

Campus Awaits Supremes Show

April 20 is the big day! Perhaps the biggest Big Name Entertainment ever to hit MTSU will be here in form of the sensational SUPREMES.

The old expression, "three's a crowd," can in many ways be applied to three most attractive young ladies — Diana Ross, Mary Wilson and Florence Ballard. Wherever in the world the three appear a crowd is certain to be on hand, since the trio, known collectively as THE SUPREMES, is the leading female vocal group in the music world today.

THE SUPREMES are now in the enviable position of having had three consecutive recordings — "Where Did Our Love Go," "Baby Love" and "Come See About Me" — reach the number one spot on the sales charts. All of this happened in a three-month period, during which they sold in excess of three million records. Additionally, they are the first female vocal group in history to attain the coveted status of topping the British record polls.

Long before they were ever known as THE SUPREMES, Diana, Mary and Florence were singing together. They have been close friends since their childhood days in Detroit, where all three still make their homes. They first started singing together at church functions and later at parties and other social "do's." In high school an instructor urged them to try for musical careers and they began appearing in amateur shows. At the start of their last year of school the girls auditioned for Berry Gordy, Jr., president of the Detroit based Motown Records, one of the hottest labels in the "pop" field. Gordy was impressed with the group but sent them home for a year. "Come back when you finish high school," he told them, "and we'll see what we can do."

CB Results Announced

The MTSU Intra-College Bowl is now in the quarter final stage of competition. Two of the quarter final games have already been held and the remaining two contests were held last night. Last night's matches pitted the Veterans Club against the Chemistry Club and the German Club against the French Club.

Since the last issue of the SIDELINES, Track and Sabre Club beat Lambda Psi for the right to play German Club in a preliminary round and the French Club beat Pi Gamma Mu to earn its quarter final berth. This action took place last Monday night. Then on Wednesday night, the German Club defeated Track and Sabre Club in the last of the first round competition. Also on Wednesday night, the first half of the quarter final matches were completed with Sigma Club defeating International Club 145-90 and Newman Club downing Phi Epsilon 175-70.

Both semi-final matches will be held on April 26 (next Wednesday) at 7:30. One contest will place Sigma Club against Newman Club and the other will pit last night's winners against each other. The final round of competition will be May 3.

Anderson Is Set for MTSU Visit

Plans are now in the offing to have the Sixth District Congressman William Anderson on Campus for a visit and fact-finding session. This program will be co-sponsored by the College Young Democrats and the Socratics.

Congressman Anderson's scheduled visit is part of a project by the Democratic National Committee to obtain information about the attitudes of young people on major issues facing our government and our public. There is a corps of fifty Congressman who will participate in this venture. There will be one Congressman to visit each state to glean information from the youth.

After these men have visited college campuses across the nation, they will return to Washington, record their reactions and findings, and then the results will be turned over to a writer for coming.

Middle Tennessee State University is very fortunate to be selected as the site for the program in Tennessee. Mr. Anderson is scheduled to be on campus on Friday, April 28. The exact details of the program are now being arranged and the final format and all other pertinent information will appear in next week's SIDELINES.

This is a signal opportunity for our campus. Our students will have an opportunity both to explore government foreign and domestic policy and to make our own feelings known to our government officials.

TONIGHT!

Galbreath vs Shriver 'Censorship and Law'

Wednesday, April 19 at 8:00 p.m. the Dramatic Arts Auditorium will be the scene of a debate concerning censorship laws. District Attorney Thomas Shriver and Charles Galbreath, a prominent Nashville lawyer are the participants.

Shriver, after graduating from Vanderbilt Law School in 1957 went to work for a private law firm, ran for and was elected to the Tennessee State Legislature in 1960, served as an assistant District Attorney, and finally assumed his present position in September of 1964.

Elected to the General Assembly in 1961, Mr. Galbreath has held this office by re-election ever since. Among other things, Galbreath holds to his credit the legislation concerning the newly created office of Public Defender and the reform in the administration of criminal justice.

The introduction to this debate began in January of this year when District Attorney Shriver successfully petitioned Chancery Court to issue a ban on the sale of certain publications. He said that he was seeking a court ruling as the first step toward removing so called "obscene" books and magazines from newsstands in Davidson County.

In rebuttal Charles Galbreath, defending the Book and Pipe Rack and the Fifth Avenue Newsstand, quoted from the first chapter of Paul's letter to Titus:

"Unto the pure all things are pure; but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled."

The program at MTSU, sponsored by the Socratics, is free of admission and open to the public. Everyone is urged to attend and to contribute to the question and answer period following the debate.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY GENERAL
THOMAS A. SHRIVER

REP. CHARLES GALBREATH

College and the Product— The Cost of Freedom

By BILL PETERS

I have just finished reading an interesting booklet written by Roger M. Blough, chairman of the Board of the United States Steel. The booklet entitled "What Price College—and What the Product," offers a great deal of food for thought.

For example, have you ever thought of a United States without the institutions of higher learning? It is only then that one can realize the sheer necessity and urgency of providing the opportunity for a college education to everyone who has the mental capacity to obtain it. Yet, this costs money. On the basis of present trends in population, etc., it has been estimated that by 1974, there will be about 33/4 million more students seeking admission to colleges and universities than did so in 1964. More college teachers, 168,000 more, will be needed.

With all of this, expenditures for higher education will increase by $11 billion dollars, and will be nearly double what they were a decade earlier. Only part of the money can come from tuitions and fees. The rest must come from other sources such as churches, alumni, businessmen, and others, or out of taxes.

There is presently a tendency in our society to let Uncle Sam take care of everything — including higher education. Yet everything, even the government, has its boundaries and limitations. One must remember that a large part of the federal aid to education has gone to scientific research on college campuses. Another limitation is the concentration of colleges and universities receiving aid. Only a relatively small number of these institutions ever receive any of this aid at all.

Still another problem is the fact that the federal aid is generally earmarked for specific purposes — this makes one stop and think about the state of academic freedom. The difference in higher education is the private dollar continuing to meet the requirements of the day.

From this, we can come up with only one conclusion — we must support our institutions now, with every type of support we can offer — or else! The choice is ours.

Turning to the product now, it has been stated that the graduates of today's institutions of higher learning are the competent leaders of our society. If this is true, some 700,000 leaders will receive degrees this year. Yet, we must remember — society is forever demanding a better product. The time-honored qualities of honesty and integrity must combine with adaptiveness of mind to produce that better product. We must maintain, at all costs, the privilege of academic freedom in our colleges and universities. Look around you — are you working toward this belief? If you are, support your belief, if for no other reason than self-interest. In doing so, you reinforce that possession which has been our factor of success — freedom.

Announcement

For the convenience of MTSU students, THE SIDELINES is interested in beginning a Buy-Sell-Trade column. The price of your advertising would be only one cent per word with the minimum number being twenty-five words. Payment will be made in advance.

Submit your advertising entries to George McCashin, Box 6016 campus mail. Deadline for entries will be on Friday prior to the next Wednesday's edition of the paper.

DON'T QUIT! CANDID CAMPUS

Don't quit! MTSU does not have enough doers to afford the loss of anyone that is willing to share a portion of the burden. John Donne wrote that "no man is an island and each of us is diminished by the death of another". The momentum that we have gained will also be diminished by the loss of anyone willing to work for a better MTSU.

At times, when things are going badly, the doer sits down in his depression and says, "What the hell, I can't go any further." Doer, you cannot quit, because if you do those few left must carry on with a heavier burden than before. There are so many small steps to be taken, and anyone willing to get off the grass and onto the path is needed.

Human beings like to sit back and watch others work, and it is rare to find someone who can inspire others to work. When one is found, it is a tragedy for the person to leave. The task has been started, but there is much still to be done. Don't quit for the sake of those who do care, don't quit.

Lappin Offers A Letter To Juniors

Open letter to the members of the junior class:

By the evidence given in room 304 of the SUB on April 13, 1967, there are 888 irresponsible and apathetic members of the junior class. The class meeting which was held on the above mentioned date was called to nominate candidates for class officers for 1967-'68 and to vote on the passage of the newly proposed constitution. While it is true that there were at least 30 members present for the first order of business, there were only FOURTEEN members present for the latter. It doesn't even take a junior in high school one minute to see something is drastically wrong.

The opportunities at this university can be unlimited only if the student leaders can obtain the necessary backing from you. You, the student members, should have the final word and final power. As it stands now, you have no word and no power!

You want to be treated as responsible adults and yet you make no effort to take on the necessary responsibilities. This responsibility will not walk up to you; you MUST run to meet it.

With 918 active members there is very little, if nothing, that cannot be accomplished, but with only 30 active members the task becomes almost impossible.

Through some divine act of the gods you have unusually well qualified leaders in the A.S.B. for 1967-'68 . . . Don't let them go to waste!

Sandra G. Lappin

Black Leads YR's

Last Tuesday, the MTSU chapter of the Young Republicans selected the officers for the next school year. Mel Black will serve as president.

Susan Stewart and Mary Virginia Killian will be vice-president and secretary-treasurer respectively. Cheryl Allen will represent the club in the House of Representatives.

Take six MTSU students, one reporter, and one photographer. Add one controversial question and mix well. Result: CANDID CAMPUS.

In an attempt to give MTSU students and opportunity to air their opinions on timely issues, the SIDELINES has initiated this new feature. This week's question is, "What do you think of Stokeley Carmichael's recent visit to Nashville?"

GARY CLAYBORNE: To hell with Carmichael is my first reaction. But after some thought, I would say he has the right to come but the instances that followed were not his right. Anyone has the right to come but not the right to start riots.

LLOYD WIDNER: I know more what Briley and the Tennessee legislature said than I know about Carmichael. I agree he has the right to speak, but if he was responsible for the riots, he should be asked to leave the country. If he is not a citizen, yet advocates subversive actions, he forfeits his right to speak here.

BECKY WRIGHT: I don't know what he is trying to do. The Vanderbilt campus was wise to invite him, but I don't think the resolution passed by the legislature was wise. I think the riots were a result of his visit. I don't agree with what he says. It seems like he's trying to right. He didn't have the right to start a riot.

ART POLK: He was asked to visit. He should be allowed to speak, because people can't understand until they hear a person. I didn't agree with what he said, but I didn't think the legislature was right.

I don't think he started the riots. It was just that the students had nothing to do and this gave them an excuse.

BRENDA EAST: I hope his visit caused people to open their minds to see his views and that he's entitled to his own opinions.

AAUP Holds Meeting

The MTSU Chapter of the American Association of University Professors met at 8:00 p.m. in Dining Room B of the Student Union Building on April 13 in a regularly scheduled meeting.

Those matters of business on the agenda were: the Annual Scholarship Dinner report, the selection of a delegate for the AAUP National Convention, a report from the Student Academic Freedom Study Committee, a report from the Library Study Committee, and What's In The House?

Blick Serves Last Time

Last Thursday evening, Larry Blick presided over the House of Representatives for the last time. Larry expressed his thanks to those who have devoted their time and talents to making the House a vital part of student government and campus life this year. I think we will all agree with Larry that the House of Representatives has undergone some very vital and beneficial changes this year.

The members were asked to remind all organizations that their ASB representatives must be elected before May 1. The names of all representatives should be reported as soon as they are elected to either Larry Blick at Box 1 or to Mel Black at Box 3391.

Mel Black, recently elected as next year's Speaker of the House announced that there will be an organizational meeting of next year's House members during the month of May. One reason that so much emphasis is being placed on the early election of representatives is so the House can get an early start and not start out behind the other branches of government in the fall. Also, with early preparation and organization, it will be possible to have a greater representation of House members at the ASB retreat before the beginning of the new school year.

On the legislative docket was a new Cheerleading Bill and Bill # 70, By-Laws for the House of Representatives. Also, there was a first reading of a Constitutional amendment which has already been passed by the Senate which would revise the laws concerning Senatorial elections. This amendment will be voted on at the next House meeting. After the report by the House Cheerleading Committee, the members voted to accept the bill as it stands. Also, the House By-Laws were voted on and approved.

The Cheerleading Bill which was passed is printed below:

ELECTION OF CHEERLEADERS

PURPOSE: TO CLARIFY ANY AND ALL QUALIFICATIONS FOR CHEERLEADERS, AND SOLIDIFY ALL LEGISLATION CONCERNING CHEERLEADERS, AND TO PROVIDE A MORE ACCEPTABLE METHOD OF SELECTING CHEERLEADERS.

PLAN:

1. The election of cheerleaders for the next school year will be held in the latter half of each spring semester.
  - A. A total of eight regular cheerleaders shall be elected. No one will be a graduate before the following May.
  - B. The two alternate positions, to be filled by Freshmen, will be left vacant. The election for the vacancies shall be held within the first two weeks of the fall semester. This election shall be held exclusively by the committee as stated in part three.
2. The captain of the cheerleaders shall be responsible for publicity for practice sessions and the cheerleaders shall abide by a code of conduct set up by the cheerleaders themselves.
3. A selection committee shall be composed of: Three members of the department of physical education who are instructors in gymnastics, these shall be appointed by the head of the physical education department; two graduating cheerleaders from the previous year, these shall be selected by the group of outgoing cheerleaders themselves; one member of the House of Representatives selected by the House; one member of the Senate selected by the Senate; the presidents of the Inter-sorority and Inter-fraternity councils; the President of the ASB; the president of the Booster Club; and the President of the "T" Club.
4. This committee shall select sixteen students from the group that tries out to appear in assembly the following week. Each committee member shall have a copy of each try-out's personal data sheet and qualifying petition, which shall be used in helping to select the sixteen finalists.
5. The day following the try outs in the assembly, a campus-wide election shall be held to determine the eight new cheerleaders; no more than four boys shall be elected. The top eight will serve as cheerleaders.
6. Each person desiring to try out for cheerleader shall:

- A. Submit to the selection committee through the ASB President, a qualifying petition bearing 150 names of any student or faculty member at MTSU.
- B. Submit to the selection committee 12 copies of a personal data sheet which will provide the following information:
  1. Name
  2. Age
  3. Major
  4. Grade point average
  5. Classification
  6. Have you ever been subject any probationary action: If so, briefly explain.
  7. Past experience that would be helpful in being a cheerleader.
  8. Past organization membership: College, high school.
  9. Organization membership, officers, and duties during next school year.
  10. Why do you want to be a cheerleader?
  11. How can MTSU's spirit be improved?
  12. Will you be able to attend Cheerleading camp?
  13. Do you understand that cheerleading will be your first responsibility, and that you will be required to give preference to it over any other offices that you might receive?

I hereby affirm that the above answers on this sheet are true and that falsification of the information will invoke my immediate dismissal.

date _____, signature _____

Copies of the data sheet shall be kept in the ASB office and persons desiring to try out may secure their copies there.

7. The cheerleaders shall recommend the names of four persons to the President of the University and the Dean of Women, and together with them, they shall choose two sponsors from those names.

Campus---

he signed them to a recording contract and named them THE SUPREMES. A short time later their first record, "I Want A Guy" was being played on radio stations across the country. The girls called it "a mild hit." Actually it sold over a quarter of a million records.

The girls still regard Gordy, who is in his early thirties, as a combination father and big brother. "When we're on the road he calls to make sure we're taking our vitamins and wearing warm clothes," says Diana. "He's someone with whom you can sit down and talk," Florence adds.

Their sound, all three agree, is "blues with a pop beat." Diana, generally, is the lead voice, while Florence sings the top and Mary the bottom. Vocally they do not like being compared to other groups. "We try not to sound like anyone else," they say. "Too often a group gets a hit record and then everyone else tries to imitate them. That's the reason so many records sound alike. Too many people try to duplicate rather than create."

All three love their new-found fame. After their appearance on "Shindig," a nationally televised musical show, people started recognizing them. Mary breathlessly exclaims, "I was in a shoe store and an old lady came up to me and asked if I were famous. 'Didn't I see you on Shindig?' she asked."

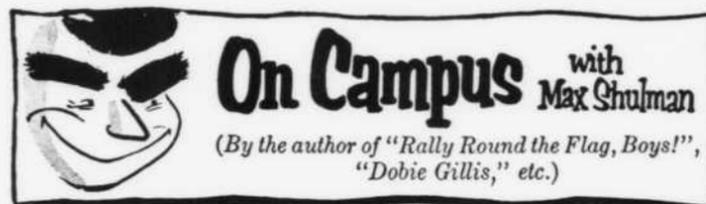

THE SUPREMES actually are becoming famous with adults as well as the teenage set. They have a vocal quality that seems able to bridge the gap between young and old. Currently they are receiving over 500 fan letters a week from all over the world. "Mostly from boys," they admit delightedly. With record sales nearly reaching the four million mark and royalties in the past three years well into six figures, they aren't letting their fame go to their heads. Each lives on an allowance of fifty dollars a week, the remainder being earmarked for savings accounts and solid investments.

All three look forward to eventual marriage but are too busy now to contemplate it. None of the three has met the right boy yet. "We meet a lot of people," they say, "but we never have time to really know them." All agree they would continue singing as a group after marriage. As a group, their ambition is to continue making records and to play the big clubs. When they have a night off on the road they bowl or play cards. Their favorite game is Tonk, taught to them by Diana's mother, Mrs. Ernestine Ross, who travels with them as chaperone.

For three girls who have known each other as long as THE SUPREMES, they get along amazingly well and have a genuine affection for one another. "Maybe it's because we all come from large families," they say, "where you have to learn to get along." Florence is one of 12 brothers and sisters; Diana has six; and Mary, three.

"We think so much alike," they say, "that sometimes we accidentally use each other's names. We're so much alike and yet we're quite different."

One thing is certain, they are different — and more original — than any other vocal group around.

REQUIEM FOR A SQUARE

You, like any other lovable, clean-living, freckle-faced American kid, want to be a BMOC. How can you make it?

Well sir, there are several ways, none of which will work.

You're too puny to be an athlete, too lazy to be a valedictorian, and too hairy to run for Homecoming Queen.

As for becoming a best-dressed man, how are you going to buy clothes with a miser for a father?

Are you licked then? Is there no way to make BMOC? Yes, there is! And you can do it! Do what? This:

Become a hippie! Get cool! Get alienated! Have an Identity Crisis! Be one of the Others!

How? Well sir, to become a hippie, simply follow these five simple rules:

1. Read all of Tolkien in the original dwarf.
2. Have your Sophomore Slump in the freshman year.
3. Wear buttons that say things like this:
 NATIONALIZE DAIRY QUEEN
 ASTHMATICS, UNITE
 LEGALIZE APPLE BUTTER
 HANDS OFF AIR POLLUTION
4. Go steady with a girl who has long greasy hair, a guitar, enlarged pores, and thermal underwear.
5. Attend Happenings regularly.

This last item may require some explanation, for it is possible that Happenings haven't reached your campus yet. Be assured they will because Happenings are the biggest college craze since mononucleosis.

A Happening, in case you don't know, is the first formless art form. Things just happen. For example, eighty naked men come out and squirt each other with fire hoses containing tinted yogurt. Then eighty more naked men come out and light birthday candles in the navels of the first eighty men. Then one girl, clothed, comes out and pulls three thousand feet of sausage casing through her pierced ear. Then eighty more naked men come out and eat a station wagon.

There is, of course, a musical accompaniment to all these fun things. Usually it is "Begin the Beguine," played by 26 trench mortars, a drop forge, and a rooster.

There used to be, some years ago, still another requirement for becoming a hippie: a man had to have a beard. But no longer. Beards were worn in the past not so much as a protest, but because shaving was such a painful experience. Then along came Personna Super Stainless Steel Blades.

Today if you don't want to shave, well, that's your hangup, isn't it, baby? I mean when you've got a blade like Personna that tugs not neither does it scrape, what's your copout, man? I mean like get with it; you're living in the past. Shaving used to hurt, used to scratch, used to gouge, used to give you all kinds of static. But not since Personna. It's a gas, man. It's a doozy; it's mom's apple pie. You dig?

I mean, man, you still want a beard? Crazy! But you don't have to turn your face into a slum, do you? Shave around the bush, baby, neatly and nicely with Personna. I mean like Personna comes in double-edge style and Injector style too. I mean like any way you try it, you gotta like like it.

"The Restless Ones" Portrays Teen Crisis

By David Mathis
As an up-to-date movie patterned after the today's teenagers, "The Restless Ones" is a set to the heartbeat of the trials and triumphs of the younger generation. This newest film release of World Wide Pictures dares to be different in presenting a message to the audience unlike similar film undertakings previously presented of its kind. It is a feature-length film dealing imaginatively and dramatically with the teenage crisis.

This motion picture "that tells the world the truth and comes up with an answer" will satisfy, challenge, and inspire young and old alike just as it will appeal to churchgoers and non-churchgoers. The background setting was provided by the 1963 Billy Graham Los Angeles Crusade. This revival background is woven into the theme, but the movie as a whole treats the spiritual emphasis with both imagination and boldness.

"The Restless Ones" highlights the opportunities facing the church, teachers, and parents. It is written by James F. Collier for presentation to the whole world. From the first shocking piece of action (a hymnbook sailing through the air and knocking over a chancel cross) to the bitter climax in the life of a warring teenager, the picture reveals its common theme for all people everywhere.

Johnny Crawford and Kim Darby have the leading roles. Other stars include Georgia Lee, Robert Sampson, Jean Engstrom, Jerome Courtland, and Lurene Tuttle.

Over two million people have seen "The Restless Ones". It has been rated by the National Parents - Teachers Association as one of the top five films of the year.

Murfreesboro is indeed fortunate in having this film presented at the Princess Theatre starting Thursday, April 27th. Tickets are available at the theatre box office, Goldsteins in Murfreesboro, Nicholson Drugs in Smyrna, and in the Student Union Building at MTSU. The price is $1.00. Phone 893-4401 or write Box 1097 for additional ticket information.

THE local presentation is sponsored by a cross section of Murfreesboro citizens and MTSU students. Some of these people include Coach Joe Black Hayes, Bill Boner, Jack Weatherford, and John Bragg.

Showings will be: 2:00 — 6:00 — 8:30 p.m., Thursday, Friday, Monday, and Tuesday; 1:00 — 3:00 — 6:00 — 8:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday — April 27 through May 2.

AAUP---

ior plans for the dinner, to be held in Woodmore Dining Hall later in the year, are incomplete at this time.

Professor Midgett, Chairman of the Student Academic Freedom Study Committee, distributed copies of the report to those members present. Motion was made to place copies of the report on reserve at the library for those members not receiving a copy so that they might have an opportunity to read and study the findings. Also, a motion was made to schedule a special meeting sometime before final examinations to discuss adoption of the AAUP Chapter statement presented in the report. Members were urged to present ideas for the improvement and modification of the statement were urged to present ideas for the improvement and modification of the statement so that they may be correlated into a more efficient statement of academic freedom.

Concerning the Library Study Committee, Mr. Corcoran, Chairman of the Committee, presented a report consisting of six major points:

(1.) The Library is concerned at the loss of a considerable amount of books and material missing from that department, and cognizant of the actions of the AAUP in attempting to alleviate this problem.

(2.) The Study Committee recommended that checkers be placed at all exits of rooms in which books and materials are checked out.

(3.) Students should be required to present I.D. cards when checking out materials from the library to reduce unauthorized removal of those materials.

(4.) The Study Committee recommended the copying of passages and information from books and materials to lessen the necessity of circulating materials.

(5.) The Committee should request funds for expansion of the library so as to provide more adequate study and research facilities.

(6.) Students looking for a book and not finding it in the stacks should be required to notify a responsible member of the library staff so that an immediate search may be initiated.

Professor Raine was selected to represent the MTSU Chapter at the National Convention to be held in Cleveland this summer.

The last order of business concerned the proposed amendment to the AAUP Constitution, which places a ceiling on the membership assessments which can be initiated by the local chapter. The movement for its acceptance was seconded, voted upon, and duly passed.

Father Thoni, Reverend Ramser Speak To SCU

Last Wednesday night the Student Christian Union had a program dealing with the Ecumenical movement and the growing trend toward greater cooperation between the Roman Catholic Church and the various Protestant denominations.

The evening's program consisted of a discussion about the similarities and points of agreement between the Catholics and Protestants. Representing the Catholic viewpoint was Father Philip Thoni, sponsor of the Newman Club and pastor of St. Rose of Lima Church in Murfreesboro. Presenting the views of the various Protestant sects was Reverend Henry Ramser, Director of the Baptist Student Union.

The basic topic of discussion were the sacraments and the various attitudes toward them by the various churches. The remainder of the evening was devoted to a question and answer period during which the members of the audience had an opportunity to ask questions to either Father Thoni or to Reverend Ramser.

All the religious groups in attendance agreed that the program was very interesting and provided food for further thought and discussion.

May Queen Contestants

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

We make no apologies for the selection of our candidate for May Queen, Paula Mae Pigg. However, we feel that if there is any misunderstanding concerning her desires to enter and win the election, this letter will explain.

We are not entering this pig to belittle, make fun of, harass, slander, incriminate, infringe upon, or degrade any of the other candidates.

If anyone feels that there is any significance to our using a 4-legged pig for this honor, perhaps they are justified. A few facts:

1. There were ten people at the nominations, including the Attorney General.
2. There were no girls present at all.
3. Only about one-half of the present student body participated in the last ASB election.
4. MTSU is the only college left in the world that still has a Junior-Senior Prom (dance).
5. And above all, who cares anyway?

CCUN Delegates Attend Model UN

Multicolored flags representing the one hundred and twenty-two member countries of the United Nations hung solemnly from the four walls of the auditorium as debates roused throughout the halls, mounting the tension of the two hundred seventy five delegates to the Mid-South Model United Nations Assembly held at East Carolina College in Greenville, North Carolina, April 5 through 8.

Seventy-four delegations, each consisting of four members, were sent from colleges and universities stretching from Florida to New York. Individual delegates chose a committee upon which to serve, and it was in the committee meetings that the major portion of hashing over a resolution was accomplished.

Delegates from the Collegiate Council for the United Nations at Middle Tennessee State University, representing the sovereign nation of Belgium, were Janell Lumpkins of Gallatin on the Social and Cultural Committee, Mary Pat Williams of Nashville on the Economic Committee, Charles Lamb of Murfreesboro on the Political "B" Committee, and Charles Johnson of Pulaski on the Political "A" Committee.

The overall participation of the delegations was enthusiastic. The atmosphere was serious with most students, with most delegates well-informed—not only on their country, but on the procedures of the General Assembly and committee meetings.

The General Assembly was electrified by the Israeli-Syrian clash which was immediately sent to the Security Council for action. The admission of the Peoples Republic of China triggered a long and heated debate and ended with the Peiping regime being seated instead of the Taiwan delegation. Several other issues of interest were brought before the committee and the General Assembly.

Time Again For The Gruesome Twosome

The Gruesome Twosome contest sponsored annually by the Senior Class is coming up soon.

In the past, it has been the practice of each club president to appoint two people to enter rather than call a meeting together just to elect them. In any event, entries should be chosen soon.

The rules for the contest are as follows:

1. The contest will be from 9:00 Monday, April 24, to 3:00 Friday, April 28. Voting will be done from 9:00 to 3:00 each day.
2. Picture size will be 8 x 10. These can be backed with poster paper no larger than 12 x 14. Be sure to have your club's name on your entry.
3. Each club will furnish its own ballot box. This can be a jar, box, can, or anything in a reasonable size to hold pennies. Label this with your club's name.
4. Votes will be one penny each.
5. Bring your entry picture and ballot "box" to the SUB basement Monday, April 24, before 9:00.
6. First prize will be 10% of the gross votes. Last year, gross votes were approximately 27000 pennies. This means if it were to be 27000 pennies again this year, first prize would be $27.00. Second prize will be 5%, and third prize, 3%.
7. The contest is open to all recognized campus clubs, fraternities, dormitories, and organizations at MTSU.

Photographers that can be contacted around campus to take pictures of Gruesome Twosomes are Charles Gonce, Box 2425, 893-8082, Garry Barnett, Box 3764, 893-0278, and Joseph Smith, Campus Mail, Ext. 287 or 893-7031.

If there are any questions, contact Jim Miller, Senior Class Vice President at Box 889 or 896-0788.

McGrath Emerges As Raider Mound Ace; MTSU Splits With Govs

Butch McGrath, a 6-3, 190-pounder from Nashville, has come to the front as the pitching ace of the Middle Tennessee State University staff in the early season going. McGrath hurled a seven-hitter at Austin Peay State College last Tuesday to gain a 6-1 win, and give the Raiders a split in the two games with the Governors.

McGrath, 2-1 last season with an ERA of 4.56, is the possessor of two of the Raiders four wins thus far. He threw a shutout against Huntingdon College in his other start.

In the first game against Austin Peay, the Govs jumped on Greg Cunningham for four runs in the first two innings, and MTSU played catch-up the rest of the way.

The Raiders finally caught the Govs in the seventh inning, forcing the game into extra frames. Both teams remained scoreless until the tenth inning when Austin Peay pushed across two runs to claim a 6-4 win.

Gary Chrisman, who relieved Cunningham in the seventh, took the loss for MTSU. Wilhoite was the winner for Austin Peay.

The second game was a different story as McGrath's fast-ball simply overpowered the Govs. APSC also committed a pair of errors to aid the Raider cause. MTSU played errorless ball in the second game, after making four miscues in the first contest.

Raider Linksmen Rout Tech, 14-4

Middle Tennessee State University's undefeated golf team toyed with Tennessee Tech University for the first nine holes last Tuesday, and then proceeded to de-feather the Eagles on the back nine, recording a 14-4 win.

Trailing, 4-2, at the end of the first nine holes, the Raiders turned on the steam in the second round to bury the Techsters hopes of an upset.

All six of Dr. E. K. Patty's fine squad shot par or better for the 18 holes. George Cogbill's 67 led the way, followed closely by Jeff Riley with 68 and Ernie Adock with 69. Clay Holloway and Craig Stoudner both shot 70, while Art Kraft played even par with 71. Terry Barrett paced Tech with a 71.

The win over Tech ran the Raiders season record to 4-0 in duel matches. They also won the NCAA Invitational Tournament at Springfield, Missouri.

Raiders Ink Two Cagers

Coach Ken Trickey, head basketball coach at MTSU, has announced the signing of two outstanding high school stars to grant-in-aids. They are Roger Fisher, of Lebanon, and Mervell McMurray, of Kansas City.

Fisher is 6-4, twice all-Midstate, a deadly shooter, and was chosen the Midstate Player of the Year by the NASHVILLE TENNESSEAN.

Coach Trickey is extremely high on Fisher, and did some extensive recruiting to land the Lebanon star. Several other colleges and universities were also interested in him.

McMurray, who reminds the coaches of Ken Riley, is 6-6, 210 pounds, and a tremendous rebounder. He was on the Kansas City Central team which finished second in the Missouri State Tournament last month.

MTSU already has two basketball players from KC Central, Art Polk and Booker Brown.

Both Fisher and McMurray were consistent scorers in high school. Fisher averaged some 20 points per game for Lebanon and McMurray was good for 15 per outing to go with his rebounds.

Baseballers Divide Four Weekend Games

Middle Tennessee's baseball team split two doubleheaders over the weekend, one with Sewanee, the other with Western Kentucky. The Raiders dropped the opener at Sewanee, 10-9, and then won the nightcap, 11-1. Against Western, they again lost the first game, 4-1, but rallied to win the second, 5-4.

At Sewanee, MTSU was coasting along with a 6-2 lead when the roof fell in. The Tigers rallied to take the lead, and although the Raiders made a comeback, it wasn't enough to take the win.

Apparently stung at losing three straight to Sewanee, MTSU came back in the second game to blast the hosts, 11-1, behind the fine hurling of Paul Smith.

At home on Saturday against Western, the Raiders were the victims of some brilliant pitching themselves. Western's Stan Markham threw a three-hitter against MTSU to outduel Raider ace Butch McGrath, who gave up only four hits, himself.

In the second game, Greg Cunningham suffered a shaky first inning, walking five consecutive batters before retiring the side on a double play. He settled down, however, and only gave up one more walk the rest of the game, striking out six.

Charlie Daniel and Bruce Skeen provided the batting support necessary for the win. Daniel drilled a shot left-center with one out in the bottom of the seventh (last) inning to score a teammate from second base with the winning run.

Skeen hit a triple with two men on base in the third inning, then scored himself when the relay throw got away from the Western infielder. The play wiped out a 2-0 Western advantage, and gave MTSU a 3-2 lead.

Cunningham was the winner for the Raiders, while Chip Miles took the loss for Western.

The Raiders have two big doubleheaders coming up in the next few days. Saturday they will travel to Western for a return match (two of them) with the Hilltoppers. These two games will have a very important bearing on the OVC's Western Division race.

On Tuesday, Middle Tennessee goes to Cookeville to battle with the Tech Eagles. Tech has one of their best squads in some time. Just last Saturday, they posted a double shutout win over Lipscomb, 1-0 and 5-0.

The next home games will be a doubleheader with Murray, the defending OVC champions (Western Division) on April 29.

Western Invades Next Tuesday

Defending OVC Track Champs in For Dual Meet

Powerful Western Kentucky, the defending OVC Champions, will visit Murfreesboro next Tuesday for a duel match with Coach Dean Hayes tracksters. The meet will begin at 7:00 p.m.

Western sports one of the very best track teams in the South. They are led by Henry Jackson and John Toye, who are merely the best in a host of outstanding performers.

In the Civitan Meet in Memphis this past weekend, Western easily won the College Division, amassing 82 points to 49 for the second place team.

Jackson won the long jump with leap of 24-7 1/2 and the high jump with 6-8 1/4, both better jumps than the existing MTSU record. Jackson has also hit 50 feet in the triple jump.

Toye threw the discus 163-31/2 which broke the record Brian Oldfield set in the Memphis meet last year. Toye also finished fourth in the shot put.

Western has won the OVC Championship in track each of the last three seasons. They handed Middle Tenn. their only dual meet loss last season, trouncing the Raiders by a 92-53 score.

Coach Hayes expects to be in a better position against Western than he was against Indiana. Mike Austin (440 and relays), Mike Miller (hurdles), and Clark Werner (100, 220, and relays) are expected to be available for duty. They were either sick or injured when Indiana came to town.

This coming Saturday, MTSU has a duel meet with Austin Peay at Clarksville. It is expected to be a warmup for the Western meet. Some members of the track team competed in the Dogwood Relays in Knoxville last weekend. Charlie Dahlgren won the three mile run, setting a new school record of 14:14.8, which broke the old record by better than 30 seconds.

Two of MTSU's relay teams did real well in Knoxville, also. The three mile relay quartet came in third, as did the shuttle hurdle relay team.

MTSU Announces Football Slate

Coach Bubber Murphy, Head Football Coach and Athletic Director at Middle Tennessee State University, has announced the following schedule for the 1967 football season. The Raiders will play five games at home and an equal number on the road.

The home schedule is particularly attractive this season.

Due to some changes made by OVC Commissioner Art Guepe, Eastern Kentucky and Murray State will play in Murfreesboro for the second consecutive year. They will join Chattanooga, Western Kentucky, and Tennessee Tech in rounding out the home schedule.

The complete schedule with times for the home games:

Spelunkers To Feature Slides

The Spelunkers Club will hold a slide show on April 25, at 7:00 in Room 37 of the Science Building. The show is entitled "Mystery Hole Cave."

Mystery Hole Cave, located on Lookout Mountain near Chattanooga, is one of the deepest vertical caves in the United States and until recently held quite a thrill for those few who dared explore it. Unfortunately, because of the death of a young boy in the cave a few years ago, it has been permanently sealed up by the city of Chattanooga. No one will ever explore the cave again, but its beauty has been perpetuated in this series of slides.

The Spelunkers plan to present other slide shows in the near future, and they have many other things scheduled such as their numerous field trips to the various caves of this region. Middle Tennessee has perhaps more caves per square mile than any other area of its size in the world, and the Spelunkers at MTSU are certainly taking advantage of this.

Why don't you attend one of their meetings and go along on one of their trips. Do You Really Know What A Cave Is Like?

Basketball Out ; Softball In

The intramural championship game between the Midgets and the Bombers turned out to be a rout in favor of the Midgets, 94-68. The Midgets, coming out of tough league #4, really thrashed the Bombers in the regulation time game. They had beaten the Bombers previously, 65-56.

It was a superior effort that led them to their victory, with all seven members scoring in double figures.

Jim Ghibaudy and Larry Ritchie were scoring leaders for the losers with 18 and 16 points, respectively.

Scoring for the winning Midgets went like this:

Richard Thomas-15
Charles Dahlgren - 21

Troy Trentham - 12
George Ramsey - 10
Dennis Abney - 16
John Ghibaudy - 10

Attention Track Fans

Do you subconsciously feature yourself as another Ralph Boston? Could you possibly be another Jim Ryun? Well, your big chance to see will be next Thursday night, April 27, on Jones Field.

Intramural Director Robert LaLance has announced an amateur track and field meet will be held at that time. The event will be open to any student who has not earned a track letter.

Group, club, and fraternity teams are encouraged. There will be a team trophy, and the winning team will be awarded points toward the Intramural All-Sports Award. Individuals will be given a trophy for a win in every event, whether they are attached to a team or not.

Trophies will be given to the individual winners of each event, whether they are attached to a team or not.

LaLance hopes to have entries from all of the fraternities, the "T" club, and most of the regular intramural teams.

The meet will begin at 7:00 p.m. All students are invited to watch. Entries, both team and individual, must be in to the Intramural Office in the Gym by Wednesday, April 26.

Golfers Eye TIAC Win

Middle Tennessee's undefeated golf team will be at Sewanee on Friday and Saturday to try to win back the TIAC title they lost to Austin last year. The Raiders will be the tournament favorites.

Coach E. K. Patty's squads have won the TIAC tournament seven times in the last ten years, including a string of six consecutive years (1958-63).

The Raiders went to Sewanee last weekend to get the feel of the course, and also to participate in a triangular meet with Sewanee and David Lipscomb.

MTSU rolled over Lipscomb, 18-0, and routed Sewanee by a 17-4 score.

George Cogbill, Craig Stoudner, Ernie Adcock, Clay Holloway, Jeff Riley, and Art Kraft are expected to be the boys on whom the burden of winning will fall, if the Raiders are to reclaim the TIAC championship.

Captain Bob Wolfe, the low medalist in the OVC tournament last year, has been out with a wrist injury, and may not see action.

Y'all Come To The Rodeo

Middle Tennessee State University has a new type of athlete on campus. He is not hard to identify—he walks and moves differently from other students because he is proud of his sport. He is the rodeo cowboy.

These college cowboys, and cowgirls, are working to bring intercollegiate rodeo into this part of the country. Since most of them are also connected with professional rodeo, they hope to make it better also.

The rodeo contestant is an athlete. He has to be in good physical shape to take the beating of a bull or bronc ride. Also there is an unwritten code in rodeo that says a cowboy must give his best in any performance, and all contestants realize that this is not possible unless he is in top condition.

Unlike other sports, rodeo contains showmanship. For this reason, many contestants can also perform as specialty acts such as trick roping and riding, bullfighting (rodeo style) and announcing.

At the MTSU Rodeo Club's fourth annual rodeo April 21-22 the club members will display their skill in each of the rodeo events and their ability at turning out a professional looking show. Bill Adcocks, vice-president of the club will work as arena director; Dominica Hulen and Luzy Mays will be rodeo secretary and timekeeper respectively Harold Lynch, president, will announce the show, and the other members will be working to keep things running smoothly.

AUSTIN PEAY ELECTS FOUR GRID CAPTAINS

Four captains have been selected for AUSTIN Peay State College's 1967 gridiron squad.

Quarterback Carl Williams will captain the offensive unit; Philip Farinella will head up the defensive team. Alternate captains are Tommy Woodring (offense) and Billy Joe Jeans (defense).

Netters Sets For Tough Weekend

Coach Buck Bouldin's powerful tennis team may find out just how good they really are in the next four days. They carry a sparkling 8-1 record into Kentucky for four matches in three days.

Tomorrow they tangle with the University of Kentucky in Lexington. On Friday they meet Eastern Kentucky in Richmond, and on Saturday they play both Western and Murray, also at Richmond. The round-robin affair between MTSU and the three Bluegrass schools could well be a preview of the OVC championship.

On this same trip last season, the Raiders beat Eastern, 6-3, but lost to Murray, 2-7, and to Western, 3-6. Murray, Western, and Eastern finished 1-2-3 in the OVC tournament last season, with MTSU claiming fourth place.

The Raiders used David Lipscomb as a warm-up for the Kentucky trip by downing the Bison, 9-0. Not only did Lipscomb not score a point, they didn't even win a set as the Raiders got revenge for one of last year's losses. This was the third consecutive shut-out for Coach Bouldin's crew.

The next home match will be on April 26 against a talented Carson-Newman squad.

Margaret Wright- Woman Of Music

By David Mathis

Pianist, organist, contralto chanteuse, teacher, wife and mother—successful in all and loved by all—so describes Mrs. Margaret Wright. Mrs. Wright joined the MTSU faculty along with her husband, Mr. Neil Wright, (now Head of the Music Department) in 1946. Since that time she has devoted most of her life to teaching and studying music.

HOLDS MANY HONORS

Mrs. Wright, now serving MTSU as Assistant Professor of Music, has served in a large number of musical organizations. Some of these positions include: Dean of the Nashville Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, State Membership Chairman of the Music Teachers National Association (MTNA), Piano Workshop

MRS. MARGARET WRIGHT

Committee of MTNA, Chairman of the Tennessee Piano Teachers Association, Secretary to the Tennessee Music Educators Association (TMEA), and Board of Control of the TMEA.

This talented lady served Middle Tennessee from 1956-1964 as Choral Adjudicator and Guest Director of Massed Choruses. On two occasions she has lectured at the Southern Convention of the MTNA—folk music and piano pedagogy.

Mrs. Wright presented an organ recital at the Nashville Arts Festival in 1961 and a concert in 1962 at the Tennessee Music Teachers Association as well as other public performances. She performed only last fall at the Nashville Arts Festival in a Honors Faculty Recital which was acclaimed by the audience as an experience not to be forgotten. Mrs. Wright is fondly remembered in writing her esteemed talent. Mrs. Wright now serves as organist for the First Presbyterian Church in Nashville.

In May, 1964, Mrs. Wright received the Outstanding Musician of Tennessee Award from the Tennessee Federation of Music Clubs. She received her B.S. Degree from Vanderbilt University and her M.A. Degree from George Peabody College. She is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Omicron Delta Kappa, and Delta Omicron, International Professional Music Association and is composer and singer of several pieces of music.

SACRED HARP SINGERS

Sacred Harp Singers were organized in 1947 by Mrs. Wright. They sing a cappella, seated around a table, in Sixteenth Century madrigal style. The music includes Sacred Harp hymns, white spirituals, and Southern folk songs and ballads.

On May 2-6 the Sacred Harp Singers, under the direction of Mrs. Wright, will go on tour. Concerts will be presented at this time to high schools and colleges throughout Tennessee and Mississippi.

AWAITS TWO NEW ORGANS

"We are delighted that we are having a replacement for the 40 year-old Hammond organ," Mrs. Wright reported. The new concert model Hammond "will be used not only for student practice, but also for graduation convocation and in the theater-auditorium." It has been used April 16 in the Tennessee Room in the presentation of "Mass in C" by Leopold Mozart.

The 2 1/2 rank Moller practice pipe organ was placed on the second floor of the Fine Arts Building and furnishes badly needed practice time for the twenty-six organ students."

Mr. and Mrs. Wright will attend the national convention of the National Association of Music April 18-21. They have two sons:

Neil III, a senior at MTSU, and David, five years old and a beginning piano student.

MTSU is indeed fortunate in having such a person as Mrs. Wright on the faculty. She works at everything doing her best which in turn, is the best possible.
