you or the commission might offer will not hold water in any legitimate court of law in the United States of America.

Further, in view of the manner in which the election has been conducted thus far, I have no reason to believe that the actual counting of votes will be conducted in any more efficient or reliable manner...therefore I demand that two impartial representatives from the faculty of Middle Tennessee State University be present, in the room, to verify that the announced results are in fact, the correct results.

I am allowing a copy of this communication to Sidelines in the hopes that they will join my fight against suspension of Constitutional law on this campus. NO ONE HAS THAT RIGHT.

1. THE FREEDOM OF SPEECH SUSPENDED ON MTSU CAMPUS BY ELECTION COMMISSIONER, NANETTE KRUSBE.

Citing her "powers" under Article II, Section 3, of the Comprehensive Electoral Act of 1983, Ms. Krusbe added the words "active campaigning" to Article VI, Section 1, of that same act which states clearly and expressly: torial Act of 1983, which states: "No campaign literature, buttons, posters, cards, or signs may be distributed prior to 12:00 noon, ten days prior to the date of an election."

"No campaign literature, buttons, posters, cards, or signs may be distributed prior to 12:00 noon ten days prior to the date of an elec-

Article II, Section 1, of the ASB Constitution guarantees every student the same rights as are provided for in the Constitutions of both the United States of America and the State of Tennessee.

FURTHER, the Electoral Act of 1983, Article VI, Section 1 is quite clear...in no way does it state or imply that a candidate for any ASB office may not speak with organizations or others on campus concerning their desire to seek office...By arbitrarily denying all candidates their right to freedom of speech, Ms. Krusbe, through her unconstitutional "interpretation" of her power, has prevented the candidates from speaking to the majority of them do not meet during the ten day election period. THIS ACTION IS ILLEGAL, UNCONSTITUTIONAL, AND IS A TRAVESTY WHICH THE STUDENTS OF MTSU DO NOT TAKE LIGHTLY.

2. ELECTION COMMISSION VIOLATES SAME PROVISION OF THE ELECTORAL ACT FOR WHICH THEY ARE ATTEMPTING TO DISQUALIFY ONE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE.

With regard to the above mentioned provision, Article VI, Section 1, of the Comprehensive Elec-torial Act of 1983, which states:

"No campaign literature, buttons, posters, cards, or signs may be distributed prior to 12:00 noon, ten days prior to the date of an election."

In the election rules and regulations which were distributed to all candidates for ASB office, the Election Commission authorizes campaign literature, etc., to be distributed beginning February 12, 1987...Consequently, all candidates for ASB office are in violation of the Act. MS. KRUSBE AND THE ELECTION COMMISSION DO NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO DEFY EXPLICIT PROVISIONS OF THE ELECTORAL ACT, YET THEY HAVE DONE SO - ANOTHER UNDENIABLE VIOLATION.

3. ELECTION COMMISSION SCHEDULES ELECTIONS IN FEBRUARY, SUSPENDING AT WILL THE EXPLICIT PROVISIONS OF THE ASB CONSTITUTION WHICH REQUIRES THE ELECTIONS TO BE HELD IN THE MONTH OF MARCH.

The ASB Constitution is quite explicit when it states in Article IV, Section 2: "There shall be elected from the student body of Middle Tennessee State University during the month of MARCH of each year, the following Associated Student Body officers [see article for list]."

The elections have been scheduled for February 25 and 26, 1987...NO ONE has the authority to suspend this provision of the Constitution...except the students of this campus, and then only by an amendment to the Constitution.

MS. KRUSBE AND THE ELECTION COMMISSION HAVE DONE SO ANYWAY...WHY?

4. ILLEGAL "KANGAROO COURT" MEETING OF THE ELECTION COMMISSION IS HELD TO CRUCIFY CANDIDATE WHO DARES TO POINT OUT THAT THE ELECTION COMMISSIONER HAS LIED TO THE STUDENT PUBLICATION.

According to the Comprehensive Electoral Act of 1983, Article II, Section 6, Last Line: "All meetings of the Election Commission shall be publicized in advance and open to the public."

"On February 9, 1987, at exactly 4:45 P.M., the election commission met "in quorum", in a secret meeting which was not announced or publicized, to vote to disqualify Holly L. Lentz for alleged violations of the Electoral Act...THIS MEETING WAS ILLEGAL, AND YET ANOTHER OF MS. KRUSBE'S FLAGRANT VIOLATIONS OF OUR CONSTITUTION AND ELECTORAL ACT.

As a constituent student of this university, I maintain that the ASB Constitution is the only authority by which the ASB, the Election Commission, and the Election Commissioner are allowed to operate. Under no circumstances do any of the above have the authority to disregard the provisions of that important document...YET THEY HAVE DONE SO NUMEROUS TIMES SO FAR IN THE 1987 CAMPAIGN.

Under the regulations published by Middle Tennessee State University pertaining to organizations, the ASB is bound to operate within the limits specified in the Constitution...Therefore, I request that this be done, and that the Administration of this university insist that it be done as well.

entire process, not excluding the paperwork, accounting, typing, and filing required. All of this, of course, comes after planning, devising, researching, and implementing a reliable and efficient testing system.

Then arises the question of funding. Who is going to foot the bill for such an elaborate operation? Certainly the government of Tennessee will not be expected to finance the drug tests. Oh, I guess that if the students are willing to allow themselves to be tested, then surely they won't mind paying for it too.

Constitutional rights speak for themselves, but where does all of this leave the universities and local businesses in and around each one? Not only will students turn towards private institutions within the state, they will also look outside of the state for alternatives, especially during athletic recruiting seasons. Out of state and foreign students will be hesitant to consider Tennessee State Universities and Colleges also. Whether a student uses drugs or not, required testing is enough to keep him/her from applying to those affected by the legislation, which will not only harm enrollment, but the local economy and businesses as well. Why, even the local police won't be able to collect as much for the city through speeding tickets if the population declines by even a few students.

Drug testing requirements for admission to MTSU, for example, will not induce users to quit all together. It seems to me that it is very likely that someone that can't stay clean long enough to pass the test, won't be that interested in higher learning anyway. I believe maturation is the largest reason people quit using drugs in this country. Why not spend the time, effort, energy, and money in drug abuse education and counseling, and let all taxpayers pay for it, not just those in college.

Combating drug abuse should be concentrated on locating and punishing the most harmful of those involved, the pushers and their suppliers. Testing of students not only implies suspicion and defamation, it threatens hard-earned respect and support for the fight against drug abuse in the country by forcing innocent people to succumb to such suspicion and targeting, and have to pay for it to boot.

If the bill succeeds and begins to be implemented, I surely hope to see massive protesting, and not only on paper.

To the Editor:

Is it election time again already or are Senator Bill Richardson and Representative Bill West simply trying to impress their constituents in hopes of future political gain? I'm sure they don't believe that the majority of college students in the state are on drugs and therefore are a negative influence on the rest.

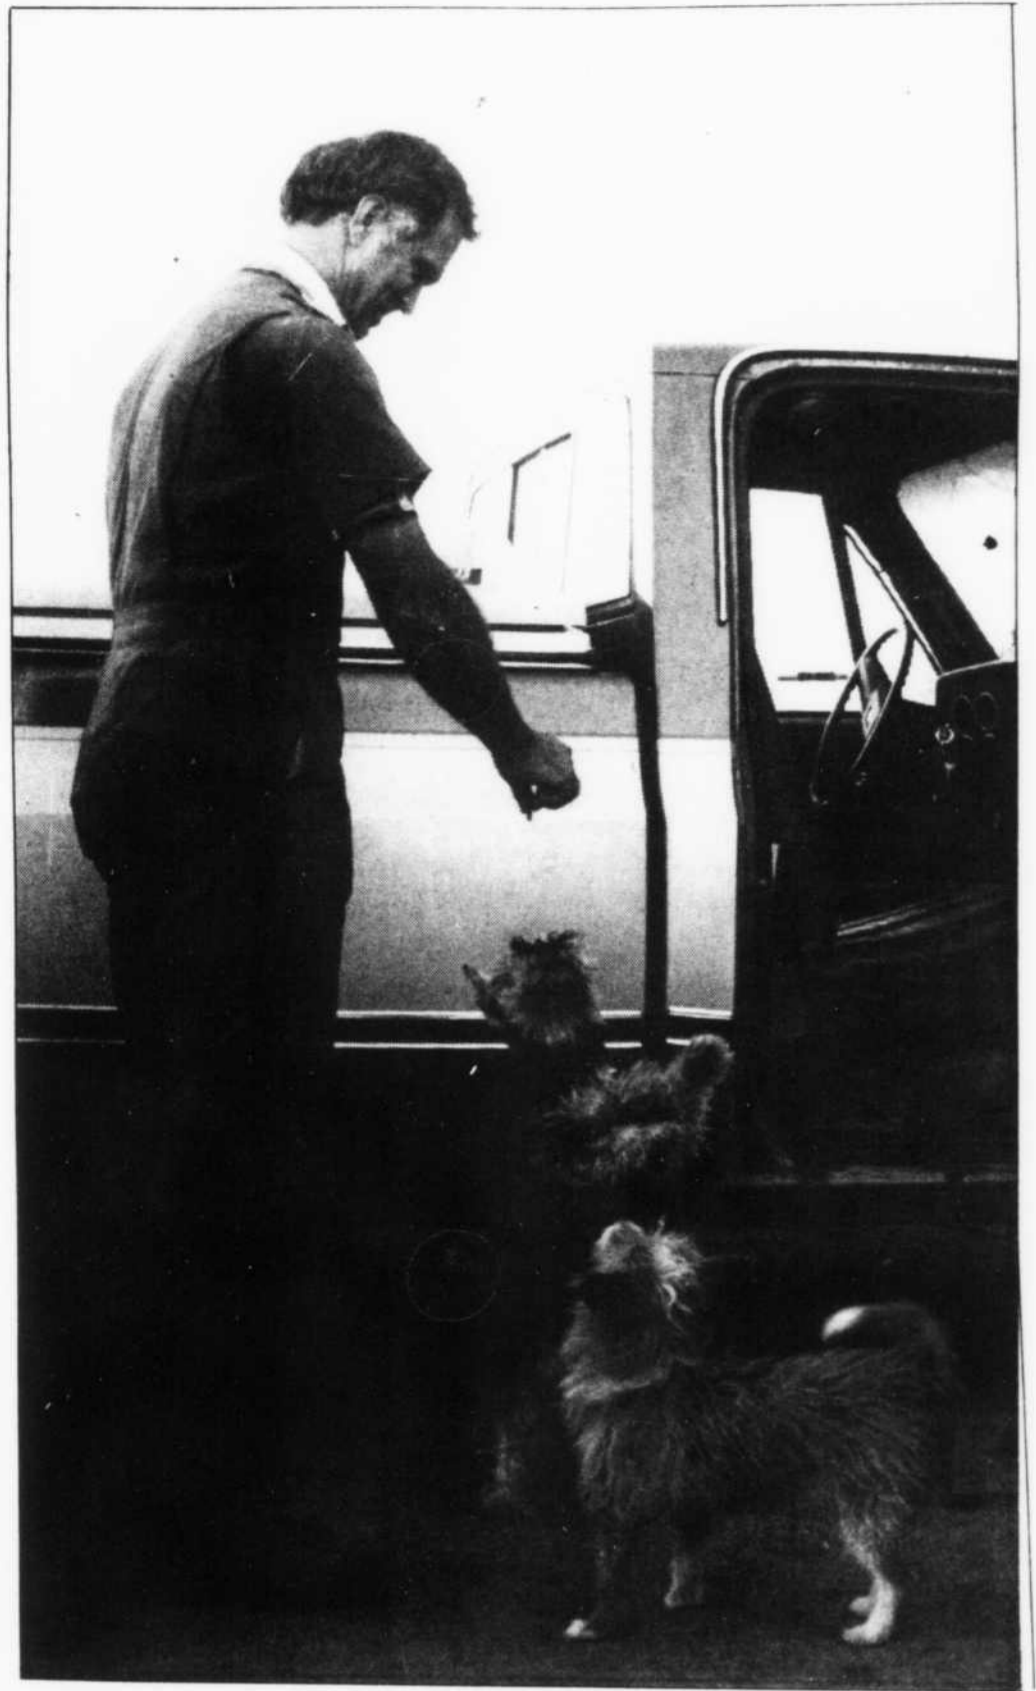

Mandatory drug testing of state university students and applicants encounters a major problem beginning with the staffing it will require to oversee, supervise, direct, facilitate, administer, route, analyze, re-route, and everything else that would be involved in the Taking a call from an associate in his office on the new Nashville Highway. Kathy Potter holds Gator, one of Brogli's dogs.

Brogli takes a moment out of a busy schedule to feed Daisy and Gator, the dogs who accompany him on rounds.

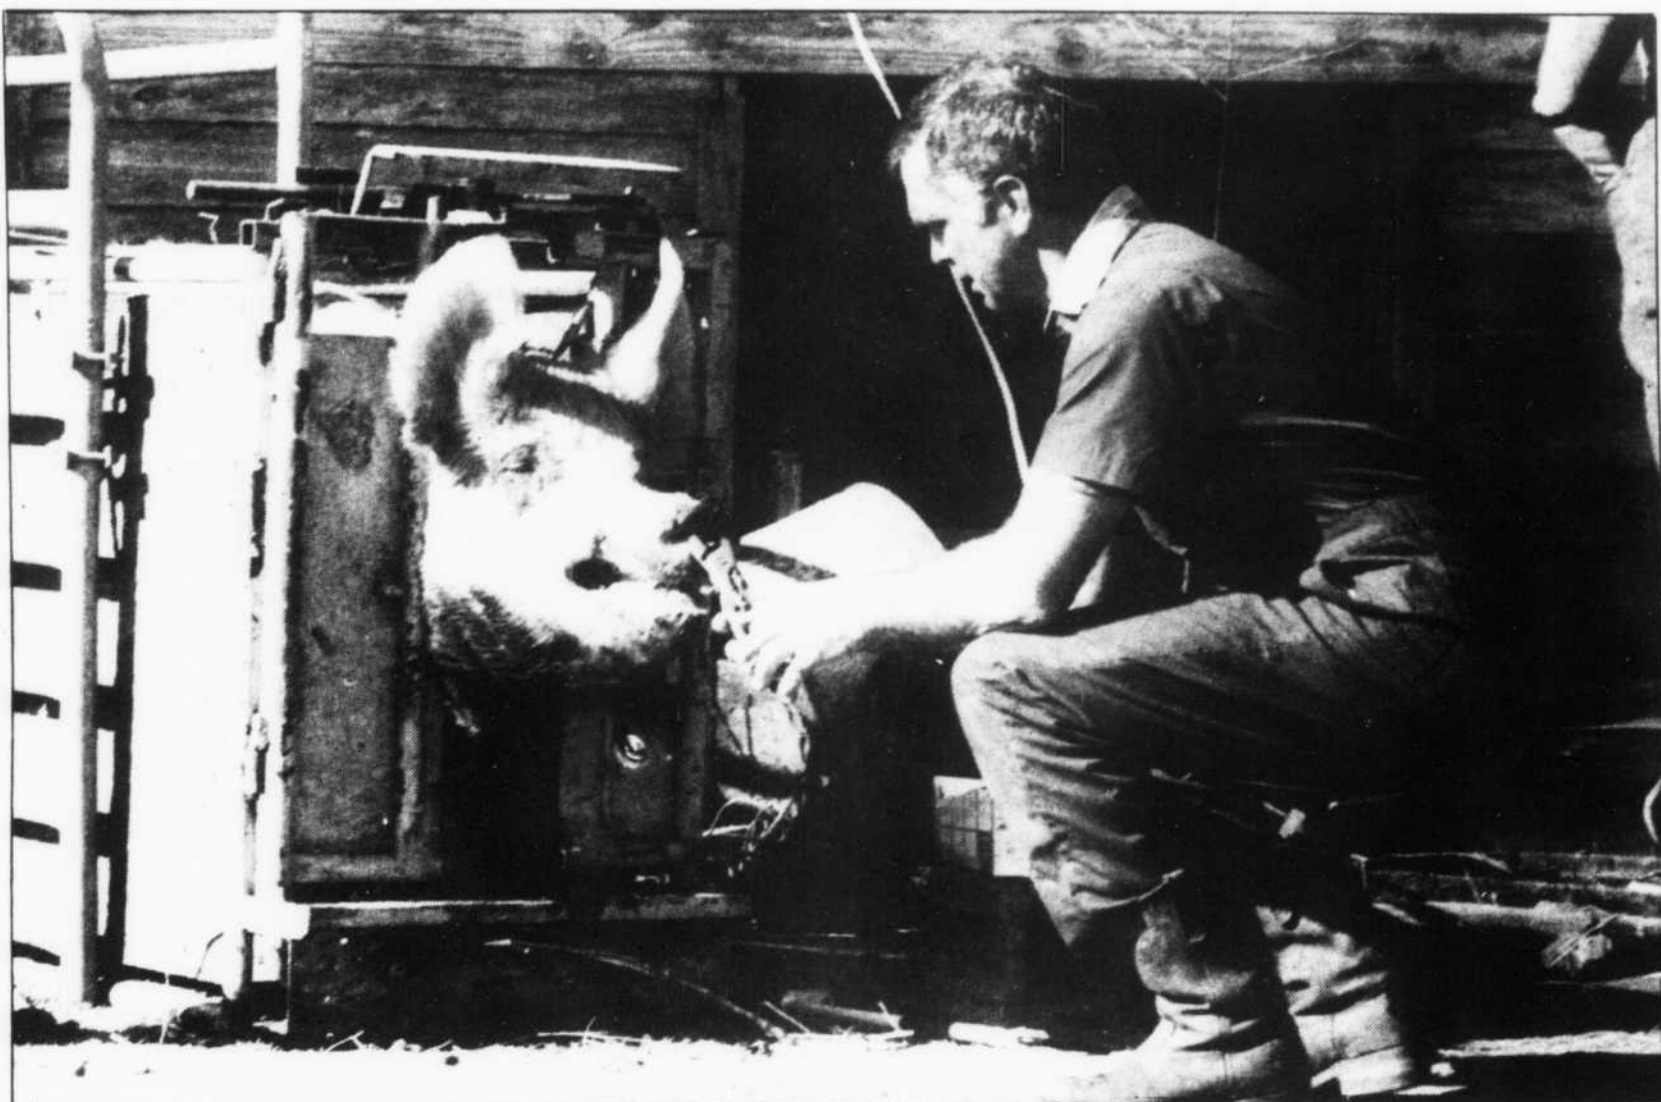

Dr. James Brogli a Rutherford county veterinarian specializes in the treatment of large animals. Brogli is a partner in the Brogli, Miller and Lane Animal Hospital on Broad Street which serves this and surrounding counties.

As a large animal vet, Brogli treats a variety of farm animals, ranging from sows to show horses and dairy cows. On a given day Brogli can be found castrating horses, putting rings in pigs' noses or checking the family dog for worms. Brogli's clinic also cares for the animals at Opryland.

Because Brogli, a graduate of the Auburn Veterinary School, is a large animal vet, he must spend much of his time on the road making house calls. It's hard to bring a horse or sick bull into the office for a check-up. On his travels about the county Brogli is accompanied by his two dogs which stay in the cab while he makes his call.

Life for a large animal vet is not easy but Brogli says he will not have it any other way.

It is time once again for MTSU's music department's weekend festival celebrating the music of a particular composer.

Last year's Bach festival, which featured the monumental presentation of Bach's St. John Passion, was a huge success which also received a favorable review in the internationally respected American Choral Review.

The festival will begin today with a lecture entitled "The Comic Mozart," presented at 11 a.m. in room 117 of Saunders Fine Arts by John Bridges, music critic for The Nashville Tennessean.

The musical aspect of the festival begins Friday, February 20 with a prelude concert consisting of Alleluja (from Exultate Jubilate), Sonatina in and Parta! Ma tu Ben Mio. This will be followed by a special performance of The Impresario.

Farce opens theatre season

MTSU's Buchanan Players launched this semester's campus theatre season last night with the British comedy, "A Bedroom Farce."

"Bedroom Farce" brings "a whole new flavor of British theatre to campus audiences," Director Deborah Anderson said.

The comedy by Alan Ayckbourn "the British Neil Simon" is the story of how the rocky marriage of Trevor and Susannah (played by Leslie Bowman and Brian Hampton) disrupts the lives of three other couples (Daphne Hiers and Earl F Smith III, Rachel Mayberry and Warren Gore, and Jenny Alexander and Tim Davis).

The setting of the play is present day London. The action of the play covers the events of one Saturday night in the bedrooms of the three couples.

When seeing the play, there is a sense of watching a movie since the action skips from bedroom to bedroom, in the same way a movie skips from scene to scene.

sario, a one act opera featuring the talents of Susan Haynes, Joe Keenan and Ruth Slaten. The cost for this performance is $3.00 for non-students, students free with I.D.

The festival continues Saturday night with a special youth concert featuring winners of the MTSU Piano Competition followed by Missa Brevis in F, K. 192 which features selected choirs from Oakland, Riverdale and Smyrna High Schools.

Sunday, February 22 will bring the festival to a close with Piano Concerto in E flat, K. 482 by pianist Jerry Perkins beginning at 3 p.m. The Middle Tennessee State Choral Society, MTSU Choirs and the Mozart Festival Orchestra conducted by Raphael Bundage will complete the weekend celebration with Requiem, K. 626. All performances will be held in the Music Hall of the Wright Music Building. All performances are free to MTSU students. For more information concerning the performances, call 898-2716.

Brian Hampton, Daphne Hiers and Earl Smith star in Bedroom Farce.

The set of the play is set up in such a way to allow the audience to see all three bedrooms at one time, rather than having to close the curtain and set up a different set. This also allows scenes to rapidly switch from bedroom to bedroom, creating a fast pace for the play itself.

According to Anderson, just having three bedrooms constructed on one stage is a "bizarre" feat in itself.

While Anderson emphasized that the play is a comic study of relationships, she also says "it has some rather sexist ideas."

"Bedroom Farce" began its run last night and will continue its run until February 21 at 8 p.m. each evening at the Arena Theatre in the Boutwell Dramatic Arts Building. Tickets are $3.50 for non-students and free to MTSU students with a valid I.D. Some tickets still remain, and reservations may be made by calling 898-2716.

Jazz Sampler offers best of era

BY LARISSA KEILICH
Staff Writer

The Columbia Jazz Masterpieces Sampler Volume One is an exciting collection of ten great recordings that have been digitally remastered directly from the original analog tapes. Avid devotees of jazz as well as strictly occasional listeners will want to check this compilation out.

Sampler Volume One features brilliant pieces from some of the greatest jazz artists ever. Side one begins with Miles Davis's sublime composition entitled "So What."

Billie Holiday, who almost a quarter of a century after her death is still admired by many as the greatest female jazz singer, is presented on the album with a haunting song called "You've Changed."

"You've changed/That sparkle in your eyes is gone/Your smile is just a careless yawn/You're breaking my heart/You've changed."

From the musical production "West Side Story," The Dave Brubeck Quartet plays "Somewhere," one of the most beautiful cuts of the compilation. The Quartet features Joe Morello, Gene Wright, and Paul Desmond; they also perform "Take Five" on side two.

The magnificence of Louis Armstrong and his All-Stars is not to be missed, as he plays and sings "I'm Crazy 'Bout My Baby and My Baby's Crazy 'Bout Me." "I'm walkin' on air/For I've left all my blue days behind/I've learned how to give/And there's love - really love - on my mind."

Also included by "Satchmo" (Armstrong's nickname) is the classic "Beale Street Blues." "You'll see pretty browns/In beautiful gowns/You'll see tailor-mades/And hand-me-downs/You'll meet honest men/And pickpocket skill/You'll find that business never closes/Til somebody gets killed."

And from The King of Swing himself - Benny Goodman - there's two cuts on the album: "Lullaby of the Leaves" and "Sing Sing Sing (With a Swing)."

Sampler Volume One is an album that every jazz enthusiast should hear. Be sure to look for further selections from The Columbia Jazz Masterpieces series; the first twelve albums in this series are available.

Blue Raider Dwayne Rainey scores lay-up over Murray State defense.

Austin Peay stuns Blue Raiders 76-73

By TONY STINNETT
Sports Editor

Chris Rainey's three-point attempt bounced off the back of the rim as Austin Peay upset the Blue Raiders 76-73 at Murphy Center Saturday night.

The loss ended the Raiders' 28-game homecourt winning streak and gave them an overall record of 19-4, 9-2 in the Ohio Valley Conference.

MTSU didn't lose any ground in the conference race as Morehead State lost to Akron. The Raiders continue to lead the conference by a game and a half over Morehead.

"Champions have to overcome adversity," Coach Bruce Stewart said. "This is certainly a little stretch of adversity. We didn't help ourselves tonight by losing a home game. The amazing thing is Morehead, who we are neck and neck with, also lost and we still have a full game lead in the loss column."

The Blue Raiders fell behind Austin Peay 37-29 at the half as senior Darrell Bedford scored 15 first half points.

The Raiders never led in the first half as Austin Peay took advantage of a very slow start by the Raiders.

"We are a basically slow-starting team," Stewart said. "In 90 percent of our games this year we have been down by five at the start of the game."

Austin Peay outscored the Raiders 8-0 in the final minute of the first half as Bedford scored five points in a 35 second period.

The two teams were tied at 29 with 1:54 remaining before Bedford scored a lay-up with one minute left in the half.

After MTSU missed a shot Bedford nailed a three-pointer with 33 seconds remaining. The Raiders shot with about three seconds remaining was ruled basket interference and Austin Peay got the ball with three seconds remaining.

Bedford threw the ball into Vincent Brooks at half court. Brooks then hit a shot from just over half court to give the Governors an eight point halftime advantage.

The Raiders outscored Austin Peay 12-4 to start the second half and pull to within 41-40 at the 15:39 mark.

MTSU built up five-point leads on three occasions only to see Austin Peay battle back and keep themselves in the game.

The Raiders took a 65-60 lead over the Governors with 5:29 remaining.

Austin Peay battled back to tie the score at 70 with 2:18 remaining.

By TONY STINNETT
Sports Editor

Andrew Tunstall scored 17 of his game high 25 points in the first half to lead the Blue Raiders to a 90-76 victory over Murray State last night at Murphy Center.

With the win the Raiders assured themselves of at least a tie of the conference championship. Morehead State lost in overtime at Youngstown State allowing the Raiders to clinch at least a tie.

With the win the Raiders improved to 20-4 overall and 10-2 in conference.

Tunstall was coming off a disappointing performance against Austin Peay last Saturday in which he scored only two points.

"Tunstall had a great defensive game against Austin Peay," Coach Bruce Stewart said. "He put so much emphasis on his defense that he suffered on offense. Tonight he played both phases of the game."

Murray stayed close with the Raiders for the first 12 minutes of the game and led by three with 17:02 remaining in the first half on a jumper by Jeff Martin.

The Raiders defense proved to be to much for the Racers as the half wore on and the Raiders were able built up a 17 point lead with 3:19 remaining in the first half.

Tunstall put on a scoring clinic as well as a defensive showcase. Tunstall scored eight of the Raiders 10 consecutive points over a two minute period. He also collected three steals over that period.

"My defense is the key to my game," Tunstall said. "I have to focus on my defense and the offense will come."

The Raiders outscored Murray State 14-2 over a four minute period as they stretched their lead.

Chris Rainey was inserted into the starting line-up in place of the injured Ty Baynham and scored 18 points.

"Chris was the unsung hero tonight," Stewart said. "His scoring really helped us but his defense on Don Mann was the key to the game."

The 20-win season marks the second straight for the Raiders under Stewart, who is in his third season at MTSU.

"The twenty wins in a season is something that a team tries to reach," Stewart said. "It is a compliment to our team, our program and our entire coaching staff."

Ladies zoom by Racers

By MAURICE PETWAY
Assistant Sports Editor

Getting Murray for an earlier set back in Murray, the Lady Raiders sped by the Lady Racers of Murray State 101-83 last night at Murphy Center.

The caution flag came out early for the Lady Racers as their tall but adequately fast team could not keep up the pace with the fleet footed Lady Raiders.

In a span of a little over two minutes the Lady Raiders scored 13 unanswered points as they jumped out to a 24-9 lead with 12:42 remaining in the first half.

The checkered flag was out early in the second half for the Lady Racers when they fell behind 60-37 with 16:12 left to go.

Utilizing their sizeable advantage in team speed, the Lady Raiders were able to overcome a height disadvantage.

"We shot 29 percent up there, we just had something to prove," said Janet Ross who was 9-10 from the field and 5-6 from the three point line.

"I think our quickness offset their height," Ross said. "I think that was the big difference in the game."

"Our girls were more confident tonight," said Coach Jim Davis. "If I've got my choice between quickness and size I'll chose quickness."

The Lady Raiders now stand at 14-7 overall and 10-2 in the conference, one game behind Tennessee Tech.

Five players scored in double figures for the Lady Raiders. Janet Ross scored 23, followed by Tawanya Mucker 21, Alice Lawrence 20, Lianne Beck 20 and Kim Webb 17.

Lady Raiders wax Austin Peay

By MAURICE PETWAY
Assistant Sports Editor

Led by Alice Lawrence's 24 points the Lady Raiders continued to keep pace in the OVC race with Tennessee Tech by defeating the Lady Governors of Austin Peay 89-58 Saturday night.

Senior Kim Webb managed to surpass the 2,000 point plateau in her career on a lay up with a little less than three minutes to go in the first half.

This historical feat made her the first woman at MTSU to be able to stake claim to such an honor.

Webb humbly said that reaching 2,000 points doesn't make her feel any differently.

"I'm not going to change my attitude," Webb said. "I guess it's nice in a way because nobody else has done it. It's a good feeling to know that I did it, I didn't even know I was that close."

At the start the Lady Governors gave the initial impression that they were going to keep things close. Glenda Clifton and Melissa Heatherly helped Peay stay within four points 19-15 midway through the first half.

The Lady Raiders began to pull away steadily at this point largely on the strength of their scoring in transition.

Lawrence scored on four lay ups in the first half while Kim Webb scored on jumpers from the baseline to help extend the lead to 44-30 at half.

The Lady Raiders held the Lady Governors leading scorer Shandra Maxell to 13 points. MTSU also had 13 steals in the contest.

"Quickness, our quickness was too much for them," Coach Jim Davis said. "We got a lot of steals and easy baskets in transition."

"We've been working hard on defense, defense is always the key," Davis said. "We're a lot better now than we were a few weeks ago."

Webb totaled 21 while Janet Ross added 17 for the Lady Raiders who are now 14-7 overall and 9-2 in the OVC.

There are individual and team competition in a variety of sports ranging from flag football to hiking.

Sports equipment is available for students to check out. The only requirement to check out equipment is MTSU Student/Faculty identification. There is no charge for most of the equipment, unless the equipment is turned in late, past the three day limit there is a $1 a day late fee.

In addition to footballs and basketballs, outdoor equipment ranging from canoes to camping gear are also available.

A simple phone call can reserve a racquetball court, if the time wanted is available.

This is a popular service of Campus Recreation. Those who call requesting facilities are asked to do so in advance.

Many have called requesting a court and get upset to find the courts filled by 10 a.m. There are only a certain number of courts available due to classes, which are held on the courts.

The five-on-five basketball tournament is still in progress.

Applications are now being accepted for the Spring Break Appalachian Trail Hike.

The hike is limited to 10 people and the cost is $30 for staff, faculty, or students. Guest are welcomed to go on the hike. The price for guest is $35.

The hike will be a 40 mile stretch through the natural beauty of Northern Georgia and Southern North Carolina. Transportation and equipment will be provided by Campus Recreation.

Sign-up date for the hike is March 2.

The Racquetball Mixed Doubles and Kayak Roll Clinic will be kicked off within the next week with the softball teams beginning in March.

Campus Recreation has many opportunities for those who are willing to participate. It cost a minimal fee to get involved in the activities and you also have a chance to meet a lot of people in addition to being competitive.
