Home-coming activities at Middle Tennessee College begin at 9:45 Saturday, October 21.

Classes will meet as usual on Friday, October 20, date of the Middle Tennessee Teachers Association meeting in Nashville, although some faculty members and students will participate on the program there.

The mid-morning parade will be followed by the luncheon at 11:30 honoring those students of the past who served as ASB or alumni association presidents.

At 1:30 Saturday afternoon pregame activities will feature a parade of the winning floats and decorated car, a welcome by Charles Harrell, ASB president, who will introduce President Quill E. Cope and John Dixon, of Murfreesboro, alumni president, for brief speeches. The Sam Davis Drill team will present a review.

At half-time of the home-coming with the University of Chattanooga the queen and her attendants will be presented. Immediately following the formal dedication of the new Middle Tennessee State College flag and the Alma Mater, written by Douglas Williams, will be observed.

An alumni and faculty tea dance and reception will follow the football game in the Tennessee room and the formal dance for students will be held at 8 o'clock.

The University of Chattanooga, the Raiders home-coming opponent, always offers one of the better medium class college football teams in the nation. This year is no exception. In the series of eleven games, dating back to 1919 the MTSC team has won three, lost eight and tied one with the Moccasins. Most convincing victory in the series revived in 1957 was the 28-0 win in 1959. The Raiders also won 20-6 in 1957.

These four lovelies vie Thursday for the title of Homecoming Queen of MTSC's "Fifty Golden Years." They are Janice Wynn of Nashville, Sylvia Webb of Donelson, Linda Sue Reeves of Murfreesboro, and Faye Burton of Millington. All of these nominees are members of the 1962 graduating class.

Four Seek Queen Title

By Kenneth Love

Four beauties are vying for the title of homecoming queen at Middle Tennessee State College this week. The nominees include Misses Sylvia Webb from Donelson, Janice Wynn of Nashville, Linda Sue Reeves of Murfreesboro, and Faye Burton of Millington.

Nominations for queen were held in Assembly Thursday and the election will be held Thursday October 12. Polls will be in the Terrace Room and the Administration building and open from 8:00 until 4:00 p.m. In the event of a run-off the election will be held Friday.

First nominated was Miss Sylvia Webb, an elementary education major. She has been an ROTC sponsor, homecoming attendant her freshman year, and a candidate for Miss Midlander in 1961.

Miss Janice Wynn is a member of the Drama Club, APO, and SNEA. She is an English major. Linda Sue Reeves is the head cheerleader, secretary of the Associated Student Body, a member of Tau Omicron, Booster Club, and the P.E. Club. She is also an English major.

A home economics major, Faye Burton was last year chosen Miss Midlander and holds membership in Tau Omicron, Kappa Omicron Phi, and SNEA.

The queen chosen will begin her reign Saturday, October 21 at 9:45 with the homecoming parade. She will be introduced at the half-time activities ballgame between the University of Chattanooga and MTSC. The queen will be crowned Saturday night at the dance.

Asians Hike Own Number

Among the 3,224 on campus at Middle Tennessee State College this year, there are seventeen students from Asiatic countries, marking an all-time high in foreign students here.

In addition to these students from Asia and the Near East there are eleven students who graduate from high schools outside the United States -- which further illustrates the growing cosmopolitan character of a student body that for many years was largely provincial.

The students from Asia and the country of their citizenship include Abou Hasein, Tehran, Iran, Freshman; Ahanchi, Hassan Markaz, Tehran, Iran, Sophomore; Al Khudhary, Nazar K., Bagdad, Iraq, senior; Atiyya, Sadiz A. K., Bagdad, Iraq, senior; Falahi, Mohammed Hussein, Tehran, Iran, senior; Hamayouni, Hamoyoun, Tehran, Iran, senior; Husain, Adna Kafil, Bagdad, Iraq, senior.

Under the leadership of Roddy Byrne, drum major, the 82 piece group will feature a formal presentation of the Homecoming Queen, and the newly adopted school flag and Alma Mater. A theme of a Tribute to the Past and a Prelude to the Future will be in use in connection with the Fifty Golden years celebration.

Academics Vs. Alcohol

Without a doubt some of you reading this editorial will not be around for Christmas vacation. Let's not kid ourselves you didn't come here to study; you came because of the pictures of parties or dances as painted by some Joe from your home town who has been asked to leave every college he attended. Besides studying is dull; just think of all the fun you could be having at the Terrace Room.

To those of you that agree with the above; please leave MTSC. You and your kind do untold damage to our college each year. I realize that a lot of the students here are sincere, I am behind them 100 per cent. It is the Rebel-Rousing faction which tends to disgrace their fellow classmates not to mention the reputation MTSC has worked so hard to obtain.

We are approaching Home-Coming. This is a big event in college. It gives each the opportunity to stand behind this school, its policies and faculty to show school spirit.

School spirit is a feeling which comes from within. It's that "creepy" sensation you feel running up and down your back bone when you hear the Alma-Mater. It is a feeling of belonging to an organization of which you are proud to be a part.

School spirit goes a long way in promoting the reputation of your school to potential students, and students of other colleges. You can't buy school spirit in a pint bottle, this is only trouble in disguise.

You as the leaders of our nation tomorrow, think of yourselves today.

When you hear the cry of the campus cowboy remember he won't be here much longer; if you feel compelled to join him, I'm afraid you won't be either.

The ASB Speaks

President Lists Aims Of ASB

By Charlie Harrell

A previous letter to the editor stated that I would appoint an Associated Student Body Reporter to write a bi-monthly column in the Sidelines explaining the activities of this year's student government.

After much thought and consideration, I have decided the person to assume the responsibilities of this position would be Johnny Stoddard. He will be reporting to you after this article.

Now we would like to start the explanation about our student government. First of all, the student government is set up very much like our national government. There are three separate and distinct divisions in the government of the student body, known respectively as the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Departments.

The Executive Department consists of a President, a Vice President, elected by the student body in a manner prescribed by law; a Secretary and a Treasurer, an attorney-general from the senior class, and other administrative officers as shall be provided by law, to be appointed by the President.

The Legislative Department shall consist of a unicameral body called the Congress. The members shall be elected annually by the classes in a manner prescribed by law. The Congress shall meet bi-monthly, and at any other time upon call of the vice-president of the ASB.

The Judicial Department shall consist of a Supreme Court, a dormitory council for both men and women, and such other inferior court officials as shall be created by law. These shall be discussed in a later article.

Now to briefly list the principal purposes of the ASB. They are to unify all students and organizations under one general control; to aid in the internal administration of the school; to give the students actual practice in a democratic form of government.

To develop in the students self-discipline and social responsibility; to promote in all ways the best interests of the school; and to aid in the social, extra-curricular, and disciplinary realms.

One of the purposes of this article is to explain how different events on campus are carried out. The first thing that we shall take up is the election of cheerleaders. There is a bill from Congress regulating this.

Tryouts are open to add students. The cheerleaders selected will serve one year and then have to try out again the next year if they wish to hold the position again. The bill sets up a committee of six

Buzzing Halls House Politics

By "Boo" Lynch

On September 20, 1961, North Monohan held their first house meeting. In order to get off to a good start, the girls elected Jean Bonney, a senior from Nashville as President of their dorm. Jean is an Art major. Another Nashville gal was elected vice-president, Patsy McClelland, a junior and an English major will be Jean's right-hand man. Keeping minutes and money for the year will be Sylvia Bankhart, a senior from Murfreesboro and an English Major. Rose Dodd, a junior business major from Madison was elected song leader.

The guest speaker was MTSC's new Dean of Women, Miss Hampton. Dean Hampton told the girls how happy she was to be a part of the school and reviewed the rules and regulations with the girls. The meeting was closed with the singing of the new Alma Mater lead by Dean Hampton.

College: What Does It Mean?

I'm sure that you have many different and varied answers to this question, most of which are quite fanciful. Pause here for a minute and ponder this question. Now take a long look, deep inside yourself and evaluate your findings. If you are not sincere in your desire to graduate from Middle Tennessee State College among the leaders of your class, you might as well pack your bag and head home. On the other hand, if in your search you discovered that you are sincere, then by all means have the courage of your convictions.

It is understandable that most of you are way from home, out of Mom's and Dad's sight. The question is, are you? For years they have worked, scrimped and saved to put little Johnny or Susie through college. In most cases your parents probably couldn't attend because of the depression and its aftermath. You are here in their place. With this golden opportunity offered by them, it's your turn to go to bat! As you do so remember Mom and Dad—their hopes and dreams are on your shoulders. Are you strong enough to support the burden?

An old adage states "Live and be merry today for tomorrow may never come." I sincerely hope that you as students at Middle Tennessee State College can look into your future and see a golden horizon.

Talent Twirls, Toots and Trills

By Suzanne Lee

We are fortunate in Rutledge Hall this year to have so many talented girls. Nancy Moore from Issac Litton High School in Nashville is one of our majorettes. We also have several band members—Sharon Barrett, Martha Myers, Terry Hale, Kay Atkins, and Linda Branum. Cleaner Bolton and Linda Branum are in the Varsity Choir.

Congratulations are in order for Eleanor Bolton who has been invited to join Tau Omicron.

Guess who Linda Branum had a surprise birthday for on September 19. Her roommate, Kay Atkins, of course.

Yanks, Rebs Crack Books

By D. L. Hammontree

The leaves are falling; sweaters are being donned and one hundred and eighteen students coming from the deep south and as far north as New Jersey are cracking their books in Jones Hall. With the beginning of the second year of housing male students, Jones Hall has lost all traces of femininity.

Mr. John O'Hara, the dorm director, is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma. He is working on his Doctorate degree in speech and resides at Jones Hall with wife, Doris, and daughter, Anne.

Working with Mrs. O'Hara to help and advise Jones students are eight counselors: two seniors (Tom Postins and Johnny Stoder), and three sophomores (Gordon DeFriesse and Jerry Prell), and three sophomores (Jarmen Sanders, Kenneth Mott, and Skip Garrett). Larry Robinson, a graduate student, is Mr. O'Hara's dorm assistant.

Participation in intramural sports is high with the Jones boys this year and the competitive spirit prevails throughout the dorm. New friends and lasting friendships are being made. There is the becoming realization of the vastness and variety of the human being; "the give and take" — "its what ever you want to make of it." Jones Hall, the home of boys, searching for knowledge and truth; to be the protectors of our American way of life.

A reminder to Freshmen dorm students -- Comply with school policy -- leave that automobile at home.

Lyon "Rats" With New Wings

By Dotty Sanders

Alarm clocks are no longer needed at Lyon Hall. We are awakened each week-day morning by the rat-a-tat-tat of the air hammers and drills of the construction crew which is adding wings to our beloved Lyon Hall.

Congratulations go to Carolyn Perry who was recently elected treasurer of the Freshman Class and also to Carol LeCroy who is serving as a Congressman for the Senior Class. Both are Lyonettes.

Hostess Judy Malone was given a surprise birthday party Thursday, September 20, by a large group of girls. They presented her a lovely gift. Refreshments were enjoyed by all present.

Also celebrating birthdays recently were: Bobbie Dean, Sue Moran, Pat Simmons, Anna Rose Burnette, Mary Smith, and Glenna Bow—a belated Happy Birthday!

Two dorm meetings have been held to acquaint the ninety-six girls of Lyon Hall with the rules and regulations which accompany living in a college dorm. Plans are now being made for the Homecoming dorm decorations.

Raider Reserves Bolster Starters

Just how important are the boys on the bench? Middle Tennessee State's 1961 Blue Raiders may give the answer to this. After four straight wins, a review of the Raider roster shows that reserves have played a big role in the Raider success.

Coach Charles Murphy said, "We have some boys on our second team that are equal to some of the boys on the starting team. So far, our starting squad has been able to wear down the opponents, then the substitution has paid off."

One does not have to look very hard to see just what the reference is. For instance, quarterback Terry Bailey, a second teamer, is leading the Raiders in passing with 12 of 18 completed for 294 yards, 4 touchdowns, and a conversion pass. In the latest NCAA statistics, the senior from Hagerstown, Md., was listed as the nation's number six total offensive leader in small college ranks with 324 yards.

It has been the practice during the three Raider games this season to let Jim Nabors start the game if MTSC receives the kick-off, and Larry Whaley start if the Raiders kick-off. Taking either, Nabors leads the team in rushing with 131 yards in 15 attempts for an 8.7 average. In pass receiving, Whaley is the top man on the squad with 6 caught for 69 yards and a touchdown.

Raiders' Late Surge Cops Third OVC Win

Raiders Stop Hilltoppers

By J. Martin

The Blue Raider of MTSC defeated the Western Kentucky Hilltoppers 14-6 before a near capacity crowd in the enlarged, improved Jones Memorial Stadium, but Raider fans for the second time in succession had to wait until late in the game for their team to come from behind the down an experienced Kentucky eleven.

Coach Charles "Bubber" Murphy registered his 105th victory in 15 years at the helm of the Raiders when Freshman guard Ronnie Camp of Marietta, Ga., intercepted a Hilltopper pass that set up the first MTSC touchdown. Bill Hobbs craked the Western enemy line three times and with the ball resting on the 15 yard line speedy Charles Rice, ex-West High School flash, scampered through a gaping hole in the left side of the line and into the end zone. With 1:30 left on the scoreboard clock, sophomore Charles Gupton kicked the extra point which sent the Raiders ahead to stay.

The 1961 edition of the MTSC team looked sluggish in their first home appearance of the season until the Camp interception. The Blue and White threw away two excellent scoring chances in the first half on fumble recoveries by Wayne Winters and Gary Whaley respectively. A stout Western defense thwarted the offensive machine of the Raiders, which had averaged over 400 yards in their first two outings, and held the Big Blue to only 90 yards in that half.

Middle Tennessee State will shoot for their fifth straight win of the season Saturday night when they host Pensacola Navy. Game time is 7:30 p.m., CST.

Pensacola's Goshawks, one of the nation's outstanding service teams, runs a LSU three-platoon system, two offensive-defensive squads, (the Go and Blue teams), and one defensive unit (the Red Dogs).

Coach Ed Harvel's Goshawks have players from twenty-six states on the roster. Forty-seven different schools and teams are represented.

Among the major college football schools with players on the squad are Florida, South Carolina, Texas A&M, New Mexico, Pennsylvania, Boston College, Oklahoma State, Navy, Duke, Georgia Tech, Air Force, North Carolina, Kansas, UCLA, Denver, Wisconsin, Auburn, Iowa State, California, Pittsburg, Bucknell, Washington, West Virginia, and Tulane. A host of small college gridders are also on the team.

Only Tennessean on the squad is Howard Caughron, a 6' 1", 200 lb. end from Drummonds, who was co-captain of UTMB during his senior year.

Bowlers Loft New Season

By Henry Adler

The 1961-62 bowling season underway for MTSC guys and gals October 9 at 4:30 p.m. at Murfreesboro Bowling Lante with eight and a possible ten teams competing.

At the organizational meeting league officers were elected as follows: Fred Sutterlin, president; Pohn Carr, vice-president; Sandra Pitts, Bonnie Stacy and Veda McClendon secretary-treasurer.

A recently completed bowling clinic indicates that the bowlers have made some improvement over last year, however, since this will be a handicap league, average doesn't mean a thing.

As soon as the league gets rolling, team standings and high games and series will be reviewed in the SIDELINES.

It was the same story, third verse—the scores are better, but the nerves get worse!

This was the feelings expressed by most Raider fans as they witnessed MTSC's third straight come behind victory at Richmond Saturday afternoon. In picking up their fourth win in as many starts this season, MTSC used a nine yard pass from quarterback Jerry Pearson to end Frank Halliburton with 1:51 remaining to give the Raiders a 22-15 victory over Eastern Kentucky.

MTSC got behind on the fourth play of the game when Eastern halfback Jimmy Chittum raced 60 yards for the game's first score. The Maroons booted the extra point.

Jerry Pearson passed to George Dykes for the initial Raiders score, :58 seconds before halftime. The try for point was low, and Eastern left at intermission with a 7-6 lead.

Coach Murphy's gridders took the lead in the third period when halfback Charlie Rice went over from the 3-yard line. Jimbo Pearson, who had a 68-yard touchdown jaunt called back because of an off-side penalty, set up the second Raider score with a 50-yard scamper two plays after the heart breaking penalty. Larry Whaley ran the extra point to give MTSC a 14-7 lead.

Eastern bounced back in the final period with a 77 yard march in 7 plays, plus a costly Raider penalty, to put the Kentuckians back in the driver's seat. Tony Lanham hit halfback George Lee in the end zone on the extra point gamble to put the Raiders behind 15-14.

MTSC repeated the same pattern used against Morehead with a 75 yard drive in 7 plays. The payoff pitch to Halliburton came on fourth down. Jim Nabors ran the extra point.

Jimbo Pearson was the top ground gainer for the Raiders with 76 yards in 6 carries. Brother Jerry hit 11 of 14 pass attempts.

George Dykes continued his amazing pass receiving record with 7 caught against Eastern, including the first Raider touchdown. The Oak Ridge sophomore has caught 11 for 316 yards, 3 touchdowns, plus a conversion this season.

Those students attending were Bob Baker, Maryedith Martin, Ben McClure, Betty Morgan, Juanita Beasley, Kenneth Love, Jean Fahl, Patsy Swann, Lynette Daughtrey, Johnnie Reynolds, Judy Rice, James Gentry, Larry McFarlin, Bill Russell, Norma Edwards, Jane Pyle, Sharon Miller, Virginia Warner, Cherry Barnes, and Buford Hudgins.

They were under the leadership of Joe Evans and Joel Underwood, faculty advisors. Guests were Helen and David Underwood.

The guest speaker was Rev. John White, Dean of Students at Martin College in Pulaski. Accompanied by Mrs. White, Rev. White spoke on the subject "The Christian Student and Social Concerns."

Baxter is located nine miles from Cookeville in the hills of Putnam county. Surrounded on each side of the curved road by water and lake front, Baxter Seminary was closed in 1959. Part of the eight buildings were sold as Upperman High School to Putnam county schools.

Dr. Harry Upperman, President Emeritus, spoke to the group on the history of the school. A study group was divided into three sessions, each led by Rev. White. Students were divided into work groups for preparation of meals and clean up.

lately?

You:

Why the gold bars?

Future You:

You're needed... just as your father and grandfather were. It's an obligation that a lot of qualified college men have to meet. If we don't...

You:

All right. But what can I do for the Air Force?

Future You:

The Air Force needs college trained men and women as officers. This is caused by the rapidly advancing technology that goes with hypersonic air and space flight. Your four years of college have equipped you to handle complex jobs.

You:

Say I was interested... how can I get to be an officer?

Future You:

You know about Air Force ROTC and the Air Force Academy. Then there's the navigator training program. You've probably heard about Officer Training School... where the Air Force takes certain college graduates, both men and women, and commissions them after three months of training.

You:

Starting salary is important. What about that?

Future You:

Add it up. Base pay, tax-free allowances, free medical and dental care, retirement provision, perhaps flight pay. You don't have to be an eco major to see it adds up to an attractive package.

You:

I've been thinking about getting my Master's.

Future You:

As an officer you can apply for the Air Force Institute of Technology. At no cost, and while on active duty some officers may even win their Ph.D. degrees.

You:

Tell me more.

That's the job of your local Air Force Recruiter. Or write to Officer Career Information, Dept. SC110, Box 7608, Washington 4, D.C., if you want further information about the navigator training or Officer Training School programs.

Raider Roundup

By Ray Bailey

STATISTICS SHOW RAIDERS BALANCE, VERSATILITY

Dave Whitaker, director of the Ohio Valley Sports Information Center, has timely compared the Blue Raiders of '61 to the present New York Yankee baseballers in that the Yankees were favored to down the Cincinnati Reds in the World Series with the formulae of good hitting, fielding, pitching and an obviously strong bench.

The same formulae is paving the way to a predicted OVC crown for the Raiders with a 3-0 conference record and 4-0 record overall.

As for good hitting, the Raiders led the total offense parade with an average of 375.7 yards per game.

In the pitching department, MTSC has passed 647 yards, almost double the 316 yards by third place Morehead.

The bench strength is perhaps the brightest in years for the Raiders—every man on the varsity with one exception has played in at least one of three games. The first two units have been used extensively along with several numbers of the third units and specialists. Nine Raiders have entered the scoring picture and twelve backs have established rushing averages.

The Raiders in leading the conference by wins, the only team undefeated in all games and also leads the loop in four of six teams statistical departments.

Phil Grammer's four touchdowns leads all OVC scoring, but Morehead's Jim Hastings is close behind with one touchdown, two field goals, and four extra points. Grammer and Jim Nabors place in the top ten for yards rushing with 157 and 157 yards respectively.

OVC "TOUGHEST" EVER

The Ohio Valley Conference is so vastly improved from 1960 that coaches, players and no doubt sports writers galore are shaken with the results of the conference games each week-end.

The Blue Raiders behind the strong arm of Terry Bailey is the only team that even resembles the pre-season predictions—living up to expectations they rank as the No. 1 team.

In the first three games numerous stars appeared, especially in the 40-7 drubbing of Austin Peay State. Bailey has definitely been the sparkplug through his engineering and passing efforts. George Dykes and Larry Whaley have been his top receivers. Phil Grammer, Jim Nabors, Jimbo Pearson and Charley Rice have been outstanding in the backfield.

The stalwarts of the line have been led by Captain Don Faulk, Joe Drennan, Gerald Hayes, and Gary Whaley have drawn praise for outstanding work although the work of all linemen has been over par. Could this be another bowl bound team? Quite possible.

Murray and Morehead were picked to rank as the No. 2 and 3 teams of the league. Morehead with losses to the Raiders and Tennessee Tech has been virtually eliminated. Murray still has a possibility but its loss to Eastern Kentucky definitely hurt the team and its chances.

Tennessee Tech and Eastern are now rated as the "dark-horses" of the league. Tech, after two losses, is on the comeback trail, and Eastern has gained momentum with its 14-13 squeaker over Murray. Again the traditional "Turkey Day" battle may be the deciding factor.

OVC EXTRAS

The longest and only punt return for a touchdown in the OVC's 1961 season was accomplished by Jimmy Chittum of Eastern Kentucky in his teams victory over Murray. The run was for 86 yards.

Jim Hastings of Morehead leads the field goal department, which seems to become more prominent each year, with two.

The man to watch in coming OVC games—Tech's versatile Jim Ragland, a natural athlete and potential Little All-American.

Reserves have 3 to 4 opponent pass interceptions this season, and have scored 43 of 73 Raider points during the year.

In two of three games this season, it has been the men on the bench that got the Raiders going. In the victory over Morehead, it was Bailey and end George Dykes that found the combination to pull a 19-14 victory over the Eagles in the final 24 seconds.

Against Western, half back Charles Rice broke the Raider Scoring ice in the third period when he came off the bench to run the ball one time for 15 yards and a Raider score. This tied the game at 6-6, with MTSC going on for a 14-6 victory.

Trophies will be presented to the team winner of team sports, and at the end of the year, the team with the highest number of points, based on a point system, will receive a nice trophy.

Wilson Studies Europe's Schools

By Elaine Haley

William E. Wilson, Assistant Professor of the Education Department at Middle Tennessee State College, made a study of the conditions of the school systems throughout Europe during August and the early part of September.

Along with thirty-six teachers from all parts of the United States including the University of Hawaii, Mr. Wilson visited schools from kindergarten through university level in Denmark, West Germany, Holland, and Belgium. The group was sponsored by the Comparative Education Society and Phi Delta Kappa, a professional education fraternity.

Mr. Wilson observed that in the organizations of schools great changes have been made in the lower, middle, and upper grades. Since the age of compulsory education has been raised, the population is much more than it has been in the past. More types of education are being offered to fit the need of every child.

By taking this trip abroad Mr. Wilson feels that he has achieved a better understanding of the European education and its strong points as well as its weaknesses.

In addition to visiting schools of the four countries, Mr. Wilson had a little time for sight-seeing. He used this time to learn the situation in Berlin. Mr. Wilson, along with four other teachers, was able to get into East Berlin for a few hours to see the great contrast between East and West Berlin.

According to Mr. Wilson, the streets of West Berlin were full of well-dressed people while East Berlin's few people on the streets were shabbily dressed, and they looked as if they were dejected in that there were no smiles on their faces.

The places that Mr. Wilson could see were limited because of the walls separating East and West Berlin; however, he was able to see machinery, armed guards, tanks, and the Russian soldiers who were in view throughout the few hours he was in the Soviet sector.

Mr. Wilson noted that Vice-president Lyndon Johnson was there along with 1500 U.S. troops. These troops were welcomed tearfully by the West Berliners.

The difference between East and West Berlin was described by Mr. Wilson as two different cultures having as much contrast as daylight and darkness.

Green Frosh Make Trip Downtown

By Shirley Ann Miller

Approximately 1,300 students became full-fledged "green" freshmen after a fun-filled week of activities which ended in a triumphant Raider victory over Western Kentucky on Saturday night.

At the beginning of last week, freshmen were advised to wear their "T" caps, lest an upper-classman seize and penalize them.

On Tuesday night many excited students gathered in the Tennessee Room for an evening of dancing, chatting, and getting acquainted with upper-classmen.

Cunningham Studies Farm Labor Market

Firman Cunningham, assistant professor of economics at MTSC, has completed a four-week program with the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Employment Security, in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Cunningham was one of a limited number of "working university consultants" who were invited by Robert Goodwin, head of the Bureau, to work for one month on some phase of the labor problem.

Mr. Cunningham's area of concentration was the farm labor market, an area in which he is doing his doctoral dissertation. For the past two years he has been studying the labor market, particularly as it affects the itinerant cotton farmer, in the Memphis area.

Kirksey Has Editorial In Magazine

"Why Principals Like Beta" is the title of the guest editorial by Dr. Howard Kirksey, Dean of Faculty at Middle Tennessee State College appearing in the September issue of the Beta Administrator.

Dr. Kirksey suggests in his article that the National Beta Club offers high school students an opportunity to satisfy fundamental desires of youth. These he lists as (1) need for recognition of achievement, (2) need for a sense of belonging, (3) need for self-expression and (4) need to share in decisions affecting themselves.

Dr. Kirksey is described in an editors note as ranking "among the top educational statesmen of his state and the nation."

With homecoming right around the corner we thought that we should tell you how the homecoming queen is elected. This is also set up by a bill from Congress.

Senior girls with at least 90 semester hours are eligible for nomination. Nominations are from the floor at an all student assembly. Voting shall be by secret ballot one week following the nominations. The winner of this vote shall be the queen.

The Fun Night situation has been straightened out and the new resolution on this will be posted in the near future.

Each edition you will find bits of information concerning our government, its set up and its principles. Remember this is your government. Consider it as that and use it as that. Through much study of other school governments and visits to other schools, I feel that ours is one of the best organized of all student governments. It can be an even greater school government with your support.

Green Frosh - - -

The auditorium was filled to capacity on Thursday morning as the Associated Student Body officers were officially installed, and the football team introduced.

A constant buzz was heard in the cafeteria on Friday as freshmen rushed to and fro carrying trays for their "big brothers and sisters."

A few brave freshmen assembled at the Student Union Building late Friday afternoon for the traditional parade. Girls were attired in Bermuda shorts (turned inside out), a different kind of shoe and sock on each foot, a blouse on backwards, and their hair tied in rags. Carrying a noise maker, and wearing a sign which read, "I'm a green freshman," this group left the MTSC campus and proceeded up East Main Street to the square. Here the parade was halted for a pep rally, after which the group returned to their respective places on campus.

To the freshmen it was "their" week. The activities were planned with them in mind.

Compared to the 1960 fall semester the enrollment figures this year show a marked increase all down the line. The sophomore class shows the largest percentage of increase, from 674 a year ago to 832 this year. However, more than a twenty-five percent increase is also shown for juniors and seniors. In 1960 the senior class enrollment was 314 as compared to 405 this year and the juniors 314 in 1960 as compared with 425 this year.
