Student Leaders Attend SUSGA; Aims Center On Entertainment

Seven delegates from Middle Tennessee State College attended the annual conference of the Southern Universities Student Government Association in Biloxi, Miss. May 6-9.

Over 500 college leaders assembled for "the greatest meeting of its kind in the South". Those attending from MTSC were Jerry Owens, ASB president (1964-65), Betty Graham, vice-president of ASB (1964-65), Troy Blevins, attorney general for 1964-65, Rus Johnson, Mike Rothman, Sara Edwards and Dennis Welsh. Mr. Welsh is vice-chairman of the Southern Universities Student Government Association.

Dean Hampton served as an advisor at the conference.

SUSGA exists as a link of communication between the colleges and universities in the South, enabling the student leaders to exchange ideas and experiences in order to benefit one another in their role of service and leadership to their respective student bodies.

SUSGA is strictly a service organization. Among its services to member schools are publication workshops, sportsmanship clinics, and the annual conference which serves as a workshop for student government.

Three Receive Alumni Awards

Fred Gilliam of Manchester, attorney general for the seventh judicial district; Rex Turman, school superintendent and Church of Christ minister of Savannah and Robert Abernathy, director of field services for Middle Tennessee State College, were the three choices for distinguished alumni awards at Middle Tennessee State College for 1964.

Dr. Homer Pittard, alumni secretary, has announced that the Alumni-Faculty Senior Dinner meeting will be a 6:45 buffet in the Tennessee Room, May 23. At this time gold medallions will be presented to E. W. Midgett and Dr. Edward Baldwin for 25 years of service and silver medallions to Dr. Robert Corlew, Dr. Gerald Parchment, Dr. Fran Riel and Dr. Roscoe Strickland receiving 15 years of service.

Heilman To Deliver Commencement Address; Undergraduates Establish New May Record

Dr. Bruce Heilman, administrative vice-president at Peabody College, will deliver the commencement address for 318 undergraduates and 23 graduate students for the May 29 convocation at Middle Tennessee State College. This is the largest Spring semester class to graduate since the January and August convocations has been introduced at the college.

The program will begin at 4:50 p.m. on Friday afternoon and will be followed by the traditional barbecue supper for graduates and members of their family. The Senior-Alumni-Faculty Banquet will be held at 6:45 p.m., May 23 in the Tennessee room. Three distinguished MTSC alumni will be recognized at this time.

Final Assembly Honors Students With Scholastic, Activity Records

Appropriately the final assembly to be held in the old college auditorium will honor those students who have achieved outstanding scholastic and activity records at MTSC. This summer the college auditorium will be converted into classrooms and offices. Next fall the new theater building will be ready for use.

Top students in academic achievement, extra-curricular activities and special fields of study will be recognized in the annual "Honor Day" awards at 10:50 Thursday, May 21.

A. E. Wright, assistant superintendent of Davidson county schools, will deliver the principal address. Both A. W. Powell and Sally Smith, ASB president and vice-president, will give their farewell comments to the student body. President Quill E. Cope, Dean Howard Kirksey and Dean John Weemax, will also be on the program.

Dorothy L. Jordan of the Marion county high school a freshman has the highest academic average in the freshman class—a straight 4. Marcia A. Emmert, Lebanon high school, leads the sophomores with a 3.98 average. Dorothy T. Shelton, Manchester high school graduates, tops the juniors with a 3.82 and Carole A. Shelton, a graduate of East high Nashville, is top of the senior class with a 3.82 average. Major

Sigma Club Recognizes Freshmen Maintaining High Scholarships

Members of the Sigma Club, honor society for men entertained recently recognizing freshman scholarship students who have maintained consistently sound academic records.

Dr. James Martin, director of testing and guidance, was the principal speaker. In his usual enjoyable manner Dr. Martin discussed "Academic Excellence," illustrating his talk with hilarious references to his own experience.

Sam McLeod, president of the Sigma Club, concluded the meeting with a discussion of the qualifications and goals of the Sigma Club, membership in which is based on academic leadership and achievement.

Anne Petty Makes Hit In Players Last Production, Everybody Loves Opal

By Josef Wayne

On May 6th and 7th the Buchanan Players presented an hilarious production of Everybody Loves Opal.

The two act comedy featured Anne Petty as the lovable and lucky Opal, and Ayne Venanzio, Don Massey and A. W. Powell as her evil and also lovable sidekicks.

The rest of the cast included no more than Carlton Sivell as a doctor, Allan Walton as an officer, and a feline named Mr. Tanner who appropriately played the part of a cat.

Although the play seemed far too long in some parts, it is true that in others it seemed far too funny.

The plot consisted of a stream of sex, violence and attempted homicides over which, in the end, faith, hope and charity reign supreme.

Anne played a trusting and tragic figure for whom the other three had no use, only insurance. Although the poor lady literally goes through kerosene and high water to win the love of her friends, the only sympathy aroused in the play was that which everyone felt for the death of the cat.

Don Massey has never looked more unscrupulous, and Ayne has never looked more . . . well, dramatic.

For the most part the acting was below par in comparison with the other plays of the year, but this could well be the most talked about play of the semester.

Ghosts of thespians past trod the 52 year old boards of the old auditorium stage alongside some of the finest actors and actresses to ever appear on an MTSC stage last Wednesday and Thursday. It was the final curtain for A. W. Powell, seated, and Ayne Venanzio, Anne Petty and Don Massey as each closed a distinguished acting career. It was the finale for the old blue curtain and the time worn stage, too. The next Buchanan Player production will be in the new theater building.

Five Pledges; Officers Installed Alpha Pi Chapter Initiates

The Alpha Pi Chapter of Kappa Omicron Phi, the national home economics fraternity, initiated five new pledges recently.

Those sophomore home economics majors meeting the requirements and accepting the invitation were Mary Dell Blevins, South Pittsburg; Donna Gaither, Auburntown; Emily Nicholson, Ashland City; Judy Smith, Centerville; and Norma Carol Woodward, Gallatin.

At the same meeting the 1964-65 officers were installed. They are President, Sue Chapman; Vice President, Emily Nicholson; Recording Secretary, Mary Dell Blevins; Corresponding Secretary, Elaine Haley; Treasurer, Betty Ann Robinson; Keeper of the Archives, Donna Gaither; Distaff Reporter, Judy Smith; Guard, Norma Carol Woodward.

Mother Patronage Day, which is held to honor and recognize the mothers of the KOPhi girls, was May 26 in the Home Living Center.

Those mothers who were recognized and pinned in this year's ceremony were Mrs. Earl Chapman, mother of Sue Chapman; Mrs. Carter Haley, mother of Elaine Haley; Mrs. J. E. Cubbins, mother of Mrs. Katherine Cubbins Faulk; Mrs. Bernard Robinson, mother of Betty Ann Robinson; Mrs. John E. Sanders, mother of Mrs. Dotty Sanders Watts; and Mrs. Clarence O. Holden, mother of Pat Holden.

Zimmerman, President Of Chestnuts Club

Tony Zimmerman of Hermitage has been elected as President of the Chestnuts, the college chess club.

The vice-president is John Bodkin, Chattanooga, and second vice-president and score keeper for the club is Sam Baker of Lobelville. Glynn Shepard of Goodlettsville is the secretary-treasurer.

Only one girl, Maria del Pilar Fernandez of Rockvale, is pushing the bishops and knights around the board with the boys. Other members of the club are Don Crowder, Christiana; Colin Dyer, Dixon Springs; Ray Kennedy, Fayetteville; James H. Jones, Readyville and Ronnie Cothron, Gallatin.

Roy W. Clark, assistant professor of chemistry is sponsor of the club which will engage in a faculty-student contest May 11.

Bashaw Receives Assistantship

Darwin B. Bashaw, has received a graduate assistantship at Virginia Polytechnic Institute in business education for the school year 1964-65. Mr. Bashaw will receive the B.S. degree in Business Education at the May 29 commencement.

He is a native of Augusta County, Virginia and is a retired Air Force Veteran. At MTSC he became a member of Pi Omega Pi, national honor society.

Mr. Bashaw will work on his master of Science in Business Education at VPI, Blacksburg, Va.

When the initiation ceremony was completed, refreshments which had been prepared by the new members were served.

Circle K, Vet's Club Sponsor Joint Picnic

Saturday, April 25, saw the beginning of a new era in club relations.

The combined Circle K, Vet's Club picnic was one of the most successful in either club's history. The picnic started about 2 o'clock PM with a slight over-cast and lasted till 11 in a pool of knee deep mud and a blanket of rain.

Fortunately, however, most activities were over before the rain came, the biggest one being the boys Vs. girls baseball game. The game ended in a 6-6 tie and had it gone another inning it may have proved disastrous for the males, as the females came on with a 3 run outburst in the top of the inning, the game ended thereafter due to a lack of players.

The players were rewarded with hamburgers fixed by Bob (Chef) Kite and followed by a dance.

Phi Sigma Beta Names 22 For Scholastic Honors In Arena Theatre

Phi Sigma Beta honor society named 22 for the top scholastic honor on the Middle Tennessee State College campus at impressive ceremonies May 8 in the evening in the Arena Theatre of the Language and Speech Building.

Two faculty members, Thomas R. Van Dervort, instructor in social science, and Curtis C. Whittington, assistant professor of English, reviewed two of the five "most significant books" published during 1963 as a part of the program. Mr. Van Dervort will review "Rise of the West" and Mr. Whittington the late collection of John Crowe Ransom poems.

Keys were presented to the honor students. Phi Sigma Beta, the counter part of Phi Beta Kappa, is sponsored by Phi Beta Kappa members of the MTSC faculty.

The new members are: John M. Lovelady, Daisy; Brenda R. Grubbs, Nashville; Thomas F. Lytle, Murfreesboro; Franklin Mashburn, Murfreesboro; Mildred G. DeBois, Nashville; Jacqueline Tinnon, Shelbyville; Annie S. McKnight, Murfreesboro; Carole Sanford,

Church Groups Sponsor Programs; Plan For Next Year's Activities

Dr. Kenneth Mitchell of the Vanderbilt Divinity and Medical School and formerly chaplain at Central State will talk with the Methodist group on the purpose of sex for the remaining meetings of the spring semester.

The Episcopal group will not have their regular meeting, but will meet with the Foundation. All other interested students of any group are encouraged to come and be present at these meetings.

The executive officers for the coming year were installed at a recent meeting and have taken over their duties.

Tom Swift, senior from Whitehouse will lead the group as President. Steve Jackson, junior from Chattanooga, Vice-president; Rose Ann Connor, Senior from Chattanooga, Secretary; and Jon Ballard, junior Knoxville, Treasurer.

WESTMINISTER FELLOWSHIP

The Westminster Fellowship has been quite busy organizing the efforts for the coming year as well as continuing to have very effective programs.

Judy Burt delivered an excellent program on "Witnessing for Christ" which was followed by an inspirational discussion. The following week, Charlotte Black presented a program on "Prayer."

Newly elected officers for the school year are as follows: Judy

Burt, Moderator; Charlotte Black, Vice-Moderator; Fran Hutson, Secretary; Kathy Pace, Recorder.

NEWMAN CLUB

Welcoming Spring with open arms, the Newman Club hosted a wiener roast at the campus picnic area. Several cases of cold drinks and eight pounds of hot dogs were consumed at this affair.

Along with its social activities, the Newman club has kept pace with recent cultural and religious events by sending a delegation to the Newman Club convention in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. As a result of this Convention, the MTSC Newman club was appointed the pilot organization for the nation wide complete Catholic Intergration Movement.

Biology Staff Attend Meeting

Charles R. McGhee, Dr. John A. Patten, Dr. Ellis S. Rucker and Dr. C. Wymer Wiser attended the meetings of the Association of South-eastern Biologists which were held on April 16, 17, and 18 at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia.

Dr. John A. Patten was one of approximately 80 scientists asked by the National Science Foundation to serve on panels for evaluating requests for under-graduate research grants. Proposals for such grants were submitted by several hundred colleges and universities throughout the United States.

The function of the panels was to analyze the proposals and to recommend those which they thought to be worthy of receiving government support. The meetings were held in Chicago on April 21 and 22.

A.W. Powell Accepts Teaching Fellowship

A. W. Powell of Murfreesboro has accepted a teaching fellowship at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York.

Powell will begin his master's work in the area of speech and theatre and will teach a class in public address.

A. W. Powell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Powell of Murfreesboro. Powell is a graduate of Central high in McMinnville and is an English major and a history and speech minor at MTSC.

A. W. is a member of Die Deutschen Kameraden, Buchanan Players, Phi Sigma Beta, Sigma Club, Alpha Psi Omega, Pi Kappa Delta, Track and Sabre Club, and Student Christian Union.

Mr. Powell has received the following honors at MTSC: President of the Associated Student Body, President of the Student Christian Union, President of the Buchanan Players, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Distinguished Military Student, Outstanding Senior Man, 1964 Speech Award, and 1964 Drama Award.

Let's say for a minute, this is you.

Once you wear the gold bars of a second lieutenant in the United States Air Force, what's in store for you?

Well, you may fly an aircraft entrusted with a vital defense mission. Or you may lead a research team tackling problems on the frontier of knowledge. You'll be helping to run an organization that's essential to the safety of the free world.

Sounds like you'll be called on to shoulder a good deal of responsibility, doesn't it?

But when you come right down to it, that's what your college years have been preparing you for. You've got ability and a good education. Now's the time to put them to work!

You'll have every opportunity to prove your talents in the Air Force. By doing so, you can put yourself and your country ahead.

If you're not already enrolled in ROTC, you can earn your commission at Air Force Officer Training School—a three-month course that's open to both men and women college graduates. To apply, you must be within 210 days of graduation.

Dr. Stute Terminates MTSC Teaching Career For Nursing And Medical Sociology Project

By Mary Dean Bigger

Variety in achievement plus the unusual marks the life of Dr. Frieda Stute.

Born and raised in Varna, Illinois, one of the two cities in the world by that name, Dr. Stute here inherited her love for the new and unusual.

Dr. Stute began her higher education at St. John's in Springfield, Illinois, where she received her RN in nursing. Not satisfied with just this, she went on to De Paul in Chicago. Here she received her B.A. in European History with a minor in French and English Literature.

Dr. Stute was not satisfied with just going to college and doing nothing; so she became a member of the Comiacoff Ballet Troupe for two years. On top of this she was a staff nurse at the Illinois Research Hospital in Chicago until she became head nurse in the premature and new born nurseries. Later she was in charge of the orthopedic wards at the Cosh County hospital.

For her M.A., Dr. Stute went to the University of Chicago. Her field of interest was in Tudor-Stuart English History. She also studied sociology professor.

Her hobbies and interests are many and varied. A few of them are photography, classical music, travelling and flying. She has been one of the few women allowed to visit the Royal Canadian Military Institute in Toronto, Canada.

Dr. Stute's main interest centers around the Dag Hammarskjold Foundation. This organization trains rising young African economists and administrators in developed countries such as the United States, Ireland, and Sweden. These young men are able to return to their own countries and more effectively administer there. Dr. Stute thinks this to be a very worthy project and is a contributor to it. She would like to get others interested in it in order to help these young men out.

Dr. Stute is beginning anew adventure next year. She is going to North Carolina to work with their University system in a new field involving nursing and medical sociology. With her extensive training and knowledge, this project is sure to be a success.

Before she leaves, Dr. Stute would like to leave these words by the Indian poet Tagore, "Listen to rumble of clouds, oh heart of mine. Be brave, break through, and depart for the unknown."

DR. STUTE

Arabic History and Egyptology at the Oriental Institute at Chicago. Dr. Stute topped off her education by obtaining her Ph.D. in Sociology with an emphasis in social psychology and medical sociology. During this time she taught in nursing school and was named supervisor in the Illinois Hospital in Urbana.

Dr. Stute brought this vast array of knowledge and experience to our campus in 1961 where she is now a

Complaints Are Good...But

There has been this year, rising about the campus, a fog of complaints. These complaints have come for the most part from no where in particular and have been aimed at almost anything either material or immaterial which happened to be near by.

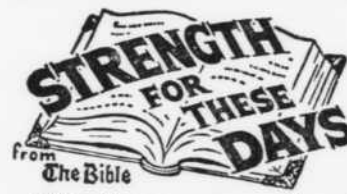

Some complaints have been legitimate. They have been thought out, organized, and attempts have been made to better the situation. Others have been completely off balance and stem from unstable emotion instead of adult and sober reasoning.

Before you voice a complaint ask yourself these questions: Have I fairly considered both points of view? Are there other student affected similarly? What can I do to contribute to a better arrangement?

Complaints are constructive and by them a student body can prosper, but they can also be destructive. A person who complains simply for the sake of complaining and is not willing to make any effort toward a betterment of the situation is of no value. Indeed, he often disturbs more than helps.

If your complaints are worthy of consideration, then by all means, submit them, but also be willing to support them. If they are not worthy of your time and effort, then they should never have been raised in the beginning. On the other hand, if your efforts benefit the student body, any convenience which may have been caused is justified.

This is my commandment, that ye love one another, even as I have loved you.

—(John 15:12).

When we follow Jesus' example we are filled with love—so much so that we express understanding and forgiveness and handle every situation and circumstance with love.

Moral Codes Needed

Sex: yes or no. Is this a question? Is there really any doubt as to what is right and what is wrong? There can be no hard and fast rules. But this does not mean that there are no standards to judge by. Purity is an absolute.

What has man become? Does he need church leaders to watch over him, a society code to govern his every step, a strict law code to discourage his criminal intentions. Has man become a child to be watched over and punished when he does wrong.

There are some who say that man is definitely immoral and that he is constantly becoming more so. There is nothing which can be done. This is just the way things are and there is no use to try and change them.

Do we accept these as conventions? As long as man gives in, as long as man submits to his weaknesses this is true. But is he really trying?

There is no question of sex. Sex in love is a partnership, an understanding, something which the two people involved should consider sacred. Sex outside of love is wrong. It should be wrong not because of a church or society which may condemn it. It should be wrong according to the moral code which you as a civilized human being have decided is necessary and agreed to go by.

Letters To The Editor—

Letters Show Much Variety In Student Opinion

In response to the editorial which appeared in the last edition of the SIDELINES we received several letters. Our space does not permit the printing of all of these letters in their entirety, although it seems that these opinions should be expressed. However, these letters are not a survey, they represent only a few students and not the general attitude of the campus. They may agree or disagree with your own views, but perhaps these comments will make you stop and think and organize your own ideas.

"One cannot deny the presence of such activity, but my experiences in talking about, and over-hearing dormitory gab-sessions on sex, indicate that at least seventy percent of the sexual relations are only talk."

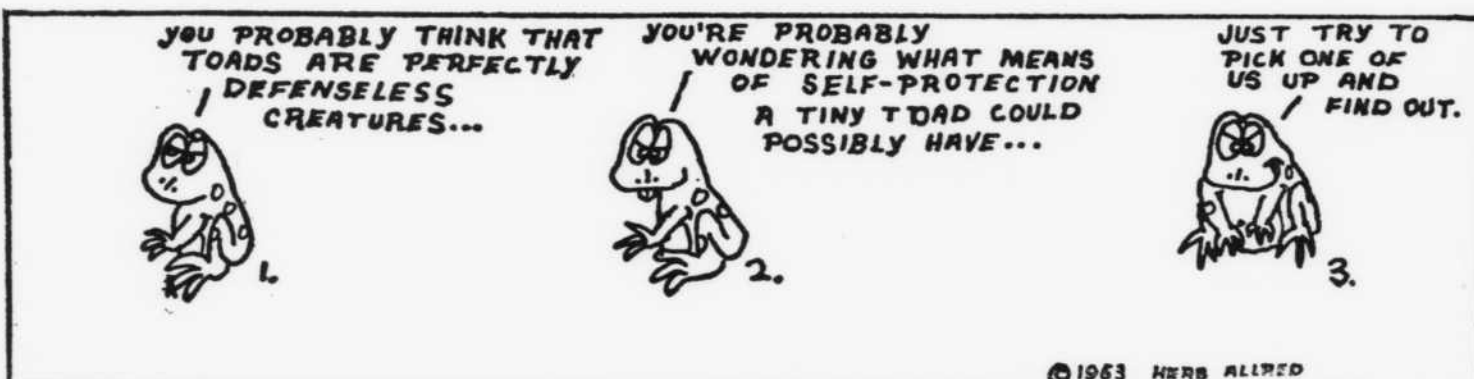

"Sexual intercourse has been a relation meant only for husband and wife, and as far as I am concerned it still is. Sexual relations are meant to strengthen the bond between a man and his wife."

"The chastity belt is a thing of the past; what is now needed is a strong set of morals formed during one's youth. What we do today reflects yesterday's training. If we want to improve the morals of the nation, we can do so by supporting proper standards by teaching them and preaching them."

"What then can we do? Why, for Pete's sake, relax. Have a little faith in the integrity and good sense of this generation which is forced to struggle for survival in a world it never made. We adults have created the mess in which we find ourselves. The problems which threaten to overwhelm our society are of our own making."

And, if we're lucky, we adults, our kids will be kind enough to love us, and maybe they won't turn their backs on us to leave us to stew in the juices of our folly."

SIGMA CLUB

Column Thanks Contributors

With diversity our keynote, the Sigma Club is proud to present the following variety of work by four authors: B L E, J D Austin, Carolyn Williams and an unknown. As we approach the close of the spring, 1964 semester we view most happily the response which this esthetic effort has generated within the student body of MTSC. Our contributors, as if reflected in their work, are from diverse backgrounds and are of contrasting characters.

We will terminate this column in the next two or three weeks and we therefore ask that any of the students of MTSC submit material which they desire to have published. If you have written a poem or sketch which you wish to have considered for publication simply have it placed in Box 1262.

Life is something hard to understand
With all the laughing and gaiety of man.
The busy hustle — and the great race,
What's all the meaning of this fast pace?
The cities are swarmed day after day
With hurrying men that are too busy to say —
"And how are you my dear, kind friend;
How's the world treating you — where've you been?"
Go here — there — go everywhere
Who has time to say a prayer?
Or to think about the great Maker of all
Or to be waiting and listening for His call?
While we'd never know it, but the birds are still singing
And far over the hillside the church bell is ringing.
The sky is still blue — the stars are still bright,
And God's in His Heaven with all of His Might.
But where are we in God's little world?
Out having a nice, jolly little whirl.
Let's take time out from our busy ways
And set aside a time from our hurrying days —
To say —
Thank you, dear Lord, from deep down in my heart
For the things that I have which all are a part
Of the gifts that Thou gave so lovingly to me
When I am too busy and thoughtless to see.
And please, dear God, give me strength to see
How to help others the way you've helped me.
Thank you, dear God, for a house and a home
And for this vast country on which I may roam!

Ugh!!!

The people I can't stand,
As I tread this ancient land.
Are those who are ever, eternally right.
They're right about the seasons.
And all their rhymes and reasons,
They're right from break of dawn 'till late at night.
Prove them wrong.
I dare you to do this,
For at your logic stated,
They'll loudly, rudely hiss.
They know all about it,
And how to best shout it,
And on their continued rightness, they'll sit.
But as I'd wish you'd see,
This rule applies not to me.
I've never been wrong yet.
But when I am you'll discover,
My rightness I'll recover,
And upon it, sullenly I'll sit.

BLACK VELVET

A long black trail winds away into nowhere—
A rain-swept street, as black and inky as the night—
Bright lights winkling away into nothingness—
Illuminating patches of cold black velvet—
A street no, but a magic trail that winds away solwly into the night.
Cars make their sleepy way along—
Headlights blinking slowly and lazily—
Men hurrying home from midnight jobs—
Home to wives, and to lovers—
To security and happiness or even hell.
The wind sweeps along the lighted way silently—
Making ripples in the puddles—
The rain sweeps down the street in waves —
Searching, ever searching for the sea.
As I, my dearest, search for you.
It is at this time I miss you most—
I long for you to comfort me in the flashing of the lightening—
To hold me safe against the thunder—
But you do not come and I feel as empty as the silent street—
While over my heart creeps a shroud of icy black velvet.

Flash-on Shots

by Ernestine Harris

"Crazy weather" is what the weatherman is now forecasting. It's hot and then it is cold—later it rains then it is clear—often one observes a combination of weather elements.

The place for activity when this type weather persists is the recreation room of the student union building. Anyway, it gives one an excuse for being fashionably attired in a special way.

Stripes are used boldly in sportswear coordinates. The A-line skirt is again used in modification. Notice the wide pleat in the skirt front giving one an illusion of the culotte style. This casual style gives one freedom of movement without bulk.

For color, the model has chosen the classic convertible collar blouse with roll-up sleeves.

It is a world of fun when the fashion is right.

This week's ping pong champion is Donna Rice, a senior business education major from Hendersonville.

Miss Houston Will Meet Peace Corps Volunteers May 14

Miss Gloria Houston, assistant to the home economics officer of the Peace Corps Volunteer, will be on the MTSC campus May 14-16 to interview and give tests to students interested in joining the Peace Corps.

Miss Houston was the first volunteer home economist to go overseas with the Corps. She helped establish a permanent program for 12-14 year old girls in 28 schools on the island of St. Lucia in the British West Indies. She also taught adult education classes in home economics, worked with the Young Farmers Club and led a village girls' home economics project. Much of her time was also spent on special projects connected with UNICEF-FAO-WHO five year nutrition program for St. Lucia.

She is a graduate of Pepperdine College in Los Angeles, California and taught home economics for three years before volunteering for the Peace Corps.

Bob Bodine Named Commander As Vets Praise Potts Work

Bob Bodine, Memphis, has been named as the new commander of the Vets' Club succeeding Perry Potts. Other officers selected Richard Call, vice-commander; John Lovelady, treasurer; James Spelta, adjutant Henry Ward, master-at-arms.

Mr. Bodine stated that he felt communications and correspondence is the utmost importance to any organization. This is the primary aim of his administration with increased public relations with other student organizations. A guest speaker will be provided at each alternate meeting. The first of these speakers will be Dr. Robert Alexander on May 19 in Dining Room B at 11 o'clock.

Club members in expressing appreciation for the work of the retiring president pointed out that Mr. Potts who plans call for him to continue his graduate study in medical technology. His wife is a native of Greenville, Pa., and currently employed as a nurse at the Veteran's Hospital in Murfreesboro. They have a three year old daughter, Julie, age 3.

Mr. Potts spent three years in the medical department of the United States Navy and received a commendatory Mast at the U.S. Naval Air Station in Memphis for saving the lives of two persons trapped in a burning building.

Womack Blasts "Three Dinosaurs" Of Education For Kappa Delta Phi's

De Shofner, president of the Theta Omicron Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi presided at the initiation ceremony and the annual banquet that followed. Dr. Homer Pittard is faculty sponsor for the group.

Dr. Bob Womack, speaking to initiates of Kappa Delta Pi, honorary education society, attacked three "Dinosaurs of Education" as, 1. "that teaching is not exciting," 2. "teaching is not a profession" and 3. "there is more prestige in teaching in higher grades than in elementary grades. These dinosaurs tend to be hindrances to the educational program today," he said.

Concerning the third dinosaur Dr. Womack pointed out that if there was a basis of prestige, it should be based on quality of teaching. One level is as important as the other. Dr. Womack advised that these dinosaurs should not be abolished.

Michael J. Rothman is the newly elected male vice-president of the Associated Student Body at Middle Tennessee State College. Mr. Rothman is the son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Harry L. Rothman of Nashville, Tennessee and is a native of Pennsylvania.

French Club Selects John Bradley President

The French Club has elected a president, reporter, and co-sponsor for the 1964-65 school year.

John Bradley was elected president; Betty Allen, reporter; and Mrs. Vera Howard, co-sponsor with Mr. Perry Dillion. At the Student Awards Night, awards were given to Carol Pollock, best member and Thomas Manus, best senior member.

The club sponsored a French movie on May 11 at 6:30. The movie was entitled "La Symphonie Pastorale" by Andre G'de. The movie was in French with English subtitles. The French Club will end the year with a picnic on May 16 at the campus picnic area at 6:00 p.m.

First Faculty Recital Scheduled By Jean Roy Bills Sunday, May 17

The Music Department will present Jean Bills, 'cellist, and Raymond Bills, pianist, in a Faculty Recital on Sunday afternoon, May 17th, at 3:30 P.M. in the college auditorium. The program will consist of three sonatas by Brahms, Handel, and Shostakovich.

The program will mark Mrs. Bills' initial concert appearance on the campus. She holds degrees from the College of Idaho and from Yale University, where she studied with the well-known Brazilian 'cellist, Aldo Parisot. She has performed with the Boise (Idaho) Civic Symphony, and the New Haven (Conn.) Symphony. Currently she plays with the Murfreesboro College-Community Orchestra, the Nashville Chamber Orchestra and the Nashville Symphony.

Mr. Bills continues to perform frequently on the campus and in the community. Thursday evening, May 14th, he will participate in the premiere performance of the Sinfonia for Piano and Chamber Orchestra with the College-Community Orchestra in the college auditorium. The work was written by Thomas Moore, of the music department faculty.

Most recently Mr. and Mrs. Bills have performed in McMinnville in a concert sponsored by the music club. This program was shared with Mr. and Mrs. Neil Wright. In August, the Bills' will travel to Idaho for some concertizing.

Martin Receives First Circle K Service Plaque

Dr. Robert Martin, professor of economics at Middle Tennessee State College, was chosen as the recipient of the first award to be made by the Circle K Club at the college "for outstanding service to College Circle K clubs."

Dr. Martin, long prominent in Kiwanis Club activities and former national committee member for Circle K was recently commissioned a Colonel on the staff of Governor Brethitt of Kentucky for his work with the college clubs in the State.

Ag. Class Doubles In Past Four Years

The enrollment of Agricultural students doubled in number between the fall semester of 1959 and the fall semester of 1963, according to Dr. T. C. Bigger, Head of the Department of Agriculture.

In 1959 there were 56 majors in agriculture, and last fall (1963) there were 110. According to results of a survey in progress, the Agricultural enrollment for the spring semester of 1964 is approximately the same as it was last fall.

Along with the increased enrollment of Agricultural majors, there has been an increase in minors and electives. Minors are students who schedule 18 or more semester hours in an agricultural field while majoring in another subject area. Electives are students who take advantage of one or more agricultural courses in which he has an individual interest, such as Care and Training of Horses, Equitation, Landscaping, Floriculture, Forage Crops, or Dairy Production.

Sacred Harp Singers Conduct Tour; Program Features Hymns, Folk Songs

The MTSC Sacred Harp Singers were on concert tour April 27, 28, 29 and 30 in Tennessee and Georgia.

The group was organized at the Murfreesboro college in the summer of 1947 and is composed of ten singers. The MTSC Sacred Harp Singers sing a cannella seated around a table, in sixteenth century madrigal style.

The repertoire consists of early English Madrigals and folk songs, Sacred Harp hymns and white spirituals, and Southern Folk songs and ballads.

Personnel includes Sally Ratcliffe of Chattanooga, Frances Mitchell of Lawrenceburg, and Anne Turner of Lebanon, sopranos; Margaret Wright of Murfreesboro and Ann Alford of Lawrenceburg, contraltos; Lynn McGill of Murfreesboro and Monty Thomas of Chattanooga, tenor; and David Benzenhafer of Harriman, Tommy Cole of Nashville, basses, and Tom Horne of Gadsden, Alabama, baritone.

The ensemble is under the direction of Margaret Wright of the college music faculty.

This Spring tour includes concerts by the MTSC Sacred Harp Singers at Marshall County High School, Lewisburg; Lawrence County High School, Lawrenceburg; Central High School, Woodbury; Grundy County High School, Tracy City; Ringgold High School, Ringgold, Georgia, East Ridge High School and Tyner High School, Chattanooga; Dickson High School, Dickson; and Bellevue High School, Nashville, from April 27-30.

International Student Increase Seen

American colleges and universities are the hosts for many international students from the world over.

Presently, there are 70,000 or more students on American campuses. It is expected that by 1970 this number will exceed 100,000. This increase will effect our international population in this country; and, Middle Tennessee State College will have its share of these students.

Middle Tennessee State College is well-equipped in certain fields to provide a beneficial education for young scholars from different countries, and with the studies made (in this connection) one might assume that MTSC's foreign student population will be growing at a faster rate than ever before.

The administration at Middle Tennessee State College, especially the President, Dr. Quill Cope, has been immensely interested in the welfare of international population on its campus. For this reason, the College has established an Office of International Students and an advisor, Mr. Reza Ordoubadian, who co-ordinates and administers international activities.

According to Mr. Ordoubadian "At Middle Tennessee State College, the student is made to feel he belongs."

The College's orientation program has been adapted by various colleges and universities. A mimeographed copy of the program is available for other interested institutions. This program is listed in the bibliography of the bulletin published by the International Student's Association.

The Athletic Department has given three scholarships in tennis and also in track. Dr. Cope is working to try to procure state scholarships for deserving students.

Scott Named ABLA Veep For South Central Area

Curtis E. Scott, assistant professor of business has been named as vice-president of the South Central Region of the American Business Law Association.

Mr. Scott is a native of Jackson, Tennessee. He received his B.S. degree at Union University, his M.Ed. from Texas Wesleyan, his Master Religious Education from Southwestern Seminary and is now a doctoral candidate at Peabody College. He taught business law at Belmont College before joining the local college faculty in 1963.

Dement Joins Farm Staff

Mr. Joe Jack Dement of Normandy, Tennessee, will join the MTSC Lab Farms staff July 1, 1964 as Instructor-Herdsman. He is presently employed in Huntland, Tennessee as Assistant Manager of the Allegheny Shirt Company.

MR. DEMENT is a graduate of the University of Tennessee with a B. S. degree in Animal Science. He has worked for the Schultz Poultry Farm, Huntland, Tennessee, in connection with improvements in management and sanitation practices, and in diagnosing and advising treatment for various disease problems concerned with poultry.

Mr. Dement will be concerned with the operation of the MTSC Laboratory Farms under the direction of Dr. Robert A. Alexander, associate professor of animal science, who has overall responsibility of the MTSC Farm program in addition to his teaching duties.

MTSC LABORATORY Farms consist of three farms, one located on the main campus, the others north of F.A. Hospital on U. S. Highway 231, and the other east of V.A. Hospital on Compton Road.

Biology Staff Members Receive Grants For Varied Graduate Study

Dr. John A. Patten has announced that several of the staff members in the Department of Biology have received grants for further study.

GEORGE E. ALLEN Instructor in Biology, has been awarded a National Science Foundation "Science Faculty Fellowship" to cover a period of fifteen months of study toward the Ph.D. degree. Mr. Allen plans to study at the University of Illinois during the coming summer and then to enroll at Mississippi State University for the academic year 1964-65. He hopes to complete the degree during that period.

Mr. Allen has been carrying on a summer research program pertaining to pathological conditions of the blood of certain economically important insects. He reported his progress in this study at the National Convention of the Entomological Society of America and the results will also be published in two national scientific journals: The Biological Bulletin and the Journal of Insect Pathology.

MR. WILLIE H. FARLEY, Instructor in Biology, has accepted a fellowship in Bacteriology at the University of Georgia. Mr. Farley plans to enter the University in September and to work toward the completion of the Ph.D. degree in Microbiology.

He also received offers of fellowships from the University of Kentucky and the University of Florida.

DR. J. GERALD PARCHMENT, Professor of Biology, has been accepted for attendance in the Summer Institute in Radiation Biology at Oak Ridge Tennessee. He is one of approximately 20 trainees selected from over the United States to receive this training. He was also awarded a National Science Foundation Grant-in-Aid to help defray expenses during this period of study.

Miss Nancy Rushing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Rushing of 1309 Grantland, has been awarded a teaching assistantship in biology at Louisiana State University. Miss Rushing graduated from MTSC in 1963 with the major in biology.

If you are near Louisville, Kentucky call 585-5160 or write Mr. Seadler, 2774 S. Shelby, Louisville, Kentucky.

Supreme Court Composed Of Workers; Sets Standards For Future Years

This year MTSC has been exceedingly fortunate in having a Supreme Court that was not only sufficient but superior. Very few schools in SUSGA have courts that have more power or prestige than the one on this campus.

The people that have worked this year to make the court what it is are: Norman Martin who is the chief justice, the senior justice, T. McFerrin, Troy Blevins and Russ Johnson who are the junior justices, and Tim Shannon, the Sophomore.

Mother Needs Drivers

A mother and three children are seeking to have one or two passengers help with driving from Murfreesboro to New England between June 1-15. more justice. Denny Welsh served as the Attorney General and Barbara Moore is the court reporter.

Outside of their court duties the members are responsible for certain fun nights, checking I D cards at home football games, and on occasion have served as policeman for the cafeteria.

These people have worked hard this year. They have taken their jobs seriously. They receive no compensation for their time and effort. All they have done has been solely to benefit the student.

They have been successful partially because of their own determination and responsibility and partially because of the cooperation and help of the administration. The court's decisions were followed to the letter and this made its function worthwhile. This should be an example of the many things which faculty and students working together might achieve.

"Leaders In Ladies' Fashions"

Golf, Tennis Teams Boast Near Perfect Win Season

Coach Patty's golf team has continued its perfect record this season with 43 consecutive wins. They stand so far this year at 6-0.

Haley, Midgett and Wolfe have taken turn about for medalist honors, and their skill has eased the Raiders by every time.

The team has proved itself time and again, and twice this year they have defeated Tennessee Tech and UC.

The OVC Tournament takes place the 15th and 16th of this month. Patty and his boys are determined to make a name for themselves, and judging by past action they surely will.

Track Team Sets Two Records In Sewanee Meet

The University of the South fell victim to MTSC in a thrilling track meet on our campus April 14.

The day was hot and sunny and the MTSC athletes were in splendid form. Out of a total of 17 contest, MTSC placed first in 14 of them, to score a total of 108 points against the 37 points scored by Sewanee.

Two new records were set: Briar Oldfield 52-6.75 set a new record for the shot put and Maxie Boles 40.3 set a new record for the 330 intermediate hurdles. Also Fred Wright tied the outdoor record for the pole vault, and Eugene Robinson tied the record for the 220 yard dash.

MT Takes Honors At TIAC Meet

Middle Tennessee State swept the field Saturday in the Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic Conference track meet but Tennessee Tech's versatile Tom Chilton took individual honors.

MTSC, paced by double winner George Claxton, scored 70 points with only four first-place finishes. Favored Tennessee Tech was second with 52½ points despite six first places.

Far back in the field were Austin Peay 34, Sewanee 33½, Union 31, Southwestern 15½, David Lipscomb 14½, Bryan College 4½ and U.T. Martin Branch O.

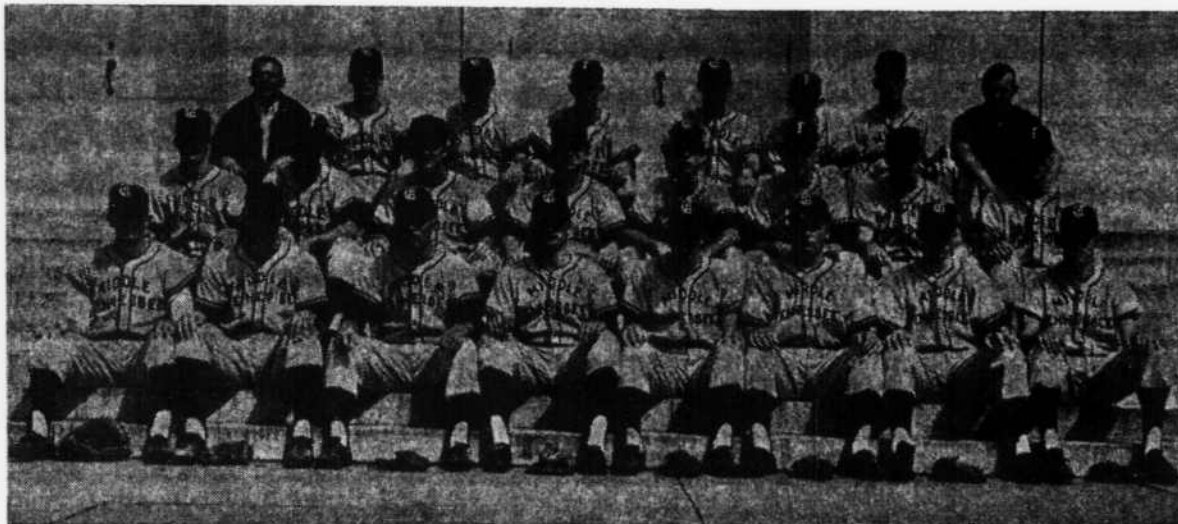

Claxton cleared the 120 high hurdles in :15.2 and the 330 intermediate hurdles in :39.9 Brian Oldfield, tossing the shot 51 feet 10 inches, Middle Tennessee's only other single winner. The MTSC mile relay team won 3.26.

Buck Bouldin and his Blue Raider tennis team have back-handed their way to a surprisingly good season of ten wins and only one loss. This record is outstanding when compared to any of the MTSC competitors, but when the past few seasons are considered, it is exceptional.

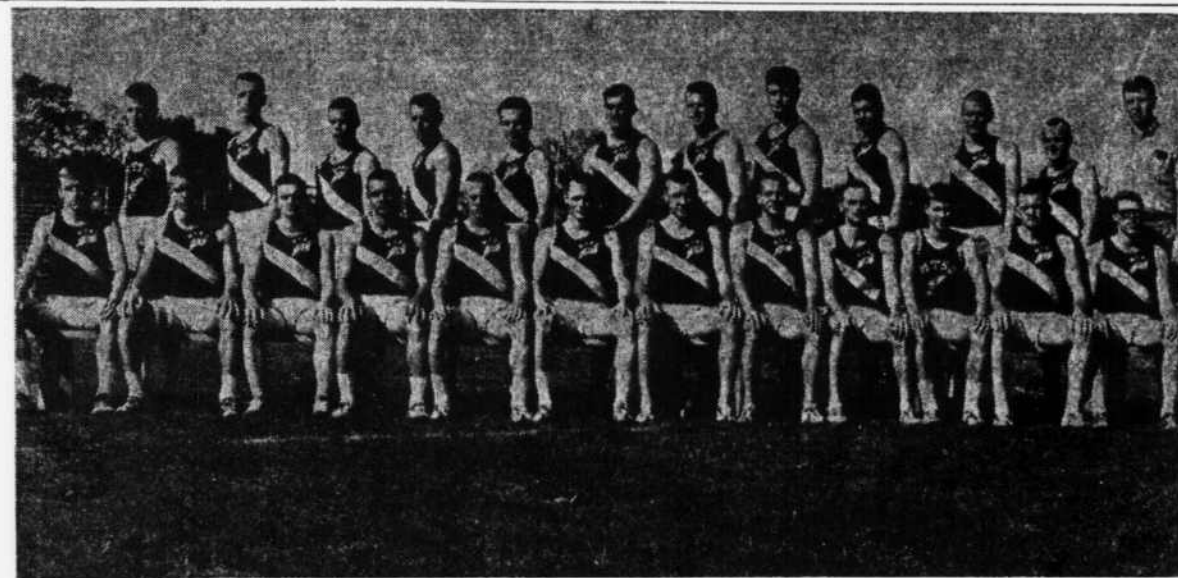

Coach Bouldin is a Murfreesboro lawyer who has started his first season off with a bang. He and his boys have worked hard and their work has paid off.

Those that have attended the matches know that they are great to watch, and those that have not have missed some thrilling games.

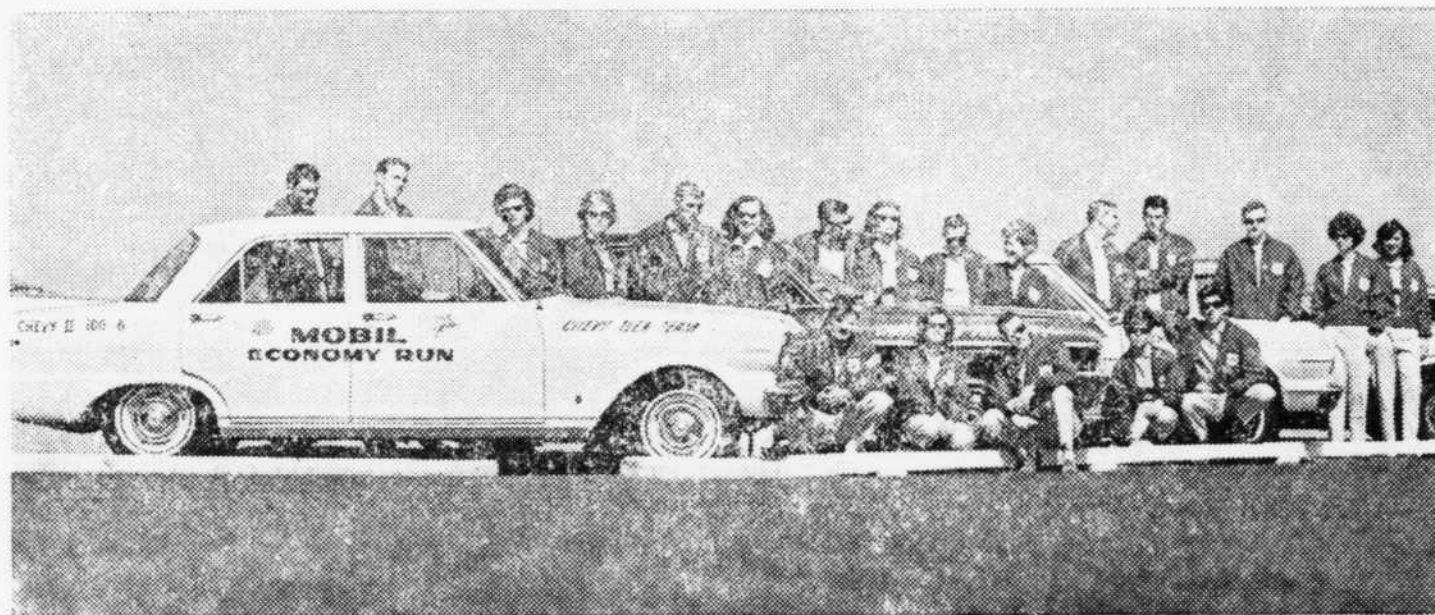

The OVC Tournament is at Bowling Green this weekend. Last year MTSC placed fifth, but this time don't be surprised if they place first.

We'd like to say some nice things about America's young adult drivers

And we think we've got good reason! Last January, we selected twenty 18- and 19-year-old young men and women through the Junior Achievement program to drive our team of Chevrolets in the Mobil Economy Run, April 3-9. It was the first time any company had relied entirely on drivers with limited experience in this exacting competition.

We brought these young adults—most of them college students, some from the business world—to Arcadia, California, in late February. For six weeks, our expert teachers trained them in the skills of economy driving.

Then, on April 3, they set off on the Run, 3,243 miles from Los Angeles to New York.

We were going against the grain. It takes high proficiency to win the Mobil Economy Run. Competition is tough. Why did we rely on drivers with such limited experience?

Chevrolet wanted to give the Chevy Teen Team a chance to prove in front of the nation that they and the 6.5 million licensed drivers in their age bracket are safe, sane people behind the wheel. We felt the Run offered a splendid chance.

The Corvair, Chevy IIs, Chevelles and Chevrolets driven by the Chevy Teen

Team in the Mobil Economy Run did remarkably well compared with the class winners in overall miles-per-gallon figures. The final results are a tribute to the high degree of driving skill displayed by the Chevy Teen Team representing the youth of America.

No wonder we're proud of America's young adult drivers. We couldn't have a better reason.
