by the Dramatic Club this quarter, As yet the dates for the production have not been announced.

The plays to be presented are: "The Twelve Pound Look." Overtones," and "Box and Cox." Plans have been made to tour these plays to various high schools in the Mid-

"The Twelve Pound Look" is a whimsical comedy written by J. M. Barrie. It is an English play and with gag lines. The setting is in a typical English living room, in the city of London. The plot revolves around an ambitious man who knows how to handle anything, but can't keep his wives from having that twelve pound look. The play has a cast of four.

"Overtones," is a comedy written by Alice Gerstenberg. It is also an English play and has a cast of four, who are all women. The characters are divided into two catogories, the primitive and cultured selves. These selves never come into actual physical contact but try to sustain the impression of mental conflict. The acting is in the living room of a Pi Omega Pi family in London. The plot revolres around the desired riches of the Pledges Six

Get Serious Young Man

by Maggie Richardson

At this strategic and tense moment in our world, we need not nonchalantly ease around the campus without any serious thoughts whatsoever in these worldly brains of ours. How deeply do we face reality and if ever, how often? This is not a moral lecture . . . If you read the papers, (especially pessimistic old standbys who have been syndicating for years), you know the depressing headlines. They state that our doom as a nation is near. These words will startle, frighten or disgust you-the reaction depending on the individual. A true woman exists independent of outward adornments. It is not wealth, or beauty of person, or connection, or station, or power of mind, or literary attainments, or variety and richness of outward accomplishments, that make the woman. These often adorn womanhood, as the ivy adorns the oak, but they should never be mistaken for the thing they adorn.

The great error of womankind that they take the shadow for the substance, the glitter for the gold, the heraldry and trappings of the world for the priceless essence of womanly worth which exists within the mind. Every young man, as a general rule, has some purpose laid down for the grand object of his life-some plan, for the accomplishment of which all his other actions are made to serve as auxiliaries. MONAHAN MOANS by Betty and Martha Evans

All of Jane Gilliland Giles' schoolmates to see her again this past week. She and Frank were visiting their alma mater before leaving February 26, for Germany where he is to be stationed. She is really looking forward to going overseas. Congratulations are in store for a former resident of our dorm, Mrs. Carl Midgett, the former Gail Clark. They were married January 29.

Entertaining their roommates, Margaret Coleman and Marguerite Cotton, at a surprise birthday party were Martha Harrison and Ruby Darden. The guests were: Shirley Galbreath, Dot Key, Mary Joyce Williamson, Pat Wilson, Bernice Drennen, Joanna Partin, Betty Bennett, Mary Margaret Steagall, Betty Newman, Dena Croft, and Mrs. Sullivan.

Seen returning from the circus trips tired but confident of a job well done were: Carol Williams, Carol Hogan, Laura Ann Harris, Joyce Kidwell, Eleanor Martin, Measy Seat, Cornelia Swain, and Joan Choate.

We missed seeing Catherine Ams and Hazel Terrell this past week as they were sick. We hope you girls are feeling fine now.

The show must have been good the other Sunday night. Found traipsing into the dorm 15 minutes late were - Marie Smith, Katy Duncan, Eleanor Warmbrod, and Ophelia Troxler by James Bagwell A crowd of from 350 to 400 persons were entertained February 2 by such antics that will be hard to forget. The cause of all these "side-splitting" actions were the finals of the intramural wrestling tournament. It was not necessarily the style of wrestling that went on, for some top notch performances were turned in. It was the mannerisms of the participants that were so hilarious.

Gladys Bulla, Betty Clemmons, Carol Williams, Frannie Colvin, and Georgianna West will be among the girls from Monahan attending the R.O.T.C. Ball.

Unusual Tactics Add To Success Of Wrestling Finals

350 Wrestling Fans Witness "Unusual" Intramural Finals

practically all the ball game, and one to LMU. The LMU game was perhaps the worse effort of the Raiders this season. It was one of those let downs after an all out effort had been given. The all-out effort was against East Tennessee State two nights earlier.

Returning to home grounds Middle Tennessee encountered the Tigers of Memphis State and were downed by five points. A win over the Governors of Austin Peay followed and then came the one point loss to Morehead State. This was certainly a tough one to lose leading practically all the way. A field goal in the last eight seconds gave the Eagles the necessary margin to win.

After having such nice thoughts about the spirit that has been displayed it seems a shame that other thoughts are allowed to creep into our minds and almost spoil what has been said. However, the saying is that we must take the bitter along with the sweet. With this I have reference to the fact that the fine MTSC BAND has not been on hand dressed to play for a single game thus far. When we opened the season against Memphis State in Memphis, the blast of the music was somewhat deafening when the Tigers took the floor. A few nights later at David Lipscomb College the purple and gold claded musicians whooped it up mightly when the Bisons tossed in points to down our Raiders. Traveling to Bowling Green, Kentucky the Hilltoppers spurted out front to the tune of music after the Raiders llead the first half. Music was the order of the night when the Raiders traveled to Richmond, Kentucky to do battle with-Eastern Kentucky and also the Morehead field house sounded of rhythm, as Da Swaady forced in 49 points aiding MTSC's downfall.

MTSC Blue Raiders Down Governors With 78-65 Win Tech Tips Raiders 70-68

MTSC bounced back into the win column by defeating the Austin Peav Governors 78 to 65 for a VSAC victory Saturday. This was the Raiders' second win of the season against the Governors from Clarks-

The contest was a slow starting one that saw only five field goals drop through the net in the first 10 minutes of play. However, the tempo picked up in the second 10 and Middle Tennessee walked off the floor at intermission time lead-

Finding the range early in the econd half MTSC built up a 16 point lead. Using most of the bench in the later part of the second half Austin Peay cut the lead to eight points but consecutive baskets by 6776 Louis Richardson put the Raiders back in front by a comfortable margin.

Douglas Shrader took scoring honors for the night with six field goals and eight free throws for a total of 20 points. Tommy Griffith was second with 16 and Render Carden, though sitting out most of the second half, was third with 13. Merritt Scores In Overtime Thriffer Herby Merritt tipped in a basket to down the Middle Tennessee State Blue Raiders 70-63 in an overtime thriller here February 3. After the regulation game had ended 68-68 Tech came back with Kennie Sidwell stalling out two minutes and 50 seconds of the overtime before taking a shot, missing, but gangling Herbie tipped in the bucket, to provide the margin of victory.

Ken Sidwell and Merritt teamed to form a two-man basketball team. The big idea seemed to be Sidwell to shoot the ball and Merritt to get the rebound and add a few points himself. Both boys did outstanding work as they paced the Eagles. Sidwell collected 32 points and Merritt grabbed 25 rebounds as well as collecting 22 points.

Carden who has been hitting with deadly accuracy from the floor saw his first three shots blocked by the long arms of Merritt. This seemed to cause Carden to tighten up and at half time Carden had hit only two field goals. In the second half, especially the latter part, the ace pivot men began to find the range and hit five times. He had a total
