

Project Owner:

The purpose of the Collaborators Web Publishing Agreement is to acknowledge the final outcome of a digital project; and recognize collaborators listed in the Project Profile. The final outcome of the project may include scholarly essays, a website, data visualizations, screencasts, computer code, multimedia components, and/or a final report, among others. Note: this is different from a collaborators agreement used in project planning.

If this final outcome (or related components) includes publishing on the Web, permission is sought from each team member (creator) associated with the production of the project. The project owner is responsible for filling in the first half and distributing to each collaborator. Each collaborator fills in the second half (shaded sections) indicating permission status.

Final Project Title:

The above project is produced by _____

The above project will be placed on the website _____ and as a result may appear in other forms of dissemination including but not limited to press releases, news articles, or as a citation in other scholarly works, digital projects, or websites.

Collaborator:

Do you grant permission for your name to be listed as a creator or contributor to the above project?

No, I do not want my name affiliated with this project. I understand the project will be made available online, without identifying me as a collaborator.

Yes, I want my name listed as a collaborator

Date:

If you later change your mind, contact the project owner to update the Project Profile and this agreement.

Optional:

*Permission must be attained from students whose independently created scholarly subcomponent(s) may have been submitted for a grade. Permission to use a version of this work must also be included. Use "Sub-Component Title" on this form to give consent to place a copy of the scholarly contribution on the project website. Fill out this form and the Digital File Inventory of the scholarly contribution and give both to your professor. These forms, along with a copy of the original file and open/preservation copy should be given to your professor for placement on the project website. ENTER SUB-COMPONENT TITLE BELOW:
