VOICE OF MTSC, THE COLLEGE OF INDIVIDUAL OPPORTUNITY

Vol. 37—No. 9

Middle Tennessee State College, Murfreesboro, Tennessee

February 26, 1964

Most Outstanding Students To Be Named In Election Today

Senior superlatives were nominated in assembly by members of the student body.

Election of the superlatives will be held today between the hours of 8 o'clock and 4 o'clock. The polls will be placed at the entrance to the Administration Building Auditorium and in the back of the Terrace Room. All students must present their validated I.D. card at the polls.

Run off elections will be held Thursday. In the event that any candidates do not receive the majority of votes, the individuals with the two highest votes will run again in the Thursday elections.

Tau Omicron and Sigma Club, campus wide honorary societies, nominated candidates for Most Outstanding Man and Most Outstanding Woman. These are superlatives to be added this year.

Windy Smith, Carol Sanford, and Jackie Pasche are the women candidates from Tau Omicron. James Bryson, A. W. Powell, and Ralph Willis are representing the Sigma Club.

Most Versatile Man nominees are Richard Roach and Denny Welch. Candidates for Most Versatile Woman are Martha Ayers, Dianne Dorris, and Anne Turner.

Candidates for Most Popular Man are Bob Mason, Bill Lewis, Jackie Pope, Steve Bebb, and Tom Butter-off. Competing for the title of Most Popular Woman are "Elmo" Hamner, Ann Petty, Barbara Jean Williams, and Judy Stegall.

Bachelor of Ugliness candidates are Jerry Allen, Ken Russell, Fred Bugg, and Ronnie Wilmouth.

Nominees for the title of Miss MTSC are Carolyn Hale, Sharron Smoyer and Sally Smith.

Special Assembly, Feb. 27, To Discuss Proposed Honor Council For MTSC

Public discussion of the proposed Honor Council for MTSC will be held in a special assembly on February 27.

The idea of an Honor Council was first discussed at the ASB preschool retreat. Phillip Claiborne was appointed to investigate and collect data pertaining to the Council. Since that time, he has written to all schools belonging to SUSGA for their opinions. The replies were equally divided for and against an Honor Council.

After obtaining faculty and student opinion on the proposal, the Honor Council was discussed by the Inter-Presidents Council. Here, it was decided to place the issue before the students in a campus-wide assembly.

Dr. James Martin of the Education Department will introduce the program with a variety of entertainment and wit. The discussion of the Honor Council will include a background of the investigation and an explanation of how the honor code would operate. Afterwards, the students will be given an opportunity to ask questions and offer comments.

Everyone is urged to attend. The issue is one that affects all MTSC students.

March 3, Date For Swim Meet

The Intramural Swim Meet will be held March 3 at 7:30 p.m. at the MTSC pool, sponsored by the Health & Physical Education Department.

There will be events for both men and women in individual swim and diving events and competition between relay teams composed of four members each. All entries in the contest should be filed in the Intramural Office not later than February 28th.

ASB President Releases Budget For Spring Semester

A. W. Powell has released a budget for the spring semester for the Associated Student Body and a financial statement of receipts and disbursements for the fall semester. According to this report, the ASB plans nine spring semester Fun Nights, ten ASB movies, an appearance of Peter, Paul and Mary on April 17, a spring semester All Student Picnic, a scope speaker on March 5th, the appearance of the Town Singers on March 21st, and special entertainment for May 2nd. The estimated income for the public programs for which charge will be made and from the sale of campus pacs has been estimated to be $11,523. During the spring semester the Student Directory will be circulated to students and a ASB Banquet will be held.

The fall semester financial statement shows an expenditure of $14,700.45 with income including that part allocated from student activity funds $14,809.48.

The largest items of income came from the Smothers Brothers appearance which brought in $5,118, second to this was the receipts from the appearance of the Lettermen $3,623. The sale of T-Caps amounted to $939.21, Fun Nights amounted to $962.10, the ASB Movies brought in $427.50, Freshman Week Receipts amounted to $422.27, and college calendars $101.30.

The chief item of expenditures was the Big Name Entertainment which brought in a total of $6,641.05. The Traveling Hootenanny was the only Big Name Entertainment group that lost money during the fall attendance.

A complete break down of all ASB expenses and receipts is available in the SIDELINES Office for the inspection of students and faculty members who may be interested.

Dennis Panter, Third Student To Be Killed In Traffic Accident

Dennis Parham Panter, the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Panter, Estill Springs, became the third Middle Tennessee State College student to be killed in a traffic accident during the 1963-64 school term.

The accident occurred late Friday night when the car overturned on Highway 64-41A, at the foot of Sewanee Mountain, about two miles East of Cowan.

Panter was a 1962 graduate at Franklin County High School, Winchester, and was a star halfback on the school's football team.

Mr. Panter is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Panter of Estill Springs, a brother, the Rev. Bill Ray Panter, pastor of a Shelbyville Methodist Church and a sister, Mrs. Kenneth Amacher, also of Estill Springs.

Mr. Panter was the third MTSC student to die in traffic accidents this school year. Miss Diana Gayle Wright and Charles Stanley Hall were the other two MTSC students to be killed during the school term.

Mr. Panter's companion, Jerry Mathis, 21, of Estill Springs, is being treated at the Sewanee hospital for serious injuries received in the crash. Mathis is also an MTSC student.

Dr. Allen Organizes Young Democrats

The Young Democrats Club is presently organizing a chapter at MTSC under the sponsorship of Dr. Charlotte Allen. The club invites interested young democrats to attend their next meeting, March 3, at 4:00 in the Administration Building. Chairman of the group is Eddie Garcia, and recording-secretary is Sylvia Mathis. Other officers will be elected at a later date.

Biology Stunt Night Will Name Miss Midlander

If you would like to see the judges choose from among 28 contestants the one who will receive the title of Miss Midlander, be sure and attend the 10th Annual Biology Club Stunt Night program.

It is to be presented Thursday night, February 27 at 7:30 p.m. in the MTSC Auditorium.

Stunts for this program are to be presented by members of various on campus clubs and organizations, and the winners will receive cash prizes.

The Beauty Contest, which is to be held during the intermissions, is to be the second main feature of the night's program. One girl will be chosen to receive the coveted title of Miss Midlander which is one of the most sought after awards on campus. This contest is not based on popularity but beauty, poise, selection of apparel, neatness, smile and general appearance.

Southern Association Team Here For Evaluation, Recommendations

Climax of more than a year of hard work by faculty members comes this week with the visit by a committee of the Southern Association of Colleges to evaluate the self-study made by the faculty.

Members of the visiting committee are Dr. Charles Davis, president of Winthrop College, Rock Hill, South Carolina; Dean W. E. Lowry, Sam Houston State College, Huntsville, Texas; Dean Ralph Lyon, Livingston State College, Alabama; Mr. Dudley Fulton, director of student relations, Northwestern State, Natchitoches, La.; Professor Harris W. Dean, University of South Florida, Tampa; Dr. William Rogers Hammond, Georgia State College, Atlanta, and Mr. Gordon Gourley, Clemson College.

The group met with members of the college steering committee and department heads Sunday evening in Dining Room B for an orientation session. The visitors will maintain their offices in the Union Building.

Early in the week the visitors were interviewing faculty members, staff personnel and students after carefully studying the 171 page book prepared by committees from the college faculty. This report incorporated an overview of the purposes of the institution, financial resources, organization, educational program, the library, the faculty, student personnel, the physical plant, special activities and the Graduate School. Each of the areas were marked for recommendations for improvement.

After the committee leaves the college will make a follow-up study to implement recommendations and changes suggested by the committee.

Shannon Appointed To Supreme Court

A. W. Powell, Associated Student Body President, announced the appointment of Tim Shannon to the ASB Supreme Court.

Tim Shannon, a sophomore who has been active in many fields of student leadership, will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Jim Sutton who recently joined the Marines.

Honored guests on the MTSC campus this week are these Southern educators who represent the Southern Association of Colleges in evaluating the self-study conducted by the college for the past year. Seated, Dr. Ralph Lyon, Dr. Harris W. Dean, Dr. W. E. Lowry, Dean Dudley Fulton. Standing, Dr. Charles Davis, chairman, Dr. Quill E. Cope, Dr. W. R. Hammond, and Mr. J. W. Gordon Gourley.

Outstanding Speaker To Address Student Body

Dr. Herbert C. Mayer, who served as American Policy Officer in Berlin in 1947 and 1948 will head a list of three outstanding speakers to appear on the Middle Tennessee State College campus the second week in March, according to A. W. Powell, president of the Associated Student Body. Dr. Mayer will spend two days on the campus speaking at an assembly on Thursday morning March 12th and at various class and club meetings on April 11th and 12th. Two other speakers will appear on the program for this "Student Conference on Paramount Events" sponsored annually by the Associated Student Body.

Dr. Mayer is well known in the field of citizenship affairs. When he served as an American Policy Officer in Berlin during 1947 and 1948, he had a role in dealing with the Soviet officers as well as guiding the development of democracy in Germany. He was in Czechoslovakia during the week that the Communists took over. Few men have the intimate knowledge of the Cold War that Dr. Mayer gained during this period. He lived under the Berlin Airlift and knows the Communists from personal experiences as well as long study.

He was graduated from Oberlin College, took his master's degree from Boston University and his doctorate from Harvard. He has served on the faculty of two universities, was president of Parsons College and has served as Specialist in Higher Education in the U. S. Office of Education.

TV Art Lectures Headed By Joe Orze

Joe Orze, head of the MTSC art department, has been the recipient of numerous compliments from art students and connoisseurs for his refreshing and informative introductory lecture over TV WDCN 2 Tuesday night. In this presentation Mr. Orze grouped his remarks into the questions "What is Art?" and "Who Is an Artist."

His series will continue each Tuesday evening at 7:30 through March 17. "Originally intended for inservice training in art education service training in art education the series has proved to have such broad appeal and interest that WDCN-TV is offering it to evening viewers," the editor of Preview stated.

"In seven programs Mr. Orze will explore the general fields of art, painting, sculpture, perception, jewelry, crafts and graphic arts (printing), the article continues.

Second in the series, scheduled for Tuesday, February 11 will be entitled, "Painting." On February 18 he will demonstrate his special field of interest on sculpture in which he will give illustration from a textbook he prepared on "Art From Scrap." Art History will be the subject of the February 25 presentation.

On March 3 the program will be Graphics, March 10 on Puppets and Marionettes with the concluding number in the series entitled Jewelry and Crafts, scheduled for March 17.

Over 300 Applicants Seek Scholarships

More than 300 applicants from 45 states have sought the 70 available scholarships for the National Science Foundation Summer Institute at Middle Tennessee State College, according to Dr. Eldred Wiser, director.

Of this number fewer than 25 percent of the applicants are from Tennessee, according to Dr. Wiser. Although this is the sixth summer that such an institute for teachers of science and mathematics has been conducted on the MTSC campus, this is the second summer of operation in a three-summer sequential and multi-term support institute.

Approximately 30 participants have been selected to return to the institute already. About 18 of these returning for their second summer, and 12 for their third summer. Approximately 40 more participants will be selected to begin the institute this year and will be able to continue next summer and the following summer if National Science Foundation approves the MTSC proposal for 1966.

The institute begins June 8 and ends August 21. This coincides with the regular summer school.

Profs Show Talent

Middle Tennessee State College teachers proved that there was a diversity of faculty talent in the presentation of an annual faculty program at the college assembly Thursday Feb. 13.

The program opened with two beautifully rendered organ solos "Nola and Liebestraum" by Miss Barbara Luff and moved at a rapid tempo through a rendition of five German folksongs by Mrs. Ortrun Gilbert; Mrs. Harriet Patterson, vocalist; Miss Virginia Derryberry and Charles Dean's presentation of a humorous skit, Jimmy Crawford with humorous monologues, Thomas Moore on the violin, climaxed by Ed Baldwin's variety musical presentation of "Blue Moods."

Mrs. Gilbert was assisted by Armin Windemueller, with guitar and Mike Getsi, accordion; and members of the Die Deutschen Kameraden, The German Club. Mrs. Harriet Patterson was accompanied by Mrs. Mary Scott. Mr. Moore gave "Serenade Schubert" assisted by Raymond Bills at the piano.

The master of ceremonies, Perry Potts, interspersed the skits with humorous campus gossip and personal soliloquies.

Freshman Students Seek Class Support In All Activities

by Marlene Billingsley

It has come to the attention of the freshman class officers that there are many students who know little about the activities of the freshman class.

As a rule, the freshman compose the largest class on campus. This year is no exception to that rule. The officers of this year's class are: President, William Boner; Vice-President, Gary Bickford; Secretary, Lana Plum; and Sergeant-at-arms, Kay Miller. The Congressmen are Butch Baker and Wilson Bomar.

Since the freshman were not allowed to elect their officers until late in the Fall Semester, they have not had the chance to accomplish much. But the officers have high hopes for getting many things done.

The Freshman have sold cokes at several Fun Nights and are going to sponsor the St. Patrick's Day Fun Night, March 17. The Freshman also sponsored a float for the Homecoming Parade. Carolyn Chambers was elected as the Freshman Homecoming attendant. Martha Lunn and Carol Sledge were elected as class Beauties.

The attendance at the class meetings has been relatively small. Why do not more students support their officers and their class? This question has been asked many times by the officers, and only the students know the answer.

A class is no better than the students who support it. The officers have many things planned for the class to do, but none of these can be accomplished with any success if the freshman do not support the class meetings.

If any student, freshman or upperclassman, has any suggestions that would help to better the freshman class, please put the suggestions in Box 1958. All suggestions will be carefully considered.

SNEA Members Will Appear On Radio

Four Middle Tennessee State College students will appear on Murfreesboro radio in a series of programs for Teaching Career Month in April. The programs will be taped. The speakers will be Mrs. Betty Leming Wjotaker, Winchester; Joe L. Rockett, Nashville, Miss Mary Steiner, Bell Buckle and Roy Johnson, Smyrna.

Teaching Forms Due

All students who expect to do student teaching at MTSC next year, either in the spring or fall semesters, should file applications by March 26, according to Dr. Edgar Batey, director of student teaching.

Application forms for this purpose may be obtained from the office of Dr. Batey in Room 117 of the Administration Building.

Delegates Meet At MTSC To Form Regional Judging League

Advisors and delegates from six Tennessee Valley Colleges met at Middle Tennessee State College Feb. 14-15 to organize the Southern Regional Live Stock and Dairy Judging Contest League.

Plans were formulated for the first of semiannual Live Stock Judging Contest to be held at Middle Tennessee State College this spring semester with the date to be set later. There will be several classes for dairy cattle, beef cattle, sheep, and swine.

At the initial meeting no constitution or bylaws were adopted pending a one trial period to determine the necessary regulations for conducting the league. It was decided to create a board of directors consisting of one voting delegate and the advisors from each of the member schools and that meetings would be held semi-annually. The charter members of the league are Austin Peay State, Berea College of Kentucky, Middle Tennessee State College, Murray State, Tennessee Tech, and U.T. Martin Branch. Other colleges in the Tennessee Valley area which maintain departments of agriculture may apply for admission to the league.

Advisors from the member schools are as follows: James D. Hamilton, head of the agriculture department Austin Peay; Clyde L. Lewis, superintendent of the Poultry Farm, Berea College; Earl Young, assistant professor of agriculture, MTSC; Arlie Scott, professor of animal husbandry, Murray State College; B. T. Parham, superintendent of the farm laboratory at Tennessee Tech; Harry Henderson, instructor U.T. Martin Branch.

Mary Ann Blankenship, secretary of the MTSC Block and Bridle Club was secretary for the first league meetings. Delegates from MTSC were Bill Brittain, Johnny Neel, Ralph Smith and Henry Blankenship. Delegates from Austin Peay State College were Paul Dickens, Billy Gilkey and Charles Bond. Berea College sent Douglas Perry and Ira H. Lynville, Jr. The delegates from Tennessee Tech were David T. Best and John Swafford. U.T. Martin Branch was represented by Paul Smith, Johnny Vickers and Jimmy Dyer. There were no student delegates from Murray State.

Lee To Represent MTSC At Portland

John Lee, sponsor of the Student NEA Chapter at Middle Tennessee State College, will represent the college at the meeting of the Association of Childhood Education International at Portland, Oregon, March 29 through April 2nd. Mr. Lee will serve for Miss Mary Hall on the public affairs committee and has been designated as the resource person for a group meeting.

Mr. Lee will accompany Hilary Parker, director of the Campus school; Mrs. Andreana Briney, and Dr. Mary Tom Berry to the Professors of the Elementary Education Conference at the University of Tennessee on February 27-29. There they will examine the progress made in the "two year look" at educational methods and curriculum needs being conducted by the professors of elementary education.

500th Circle K Club Is Chartered

The 500th Circle K club, located on the campus of Washburn University, Topeka, Kansas, was chartered in special ceremonies at the Jayhawk Hotel, Topeka, Saturday evening, February 1, according to Mike Milom, President of the Circle K Club of Middle Tennessee State College.

John H. de Boisblanc, a freshman at Louisiana State University School of Law, and President of Circle K International, spoke briefly. He described the chartering as the "attainment of a significant milestone in the career of Circle K International which, though only 10 years old, has already become the largest campus service organization in North America."

What Can We Do For Depressed Appalachian?

Why can't 100 members of the faculty or 100 members of the Dames Club pledge one dollar a month for twelve months to provide a scholarship, wardrobe and necessities for some boy or girl graduating from one of the high schools in this region who has no possible hope of going to college?

There are at least six church groups on the campus that meet regularly. Could these young people go back to the home congregations and get pledges of one dollar each month from 100 members?

How about all the organizations on the campus? There must be forty of these. Would some of these "service" fraternities catch the vision, too?

There are political clubs that decry "too many government handouts". If those embryonic politicians believe in practicing their preaching why shouldn't these join in a "rugged individualistic enterprise" of personal aid to Appalachia?

How about those dedicated souls on our campus who plan to join the Peace Corps? Would they consider teaching or working in the Appalachian area for two years—contributing their skills in starting handicraft, co-operatives or some small local "Bootstrap operation"?

Dean Martha Hampton knows the area. She knows the people. She could supervise and have Dean N. C. Beasley administer it on an incognito basis.

Other Ohio Valley Colleges would likely respond. There are 25 colleges east of the Tennessee river in this State alone. There are 21 colleges and universities in the Kentucky Appalachia area.

All we need is organization.

Keathley Delineates Court Rules

Dean Belt Keathley and members of the Supreme Court met recently to formulate the following set of policies which are to delineate the areas of responsibility for the A.S.B. Supreme Court.

In a letter to the A.S.B. President, Dean Keathley outlined the following responsibilities of the court as determined in that meeting. The court shall:

1. Have representation at meeting of the Faculty Discipline Committee.
2. Serve in place of the Men's Dormitory Council if such a need should arise prior to the election of the Dormitory Council in the early fall.
3. Rule on the constitutionality of laws created by Congress in the event that such laws are questioned concerned constitutionality.
4. Receive appeals from the lower courts. (The lower courts are the Men and Women's Dormitory Councils and any student may appeal a decision of either of these courts to the Supreme Court.)

5. Hold judgement in all student offenders at athletic contests (at home and away,) at student entertainments, Fun Night, etc.
6. Hold in judgement all students who create unwholesome situations on the campus outside of the dormitories, except in the immediate vicinity of the Men and Women's Halls where the dormitory councils normally have jurisdiction.
7. Judge offenses occurring off campus which are referred to the Supreme Court by the Dean of Students.

Any student who is dissatisfied with a decision of a lower court may appeal to the Supreme court, likewise, a decision of the Supreme Court may be appealed to either the Dean of Students or the Faculty Disciplinary Committee. In all instances the right is reserved to the Dean of Students to alter any of the above situations in the light of the individual case.

Marriage Takes On Unique View

A refreshing approach to a traditional institution; marriage, may be found in Anne Morrow Lindbergh's "Dearly Beloved." The marriage ceremony of Sally and Mark becomes a unique symbol to each of the characters in the story.

The theme is for everyone for it tends to affect those present at the wedding and it also relates to our own situations. It is not a romantic story of an entanglement but one of revealed feelings of the people therein. Some may consider it a dull recap of happenings only if the true picture of marriage relations lies uncovered.

The reactions to this ceremony of life may be our own personal reactions. Anne Lindbergh stimulates her characters with honesty, wisdom and affirmation.

Frank Glass' Interests Include Military, Teaching, Flying

By Cokie Jackson

Stepping front and center to the spotlight, Sidelines proudly salutes Frank Glass.

Frank is an advanced fourth year MTSC cadet and ranks as First Lieutenant and also Company Commander of Headquarters, First Battalion. He has been designated as a Distinguished Military Student, this being an honor bestowed upon only those who exhibit outstanding qualities of leadership, skill, and interest in the Army ROTC program. He has also been selected for the Army's cadet flight training program and will soon complete the requirements of this course and become an Army pilot.

Frank is a 21 year old senior from Kissimmee, Florida. He is majoring in physical education and minoring in biology. Aside from carrying seventeen hours this semester, Frank is a part-time physical education teacher at a local elementary school and coaches a basketball team at another local school.

With all of these activities Frank still reserves some of his time and leadership abilities for campus organizations. He is a member of the Inter-Presidents Council and is Chairman of the Dormitory Council of Judd Hall. He serves on the Board of Directors of Circle K and is a member of the P.E. Club, Track

Flash-on Shots

by Ernestine Harris

Thoughts are beginning to turn in the direction of spring even though the weather is showing no indication of similar actions.

Sophisticated, practical, and wearable are words which easily describe this jacket-dress of worsted wool.

Fashion lines have no control in ensembles for spring. Waistlines are discovered dramatically below the waistline, capturing the natural waistline or rising to an empire waist. All can be described as strictly feminine as can the overall look for spring. On this attractive ensemble the waistline creeps just below the natural waistline giving a carefree look to the costume.

Basic straight lines are followed in the dress design. The collarless neckline lends itself to various types of accessories. Beauty in a special way is the true look in this ensemble.

On with the jacket and one has an outfit which can be worn anywhere. Tailored lines are placed on the hip-length jacket by the use of French darts and bound button holes. Indispensable is this jacket dress in anyone's wardrobe.

Ann Walker, a junior social science major from Manchester, is this week's feature model.

and Sabre Club, and SNEA.

Frank came to MTSC after graduating from high school to play football for the Raiders. He was unfortunately sidelined because of injuries and was no longer able to participate. However, he had developed a loyalty to MTSC and decided to continue his education here.

Frank plans to graduate in August and attend graduate school at MTSC this fall. He then plans to serve three years with the United States Army, after which he will return to Florida to teach and coach in secondary schools.

Again we salute Frank Glass!

Perry Dillon Brings Experience Talent To Campus Dramatics, Language Dept.

By Mary Dean Bigger

New to the MTSC campus but not to the world is Mr. Perry Dillon, who's interests center around travel and drama.

Mr. Dillon did his undergraduate work at Henderson State College in Arkansas, where he majored in English and French, while there, he won a scholarship to study at Oxford for a summer. This enabled him to do quite a bit of travelling in Europe. His interest in drama won him honors in that field. He became a member of Theta Alpha Phi, the national dramatics fraternity and served as vice president of the Masquers.

While at Henderson, he exhibited an interest and ability in other areas. To name a few, he was president of the French club, he served on the annual and paper staffs, he was a member of the Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity, and one of the top four honor students in English. As a reward for his outstanding scholastic ability, he was elected to the Alpha Chi honorary fraternity and to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. He was recognized for his contributions to the college by being asked to join the Heart and Key honorary service organization.

Mr. Dillon continued his studies in graduate school at the University of Arkansas. During his course of study he went to Liege, Belgium, for a year as a Fulbright Exchange Student in Comparative Literature. He also received the highest honor for scholastic excellence, membership in the Phi Beta Kappa national fraternity. All his doctorate work has been completed except for his dissertation which he will do on 20th Century French, English, and American Drama.

Since arriving at MTSC, he was already contributed in many ways to campus life. He has played in several dramas at the drama club meetings, two of which are The Zoo Story and The Sandbox. His interest in this sort of thing has served to stimulate a students interest in this direction.

One of his most important contributions is the organizing of an active French Club. This has proven to be a source of learning and entertainment for students of the French language here at MTSC. The success of the French Club is not surprising to Mr. Dillon. He states as one reason, "I feel that MTSC students are becoming more aware of the importance of the study of language. I have been more than pleased with the enthusiastic response of students concerning not only the French language itself, but French culture, literature, politics."

Mr. Dillon has no definite plans for the future except to get in as much travelling as possible. At the present his sights are set for a visit to Greece. With his outstanding ability in so many fields, we can rest assured that he will go far.

Jose Melis Will Present Popular "Music For Tonight" Free March 16

All indications point to a capacity crowd when piano virtuoso, Jose Melis brings his "Music for Tonight" concert to MTSC, Monday, March 16 at 8 o'clock, it was announced today by Dr. Ed Baldwin, director of public programs for the college.

Melis will mix the classical with the popular, running the musical gamut from works by Mendelssohn, Chopin and Weber to ballads, novelties, polkas, rolling ragtime and his infinite stock of keyboard variations on tunes from Latin America.

With a little urging on the part of the audience, Melis will also compose new tunes based on telephone numbers popped at him by members of the audience. He simply translates the numbers into musical notes, adds a beat and harmony, and a new composition is born. He will also, as a musical spoof, take a popular tune and play it as if it had been written by one of the masters—like "Yankee Doodle" in the manner of Mozart.

This is a college sponsored lyceum number for which no admission charge is made for MTSC students and their friends.

Rules of Etiquette Help To Eliminate Daily Problems

By Elaine Haley

Rules of etiquette are made in order to enhance the pleasures of life. At sometime most students are confronted with problems as to what should they do in a particular situation.

In an attempt to be a success as an expert or etiquette, I am answering some typical problems of college students.

When a gentleman asks a lady for a date, he never asks her in the presence of other men.

When a gentleman asks a lady for a date, he should suggest the place that they will go and the time. Then a girl can accept or refuse without being placed in an awkward situation as she might be if he calls and says, "What are you doing tomorrow evening?"

If a young lady visits her fellow at college, she pays her bus fare to and from the college, her lodgings, and meals she eats alone. The boy assumes the expenses of corsages, recreation, and the meals he eats with her.

Ladies first is usually the motto, but there are occasions when the young man walks ahead of his date. One is down the aisle in a theater, and another is in a crowd.

When a young couple go for a stroll on the sidewalk, a gentleman walks between his date and the street. When crossing the street the young man should extend his elbow and aid his lady friend in crossing to safety.

A gentleman always helps his date with her wrap, but the young lady should aid him by having the coat ready to hand to her escort.

When a young man takes his date to dinner, he should be prepared to assume the expenses of anything she might order. A good suggestion is for the boy to recommend some particular meal within the price range he prefers to pay. The young lady should order a medium-priced dinner—never the most expensive meal. Neither should she order the cheapest meal on the menu.

The MTSC Home Economics Chapter was recently represented at a mid-state workshop held at David Lipscomb College in Nashville. Those attending included Sarah Long, Betty Robinson, Charlotte Ray, Judy Smith, Linda Markus, Linda Duke, Ernestine Harris, Carolyn Simmons, Ann Powell, Nancy Hamner, Faye Cannon, Joy Armstrong, Linda Davis, Donna Greenfield and advisor, Mrs. Miles McMillan. Portions of the workshop were televised by WSM-TV and WLAC-TV.

At the local February chapter meeting Mrs. Lornell Baker of Goldstein's Department Store in Murfreesboro was guest speaker. Mrs. Baker presented a summary about "What's Fashion News for Spring."

Carolyn Gwaltney was recently elected Miss Home Economics for 1963-64. A senior from Murfreesboro, Carolyn has been active in the chapter as first vice-president of Kappa Omicron Phi and will represent MTSC in the state competition for Miss Home Economics.

Plans for Career Day to be held on March 11 are being made at present by the executive board. Letters have been sent to area high schools inviting seniors interested in attending MTSC to attend.

Members of the Pre-engineering Society accompanied the Industrial Arts Club on a tour through the Genesco Plant and AVCO in Nashville, and Swayder Brothers Company in Murfreesboro on February 11. Three of the pre-engineering freshmen applying for the University of Tennessee Co-operative Engineering Scholarship Program have tentatively qualified by exceeding the minimum 2.75 quality point average while carrying the full 18 semester hour pre-engineering course of study. They are James Morris Hicks, Don Edward McCord, and Charles Gilbert Rains.

Miss Sandra Wynn, a sophomore cheerleader from Nashville, will reign as Queen of the ROTC Military Ball to be held Friday evening, April 3, in the Memorial gymnasium.

Miss Wynn was chosen by the Track and Sabre Club members at a recent meeting from the fourteen Brigade Sponsors who are; Connie Darnell, Shelbyville; Carolyn Summar, Murfreesboro; Carol Sledge, Nashville; Doris Anderson, Gallatin; Lucia Cordell, McMinnville; Ann Norman, Chattanooga; Mary Smith, Springfield; Rebecca Salisbury, Murfreesboro; Linda Redmon, Eagleville; Sue Justice, Daisy; Brenda Thomas, Manchester; Fran Davidson, Lawrenceburg; Rena Land, Smyrna.

Music for this annual social will be provided by Blue Baron from Chicago, Illinois.

Tickets will go on sale in approximately one week. The tickets will sell for $6.00 per couple, with members of the Track and Sabre Club admitted free with their dates. Watch for further details concerning Blue Baron and the theme of the Ball.

Miss Putman Named ASAWI President

Miss Margaret Putman, head of the home economics department at Middle Tennessee State College, was elected President of the Association of Southern Agricultural Workers, Inc. at the convention at the Biltmore Hotel, Atlanta, Georgia this week.

She will serve on the ASAW Board of Directors with the presidents from four other sections: Horticulture, Marketing, Phytopathology and Plant Physiology with the general chairman, Dr. W. L. Giles, Mississippi State University.

The Home Economics section is composed of 175 leaders from 13 Southern states and Puerto Rico. The Home Economics program this year related to research and home economics curriculums.

Dr. Smotherman is Guest Speaker

Five technical societies at Arnold Engineering Development Center launched the "Engineer's Week" celebration at a kickoff breakfast Monday morning at which Dr. Bealer Smotherman, director of the Aerospace Workshop at MTSC was the principal speaker. About 200 engineers and educators from the area attended the breakfast.

Dr. Smotherman, who heads the audio-visual laboratory at MTSC is president of the Tennessee Education Association and the Public School Officers Association of Tennessee.

10% Increase In Summer Jobs

There is an increase of approximately 10% in summer jobs through the United States available to students and teachers in 1964 over last year, according to Mrs. Mynena Leith, Editor, "Summer Employment Directory." The greatest increase is found in summer camps (particularly camps for exceptional children), summer theatres, and resorts in the New England and North-Central states.

A limited number of jobs are open at the New York World's Fair.

The 1964 "Summer Employment Directory" lists 35,000 specific summer job opportunities all over the country, name and address of the employers which offer them, salary, and a sample letter of application and personal data sheet to assist in making application.

Students who would like to obtain an individual copy may ask for "Summer Employment Directory" at the MTSC bookstore or order by mail from National Directory Service, Box 32065, Dept. C, Cincinnati, Ohio 45232.

Raiders Have First Winning Season On Court In Six Yrs. With WK Score

With a successful 9-3 home basketball season concluded, the Blue Raiders of Middle Tennessee State wound up the season Monday night at TPI.

The Raiders were assured of a winning season by their 93-84 victory over Western Kentucky last Tuesday night in their home finale. The victory was the eleventh of the season against eight losses, and pushed their OVC record to 5-7. This is the first time the Raiders have won over four games in the conference, but the entry of Austin Peay this season made possible one of the wins.

MTSC's Friday night duel at the Eastern Kentucky team. Eastern won 92-80. The Raiders upset the Maroons 83-73 here on February 13. In that contest, center Ray Kempf poured in 24 points, while forward Larry Stewart ripped the nets for 23.

The Raiders have won five of their past seven contests. In addition to their latest wins against Eastern and Western, they downed Florence State, Morehead State, and Chattanooga. Their two losses were to East Tennessee and Murray State.

Larry Stewart, who will be closing out a brilliant two years of play with the Raiders, continues to pace the scoring with 344 points for an 18.1 average. The 6-3 forward has scored 769 points in two seasons, not including the last two road games. His first two years were with Itawamba Junior College.

Center Ray Kempf has moved up in the scoring parade, and is now sporting a 15.5 average with 29 points. He also leads the team in rebounds with a 9.7 average per game.

Other double figure scorers for the Bluemen include forwards Jim Spencer (14.6) and Mike Milholland (13.7) and Phil Meadows (10.1).

25 PE Majors Attend Convention

Twenty-five physical education majors will attend a convention in Jacksonville, Florida during the week of February 27-March 2. Those attending will bring back information to our P.E. Club concerning the different workshops they take part in. At present, enrollment for MTSC in the Tennessee State Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation is barely below Tech's. Our aim being to surpass them, the club is presently working on enrollment. Incidentally, membership for Tech students is required while at MTSC it is optional.

As to who won the yelling contest between the Circle K Club and "T" Club at the last home basketball game last week, no one is really sure. One thing for certain, however, is that you can't beat those "T" Club cheerleaders.

THE SLOW RUSH

Illustrated below is the membership pin of a brand-new national fraternity called Signa Phi Nothing. To join Signa Phi Nothing and get this hideous membership pin absolutely free, simply take a pair of scissors, cut out the illustration, and paste it on your chest.

Let me hasten to state that I do not recommend your joining Signa Phi Nothing. The only thing I recommend in this column is Marlboro Cigarettes, as any honest man would who likes good tobacco and a good filter, whose heart is quickened by a choice of soft pack or Flip-Top Box, and who gets paid every week for writing this column.

I am frankly hard put to think of any reason why you should join Signa Phi Nothing. Some people, of course, are joiners by nature; if you are one such, I am bound to tell you there are any number of better organizations for you to join—the Cosa Nostra, for example, or the Society for the Placing of Water Troughs in Front of Equestrian Statues.

cut it out and paste it on your chest

But if you insist on joining Signa Phi Nothing, let me give you several warnings. First off, it is the only fraternity which admits girls. Second, there is no pledge period; each new member immediately goes active. Perhaps "inactive" is a more accurate word: there are no meetings, no drives, no campaigns, no sports, no games, no dues, no grip, and no house.

The only thing Signa Phi Nothing has in common with other fraternities is a fraternity hymn. In fact, two hymns were submitted to a recent meeting of the national board of directors (none of whom attended). The first hymn goes:

*Signa Phi Nothing,
Shining star,
How we wonder
If you are.*

The second hymn, rather more poetic in content, is to be sung to the tune of Also Sprach Zarathustra:

*A Guernsey's a cow,
A road is a lane,
When you're eating chow,
Remember the mein.*

Pending the next meeting of the national board of directors (which will never be held) members are authorized to sing either hymn. Or, for that matter, Frenesi.

Perhaps you are wondering why there should be such a fraternity as Signa Phi Nothing. I can give you an answer—an answer with which you cannot possibly disagree: Signa Phi Nothing fills a well-needed gap.

Are you suffering from mental health? Is logic distorting your thinking? Is ambition encroaching on your native sloth? Is your long-cherished misinformation retreating before a sea of facts? In short, has education caught up with you?

If so, congratulations. But spring is upon us and the sap is rising, and the mind looks back with poignant longing to the days when it was a puddle of unreason.

If—just for a moment—you want to recapture those careless vaporings, that warm, squishy confusion, then join Signa Phi Nothing and renew your acquaintance with fecklessness. We promise nothing, and, by George, we deliver it!

© 1964 Max Shulman

We, the makers of Marlboro Cigarettes, promise smoking enjoyment, and we think you'll think we deliver it—in all fifty states of this Union. Marlboro Country is where you are.

SIGMA CLUB

February—Poems Of Love

The last issue of the Sidelines (February 5, 1964) contained a full page of the poetry of Jerre Don Hookey; we of the Sigma Club hope that you enjoyed the presentation. In this issue we return to our customary format of variety and contrast.

Since the month is February, the month of St. Valentine, we have included a selection of poems which deals with the theme of love; but which embraces the ironic, the commemorative, the mundane, and the satirical, as well as the romantic, aspects of that pervasively popular theme.

Two of our authors, rmb and A. W. Powell, have seen their work published here in the past. The three remaining, however, are newcomers to the Sigma Club column. We hope that you will enjoy the interesting seduction of Frost which Carlos White accomplishes, the loneliness of "JCC" as he contemplates "A Rejection" and the magnificence of sorrow as it is depicted by David Paul Bissell.

Again we remind those of you who have written prose or poetry that, if you wish to have them considered for publication in this column of the Sidelines, you may submit them to Box 1262, MTSC post office.

(UNTITLED)

Love came on cat-feet
like the fog.
It took me unaware.
I knew not that it was there,
Or when it came or how it came,
Or from where.
And so like the fog when the sun shines hot
It faced and vanished
And slid silently away.
My eyes that once were blinded
As if by the fog
Now could see
And I knew not which way to go
Or what to say.
But now I can smile and say to my heart,
"The fog has lifted."
Carlos White

OF THE HEART

Hunger is the heart's robe
Wherein she is dressed
Thirst is a red rose
Pinned to her dress.
Hope is her coronet
Barbed by her fears
Love is her only bread
Wet with her tears.
A. W. Powell

"INEFFABLE"

Treble the ear a thousand times
Beckon the heart to a spirit mammoth
Clamor up those steps to mind's abode
And tell him his beauty is in distress.
For—and what a shame it is
The streets are so peculiar to the night
The night is so ruptured from its form
The form is furloughed forever in the mad.
Hours compound into strokes of tears as
Rains ensue in the dark blitheless night
And trickle down cheeks stolid and glum
To wet the vestments of the heart.
Let him down easy, soldier
Soldier of red, white and blue
Let him down easy, cushion the last blow
And John John will take it from there, good man,
And John John will take it from there.

David Paul Bissell

Evening dusk,
Small town sounds,
Children's voices playing games,
Quiet cars swishing by,
Silent time passing.
These thoughts that come in a dusky hour
Will soon be gone in a pre-date shower.

ALL IS AWE

In this age of modern, cold feet nonconformity is afraid of beat—the new is upbraided
the old is re-raided, slipping downward sliding slithering
past the point of all forgiving;
and never once is raised a head to see that all is long past dead.

A REJECTION

Smile at me.
I know I shall explode
With wanting to tell you that.
The sun rises each morning,
African violets like sunshine,
Water is a sparkling liquid, and
I love you.
Will you tell me that:
You live at the foot of a mountain,
You own no African violets,
And prefer beer—
And so must doubt the last?
Or worse—will it be as of Little Consequence?

CHURCH NEWS

Church Groups Invite Students To Attend Scheduled Activities

The Wesley Foundation has selected officers for the new semester by changing the duties of officers in the council. Marcia Emmert is President; Betty Batts, Vice-President; Rose Ann Conner, Secretary; Betty Jane Spry, Worship Chairman; Carolyn Moore, Chat 'N Chew Chairman; Tom Swift, Treasurer; Mary Hill Stone, Music Chairman; Virginia McMahon, Publicity Chairman; and Joan Bates, Confrere Editor.

Wesley will continue to hold Communion Services at 5:30 on Monday nights at the Wesley Center across from Rutledge Hall. Tuesday night at 5:00, you will find a group of hungry students eating their own cooking at Chat 'N Chew.

Wednesday night the students meet on campus in room 302 in the Student Union Building. Upcoming topics include the race issue in the church, and a film

"Raisin in the Sun." Check the bulletin board in the administration building across from the Dean of Students office for information concerning the weekly programs. The latest issue of "Confrere" is just out and if you are not on the mailing list and would like to be included please mail your name to box 1095.

You are always welcome at Wesley. Come join us!

During the week of March 2-5, the MTSC Newman Club will present a literary display in the Todd Library in order to observe Catholic Book Week. Among the literary works on display will be pamphlets, novels, and spiritual autobiographies that will be available free of charge throughout the week so that students may inquire and understand some of the basic teachings of the Church.

The Westminster Fellowship is enjoying fellowship, food, and fun together this year. The widely varied programs consist of discussions, guest speakers, and films. On February 26, the group has planned a film on "Brotherhood"; Saturday, March 7, a picnic and hayride; and on March 11 a discussion on "prayer." There is also a retreat coming up on the first weekend in April at Montgomery Bell State Park.

Moderator William Sikes, sophomore from Murfreesboro, has been nominated for Treasurer of the Synod of Tennessee, one of the highest positions in the state.

Continuing the series of lectures on the differing denominations, the SCU will have as its guest a renowned minister from the Nashville District to speak to the group on the first Wednesday night in March. The discussion will be based on the basic doctrines of the Methodist Church.

The guerilla tactic of repelling is demonstrated in a cliff maneuver at the Cedar Forest. The same exhibition was made from the rafters of the gym last Thursday. In foreground Edward G. Alexander, Sale Creek; Background John C. Fuqua.

Forrest Raiders Invade Park For ROTC Week-end Bivouac

The stillness of Cedars of Lebanon State Park was broken by the bursts of machine guns and M-1 Rifles during the recent week-end bivouac of the ROTC Department's Forrest Raiders.

The proud, beret-wearing team left on Friday evening, Jan 31, complete with packs, entrenching tools, canteens, machetes, a communications radio, and their trusty M-1's. Thanks to the excellent planning and preparation done by members of the cadre, the Raiders got a first-hand look at some of the problems which they might encounter after going on active duty. Surprise ambushes proved to be exciting, hair-raising, interesting and beneficial to each member who was present. Day and night patrols were run by various squads.

"Casualties" received appropriate first aid treatment and were carried on improvised litters made from the material at hand. For many members it was their first encounter with "C" Rations, the Army's answer to picnics. Every member took part in the rappelling exercise on Saturday morning, Feb. 1. High cliffs are no longer a problem for the Forrest Raiders thanks to the art of rappelling.

The Forrest Raiders returned on Saturday evening, Feb. 1, with their eyes and thoughts set toward the next bivouac. Through the hard work of Major John L. McConaughy, Raider Advisor, and his assistants, the Forrest Raiders gained invaluable experience and knowledge on this bivouac. Every Forrest Raider is eagerly awaiting each of the trips to come in the future.

The following men who have been awarded the black beret participated; Paul D. Hutchins, Manchester, Tennessee, James H. Cantrell, McMinnville, Tennessee, James M. O'Bryan, Springfield, Tennessee, Randle W. Hill, Nashville, Tennessee, John E. Fuqua, Nashville, Tennessee, Wallace P. Thacker, Goodlettsville, Tennessee, Edward G. Alexander, Sale Creek, Tennessee, John Furgess Jr., Nashville, Tennessee, Albert C. Ogles, Murfreesboro, Tennessee, Samuel E. Weatherspoon, Centerville, Tennessee, John W. Allen, Tullahoma, Tennessee. Also participating were five men who have not yet completed the training requirements for receiving a beret. They are; James C. Brandon, Chattanooga, Tennessee, Henry C. Butner, Manchester, Tennessee, Jay R. Whitcomb, Murfreesboro, Tennessee, William G. Hill, Shelbyville, Tennessee, Jerry E. Owens, Doraville, Georgia.

Sigma Club Scholarship Fund Offers Financial Assistance

The Sigma Club, MTSC's honorary organization for men, has as a traditional project the maintenance of the Sigma Club Scholarship Fund. The members of the Club this year have undertaken to add to the fund by asking the Sigma alumni members by letter to contribute to the fund.

The club began the fund several years ago and has continued to add to it periodically by donations from its alumni members. The fund, until three years ago, was administered by the executive committee of the Board of Trustees of the Sigma Club who determined those students eligible to use it on a loan basis.

Now the fund has been turned over to the Middle Tennessee State College Loan, Scholarship and Development Foundation. Dean N. C. Beasley, Secretary-Treasurer, administers this Fund, determining the degree of need of the student requesting its use and then following the student's development until they become financially able to pay back the loan.

At the present, those students desiring to use the fund must have a 2.5 quality point average. If you are one of those students seeking financial assistance, the Sigma Club wants you to know that assistance for those qualifying is available by contacting Dean Beasley of the administration. Or, if the Sigma Club can be of help in your obtaining financial assistance, you should contact the President of the Club, MTSC Box 584.

The club hopes to continue building this fund and make it available to more students in the future as MTSC continues to grow.

Meyllan Judd Wins First

Meylland Judd of Murfreesboro won first place in the women's original oratory in the Tennessee Intercollegiate Speech Tournament held at Tennessee Tech the week-end of Feb. 14.

In the men's debate Ernie Cioffi and Bobby Freeman won four of five rounds. Linda Foley was a finalist in after dinner speaking for women.

DORM NEWS

LYON HALL by Mandy Gentry

As the new semester began, there was an exchange of roommates and a remodeling of rooms. The new, but gradually becoming familiar, faces of Elsie Mefford, Jo Ann Moss, Beth Morrissey, and Becky Tassey are a pleasant addition to our dormitory.

Several "oohs" and "Ahhs" were heard from enthusiastic "Beatle fans" (Sandy Farless, Dixie Jackson, and Sandy Conatser) as they eagerly watched the Ed Sullivan show.

The "Beatle" craze has really taken over—beetles are no longer crawling along on the ground, but they're sitting in the chair next to you, walking along beside you, and eating next to you. In short—They're here!

McHENRY HALL

Hi everybody!

Well, it seems as if "Beatlemania" has hit McHenry Hall. Finding a seat in the lobby on Sunday night is an almost impossibility, especially if Penny Pennington, Carolyn Chambers, and Lisa Rodgers beat you there.

Girls, if you happen to see to hugh bundles that resemble ghosts walking around on first floor, don't get excited. It's just Jane Blevins and Mary Ann Cameron. It seems they are affected with room switching.

If all the girls in McHenry appear to be gaining a few pounds, this can be explained possibly with the fact that Priscilla Palmer received a forty pound box of candy for Valentine. A reminder to the boys coming to McHenry—be careful when you sit down in the lobby. It could be possible that Sharron Barrett, Carolyn O'Neal, Carolyn Painter, or Charlotte Stacey has left a few of their knitting needles lying around in various places. It appears that Linda Wood's interest has moved to another college campus—Sewanee. Now, say boys, are you going to stand around and let this continue?

McHenry possibly has the best coiffured girls on campus—thanks to two girls who moved in this semester—Linda Smith and Gracy Aiken. It seems that they have a regular beauty shop on third floor.

Well, that's about it for this issue—must say bye! So bye!

SCHART HALL By Marcia Emmert

As a part of our leap year program for the SCPAM (Society for the Capture and Preservation of Available Males), a group of girls from ground floor are carrying on a physical fitness program. Each night slinky dark figures can be seen sacrificing their valuable time to modern dance exercises. Beside them there is usually a group of tumblers, and there are always a few stray exercisers along the halls and in the rooms. The regular cadence of 1-2-3-4, 2-2-3-4, etc., has become the theme song of ground floor.

Faye Scott has been trying valiantly to improve herself by swimming, but she has not been progressing as quickly as she would like. She sinks to the bottom of the pool whenever she gets in.

A serious threat to our physical well-being has caused us all to realize how truly important it is to be in good physical condition. Our dorm has been gravely threatened with an epidemic of that dreaded disease—three-day measles. Pat Weathers is the unlucky victim. She has been placed in confinement—sent home—in an effort to quell the spreading of those subversive germs.

Second floor girls are enlisting the help of a supernatural power that dwells in their midst to drive off all germs. That power is none other than Lucifer himself who has taken the form of Mary Anna Carey. Mary Anna read the part of Lucifer in a presentation of Dr. Faustus recently. Since then smoke has been seen rising from under her door, and consequently doubts have been cast upon her true nature. She has been under constant surveillance, and she is suspected of having bewitched Barbara Freeman, who was seen taking a shower in her suede coat recently.

But rain, snow, sleet, or fair, the SCPAM will carry on—look out males, this may very well be a more serious threat than the pumas.

119 Students Now Practicing Teaching

One hundred and nineteen Middle Tennessee State College students are engaged in student teaching during the Spring semester according to Dr. Edgar Beaty, director of student teaching at the College.

These students are teaching in high schools at Shelbyville, Woodbury, Manchester, Antioch, Donelson, DuPont, Glencliff, Hillwood, Maplewood, Two Rivers, Franklin, Lebanon, Forrest High at Chapel Hill, Central High at Columbia, Whithorne Junior High at Columbia, Moore County High, Murfreesboro, Kittrell, Lascassas, Rockvale, Smyrna, and Walter Hill.

In addition to secondary school students, those interested in elementary school work are teaching under the direction of Hilary Parvising teacher in the area in which the teaching is being done. Teacher at the MTSC Campus School, Murfreesboro city schools, Tullahoma and Shelbyville.

These students will spend two months in an actual classroom experience under the supervision of a regular teacher. Each student will return to the campus once each week for a seminar and will be visited at the school in which they are doing internship at irregular intervals by the MTSC super-
