Batey And Thornton Will Lead 'Sidelines'

By Nadine King

After three years of rushing to meet deadlines, slaving over makeup pages, and winning three ACP first place awards, Pat Turner is retiring as editor-in-chief of the Sidelines.

Pat, a senior business major from Chattanooga, is the first editor in Middle Tennessee State College history to serve three consecutive years. She was make-up editor her freshman year.

Gilmore Wins Beauty Title, Davis Second

Emily Gilmore, 20, daughter of Mrs. L. E. Gilmore of Bell Buckle, believes that the ideal man "must be easy to get along with, be a family man, and just an all around good guy." With these words she captured the coveted title of "Miss Murfreesboro" Saturday night at Central High School.

For her talent, Emily sang two songs, Wouldn't It Be Lovely and I Could Have Danced All Night. She also appeared in bathing suit and evening dress for the contest.

"It's the first time I've ever won anything. I wasn't nervous at all until the end—then—"

The winner received an engraved trophy, an evening dress, a Catalina bathing suit, a diamond dinner ring, personalized lingerie, a hand bag, a pair of dress shoes, a dinner for two at a local restaurant and a $100.00 scholarship to a college of her choice.

MTSC also owns the second place winner, Brenda Davis of Nashville. She did a ballet as her talent.

The other contestant from MTSC placing in the top five was Carla Schiewiller. Of the eleven contestants, Donna Parkhurst was the fourth MTSC student.

Each of the five finalists were asked three questions: What would be your feeling if your husband had been selected as the first as— (Continued on Page 2)

During the past three years the bi-monthly newspaper has won three first-class honor ratings from the Associated Collegiate Press. Only three other comparable awards have previously been won by the "Sidelines" in the school history.

Marguerite Batey, a sophomore from Murfreesboro, has been selected by the Publication Committee as the 1961-62 editor. She has served as make-up editor this year.

Retiring as business manager is Betty Caudill, a senior from Madison. Betty, who has held the position for two years, served as circulation manager her sophomore year.

Pat and Betty were co-reipients of the Journalism Award at Honors Day last Thursday.

In making the presentation, faculty advisor Gene H. Sloan stated that this is only the third time in a fifteen-year period that such an award has been made, but that he felt it was "most justly deserved" this year.

Annuals are being distributed in Room 201 of the Administration Building. Present identification cards. Students enrolled for the entire year are entitled to a free yearbook; those here only this semester may obtain a copy on Friday of this week for $1.50.

Ellington Will Deliver Commencement Talk

Governor Buford Ellington will deliver the commencement address Friday, May 26, at 5:30 to conclude the spring convocation program at the college. One hundred and eighty six students are scheduled to receive the Bachelor's degree and 21 are candidates for the Master of Arts degree. This is the second section of the 1961 class. There were 64 members of the January class and approximately one hundred will receive degrees at the August commencement.

The spring commencement program will begin with the annual senior-alumni faculty banquet Saturday evening, May 20. Dr. Homer Pittard, alumni secretary, is in charge of the program.

The traditional baccalaureate services, originally scheduled for May 21, will not be held. Decision to discontinue these services was reached by the administrative committee when the plan for a three-class commencement program was started.

Governor Ellington has especially close ties with the college since a son, John, graduated from MTSC in 1957. A daughter, Ann, is a student at the college at the present time.

The tentative list of candidates for the Master's Degree announced by Dean Howard Kirksey includes: Ralph O. Adams, Lawrenceburg; Harold M. Batsel, Bowling Green, Ky.; Charles E. Bean, Chattanooga; Angie K. Caffy, Madison; Samuel E. Clonts, Manchester; William Moody Cummings, Spencer; Fred Grider, Tullahoma; William R. Hastings, Magnolia Springs, Ala.; George F. Henson, Copperhill; Robert B. Kennedy, Fayetteville; Benjamin B. McCeney, Jr., Silver Springs, Maryland.

The "Sidelines" staff takes great pleasure in presenting as its final issue for the 1960-61 school year a sixteen-page edition, the largest issue ever published in the history of MTSC.

Drill Team Hits Pay Dirt—$40 A Minute

The Sam Davis Drill Team proved the old adage that "practice makes perfect" before a large crowd of thrilled spectators in Savannah Friday when they placed second in a field of eight for honors in the Chatham Artillery 175th Anniversary Celebration Drill Competition.

For the ten minute display of fancy drill maneuvers expert precision and showmanship, the MTSC team won the highly contended number two position, and for their efforts received a trophy featuring a replica of the original Chatham Artilleryannon and a check for $400.00

In competition against the Sam Davis team were listed such teams as The Citadel (first place), Auburn, East Tennessee State, North Georgia, Mercer, Mississippi, Southern and Clemson.

To insure fairness in the difficult task of judging, a joint service team of judges was formed that included representatives of the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps.

This highly professional group of critics checked each team against a set score sheet, noting such major points as cadence, alignment and interval, neatness of appearance, uniformity, and minor points such as positioning of fingers grasping the weapons, forearms and elbows.

When the final score sheets were compiled, only 23 points separated the first and last teams.

The competition was held within (Continued on Page 7)

Art Exhibition Will Show Through May

The fourth annual Student Art Exhibition opened Sunday, May 7, with a reception from 2-4 p.m. This display will remain in place through May 26.

Each year art work by students in the art department is presented for exhibition as a way of making a graphic summary of the year's work and as a way of acquainting the student body of the college and the public with the activities in this area of the college.

The art staff stated that they felt the work to be of unusually high caliber this year and that in their opinion the diversity of the work assured it having a wide interest. Work of approximately one hundred students is included from such areas as painting, design, drawing, crafts and art education.

This is the final exhibition in a series that the art department has sponsored this year. Mr. David DeLoux of the art staff, exhibition chairman, stated that the public's response to these exhibitions has been gratifying and was sincerely appreciated.

Students and townspeople are cordially invited to view the exhibition at any time. Gallery hours are 8-5 daily. The gallery is on the second floor of the Fine Arts Building.

Integration And Us—

Nine days from today more than two hundred seniors will don caps and gowns and begin the processional which will lead to the receiving of the coveted diploma, the leaving of MTSC, and, for many, the beginning of a career in teaching.

Those of us who enter the teaching profession will enter the core of a period of turmoil. On one side we will hear "Two-four-six-eight, we don't want to integrate!" Then there will be "Jesus died to make men holy, let us strive to make men free"—and "Don't shop at _____"—and the black-faced effigy will be tossed in the turbulence of a mob of our contemporaries.

We may have strong—even violent—opinions on either side. We may stand on soap-boxes and preach love for fellow-man, or we may form picket lines and plant bombs. We may put on a dull mask of resolution, accepting the inevitable with bitterness. Or we may even rush to the other side, showing perhaps too much partiality toward those newer students in our schools in a desperate effort to prove to the world (and perhaps to ourselves) that we are not biased.

Only one thing is certain: we cannot remain aloof and untouched by the raging bitterness surrounding us. We consider the words, timeless words, of Wordsworth, poet-prophet:

But this is a passion over-near ourselves,
Reality too close and too intense.

And intermixed with something . . .
Of scorn and condemnation personal.

And we wonder

. . . How might we believe

That wisdom could, in any shape, come near
Men clinging to delusions so insane.

Perhaps the most rational approach we have heard is that voiced by the incoming editor of the University of Georgia's "Red and Black," who says "I think that they knew it was coming . . . Most students accept the fact . . . As for me, I'm going to act like a college student should act. I know I'll treat anyone with the proper respect they deserve."

Let us not, as teachers, as leaders of the youth of tomorrow, plant any more tombstones to mark the South's path of retreat. NOW surrounds us—engulfs us. Let us face that NOW with the words from Agnes Scott College's "News" fresh in our minds: "Acceptance is always more difficult than struggle. Still only in acceptance is there sanity."

And let us face that NOW with the final words of a favorite Protestant hymn ringing in our ears:

Join hands then brothers of the faith,
Whatever your race may be—
Who serves my Father as a son
Is surely kin to me.

Three MTSC Students Injured In Freak Accident

A freak gust of wind during the blustery April 28 afternoon resulted in injury to three MTSC students driving from Lebanon.

Gary Franklin Thompson, driver of the Volkswagon, was the more seriously injured of the three. Other riders were John Sweatt Jr. and Kenny Berry.

According to State police, the light automobile was struck by a sudden wind sweep that caused it to go out of control and eventually crash into an embankment after skidding about 300 feet. The accident occurred about ten miles north of Murfreesboro on highway 231 as the boys were returning home from classes.

Were men's mental appetites comparable to that of their stomachs, few men would be left in what is now considered the average intelligence bracket.

The "Sidelines" extends sympathy to Capt. Edgar M. Howard and the family of his brother, Charles Howard, who died in an automobile wreck in Texas, April 26. Mr. Howard worked for a telephone company and in stopping for one of his employees the vehicle was struck by a pick-up truck.

tronaut in space; what is your idea of an ideal husband; who do you think is the most important man in the U.S. today. Emily thought Kennedy and Khrushchev were equally important because "if they disagree, you know what might happen."

Brenda Davis thought her father was the most important man. "I just think he is the greatest . . . he's done so much for me."

It Happened On Campus

By Kenneth Love

With the trees bright and green, flowers blooming and girls on top of Monohan sunbathing, who can think of final exams? Third floor of Smith hall has plenty of activity during the daytime. No, it's not boys watching television-but they have telescopes. The name of the popular song there is "Oh, Say Can You See."

Congratulations to all the boys in thin clothes (track) that have broken school records this year. Thirteen of sixteen records have a new standing. A few of the men have broken their own record this year. They just can't be satisfied. Keep up the good work.

As this is the biggest issue in the history of the college, we want Pat Turner to know that we think a lot of her. She is the only student to be editor-in-chief for three consecutive years. A vote of thanks to her and Betty Caudill, business manager, for a successful year.

Bill Wade, professional football player, was one of the judges at the Miss Murfreesboro contest Saturday night. After one of the college girls did a dance as her talent, he let out a deep sigh of relief. To him it must have been eye-catching. MTSC had four of the eleven contestants in the contest.

Phi Sigma Beta, the MTSC equivalent to Phi Beta Kappa, granted membership to five MTSC students with above 3.60 average last Saturday night. They are Linda Faye Cantrell, 3.89, from McMinnville; Janey Lee Smith, 3.83, from Lynchburg; Betty Willard, 3.76, from Chattanooga; Clifton C. Thompson, Jr., 3.70 from Spring Hill, and John Cook, 3.61, from Murfreesboro.

The rumor is that several bets were lost this week. I know of one faculty member who lost a bet with another that the annuals would not be here until the end of school. Well, Sylvia Williams and her crew have the annuals here and await you to pick them up. They are in Room 201.

Faculty members are in the news today. Jesse Smith has been appointed chairman of the co-ordinating committee of the Tennessee Mathematics Teachers Association which is responsible for the state wide math contest to 4,000 high school students. Mr. Burns Phillips will serve as Middle Tennessee regional chairman for next year and Harold Sparker will serve as the college chairman.

William D. Brinton, Jr., MTSC senior from Nashville, has been appointed editor of the Tennessee Odd Fellow, the official publications of the IOOF lodge. Brinton, who aided in the organization of the local chapter of the Collegiate Council of the United Nations, has been appointed for the fifth year as assistant director of the Odd Fellows Pilgrimage to the United Nations.

Hamilton Hall, men's dormitory in a co-educational college, was just across a courtyard from Willard Hall, where girl students lived. The occupants of Hamilton were increasingly careless about pulling down shades while disrobing and showering.

Presently the girls sent over a note: "To residents of Hamilton Hall. Course in anatomy not appreciated. Signed, Willard Hall." Back, promptly, came the reply: "Course in anatomy optional."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR - - -

The New President Speaks—

To the Editor:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank those of you who voted for me and supported me in the recent ASB election.

To you who supported my opposition, I congratulate you on taking part in the election. To those who did not vote or take any part in the election, I hope you will give the matter consideration and see fit to participate in future elections. I think every student should exercise his freedom of voting. I urge you to lend a hand in all events of the coming year.

I will work diligently with the other ASB officials and the administration in bringing about the best relationship possible between the two. I will strive to the best of my ability and strength to efficiently carry out the duties of the presidency.

Again I urge you to support all events of the coming year.

Respectfully yours,
Charlie Harrell

So Does The Veep—

To the Editor:

I would like to express my appreciation to all of the students who voted for and supported me in the recent ASB election.

I would like to promise not only those students who supported me, but also to those who supported my opposition and to those who did not exercise their privilege to vote, that I will be willing to serve them in any way I can during the coming year.

I am looking forward to working with our president, Charlie Harrell, and with the administration to make our fiftieth anniversary one of the best years ever for the students.

I urge you to let us, your officers, know your opinions on any matter concerning the life of the students. Without this knowledge we cannot improve.

Methodist Students Travel For Planning Camp Retreat

By Holland Bratten

Late in April a group of Methodist students moved out of Murfreesboro at 4:00 on Friday — destination, Camp Hy-Lake on Caney Fork River, fifteen miles east of McMinnville.

The event for which the group assembled was a planning retreat for the Wesley Foundation. Rev. Joel Underwood and his wife, Helen, and Mr. Joe Evans accompanied the group for the weekend.

The group met together for four planning sessions. After each session, the group divided into several smaller planning groups and came together again for a session to contribute the ideas from each small group. Sunday morning, all the sessions were tied together in a most inspiring sermon by Dick Swain on "The Values to be Considered in Planning One's Future."

Members of the group enjoyed many extra activities. Crews were appointed to prepare meals and others to clean the kitchen and dining area. Each member of the group was asked to serve on a crew for one meal, and the rest of the free time was his own.

Water lovers enjoyed a rather icy swim off the dock of the Hy-Lake Camp. Others, not so brave, spent free time canoeing, fishing, sunbathing, hiking, basketball, volleyball, horseshoes or merely viewing the beautiful scenery which surrounds the camp.

After the evening sessions, the group enjoyed singing around the fireplace or the campfire and other activities. On Saturday night, a delightful talent show was presented in which every member of the group participated. Clever skits, dramatic monologues, ole' time melodramas and singing groups composed the entertainment for the evening.

The only problem during the whole weekend was getting the retreaters to "roll out" for breakfast. However, methods were devised to have everyone present. Several of the girls rolled one of their companions, who was still in her bed, around the road from their cabin up the hill to the main assembly lodge. There she was photographed and welcomed by all. If you don't believe it, just ask Jane Pyle; she didn't believe it could happen to her, but it did!

Other students who enjoyed the fabulous weekend at Hy-Lake were Jerry Jackson, Jean Fahlin, Mike McGinnis, Don Casey, Carolyn Callis, Nancy Smith, Mary Bratten, Judy Rice, Marcia Manley, Holland Bratten, Mary Lynn Nuckles, James Gentry, Bill Hunter, Virginia Jar-

Vickie McComb, Freshman, And Canadian Will Exchange Visits Through Grange

VICKIE McCOMB plans her summer vacation that will be spent in Canada as guest of a Canadian farm girl. She, in turn, will have the Grange exchangee to visit her in Tennessee. —Photo by Kenneth Love.

By Brenda Kirk

Vickie McComb, freshman at MTSC, is going to have an unusual summer. She will spend the month of August on a 550-acre farm in Ontario, Canada.

It all began when a Canadian girl wrote the National Grange Youth Committee asking to be an exchange with a girl in Tennessee.

Vickie, 18, who lives in Maryville, will have the Canadian girl as her guest during the month of July.

She plans to show her the state of Tennessee and highlight the sight-seeing with a tour of MTSC, since the Canadian "especially wants to see how a typical Southern girl lives."

Vickie, whose father, Allan W. McComb, is Tennessee head master of the State Grange, is a member of the State Grange Youth Committee.

She holds the 7th degree, the highest degree of the Grange, conferred at the National Convention.

The group's objectives include working "toward better relations between teen-agers of different states." They accomplish this by the members spending summers on farms in different states with other Grange members.

The Grange is a national farm fraternity that works toward community improvement and activities for farm families. It was through Vickie's acquaintance with Middle Tennessee Grange members that she learned "what a marvelous college MTSC is."

Dr. Hilary D. Parker, professor in the education department, and Mr. Joseph Young and Mr. B. B. Gracy, professors in the agriculture department, are also Grange members.

Cast Of Thirty Presents 'Man Who Came To Dinner'

By June Carole Vickery

The Buchanan Players deserve great praise for the splendid presentation of Miss Hart and George S. Kaufman's The Man Who Came to Dinner.

Under the notable direction of Mrs. Dorethe Tucker, the cast and crew workers created their prime production of the year.

The distinguished cast gave a striking performance. The thirty-three member cast included Bruce Hancock, Carole King, Vickie Wise, David Gammons, Janice Wynne, James Gentry, Virginia Woodall, Anne Petty, Jeanie Stone, Gordon DeFriesse, Joyce Leigh Edens, Bob Turman, Betsy Sims, Scottie Ward, A. W. Powell, Bob Conwell, Agnes Carlson, Kent Brisby, Jerry Dooley, Reid Bell, Dick Schoonman, Roger Wilkerson, Dickie Barnes, John Spinning, Alex Holder, Kenneth Love, Linda Branum, Brenda Sowell, Ruth Bigger, Sue Pever, Bill Hunter, Jimmy Dean and Tom Watts.

Also deserving mention are members of the production staff. Carolyn Benson was as assistant director and Burt Barrett acted as technical director. Sylvia Bankert served as house manager, while Bob Conwell headed ticket sales, Linda Branum, properties, and Brenda Sowell, make-up.

In charge of set design was Dave Gammons; set construction was done by Kent Brisby. Betsy Sims was publicity head and Jean Bonney was in charge of the programs. Lighting was handled by Dick Schoonman and costumes by Linda Witherspoon.

Crew members who rendered much to the production were Linda Woodall, Willy Mae Pendergrass, Anna Primm, Tag McMillan, Sarah Horton, Judy Ragsdale, Cherry Barnes, Brenda Molloy, Janice Speed, Holland Bratton, June More, Donna Davenport and Carolyn English.

Sets and properties were furnished by Mr. Bill Wilson of the education department, Paschal Brothers Furniture Company, Haynes Hardware and Wilson-Quick Pharmacy.

An attractive display in the vestibule caught many an attentive eye during intermission. The display, replacing the accustomed art exhibit, consisted of posters, programs, photographs and notices of past productions of the Buchanan Players. Attention centered around two manikins dressed in costumes from the production of "Macbeth" and displayed against a background of castle gray stone.

Wedding Bell Set To Ring

By Jean Bonney

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Brown of Manchester announce the engagement of their daughter, Lydia Sue Maddux MTSC Senior, to Charles E. Floyd. The wedding will be a June event.

Mr. and Mrs. James Williamson announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Fay, to John McKelley Bramblett. The wedding will be Sunday, August 6.

Mary Martea McArthur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel McArthur of the Raus community, was wed to James D. Norris. The rites were an event of April 30.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Walpup announce the engagement of their daughter, Sarah Ruth, to Carl E. Ridenout. The wedding date is May 20.

Miss Barbara Jean Belcher and Howard Marshall Vaughn will be wed August 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray Ragsdale announce the engagement of their daughter, Judy Ann, to Andrew Burton Barrett. Both are MTSC students.

Nancy Ellen Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, will be wed to William Jefferson Hickey, Jr., on Saturday, June 10. Both are seniors at MTSC.

The former Miss Frances Jean Hoover became Mrs. James L. Ross on November 25, 1960, according to recent announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. Hassell Hendricks Brush announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Ann, to Glenn Franklin Nabors. The wedding date is June 23.

Brenda Lee Dale, daughter of Terry and Linda Bravidley Dale, was born April 17 at 6:00 at Giles County Hospital. Terry is a MTSC student.

Skip Dickens Is Elected As Art Club President

Homer (Skip) Dickens is the new Art Club president, and his fellow-officers are Ann Ellington, vice-president, and Sandra Talley, secretary-treasurer.

I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.—(Philippians 4:13)

Those who grow "weary in well-doing," who find themselves giving in to despair or temptation, can renew their courage and strength in this magnificent declaration of faith by Paul the Apostle. For the Christian, it is wonderfully true that the obstacles which face him are never as great as the Power behind him.

Jones Jive

Jones Represented At Social Affairs

By Bill Hunter

With this semester coming to a close, the Jones Hall residents are looking forward to a summer full of working, vacationing, and possibly some summer courses.

It seems that Jones Hall has been well represented at the recent school picnics, banquets, and parties, including the Sidelines banquet, the Alpha Psi Omega initiation, the Wesley Foundation retreat, and the Drama Club picnic.

Many of the Jones boys were present at the all-student picnic and helped to keep things rockin'. They participated in the softball games, sack race, tug-of-war, swimming and dancing. The all-student picnic served as a climax to an enjoyable year at MTSC, and also served as a reminder that final exam week is not far away!

It is apparent that many of the freshmen boys at Jones will begin preparing for their exams in advance after living through the ordeal of their first finals last semester.

Most of the boys at Jones no longer feel like "green" freshmen but are ready to take their place in the sophomore class of MTSC.

TAX FACTS

Our patchwork tax structure forces taxpayers with identical incomes to pay widely varied taxes, according to statistics quoted in the Reader's Digest.

Taking $6000 as the income the Digest cites these paradoxical examples: a married couple whose income is all from investments in state and local securities pays no tax at all; a couple whose $6000 comes from the sale of stocks or property will pay as little as $300; a couple whose income from salary must pay $844.

Graduate Of 1954 Named As Editor

Tom Kennard Hill, MTSC class of 1954, has been named editor of the Tennessee Holstein News, a 32-page quarterly published by the Tennessee Holstein Breeders Association.

Mr. Hill, who majored in agriculture and took all the MTSC journalism work offered, later went to the University of Missouri school of journalism for graduate study in the field of agriculture journalism.

He is married to the former Betty McClanahan and operates the Cedar Hill dairy farm four miles north of Murfreesboro on highway 231. Mr. Hill is also in the dairy supply business.

The bop, as we know it today, started in 1954 with Bill Haley's Shake, Rattle, and Roll. In 1955, some of the big bop records were Fats Domino's Ain't That a Shame and Bill Haley's Rock Around the Clock, which became the national anthem of rock and roll. In 1956, the nation bopped to such songs as Little Richard's Reddy Teddy, Fats Domino's My Blue Heaven, Elvis Presley's Hound Dog, and Carl Perkins's Blue Suede Shoes.

In 1957, the dance craze hit America. Old dances like the bunny hop, Mexican hat dance and the rocka-conga came back. Jimmy McCracklin had everyone doing the walk. The stroll was started that year with C. C. Rider by Chuck Willis and Back to School Again by Timmie Rodgers. The chalyppo started its climb to popularity with Mickey and Silvia's Love is Strange and Paul Anka's Diana.

Big dance records in 1958 included Short Shorts and Sweet Little Sixteen. In 1959, Duane Eddy made his debut with Rebel Rouser.

During 1960 and 1961, another dance craze hit the nation. It started Chubby Checker's The Twist. This was followed by Twistin' U. S. A. by Danny and the Jrs. The pony hit the top of the dance charts, encouraged by Chubby Checker's Pony Time, Pony Express by Danny and the Jrs., and Pony Train by Titus Turner. Some more big dances in this era include the continental, slop, hucklebuck, hully gully, and mess around.

BSU Holds Banquet; Crumpacker Is Speaker

By Louise Sullivan

This banquet was semi-formal and the theme was be Cafe de Parea.

The speaker was Mr. Joe Crumpacker, Student Director at Tennessee Tech.

Annual Honors Day Program Sees 104 Receive Awards

One hundred and four MTSC students were recognized for outstanding academic and activities achievement at the annual Honors Day program at last Thursday morning, May 11.

The awards included honorariums, medals and plaques to outstanding students in agriculture, accounting, business education, home economics, music, industrial arts, publications, science, the theater and typewriting; the presentation of certificates to those included in the 1961 Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities the announcement of the members of Phi Sigma Beta scholastic honor society, and the students who have achieved a 3.5 or better scholastic average.

Dr. Francis Deter, chief of the psychology service at the Veteran's Administration Hospital, was the principal speaker of the day. Stanley Rogers, retiring president of the Associated Student Body, and Thelma Holman, ASB vice-president, gave farewell addresses.

The devotional was by Dean N. C. Beasley and the introductions by Dean Howard Kirksey. The presentation of honor students was made by Dean Belt Keathley.

Dr. Quill E. Cope, president of the college, extended the felicitations of the administration to those recognized for outstanding scholarship and achievement.

The major awards were as follows:

Agriculture, presented to Robert A. Woody by Dr. T. C. Bigger.

Accounting, the Dearman Award presented to Clyde Clifford by E. W. Midgett.

Home economics, presented to Sylvia Williams by Miss Margaret Putman.

Harp Singers, presented to Anne Wiedrich Maggart, Barbara Simmons, Glenn Arnold, Bob Hollingsworth and Joe Mills for four years distinguished service by Margaret Wright.

Industrial arts, presented to James O. Woodward by E. S. Voorhies.

Journalism, presented to Pat Turner and Betty Caudill for outstanding work on the "Sidelines" by Gene Sloan.

Science, presented to Larry Wayne Houk by Herman Boyd, the Chemical Rubber Company award for outstanding work in physics.

Theater, presented to Burton Barrett for outstanding work in production and Bonnie Hudgens for acting by Dorothe Tucker.

Typewriting, presented to Sandra Minor by John Morris Puckett on behalf of the Underwood Company.

The United Business Education Association Award presented to Sharon Brooks by Hollie Sharpe.

J. Wade Gilbert, chairman of the faculty Phi Beta Kappa committee, announced the election of eleven outstanding students to the Phi Sigma Beta scholastic honor society. These are Linda Faye Cantrell, John Ranson Clark, John Aubrey Cook, Carolyn Land Cummings, James Bascom Durham, Donald Lynch Hill, Barbara Eve Simmons, Helen Maxine Smith, Janey Lee Smith, Clifton C. Thompson, Jr., and Betty Marie Willard.

Donald Lynch Hill is completing five years of college work with a straight A average.

Those students with averages above 3.75 in the graduate division include Howard Wayne Bass, Angie Kerr Caffey and Raleigh Ray Wooten, MTSC graduates; Benjamin Bird McConey, Jr., University of Tennessee graduate; Carroll Hart Smith, Cumberland University graduate.

Bobby Simpson Awarded UG Graduate Fellowship

Bobby Simpson, MTSC senior from Murfreesboro, has recently been awarded a graduate fellowship to the University of Georgia, a teaching assistantship in mathematics.

Bobby is a graduate of Murfreesboro Central High School, where he was manager of the football team, a member of Mu Alpha Theta, Mathematics honor society, and a member of the Key Club.

At MTSC he is a member of the Baptist Student Union, the Chemistry Club and the Sigma Club. He serves on the Midlander staff and was selected to be included in the 1961 edition of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Bobby is majoring in mathematics and chemistry and has a minor in English. A member of the First Baptist Church in Murfreesboro, he will graduate in August, 1961.

Phi Sigma B. Honor Society Initiates Six

At initiation ceremonies Saturday evening, May 13th, six students with outstanding scholastic records at MTSC became members of the Phi Sigma Beta honor society.

These new members include four seniors and two juniors. The seniors are John Aubrey Cook, Murfreesboro; James Bascom Durham, Murfreesboro; Clifton C. Thompson, Jr., Columbia, and Betty Marie Willard, Chattanooga. The juniors are Linda Faye Cantrell, McMinnville, and Janey Lee Smith, Belvidere.

Phi Sigma Beta honor society was organized in 1955 to promote and reward excellence in scholarship at Middle Tennessee State College, and is sponsored by members of Phi Beta Kappa national honor society who are on the college faculty, or friends of the college in the Murfreesboro community.

The initiation was brief but impressive. The new members were each presented a scroll and a gold key in evidence of their attainments. Dr. Quill Cope, President of MTSC, was the speaker for the occasion.

After the conclusion of the formal initiation program, members and invited guests enjoyed an informal coffee hour.

Members of the faculty participating in the initiation were Margaret Wright, Mrs. Roscoe Strickland, Herman Boyd, Miss Virginia Derryberry, Dr. Emily Calcott, Dr. Charlotte Allen, and J. Wade Gilbert, faculty sponsor.

Three On Faculty Retire This Year, Will Be Honored

MTSC students and faculty members will have a last opportunity to pay tribute to three retiring faculty members at the Saturday evening faculty-senior-alumni and at a faculty tea Sunday afternoon.

The three, Horace G. Jones, Miss Elizabeth Schardt and Dr. Clifford N. Stark are the subjects of a recognition page in the "Campus Camera" section of the 1961 Midlander.

Mr. Jones has been on the MTSC faculty since 1921 and during that period taught for 138 consecutive quarters. He was for many years head of the mathematics department and faculty chairman of athletics. He attended Vanderbilt University, MTSC and Peabody College.

Miss Elizabeth Schardt, assistant professor of foreign languages, is one of the most widely traveled members of the faculty, having studied in France, Belgium and Mexico and having visited most of the European and South American countries in her extensive travels. She has been on the faculty at MTSC since 1918. She is a graduate of the University of Tennessee and Peabody College.

Dr. Clifford Stark received the B.S. degree in agriculture from the old Middle Tennessee Normal, attended Peabody College and received the Ph.D. degree from Cornell University, where he was professor of bacteriology for many years. He spent the eight years as head of the MTSC department of agriculture and farm manager. Following two years work at the University of Madras, India he returned to MTSC two years ago.

One thing the discovery of the North Pole revealed is that there is nobody sitting on top of the world.

National Defense Awards Fellowships To Four Seniors

Graduate National Defense Education Act Fellowships have been awarded to John Ranson Clark, Carolyn Cummings, James Durham and Howard Graden Kirksey, Jr., by the United States Offices of Education.

The purpose of the Graduate N.E.D.A. Fellowship program is to increase the supply of college teachers. Each fellowship provides a stipend and all fees and tuition for three years of graduate study leading to the Ph. D. degree.

Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Clark, of Murfreesboro, is a graduate of Central high school. At MTSC he is treasurer of Pi Gamma Mu, vice-president of the Sigma Club, and was named Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities. A history, political science, and economics major, Ransom plans to major in history at the University of North Carolina.

Carolyn, who plans to major in sociology at Purdue University, is a graduate of Central high in Murfreesboro. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Cummings, she was named "The Girl Most Likely to Succeed," awarded the D.A.R. medal, and was co-editor of the Hi-Lights at Central.

She is a sociology major at MTSC and holds membership in Tau Omicron, Kappa Delta Pi and Phi Kappa Delta. Secretary of Pi Gamma Mu, she is also business manager and administration editor of the Midlander.

Durham, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Durham of Liberty, Kentucky, a graduate of Macon County high school where he was editor of the yearbook, captain of the basketball team and valedictorian of his class. An English major, he is a member of Pi Gamma Mu, Sigma Club, and Phi Sigma Beta at MTSC. He was named Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities. His post graduate plans are to major in English at the University of Arkansas.

Kirksey, the son of Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Kirksey of Murfreesboro, is a graduate of Central high school, where he was president of the senior class and captain of the football team.

At MTSC he is a chemistry major and president of the Chemistry Club. He also received the freshman and sophomore leadership award. He will attend Auburn University and major in chemistry.

A business school teacher was quizzing her class of stenographers. "What is the first thing you do when your employer buzzes?" she asked. A hand shot up quickly. "You pick up your notebook and pencil and answer that buzzard promptly."

King Waldrop, Queen Gallaher Reign At Frolic

Highlights of the Farmer's Frolic in April was the crowning of the king and queen, Bobby Waldrop and Billie Gallagher, winners in the penny-voting contest.

Jars were placed in some of the dorms and in the Administration Building. Each penny placed in the jar was a vote for the candidate of his choice.

The Tennessee Room was alive with the click of heels and the swirl of skirts as the Block and Bridle Club presented this square dance, which lasted from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m. The Block and Bridle and the Home Economics Club went together and sponsored a cake walk. There were many door prizes, the top prize being $10.00.

Kappa Delta Receives 17, Has Banquet

The Theta Omicron Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, the national honor society in the field of education, received seventeen new members on the evening of April 24.

Those initiated in an impressive candlelight ceremony were Benjamin McCeney, Nolan Barham, Judy Mitchell, Robert Peddycoart, Estelle Cunningham, Billie Jean Chrisman, Katherine Carter, Eleanor Bolton, Rosemary Cothron, Dorothy Doggett, Molly Lynch, Sue Crabtree, Joy Goode, Bettye Jean Hall, Mrs. Julia Snell, Virginia Geer and Faye DeLay.

Following the initiation, a banquet was held in Dining Room B. of the SUB for old and new members. Over thirty members and guests were present to hear Dr. Don Sahli, Director of Public Relations for the Tennessee Education Association, speak on the qualities of a teacher. Don de George of Murfreesboro entertained at the piano.

Officers for the school year 1961-62 were elected. They are president, Nolan Barham; vice-president, Estelle Cunningham; secretary, Sue Crabtree, and treasurer, Molly Lynch.

Building Contract Let For Home Ec

The contract for the Home Economics Building was awarded to Martindale Construction Company of Murfreesboro, the bid for the contract being $193,037.

The total cost of the building, including architectural fee, will be $202,688.85.

The contract calls for the building to be completed in 240 working days, which means that it should be ready for occupancy by January 1, 1962.

The building will be two-story on the front part, facing on North Tennessee Boulevard adjacent to the Home Living Center, and will be one-story on the rear part. It will be 218 feet long and 59 feet wide and will contain seven offices, three general purpose classrooms, model dining room, health and home nursing room, textile laboratory, clothing laboratory, foods laboratory, nutrition laboratory, and a nursery school laboratory.

In addition, there will be rooms and space for fitting and storage. It will be partially air conditioned.

Career Day Sponsored By Home Ec Department

Career Day at MTSC was held April 26, being sponsored by the home economics department to familiarize prospective students with the home economics curriculum.

Girls from high schools all over middle Tennessee were invited to visit the campus. They were taken on a tour of the entire college.

On their arrival, the girls were served refreshments in the Tennessee Room, and later they were the guests of the college for lunch.

This program was aimed at furthering interest in the field of home economics.

About one hundred eight-five girls from 22 schools attended.

Smith Appointed Math Chairman

Jesse L. Smith of the MTSC faculty has been appointed chairman of the co-ordinating committee of the Tennessee Mathematics Teachers Association by Professor Mack Tolar of Maryville College, newly elected president of the Association.

This committee is charged with the responsibility of preparing and administering a state wide mathematics contest to some 4,000 high school students. This is the second year that Mr. Smith has served in this capacity.

Burns Phillips, who has served as MTSC center chairman for the contest for the past three years, will serve as Middle Tennessee Regional chairman for the next year.

Harold Spraker will serve as the Middle Tennessee State College chairman next year.

Delivery Of 1961 'Midlander' Starts Today, Ends On Friday

Delivery of the 280 page Midlander, began this morning and will continue through Friday. The attractively bound book contains ten sections including a single signature of all the major buildings on the campus printed in blue. There are three color shots in the volume depicting an aerial view of the campus, the ROTC color guard and a group of the MTSC beauties.

Sylvia Williams of Murfreesboro is editor and Carolyn Cummings, also a Murfreesboro resident, is business manager. The assistant editor is Nolan Barham of Columbia, and Bobby Simpson of Murfreesboro is assistant business manager. Joyce Edens of Tullahoma is copy editor; Betty Willard of Chattanooga, feature editor; Page Chamberlain, Columbia, sports editor; Tommy Clardy, Murfreesboro, art editor; Carol Kink, Fayetteville index editor.

Other members of the staff, who worked under direction of Dr. Homer Pittard, are Jo Ann Mitchell, Murfreesboro; Nancy Jean Smith, Murfreesboro; A. W. Powell, McMinnville; Linda Lambert, Murfreesboro; Linda Anderson, Lewisburg; Judy Burgin, Tullahoma; Emily Gilmore, Bell Buckle; Julie Boring, Culleoka; Sharon Malone, Murfreesboro; Eve Drake, Nashville; Ann Ellington, Nashville; Johnny Moore, Nashville; and Ralph Bryan, Nashville.

Dr. Bealer Smotherman, Kenneth Love and Ed Delbridge did the photographic work. The book was printed by Ambrose Printing Company of Nashville under the personal supervision of Ben Shields. Gulbenk Engraving company made the more than 600 halftones used in the book.

J. Peyton Granted Spanish Award At Vanderbilt U.

Jeanette Peyton, a senior at MTSC, has been notified that she has been granted scholarship for the study of Spanish at Vanderbilt University this summer.

The scholarship, which is from June 19 to August 6, will give six graduate credits and was made under the National Defense Act of 1952.

Fifty scholarships were granted to those who are teaching or preparing to teach Spanish, French or Portuguese. The participants live in a special dormitory and speak the language they are studying at all times, at meals, in class and in the dormitory.

The course also includes intensive study in the cultural, political and social background of the country.

Orchestra Has Concert On May 14

By Marguerite Batey and Carolyn Thornton

Music was in the air Sunday afternoon when the Music Department of MTSC presented the college orchestra in their spring concert.

Composing this outstanding musical program were Georges Bizet's Overture to the Pearl Fishers, which is a three-act opera composed at the age of twenty-five; Johann Sebastian Bach's Prelude, Choral and Fugue, which is considered to be one of the greatest of Bach's works for organ; Franz Joseph Haydn's London Symphony (Symphony No. 104 in D major), which is the last of Haydn's symphonies and contains a definite dramatic power and passion that the orchestra vividly brought out; Wolfgang Mozart's delightfully lovely Trio No. VII in E flat major for Clarinet, Viola and Piano; Robert Schumann's exquisite Fairy Tales for Clarinet, Viola and Piano Opus 132; Georges Enesco's contemporary and emotionally deep Roumanian Rhapsody No. 1; and lastly Reinhold Gliere's Russian Sailor's Dance from The Red Poppy, which is a popular and famous Russian ballet that is the first example of Soviet Melodrama with a revolutionary subject.

Edson Perry, the college orchestra director, did an outstanding job in conducting the musicians in these works of the great masters. He should be highly commended for his orchestra's performance.

Orchestra personnel for this concert were first violins: Ruth Ann Ford (Concert Mistress), Jane Pyle, and Larry Richards; second violin: Andrena Briney (Principal), Ida Dunaway, Sallie Mae Osburn, and John McDonald; violas: Heinrich Ramm, Ortun Gilbert, and Freeda Perry; violoncelli: Carl Daw, Jr., Philip Howard, and Jimmy Young.

Double bass: Kenneth Pace and Donald McLain; flutes: Glenn Arnold and Jean Hammer; oboe: Marie Harris; clarinets: Roddy Byrne and Judy Blackwood; bassoon: Ben McClure.

Industrial Art Fair Sees 150 Exhibiting

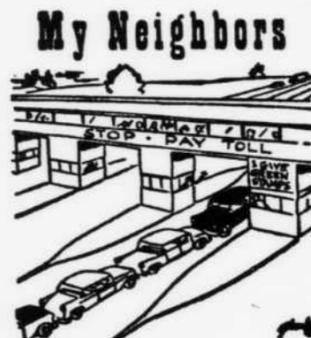

More than 150 students exhibited work in the Industrial Arts Fair held at MTSC recently. Seventeen schools ranging from seventh grade work by the Twin Rivers School in Davidson county to elaborate full room suites of woodworking by Murfreesboro Central and a variety of metal an dleathercraft by a Chattanooga school were featured in the exhibits.

Several hundred guests called during the five-hour exhibit period, held in the main display room of the mathematics-industrial arts drawing laboratories. All shops in the college industrial arts plant were open for guided tours.

A dinner Friday evening concluded the fair, which MTSC industrial arts department members plan to make an annual affair.

Ray Nunnley of Antioch is president of the Industrial Arts Council for Middle Tennessee. Irving Smith of the Twin Rivers School is vice-president and Charles Rash of Columbia is secretary.

Cannon, Maxwell Lead Thinlies To TIAC Track Meet Victory

Tom Cannon and Porter Maxwell led MTSC to the first place spot in the 27th Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic Conference track meet at Sewanee May 6.

Middle Tennessee collected a total of 63 team points. Second place went to Tennessee Tech with 43 points and Austin Peay with 38½ points.

This was the first time MTSC has won the title being runnerup to Memphis State in 1958 and 1960.

MTSC trailed Austin Peay 27½ to 23 after the morning field events, but Cannon and Maxwell put the Raiders ahead to stay when the track events began the afternoon session. Maxwell took first place with 4:29.5, while Cannon was on his heels for second.

First place awards were won by

Cannon in the 880 Yard Run with 1:58.8; Ray Cooper in the 120 High Hurdles with :15.1; Maxwell in the Two Mile with 10:15.4; Howard Smith in the shot put with 43'3¾"; and Maxwell in the mile.

Rudolph Schmittou, Tennessee Tech's ace end footballer, was named the most valuable athlete of the meet. Schmittou won the 220 yard dash, 440 yard dash, and was the leg man on the mile relay.

In the coaches meeting it was decided that the 1962 meet would be held at Austin Peay in Clarksville.

The other teams in the tournament included Southwestern, 37 points, Sewanee 24½, Union University 14, David Lipscomb 5, and Maryville College 0.

The results:

100-yard dash—Cross, (TT), Shaeffer (TT), Majors (S), Clinton (SW), Roeder (S). Time—9.9.

Curl Twirls 5-Hitter As MTSC Tops Sewanee

Conrad Curl twirled a nifty 5-hitter as Middle Tennessee State's baseball team edged Sewanee 3 to 2 here last week.

Don Tassej was the hitting star for MTSC, rapping a single and a double. He scored the winning run in the third inning, after leading off the frame with a double. He stole third and scored on Moir Hill's sacrifice fly to right field.

Raider Roundup

By Ray Bailey
Sports Editor

Dixon and Golfers "Tops"

As the Blue Raider sports parade comes to a skidding halt for the 1960-61 year, Dave Dixon appears to have the inside shot at the year's top Raider athlete.

Dixon, the determined junior from Memphis who plays extremely well under pressure, has been the mainstay of the undefeated golf team and placed a highly commendable sixth in the Southern Intercollegiate Golf tournament held last week at Athens, Georgia.

Dave had a four-round total of 285, 3 under par, and only four strokes behind winner Ron Webster of the University of Houston.

Dixon will lead his teammates into the OVC tournament, which will played at the Stones River course May 19-20, in defending their OVC crown.

Coach Elbert Patty's golfers form the winningest Raider combine of the year. Joel Vinson, Boots Scott, Gary Head, Johnny Moore, Doug Hall and Dixon have done excellent jobs in their winning season.

Tracksters Have Highly Successful Season—

Coach Joe Black Hayes' track team is having another fine season, winning five of its first seven meets, placing second in the Chattanooga relays and winning the Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic Conference track meet.

The thinlies have had numerous stars, but hurdlers Ray Cooper and Dick Swain, distance-men Tom Cannon and Porter Maxwell, and Howard Smith, shotputter, have stood out.

The tracksters are preparing for the OVC meet to be held in Cookeville May 19-20 and are a slight underdog to Murray State.

Footballers Have Mediocre Season—

The 1960 edition of Blue Raider football was somewhat below par in comparison to previous year, but the fact was attributed to a rebuilding year. The Raiders never quite jelled; but everyone got into some action and, the 1961 crew should be highly experienced.

The team had no real stars but was well balanced. Captain Joe Windham and co-Captain Nick Lynch were responsible for the highly competitive spirit which prevailed throughout the season.

The future outlook is extremely bright. Coach Charles "Bubber" Murphy has several good men coming back and may guide his team to another OVC title.

Basketeers Rally, Too Late—

The '60-'61 Raider basketballers came up with a 9-14 season record but had to come up with a down-the-stretch win streak to do it.

Bob Burden was the "big gun" for the Blue through the year, but several sophomores pushed into the limelight and will be counted on heavily in the future. Phil and Dwain Jones and Bennett Jent are pegged for starting roles next year, with veterans Paul Holland and Ed Newton rounding out the lineup.

The freshmen squad had a fairly successful season, producing many bright prospects. Ed Hobson, Jerry Allen, Ken Peek, Ron Wilmouth and Boots Scott should be in line for varsity jobs.

Tennis Tantrums—

It is actually hard to believe that the tennis squad is winless so far this season.

Andy Duhaime, Fred Bonny, Ronnie Guess, Leon Pruitt and Bonnie Hudgens are all fine tennis players but can't seem to play well on the same day.

It has been observed that the attitude of some is not what it should be.

Captain Andy Duhaime has done an excellent job as the number one player and leader of the team.

And What Happened to The Baseballers?—

The coach knows his baseball, the pitchers should be tops, the infield and outfield should be strong, the bench should provide great strength—but as the situation appears the equal is going deeper and deeper on the wrong side of the win column.

Several factors may have attributed to the dismal season, but one fact remains—if the rate of players quitting continues, the Raiders will do good to field a team in the OVC playoffs.

Ironical Situation —

For the second straight year Tennessee Tech has come up with an ace on the Stones River course and lost the match both times.

Jack Merrell, the senior star from Brevard, North Carolina, rapped his hole-in-one on the par-three fifth hole covering 217 yards. Merrell went on to win his individual match with Joel Vinson.

Shipp to Tulsa—

Ken Shipp, an assistant coach for Montreal in the Canadian pro football league, has been named backfield coach at the University of Tulsa.

Shipp played his high school football at Murfreesboro Central and was a standout for the Blue Raiders. He later served as an assistant on the Raider coaching staff.

Gen. Charles de Gaulle:

The man of character finds an especial attractiveness in difficulty, since it is only by coming to grips with difficulty that he can realize his potentialities.

Coach Stokes Participates In Athletic Spring Retreat

Assistant basketball coach Bill Stokes was on the program at the Fellowship of Christian Athletes spring retreat at Camp Hy-Lake the last weekend in April.

David Blair and Jerry Bailey, MTSC athletes, and John Cope and Mike Murphey of the Central high school in Murfreesboro accompanied Coach Stokes to the retreat.

MTSC Tops, Kentucky Next In OVC Grids Prospects List

Louisville, Ky.—A season of superlatives. In capsule form, that sums up the football outlook for 1961 in the Ohio Valley Conference.

Six of seven teams figure to be stronger than last year and at least two—Murray and Morehead—appear ready to field the most potent clubs in their history. Only defending champion Tennessee Tech, which swept all six loop tests last fall, may be weaker, but the presence of 16 seniors on the 1961 squad could transform Tech into another powerhouse.

From virtually every camp comes the same report: "Certainly, we'll be stronger in 1961, but so will all the other O.V.C. teams."

After assaying bits of intelligence, the seven head coaches picked the teams to finish in this order in 1961:

1. Middle Tennessee; 2. Murray;
3. Tennessee Tech; 4. East Tennessee;
5. Morehead; 6. Eastern Kentucky;
7. Western Kentucky.

Here's how the teams finished in 1960 league play (with won-lost-tied marks in parenthesis):

1. Tennessee Tech (6-0-0); 2. (tie) Middle Tennessee and Murray (4-2-0 apiece); 4. Morehead (2-4-0); 5. East Tennessee (1-3-2); 6. (tie) Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky (1-4-1 each).

Statistics, however, fail to give a true picture of the top-to-bottom balance in 1960. For example, 10 of 21 conference games were decided by one touchdown or less. Average point differential for all 21 games was 11 points. And the biggest victory margin was only 28 points.

Here's additional evidence of the top-to-bottom balance: tailender Western Kentucky upset Middle Tennessee 20-13 and bowled 10-7 to champion Tennessee Tech on a last-second field goal. Eastern Kentucky, which tied Western for the cellar, dropped last-minute nods to Middle Tennessee 14-12 and Murray 21-19. In O.V.C. play, there are no "breathers" or "set-ups."

Coaching staffs remain intact at all member institutions with Charles M. (Bubber) Murphy back at Middle Tennessee, Wilburn Tucker at Tennessee Tech, Don Shelton at Murray, Guy Penny at Morehead, Star Wood at East Tennessee, Glenn Presnell at Eastern Kentucky and Nick Denes at Western Kentucky.

In nine years, Middle Tennessee has won the loop title outright twice and shared the crown on two other occasions. On no occasion have the Blue Raiders finished worse than .500. Too, they've finished 1-2 for the last six years.

With 22 of 33 lettermen back, the Raiders have been tabbed as the team to beat. Five of six starters who finished up last fall were linemen. Nine of 11 lettermen backs return but all-O.V.C. fullback Larry Puryear, who rolled up 499 yards net rushing, has graduated. Alternate captain Jerry Pearson and Terry Bailey, who alternated at quarter for the past year, are back out a talented 190-pound sophomore passer, Louie Alford, is challenging both. Two 160-pound sophomore speedsters who played regularly as freshmen will handle the halfback chores. They're Larry Whaley, a whiz of a running back, and Jimbo Pearson, who doubles as a top-notch pass defender.

Junior Charlie Rice and transfer Jim Mundy also figure heavily at halfback. Fullbacks are Jim Nabors, shifted from half; Gene Watson, at 210 the only back to top 200 pounds, and Bill Hobbs, out with an injury last fall. Captain Don Faulk likely will be moved from center to left guard with Billy Joe Evans moving up to the No. 1 center post, backed up by Ken Ross. Howard Smith, 220-pound sophomore transfer from Memphis State, figures to handle right guard.

Charles Hallum and Joe Drennan also return at guard, and if the frosh fill the bill, Faulk may remain at his center post. Tackle is a strong point with Bill White, 220-pound soph who won a starting spot as a yearling, leading the way along with returnees Wayne Winters, Joe Wiggins and Gerald Hayes.

Newcomers Calvin Short, Jack Armstrong, Ken Forte and Charley Gupton also will be prominent. End will be handled by returnees Frank Halliburton, Butch Williams, Bill Settle and Gary Whaley, plus transfer George Dykes. Incidentally, Middle Tennessee has two sets of brothers—Gary and Larry Whaley and Jerry and Jimbo Pearson. The Whaleys are twins. Graduation claimed regular ends Nicky Lynch and Jerry Stapleton, as well as Dean Fisher, a starter until he was injured in the first game of 1960; tackles George Noe (a starter) and Charles Butler; guards Joe Windham and Sam Ezell (both starters) and Julian Kink, and fullbacks Larry Puryear (starter) and Hilrey Carr. Puryear and Windham won all-conference rating.

Strongest spots appear to be quarterback and tackle and perhaps halfback, too. Possible weaknesses are end and fullback. Of the 64 candidates who took part in the Blue-White spring scrimmage, 54 are products of Tennessee.

Following the evening meal, the participants met at the Desoto Hotel for a semi-formal dance featuring Tommy Dorsey's Band, lead by Warren Covington.

Next in the series of events was a composite Parade Saturday morning. The march ended in a large park and was climaxed by a barbecue lunch.

Participants were then transported to the Savannah Beach where they spent the last nine hours of their trip to the Deep South.

Head Of Air Force Will Speak Here On May 18

Ten Rutherford County civic clubs are joining in an Armed Forces Week dinner at which Secretary of the Air Force Eugene Zuckert will speak on May 18th.

The dinner, which is being held by the cities of Murfreesboro and Smyrna at the Tennessee Room of MTSC Thursday night, May 18, is expected to be attended by more than 400 Murfreesboro and Smyrna men.

Secretary Zuckert is expected to be accompanied to Murfreesboro by Senator Estes Kefauver, Senator Albert Gore and Congressman Joe L. Evins and Carlton Loser. The four will also speak at the banquet.

Why the blue suit with the gold bars?

You're needed... just as your father and grandfather were. It's an obligation that a lot of qualified college men have to meet... that of serving your country, when and where you are needed.

And the Air Force needs college-trained men as officers. This is caused by the rapidly expanding technology that goes with hypersonic air and space flight. Your four years of college have equipped you to handle complex jobs. You have the potential to profit from advanced training... then put it to work.

There are several ways to become an officer.

First there is Air Force ROTC. Another program, relatively new, is Officer Training School. Here the Air Force commissions certain college graduates, both men and women, after three months' training. The navigator training program enables you to win a flying rating and a commission. And, of course, there's the Air Force Academy.

An Air Force officer's starting salary averages out to about what you could expect as a civilian. First there's your base pay. Then add on such things as tax-free rations and quarters allowances, free medical and dental care, retirement provision, perhaps flight pay, and 30 days' vacation per year. It comes to an attractive figure. One thing more. As an officer, you will become eligible for the Air Force Institute of Technology. While on active duty many officers will win graduate degrees at Air Force expense.

Why not contact your local Air Force Recruiter. Or write to Officer Career Information, Dept. SC15, Box 7608, Washington 4, D.C., if you want further information about the navigator training or Officer Training School programs.

Annual All-Sports Banquet Attended By 310 Guests

Approximately 310 athletes and guests attended the All-Sports Banquet Monday night in the Tennessee Room of the Student Union Building. The annual dinner was in honor of the 1960-61 athletes in football, basketball, baseball, golf, tennis, and track.

Cheerleaders and sports managers were also awarded letters for their services during the year.

Outstanding athlete chosen by the members of the Middle Tennessee State teams was Jerry Pearson. The Springfield junior, who is alternate captain elect of the 1961 football team, was a regular on the football squad last season as quarterback, and was the number one catcher on the baseball team this spring.

The award to Pearson was presented by another former MTSC great and three time winner of the award, Ray Purvis.

Dick Swain, president of the "T" Club, presented MTSC President Quill Cope with trophies won by spring sports squads this season. They included first place trophies from the Tennessee Intercollegiate in both golf and track and the second place trophy won by the track team at the Chattanooga Jaycee Indoor Meet.

Mr. Horace Jones was recognized for his outstanding services to MTSC. Mr. Jones, who is retiring after this semester, his devoted 42 years service to the college and is a member of the athletic committee. The Raider football field is named in his honor.

Selected as the outstanding football player for the past season was fullback Larry Puryear, senior from Dalton, Ga. The outstanding award for basketball went to sophomore center Bennett Jent, of Hazard, Ky.

MTSC's top tennis award was given Andre Duhaime, a senior from Manchester, New Hampshire. The outstanding golfer was David Dixon, junior from Memphis; the outstanding trackman was junior Porter Maxwell, MTSC distance-man from Franklin, and the top baseball player selected was Phil Jones.

Athletic director and head football coach Charles M. Murphy awarded letters to the football team; Coach Ed Diddle, Jr., to the varsity basketball players, and coach Bill Stokes to the freshmen basketballs.

Spring sports lettermen were presented by Coach Joe Black Hayes in track; Coach E. K. Patty in golf; Coach E. O. Hawkins in tennis; and Coach Jack Deere in baseball.

Coach Edd Cantrell awarded letters for Mrs. Alma Bass to the college cheerleaders.

Ray Duffy, president of the Blue Raider Club, gave praise to the teams for the past year.

Mr. John Bragg presented graduating seniors with "T" Club Alumni cards for all sports.

President Cope gave the welcoming address, and Dr. Keathley gave the invocation.

EIGHT INITIATES OF PI GAMMU MU, national social science honor society, pose with the initiating team Seated are, Dr. Faud Baali, Cecile Mayberry, Jerry Williams, May Dean Coop and Robert Ross. Standing are, Carolyn Cummings, John Dillingham, William Rochell, James Preston, Donald Crook and Ransom Clark. Dr. Baali, Mr. Ross, Mr. Dillingham are faculty members. Other new members include Cecile Mayberry, May Dean Coop, William Rochelle, James Preston and Donald Crook.

Athletic Group Honors H. G. Jones

Members of the athletic committee and the health, physical education and recreation departments of MTSC joined Saturday night in honoring Horace G. Jones, who retires from the college faculty this year, with a dinner at the Frontier Room.

Gene Sloan, MTSC faculty athletic chairman, presided. Athletic director Charles Murphy paid tribute to Mr. Jones as did his former associate, Coach O. L. Freeman.

Coach Freeman presented Mr.

Jones with a billfold and a lifetime pass to all MTSC athletic contests on behalf of the faculty committee. Dr. Ed Baldwin was in charge of arrangements for the dinner.

Mr. Jones served as faculty chairman of athletics from 1923 until 1938. He has also been a baseball coach and acting athletic director for the college during his 42 year tenure. He was an outstanding pitcher on the Vanderbilt University baseball team during his student days. Jones Field, home of the Raiders, was named in his honor.

Raiders Top W. Kentucky In 96-31 Win

Middle Tennessee spotted Western Kentucky the sprints, then walked away in most of the other events to win a 96-31 victory last week.

It was the final dual meet of the year for the Blue Raiders, who won 6 and lost 2. They still have the Ohio Valley Conference meet in Cookeville May 19-20.

Winston Boone won all three dashes for Western, and was high point man for the meet with 15. Frank Haliburton led MTSC with 14 points, setting a new school record in the high jump with 6 feet, 3 3/4 inches.

The results:

100-YARD DASH—Boone (W), Willingham (MTSC), Moore (W). Time—10.1.

220-YARD DASH — Boone (W), Moore (W), Burkhart (MTSC). Time—22.7.

Dixon Takes Sixth Position In Golf Meet

David Dixon of Middle Tennessee fired two 72s Saturday to take 6th place in the Southern Intercollegiate Golf Tournament at Athens, Ga. The Memphis junior had posted 69 and 72 on the previous rounds, for a total of 285, three strokes under par.

With nine holes to go, Dixon was only one stroke off the leader's pad, but fell to a 37 on the back nine.

Ron Webster of the University of Houston had a final round of four under par 68, for a total of 280 to win the title. He nosed out Howell Frazier of Louisiana State, who had 281. Frazier was awarded the Southeastern Conference individual crown which is settled each year in conjunction with the Southern.

Middle Tennessee State's team of Dixon, Gary Head, Johnny Moore, Boots Scott, Joel Vinson, and Doug Hall tied for seventh place in the large field of outstanding teams from the South.

Tech Tipped By Golfers

Middle Tennessee won a golf match from Tennessee Tech 16-11 here last week, but it was Tech's Jack Merrell who stole the show at Stones River Country Club.

Merrell, a Tech senior, scored a hole-in-one on the par-three fifth hole. The ball traveled 217 yards and Merrell went on to win his individual match from Poel Vinson 2½-½.

The team win was the sixth in a row for MTSC's unbeaten golf team. Hall, the medalist, stroked it around Stones River in a one-under par 71 for the Raiders.

The results: David Dixon (M) beat Bob Farley 2½-½. Doug Hall (M) tied Bob Nichols 1½-1½. MTSC won low ball 3-0.

Jack Merrell (T) beat Joel Vinson 2½-½. Bob Odom (T) beat Boots Scott 2½-½. Tech won low ball 2½-½.

Johnny Moore (M) beat Jack Baggett 3-0. Gary Head (M) tied Gary Gibson 1½-1½. MTSC won low ball 3-0.

Needless to say, the weekend was enjoyed by all, and a great deal of planning was done for Wesley Foundation for the coming years.

The weekend provided an excellent chance for the incoming officers to become well acquainted with the duties of their offices. James Gentry will be replacing Dick Swain as president, Maryedith Martin will replace Holland Bratten as vice-president, Nancy Cooper will serve as secretary and Raymond Leech will receive the money bags and bankbook from Don Casey.

Numerous committee chairmen were selected to head the many groups which will be working to make Wesley Foundation the greatest ever in the coming years.

OVC Meet This Week-End Is Last Stand For State Championship Raider Golfers

MTSC will conclude a successful spring sports schedule with the Ohio Valley Conference meets this week-end. The track and golf teams will be on foreign soil as each tries to add the Ohio Valley championship to their Tennessee trophies.

The tennis team, which has the best record of several years despite its lack of unit victories, entertains the visiting OVC net teams.

Coach Elbert Patty's golfers captured their third consecutive Tennessee Intercollegiate Tournament Championship at Chattanooga last week. The Raiders won out over the 6-team Tennessee field with a score of 633. Behind the Raiders were University of Chattanooga 656; Tennessee Tech 660; Sewanee 663; Austin Peay 686; and Southwestern 777.

MTSC's undefeated golfers, who have rolled over six opponents in duel competition, placed sixth in the Southern Intercollegiate at Athens, Georgia last week. David Dixon was the sensation of the tournament in early rounds of play, firing a 68 on his first tour of the course.

Coach Joe Black Hayes' track team won the Tennessee Intercollegiate Track Tournament at Sewanee on May 5 and 6. Porter Maxwell and Tom Cannon aided the field event men in posting the victory.

The Raider thinclads, who had won six straight meets, were edged by the Vanderbilt thinlies at Nashville Saturday 70 2/3 to 65 1/3, in addition to the TIAA championship.

MTSC cracked six school marks in the process with two-miler Porter Maxwell setting a new standard at 9:56.5. Tom Cannon ran the 880 in 1:58.4; Gene Watson tossed the shot 44'1"; and discus man Bill Gibson heaved the discus 146'1" for a new mark.

Both relay teams set new marks with Ray Cooper, Gene Watson, Don Tasse, and Don Willingham posting a :44.65 in the 440 relay, while Richard Roche, Bennett Jent, Tom Cannon, and Frank Halliburton ran the mile relay in a 3:25.1 clip.

Bentley Takes State Post Of President

Charlene Bentley, a junior from Lebanon, was elected president of the Tennessee Home Economics Association, College Club section, at the State Convention held in Memphis recently.

Other student representatives attending from MTSC were Sylvia Williams, Margaret Vaughn, Carolyn Gwaltney, Sara Jane Warmbrod, Sharon Turner, Elaine Woodward, Margaret Smith, Janice Speed and Mary Elizabeth Walling. Home economic teachers Miss Margaret Putman and Mrs. Miles McMillan also attended.

Sylvia Williams, second vice-president for 1960-61, was among the twelve nominees and the top five candidates for "Miss Home Economics."

The convention, held at the Hotel Peabody, was climaxed by a cruise on the Mississippi River aboard the Queen II.

A graduate of Lebanon High School, Charlene is a home economics and mathematics major. She has served as secretary of the Freshman Class, secretary of Congress, 1960-61, president of the Home Economics Club, and secretary of Kappa Omicron Phi. She is majoring in mathematics and home economics and has a minor in secondary education. After graduation in May, 1962 the newly elected ASB vice-president plans to attend graduate school or teach.

APO Initiates New Pledges At Banquet

By Agnes Carlson

Production: Alpha Psi Omega Banquet

Scene: Dining Room B, Student Union Building, Friday, May 12, 6:30 p.m.

Cast of Characters: APO Pledges
Directors: Burt Barrett, President; Joyce Edens, Stage Manager; Carolyn Benson, Business Manager; Dick Barnes, Executive Board Member

Props: Slater Service

Synopsis of Scene:

Eleven new members of the Lambda Gamma cast of Alpha Psi Omega were inducted into the National Drama Fraternity at a formal banquet given in their honor Friday night.

These neophytes included: Judy Ragsdale, Carolyn Boatright, Janice Wynne, Bobby Conwell, Kent Brisby, Linda Branum, Jane Vickery, Tag McMillen, Scotty Ward, James Gentry, and Bill Hunter.

Following the invocation by Dick Barnes, a menu consisting of Tomato Juice, Tossed Salad, Steak, Baked Potato, Strawberry Short Cake, Hot Rolls, Tea and Coffee, was enjoyed by all. Entertainment during the meal was provided by the pledges.

A special event of the evening was the presentation of a trophy for outstanding acting to Bruce Hancock, who will long be remembered for his Lionel Barrymore-type portrayals in Lo and Behold and The Man Who Came to Dinner, and for his characterizations in Light up the Sky and Blithe Spirit. Mr. Hancock served as Business Manager of Alpha Psi Omega for the year 1959-60.

Review: Considered a big success! Well received by audience of Honorable Superiors: Mrs. Dorethe Tucker, sponsor, Bev Sadler, Bonnie Hudgens, Sarah Horton, John Spining, Jo Faye Moorehead, Betsy Sims, Roger Wilkerson, A. W. Powell, Agnes Carlson, Bruce Hancock, David Gammons, Virginia Woodall, Jeanette Peyton, Anne Petty. Honorary Members attending were: Dr. Clay Tucker, Mr. Bill Wilson, and Bob Benson. Other Superiors who were unable to attend included: Mr. and Mrs. Larry Payne, Holland Bratten, Jean Dooley, Silvia Bankert, Jerry Dooley, and Nancy Johnson.

After the banquet, the election of officers took place, at which time Burt Barrett turned over all presidential affairs to Betsy Sims. Agnes Carlson assumed vesp duties previously performed by Joyce Edens. Dick Barnes, executive board member for the past two years, will now handle all financial matters (Continued on Page 12)

Hill, Thompson Given Assistantships For Chemical Graduate Level Study

Donald L. Hill, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hill of Winchester, has won a biochemistry assistantship at Vanderbilt University for graduate study.

A graduate of Franklin County high school, where he was a chemistry student, Hill is a chemistry major at MTSC. He maintained a 4.00 average while attending undergraduate and graduate school at MTSC. He received both the B.S. and A.B. degrees in undergraduate work.

Hill is vice-president of the Chemistry Club and is a member of Pi Gamma Mu. He is married to the former Elaine Martin.

CLIFTON THOMPSON

Clifton Thompson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Thompson, Sr., of Columbia, has won a competitive award for graduate study in chemistry at the University of Mississippi.

A senior at MTSC, Thompson is a chemistry major and a math and physics minor. He is a member of the Chemical Association and Phi Sigma Beta.

A graduate of Spring Hill high school, where he was valedictorian of his class, he is married to the former Camelia Derryberry.

Dangler Plans German Study

Leah Margaret Dangler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dangler of Dunlap, will spend her junior year of college at the University of Heidelberg, Germany, according to the announcement made this week by Mrs. Ortrun Gilbert, her German teacher at MTSC.

Margaret was selected by Dr. C. M. Prugh, head of the Department of German at Heidelberg, Ohio, College, as one of a group of 25 outstanding students of the German language to spend next year in Germany.

Margaret graduated from Sequatchie County High School where she was editor of the school newspaper and yearbook. She was salutatorian of her senior class and a winner of National Merit Scholarship certificate of merit.

This year and last her grades were sufficiently high for her to be recognized at the "honors day award," and as a freshman she was awarded the GRC Book of Mathematics Tables for having the second highest freshman mathematics average.

AAUP Recognizes Honor Graduates

Members of the MTSC chapter of the University Professors Association continued their annual custom of recognizing the honor graduates of the senior class with a dinner Friday.

Mayor Frank Gray of Franklin, who is soon to become a Federal District judge for this area, was the principal speaker. Dr. Gerald Parchment, chairman of the MTSC chapter, presided. Dr. Ed Baldwin gave the invocation, and Dr. Norman Parks introduced the speaker. The MTSC Women's Trio of Linda Davis, Patricia Porterfield, and Brenda Sowell, accompanied by Margeret Wright, provided the music.

Those honored were Sharon Brooks, Ernest Burgess, Clark Ransom, Mrs. Louise Colquette, John Aubrey Cook, Carolyn Cox, Carolyn Cummings, James Durham, Mildred Morton, Barbara Simmons, Robert Simpson, Helen Smith, Mrs. Julia Harris Snell, Clifton Thompson, and Betty Willard.

MTSC Placed On D.C. Slate

A representative of the General Accounting office in Washington, D. C., will include Middle Tennessee State on future rounds of recruiting for the government central accounting, according to E. W. Midgett, head of the business department.

The recognition accorded the high calibre of MTSC business administration majors in accounting was revealed to Mr. Midgett while attending the Southeastern Section of the American Accounting Association at the University of Alabama last week.

Scores of MTSC accounting majors are employed by the State and many outstanding business firms in the South. The new contract will offer opportunity for MTSC graduates to be interviewed for jobs in Washington, D. C. immediately upon graduation.

We note that Metrecal has won the Nobelly Award for 1960. They have also introduced a new product, Metrecal Shampoo - for fatheads.

Graduate Work Expanded To Include Math Major

The expansion of the graduate program at MTSC to include a graduate major in mathematics has been approved by the State Board of Education. The new program will become effective June 5 at the opening of the summer session, at which time forty new mathematics majors will enroll under the auspices of the National Science Foundation.

Dr. Cope stated that developments in national and international affairs require more training in mathematics. He added that business establishments, governmental agencies, and school systems in this area demanded persons with advanced mathematical training.

The addition of mathematics will bring the number of graduate majors at MTSC to nine, namely: biology, chemistry, natural science, mathematics, social science, educational administration and supervision, elementary education, secondary education, and counseling and guidance. Numerous fields of study are open to graduate minors.

The new major, like all other academic majors, is designed to strengthen the scholarship of workers in the particular discipline and does not require any additional education courses of persons who already hold teaching certificates.

In the ten years of operation of the graduate program, MTSC has conferred 620 Master of Arts degrees and has admitted over 1,000 students to the graduate division. Currently there are 250 candidates for Master of Arts degrees.

Abernathy Attends Meets, Speaks At Eleven Schools

Bob Abernathy, director of field services, has returned from two important educational conferences at the University of Indiana and the University of Nebraska.

At the first of these, the National Advisory Council of the Associated Organizations in Teacher Education, of which Mr.

Abernathy is a member, decided to concentrate on six fields of improvements in teaching education. One of the most important of these studies, according to Mr. Abernathy, will be concerned with the use and limitations of "teaching machines."

"The purpose of the study is to aid teachers in selecting the best mechanical aids without being exploited by commercial interest," Mr. Abernathy stated.

At the National Field Services Association meeting at the University of Nebraska he made five reports on phases of evaluation of field services during a two-and-a-half day period.

Continuing to maintain his reputation as one of the most popular speakers on the MTSC faculty, Mr. Abernathy had commencement or senior banquet speeches scheduled as follows: May 5, Woodbury; May 12, Morrison; May 13, Manchester; May 16, Hendersonville; May 17, Chapel Hill.

Coming engagements are May 19, Hartsville; May 22, East Robertson; May 25, Culleoka; May 26, Kittrell; June 1, Madison High, Nashville, and June 5, Flintville.

He is dedicated the Kinks Lane Elementary school in Nashville on May 6 at four o'clock. Robert Wood, an MTSC alumnus, is principal of the new school.

On May 11 Mr. Abernathy made his fifth consecutive appearance as the speaker at the Safety Council meeting at the University of North Carolina, Durham; and on May 29 he will dedicate a state park at Greenville, Kentucky.

'Playboy' Begins New Magazine On Show Business

Hugh Hefner, editor-publisher of Playboy, has lifted the curtain on the name of their new magazine, which is scheduled for fall publication. The new periodical will be called Show Business Illustrated.

Hefner noted that Show Business Illustrated, like Playboy, will have a symbol identifying the magazine. This will take the form of a night owl. "Thus we are adding a second animal to our collection of company pets, joining the now famous Playboy rabbit," he said.

Commenting on the new magazine, Hefner declared that it "... will bring all the color, entertainment, personalities, news and excitement of show business to intelligent adult readers.

"This will not be a fan magazine, but rather a magazine aimed at that adult male and female audience that likes to know what's new and interesting in show business—onstage, backstage and offstage.

"There will be news and reviews of movies, legitimate theatre—both on and off Broadway, LP record releases, nightclub acts, major new television shows and series, and key happenings in concert, opera and ballet.

"In addition, each issue will be packed with expertly written features by name authors and authorities as well as colorful picture coverage of the people and events that are making news and history in the field. A major service feature of our new magazine will be its complete listings and ratings of current records, movies and shows designed to serve as a dependable buyer's guide to entertainment."

Hefner concluded his announcement by re-emphasizing the degree to which he plans the new magazine to be unlike any existing publication.

"Show Business Illustrated will be something entirely new—it will share Playboy's 'hip' point of view and have the same slick and colorful format, but it will appeal as much to women as to men. And while the business side of show business will be part of our area of coverage, it will be that side that is of interest to the informed consumer not the shop talk of the 'trades.'

"It will honestly profile the personalities who make show business the fascinating glamor business that it is, but we will stay far, far away from the cotton-candy pressagent pap of the fan books or the sanctimonious peeping-tomfoolery of the expose mags."

Publications Staffs Entertained By Keathleys

Dr. and Mrs. Belt Keathley entertained members of the Midlander and Sidelines staff with a hamburger supper Sunday evening at their home on Fairview Avenue.

The guests included Pat Turner, editor of the Sidelines, and staff members Marguerite Batey, Carolyn Thornton, Brenda Kirk, Sandra Barrett, Bill Hunter, Pat Beasley, Jimmy Dean, Carole Sanford, Kenneth Love, Nadine King, June Carole Vickery, Nancy Smith and Ann Turner.

Midlander staff members present were Sylvia Williams, editor; Carolyn Cummings, Bobby Simpson and Linda Lambert.

Dr. and Mrs. Homer Pittard and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sloan were other guests attending.

MTSC Is Granted $7,240 For Science

MTSC has been granted $7,240 by the National Science Foundation for an in-service institute for secondary school teachers on physical science for 1961-62 with Dr. J. Eldred Wisner named as director of the program.

Twenty five teachers will be selected from applications from teachers whose assignments are specifically in general science at the seventh, eighth and ninth grade or junior high levels. Preference will be given to those teachers who have had little or no training in the physical sciences.

Two courses have been proposed for the study. The first semester will be devoted to a study of the fundamentals of physical science, and the second semester study will be in methods and materials for teaching general and physical sciences.

The courses numbered will be listed as 441 and 442, experimental physical science, and will carry five hours credit. These hours will count on a graduate degree.

Mr. Dan Scott, assistant professor of science at MTSC will be the instructor for both courses. About 2½ hours each Saturday will be devoted to laboratory work.

Those participating in the institute will be given a travel and book allowance. Applications for admission to the course should be sent to Dr. J. Eldred Wisner, head of the department of chemistry and physical science.

Wiser Attends Meet At Indiana University

J. Eldred Wiser of the Middle Tennessee State College faculty attended a conference May 6-8 at Indiana University for directors of National Science Foundation summer institutes in biology.

The conference was arranged to bring the directors up-to-date on developments in high school biology teaching and to enable them to discuss mutual problems.

Sponsoring the meeting were Indiana University and the National Association of Biology Teachers, under a grant from the NSF.

Miss E. May Saunders Honored On Radio Skit

The Business and Professional Women's Club of Nashville and Station WLAC honored Miss E. May Saunders, long-time teacher of music education at MTSC, in a radio tribute, "Your Neighbor," at 9:05 a.m., last Saturday.

The script for the radio program, a weekly broadcast sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club of Nashville on Station WLAC, was written by a Rutherford County resident and former student of Miss Saunders, Miss Erlene M. Jennings.

Vets Club Honored By V.A. Hospital

The local Veterans Administration Hospital presented the Veterans Club with a Certificate of Commendation in recognition of volunteer service to veterans at its annual Volunteer-Employee Recognition Program on April 27.

This is the second consecutive year that the VA has honored the Veterans Club. Last year's Meritorious Service Award represented service in a minimum of 12 activities, whereas the Certificate of Commendation represents a minimum of 18 activities.

Commander Charlie Harrell, vice-commander Quenton Tubbs, Bill Davis and Jerry Jackson received the Commendation for the club.

Teachers Meet Here To Study Local Drop-Outs

MTSC was host in April for the second annual meeting of the Tennessee Attendance Teachers Study Council.

Gene Harvill was chairman of the group, Arthur Jones of the State Department of Education Secretary, and Dr. Bealer Smotherman of the MTSC faculty was the consultant.

Between 75 and 100 attendance teachers participated on the program and undertook a study of drop-outs in Tennessee schools during the past few years. Each participant had been studying ten case histories of drop-outs and reported findings of these studies during the three-day conference.

Registration began at 9:30 at the Union Building. A dinner and social meeting was held at the Reeves-Rogers School.

No Baccalaureate Slated This Year

MTSC will not have the traditional baccalaureate sermon during commencement week this year.

This decision of the administration was announced at a recent faculty meeting.

The annual alumni banquet is scheduled for May 20, with the commencement convocation at six o'clock May 26.

Three reasons were suggested for the abandonment of baccalaureate services. Since MTSC now has a January, May and August convocation, it was deemed inadvisable to have a Sunday service for only one class. The services were held for some years at 11 o'clock in the morning, and this hour conflicts with other church services. Last year an afternoon hour was set, and conflict developed with high school sermons in the area.

A third reason offered is the fact that such baccalaureate services are no longer observed in many other state school systems.

Forty-Four ROTC Cadets Set For Camp

Forty-four senior ROTC cadets from Middle Tennessee State College will report for summer camp at Fort Benning, Georgia June 17, according to Lt. Col. Donald D. Tummons, PMS.

During the period of the summer vacation, the time when most MTSC students are seeking the snow in the mountains, the sun on the beaches, or the funds to pay for the fall semester, these cadets will be down among the tall pines in south Georgia engaged in such unusual activities as throwing hand grenades, firing rocket launchers, and digging foxholes.

As is the normal routine in the senior ROTC program, MS III students attend six weeks of intensive summer training.

The program of training is built around a 44 hour, 5½ day week and will include in its coverage drills, parades and ceremonies; chemical, biological and radiological defense; first aid and care of mass casualties, signal communications and map reading; field fortifications, pioneering and camouflage; tactics, leader's reaction tests, inspection and extensive weapons training.

Among the weapons to be studied, both in theory and practice, are the M-1 rifle, 7.62 mm rifle, Browning automatic rifle, carbine, pistol, .30 cal machinegun, 7.62 mm machinegun, mortars, rocket launchers, grenades, recoilless group, mines and flame throwers.

Recreational facilities such as tennis courts, golf courses, and swimming pools are available for use in their spare time.

Also at Fort Benning, during and in connection with the Summer Camp Program, will be Lt. Col. Tummons, ROTC PMS, Captain Hall, Price, Regas, and Tyson, and Sergeants Love, Reed, Simmons, and Wilson. M/Sgt. Benson will be attending at Fort Knox, Ky.

Those attending include: Edward P. Bailey, Jr., Gary M. Clark, Charles E. Crowe, Joseph R. Cunningham, William P. Dailey, Gerald W. Davidson, James V. Dearing, Terrell P. Dille, Casper D. Dixon, Melvin R. Farnsworth, William G. George, Randall B. Harris, Benjamin C. Hartman.

Hixon, Arthur T. Holder, Paul G. Holland, Grady R. Leeman, John A. Liddle, Cammie C. Mangrum, Anthony M. Matussek.

Gene E. McCall, Jackie O. McCauley, Sam L. Mittwede, Aubrey J. Parker, Howard D. Patton, James Luther Reed, Thomas M. Reeves, Charles O. Rice, Robert D. Rose, James B. Sivells, Bernard K. Smith.

Herschell C. Statum, Don H. St. John, Ernest W. Stoddard, Bobby L. Sturdivant, Robert E. Taylor, William Thomas, Charles G. Tucker, Roger C. Wilkerson, William R. Williamson, Kenneth R. Neill.

Armed Service News

John Thomas Hayes, now stationed at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma has been promoted to Captain.

A graduate of MTSC in 1955, he served in Korea for 18 months and attended the Artillery Officers Career Course.

He will be transferred to Germany in August, 1961.

JAMES D. JOHNSON

Fort Benning, Ga. (AHTNC) -- Army 2d Lt. Jame D. Johnson, 1960 MTSC graduate from Franklin, Tennessee, has just completed the eight-week orientation course at The Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia.

The course is designed to familiarize newly-commissioned officers with the duties and responsibilities of an infantry unit commander. The Infantry School constantly prepares a better infantry for our Army by training and developing the leadership qualities of combat commanders.

Lieutenant Johnson is a 1955 graduate of Battle Ground Academy.

Twelve Seniors Will Receive 2d Lieutenant Commissions

Twelve seniors will be commissioned as second lieutenants to serve in eight different branches of the Army as representatives of Middle Tennessee State College, according to the ROTC department officials.

Official Army orders indicated the following branches are included in this group: Adjutant General Armor, Artillery, Engineer, Medical Service, Ordnance, Quartermaster and Signal.

Of the six distinguished Military Graduates, two will be awarded their commissions in the Regular Army. Cadet Colonel William J. Hickey, Jr. (economics), will be commissioned in the Regular Army Quartermaster Corps with detail to Armor for two years and will report to Fort Knox, Kentucky, on May 27, 1961.

Cadet Lt. Alex M. Holder, Jr. (mathematics), will receive his commission in the Regular Army Quartermaster Corps with detail to Artillery for two years and will report to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, on May 27.

Climaxing a four-year program of study, the military department graduates face a firm future in an unsettled world. Upon entry into the service, each commissioned Second Lieutenant will report to his branch or detail school for a period of between three to six months.

Here he will be instructed in the detailed and minute information pertaining to his selected field so as to better prepare him to meet the problems, duties, and responsibilities of his newly acquired profession.

From the particular service school attended, he will then report to his parent organization for duty. Even though assigned, he is not limited to a specific job as he may apply at any time for additional schooling in many fields. Some among these are airborne, ranger, flight, automotive, special operations, language, intelligence, and many others.

Over the course of time, diligent work, initiative and self-improvement are rewarded by additional opportunities and promotions.

The average Second Lieutenant, upon entry into the service, draws pay according to a set scale. His pay is equal to, and in many cases above, that of the average college graduate, and for comparison purposes is broken down for the first three years as follows: Single - 1st year $338.58 a month, 2nd year $416.98 a month, 3rd year $484.98 a month.

If the officer elects to attend airborne school, and after qualification is assigned to an airborne unit, he will receive an additional $110.00 a month. Married personnel also receive an addition of $17.10 to their housing allowances.

Orders received indicate other assignments and reporting dates as follows:

Johnnie R. Anderson, III (mathematics) DMG, Corps of Engineers, reports to Ft. Belvoir, Virginia, January 13, 1962.

William E. Buch, Jr. (history and political science), DMG, Armor, report to Fort Knox, Kentucky, December 6, Nile A. Duke, Jr. (health and physical education), DMG, Armor, reports Fort Knox, Kentucky, October 22.

James N. Lynch (health and physical education) DMG, Medical Service Corps, reports to Fort Sam Houston, Texas, July 26.

Ben S. Arnette (mathematics) Signal Corps, reports to Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, October 9.

Thomas S. Edmondson (industrial arts), Ordnance Corps, reports to Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland, January 14.

James O. Keathley (elementary education), Adjutant General Corps reporting date unknown.

Ralph R. Peebles, (industrial arts), Ordnance Corps, reports to Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland, October 15.

Bobby R. Raby (mathematics) Medical Service Corps, reports to Sam Houston, Texas, July 25.

Joe B. Thompson (mathematics), Ordnance Corps, reports to Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland, July 30.

Billy G. Philpott (mathematics), Artillery, reporting date unknown.

Joe W. Dickens (mathematics), Signal Corps, reports to Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, October 9.

High Schools Hold Speech Tourney

Sixteen middle Tennessee high schools, representing the second largest district in the Tennessee High School Speech and Drama League, competed in a speech tournament last month on the MTSC campus.

Lane Boutwell, director of District IV and the tournament, announced the participating schools. The 205 students represented the high schools in Franklin County, Marshall County, Tullahoma, Shelbyville, Bell Buckle, Castle Hits, Military Academy, Mt. Pleasant, Franklin, Murfreesboro, Giles County, Wartrace, Grundy County, Tracy City, Eagleville, McMinnville and St. Andrews School.

Members of the MTSC faculty served as division chairmen for the speaking events.

The one-act play contest began at eight o'clock and all other meets at nine.

"This Is Your Life" Honors Gene H. Sloan

Mr. Gene Sloan, faculty advisor for the Sidelines, thought he was on television Thursday night. He was presented a "This is Your Life" program at the Sidelines dinner.

Friends and business associates from his past greeted him at the banquet, which was held at Cook's restaurant.

After the meal and welcome by Pat Turner, the editor; Kenneth Love began the presentation of the program to the surprise of Mr. Sloan.

Among his guests were Mrs. Helen Means of Lebanon, one of his high school teachers; Mrs. Ted Moore of Lebanon, who went to school while he was basketball coach; Mr. Hugh Evans of Lebanon, agriculture teacher; Mrs. Sam Sparkes, former state editor of the Nashville Banner, and Mr. Walter Bogart, copy desk editor of the Nashville Banner.

Mrs. Sloan told of the interesting way she and her husband met, and Dr. Pittard and President Cope added their notes of praise to Mr. Sloan.

As climax of a most enjoyable evening was the presentation of a gift to Mr. Sloan from the staff.

Members attending from the editorial staff were Marguerite Batey, make-up editor; Brenda Kirk, Sandra Barrett, news editor; Bill Hunter, Louise Sullivan, Dennis Parks, Carole Sanford, Nadine King, June Vickery, and Nancy Smith.

From the business staff were Betty Caudill, business manager; Carolyn Thornton, circulation manager; Bob Kinney, Anne Turner and Porter Maxwell.

Mrs. Cope and Mrs. Pittard attended the banquet with their husbands, and Anne Sloan came with her parents.

General chairmen for the banquet were Pat Turner and Betty Caudill. Carolyn Thornton was in charge of decorations; Brenda Kirk, Louise Sullivan and Carole Sanford assisted program chairman Kenneth Love; Marguerite Batey and Nadine King acted as "Gals Friday" in general assistance.

Staff members present were awarded pins and certificates for their service.

Dr. Pittard, Dr. Keathley Attend Distant Meetings

Two MTSC education department leaders were engaged in out-of-state students driving to Lebanon.

Dr. Homer Pittard was at Arkansas A and M College at Monticello to work as a member of a committee to evaluate the student teaching program and teacher training effort on the college. He participated on the committee at the request of the American Association of College for Teacher Education.

Dean Belt S. Keathley was in Denver, Colorado, attending the annual meeting of the dean's section, counseling and guidance division, of the American Association of Counseling and Guidance.

Starks Continue Lectures On Experiences In India

Two years after their work at the University of Madras in India, Dr. and Mrs. C. N. Stark continue to receive more requests for their illustrated lecture on that country than they are able to meet.

Recently the Starks presented a Sunday evening program at the First Christian church in Murfreesboro.

This week Dr. Stark spoke at a meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association meeting of a Franklin school where his old classmate, Ewing Marshall, is principal.

On May 3, Dr. Stark scheduled to speak at the junior high school in Shelbyville.

Travelers to outer space may have to grow their own food en route, reports the May Reader's Digest. It is estimated that a space traveler will need about seven pounds of food and water per day. Since this need would make long trips impractical, scientists are studying the possibility of using sunlight to raise nutritious, fast-growing algae during flight.

MTSC Hosts TEA Meeting

Theme for the 11th annual leadership conference of the Tennessee Education Association, May 27-28, at Middle Tennessee State College will be "The Ideal Local Association."

The conference is scheduled to start at 1 p.m. Saturday and end Sunday night with an address by a representative of the National Education Association.

Superintendents and members of the State Department of Education will meet together Sunday afternoon, according to the schedule.

Attendance at the conference usually includes each system's superintendent and instructional supervisor and each local association's president, program chairman, public relations chairman and research chairman.

The theme for the meeting will be sounded Saturday when Fred Crosson, TEA research director, describes the local association as it exists and Cavit Cheshier, TEA field service director, follows with a picture of an ideal association.

Following the keynoting by Crosson and Cheshier, the conferees will divide into small groups for discussion of specific phases of local association work.

A banquet is scheduled for Saturday night.

Womack Speaks For H. Truman

Dr. Bob Womack, assistant professor of education at MTSC and outstanding authority on the War Between the States, was invited to substitute for former President Harry Truman as a speaker by the New York Association of Commerce and Industry Tuesday, May 9.

Dr. Womack was scheduled to address the Tennessee Oil Men's Association in Chattanooga at noon that same day.

The program chairman of the New York Association called Dr. Womack several weeks ago and asked him if he would take the place of the former president on their program. President Truman was to have discussed a Civil War theme.

Dr. Womack is in great demand throughout the nation as a speaker on Civil War observation programs. He is past president of the MTSC Civil War Round Table.

Dr. Dark, Dr. Brandon Attend Miami Meetings

Dr. Harris Dark of the mathematics department and Dr. Charles Brandon of the art department have returned to MTSC after participating in professional conferences at Miami Beach during the past few days.

Dr. Dark appeared on the program of the National Association of Teachers of Mathematics and Dr. Brandon attended the National Art Education Association meetings.

GUESTS APPEARING on the "This is Your Life" program for Mr. Gene Sloan include Hugh Evans, Lebanon; Mrs. Helen Means, Lebanon; Dr. Homer Pittard, MTSC; Mrs. Sloan, Walter Bogart, Nashville "Banner"; Mrs. Sam Sparkes, Nashville; Ann Sloan, his daughter; Mrs. Ted Moore, Lebanon, and President Quill Cope.

Articles Published By MTSC Writers

Tennessee's Centennial of the Civil War was the theme of the April edition of The Tennessee Teacher, articles by Dr. Bob Womack and Gene Sloan appearing in the edition.

Dr. Womack's article, "Rebels on the March," is the result of letters he collected from Civil War soldiers.

Mr. Sloan wrote "MTSC Golden Jubilee and a Plan for the Future." The article related MTSC's plans for its 50th anniversary for 1961-62. Also outlined in the article were the following programs planned for the summer of 1961:

The National Science Foundation Institute in Mathematics and Science, June 5 to August 18.

The Tennessee Bureau of Aeronautics and Civil Air Patrol workshops for two groups, June 12 to July 12.

The conference and workshop in Guidance and Counseling, June 26 to July 12.

Music and Art workshops. A special offering for the conversion of general home economics certificates to Smith-Hughes Vocational home economics certificates. The publication was devoted largely to Rutherford County, with lead stories concerning Sam Davis and his home in Smyrna.

Parker Named Chairman Of TEA College Chapter

Hilary Parker, principal of the Middle Tennessee Campus School, was elected chairman of the college chapter of the Tennessee Education Association at a Tuesday meeting. He succeeds Dr. Clarence Greever, head of the art education department.

Other officers named were Walter Chatman, vice-president, Miss Christine Vaughan, secretary-treasurer, and Dr. William Beasley, Dr. William Windham and Dr. Exum Watts, members of the executive committee.

Dr. Norman Parks is the retiring vice-president and Miss Helen Stephens the retiring secretary-treasurer.

Phi Kappa Phi Inducts Sharp

Dr. Hollie Sharpe was recently initiated into Phi Kappa Phi by the University of Tennessee. Dr. Sharpe was awarded the doctoral degree by the University in the winter convocation.

He was also honored recently by appointment as a lay member of the National Committee on Men's Work of the Church of God, with general offices in Anderson, Indiana.

He is the only Southern member of the national committee and has been named as secretary of Men's Work for the church and asked to write the monthly worship program for this organization.

Dr. Sharpe, a veteran of service with the U.S. States Army infantry, is a native of Hermitage, Tennessee. He received the B.S. and M.A. degrees from Peabody College and studied at the Indiana University before working for the doctorate at the University.

Dr. Smotherman Attends NEA Meet

Dr. Bealer Smotherman represented MTSC at the National Conference, Department of Audio-Visual Instruction, of the NEA at Miami Beach, Florida, last week.

"Outstanding event of the conference," Dr. Smotherman reported, "was a visit to the communication center of the University of Miami. In this octagonal building, which cost about a million dollars, are eight classrooms capable of accommodating 300 students each. In the center is a set of controls which make it possible for instructors to use closed circuit TV, films, film strips, opaque projectors, recordings, open TV broadcasting or recording to any or all of the adjacent rooms," Dr. Smotherman explained.

The visiting delegates, more than 3,200 audio-visual teachers, also made a tour of the Dade county program of audio-visual work. The Miami and Dade county systems use two studios throughout the day and supply audio-visual materials to 7,000 teachers in the system.

Leonidas Bell Will Lead Newman Club

Leonidas (Joe) Bell has been chosen to lead the MTSC chapter of the National Newman Club; he will be serving his second year as president of this organization.

A sophomore chemistry major, Leonidas is the editor of the newly formulated Newmanite News and also holds the office of treasurer in the Veteran's Club.

Next year's vice-president is Sue Pever, who, during 1960-61, was the club treasurer. Sue is a sophomore English major with a minor in art.

Keeping minutes again in '61-62 is Agnes Carlson, a sophomore English major, who holds membership in Alpha Psi Omega and is secretary of the Buchanan Players Drama Club.

Taking over the financial affairs is Patti Kelleher, a freshman business major who was chairman of the State Newman Club Convention, which was held this year in Murfreesboro.

To be seen busily writing letters in the fall is Judy Simpson, a freshman education major, who last semester was chosen Miss Newman Club for her outstanding service in the group.

These officers will be inducted at a formal banquet next Thursday, May 18, at which time also will be awarded the Mr. and Miss Newman Club for this semester's work.

Phillips Has Part In Five-Man Panel

Charles R. Phillips, manager of the bookstore, participated in the five-man panel discussion of departmental supplies at the National Association of College Stores' 38th Annual Convention, to be held in Miami Beach, Florida, April 28 through May 2, 1961.

The National Association of College Stores has approximately 1,100 college stores in its membership. Middle Tennessee State College has been an active member of 14 years.

The history of NACS serves to remind students that the Association has campaigned vigorously to have the college store recognized as an integral part of each college campus. To this end, a great deal has been accomplished . . . the college store has "come out" of the basement" in many cases . . . the store and its managers are accepted as requisites in the college community.

Brinton Named Editor

W. D. Brinton, Jr., MTSC senior, has been named as editor of the Tennessee Odd Fellow, the official publication of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Bill's office is at 1208 Sudekum Building, Nashville.

Brinton has also been reappointed as assistant director on the staff of the Odd Fellows United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth and will be back in New York this summer to serve his fifth year in this post.

Spring Concert Given By Choir

The MTSC Choir presented its annual Spring Concert Sunday afternoon, May 7, at four o'clock in the college auditorium.

The program will follow the choir's traditional pattern of one group of sacred music followed by a group secular in nature. This marked the end of choral activities for the school year.

The choir has during the past week made recordings of the year's work that will be available in about a month. The Varsity Choir also had made recordings of selections from the "Mikado" and "Dona Nobis Pacem" which will also be available.

The public was invited to attend this performance, which was under the direction of Neil Wright. The complete program was as follows:

- I
- O Come, Let Us Worship
Palestrina
- Psalm CXLVIII
Holst
- Hear My Prayer

RICHARD J. SCHOONMAN first appeared as the new General Nathan Bedford Forrest image at the 1961 ROTC Ball.

R. Schoonman Named Image Of General

By Jean Allman

Richard J. Schoonman has been chosen as the new "MTSC General" image. Richard is to represent the image of General Nathan Bedford Forrest.

The purpose of the "MTSC General" is to bring to MTSC good traditions and to establish a central figure on campus to serve as a rallying point for the student body.

Richard will be present at all future functions of the college to bring out better school spirit.

He made his first appearance dressed as General Forrest at the 1961 ROTC Ball.

Richard is from Quaker Hill, Connecticut, where he was graduated from New London High School. While in high school his major honors were in mathematics, dramatics and oratory.

In college he is majoring in physics and math. His minor is in German.

Since Richard has been at MTSC, he has become active in organizations such as chorus, Buchanan Players, C. C. U. N. and Forensics.

Richard was given this high honor because he seems to best represent the high standards for which General Forrest stood.

Friendliness is contagious. The trouble is, many of us wait to catch it from someone else, when we might better be giving them a chance to catch it from us.
