

Janice Iles Chosen Miss Midlander

Four Attendants Selected; Ag Club Stunt Places First

By Pat Beasley

Janice Iles has been named Miss Midlander for 1959, her attendants being Betty Caudill, Carolyn Aydelotte, Jo Ann Thompson, and Margaret Branham. Janice was crowned at the Biology Club Stunt Night Thursday night, February 5.

Miss Iles, who represented the Veteran's Club, is a sophomore business education major from Sale Creek.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Iles and is a graduate of Sale Creek High School. Among activities outside class, Janice finds time to work in the Terrace Room. She is an ROTC sponsor for the First Battle Group. When she was a junior in high school, Miss Iles represented her school as F.F.A. queen and represented her class as candidate for Autumn Festival Queen. Her senior year she was awarded both the English and Commercial medals for outstanding scholastic achievement.

Twenty-Two Vie For Titles In Election

Twenty-two MTSC students were nominated at a special ASB assembly Wednesday to compete for the senior superlative titles for 1959.

The election will be held today, February 11. Pictures of the successful candidates will be included in the 1959 MIDLANDER.

The nominees include those to be selected for Miss MTSC, Bachelor of Ugliness, Most Versatile Boy, Most Versatile Girl, Most Popular Girl and Most Popular Boy.

The nominees for Miss MTSC are Anne Holloway, Murfreesboro; Anne Abbay, Nashville; and Emily Capley, Shelbyville.

Jerry Branham, Lebanon; Johnny Walldrop, Murfreesboro; and Gene Windham, Smithville, were nominated for Bachelor of Ugliness.

Candidates for Most Versatile Girl are Shirley West, Cross Plains; Judy Patterson, Waverly; Carol Hanes, Westmoreland; Sarah Neel Fells, Murfreesboro; and Bonnie Slatton, Chattanooga. Most Versatile Boy candidates are Robert Hallum, Lebanon; Leland Heggley, Hendersonville; Bobby Jackson, Springfield; Winston Davis, Maryville; and James Kemp, Brush Creek.

Two girls, Frances Jackson and Nancy Shumate, both from Nashville, will compete for the title of Most Popular Girl. Nominees for (Continued on Page 4)

Caudill Is Runner-up

Miss Caudill, first runner-up for the title, is from Madison and was sponsored by the Pre-Law Club. Miss Aydelotte, second runner-up, represented the Agriculture Club. She is from Centerville. Miss Thompson, third runner-up and candidate of the junior class, is from Murfreesboro, while the fourth runner-up, Miss Branham of Lebanon, represented the Student NEA.

Each girl modeled two outfits, one of campus wear and the other of formal attire.

Other Candidates Named

Other candidates for the title were Ann Abbay, Callie Mae Williams, Bonnie Slatton, Nancy Johnson, Joan Bostick, Sylvia Webb, Ann Holloway, Nena Miles, Shirley Bishop and Dottie McQuiddy.

This year Stunt Night was won by the Agriculture Club with their entry, "No Time for Privates."

The "Alma Amateur Hour" of Rutledge Hall was second, while, "The Felt Need's School" of the Student NEA came in third place.

Other stunts were given by the Women's Athletic Association, the (Continued on Page 8)

MTSC Granted $1,985,000 By State; Sum Is Second Smallest On Budget

Middle Tennessee State College will receive $1,985,000 in the next biennium.

That amount was included in Governor Buford Ellington's $259,000,000 budget for state schools and colleges in the next two years, beginning on July 1, 1959. The budget was presented to the General Assembly.

The local state college will receive $915,000 for the year beginning July, 1959 and $1,070,000 in 1960.

The 1959 appropriation to MTSC is an increase of $150,000 Dr. Quill E. Cope, president, stated.

The budgetary breakdown of the funds appropriated has not been completed, but Dr. Cope pointed out that "About half of the $150,000 increase will go for staff members, including faculty, maintenance and janitorial additions.

The remainder will include salary increases for the staff and additional teaching aids and equipment.

The State Board of Education will indicate what salary increases are to be included in the new budget. A large share of the increase will be used to hire new faculty members.

If our enrollment in the new term shows an increase of 200 students we will require approximately 10 new faculty members. This is based on the requirements of the American Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. They require us to have one faculty member for each 20 students," Dr. Cope added.

The University of Tennessee will receive the largest portion of the appropriation to state colleges, about $19,000,000 for the two year period.

Austin Peay's budget for the biennium is $1,385,000 is the smallest and Middle Tennessee is next.

All other state colleges will receive more. TPI will receive $2,155,000 in the biennium.

Safety Award Given To ROTC Department

The Department of Military Science and Tactics, has received the Third United States Army Certificate of Merit for Safety for Outstanding Safety Performance during the period from January, 1956, to December, 1958.

This award is based on a 36 month period free from accidents involving either the Regular Army Instructor Group personnel or the ROTC cadets at MTSC.

Major Quentin L. McNary, Professor of Military Science and Tactics, received the Award on behalf of the ROAC Department.

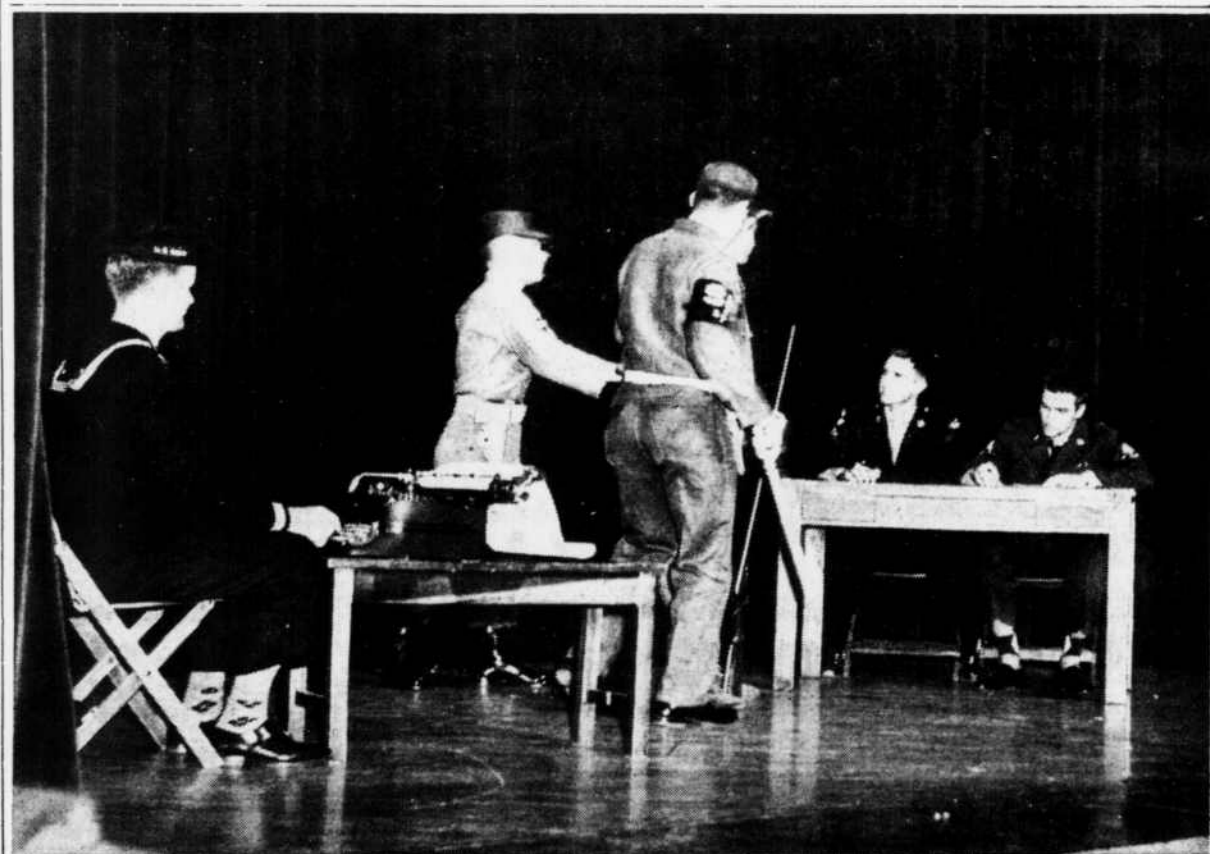

Mrs. Tucker Is Auditionist For Academy

The American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York City has announced that Mrs. H. Clay Tucker has been named Regional Auditionist for the Academy. Heretofore, anyone wishing to audition had to go to New York City.

Mrs. Tucker studied at the American Academy under the supervision of Goodman, D'Angelo, and Nehlinger. After leaving the Academy, Mrs. Tucker did work in Maine in the Summer Theater. She has been in many productions, including the role of Alice in You Can't Take It With You, the play she is currently directing here.

Mrs. Tucker has been at MTSC for only one year, but by the size of the audiences and the praise she receives one can easily tell that her work is well done. She has served as Assistant Head of The Drama Department at Martin College, directed at Rondo Theater in Columbia where she appeared in "Claudia," and was Tennessee State Director of National Thespian Society.

A native of Columbia, Tennessee, she attended Ward-Belmont and Middle Tennessee State College. She is married to H. Clay Tucker, also a faculty member at MTSC. They have two children, Susan and Clark.

"NO TIME FOR PRIVATES" was the skit presented by the Agriculture Club which won first prize at Stunt Night, February 5. Placing second was the "Alma Amateur Hour" given by Rutledge Hall, while the Student NEA came in third with "The Felt Need's School".

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR - - - CHEERLEADERS ANSWER LACK-OF-PEP CHARGES

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

We want to thank you for your criticism on the question: "Wanted: More Pep from Cheerleaders." We want you to know we accept it and welcome constructive criticism from the student body at any time.

This letter is for only one purpose and that being to give to you, the student body, the actual facts. We realize that people are easily confused, as evidently was the case in the article written by nine interested upperclassmen.

The first item to clear up is that we purchased our own skirts with an approximate cost of $15.00, each with the additional cost of trips to and from the dressmaker, with our own captain most generously using her car and gasoline without hesitancy. We also paid for our shoes, $7.00, making a total of $22.00. Our sweaters, however, were given to us by the athletic department and are greatly appreciated.

We wish to stress the point that we do practice. During football season, we spent approximately 1½ hours daily practicing. We are not patting ourselves on the back for this; we accepted the job with full knowledge of what was expected of us. During basketball season we have an average of two games a week and we feel that it is unnecessary to practice the other three days.

As for the matter of cordiality towards Austin Peay: we were told by the cheerleaders they didn't want to cheer and since they had no cheering section it would be unnecessary for us to give them a welcome cheer. If the girls writing the article which appeared in the last issue had gone on the road trips with us, it would have been evident to them that we are not given welcome cheers, as was witnessed at David Lipscomb and to a capacity crowd of 5000 students and faculty at TPI.

We want to take this opportunity to publicly thank those few (about 30) faithful students who support the Blue Raiders at home or on almost all road trips. Their presence is appreciated by all concerned.

We know that it is impossible to have everyone stay on the weekends, but we could at least make an effort to fill the gym on week nights.

We are one of the few schools who issue free student passes to athletic functions. Other schools charge $1.00, and yet they some how manage to fill their gyms and we don't. With two games left to wind up the Raider's home season, why can't we have the support the Raiders deserve?

It was promised that if the cheerleaders would have pep, the student body would behind us 100%. We did our best, but we lacked the support. What happened?

Don't say if the team could win we would yell—winning is not the only time for yelling. The team doesn't need it as much then—when they're behind is when pep is most needed.

You wanted us to turn over a new leaf. We did, so let's see the rest of you do the same.

MTSC plays TPI here on February 14, Valentines Day. Let's try to have more students for the Raiders than the Eagles bring to the game.

Thanking you again for your criticism, we remain

THE CHEERLEADERS

It gets pretty deep around here sometimes — the mud, that is. This rain also helps our drive into the parking lot. There is no possible way of hitting all the holes, even if you try hard. Someone told me the other day that a little foreign car fell into one those holes and it hasn't been seen yet. As I said, it gets deep around here.

Our new wings are coming along fine. You have heard of up-town dormitories. These new ones of ours are going to be up-town dormitories. The bulldozers, which are doing the landscaping, also make an up-town noise. I would tell you what some of our residents say about this, but I don't believe the paper would print it. Some mornings the sky is black with clouds, shoes, etc. flying in the direction of these wonderful machines.

New Council Members

Congratulations are in order for the newly elected members of the dorm council. These boys, Carl Sercy and Ray Bell, replaced Don Franklin and Frank Thomason, who moved out of the dorm last quarter.

Some of our boys are having trouble with mattress thieves. These boys leave their room for a few seconds, and when they come back the mattresses are nowhere to be found. The poor victims were Hilary Carr and Abbas Zand. Speaking of Abby Zand, he would like to form a carpool from Tehran, Iran, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. He would leave at 7:00 each morning and return at 3:00 in the afternoon. Anyone interested, please contact Abby at Box 991 or in Room 218, Smith Hall.

Well, time's a wastin'. Little do we realize that this quarter is over half gone, and as someone once said, "Time waits for no man." Ain't we men??? Don't answer that question! See you next issue, and don't forget, this week is be kind to Girl Scout week.

Afterthoughts

P.S. Thanks go to the cafeteria staff of MTSC for the kind cooperation in striving to open on time.

P.S. No. 2. Don't forget Friday, March 13!

Ingram And Waite Engagement Told

by Sarah Neel Follis

The engagement of Emily Sue Ingram to Kirk Waite was recently announced. The couple plans to be married in March. Emily is a graduate of David Lipscomb College and Peabody College and is presently a member of the faculty of Hattie Cotton Elementary School. Kirk received a B.S. degree from MTSC and is now a senior in law school at Vanderbilt University. He is a member of Delta Theta Phi legal fraternity.

Matthews Visits

Beverly Matthews recently was week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knight in Memphis. Beverly attended a medical fraternity party with Bob Knight while in Memphis.

Bob is a student at University of Tennessee Medical School at Memphis. He and Joe are both former students of MTSC.

Congratulations on Opera

Those in charge certainly deserve praise for the excellent presentation of the Strauss opera Fledermaus.

Two Murfreesboroans, Ann Wiedrich and Bill Medlock, had the leading roles.

Joe Mills, as Frosh the jailer, brought down the house in his comical role.

on the Discs

By Peggy Prince

Since I told you about Techna-kovsky last issue, for the sake of variety I thought Johnny Cash would arouse the interest of most of you. To my knowledge, Johnny has recorded only three L.P.'s, two for the Sun label and one for Columbia.

It's practically impossible to place Johnny Cash in one particular field. He first made his mark in the 'country' field with "I Walk the Line," but after "Ballad of a Teen-Age Queen," he became a top-selling artist in the pop recording field. Both of these are found on the L.P., "Johnny Cash sings The Songs That Made Him Famous."

Did you know that Johnny writes many of his own songs? His latest L.P., "The Familiar Johnny Cash," contains a number of them along with the new hit, "Don't Take Your Guns to Town." He does most of his writing, as he says, "when I'm on the road feeling homesick."

Backing him with a strong beat are two long-time friends, electric guitarist Luther Perkins and bass player Marshall Grant.

Johnny Cash looks the part of a folk singer—a 20th century wandering minstrel. And his fatalistic style, both in composing and singing, has a quality of monotone, "emotional monotone" that defies analysis, but which is genuinely powerful.

Lyon Lines

Three New Girls Move Into Lyon

by Linda Lambert

Things are getting back to normal here at Lyon. We still have some new girls coming, though. Among these new faces are Anna Ables, Charlotte Slatton, and Anna Lou Frame.

Our congratulations go to Rosemary Dickson and Dottie McQuiddy on their recent election to the Dorm Council.

Happy Birthday, Mrs. Parks

Last Wednesday, our favorite housemother, Mrs. Parks, celebrated a birthday. She received many beautiful gifts and good wishes.

Our weekend guests at Lyon have been Peggy Eubanks, guest of Carolyn Sharp; Beatrice Boehms, guest of Cecile Mayberry; Patricia Sergeant, guest of Dorris Hawkins; and Susan Stroud, guest of Betty Willard.

Lyon sends best wishes to the former Gayle Hill. She is married to Donnie Sullivan of McMinnville. They are making their home in Chattanooga.

Sergeants-at-Arms

The sergeants-at-arms for this month are Mary Spaulding and Mary Jane Erwin, third floor; Janice Iles and Mary Ellen Leuter, second floor; and Judy Martin and Mary Ellen Lewis, first floor. I know we are going to have order in Lyon this month.

Dottie McQuiddy, Melva Harding, and Virginia Yancey were hostesses to a gala surprise birthday party for Judy Martin. There was plenty of cake and ice cream for the fifteen guests. Judy received a beautiful pink cardigan and a cute little cheerleading doll.

We are proud to have a representative in the ROTC Ball court. Betty Willard was chosen to be one of the queen's four attendants.

Lyon has something new in the way of viewing—an elevated T.V.!

The corsages will be judged on the basis of originality and imagination. They may be made from vegetables, children's toys, cigars, or any other such materials preferred by the girls. The boys must wear these corsages the entirety of the dance.

Boys are requested to wear suits and girls to wear Sunday attire. As there may be a few square dances, girls may find flat-heeled shoes preferable.

Admission is 25c stag or 35c per couple in the advanced ticket sales. At the door, ticket prizes will be based on the weather that evening.

Monohan Madcaps

Stunt Night Finds Monohan Entrants

By Bonnie Hudgens

Congratulations to Miss Midlander and her court! Monohan was happy to have two of her madcaps in the court, Betty Caudill, who was first runner-up, and Margaret Branham, who placed fourth.

Attention! Have you ever wondered how to get wrinkles out of an evening dress? Prior to the Miss Midlander contest, Betty Caudill and her roommate, Carol Richardson, closed the doors to the shower room and turned on all the showers, thus making a room full of hot steam. They brought in Betty's gown and hung it up to let the wrinkles fall out. The next morning they rushed in to get the dress and found not only a wet dress, but also the same old wrinkles. In the mist of turning on the showers, etc., Carol caught cold and has been visiting the infirmary for a few days.

I thought there could only be one Dr. Martin on this earth, but Nancy Shumate, who portrayed "skinny" Martini" on the Stunt Night program, is a remarkable resemblance to this faculty member. So now, Monohan can have their own Martini.

Wake Up, Jerry!

Bzzzzzzzzzzzz. Most people wake up to a loud alarm, but not Jerry Williams. She sleeps right through it. The poor girls on her end of the hall are having to wear cotton in their ears. This might not look quite appropriate, but it beats listening to Bzzzzzzzz.

Another play is under way, You Can't Take It With You. Some of the madcaps who received parts are Margie Johnston, Barbara Simmons, Pat Hollis, and Bonnie Hudgens.

Big Sparkle

There has been a big sparkle going around in Monohan. That may be the reason some of the girls are now wearing sun glasses, but I suspect that it's because of the diamond that Ann Burnette is wearing.

Shirley Krutsinger has been ailing with a wisdom tooth. But she doesn't have to worry anymore about teeth, because they're in fine condition NOW. There's only one problem, her gums have got to go!

EDITOR'S COMMENT: Bonnie does a pretty good job of telling off on all us Monohan girls, so it's about time someone told off on her. The other day when I started to sign out to lunch, I noticed that Bonnie had signed out alone to the "B. Saloon." We wondered just what the "B." stood for, and if that spelling should have been "salon." Bonnie may claim she went to the beauty salon, but we all wonder.

Stockton Heads Associated Student Body; Judy Patterson Serves As Vice-President

By Judy Martin

Some very outstanding students hold high offices in the student government. Four of the most deserving are the officers of the ASB.

Kent Stockton of Madison, ASB president, is majoring in economics. He hopes to convert this knowledge to the use of personal industry. He has been active during his four years here, holding membership in the Supreme Court as a sophomore, Congress as a junior, Circle K Club, the Westminster Fellowship and Who's Who.

Judy Patterson is the efficient and hard working vice president. She's a math major and at the present, practice teaching full time in Shelbyville. She graduates in August. While here at MTSC she has contributed greatly to the Aquatic Club, serving as vice-president, and past treasurer. She is in Tau Omicron, and Kappa Pi, was freshman class treasurer; belong to S.N.E.A. and the Wesley Foundation; serves as Monohan vice-president; and was named to Who's Who.

Frances Jackson, secretary, hails from Nashville. Frances is majoring in elementary education and is presently teaching the fourth grade at the Training School. She is a member of Student NEA, Home Economics Club, Church of Christ Group, and SCU, president of the junior class last year, she was this year Homecoming Queen and in Who's Who.

Nancy Shumate, another Nashville, is treasurer. Nancy receives her B.S. degree in elementary education in August. This quarter she is teaching the first grade at the Training School. She plans to teach in Davidson County after her graduation. Among her activities are membership in the Student NEA, Home Ec. Club, SCU, and Wesley Foundation. She was student hostess, is president of Monohan Hall, and was named to Who's Who.

A great many hours of hard work go into the positions these outstanding students hold, and they have done a note-worthy job.

Rutledge Ramblings

Rutledge Beauty Reigns At Ball

by Virginia Geer and Holland Bratton

Lovely Mary Lynn Sharpe of Rutledge reigned as queen of the annual ROTC Ball on Friday evening. A dorm mate, Sylvia Webb, was one of her attendants. Congratulations, girls.

Our party girls on third floor have had another ball. Linda Tripp was the lucky honoree who added another year to her age.

We've heard by way of the grapevine that there is a "fledermaus" loose in Rutledge. Girls have reported a strange object hanging from its knees from the shower rod. Maybe Mr. Wright can give us some suggestions on how to get rid of it.

We want to commend those girls from Rutledge participating in our dorm's stunt: Patsy Pemberton, Gayle Freeman, Beth Curtis, Nancy Moore, Lynn Lazenby, Judy Hunter, and Leslie Quinn. Also we want to commend Jane Shelton and Judy Daughtrey for a job well done on props.

Congratulations are in order for Gayle Brown on receiving a part in the Buchanan Players next presentation, You Can't Take It With You.

Elaine Woodward was a weekend guest of her roommate, Nancy Abrams.

Miss Sylvia Webb of Donelson was co-sponsored by the Biology Club and T Club as a candidate for Miss Midlander.

Ten Easy Lessons Outlined For Getting Through College

by Judy Burgin

People have come and people have gone; many have failed and many have passed. Those that passed usually use their energy and brain in scheming new ideas to use on the professors. There are ten ways to get through college without even trying.

The first way is to always show an interest in the professor's subject. To prove your interest, bring newspaper clippings dealing with his subject. Sometimes it is impossible to find clippings that deal with that particular subject. If a clipping cannot be found, bring in clippings at random. He thinks everything deals with his subject.

The second way is to always look alert and take notes eagerly. A person may look at his watch many times, as long as he doesn't stare at it unbelievably, shake it, and hold it to his ear.

A way to show an interest in the subject is to nod frequently and murmur, "How True." To you, this seems exaggerated, but to him it is quite objective. It is a way of telling that you are awake. While nodding frequently and murmuring, it is always good to sit in the front of the class, near the professor. This applies only if you intend to stay awake. Sitting near the professor is another way of showing your interest.

The professor usually has a few jokes to tell during the hour, and it is wise to laugh at these. Many times it is impossible to tell if he has told a joke. You can tell, however, if he looks up from his notes and smiles expectantly, that he has told a joke. If there is no laughter, the entire class gets bad grades for the day.

The sixth way to show interest is to ask for outside reading. Because you ask for the reading does not mean that you have to read it.

During the course many people skip class to sleep, while others just sleep in class. If you must sleep, always arrange to be called at the end of the hour. The professor will get an unfavorable impression of you if the rest of the class has left and you are still sitting there alone, dozing.

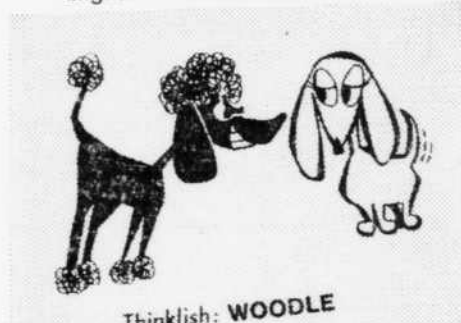

Another way to fool the professor is to read books during the lecture class. If you are reading, always be sure that the book you have looks like the book of the course you are studying. Try to match the books for size and color.

If you ask questions, be sure to ask ones you think he can answer. Never announce that you have found the answer he could not give, and in your younger brother's sec-

Raider Roundup

By Paul Perry

A fascinating fact flogs a person's mind when he begins to think of how the OVC has risen in the basketball world over the past couple of years.

Coach Ed Diddle, Sr., has had his Western Kentucky Hilltoppers in the Invitational Tourney at New York's Madison Square Garden for years, and they're giving the cage world a taste of the OVC there each year. Also, the OVC owns the winningest Coach in basketball in the Hilltopper master Diddle.

The hoop loop jumped from 6 members to 7 a year ago when East Tennessee State College joined the OVC Union. And all schools except MTSC are being thanked for their tremendous showing by huge crowds flocking to their home games. Especially at the Kentucky schools, the supporting fans sometimes are hanging from the rafters to see two OVC fives in action.

Other little things such as TPI's fabulous Jimmy Hagen, the Kentucky boy who's the nation's number two scorer, gives a boast to the OVC in the way of national recognition. Murray State played two SEC clubs, Mississippi State and Ole Miss, while Western Kentucky tackled such national powers as La-Salle, DePaul, Army, and the University of Cincinnati, the team that sports legendary Oscar Robertson, the dark skinned boy who is the country's top point maker. There are many things to consider, and all these things add up to better basketball and more fans to see it as the OVC makes its climb to the top.

Our Salute To A Great Guy and A Great Career

The sudden decision by MTSC's fabulous two year quarterback Bobby Hallum to call it quits as far as football goes, sort of puts a damper on fans who were looking forward to seeing the stocky 180-pound Lebanon, Tennessee, lad in action next fall. His decision didn't come as a shock to Raider headman, Bubba Murphy, because Hallum can graduate in June.

A tarring terror on the field, OVC football foes feared Bobby probably more than any other one player in the circuit during his two-year tour of duty. Hallum, though still young, has played a lot of football. After leaving high school he played a year on Kentucky's Cotton Bowl eleven of '52 and then four years of Air Force ball, along with two seasons as a Blue Raider.

Magnificent records have been established while the cool-headed Hallum was at the helm for the local outfit. Record of 10-0 and 8-2 were scored with Bobby leading the offensive show. Hallum was selected to the All-OVC outfit both years as a Raider and shared honorable mention on Little All-American the past season.

Our School's Hester Gibbs Makes Golden Gloves History

Two of the countries most noted sports authorities, Raymond Johnson and F. M. Williams, of The Nashville Tennessean sports staff, gave MTSC's Hester Gibbs quite a compliment during the recent Tennessean-sponsored Mid-State Golden Gloves Tourney at Nashville.

Johnson stated in his "One Man's Opinion" column, that the Gibbs-Lawler fight made history as far as Nashville Golden Gloves goes. He said that "there may have been fighters with more class than Gibbs, but for just toe to toe banging it out, he stands at the top."

F. M. William, who's known more widely for his coverage of Nashville Vol baseball, classed the Gibbs-Lawler fight as the best heavyweight bout in the 26 year history of the Hippidrome classics.

Then after all the excitement of the previous bout had gone, the finals of the 27th annual Golden Gloves festival found Gibbs pitted against the Nashville Boys Club's Charley "Boom Boom" Bannom, who had decisioned Gibbs twice during the season. Gibbs won a unanimous decision over his opponent and will appear in the Southern Gloves Tournament, February 13, 14, and 15.

Eager Raiders Turn On Steam To Rout Murray In OVC Battle

Middle Tennessee turned on the steam in the last half and routed Murray State, 84 to 66, in an Ohio Valley conference battle here January 31.

It was the first OVC victory of their sixth in 17 outings overall. For Murray, the defeat left them with two OVC wins and three losses and a seasonal mark of eight wins, nine losses.

The game was a see-saw battle for the first half with the Blue Raiders going out for the rest period with a 38 to 37 advantage.

But soon after the last half began, the Raiders clipped off five straight points and from then on had things well in hand, outscoring the visiting Thoroughbreds by 17 points in the final half.

Not only did the home team outshoot the visitors, it held command of both backboards during the surprising last half showing.

Tom Burden paced the red-hot Raiders, who had four men hit in double figures. Burden's 25 were the most of any player on either team, with MTSC's Don Smith scoring 19, Bob Williamson 18 and Ralph Bryant 17.

For Murray, Jim Peterson led with 13 points while Bob Alexander and Jack Darnell each hit for 12.

The girls held their first official meeting as a team February 5, during which officers were elected. The new officers are captain, Pat Turner; co-captain, Pauline Powell; secretary, Carolyn Cox; scorers, Donna Yeaman and Jaylyle Fehlin.

Out of the twenty girls on the team, the six highest scorers were Marjorie Wilson with 167, Evelyn Hughes with 166, Faye Sparkman with 162, Molly Lynch with 161, and Carolyn Cox and Donna Yeaman with 160 each.

The remaining members of the Women's Rifle Team are Marsha Anderson, Sandra Barrett, Mary Brandon, Kathy Brock, Dorothy Coleman, Jaylyle Fehlin, Charleen Hile, Bobbie Lehr, Sue Maddox, Sandra Pittard, Pauline Powell, Pat Turner, Jerry Williams, and Clara Wilson.

Jerry Williams is team manager, Captain Carter and Sergeant Duncan are ROTC advisors, and Mrs. Alma Bass is sponsor of the group.

Regular meetings of the new team will be held every Monday night at 6 o'clock. A more detailed study of the .22 rifle and more practice and study on firing will be the main objectives in the meetings.

For competition experience, the Women's Rifle Team will fire against each other and against the Boys' Rifle Team. There is a possibility that the girls will fire one or two paper matches this year, although shoulder-to-shoulder matches cannot be arranged until next year.

Red Team Leads League In Intramural Basketball

by Johnny Stoddard

The intramural basketball season is underway, and so far the Red team is leading the league with two victories and no defeats. Led by Jim Caldwell, who is possibly one of the best guards in the league, the Red team has beaten both the Black and the Brown teams. Caldwell is tied for scoring honors and is second average-wise in the league.

The pre-season choice to win the title was the Blue team. In their only outing they swept by the White team easily, 58 to 39. Horace Taylor and Ronnie Gaither led the way with 14 and 13 points respectively.

As the season progresses, several players have been noticed for their outstanding play. "Slim" Davis of the Green team appears to be the best center, while Nile Duke of the Blue team and Jim Caldwell seem to be the best guards in the league. At the forward slots there are Whit Watson of the Green team, Roy Lee Smith of the White team, and Jerry Comming of the Green team battling for the number one position.

Scoring honors for the present will have to go to Whit Watson and Jim Caldwell, who each have compiled a total of 45 points in two games. In the averages' department, Hester Gibbs of the Yellow team is leading with a 25 point average. Both Watson and Caldwell are close behind him averaging 22.5 points per tilt. Top scoring stands as follows:

Whit Watson, 45 Green; Jim Caldwell, 45 Red; Ken Ross, 28 White; Hester Gibbs, 25 Yellow; Troy Haydon, 22 Orange; John Waldrop, 21 Green; Freddie Senter, 20 Black.

The final outcome of this battle is merely speculation. Here are the present standings;

Team	Won	Lost
Brown	1	1
Green	1	1
Orange	1	1

Morehead Team Hits 62 Per Cent To Rip Raiders For OVC Victory

A hot-shooting Morehead club, led by Herbie Triplett and Thornton Hill, claimed a 101-78 Ohio Valley Conference basketball victory over Middle Tennessee.

The win gave Coach Bob Laughling's Eagles an 8-7 record overall and put their OVC mark at 4-3, good enough for third place in the loop.

Morehead took the lead for keeps at 25-23 with about 12 minutes remaining in the opening period.

A barrage of long set shots by Triplett and Granville Williams late in the first half helped pad the Morehead lead. The two connected on 11 out of 17 from outside the foul line.

Triplett led all scorers with 26 while John Price, a 6-5 senior from Bowling Green, Ky., led Middle Tennessee with 24.

Three other Morehead players hit double figures. Williams had 10, Dale Fair 17, and Hill 20. The Eagles hit on 62 per cent of their shots while the losers connected on only 34 per cent.

Mississippi Team Defeats MTSC

Mississippi Southern squandered a big early lead but pulled away again in the closing minutes for an 80-66 victory over Middle Tennessee on January 26.

Southern took a 4-0 lead at the start and increased its lead to 42-21 at the half, outscoring Middle Tennessee 14-1 in the last three minutes before intermission.

The Mississippians moved farther ahead at the start of the second half and held a commanding 55-30 lead with six minutes gone. But Middle Tennessee, led by John Price and Ralph Bryant, hit a hot streak and cut the Southern margin to 58-50 with 7:30 remaining.

Harold Ray Kea of Southern, the game's top scorer, scored seven points in 52 seconds as his team grabbed a 67-53 lead. The winners never faltered again.

Kea collected 22 points while Bryant had 14 and Price 10. Ben Gantt had 16 for Southern.

Mississippi, in winning its fifth straight, sank 27 of 58 field goal attempts, while Middle Tennessee made 24 of 70.

Blue Raiders Fall To Kentucky Five

Eastern Kentucky spoiled Middle Tennessee State college's out-of-the-cellar bid in this 1958-59 basketball season by romping off with an 80 to 64 Ohio Valley conference victory here February 2.

MTSC stuck in the scrap until midway the first half when only three points separated the teams, but the Kentuckians, employing frequent ball thefts and fast breaks, pulled away and won handily.

Four Eastern players scored in double figures as MTSC's record was pushed back to 8-10. Don Smith led five twin-count scorers for the Raiders.

MTSC tossed away many scoring chances in the foul-clogged contest, bucketing only 34 of 45 free throws, while Eastern Kentucky cashed in on 18 of 21 attempts at the free throw line.

Blue Raiders Begin Spring Revival Minus Veteran Quarterback Hallum

MTSC sent its Blue Raiders into spring football practice minus a center and without veteran Quarterback Bob Hallum.

Hallum, first-string pilot for two seasons, during which the Raiders won 18 games and lost two, elected to complete his college education this spring and forego his remaining eligibility.

"He's 27 years old," said Raider coach Charles M. (Bubber) Murphy. "He has a family, and he's been playing football a long time."

Signal-calling responsibility therefore shifts to former Montgomery Bell academy flash Whit Watson, who was Hallum's understudy last season. He'll be a senior next season.

"We're pretty well fixed at quarterback," Coach Murphy said. Behind Watson he will have sophomores Terry Bailey from Hagerstown, Md., and Jerry Pearson of Springfield, both of whom looked able in brief appearances last season.

"Our problem is at center," Murphy said. "It's the only place where we don't have a letterman back." The Raiders lost Bill Hall of Portland, Tenn., and Glen Eaden from Nashville, who shared the duty.

Murphy expects 70 candidates to start the 20-day grind. "We're a week ahead of last year," he said. "The weather will have a lot to do with it."

Along The Sidelines

By Ralph Englert

One of the more interesting sidelights enlightening the MTSC sports scene during a busy winter schedule is the participation of several Raider athletes in the current Golden Gloves, which is an annual fistic affair sponsored by the Nashville Tennessean.

The mid-state area's pugilistic performers have already determined the rightful champions of each weight division in their region, and are eagerly awaiting the Southern matches which will begin Monday. Among these, only one will represent MTSC, and he is William Hester Gibbs, 6'1" 190 lbs. Junior from Ashland City, Tennessee.

Gibbs is a lineman on Coach Murphy's grid squad, a member Coach Hayes' track team in the spring, but he is at the time his manager, Terry Sweeney's pride and joy, as the newly-crowned mid-state heavyweight champion. Only courage and hard work accomplished this goal for him. In fact, he had to fight back to gain his present status as he lost his first two bouts of the year on narrow 2-1 split decisions to Charles Bamman of Nashville's Boys Club.

Utterly dismayed over the outcome of these fights, Hester nearly decided to throw in the towel and call it a season, but somehow he couldn't imagine himself "burying the hatchet," so to speak, on such a situation and being regarded as a quitter. So with renewed persistence, he took up the hatchet once more and began his vigorous training for the Gloves.

Champion On First Try

A thrilling first round tilt with Charles Lawler of TPI, in which the decision went to Gibbs, brought on a showdown with Bamman for the third time. Hester fought in a meticulous sort of way, and his continued forward thrusts so dominated the fight that he gained an unanimous decision for his first Gloves title in as many attempts in open competition.

Just how far Hester will go this year is anybody's guess, but in the case of being Southern champion, he will have to fight three straight nights next week, and presently he is undertaking the rigorous drills of football spring training.

Seems like quite a large order of physical endurance, but if self-determination and the will to work could be recognized as measures of one's success, it would do well to crown him heavyweight champion of the world today.

This And That

Two other Raider athletes also gave a good account of themselves in the Mid-state fights. Carl Jones gave Bamman a rough time, and it was so close that many thought that Jones had won, but he judges ruled otherwise. Nicky Lynch, fighting gained the finals by a first round TKO in 32 seconds of his first bout. Earlier Lynch had gained te finals by a first round TKO in 32 seconds of his first bout.

Going into the last week's Eastern Kentucky game, the Raider Roundballers boasted of five men in the double-digit figures of scoring average-wise. These were: Bob Williamson; 15.1 average; Robert Burden, 15.2; Ralph Bryant, 10.5; John Price, 10.5; and Don Smith, 10.4.

AN OPERA, 'FLEDERMAUS,' was presented January 29 and 30 by the Music Department and Buchanan Players. Shown above are the cast during a scene in the last act of the opera, which was a resounding success. Music director was Mr. Neil Wright, stage director was Mrs. Dorothe Tucker, and principal coach was Mrs. Margaret Wright.

'Fledermaus' Considered Big Success

by Dottie McQuiddy

An enriching experience was enjoyed by the many people who attended the opera, Fledermaus, on our campus January 29 and 30.

The opera, written by Johann Strauss, was presented by the Music Department and the Buchanan Players. The music was under the direction of Mr. Neil Wright, stage direction was by Mrs. Dorothe Tucker, and the principals coach was Mrs. Margaret Wright.

Outstanding performances were given by Bill Medlock, Ann Weidrich, Mary Ellen Pate, and Walter Anderson. Joe Mills was superb in his role of the drunken jailer.

The scenery was most effective. This was due to the combined efforts of Bonnie Hudgens, Andy Young, and Sam Massey, who worked many long hours on the sets.

This delightful, light comedy was a resounding success. The Music Department and Buchanan Players can add another hit to their fine record.

Raiders To Face Powerful TPI On Home Court

The Blue Raiders of MTSC will once again take on the powerful Eagles of TPI Saturday night in an attempt to retaliate for the defeat suffered at the hands of Tech earlier this season.

In this previous defeat, the Raiders held Jimmy Hagen, Tech's scoring ace and the nation's second highest scorer, to the lowest tally of the season. It was during the last half that the Eagles managed to pull away from the Raiders with their severely accurate shooting power and backing up the boards.

On the brighter side for MTSC is the fact that Tech has been twice defeated Murray State this season, while the mighty Raiders routed Murray 84 to 66 on the home court recently.

With the removal of the cast from Ralph Bryant's arm, he has been sharing the rebounds with Williamson and Price. It is quite possible that the Raiders will upset the overconfident Eagles if this trio is up for the game. Don Smith and Tom Brandon were the scoring aces in the victory over Murray State, and if these men continue their scoring rampage, Tech may need their deep reserves to contain the searing Raiders.

MTSC will go into the game with a record for the season, while TPI has taken an unexpected jump toward the top of the cage world. However, one of the bright spots in the season's performances has been the defensive power of the Raiders. Since the Tech team is centered around Hagen, and his eagle eye for the basket, the potentiality the Raiders possess could pull many upsets and leave the Tech basketballers in a mask of bewilderment.

Margie Johnson Takes Leading Role As Practice For Winter Play Begins

by Sandra Barrett and Jeanette Peyton

Tryouts have been held and practice has begun for the Buchanan Players' winter production, You Can't Take It With You, according to Mrs. Dorothe Tucker, director of dramatics.

The lead role in this famous comedy by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman is played by Margie Johnson, president of both the Buchanan Players and Alpha Psi Omega.

The supporting cast is composed of Helen Sikes, Bonnie Hudgens, John Spining, Joe Bartha, Guerry Teeple, Andy Young, Joe Clayton, Gayle Brown, Jim Enos, Larry Payne, Joe Mills, Betty Petrie, Dicky Barnes, Pat Hollis, and Ann Weidrick.

Ann Tittsworth will act as assistant director of the play, which won the Pulitzer Prize in 1939.

You Can't Take It With You deals with a large family who tend to take life and its troubles as a folly. A romance which involves a member of this family and a member of a richer family provides both comical and complicated situations.

The play will be presented in the MTSC auditorium on March 4 and 5.

CHEVY'S NEW HI-THRIFT 6

More miles are back in a gallon of regular-grade gas—up to 10% more—and Chevy's new Hi-Thrift 6 engine puts them there. It also gives you more "git" in the speeds you drive the most.

Here's an engine that always seems able to coax extra miles out of a tank of regular-grade gas. In fact, if you're one of those drivers who keep tab on things like gas mileage, you'll soon see for yourself that this new Hi-Thrift 6 gets up to 10% more miles a gallon.

Another thing you'll like about this 135-h.p. 6 is the extra pep it gives you for passing and climbing hills. This is due to higher torque at normal speeds.

It may be hard to believe anything that looks and moves like this '59 Chevy can be such a stickler for economy. But—whether you pick the Hi-Thrift 6 or a vim-packed V8—this is just one more reason Chevy's the car that's wanted for all its worth. Stop by your dealer's and see.
