Academic, Activities, ROTC Awards Presented In Final Assembly May 12

Recognition of academic achievement at MTSC marked the program Thursday, May 12, in the final assembly for 1960. Dr. J. A. Barksdale, dean at Tennessee Polytechnic Institute, delivered the principal address.

Dean N. C. Beasley, Dean Howard Kirksey and Dean Belt Keathley also appeared on the program; and Dr. Quill E. Cope, president of the college, presented the Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities members with certificates of achievement.

Academic and activities awards were as follows: Dearman accounting award, Harold Womack, Woodbury; United Business Education Association award, Judy Holder, Winchester; agriculture award, Maurice L. Driver, Manchester; home economics award, Nancy Bagwell, Murfreesboro; Harp Singers, John McDonald, LaFayette, and Walter Anderson, Nashville; industrial arts, Horace McKenzie, Nashville; dramatic awards, Beverly Sadler, Nashville, and Sara Jane Croft, Murfreesboro; typing, Sharon Brooks, Columbia.

Sixteen graduate students and forty-eight undergraduate students were recognized as "honor students." One of these, Donald Lynch Hill, a senior from Winchester, has a straight "A" average for four years. The only undergraduate who has a straight A average since entering college is Kay Frances, freshman from Lebanon. Highest junior honor student is Helen Maxine Smith of Shelbyville with a 3.81 average. Sophomore leader is Barry Kent Robinson of Murfreesboro with a 3.77 average.

There are five graduate students with an "A" average. They are Mary Sharpnack Chapman, St. Andrews; Marion Gladys Cunningham, Tullahoma; James Boyce Harbin, Murfreesboro; Carrol Hart Smith, McMinnville, and Mary Lou Crouse Van Sickle, Murfreesboro.

Art Exhibit Is Now Open

Opening on May 15th in the MTSC Gallery was the Third Annual Student Art Exhibit, which consists of all student work done this year. Work of all classes, both art majors and prospective elementary teachers are on exhibit.

Also currently showing in the gallery in the Fine Arts Building is the first one-man show of a senior student. Howard Hull, who came to MTSC from Welch, West Virginia, by the way of the armed services, shows a perseverance for work and a direct speaking voice through the use of color and form. Hull hahs this to say about himself and why he paints:

"To me it is inconceivable that so many people can be seemingly unaware of the effects of 'what they see.' Each color and each form in nature affects us differently. On bright sunny days we are infused with the iridescence of our surroundings, and on cloudy days our thoughts tend to be somewhat askew and directed toward blackness."

Mr. Hull sees these changes and puts them down, not in the representative approach, but with feeling and thought. His work shows a directness of thought and the need to express these thoughts in paint. Further he says, "I'll continue to paint and to teach so that I may share with others what has been given to me."

Both the student art show and Mr. Hull's can be one of great interest to a growing, creative community. All residents of Murfreesboro. (Continued on Page 3)

Gabbard Awarded FSU Fellowship

Joseph L. Gabbard, native of Knoxville and former resident of Panama City, Florida, is among the honor graduates at MTSC who has been awarded a fellowship for graduate study at the Florida State University next year.

Gabbard was graduated from the Chipola Junior College of Marianna, Florida, and has been at MTSC for the past two years, where he has majored in political science and physical education.

His wife is the former Sharon Gifford of Atlanta. The Gabbards make their home at 201 East McKnight Drive. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gabbard, live in Wichita, Kansas.

Harrell Elected Prexy Of Veterans Club, 1960

New officers of the Veterans Club at MTSC include Charlie Harrell, Woodbury, president; Bill Todd, Tullahoma, vice-president; Joe Helton, Huntsville, Alabama, secretary; Henry McBride, Manchester, treasurer; Taylor Harrison, sergeant-at-arms, and Walt Chatman, sponsor.

Curriculum Sees Additions

Two major additions to the curriculum were announced last week in vocational home economics and a graduate major in the social science field have been approved by the Tennessee State Board of Vocational Education and the Tennessee State Board of Education. Both programs become effective immediately, according to the announcement of President Quill E. Cope.

Dr. Cope also stated that a plan has been approved by which former graduates with majors in general home economics may meet the requirements for the Smith-Hughes certificate.

The major in social science brings the total graduate majors now offered at Middle Tennessee State to six. Other majors are chemistry, biology, natural science, school administration and supervision, and curriculum and instruction.

The new major for which the Master of Arts degree will be awarded is designed to meet the needs of elementary and high school teachers in Tennessee schools. All candidates for the Master of Arts degree are required to be certified to teach in the public schools of Tennessee. Graduate students are not required to take professional education courses beyond the minimum requirement for certification.

change of time and place. The traditional 11 o'clock hour will be moved up to 4:30 Sunday afternoon, May 22, at which time Dr. James L. Sullivan of the Baptist Sunday School Board will speak.

Immediately after the baccalaureate sermon the faculty will join seniors and members to their families for the graduating "supper on the lawn."

Advance reservations for the alumni-senior dinner indicate the largest number attending in the history of the school. An especially good program has been planned, according to alumni secretary Bob Abernathy. Two retiring members of the faculty, Miss Mary Hall and Mrs. Aultman Sanders, will be recognized. Three outstanding MTSC alumni, who will be honored in the yearbook this year, will be given special recognition by Hiram Holtzford, president of the Alumni.

J. M. Smith, former president of the Memphis State University who is now with the United States Office of Education, will be the commencement speaker May 27. The "June section" of the MTSC graduate class has 248 candidates for the Bachelor degree and 24 aspirants for the blue and white hood of the Master of Arts. A second section of the class will graduate August 19.

Officers of the senior class this year are Bill Boyers, president; Eddie Perkins, vice-president; Sandra Cowart, secretary, and Sue Steagall, treasurer.

EDITORIAL - - - More Recognition -

"That time" of year has rolled around again—the end of the school year, which might better be called a period for student recognition. Recently outstanding students have been recognized in every phase of college life—athletics, scholarship, activities and so on.

One group of students, unmentioned until now, deserves a big vote of thanks from the "Sidelines" staff. That group is composed of those who have voiced their opinions in the "Letters to the Editor" column. Thanks to their faithful support of this column, the "Sidelines" received a rating of superior for its editorial columns in the judging by Associated Collegiate Press this year. Before, a rating of very good was the usual for this paper, and a rating of excellent was very rare indeed. You, the students who have voiced your opinion through this column, have made possible what is, to the best of this writer's knowledge, the first superior rating to go to the "Sidelines" in the editorial department.

As a whole, the paper was rated first class again this time, the judging covering only the first semester's papers with announcement being made last week. This is the third consecutive semester that the paper has received the first class. Of the twenty-five previous times the paper had been judged, only three first class ratings were received, the last of these being nine years ago. No higher rating has ever been received by MTSC.

In commenting on the items in the editorial column, Judge Duane Andrews said, "They're short and forceful." He felt that they are a significant voice for students, dealing with real campus problems as well as current social, economic, political and military problems as they affect students; and that they are well organized around a central theme, avoiding the overuse of trite subjects.

A significant voice for the students is exactly what the "Letters to the Editor" column is designed to be—a chance for you to say what you want to say to whom you want to say it. We of the staff hope that the column has succeeded in this purpose, and that the paper as a whole has been what you have wanted it to be. If at any time you have suggestions to make concerning the paper as a whole, they will receive serious consideration.

And whenever you have comments, criticisms or suggestions to make concerning any phase of campus life, remember that the "Letters to the Editor" column is your special column in your own paper. Make use of that column—speak up!

Martin Enlivens Dorm Meeting

By Kay Parker

All the girls at Jones Hall were very proud to have Dr. "Skinny" Martin visit us during our last dorm meeting. He spoke to us on the different ways in which we might use our college education. He gave an illustration of six young men who majored in art in college and then went into completely different fields. As usual, his talk was very enlightening, with that added humor which makes any of Dr. Martin's presentations bright and enjoyable.

One of our girls, Sue Lovier, visited the University of Tennessee this past weekend. While there she attended the CARNICUS, a Cavalcade of Comics presented by the different sororities

Rutledge Ramblings

Many "Daughters" Honor Mrs. Bass

By Holland Bratton

Mother's Day brought a nice surprise for Mrs. Bass. Her girls sent her a lovely orchid to wear on the day set aside for showing gratitude and appreciation of mothers throughout the nation. The flower was merely a token of the feeling of the girls for a person who has been a wonderful mother-away-from-home.

Many of the girls were at home for Mother's Day. Others were visitors in the homes of friends. Nancy Smith was the guest of Annette Thomason and her family in Dalton, Georgia.

One of the girls has been at home too long as far as this dormitory is concerned. Jeanne Pardue, due to illness, will be unable to return to MTSC for the remainder of the term.

The recent production of the Drama Club was quite a success. Several girls from Rutledge helped in making the show a hit. Beverly Sadler worked lighting, Holland Bratton was in charge of the box office, Virginia Woodall worked with costuming and Betty Pemberton and Pat Tripp served as ushers.

Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts.

—(Psalm 139:23)

When we pray to God to search our hearts, we humbly place ourselves in His hands, knowing and admitting our weakness, seeking His love and guidance and strength—seeking to know and obey His law and His will. It is only through our humility and prayer that God, ever present and willing, can enter our souls.

It Happened On Campus

By Kenneth Love

Everyone is talking about it—all are supporting it. What? Why, it's the Booster Club. Yes, the Middle Tennessee State College Booster Club is under way. And they want your support, too. A meeting was held last Wednesday afternoon and plans were officially under way for the coming year. New officers elected are Charlie Harrell, president; Betty Caudill, vice-president; Pat Beasley, secretary; Bill Terry, treasurer, and Bill Woods, sergeant-at-arms.

I really believe that if everyone will support Charlie, he can do a great job. That is true in any case—without help, one cannot carry the load alone. So we are first asking, then begging, your support to help this new club be the largest club on campus.

Billy Woods and Billy Sam Bennett will head the membership drive for next year. Plans have already gone into process about the goals for next year, beginning with the first football game. Remember that game is before school starts.

Many suggestions, including a special cheering section at games for MEMBERS ONLY, have been made. There have been so many thoughts of next year that a suggestion box is needed, probably two boxes.

This is more than an ordinary pep club, it's the Booster Club. It's official and the constitution has been made. There are many people who deserve credit for organizing the club, but those names could not be put in one column, it would just reach an entire page. Membership cost only fifty cents, but look what you get for it. The drive will be on soon, so you be the first to join.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR - - - The ASB President Speaks -

To the Student Body:

Being unable to contact each member of the student body personally, I wish to use this means of expressing my gratitude for being elected to the office of president of the A.S.B. for the school year of 1960-61.

I am looking forward to next year and the opportunity of working with you to make our school a better and more enjoyable institution. If at any time I can be of service to you, please call on me.

Gratefully yours,
Stanley Rogers

Pro Saturday Classes -

To The Editor:

I would like to know why MTSC does not have Saturday classes. I think it would be the greatest thing that ever happened here. MTSC will always be a suitcase college until we get Saturday classes. I think it would improve the school 100% if we had such classes. I for one would like to start them next fall.

Yours truly,
Tim Wartrove

Editor's Comment -

Mr. Wartrove is referring to a regular six-day week with classes on Monday-Wednesday-Friday and on Tuesday-Thursday-Saturday rather than the Saturday classes we now have which meet only once a week and are attended by few full-time students.

FROM OTHER EDITORS - - Political Payola -

(ACP) — Iowa State tried a new gimmick this spring to bring out the vote in an all-university election.

From the "Iowa State Daily" came word that nebbishes would be given to all voters. The nebbishes were exchangeable for a nickel coke in the student union between 8 and 10 p.m. on election night.

Seasonal Attack -

(ACP)—From Wayne University's "Daily Collegian" comes the tale of at least one student stricken by spring fever.

A touch of warm weather recently caused one Wayne Stater to don Tarzan garb and lurk in the vicinity of the student center, shouting for his "Jane." Coeds fled in terror as "the beast" brandished his club and sounded his mating call.

Police were not impressed. The student was taken to the 13th Precinct for observation.

He was released when some fraternity brothers assured police that has seasonal attack comes on only when the temperature goes above 30 degrees. As the evening temperature dropped, the Wayne State Tarzan returned to normal.

Cumberbund, Anyone? -

(ACP)—From the University of Texas "Daily Texan" comes report of a revolution in Missouri.

Students at Missouri's Drury College rebelled against a "dress-up" edict for evening meals at the college dining hall.

Fraternities and sororities at Southwest Missouri State aided the cause by setting up a soup line for Drury students denied admission to the dining hall for lack of coats and ties, hose and heels.

Dressing for dinner, commented Drury's president, is "part of our educational plan to teach something about the social amenities."

Circle K Club Holds Picnic, Tells Leaders

By Kenneth Love

The Circle K Club met last Tuesday at 4:00 at the Student Union building for their annual picnic. Destination was Cedar Forrest near Lebanon. Approximately 30 members and their guests participated in a "hay ride" in trucks to the state park, where members grilled hamburgers. Following the meal, the facilities of the lodge were utilized for entertainment. Dr. Robert Martin accompanied the group.

The Circle K Club helped in the Kiwanis Bowl football game and other activities. The new officers of the club for next year are Jim Dillon, president; Bill Terry, vice-president; Sam Shields, secretary; Bob Waldrup, treasurer, and Billy Sam Bennett, sergeant-at-arms. The Board consists of Joe Brandon, Bill Woods, Charlie Harrell and Dave Wilson. The new officers were installed last Monday night at a banquet held in the Student Union building.

Pi Gamma Inducts Barron, Gabbard

Pi Gamma Mu, national social science fraternity, last week initiated two additional members, enjoyed the annual dinner party and heard Dr. J. Isaac Copeland outline the three major changes in civilization within the past two decades.

Immediately preceding the banquet at the Presbyterian Church community room, Betty Barron and Joseph L. Gabbard, Sr., were initiated. The initiation team was composed of the president of the MTSC chapter, Barbara Rogers, assisted by Marie Francis, Carolyn Cummings, Alice Boyd and William T. Windham.

Earlier in the spring quarter Mrs. Jessie Spenser, Margie Pitts, Page Chamberlain, Jack Cassidy, John Ramson Clark, William Nourse and William Jay Hickey, Jr., had been inducted, along with Alice and Carolyn.

Betty finished her work in the fall semester and is now teaching in Lewisburg. She is a graduate of Cornersville high school and is one of the sixteen honor graduates of this year's senior class.

Gabbard will graduate in May and has a fellowship at Florida State College next year. He entered MTSC on a GED diploma from Florida. Currently he and his wife reside in Murfreesboro.

Officers elected by Pi Gamma Mu for next year include Bill Nourse, president; Jay Hickey, vice-president; Carolyn Cummings, secretary; Ramson Clark, treasurer, and James Durham, historian. The retiring officers include Barbara Rogers, Donald Hill, Mrs. Judy Smith and Richard Palmer.

Home Economic Majors Hold Meeting On Campus

"Home economics as a career" was the subject of a meeting of some 96 senior high school home economics majors who were the invited guests of Middle Tennessee State College last week.

Mrs. Carolyn Abernathy, a home economics major from Nashville who is now doing her practice teaching at Hillsboro high school, Miss Margaret Putman, head of the MTSC home economics department, and Dr. H. C. Brearley, professor of sociology at MTSC, spoke on "The Three Ms—or A Sociologist Views Home Economics."

The welcome was by Dr. Homer Pittard, and Dr. Bob Womack gave the musical numbers. MTSC students on the program included Fay Burton, Nancy Bagwell, Elaine Mingle and Linda Lane. Mrs. Lucile Estes was in charge of arrangements.

Congratulations, 5-Pointers!

A very special congratulation to those who have a 4.00 average going into final exams. And would you know—one of them is a freshman. Kay Frances Parker, resident of Jones and week-end resident of Lebanon, Tennessee, is the lone freshman with straight A's.

Another outstanding individual is Donald Lynch Hill of Winchester, a senior. Just think—all A's for four years. Better than that, there are give graduate students with the perfect mark. Don't you wish you were a BRAIN, too? We salute you, honor students. Croft, retiring president of the Buchanan Players.

Watertown is the new high official to run the club. David was also one of the stars of the last performance given by the players.

Another graduating senior who will be missed, and deserves a lot of credit is Beverly Sadler. Never seen on stage, but always within the voice range of actors on stage, Beverly has worked in make-up, props and scenery design. She won the drama production award Thursday.

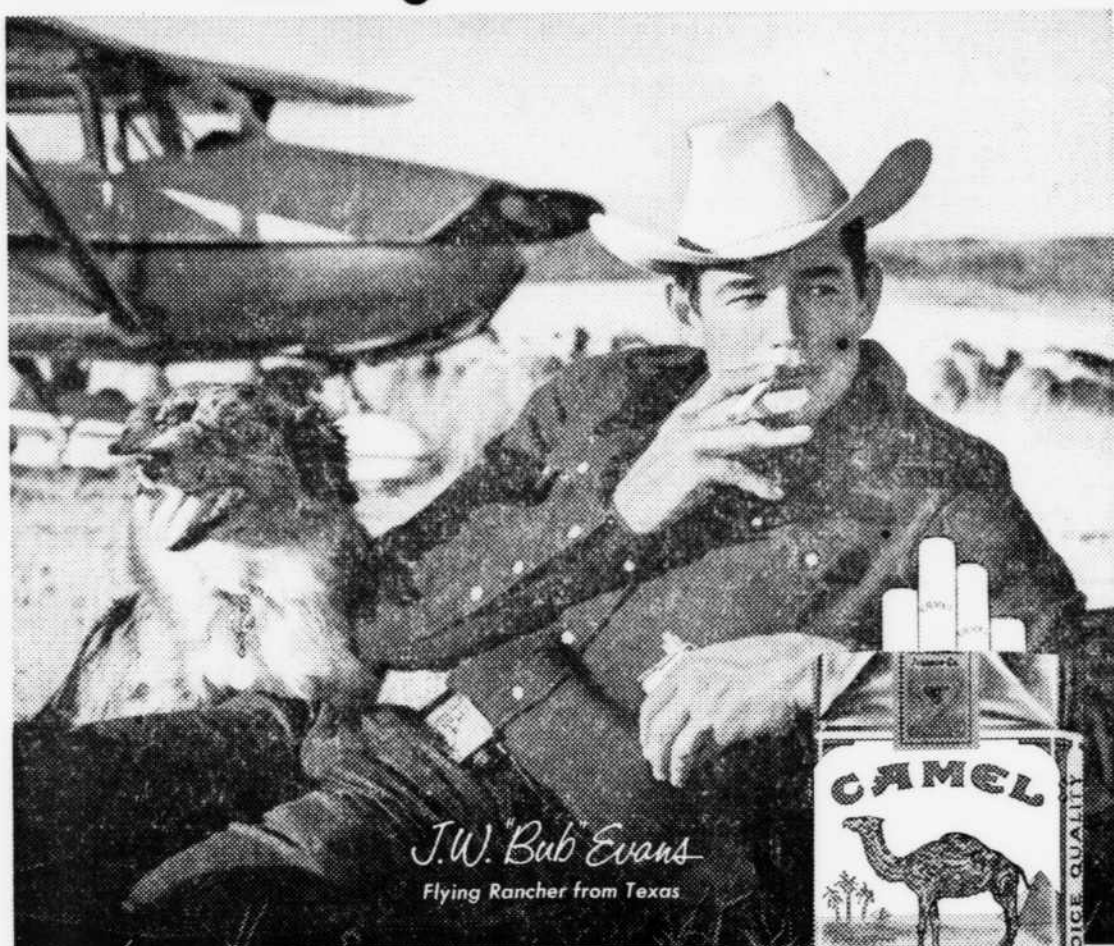

Bruce Hancock is another senior who will not return next year.

Track Team Places Second In TIAC Meet

While Venetian Way was outrunning Belly Ache on the wet turf at Churchill Downs, the MTSC thinclads were shivering on the hill at TPI to place second in the annual TIAC track meet without winning a first place.

Memphis won the meet with 65 points. MTSC had 46; TFI 34; Southwestern 17; Union 17; APSO 16; Sewanee 12.

Too much Bick Vollmer from Memphis and too much Bob Garrison from Bryan University beat the Raiders two principal threats, Ray Purvis in the 100 and 220 and Porter Maxwell in the mile and two mile, in spite of the fact that the MTSC boys ran the best time in their respective histories.

Spectator interest reached its peak in the two mile run when Bob Carrigan and Porter Maxwell matched stride for stride over the grueling two mile course. Maxwell finished only a half stride behind the winner to establish a new school record of 10.03.5, which cut 13 seconds off his own record established earlier this year.

Gray Bailey broke the school record in the javelin, 160.9½.

The relay team, composed of Dick Swain, Frank Halliburton, Ronnie Haley and John Hedge, also established a new school record with a time of 3.32.8.

Dick Swain led the MTSC team in points with 8½; Ray Purvis was second with 8; Porter Maxwell third with 7 and Frank Halliburton fourth with 5½. Others placing were Nayden 4; Willingham 3½; Watson 3; Shutters 2; Bailey 1; Batswell 1; Herron 1; Haley ½, and Hedge ½.

The balance of Coach Joe Black Hayes' team is vividly shown when it is seen that only in the 440 yard run and the discus did the Raiders fail to place.

Three school records for individuals fell in the meet. Porter Maxwell ran the mile in 4:30.7. Purvis broke the 100 yard dash record with a 9:9 effort officially after a Friday tail wind effort of 9.6 in the trial heats. Swain tied Ed Carson's record in high hurdles 15.2. Halliburton broke James Frost's record of 2:03.4 for the half mile.

Purvis finished second in the 100, fourth in the 220, the winning time being 9.7. Maxwell finished second in two mile but trailed Carrigan (Bryan) and Chamberlain (Southwestern) in the mile event. Herring was fifth in the 100.

Dick Swain placed second in the 120 high hurdles behind Bryant of Union University leading with a time of 15.1. Scanlon of MSU won the 220 low hurdles with Swain picking up two points in fourth place.

Purvis placed fourth in the broad jump, which was also won by the versatile Vollmer. Troy Haydon of MTSC was in a three-way tie with Palmer (TPI) and Phillips (APSC) for first place in the high jump with Halliburton in a tie with Whited (TFI) for fourth. In the pole vault Willingham of MTSC was tied with Fuller of Tech for second place with Swain fourth. Batswell was fifth in the high jump.

Watson and Shutters placed third and fourth in the shot put, and Bailey placed fifth in the javelin, won by Busbee of Southwestern with a heave of 185 feet 10 1/4 inches.

The Raider relay team was fourth with Swain, Halliburton, Haley, and Hedge running.

Year's Sports Roundup —

Raider 11 Top Sports Parade

By Ray Bailey

The mighty Blue Raider football team of Middle Tennessee State topped all sports during the 1959-60 season.

The Raiders tormented all OVC opposition with their undaunted two platoon system. The number one unit was led by halfbacks Ray (Ghost) Purvis, captain David (Bucky) Pitts, fullback Gene Windham, and quarterback Whit Watson. This combination, along with the number two unit's quarterback Terry Bailey, fullback Larry Puryear, and halfbacks John Moore and Ray Bell, provided a terrific ground attack and equal aerial offensive.

The front line was, without a doubt, the top defensive line in the OVC. Many OVC teams were held scoreless, while gaping holes were opened for the talented backs on the offensive side of the picture.

Stalwarts Joe Windham, Charlie Lowe, Wayne Bailey, Frank Thomas, Ralph Adams, Dean Fisher, and captain Brady Luckett composed the front line of the starting unit.

Likewise talented Nick Lynch, Jerry Stapleton, James (Moose) McCarrall, Hester Gibbs, George Noe, Julian King, Sam Ezell, Billy Joe Evans and Don Faulk provided an ever-tough second unit.

The Raider team downed Austin Peay 36-0, Jacksonville State 21-20, Western Kentucky 37-2, Eastern Kentucky 14-6, Chattanooga, probably the best game the Raiders played all season, 28-0, Moorehead 27-0, Florence State 35-26, Murray 55-0, and East Tennessee 30-6. They tied TPI 21-21 to put them into a tie for the OVC championship.

The Raiders capped the highly successful season with a 21-12 decision over the Blue Hose of Presbyterian College in the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Florida.

The outlook for the 1960 Raider club is most promising but the gaping holes in the backfield must be filled. Jim Nabors, Hilary Carr, and freshman fullback Gene Watson looked to be promising successes during the spring practice.

Basketball

The Middle Tennessee State basketball team had only a mediocre season but at times played a top-notch brand of basketball. Bob Burden led the Raiders offensive punch, breaking the school record with 44 points against David Lipscomb. Ralph Bryant and Ray Hammers joined Burden in the rebounding department. Guard Paul Holland was the defensive specialist. Captain Don Smith was a capable all-around performer.

The outlook for the 1960-61 season is very promising. Several enthusiastic freshmen performers and the veteran regulars, plus a more enthusiastic student backing, should provide an OVC championship team.

Track

The Blue Raider track team is having one of its best seasons in several years. Under the direction of Coach Joe Black Hayes, the thinclads have a 6-1 record. The only loss was to powerful Murray in a thrilling meet. All wins have been by a decisive margin. The Raiders placed second in the Chattanooga Relays, the TIAC, and a triangular meet with Vanderbilt and David Lipscomb.

Nine of the fifteen school records have been broken this spring.

Porter Maxwell has broken his own mile and two mile record on several occasions. His best times (Continued on Page 6)

Championship Taken By Raiders Golf Team In TIAC Tournament

Middle Tennessee won the team championship in a breeze at the Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic conference golf tourney this past weekend.

The Raiders had a combined score of 600.

144—John Ferguson, Tennessee Tech.

146—Doug Hall, Middle Tennessee.

149—Gibby Gilbert, Chattanooga; Darrell Broome, Middle Tennessee.

151—Gary Head, Middle Tennessee.

153—Joel Vinson, Middle Tennessee; Farrel Walters, Middle Tennessee.

155—Dan Stone, Union.

160—Stewart Thames, Southwestern.

Five Girls Earn Rifle Team Letters, Eight Take Medals

Carolyn Cox, Kathy Brock, Martha Lynch, Sandra Pittard and Marjorie Wilson, top five firers in the Raiderettes' paper match against North Georgia College in April, earned Women's Rifle Team letters this year.

North Georgia won the match by a score of 1481 to 1445.

Eight girls earned medals, Carolyn Cox being the only recipient of an expert medal, with 495 points out of a possible 500. Kathy Brock, Sandra Pittard, Martha Lynch, Marjorie Wilson and Bonnie Stacey won sharpshooters medals, while Betty Alexander and Veda Ann McCandon took marksmen medals.

Carolyn Cox was given the championship medal offered by the National Rifle Association. The rifle team members voted that the top firer of the match with North Georgia College should receive this award.

There will be approximately ten vacancies left for positions on the team next year. Try-outs will be held in the fall. There will be a notice posted as to the date and time.

Nowadays the man who thinks for himself probably quit smoking altogether.

Raider Eleven - - -

at present are 4:03.7 and 10:03.5. Ray Purvis set a new record with a 9.8 in the hundred yard sprint. Frank Halliburton, talented freshman, set a new half-mile mark with a 2:03.4 timing.

A new mile relay mark of 3:32.8 was set by John Hedge, Dick Swain, Halliburton, and Ron Haley.

Don Willingham holds the new pole vault mark with 11 feet, 11 inches. Gray Bailey the javelin, 160 feet 9½ inches, and Hene Watson the shot put 43 feet 10½ inches.

The team is currently tied with Morehead for first place in the OVC race.

Golf

The Raider golf team at 6-0 is presently leading in the OVC race with such fine players as Dane Dixon, Joel Vinson, Farrel Walters and Doug Hill.

The Raiders are expected to take the OVC championship at East Tennessee this weekend.

Baseball

The Raider baseball club, under the direction of capable Coach Marvin "Buck" Rolman, are way off stride from last season's team that way in a three way tie for the OVC championship.

At present the Raiders have a 5-8 overall record and a 1-1 in the OVC. There is still a slight chance of at least a tie for an OVC championship.

Ray Purvis is leading all OVC players in home runs (6), total bases (5), and runs batted in (16). He is batting a .321 pace. John Stanford is hitting at a .333 clip.

The reason for the downfall of the Raiders club may be attributed to the lack of hitting among other players and an overworked fireballer, Stanford.

Mori Hill and Don Tassey were hitting a hot .366 and .440 percentage at the same time last season, but have not found the .300 range this year.

Tennis

Coach E. O. Hawkins' Blue Raider netters post a 3-5 OVC record. Nevertheless, fine play has been shown by Worthy Babb, Andre Duhaime, Hester Gibbs, Bonnie Slatton, Fred Bonney and Bonnie Hudgens.

This is the first time in the history of the OVC that girls have participated in a varsity sport designed for boys.

The students of Middle Tennessee State should be proud of the fine teams our school has produced this past year, and we can look with enthusiasm toward a top sports parade in the future.

Logical Reason For '60 Raiders Baseball Noe-Dive?

It may me a logical statement to make if one cited a couple or three factors in suming up the somewhat of a nose-dive season made by this years Raiders compared to the more remarkable one of a year ago when the local nine cashed in on the OVC flag doe. The records are really different, though the squad is only a shortstop and first baseman different from the team of a year in the past. Here is our opinion, and let us say that this is strictly personal opinion as viewed by us.

It seems that the same players and with the same coach on this season's crew, that the problem couldn't possibly be materialist. So therefore that throws some the answers on the mental and other attitudes of the personnel. Last year we had one pitcher with a 7-1 record and another with a 2-1. Look at the difference this season. Apparently the club fell apart mentally, and it is obvious that this year's ball group didn't have the desire to win as the team of a year back. Last year at season's end we had one boy hitting above .400 (Tassey) and four above .300. This year there are two.

But still one cannot throw all the blame on the players or on the coach for the big drop this season. The club has performed as a whole very poorly this season—the players haven't hit, the moundsmen haven't pitched, and the runs haven't come across the plate for the Raiders. Nor has the student support bear notable—while criticism of all concerned runs through the stands at each game.

It could be posible that the club just didn't have the desire to perform at their top form. At any stance, something has been wrong with the team that has made a huge difference in a club that did so well a year ago but has fared so horribly this spring.

Western Kentucky And Morehead Lead OVC Race

Tennessee Tech, Eastern Kentucky, and Middle Tennessee State all had a pre-season narrow chance of taking a share of the Ohio Valley Loop baseball race, but Western Kentucky and Morehead look like the two most likely outfits to succeed.

The Hilltoppers and Morehead have looked much more powerful than either of the others. In fact, Tech, and MTSC have miserable overall records and are given little chance of doing anything, while the Eastern Kentucky club is very strong with almost as good an overall mark as Western Kentucky and the Morehead Eagles.

Our pick is Morehead as the club to beat with few contests to go.

Winding Up The Blues

The big OVC tennis tourney featuring Tennessee Tech, Eastern Kentucky, Morehead, Western Kentucky, East Tennessee, Murray State and host team MTSC will swing into action Friday, May 20, and Saturday, May 21, on the Raider courts and will be a brilliant sports attraction for Murfreesboro and Middle Tennessee. Raider Coach E. O. Hawkins is director of the event.

Many are putting a can't-miss mark on MTSC and Memphis's David Dixon as a promising professional golfer. The likeable Dixon recently topped a field of 130 at Pulaski's local country club, as well as topping golfers all over the OVC this spring.

MTSC's Tangerine camp gridiron team will open September 17 on a Saturday night next fall against Austin Peay at Jones Stadium.

Playing The Game—

Does your faith hold true when the whole world's blue?
Life is a game with a glorious prize,
If we can only play it right.
It is give and take, build and break,
And often it ends in a fight;
But he surely wins who honestly tries
Regardless of wealth or fame,
He can never despair who plays it fair—
How are YOU playing the game?
Do you wilt and whine, if you fail to win
In the manner you think you're due?
Do you sneer at the man in case that he can
And does, do better than you?
Do you take your rebuffs with a knowing grin?
Do you laugh tho' you pull up lame?
Does your faith hold true when the whole world's blue?
How are YOU playing the game?

—ANONYMOUS

Among the some 258 June graduates at the college's year-ending exercises, a generous handful will be athletes who in the four short years have graced the gridiron, the basketball court, the baseball diamond, the golfing fairways, the cinder track or the tennis courts. Their experiences have been great strides towards the building of their respective characters, and the impression left on their minds is that through battles lost or won they have played the game.

How well have they played the game? A quick glance over the past four years at the athletic accomplishments in which a lot of these graduates have participated will reveal:

- (1) Two VSAC football championships.
- (2) Two OVC football championships won outright, and two tied for. Add to this the Tangerine Bowl victory.
- (3) One VSAC tournament basketball championship.
- (4) Two third place finishes in the All-American City Tournament in basketball.
- (5) One OVC baseball championship shared.
- (6) One VSAC, one OVC, and one TIAC golf championships, plus the low medalist award twice. (This does not include this year's record.)
- (7) A won-21 lost-5 record in track dual meets up to this year's OVC meet.

MTSC has been, quite evidently blessed with a strong sports influence, and in return the individuals have learned from their college days how much it means to have a sound body as well as a sound mind. Sports have endeavored to establish each and every one with the invaluable experience of realizing that so much can be had by only being a mere part of the whole athletic field.

Now with another milestone in sight for many of MTSC's athletes, the "game" of what-ever-they-may-do-in-the-future is about to begin. Some will teach, some will coach, some will be in the business world, some will further their study, some will prosper, others may fail, but regardless of hat they do or how they do it, they can all profit from the words of the poet:

If you think you are beaten, you are;
If you think you dare not, you don't.
If you'd like to win, but think you can't
It's almost a cinch you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you're lost,
For out in the world we find
Success begins with a fellow's will;
It's all in the state of mind.
Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man;
But soon or late the man who wins
Is the one who thinks he can.

—C. W. Logenecker

Truer words were never said, and anyone looking for a sound philosophy on which to base their life would not have to search much further than this. Sport provides all with a challenge which is both healthy and virtuous, and like life itself, it can be a worthwhile purpose wherein the ambitious succeed.

This And That—

—According to the May 10 release from the OVC sports information center at Louisville, Kentucky, the Blue Raiders' Ray Purvis leads the loop in home runs with five. Top batsmen for the squad are: John Stanford with 8 hits in 24 at-bats for a .333 mark, Purvis, with 17 in 53 for .321, and Phil Jones, with 9 in 29 for a .310 average.

—Speedy centerfielder Jackie Reavis is listed number two in the "triples" department with two this season.

—Also mentioned in the release is this quote: "Middle Tennessee is easily tops in the tennis glamour department—with girl stars Bonnie Hudgens and Bonnie Slatton playing number four and five singles respectively.

—David Dixon and Joel Vinson of the Raiders' unbeaten golf team (within the conference), are among the top seeded players for the individual medalist honors when the OVC meet begins next week.

—MTSC's track squad, with its plethora of all around brilliance, continues to amaze many followers. Winners of six meets and only a narrow loss to Murray blotting their accomplishments, they are rated as a strong possibility to upset these same Thoroughbreds in the coming OVC meet. Top surprises, as everybody already knows, is the running of Ray Purvis in the dashes, Porter Maxwell in the distances, Dick Swain on the hurdles, and Troy Haydon and Frank Haliburton in the high jump. Proof of the team's variety was the acquisition of 46 points in the TIAC with nary a first place victory.

—John Powers, the United States Air Force flyer who was shot down in Russia recently, is a graduate of Milligan College and played against the Raiders' football team in 1948-49 while MTSC was still a member of the VSAC. He was also a crack track man, but didn't run against the Raiders because the sport was not established here.

ROTC Holds Awards Day, Open House

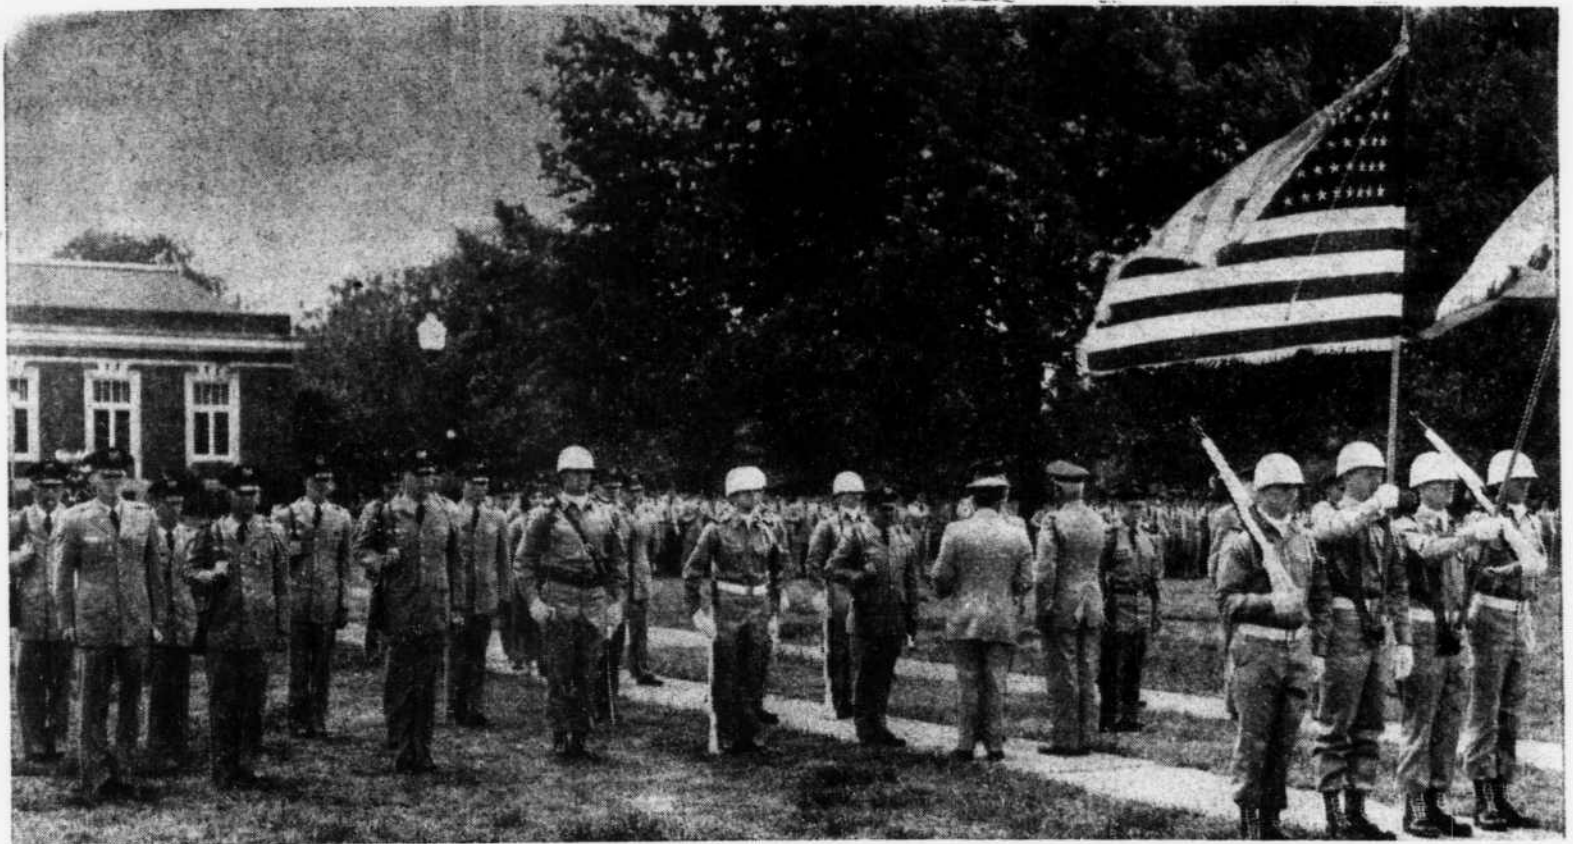

The college ROTC held its annual awards day and open house on May 10.

Outstanding cadets of the year received various awards for leadership and merit at a special parade ceremony at 11:00 a.m. Following the presentation of awards by Major Quentin L. McNary, PMST, the Cadet Battle Group "passed in review" honoring those receiving the awards.

From 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. there was open house in the ROTC Department with all ROTC facilities open to the public. Displays of military equipment were shown both in Forrest Hall and on adjoining grounds, and refreshments were served in the cadet lounge.

A troop demonstration and static equipment display were provided by the 101st Airborne Division from Ft. Campbell, Kentucky, including much of the military's latest weapons and communications equipment.

The purpose of this program was to acquaint the parents of ROTC cadets and other interested persons with the military science program at MTSC.

IN HONOR OF THOSE RECEIVING AWARDS, the Cadet Battle Group of the ROTC passed in review at the annual awards day on May 10. Following the presentation of awards by Major Q. L. McNary, an open house was held with all ROTC facilities open to the public in Forrest Hall and on adjoining grounds.

Tracksters Set Four Records In Whipping Lipscomb 99-32

Middle Tennessee State college thinclads set four school records as they whipped David Lipscomb college 99 to 32 in a dual meet here.

Ray Purvis set two of them, winning the 100-yard dash with a nifty :9.8 showing and the 220-yard dash with a :22.1 clocking. He was also high point man for MTSC with 15 points. Other school marks to fall were in the javelin and mile relay.

While MTSC rambled to an easy win in the dual meet for its fifth victory against only one loss, all was not lost for Lipscomb.

Lipscomb Coach Charles Morris and MTSC basketball Coach Eddie Diddle, Jr., got into a friendly argument during the meet as to which coach was the fastest. So following the meet the two mentors were matched in a 50-yard dash. Morris won by about a yard. However, the time for the distance was not announced.

Nancy Johnson and Elaine Vantatta are planning to be counselors at Girls' State when it meets here during the first week of June. Also, Doris June Neal will be a hostess during that week.

Several of the girls from Jones enjoyed the lovely dance which was sponsored by the juniors on Friday, May 6.

With the semester drawing to a close, we would like to wish everyone at MTSC a very pleasant summer. We especially wish the graduates luck as they embark upon their various careers.
